

The Game 431

Chapter 431: Li Kai's relationship advisor looks like! king!_2

On the other hand, Li Qing, Chen shengfei, and Marvin came to eat as soon as they heard the news. 1

"Qin Lin, why are you cooking egg fried rice?" Chen Sheng Fei looked at the big bowl of egg fried rice in shock.

old Chen, this is Qin Lin's egg-fried rice," Li Qing said hurriedly. it's as good as the all-fish banquet.

While he was speaking, he also got himself a big bowl of egg-fried rice.

As for Li Kai, he was already gobbling down the food.

He didn't have the time to talk nonsense. It was more important to eat at this time.

Chen shengfei and Marvin looked at the two and reacted. This uncle and nephew had eaten Qin Lin's egg fried rice before. Without any hesitation, they immediately started eating.

He had never doubted Qin Lin's cooking skills.

As expected, the moment the egg-fried rice entered their mouths, the two of them could feel the deliciousness of the dish.

This was too delicious. How was it not worse than the all-fish banquet? It was clearly more delicious.

just as the two of them were thinking about it, they saw li kai take two big bowls and fill them with a large portion of egg-fried rice and fish. it was practically takeaway.

"I say, little uncle, you can eat so much by yourself?" Li Qing was displeased.

"I don't think xiuwan came to eat. I'll pack some for her." After Li Kai finished speaking, he carried the two large bowls out of the staff cafeteria.

Seeing his uncle's expression, Li Qing couldn't help but complain, "this guy has really become a f*cking bootlicker.

Qin Lin smiled.

To be honest, he quite admired this old brother li. Li Qing had said that old brother li was not interested in women in the past, but now he became a bootlicker when he met Dr. Tang. This showed that he had been single for so long because of Dr. Tang.

From the perspective of the bystanders, old brother li was a bit silly. After all, with his background, he could really find any kind of woman he wanted.

one could only say that he was infatuated.

You could say that this kind of person was stupid, but you really didn't have the right to criticize his loyalty and determination in love.

most of the people who had been infatuated with each other since ancient times did not have a good ending. Dr. Tang's ex-husband came back and wanted to remarry her, and then old brother Li would suck up to her.

That would be too melodramatic.

Li Kai had already left the staff cafeteria with the egg-fried rice and fish and was walking toward the medical room. However, he was stunned when he arrived at the medical area.

Tang Xiuwan walked out of the infirmary with a handsome man behind her. He was holding a bouquet of roses in his hand.

Li Kai recognized the man. He was Xiuwan's ex-husband. Although he was much older than when he was in college, he was still very handsome.

Seeing the two of them leave the villa, Li Kai couldn't help but frown and feel a sense of loss.

Tang Xiuwan, on the other hand, walked out of the villa and toward the parking lot. She looked at her ex-husband and said with a dark face, "Chen Chuanyong, can you please stop following me? We no longer have any relationship."

The thing she regretted the most now was that she had not been sensible when she was young. She had chosen her partner based on his looks and had chosen the love she wanted to fall in love with. However, her daughter's illness had taught her a profound lesson.

However, she didn't expect that her ex-husband would have the face to come back and say that he wanted to remarry.

Xiuwan, I was wrong. I'm not human. Please give me a chance. Chen Chuanyong pleaded.

He was also very regretful now. If he had known that Professor Li Kai could develop the Adonassiss root, he would not have been in a hurry to divorce and abandon his wife and children.

After all, it was hard to find a wife as gentle, beautiful, and elegant as Tang Xiuwan.

However, he really couldn't afford to pay 700,000 Yuan for one injection.

His family could not afford it at all. Even if he sold his two houses and car in the county, it would only be enough for four injections. After that, he would go bankrupt and borrow money everywhere.

In the end, his daughter's illness was not cured, and he lost the money.

He didn't have the courage to bear such a burden.

His wife did not listen to his advice and could only divorce him.

Now that Professor Li Kai had solved the disease, he wouldn't have to go bankrupt to treat his daughter.

To be honest, he felt like Professor Li Kai looked familiar.

&Nbsp; however, that was not important. He had to thank him for nurturing the Adonassiss plant.

However, Tang xiuwan's heart had long been moved by the man who had accompanied her all day long. Compared to her senior brother Li's unconditional companionship, she felt even more disgusted when she saw her ex-husband.

Chen chuanyong continued, "xiuwan, even if you don't want to forgive me, you have to think about Xiao Ling. He needs a father. She's still so young. If you want me to make it up to her, can you bear to see her without a father?"

"You're not qualified to mention her." Tang xiuwan was getting angrier. She got on her donkey and left.

Seeing this, Chen chuanyong hurriedly drove his car and followed.

When Tang xiuwan returned to her rented apartment, she was even more annoyed by Chen chuanyong's presence. She had no choice but to rush home and lock him outside the door.

