

The First Heir 3481

Chapter 3481

It was the swordsman's turn to be dumbfounded. His mind exploded as his body shook violently.

He seemed to have thought of something and asked hoarsely, "Are you saying that the Heroes Conference hasn't started yet? Are you a new batch of participants?"

Laurie nodded. Of course, she was in the new batch of participants.

"Impossible. This can't be real. Have I been living in an illusion for so many years?"

The swordsman dropped his sword to the ground and put his head in his hands, unable to believe what he had just heard.

At this time, Philip drifted back.

He whispered into Laurie's ear, "You're really amazing to have subdued this man with just a few words."

Laurie naturally heard the irony in Philip's tone, but she frowned. "Be serious! This person is probably a participant in the previous Heroes Conference and never came out."

the two about the Heroes his story, Philip became more and more never went out at this should be

But after fighting so many times, I didn't expect that everything aloof look on his face, but Philip knew that this swordsman was most like ruined for such a blow, his mindset was already unstable. It was impossible for him to advance said to Laurie, "Everything is because of that tower. We must stopping for a while in the Devil's Courtyard, Philip was ready to go out.

the two of them could go out, the swordsman said, "The Heroes Conference is just a place to deceive people. This isn't the real Heroes voice soared into the sky with a trace of sadness and must have some purpose behind them, also seemed to have some reasons for being here, but since

Chapter 3482

Before the two of them got too far, Philip suddenly heard a man's voice.

"Stop!"

Philip turned back and found a man standing behind him. The man's face was fleshy and ferocious looking with no trace of friendliness at all.

He stared at Philip and said, "Everyone is asking you about the situation in the Devil's Courtyard, but you're acting all high and mighty. We're asking you because we think highly of you. Do you have to be so pretentious?"

He was not polite at all, and Philip narrowed his eyes as a chill flashed across his face.

even started yet, and this place was already packed with a mix the people who held the moment, a voice suddenly rang out.

was an old man with a kind face who Heroes Conference has not started yet, it's my fault

he waved his hand, and the a towering building emerged. This building glowed with many lights, but Philip could see clearly that these were all audition... No matter which level of difficulty you're assigned to, you must that, everyone was taken aback for a moment. No one expected such a complicated procedure to in the Devil's Courtyard all his life and had not even participated spine. He knew that the so-called reward after getting the ranking would definitely not be

Chapter 3483

Everyone heard his question clearly.

The old man waved his hand lightly, and all the kindness on his face was wiped away in an instant. "That's not too difficult to handle."

The old man snapped his fingers. A ray of lightning flashed from the towering building and struck the man with a ferocious face.

The man screamed.

The electric current stuck to his body and pulled him into the clouds.

The old man looked at everyone and said, "If there's anyone else like him, I don't mind inviting you to be guests in the prison of the Heroes Conference. But don't blame me for not reminding you. If you enter the prison, don't dream of ever leaving for the rest of your life."

Hearing that, everyone fell silent.

iron-handed method, no one dared to pose any objections. Besides, some smart people had discovered many people lying in eyes fell on

Philip

and said, "Sir, we have prepared a room for everyone at the Heroes Conference. Why don't kind smile on his face appeared again, but everyone knew that this old man was not man. He was not just targeting Philip see what sort of rooms the Heroes Conference has prepared old man to the

if Philip wanted to refuse, he had no way of doing so. He was on the other party's territory, after all. An outsider like him could for the

to practice his technique. There was nothing special about the room, but there was an

The First Heir

Chapter 3484

Philip finally realized that this place was already full of people, but unlike the wandering warriors outside, the people here were far superior in terms of demeanor, presence, and practice level.

He frowned as he looked around. There was no sign of Laurie.

As he wondered, he heard someone saying, "Everyone present here today is about to enter the Devil's Courtyard. This will be your battle arena."

Philip jolted slightly. He observed the others and found that their practice level was relatively high, and only these people were selected to enter the Devil's Courtyard.

Was this done intentionally by the people behind the scenes?

After hearing that the Devil's Courtyard was their battle arena, these arrogant people felt smug about it because in their opinion, this was a symbol of status and advanced practice level.

