

The First Heir 3301

Chapter 3301

To the other guy's surprise, the dagger in his hand suddenly fell into Philip's hand.

Seeing this, the others stood on guard and quickly made defensive postures.

"Who the hell are you, kiddo?"

No ordinary person could snatch the dagger from that man's hand.

The members of this hunting party knew this person's strength best. With six-star strength plus elemental talents, this guy was considered above average even within their team.

Hence, Philip's action of snatching his dagger so quietly caught them by surprise.

After toying with the dagger for a while, Philip said, "My friend has already told you very clearly just now that we're here at Young Master Cosby's request, so our business shouldn't interfere with yours. Otherwise, this dagger will be your outcome."

Philip spoke, the knife shattered and fell to the ground with Seeing this, Philip realized what these people did and what their purpose was.

After the member of the hunting party with the scythe left, Philip saw the unknown exotic beast writhing above his head. Before this, it was sprawled above quietly, but because its tentacles were cut off now, it started writhing.

Philip also found that the severed tentacles were slowly growing back.

In the dim environment, a pair of blood-red eyes stared at him and Panther. He quickly realized that they wanted to use the abyssal creature to kill him and Panther.

Philip's eyes turned cold.

The huge, exotic abyssal beast landed on the ground and swung its tentacles at the surrounding trees, producing muffled echoes. Obviously, this beast viewed Philip and Panther as enemies and targets.

As it stomped with its hooves, the beast howled, and the cry of pain spread far away.

The hunting party lurking in the distance was stunned by this sound.

"Boss, this doesn't sound like a human being. Could they have killed the beast?"

The guy with the scythe was talking to a guy with a saber.

The guy with a saber was the one who spoke to Philip earlier. He was also the captain of this hunting party.

He looked in the direction of the exotic abyssal beast and Philip with a solemn expression.

He said, "I don't think so. You should know how powerful that tentacle monster is. Not to mention its attack, its regeneration ability alone isn't something ordinary people can handle."

With Caelum Sword clenched tightly in his hand, Philip walked deeper into the depths of the forest.
He would leave a little something for the hunting party. After all, he had to return the favor.
Philip already had a plan in mind. With the carcass of the exotic beast here, the hunting party was sure to check on the outcome. However, Philip and Panther were definitely not as familiar with the forbidden abyss compared to that hunting party.
He could only wait for the opportunity to take revenge. After all, Philip did not think that they were here just to mess with Panther and him.
Although it was a bit dim here, Philip could still see the path, albeit vaguely.
He continued to walk forward one step at a time.

The man seemed confident when he spoke. After hearing his words, Philip frowned, while Panther looked surprised and uncertain.

Although the man's words might not be completely true, Panther saw with his own eyes how the stone had turned into a blue flame when Philip knocked it down.

Philip sneered and said, "Everyone will die? That's too good for you."

He snorted coldly and approached the man with a scythe.

Seeing this, the man with a scythe started feeling a little scared. He was not afraid of Philip but feared setting off that chain explosion he spoke about. If they really fought here, they would die without their bodies intact.

Philip forced him into a corner.

Suddenly, the scythe in the man's hand began to change. He shook it lightly and a huge blade appeared. It was just like the Grim Reaper's scythe.

Philip was already on guard and knew the man must be trying to lure an exotic beast over.

Philip's counter-attack came so fast that the member of the hunting party had no time to react at all.

He pressed his sword blade across the other party's neck.

"Are you thinking of doing the same old trick by drawing a beast here?" Philip asked.

The guy wanted to say something at first, but seeing that Philip had seen through his trick, he had no way to hide it now. Even so, he was unwilling to give up.

After being a member of the hunting party in the forbidden abyss for so long, it was impossible for him to walk around here freely if he had no means at all.

"Don't think that you can threaten me. You have no idea what I just did. At worst, we'll die here together."

At this time, a woman walked out. Her face was stern with murderous air.

Hearing her words, the boss nodded and said, "I'm afraid he's in trouble."

“Let’s see what’s happening.”

The group of six headed in the direction of the devouring beast, but when they arrived, they discovered something astounding.

The devouring beast was out of its lair, its round body covered with purple lines. Its jaws were wide open, and Old Siete was hanging right in front of it.

Seeing this scene, the six members of the hunting party were dumbfounded. However, no one dared to make a sound for fear of harming Old Siete.

The boss of the hunting party looked grave.

“You probably don’t know that the abyss golden Beetles live in the depths of this forbidden abyss, a place where even our hunting party dare not enter.”

Philip snorted coldly and said, “Do you think you have a choice?”

Philip spoke to the captain bluntly.

No matter what the captain was up to or how dangerous he thought that place was, Philip would not give him the right to refuse.

Of course, if they did not care about Old Siete’s life, everything would be naught.

“This is no joking matter. The danger there is beyond your imagination, and you can only find the abyss golden beetles after entering the forbidden fortress.”

Hearing that, Philip felt that he had to go there.

Philip felt quite emotional at the sight of this fortress because the style was similar to the fortresses in his original world. However, it looked very old and dilapidated now.

Only a small section still retained its complete shape.

“We’ve reached the deepest part of the forbidden abyss now. Once we pass through this fortress, we’ll have completely entered the abyss. It’s a passage connecting us to another world, but I don’t think we can use it anymore.”

Hearing the captain’s explanation, Philip simply nodded.

In this place, he could sense a different atmosphere.

That should be the abyss passage connected to another world mentioned by the captain.

Before they entered this huge fortress, Philip had already sensed from the outside that there should be many powerful exotic abyssal beasts inside.

At this moment, everyone from the hunting party followed Philip and rushed into the fortress.

Those lizard men gave chase. However, they obviously seemed more frantic now as if they were afraid that Philip and the others would enter the fortress.

Seeing this, the hunting party ran faster.

Suddenly, a space gate appeared in the sky.

Philip narrowed his eyes slightly upon seeing this gate.
