

The First Heir 3491

Chapter 3491

To their surprise, when the earth elemental practitioner made his move, gusts of winds blew toward Philip.

A wind elemental practitioner had made a move too.

Many strong contenders could be found among these people. After all, it was not so easy to survive those warriors with the strength equivalent to a seven-star powerhouse.

Although it was Philip who discovered the weakness of these warriors, the short fight allowed them to recognize their gap in strength. They consumed a lot of energy too.

Philip's arms suddenly grew bigger and longer, his body swelled, and the chimera's claws appeared again.

However, he was not aiming for a precise attack this time. He swiped out with his chimera claws. He wanted to disrupt their formation.

Vines promptly grew out of the ground.

The vines crept over those people as soon as they appeared, obviously done by Philip too.

The other party reacted quickly, leaping high with a light jump, avoiding the vines and chimera's claws. Although the scorching temperature made them feel a little uncomfortable, there was no harm.

moment, their counter-attack also were launched at Philip. Wooden stakes emerged from the ground to this was done by a wood elemental practitioner. If he allowed these wooden stakes to surround him,

Philip did not leave the area. Under Philip's control, temperature soared with a hint of a scorching flaming chimeras formed by Philip crashed into the surroundings. But, in everyone's opinion, this was merely the last and wind attacks raged in this area. Raindrops

Philip

one hand on the fire gradually died

this area weakening, everyone can't take it anymore. Let's

the body of

was the Caelum

The First Heir

Chapter 3492

At this moment, everyone suddenly turned around and realized that Philip had laid down a larger area full of wood elements outside.

He had gathered everyone together and trapped them in this area.

“That guy has escaped!”

Everyone wanted to turn around and attack Philip, but it was too late. The protruding spikes on the ground bulged up, and loose stones were shrouded by earth elements in the shape of cannonballs.

Amid everyone’s surprised exclamations, the stones flew up. No matter how quickly a person could react, there was no chance of survival under such an indiscriminate attack.

Philip moved swiftly and left no one any chance once the attack began.

His attack was a devastating blow to them because no one expected Philip to still have such strength, and he was not just a dual-element practitioner. His mastery over the earth element was very good too. Besides, everyone also realized how Philip got out of the trap.

The rules of space!

rules of space would be unable to use this method to escape

that Philip was even more difficult to deal with something surprising happened at this then, let me give you a one could see chance to continue participating in the Heroes Conference... If you kill three number of spots is limited, and everything will end once everyone in the first place, Philip simply used this ruthless method to nature was found that the identities of these people were not

royal family,

all members of

he might as well kill them. He did not want to leave

The First Heir

Chapter 3493

In the end, Philip used his fire element to ignite the wood. He also used the rules of space to hide far away.

After all these people were dealt with, he would head to the tower. Everyone discovered the problem at this time and knew that Philip could not hold on much longer.

Their first thought was to get out of this area, but to their surprise, after they destroyed the burning stakes, what awaited them was a large number of creatures from the Devil's Courtyard.

Almost instantly, they were overwhelmed by the creatures of the Devil's Courtyard.

Philip narrowed his eyes from a distance before heading to the tower. No one could stop or threaten him now.

However, before he landed on the high tower, he heard a voice.

"Philip Clarke, you may stop. You're the only one left in the Devil's Courtyard now!"

that the creatures in the Devil's Courtyard

old man was looking at Philip

he said that, the old man still had the first place, I wouldn't have done that... Forget it, I

that, the old man

said, "Although you've passed this level, you must know

Philip frowned.

said, "Are you trying to Caelum Sword in his hand, and the old man did not doubt that if he really threatened him, Philip would kill him his territory, and Philip did not have kill me right away?" The old man's smile disappeared as a chill party was a ruthless person. However, Philip was

Chapter 3494

After Philip left the Devil's Courtyard, he saw a huge grandstand in front of him.

A ring stood in the middle of the stands. The old man was also in the stands.

Lights flashed on the stands, and people stepped out of the lights one after another.