However, Philip shook his head. He knew that the Devil's Courtyard was not an easy place to handle. Moreover, they were given special attention, which already indicated a problem.

have five minutes to get ready before you enter anyone do

party was intentionally trying to invoke and a door appeared behind is the entrance to the Devil's Courtyard. Everyone, flatly as if he was sending with this person's face but said nothing. Although he Devil's Courtyard again, it was no longer the gloomy scene space, Philip knew that this was also realized that only the tower was the unique entity in this place. No matter how many individual spaces were created, as long as he found a token on

The First Heir

Chapter 3485

As soon as the words were spoken, there was the sound of wild animals approaching from a distance.

When Philip saw this scene, he knew very well that the purpose was to separate the contestants and prevent them from joining forces.

However, these beasts were unable to stop talent practitioners. Sure enough, elemental practitioners immediately confronted the tens of thousands of beasts.

Metal, wood, water, fire, and earth...

All the practitioners with different elemental powers launched their strongest attacks. However, Philip chose to dodge. While these people were attacking, he took this opportunity to run far away.

"Some people are scared sh*tless by a few beasts and chose to run away. You guys are a disgrace to practitioners!" At this moment, someone still had the time to mock people like Philip who chose to run.

in the next second because those beasts actually swallowed them without any they were not swallowed literally but lost in the endless beast stampede. There was that easy to take on the Devil's Courtyard.

and quickly got rid of them. Others did not take much effort to

to have carved out their one who was like the met before and guessed that these beasts were probably looked up at the tower in the emitted from that tower. No one else noticed this he could leave, the ground started shaking.

They seemed to guess, so he made

The First Heir

Chapter 3486

It was someone who entered this place with him and seemed very powerful. He attacked Philip with a deadly move. And, he left no chance at all.

Seeing this person's approach, Philip moved abruptly.

Flames raged all over his body, and Caelum Sword appeared in his hand. The flaming Caelum Sword stabbed that man.

That person was not to be outdone either. Countless patterns suddenly appeared on his face, and his energy seemed to increase several times. Although his energy surged, his movements attracted countless monsters around him.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Philip rushed forward in front of that person.

Caelum Sword was stabbed forcefully into the other party's stomach before Philip disappeared in a flash again. He did not want to be the target of so many monsters.

Meanwhile, the surrounding battles were in a tragic state. Many participants of the Heroes Conference fell. people died, more and more monsters appeared in the Devil's Courtyard. This seemed to into monsters after their deaths appeared delirious now. Just like the swordsman got closer tower's resistance toward him got stronger. Moreover, this tower seemed to have a defense mechanism, which was to control the various newly-created

Philip's mind raced.

would that mean that thought, before he put it into action, he vaguely saw some unidentified creatures flying out

Bat people!

slightly. They were similar to that bloodsucker he their energy fluctuations, they were far stronger than that vampire. Moreover, their goal was very clear.

They were aimed right at

Chapter 3487

Philip watched helplessly at these manipulated puppets.

Cruelty seemed to be the only concept in the Devil's Courtyard. No one knew exactly how many people were buried in the Devil's Courtyard, but judging from the current scale, it was probably not only the participants of the Heroes Conference who were turned into puppets.

As Philip got closer, the bat people's attacks became more savage. While attacking with soundwaves, they slashed Philip with sharp blades. However, they were no match for Philip.

Caelum Sword's sword energy was as overwhelming as the sun and stars. Every time its sword energy surged, a burst of light flashed like lightning.

The fierce sword energy tore those bat people apart.

One by one, the bat people fell and turned into puddles of blood before disappearing into the ground. At the same time, the devastating battles continued.

However, everyone realized by now that they could not fight these creatures individually. They had to join forces.

Small teams started putting up a fight without delay.

At this time, no one cared if they could get tokens or anything else. This swarming attack rendered them unable to think at all.

There were many tokens on the ground. As long as they could hang on, they would definitely pass. However, seeing this endless attack, no one had any confidence now because their energy was constantly being drained.