After knocking on the door repeatedly to no avail, Chen chuanyong made up his mind and went out to buy a blanket. He also made up his mind and slept outside the door to express his remorse.

He knew that Tang xiuwan was a soft-hearted person, and that this method might work.

The night passed.

Tang xiuwan left the house yawning in the morning. She had not been able to sleep last night, and Chen chuanyong's sudden visit had made her very troubled.

The moment she opened the door, she saw Chen chuanyong standing outside. She frowned.

This guy had already become sticky candy.

Tang xiuwan didn't want to talk to Chen chuanyong, so she went to work on her electric donkey. 1

Chapter 432: Li Kai's relationship advisor looks like! king!_3

Li Kai was also suffering from insomnia.

Before yesterday, he had felt that he and xiuwan would be able to get together, but after seeing Chen chuanyong's sudden appearance, he lost his confidence for some reason.

He subconsciously walked towards the resort's medical room. When he saw Tang xiuwan, who had come to work, he wanted to go up and say hello, but he was conflicted. He was conflicted the entire morning.

Then, when he mustered his courage and was about to head to the infirmary, he saw Chen chuanyong.

Chen chuanyong was here again. He knew very well that his ex-wife would never forgive him, so he had to show his true colors.

he firmly believed that good women were afraid of men.

Li Kai didn't know what to do. He had never been in a relationship before, and he had never faced such a situation. He could only walk to Qin Lin's office in distress. Now, he could only ask his brother Qin for advice.

In the office.

Qin Lin was entertaining someone. It was Wang Xiang, the agent of Linlin's leisure tea in min province. He came to visit Qin Lin as soon as he arrived in you city.

"Try this tea! Old Deng is in ning city and will probably only come in the afternoon." Qin Lin also made a pot of Grade 2 wild Tieguanyin tea and poured him a cup.

wang yan had been summoned by deng guang.

The Linlin leisure tea had been promoted well in the provincial capital of min province. According to the current output of the factory in ning city, Deng Guang planned to try promoting it in three more cities in min province.

He would let Wang Yan try out in these three cities. If he did well, he would be the general agent of the eight prefecture-level cities and 13 county-level cities in the entire min province.

This was also a test from Deng Guang.

"It's fine. I'll just wait for you, CEO Deng." Wang yang hurriedly picked up the tea and savored it. He didn't like to drink tea, after all, he was used to drinking wine.

But when this cup of tea went down his stomach, it surprised him. This tea was very good, and after a sip, the aftertaste was endless.

No wonder Chairman Qin and the others liked to make tea.

It seemed that he should buy some tea leaves and make some tea when he went back.

Suddenly, the office door opened and Li Kai walked in. He sat down at the tea table dejectedly.

"Professor Li Kai, we meet again." Wang yang hurriedly greeted Li Kai, he had seen professor li kai before, and he had been very popular on the internet.

"En!" Li Kai replied listlessly. His mind was in a mess if he wanted Chen chuanyong to look for Tang xiuwan again.

When Qin Lin saw this scene, he knew that something was wrong. He asked, "What's wrong, old brother li?"

Li Kai had come to ask for help, so he told Qin Lin everything.

his daughter abandoned his wife and daughter when she was sick, and now he's here to see Dr. Tang. There's actually such a scumbag?" qin lin couldn't believe it. if that was the case, why did he have to be so ruthless?

Suddenly, Qin Lin thought of something and asked Li Kai in surprise, " "Old brother li, the other party abandoned his wife and daughter because his daughter was infected with Sima , and one injection cost 700000 Yuan. Now that they've found it back, could it be because you cultivated ado's thin grass root, and one injection will only cost a few thousand Yuan in the future?" 2

"What?" Li Kai was stunned, and his body went numb in an instant.

If that was the case, was the heavens playing a joke on him?

"What should I do now?" Li Kai asked for help.

"Don't back down, just attack." Qin Lin said directly. His love rival had appeared, and he was his ex-husband. What else could he do?

"How?" Li Kai asked again. He was still new to this.

"Eh!" Qin Lin didn't know what to say. brother li, Motian and I were both first loves. We don't have any experience in this.

At this moment.

Wang Yan's voice sounded,"um, professor Li Kai met a love rival, and the other party is his ex-husband's brother who abandoned his wife and daughter?" Maybe I can help professor Li Kai."

Qin Lin and Li Kai subconsciously looked at Wang Yan.

"wang yan, what do you have in mind? tell old brother li," qin lin asked directly.

"It's actually very easy to deal with people who abandon their wives and daughters," Wang Yan said confidently.

Chapter 433: -stealing a beam to raise ducks and ducks! Old brother li gets the beauty back!_1

Li Kai was still worried, but when he heard wang Yang's words, he hurriedly asked, " "brother wang, what do you think?"