Presumably, these should be people who had passed the test and had the right to participate in the real Heroes Conference.

At this time, Philip also saw Laurie and Dion. However, they were far away, and he had no way to greet them.

Meanwhile, all sorts of people started appearing around Philip.

“I didn’t expect that we were so lucky to be assigned to the easiest place!”

“Right? Our qualification to participate in the real Heroes Conference is like a stroll in the park.”

down

people next to him sat down inwardly that something might be waiting for them later. It was too early for it was obviously not people from the ancient dragon royal family, the fire phoenix royal

a royal family that he had never seen

Conference would attract so many who should be here had arrived. Several people stood beside the old man, and the woman from before

looking forward

Although there was

what the rules of the Heroes Conference

the lights

man walked to the center and said loudly, “Everyone present is an elite, and you’re all fortunate to have seen the real

want to

Chapter 3495

Seeing this, Philip frowned.

If it was really for the sake of fairness, everyone should just be assigned to the Devil’s Courtyard.

Why do this instead?

There must be an ulterior motive behind this Heroes Conference.

When the lightning passed, everyone realized that Philip was the only one who did not come down from the stands. This also meant that only Philip walked out of the Devil’s Courtyard alive.

However, this point alone made everyone look at Philip strangely.

When these people who had gone through the lightning session returned to the stands, several groups of strangers walked in. These strangers had no royal crests on them and seemed to have appeared out of thin air.

Someone could not help asking, "Who are they? I don't think they went through the test."

just glanced at the person who spoke without a

a person among the group

his face. He held a spear in his hand, and his pierced through the Court! We were invited to participate in the Heroes Conference. If anyone is unhappy nine rays of light suddenly burst nine rays reflected off the armor of the heavenly general, making him look dazzling. There was no energy shield on him, but his Everyone gasped.

met

there to be happy about? Didn't you hear him? He's going to take part in the Heroes Conference Chatters broke out.

walked out of the Devil's Courtyard alive, was enough of practically dashed all their hopes for the Heroes Conference, not to mention that there were another two groups of but did not dare to make a move, everyone knew that the other two groups of people were not easy to deal

Chapter 3496

"Take out your tokens and you'll find the order of your fights."

At the old man's command, everyone took out their tokens. When three tokens were combined, a number appeared.

Philip did the same, and the number that appeared was one.

He smiled wryly before he jumped lightly onto the ring. He did not expect to be the first contestant.

Seeing this scene, the old man frowned slightly. The only person who walked out of the Devil's Courtyard alive was Philip.

The old man was more or less aware of his strength. No matter who Philip faced, it would be unfair.

The person up against Philip did not step forward.

the special circumstances of contestant Philip Clarke, I'd like to ask one of the three parties to select a person to that Philip was the only one who survived

Silence fell.

have to deal with these specially invited guests in his me face the strongest contestant in the Devil's Courtyard!" A person suddenly jumped out from a party whole body was covered by a black cloak, and he wore a the other party with narrowed eyes and said, "I'm Philip Clarke. May finished speaking, crap. If you defeat me, I'll introduce myself burst of black light shot

the stands said, "Philip dude, watch out. He's a member of the diabolic dodged the light from the cloak and looked up at the stands at a young man had an upright and chiseled

Chapter 3497

"Not bad, he's actually an eight-star practitioner. It seems that I need to take this more seriously."

The diabolic cultist stopped holding back and flashed around the arena. Every time he moved to a new position, he would leave behind a figure like a clone.

At this time, Philip could not tell which figure was his true body.

A burst of arrogant laughter sounded. "Kid, go to hell!"

All the clones moved, and bursts of light shot out from under their cloaks with gray smoke. The intensive attacks made it impossible for Philip to hide.

Sword energy lashed continuously. Although it could withstand the smoke temporarily, the sword energy would be corroded very quickly.

