Chapter 3221

However, before Philip walked back, he saw Lorna with that big saber on her back again.

When she saw Philip, she walked up quickly. With her high leather boots and North Battle District's uniform, she gave off a feeling of valor and heroism.

She blocked Philip's path and said, "I heard that you want to form your own combat team and join Cougar Squad to go to Blackwater Forest."

Philip nodded and asked, "Is there a problem?"

Lorna smiled and said, "Of course, there's no problem. I just want to warn you not to drag the Finn family down when the time comes or I'll kill you without hesitation!"

While talking, Lorna deliberately touched the big saber behind her.

Philip snorted softly and said, "Don't worry. If you people from the Finn family drag your feet, I won't be merciful either!"

After that, Philip left with the food he bought.

After returning to Leopard's boxing arena, Philip divided the food among the three of them. By this time, none of them had any strength left, except to shove the food in their mouths.

With Emily's exquisite cutting ability through space, not to mention removing the armor and protective gear on the other party's body, even if she had slashed his neck, he would not have noticed it.

Seeing that Philip and his gang had made their move, the people in that team could no longer bear it and wanted to rush toward Philip and the others.

Philip patted Iris on the shoulder and said, "Make your move as soon as they get here!"

Iris nodded.

Sure enough, as Philip expected, those people really rushed at them. However, before they could get close, Iris made her move.

On the alloy floor of this test hall, several vines suddenly emerged and wrapped around these people. They were promptly trapped.

Philip patted Leopard on the shoulder and said, "If they break free, don't hesitate to blast them with your fire element!"

Seeing that all the squads were ready, Cougar said to Philip, "Come with me to get your equipment."

Philip nodded.

Equipment could be crucial in some emergencies. However, Philip wanted to choose something most suitable for the four of them. Philip was also taken aback when Cougar led them into a splendid equipment arsenal.

As far as equipment was concerned, it was more than enough to arm a small combat team.

Cougar opened the door and said to Philip, "I'll give you some leeway today. You can choose any equipment here!"

Hearing that, Philip and the other three immediately sprang into action. The other three took everything they could.

Philip only took one long spear, a handgun, and a saber. His gear was completed with armor.

Hearing Philip's words, Iris moved her hand, and a vine wrapped around Leopard's feet.

Leopard roared, and his body burst into flames. Although he was not as imposing as Philip, his move was quite eye-catching.

With Iris' control, Leopard charged at the exotic beast!

There were burning flames on his hand in the shape of a leopard.

Those who saw this scene snorted coldly and said, "That exotic beast is very strong. He's simply courting death!"

The exotic beast suddenly stood up and grabbed Leopard with its forelegs. With the powerful physique of this beast, Leopard could easily be torn to shreds. However, before the attack landed, a surprising scene appeared.

The beast's front paws could not be lifted at this time, and it could only watch helplessly as Leopard punched its head.

"What's the big deal? They just gathered a few elemental talents together. On a real battlefield, I don't believe they can take it so easy!"

After saying this, the teams that had already finished their challenges on the virtual battlefield returned to their lounges.

Back in the lounge, Philip began to explain the details of their teamwork to Emily and the others. There were two points to be exact.

One was how to protect their teammates, and the other was how to maximize the combat effectiveness of the team. However, before Philip talked for long, Cougar entered with someone.

The man behind Cougar held a few pieces of equipment and said to Philip, "This is the most cutting-edge and most powerful equipment we have in Cougar Squad. I'm giving them to you now!"

Philip merely smiled and said, "Commander Yorkshire, we didn't get first place. Aren't you afraid that the others will be unhappy by sending this equipment over so openly?"

Cougar laughed heartily and said, "Don't worry. Those rascals deserve some thrashing so that they know there are always others better than them!"

Philip said no more. Taking this opportunity, they also upgraded all

"Everyone, jump off the aircraft now!"

"Everyone, now! Quickly!" The pilot's anxious voice came from the speaker.

At this time, the door of the aircraft opened, and a strong airflow rushed into the aircraft compartment.
One by one, the members of Cougar Squad jumped out of the door.

Philip said to the other three, "Are you ready?"

Hearing Philip's question, all three nodded.

Philip suddenly stomped on the floor and made a big hole in the aircraft compartment. The four fell from the aircraft. As they were bound together, no one was left behind at all.

Philip said calmly, "Don't turn on the propeller on the armor yet. Listen to my command!"

Philip immediately said into the walkie-talkie, "Kill him. Don't let him climb up!"
However, Philip overlooked something. Emily was a kind-hearted child. Besides, she had never killed before. Thus, Emily kept shaking her head.
Philip snorted coldly. The man's purpose was obvious. If he got to the top of the tree, he would throw Emily down. However, before Philip could make his move, Iris had already done so!
The vines pulled the man down and threw him among the black humanoid creatures. However, there was a flash from a saber at this moment. In an instant, the black humanoid creature fell, and the person who fell from the tree had become a corpse, his body bitten out of shape.
Immediately after, the flash of light from the saber disappeared, and Philip saw the familiar figure of Philip patted Emily on her shoulder and said, "Be prepared to create a space barrier in front of Leopard."

Although Emily was still a little agitated, she nodded after hearing Philip's words.

Philip said to Leopard, "Leopard, listen to my command and prepare to attack!"

Then, Philip glanced at Iris, who immediately understood that he was telling her to stay on alert.

At this moment, drops of water suddenly appeared next to the people behind Lorna. As the wind element emerged from one of them, those water droplets fired at Philip and the others like bullets.

At this moment, Philip gently patted Emily on the shoulder. In an instant, those zooming water droplets seemed to disappear in thin air!

No matter how many were fired, they were absorbed by Emily's space barrier.

Lorna sneered at this scene and slashed her big saber in this direction.

Philip jumped up at this time. In everyone's astonished eyes, Philip actually grabbed Lorna's big saber with both hands.

Philip told Cougar his suspicions, and Cougar said to Philip and the others, "Go to our assembly point first!"

Philip nodded before heading to the assembly point marked on the communicator. However, before they got to the assembly point, Philip and the others were surrounded.

"Oh, so it's our elite team. Look, a member of the elite team is so scared that she's crying!"

"Haha, why don't you go home? This isn't a place people like you should come to!"

As soon as they arrived at the assembly point, those people started taunting Philip and his team.

Philip simply exhaled and said to the other three, "Just ignore them. Let's take a break"

At their silence, those people's words became harsher.

At Philip's command, his four-person team had already climbed the trees. The remaining members of Cougar Squad did not seem to believe Philip's words that much.

Philip merely shook his head at this sight.

These people's combat intellect was very bad. Even if the combat effectiveness of an individual was strong, combat intellect and teamwork must not be neglected either.

At this time, a group of black humanoid creatures suddenly appeared behind those people in Cougar Squad. This time, they did not just bite. Black silky threads sprang out of their bodies and wrapped around the Cougar Squad members.

At this scene, Philip said to his team on the walkie-talkie, "Protect yourselves. Without my order, you're not allowed to save others!"

Philip was very serious with an indisputable air. This was the experience he gathered from surviving in the wild during his Dragon Warrior days.

When there was no absolute certainty, they would only bring danger to themselves if they saved others recklessly.

To be honest, as a half-step to the other shore, nothing here was Philip's match. However, he did not want to expose his true strength so easily. Moreover, Emily and the others were still around. Besides, in Blackwater Forest, there seemed to be an existence watching them secretly in the dark, and it made Philip apprehensive.