Wang yang said without hesitation, " professor Li Kai, since your ex-husband brother abandoned his wife and daughter when her daughter was sick, he's a typical scumbag who seeks advantages and avoids disadvantages. And after you cultivated the adonaxi plant root, he came back to propose marriage. He's a typical thick-skinned egoistic scumbag.

this kind of person chose to come back to remarry. It's probably his best choice at the moment. Otherwise, even if there was a better choice, a scumbag wouldn't go back to his lover. So, write him a script and let him completely expose his true nature in front of Dr. Tang.

Li Kai was still a little confused. I can understand why you said he's a scumbag. But what do you mean by the script? "

"Well, just treat it as a routine!" Wang Yan didn't know how to explain.

After all, the script was an elegant name for the night club. Anyway, it was a kind of fishing for men and women. It could be modified to use it for this matter.

However, it would be too vulgar to talk about it in front of senior intellectuals like Chairman Qin and professor Li Kai.

“I’ll make a call and get someone to help,” he said.

As he spoke, he took out his phone and dialed Jiang Lingling’s number.

Sister Lingling was the best at this kind of script.

In the past, sister Lingling could not only play with men in the nightclub, but she also wouldn’t let them take advantage of her until she saw them.

To be honest, he had been tricked by sister Lingling before.

In the past, when he discussed length and depth with Lingling, he felt that he was probably the one being played. Sister Lingling was obviously more excited than him at that time.

The provincial capital of Min province.

In a meeting room.

Jiang Lingling, who had the beauty of a mature lady, was dressed in a sexy business suit. She was assigning tasks to the attractive girls in front of her. Those were the tasks that she had hired to promote the sales of Linlin leisure tea.

She was very satisfied with her current life as a career woman. She also quit nightclubs and that God-grandfather, and as the best agent for Wang Yan’s biggest business, she no longer had to sacrifice herself for an order of only 300,000 bottles of Beauty Tea every one or two months. Moreover, she had to be afraid that the other party was too old and might accidentally die.

When she received Wang Yang’s call, she immediately got the girls to do their work, then immediately picked up the phone and sweetly said, “Boss, what’s your order?”

Wang Yan’s voice came from the phone. “Sister Lingling, come to Linlin villa immediately and drive the Lamborghini I left at the company. I need your help.”

“Boss, should I wear some sexy underwear and bring some stimulating tools?” Jiang Lingling asked with a smile.

These words seemed to have a meaning.

It could even be said to be an indication for people who went to nightclubs.

“Sister Lingling, I’m already married.” As the Prince of the nightclub, Wang Yan naturally understood sister Lingling’s words and felt a little embarrassed.

“But Su Juan is pregnant. Aren’t you going to be lonely for a few months?” Jiang Lingling continued to tease him.

Wang Yanzhen helplessly said, “Sister Lingling, don’t mess around. I need your help. Come over quickly!”

Jiang Lingling hung up the phone with a smile on her face.

make a fuss?

Perhaps.

He could be a Prince at the nightclub when he was having fun, and he could be a Big Boss when he was doing things. This kind of man was really outstanding.

Now that she was a strong woman, she would have some different pursuits.

They were all at the nightclub, and they had the same past. If su Juan could do it, why couldn't she?

Besides, she didn't care about the certificate.

when wang yan hung up the phone, his expression was a little awkward.

He always felt that sister Lingling was teasing him recently. The key was that su Juan was pregnant and he was about to be a Sage. He was really unable to take it. He was afraid that it would go wrong.

He asked sister Lingling to drive his Lamborghini for a purpose. He wanted sister Lingling to pretend to be a rich and beautiful lady and have a chance encounter with that scumbag's ex-husband brother. With sister Lingling's ability, she only needed to give a little hint with her eyes, and that scumbag would think that she was lucky and go over to her.

When Lingling deliberately hinted to her ex-husband to go on a date, her ex-husband would probably think that she was charming and had won the lottery.

If professor Li Kai and director Qin happened to see him, then this ex-husband brother would be out of the picture. All he had to do now was to help professor Li Kai pursue Dr. Tang.

Of course, what he needed to do now was to find out more about professor Li Kai's ex-husband.

Qin Lin didn't have much experience in dealing with love rivals or wooing women, so he could only leave Li Kai's matters to wang yang.

Wang Yan was obviously very good at this.

Li Kai followed Wang Yan out of the office with a face full of curiosity. He looked at the game screen and controlled his character to go to the duck house on the farm.

after entering the duck house, apart from the big white ducks, he walked towards a box in the corner.

It was the hatchery.

In the story of ranches game, the ranches 'animals were able to hatch their own eggs and let them breed.

This incubator was used to hatch duck eggs and was also a necessary tool for a Duck House. In the future, if he were to build a chicken house or a Pigeon House, he would also have a special incubator.