The skill of this diabolic cultist was very weird, something Philip had never encountered before. Philip's defense seemed to be getting weaker, and the smoke almost covered Philip several times.

could tell that Philip was at the end of his cultist appeared in the corner nothing to brag about. I think you were just lucky to walk out of the Devil's finished speaking, Philip disappeared from the

the stands, the heavenly general people around him, "It seems that this member of the diabolic cult is dead.
in the ground instead. His body had turned into gravel in of the earth element spread all over Philip's body was exactly like the earth under his feet. Many spikes suddenly appeared into the sky.
after him into the air, and Philip appeared at Swoosh!
Sword cut the diabolic
other members of the diabolic

Chapter 3498

Philip's match was a good start for everyone.

After all, he was up against one of the three invited parties, while the participants of the Heroes Conference could be considered the weaker party.

Philip's battle greatly motivated them. He did not remain in the stands but walked slowly to the young man who warned him earlier.

"Thank you for your help just now."

Philip's voice was soft and slow. He had a smile on his face.

need to thank me. He wasn't your match in the first Conlay's expression, Philip knew that he was kind but aloof.

me." Conlay suddenly added, but his eyes

we meet each other, stand and sat down. At this time, a new match had begun in the arena. Or rather, a new round of life and death

Dion had seen Philip's performance just now. More indescribable feelings for Philip welled up in this world, it was the survival of matter where and when, only the strong would arouse respect from others. Of course, some things were of the participants who could attend and enter the real Heroes Conference for those practitioners without elemental talents, it was no easy feat getting to

The First Heir

Chapter 3499

The old man announced, "To increase the level of difficulty for everyone, we'll include some special props in the second round."

Several stone pillars suddenly emerged from the ground, and lightning flashed on the stone pillars.

Seeing this scene, everyone was taken aback for a moment. Of course, this did not include the people from the three major forces, who seemed used to such scenes. However, members from various royal families frowned at this scene.

They had experienced one round of lightning strikes earlier, so when they saw these stone pillars now, they could not help but feel a little apprehensive.

"Philip Clarke!" The old man suddenly called out Philip's name.

"The second round will start with you again. Do you have any objections?"

Of course, Philip had no objection. Even if he did, the old man might not listen to his opinion.

However, to his surprise, the old man who had always emphasized fairness said, "The heavenly general of the ancient Heavenly Court, may I ask if you'd like to send someone for this match?"

Philip frowned.

the fairness

one fighting against the three major factions. This was obviously targeted unfair to do so,"

said to the old man, "I general chuckled. "Who do you think you are? How dare you steal our heavenly general said coldly, "Felix Lou, you're up against Philip Clarke. I want the heavenly general's expression, Felix jumped onto the many years and understood that the heavenly general was interested in recruiting such a situation before, and it was also the first time he had seen someone at Felix. "As I said, I want to fight him the armor on his body suddenly dazzled brightly. He swung his saber and slashed, but to everyone's surprise, Felix did not even Boom!

the blade collided with

but the shadow of a green ox

Roar!

Felix yelled.

to swell, and his muscles were like

The First Heir

Chapter 3500

It was not over yet. Felix underwent another transformation, and his head was replaced by an ox's head.

At this time, he turned into a monster with a human body and an ox head.

Felix's every attack could set off waves, and the wind could practically set off a storm. The power of his strength was pretty obvious.

Seeing this, Philip put away his Caelum Sword.

His fighting intent was sparked by Felix, and he turned into a chimera giant. Felix was not the only one who could do this.

Philip wanted to see who was stronger between the two, him or Felix.

In everyone's surprised gazes, Philip began to grow bigger.

Seeing this, Felix's eyes flashed with a strong fighting spirit.

you to be able to do this thought that Philip would have the four arms of

they were scratching unbreakable iron on wrestled just like that. The ground at their feet sank flew to in the stands got upset by this.

moment, something

not help looking around, wanting to see who heavenly general's hand suddenly stabbed toward the arena. The spear landed right

a noticeable indentation on Felix's saw this and stopped the fight

I have to acknowledge your strength. If you're willing to join my ranks today, I guarantee that you'll his head, and his figure returned to normal. "Thank you for your kindness, Heavenly General, but I'm not interested in the