One of the men from the Finn family snorted coldly and said, "Someone like you isn't worthy yet. Get away from me!"

That guy was full of arrogance and disdain.

When Penn's people heard this, they hurriedly laughed and left.

Philip just looked at those from the Finn family. He knew that this matter could not be settled amicably today, and he got ready to fight.

At this moment, a voice suddenly rang.

"Oh, Philip Clarke, just look at how many enemies you have!"

It was another group of people and the leader was none other than Young Master Curry.

However, the water wall could not stop the flaming chimera. In just a few seconds, the water wall shattered and vanished into nothingness.

These few seconds bought the Finn family a chance to escape. However, as the water vapor filled the air and obstructed the other party's vision, Philip used this opportunity to attack them one by one.

Screams were heard in the mist from time to time.

At this time, the large number of people became a disadvantage. They were afraid of hurting one of their own, so they dared not shoot indiscriminately.

Philip did not have that concern. He could just do as he pleased. Anyway, those in the mist were all his enemies.

At this moment, a strong wind suddenly cleared away the water vapor.

After everything returned to clarity, it turned out it was the doing of someone brought by Young Master Curry. He was a talented practitioner of the wind element. Seeing this, everyone was startled and could not react for a while.

Seeing the old man, Philip merely glanced at him without loosening his hold.

The old man said, "Philip, I know you're angry, but do you know what the price will be if you mess with these few big families from the lower floor of the underground city?"

Philip did not speak, but he knew very well that if he really made an enemy of these families, all the forces on the lower floor would undergo a reshuffle. With turmoil on the lower floor, countless innocent people like Emily would die tragically.

In the end, Philip let them go.

Philip said to them, "Listen well. If you mess with me again, I won't be merciful anymore. Remember, this warning extends to everyone!"

After speaking, Philip loosened his hold. Young Master Curry coughed violently.

No one expected this to happen. Philip listened to the old man completely because of the middle-aged man behind him.

In the previous communicator message, Philip noticed that the message about Blackwater Forest had a pattern of a dark golden cougar at the end. This pattern was the same as the photo on the dark golden card that the middle-aged man had given him.

That caught Philip's attention.

At this moment, Philip reached out and grabbed the man's hand.

"If you dare touch me, I won't mind turning you into a dead hyena!" Philip said coldly as he grabbed Hyena's wrist.

Although he knew that this was a special welcome ceremony in certain places, he did not like it. Especially since Philip did not want to join Cougar Squad at all. However, the people who were here to watch the fun applauded and cheered on Philip's words.

"Hyena, it seems that the newcomer doesn't take you seriously at all. You need to teach him a lesson!"

Hyena smiled and said, "My thoughts exactly!"

While speaking, he reached out to lift Philip high in the air, but to his surprise, Philip's feet seemed rooted to the floor. However, Hyena was all the more provoked by this.

Hyena roared, and six rays of light burst from his body!

Without exception, no one was Philip's opponent, and no one could even survive one round under Philip's hands.

"That's enough. Stop messing around. Mr. Clarke is just teasing you. Can't you see that?"

When Philip heard this voice, he also saw the middle-aged man who gave him the dark golden card.

The middle-aged man smiled at Philip and said, "Mr. Clark, please excuse them. They're just a bunch of rowdy people."

Philip flipped out of the ring and signaled to the middle-aged man that he was not offended.

This middle-aged man was quite diplomatic. Not only did his remarks remove Philip's unease, but he also elevated Philip's status and allowed his subordinates to preserve their dignity.

"Allow me to introduce myself. I'm the leader of Cougar Squad, Cougar Yorkshire. I'm a seven-star talent practitioner of the wood element."

Chapter 3206

As soon as Young Master Finn saw Philip, he looked as if he was going to eat Philip alive.

Philip just looked at him indifferently and said, "Because of me? I don't think I have that honor, do I?"

Young Master Finn's face was very gloomy. The men he brought said to him, "Young Master Finn, let's stop wasting time and just kill him. If not for him, the Finn family wouldn't have suffered such humiliation."

Hearing that, Young Master Finn snorted.

"What are you waiting for? Go ahead!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Cougar stepped out.

He looked at the Young Master Finn and said coldly, "Young Master Finn, you're stepping out of line. How dare you mess around in Cougar Squad?"

Young Master Finn looked solemn and said to Cougar, "Commander Yorkshire, you may not be aware of this, but if it wasn't for Philip Clarke, Arlene wouldn't have canceled our engagement and made me the laughingstock of the entire lower floor."

However, Cougar said with a smirk, "Is Arlene going to break up with you and marry Mr. Clarke instead?"

At Young Master Finn's command, someone else rushed in before Philip came out. However, as this man had seen Philip's skills before, he immediately retreated to the edge as soon as he entered the arena.

Similar to the previous opponent, five rays of light exploded from him.

A five-star talent practitioner!

However, although his level was stronger than the earlier guy, he died even quicker. Philip's punch instantly went through the man's body.

This time, Philip did not give others a chance to enter the life-and-death arena at all. He rushed out and grabbed hold of Young Master Finn.

"It's nothing special. I just need you to join Cougar Squad for the time being and go to Blackwater Forest."

Philip thought about it and said, "I need to think about it."

That was Cougar's objective, to get Philip to join Cougar Squad. However, Cougar knew that Philip should be more suitable to display his talents on a larger platform and a higher floor.

The underground city was realistically divided into different classes. Even if Cougar Squad was considered one of the strongest organizations on the lower floor, it could not stand a chance on the middle floor.

"Alas! What a waste of talent!" Cougar Yorkshire sighed.

Philip left after a casual chat with Cougar.

Cougar's eyes were dark and troubled as he watched Philip leave. He knew that a person like Philip would look for an opportunity to achieve greater heights no matter what.

Philip did not go far before he saw Emily and Iris running out.

They were surprised at the sight of Philip.

At this time, Emily said, "Lorna Finn? Didn't you go to North Battle District? Why are you back?"

Hearing that, the woman sneered.

"You're very well informed to know that I went to North Battle District."

Lorna smiled at Emily and said, "But you used to be a member of the Finn family too, so having some news is normal."

Philip was taken aback and looked at Emily. He did not expect Emily to have another identity, and it seemed that she ended up like this because of a special reason.

At this moment, Lorna said to Philip, "You, if you know what's good for you, come out now and don't be a nuisance!"

Philip just chuckled and walked out of the bar.

Emily kept pulling on Philip's clothes and said, "Philip, don't do anything to her. North Battle District is a battlefield between the lower and middle floors. She must be very strong if she could return alive from that place."

Lorna smiled and said to Philip, "Oh, I forgot to tell you that I'm a wood elemental practitioner too."

She seemed pretty smug about it. She picked up the big saber again as a flash of ruthlessness crossed her face.

As she was about to slash Philip with that big saber again, Cougar shouted, "Hold your attack!"

However, no one paid attention or noticed him because a ball of fire blazed from Philip's hands at this moment.

Philip clenched his fists and threw out a chimera fist. A chimera made of flames rushed toward Lorna, who still held the big saber!

That flame also burned the vines on Philip's body in an instant.

When Lorna saw the flame chimera, she was also surprised, or rather, shocked. She did not expect Philip to be so strong and also an elemental practitioner, which happened to be the fire element that counteracted her wood element too.

Lorna lashed out with her saber continuously. It was not to attack but to defend. Even so, she was engulfed by the flame chimera. If Cougar did not help her in time, she might have been burned alive.