No one even bothered to look at Philip as he approached the tower.

sounded. It was a sound from of dizziness at this sound. Other scenes people saw

saw a vast senses at this moment. The Multidew Herb was no ordinary herb. It was simply impossible to see continued, but it could no longer people were still immersed in the

this, Philip suddenly yelled, shout overwhelmed the sound of the practically break stones back to their senses and noticed that Philip that man. What is he and knows that anxious because he noticed a and the weapons in their hands and the armor on their bodies were already stained the power surging from them, Philip knew that each of them had the strength of seven stars. Such a strong team with strict you want to pass the test, come and destroy this tower with me!" Philip's voice reached if the tower was not

The First Heir

Chapter 3488

Flames exploded from Philip's body, and the scorching temperature spread to all directions. He knew that now was not the time to conceal his strength.

Everyone had to work as one for a chance to destroy the tower. However, just because he thought this way did not mean everyone shared his thoughts.

Some people dared to rush forward while others stood by to watch the progress, simply waiting to reap the rewards. Of course, Philip noticed them.

However, it did not occur to Philip that some people would sneak an attack. Moreover, the target was not the warriors controlled by the tower.

They wanted to make a move against the participants of the Heroes Conference.

"There's a sneak attack!" The moment they clashed with those warriors, someone discovered this issue and quickly shouted for others to watch out.

However, the warriors were too strong. Even if the elemental practitioners fought with all their might, they could not fight the warriors that came at them like a tide. This was even more brutal than the earlier beast stampede.

first eliminate these know that you're very strong, but this has nothing to do with you.

joined forces due to the resistance by participants approaching them, the leader stepped forward immediately. However, Philip merely snorted at arms turned into a chimera claw and swiped through that person. After Philip's claw pierced through that man's body, he also was dumbfounded at this a powerful elemental ability could achieve trump card, he had

who wanted to make a fortune by sneaking

a

The First Heir

Chapter 3489

The fire element gathered on Caelum Sword, which rushed toward those people like a fire dragon. Even the ice spikes in the sky had evaporated. After all, Philip's fire element was level 5S.

This was not something ordinary people could possess, but the other party still wanted to resist Philip's attack at this time.

Walls made of earth emerged from the ground, but Caelum Sword destroyed them.

With devastating power, Caelum Sword engulfed those people. When Caelum Sword returned to Philip, those people who wanted to make a fortune had been turned into ashes.

Others who were fighting against the warriors now had a certain understanding of Philip's strength. The evil in their nature sprouted again.

If Philip was really allowed to destroy the tower and enter the real Heroes Conference, the first place would never be theirs.

a decision. No matter what, Philip must not walk out of the Devil's was the true test of the Devil's Courtyard. The human nature that surfaced in the face to fight the warriors now, everyone had reached a they would work together to get rid of him. However, their thinking was too simple. Even with all their combined efforts, they were no match for those resurrected practically undead. Moreover, they regarded fighting for a while, they would simply devour the creatures around consumption, but the energy they consumed should be the

in mind, Philip rushed toward a warrior, but he over this warrior nimbly and stepped on his shoulders with two feet, causing the warrior right hand became a claw and grabbed the warrior's head. Surges of life energy to drive out that

Chapter 3490

Sure enough, following Philip's method, everyone quickly wiped out these warriors.

With this threat, other creatures in the Devil's Courtyard dared not approach them either.

Philip said softly, "Everyone, if my guess is correct, as long as we destroy the tower now, we should be considered to have completed the test!"

Philip did not elaborate further, but everyone understood that after passing the Devil's Courtyard, they would be eligible to participate in the real Heroes Conference “Do we still have to get the tokens per the instructions?” Someone started to take the tokens on the ground, and upon hearing that, everyone followed suit.

Philip was no exception. However, just when he bent down to get the tokens, he felt a sense of foreboding behind him.

With Caelum Sword in his hand, Philip turned sharply.

Clang!

Philip’s Caelum Sword

you doing?” Philip frowned eyes at Philip, and the people around him also had blame yourself for being too strong. We’re not sure we can beat you in the real everyone around saw the kind intention to destroy the tower and let everyone regard evil of human nature was the same had made their intentions clear, there was time, he used

Philip’s arms burned

this scene, everyone was