

The First Heir 3583

Chapter 3583

A strong gust of wind swirled on her body. Unlike the hurricane earlier, this one was much stronger than the previous one.

With the appearance of this hurricane, the surrounding air seemed to evaporate and turn into a vacuum.

At this moment, Philip saw that the fleet of the ancient Heavenly Court and those golden armored soldiers had arrived.

He smiled and said to the woman, "I've been meaning to ask you one question. How many people with your strength are there in the ancient Heavenly Court?"

Hearing Philip's question, the woman sneered and said, "Why? Are you afraid?"

"I can tell you that there are many people with my strength in the ancient Heavenly Court," the woman replied.

Philip nodded as if he had expected this.

"Now, get ready to accept my judgment!"

the air with the hurricane Heavenly Court was getting from bad to worse. With so many anger. The hurricane exploded at her feet and rushed at

if it were alive, the hurricane wanted to in front of Philip suddenly collapsed, followed by the ground of the whole desert oasis. Immediately after, a thick layer of soil emerged from the sunken bird woman, say goodbye to sand swept forth like a waterfall, but this

the sand invaded,

catch

distance heard Philip's shout, but the Philip's move using the earth was very inclusive. The seemingly inconspicuous grains of sand looked very