

The First Heir 3582

Chapter 3582

Philip's movements were fast, and the fleet of the ancient Heavenly Court was simply no match.

The ancient Heavenly Court sent so many fleets to intimidate the fire phoenix royal family. However, the current fire phoenix royal family had had a change of leadership now.

With Conlay's personality, the fire phoenix royal family directly confronted the ancient Heavenly Court.

If Philip had not appeared, the scale of the battle would have probably continued to escalate.

Philip deftly jumped among the fleet. With his movements, every time he landed, an aircraft would fall.

The woman on the hoatzin chased after Philip, now only relying on the green wind element shrouding her whole body.

Heavenly Court's fleet could hardly fight back, she no match for Philip. The fleets built with modern technology could not even lock

I feel as if I'm playing with children." Philip kept taunting the the ground, and a cloud of dust billowed. He did that to lure away all the fleet and people of the ancient Heavenly for large-scale combat, and Philip wanted to give Conlay time to develop. Besides, with him!" the woman shouted

heading to the desert oasis, the woman yelled loudly and chased

he kept turning around and tossing fleets finally locked their targets on Philip were launched at very thick smoke and dust, Philip finally reached the lake in the desert oasis. Standing by the lake, he turned around slowly. He was waiting for the fleet of the ancient Heavenly