

The First Heir 3161

Chapter 3161

At this point, anyone could tell that something was wrong, but the problem was that this person could take down two mechas single-handedly.

People like them were hardly a match for him.

Pointing a gun at Philip, Leopard asked, "Did you do this?"

Philip raised his eyebrows and said with a chuckle, "Of course, who else?"

However, although Leopard was holding a gun in his hand, he said with a smile on his face, "Buddy, since you're so strong, why don't we work together? We can organize a battle between man and mecha. It's guaranteed to make a profit!"

Everyone's expressions changed upon hearing Leopard's suggestion!

They also put away their guns.

Philip smiled lightly and said, "Sounds good!"

Hearing that, Leopard was full of smiles with a hint of smugness. However, Philip's next words made his face go dark.

"But why should I work with you? Are you worthy?"

Leopard sneered and said, "Fine, you have guts. But let's see if your guts are tougher than my gun!"

Philip pulled Emily into the house and said, "Don't worry, I'm fine. I just had a few words with Leopard, that's all."

At this moment, a tall and slender woman suddenly walked in. Several men followed behind her.

Although they also held guns in their hands, Philip could see that they were a little weaker than Leopard's men.

"Emily, we'll go to Leopard's place for the rescue now..."

However, before she finished speaking, her eyes fell on Philip's hand that was holding Emily.

"Jerk, let go of Emily!" the woman shouted angrily.

Philip finally took a closer look at this woman, who had light makeup on her delicate face. Although she was not exactly gorgeous, she still had her charms. With her curvy figure, she was enough to be considered a first-class beauty.

Emily quickly broke free from Philip's grab and said to the woman, "Iris, you misunderstood!"

Before Emily could finish speaking, Iris shielded Emily behind her.

"Don't be afraid, Emily. With me around, no one can hurt you!"

Iris looked at Philip meaningfully and said, “Emily knows the place. Let her bring you there at night. Don’t be too late!”

This time, Iris finally left.

As Iris left, her men asked her, “Madam, what are you doing?”

Iris said with a smile, “Over the years, no man has ever touched me. He actually dared to take advantage of me. I’ll make him drink his fill tonight and let him make a fool of himself!”

Iris was very smug. Thinking of Philip’s silly antics after he got drunk, Iris almost laughed out loud. On the other hand, Emily looked at Iris’ departing back and muttered, “Iris is so strange today...”

Philip touched Emily’s head and said, “I’m starving. Is there anything to eat?”

Philip looked at the middle-aged man, and Emily’s face flushed with anger.

The man walked up to Philip and Emily. He merely took a glance at Philip before turning to Emily.

“Hehe!” A wicked gleam suddenly flashed in the man’s eyes.

“What a good-looking girl. If you take good care of me tonight, I’ll forget the fact that you almost hit my aircraft!”

As he spoke, he reached out to grab Emily.

Emily was frightened and was about to hide behind Philip. When the man saw this, he grabbed Philip’s collar.

“Get out of my way!”

However, the man could not budge Philip.

Philip narrowed his eyes and said to the man, “Didn’t you learn to be civilized and polite when you were a child?”

As he spoke, Philip grabbed the man’s hand and twisted hard.

In short, this world was much bigger than Philip imagined.

As for the powerhouses above the holy tier, Emily had no idea. After all, she was just a commoner of the underground city, and everything she knew, she heard from Iris.

Philip sighed inwardly. It seemed that he had much to learn. As for the middle floor, it was occupied by low-class people and mecha masters.

Philip and the others were now on the lowest floor, which was full of low-class people like them. Anyone with a mecha was considered superior, although those mechas were mostly old and damaged.

Those with magnetic flying aircraft were equivalent to having a supercar. In fact, this place was similar to the original world.

Philip looked around and saw some shops here, but compared to Earth, this place was equivalent to the slums.

Soon, the two arrived at Iris' bar.

At this time, the bar was full of people, and this was the only place where low-class people could vent their emotions.

Philip followed Emily in. From a distance, he could see the bright lights and hear the deafening music.

As Philip and Emily walked in, the music stopped abruptly.

Chapter 3166

Philip did not hesitate at all but picked up a glass and started drinking!

Seeing this, Young Master Curry also picked up a glass and snorted.

Philip's strength had reached a half-step to the other shore. According to Emily, he might be an eight-star talent in this world, so a few drinks posed no threat to him.

Anywhere in this world, eight-star talents were an existence that all organizations in various countries would compete for and were treated as distinguished guests. Even the speed at which Philip was drinking could not compete with the speed at which his power of the rules could break down the alcohol.

A drinking contest could be seen as comparing strengths.

Young Master Curry was only at the level of a three-star now. He was drinking his first glass now, and everyone cheered when the match began.

However, when Young Master Curry was on his third glass, he found that the speed of his alcohol breakdown had slowed down. On the other hand, not only did Philip not slow down, but he became faster. He was already on his sixth glass now.

After Young Master Curry left, Iris walked up to Philip and said, "Okay, there's no one in the way now. Let's start!"

Philip said, "Sure!"

However, to Philip's surprise, Iris did not prepare another 18 glasses this time. She took off two pieces of cloth behind her, and everyone saw two large jars of liquor!

In the two big transparent wine vats, one seemed to be filled with red wine while the other was white wine.

Iris said to Philip, "For these two liquors, one has a strong after kick while the other has a strong taste."

Philip said to Iris, "Are you asking me to choose first?"

Iris nodded.

"Since you're a guest, of course, you can choose first..."

Philip smiled and said, "It's okay. Ladies first."

Iris did not refuse. She walked up to the red wine and put an extra-large straw into it. Philip chose the other one, but

Philip immediately rushed over, picked Emily up to the side, and said, "Wait for me outside!"

After speaking, Philip rushed back to the second mecha again. It was still the same operation as the last. He punched the hatch open, dragged out the pilot, and threw him to the ground ruthlessly.

Soon, the four mechas were taken down by Philip.

Leopard gulped as he looked at Philip and said, "Uh, hey, everything is a misunderstanding!"

Although Leopard's explanation was weak, he still wanted to explain.

However, Philip did not listen at all and just said, "You don't remember the beating I gave you, huh?"

After saying this, Philip walked to the door and kicked Leopard hard on the butt. In an instant, Leopard flew out. After that, Philip turned around and went inside.

Iris looked at Philip with a look of surprise and said, "I can't believe that you're that good!"

Philip merely smiled at Iris' remark. "You and Emily can share half the star dollars for these two mechas. When he comes to pick up the other two mechas, you can transfer the other half of the star dollars to Emily."

Philip ignored Iris' compliments and started to settle the scores.

Hearing that, Iris' face darkened. She rolled her eyes and transferred some star dollars to Emily.

"What happened today was because of me. When Leopard comes back, you can take the money for the other mecha as compensation for your loss."

After saying that, Philip walked out of the dilapidated bar with Emily. Anyway, Iris had earned the star dollars for a mecha, so it should not be a loss!

Hearing this, Philip immediately pulled Emily behind him. Immediately, several shady-looking guys appeared in front of Philip and Emily. While these people snorted coldly, they surrounded Philip and Emily.

Seeing this scene, Emily snorted coldly and said, "What do you want? Let me tell you, we belong to Iris!"

Hearing this, these people laughed, "So what? Iris' bar has been demolished!"

Another man reached out and touched Emily's face. "Even if her bar wasn't demolished, she won't come to a good end after offending Young Master Curry!"

Philip grabbed the man's hand.

"Are you guys Young Master Curry's people?"

Those people laughed and said, "It's not too late for you to find out now!"
