

The First Heir 3561

Chapter 3561

Philip realized that Conlay was standing behind him with a pale face.

He turned to him and said, "Don't think that this is cruel. If I had fallen into his hands, I wouldn't fare any better."

Philip did this because he was well aware of this. Under this torture, the heavenly general finally succumbed.

"Put me down, let me have a good meal, and I'll tell you everything..."

The heavenly general finally gave in.

His face was full of tears, snot, and spit. However, he could not care less now. He just wanted Philip to kill him quickly. He did not want to go through such torture anymore.

"Tell me the secret first. I promise that you'll have a good meal," Philip looked at the heavenly general and said blandly.

Looking at the heavenly general's dead body on the ground, Philip did not know what to say.

After hearing the heavenly general's words, Conlay's face changed drastically.

“The Arcane Ocean?! I’ve heard about that place from my teacher. It’s rumored to be the cemetery of the mighty beings! According to legend, it’s good enough if one out of ten mighty beings can walk out alive once they enter.”

Philip frowned hearing this.

No wonder the heavenly general said he could not guarantee that Philip could walk out alive. However, he had to go to that place if he wanted to find his mother’s whereabouts, no matter if the heavenly general spoke the truth.

Another question arose in Philip’s mind.

Who was Conlay’s teacher?

However, they had to determine the assembly point in advance. Everyone would head in that direction.

Conlay envisioned this plan in his mind. It was feasible because now that the fire phoenix royal family had surrounded the oasis, they would not have such a high level of defense at this central point.

However, once the battle started, the scattered army of the fire phoenix royal family would definitely approach this side immediately.

Conlay shared his thoughts with Philip.

Philip smiled and said, "Since the fire phoenix general is here, they'll definitely head this way, but what if he's dead? Without a commander, what do you think the fire phoenix battalion will do?"

Conlay said in surprise, "Are you saying that you'll get rid of the fire phoenix general?"

Philip nodded.

Chapter 3564

Philip dared to fight the fire phoenix general so confidently because not only did he now have the power of the source of life, but he also vaguely felt that he was about to reach the next level of practice.

He was now lacking the opportunity to break through that barrier.

The fire phoenix general happened to be his opportunity.

After leaving the exit of the floating city and swimming into the icy water, Philip suddenly felt a slight fluctuation from something underwater. However, Philip had no intention of investigating now. The two major issues had not been resolved yet.

No matter what, he had to get rid of the fire phoenix royal family's battalion from the oasis first.

Finally, he emerged from the lake. At this moment, many members of the fire phoenix royal family's battalion were stationed around the oasis.

A person appeared by the lake. It was the quartermaster of the fire phoenix royal family.

Those flames turned into one fire phoenix after another.

Philip smiled and also burst into flames. Countless flame chimeras charged at those fire phoenixes.

He stomped on the ground, and earth dragons formed by earth elements lifted those flame chimeras into the air. With the help of the earth dragons, the flame chimeras destroyed the fire phoenixes without waiting for them to fall.

The fire phoenixes were very fast, but after being intercepted in mid-air like this, they could not exert their full strength no matter how powerful they were.

Seeing this scene, the fire phoenix general's eyes turned cold.

He fully drew back the bow in his hand, and a powerful suction hauled all the fired phoenixes back.

On top of that, the flame chimeras fighting with the fire phoenixes were pulled closer too. Then, a huge flaming spear appeared in front of him.

Philip was taken aback by this sight.

This time, the fire phoenix general's target was the sword light formed by the chimera sword formation that was launched with the flaming spear.

However, Philip finally moved. He stepped on the river of swords with the Caelum Sword in his hand and charged at the shadow.

Following his movements, the sword river surged. With every step, sword energy formed under Philip's feet.

The sword energy would turn into swords again and merge into the sword river.

Finally, Philip's Caelum Sword nudged the flaming spear. The shadow with the spear in hand could no longer advance an inch.

Philip looked up to the sky and laughed. At this time, the river of swords entered Philip's body. His Caelum Sword hummed continuously and broke the flaming spear.

Seeing this scene, the fire phoenix general's second attack was ready to launch. However, to his surprise, the chimera sword formation was not just the huge sword in the sky.

Philip had long noticed this. If the people of the floating city did not fight back, the fate that awaited them would be annihilation.

His plan now was to help the floating city get rid of the fire phoenix royal family’s pursuit in a different form.

Conlay dashed out at this time.

He walked to Philip’s side and said with a smile, “Philip, it’s all thanks to you this time. If not, our counterattack wouldn’t have been so successful.”

Philip did not smile but asked Conlay seriously, “What’s your plan for the next step? Don’t tell me you don’t know that the fire phoenix royal family will be launching a full-scale attack on you next.”

Conlay sighed. He had led the floating city to deal with the fire phoenix royal family for so long.

How could he not know what the fire phoenix royal family was thinking?

“The truth is they just want to kill me. After all, I’m still the ninth prince of the fire phoenix royal family... Although I’ve defected, some people just want to pull the grass by its roots.”

Philip stared at Conlay.

Philip's and Conlay's outrageous behavior had certainly caught the attention of the fire phoenix royal family.

Although this method was conspicuous, to Philip and Conlay's surprise, not only did the fire phoenix royal family not behave differently, but they even opened the door and allowed them to enter the fire phoenix royal family's imperial city.

All the members of the fire phoenix royal family simply looked at Philip and Conlay.

Along the way, Philip was poised to fight and did not expect this situation at all.

Entering the imperial city again and looking at the banners of the fire phoenix royal family, Conlay sighed. It had been a long time since he was last back in the imperial city.

At first, he planned to make a big fuss with Philip here, but seeing the familiar streets, buildings, and scenery, he could no longer arouse such emotions. This was his home, and he was the ninth prince.

The streets were full of people from the fire phoenix royal family's battalion. Judging from this situation, they seemed to be waiting to welcome some important people.

Conlay nodded.

"Now, the imperial city is almost completely controlled by the people of the Great Preceptor. They hold no grudges against us, and we've even done them a small favor."

Hearing that, Philip merely nodded. However, he did not believe that the fire phoenix general's faction would let him and Conlay go.

Amid the cheering crowd, Philip heard them shouting, "Phoenix Tribulation, Phoenix Tribulation!"

A hint of reminiscence crossed Conlay's eyes.

He said to Philip, "I forgot all about the Phoenix Tribulation..."

Seeing Philip's bewilderment, Conlay explained to Philip what the Phoenix Tribulation meant.

It was a special rite circulated in the fire phoenix royal family a long time ago. Every member of the fire phoenix royal family, or rather, a young adult under the age of 20, must go through this stage before they could officially evolve into members of the fire phoenix royal family.

Conlay said, "Everything will not start until after the Phoenix Tribulation, so we probably need to wait for a day or so."

Hearing that, Philip nodded before he suddenly remembered the matter of the Multidew Herb.

"By the way, is there any place in the imperial city that sells special herbs?"

Hearing Philip's question, Conlay asked in wonder, "Didn't you go to Blossoms Valley earlier? What couldn't you find there? Why would you want to buy herbs in the imperial city of the fire phoenix royal family?"

Philip sighed and told Conlay about what happened in Blossoms Valley.

Conlay was shocked. He never expected such a thing to happen in the territory of the fire phoenix royal family.
