Chapter 901

Young master of the Hull Organization's subsidiary.

Philip raised his eyebrows and looked at the handsome man, already deep in thought.

Yvette stood beside Philip and said to Flint coldly, "Flint, what are you doing? I told you a long time ago that it's impossible between us."

Flint said angrily, "Is it because of him? Who is he? I'll make him go bankrupt right this instant!"

Yvette turned her head away and said, "You're too arrogant! If you dare to touch him, I'll never forgive you!"

Hearing this, Flint's eyes were filled with jealousy as his face became gloomier.

He moved his gaze away from Yvette and stared at Philip with a faint smile, his eyes vindictive.

Philip frowned slightly at Flint's expression. He did not want to cause trouble, but he disliked it when others showed him this expression too!

Flint sneered ironically, "Yvette, I've been pursuing you for so long but you don't even let me hold your hand. Everyone is waiting to see me make a fool of myself but I still love you without holding back. Now, you're telling me you've randomly picked up a piece of trash to be your boyfriend?"

Upon hearing Flint insulting Philip, Yvette's face darkened as she said, "Flint, I'm warning you. I don't care what you say about me, but don't drag him into this! The matter between us has nothing to do with him!"

Although Yvette disliked Flint, she knew the power of the Hull Organization.

Even for a person like Philip, she guessed he was not a match for them.

That was a major force!

When Philip heard Flint’s insulting words, his eyes turned cold again!

He could feel Yvette’s body trembling slightly, and Philip could not bear it anymore. He hated people like Flint the most!

“Let me kill him for you,” Philip whispered.

He had not made any moves tonight.

Yes, Philip wanted to kill him and not just teach him a lesson.

To him, Yvette may be closer than an ordinary friend. He did not have to do so much for her, but looking at Yvette’s expression at the moment, he could not bear it any longer.

She reminded him very much of himself in the past.

Hearing Philip’s words, Yvette shuddered again.

Philip shook his head indifferently and said with a pitiful sneer, "You really deserve to die. If I kill you now, I'm afraid of dirtying this place, but I'd feel very upset if I didn't kill you."

"Philip, don't be rash!" Yvette exclaimed. She was very worried about Philip. She knew that even if she rushed forward now, she could not stop him!

"Kill me? This is such a big joke. Do you know the power of the Hull family? Do you know who I am?"

Flint beckoned to the shadows and said, "Come out. I want to teach this brat a little lesson! Remember, just don't kill him. Break both his legs and throw him out on the road."

A figure slowly walked out of the darkness, revealing a stern face.

He was about 40 or 50 years old. He was wearing a long shirt, appeared a little lean with slightly white sideburns, and exuded a dormant killing intent. He was an unknown master!

Philip still stared at Flint coldly and did not even spare the other person a glance!

Yvette saw the sudden appearance of this person and suddenly thought of a certain rumor from the Hull family. With shock in her eyes, she quickly shouted, "Flint, I'm warning you, don't be rash! This is Riverdale!"

Chapter 904

Sullivan Hull had been a legendary name in Capital City for many years. He was an old servant of the Hull family!

Although the Hull family was powerful and had a certain status in Capital City, a servant like him was famous thanks to his other identity—the senior bodyguard in the subsidiary of Hull Organization!

He was also one of the top ten elites in the subsidiary!

The Hull Organization was divided into the main branch and the sub-branch, all with the last name Hull.

Naturally, the sub-branch was in charge of all the affairs in the country while the main branch was focused on affairs abroad.

No one knew how many trump cards the Hull Organization had, but at least, someone like Sullivan Hull was more than enough!

Although he was a Hull, he had nothing to do with the Hull family. Back then, he was just a beggar who was rescued by Old Master Hull and given this name.

The atmosphere seemed to have stagnated, and the visual impact of the scene was also very shocking!

Yvette was very worried about Philip at first, but she was dumbfounded when she saw that Sullivan was sent flying by Philip in one neat move!

She did not expect that Philip's skills had reached such a terrifying height!

Yvette was originally the adopted daughter of the Simms family. When she was in Capital City back then, she had naturally heard of Sullivan's name. He was the bodyguard of the Hull family, a skillful and ruthless character!

He was one of the top ten elites of the Hull family!

Even in the entire country, he was a powerful figure!

However, even a person like that was sent flying by Philip at this moment. It was simply shocking!

Sullivan clutched his arm and fell to the ground, enduring the severe pain in his arm. His eyes were still full of disbelief!

He did not expect the opponent to be so skilled. He had been immersed in martial arts for many years and his opponents were far and few!

After so many years, he had never suffered defeat!

The other party knew about him but was not concerned at all!
Sullivan trembled all over. This was too terrifying!
The young man in front of him only made two simple moves and managed to cripple him. Sullivan did not dare to guess how powerful he was!
Only then did Sullivan realize he was drenched in a cold sweat!
He actually listened to that stupid young master’s orders and was going to break Philip’s legs!
He was courting death!
With such strength and at that age, a bad premonition suddenly welled in Sullivan’s mind!

see just what the Hull Organization will do to me if I break all your limbs!"

After that, Philip's body exploded with an endless chill!

Like a tangible sharp sword, it filled the entire area, making Flint tremble as if he was facing an army!

Was he really going to make a move against him?

On the side, Sullivan also got a shock when he heard Philip's words, but he could no longer muster the strength to stand up and stop Philip's footsteps from approaching!

This person in front of him was probably a member of that organization—the protector of the country and one of the 108 generals!

In this country, this organization was unshakeable!

Unless it was one of those revered masters of the Hull family who were well-versed in national martial arts!

However, who would offend Reed Williams and the entire Orienta for the sake of a young master from the subsidiary of Hull Organization?

This was a nightmare!

Philip continued, "Sullivan, you do not distinguish between right and wrong, and you do evil. Tell me, how should I punish you?"

In front of Flint's face, Sullivan raised his foot and stepped heavily on his joints!

As Sullivan's arms were broken as well, he could not muster his strength anymore. He could only use this crude method to break Flint's arm!

This sort of brutal trampling and breaking directly with the hands were two completely different experiences!

If the latter, one could recover after three to four months in the hospital as there was not much damage to the bones. However, if it was being trampled upon, the bones would be crushed to pieces and subsequent surgery would be extremely difficult!

Flint howled bitterly. With a roll of his eyes, he then passed out!

The subsequent pain made him breathless. His body had reached its limit!

Philip was dumbstruck at Wynn's words!

"I'll go back right away!"

After that, Philip hurried back to the villa and saw Wynn in the living room.

"Phil," Wynn got up and said.

"What happened?" Philip asked anxiously.

Wynn shook her head and said, "I'm not sure. I went out with Anne just now when a woman in her early 20s came over and told me that her name is Hannah Clarke. She's your sister."

Philip frowned as he listened.

"By the way, she gave me this, saying that I can go to this place and find her if I have any questions."

Martha glanced around furtively. After making sure she was in the right place, she knocked on the rusty iron door.

The door opened quickly, and a sneaky guy with a pockmarked face appeared. He had triangular eyes, a small head, and a deep scar on the corner of his eye.

“Are you alone?” the guy asked Martha as he looked around.

Martha was taken aback at the sight of him. She stepped back, wrinkled her nose, and said, “What smell is that? It stinks. I’m alone!”

She regretted it now.

Why did she find such an unreliable person? If not for time constraints, she would not have thought of it.

“Hehe, Madam, please come in.”

With that said, the man with the pockmarked face invited Martha in with a smiley face. In the yard, there were five or six people. All of them were sloppy and dirty.