Moreover, he had done an experiment before. The Ducks hatched in the game's Duck House were Grade 2 big white ducks hatched from Grade 2 beauty eggs, and Grade 1 big white ducks hatched from Grade 1 beauty eggs.

Chapter 434: -stealing a beam to raise ducks and ducks! Old brother li gets the beauty back!

Qin Lin controlled his character to pick up the eggs laid by the big white ducks and put a few into the incubator.

He wanted to hatch new ducklings.

This was because Yang Dong had also reported to him last night that the new ducklings in the duck house could be released from the cage. Naturally, this was not referring to the ones taken out in the game, but the ones Yang Dong had cultivated in real life using fertilized cosmetic eggs.

Without the in-game Duck House and incubator in reality, he didn't know how the incubation was going. therefore, he could hatch some in the game. perhaps he could use them.

According to the time ratio in the game, the Ducks would be able to hatch very soon.

He came back to his senses from the game and left the office. He headed in the direction of the reservoir and soon arrived at the duck house.

Because it was connected to the floating bridge viewing area, it was quite lively here. Many tourists stood behind the fence, looking at the Ducks.

"Boss." When Yang Dong saw Qin Lin, he went up to him respectfully. "The baby ducks are in the third Duck House," he was very enthusiastic about his current job. he had already been promoted to the supervisor of the duck house and fish area. being able to be a supervisor in linlin villa in you city was definitely an enviable job. not only was the salary high, but he also managed more than a dozen people.

The only thing that made him uncomfortable was that Zhang Guizhu didn't give him a response.

His grandfather and uncle had already prepared the betrothal gift for him, and he had also bought an Audi for his wedding. As long as he brought a girlfriend home, the Audi would be transferred to his name.

Qin Lin followed Yang Dong into the duck house. Inside, there was a cage covered with soft straw, and a group of cute, fluffy ducklings were chirping non-stop.

Yang Dong also pointed at the six ducklings that were holding the little red rope and explained, "Boss, this 6 with the little red string is just hatched from a big high-quality beauty egg."

Qin Lin nodded and instructed Yang Dong, " catch two of the Ducks hatched from this high-quality beauty egg and the other ducks hatched from the other egg suits for me. I'll bring them for inspection.

when yang dong heard the order, he immediately went to get a cage, put four ducklings in it, and handed it to qin lin.

He knew that the boss was also a person who had done a lot of research on animals. He had heard Zhang Guizhu praise the boss for training the squirrels to be smart.

When Qin Lin said he wanted to test the duck, he actually wanted to take it to the game to see the information.

He returned to the office with the four quacking ducklings, locked the door from the inside, and brought them into the game.

[young duck with good looks: Grade 1]

[this is a special breed of white duck. its quality is better than ordinary ducks: Taste +1, nourishing yin and stomach +1, cough and phlegm +1, rich nutrition +1, weight +1, aesthetic appearance +1, odor of feces-1.]

[youthful duck baby: normal]

[this is a specially cultivated big white duck. It has a better taste than ordinary ducks and has good nutritional effects!]

Qin Lin sighed when he saw the note of the two ducklings.

As expected, the quality of the eggs had dropped in the real world, which meant that professor Ren's previous guess was right.

a grade 2 egg could only hatch a grade 1 duck. a grade 1 egg would directly become an ordinary face raising duck without any attributes. looking at the remarks, it was only better than an ordinary duck, but not at the level of a grade 1 duck.

Moreover, even the attributes of weight +1, appearance +, and odor-1 were gone. It was not suitable to be raised in the viewing area of the pontoon, which not only affected the overall appearance but also the environmental smell.

In other words, a duck that hatched from a Grade 1 egg could only be raised as an ordinary duck in one of the other places. Fortunately, it was still a little stronger than an ordinary duck.

In reality, if he wanted to increase the number of quality 2 ducks, he could only use a substitute.

Therefore, the ducklings that were hatched in the game's incubator came in handy.

Qin Lin exited the game with the four ducklings and started to wait.

When he received the game prompt that the Ducks in the duck hatchery had hatched, he took four real ducklings into the game and went to the farm.

He untied the little red rope from the two Grade 1 ducklings and tied it to the two Grade 2 ducklings that were hatched in the game. Then, he took them out of the game and brought them back to the duck house in the evening to carry out a stealthy replacement.

If there was a need in the future, he would continue to do so.

Qin Lin did not forget to instruct Yang Dong, " professor Ren said that if you hatch these nourishing eggs, the Ducks may degenerate. You should pay attention when you raise them. If this happens, pick out the Ducks in time and pick a place to raise them.

"Okay, boss." Yang Dong naturally knew who professor Ren was. After hearing this order, he also remembered it in his heart.

As the sun set, the viewing area of the floating bridges looked even more spectacular in the afterglow of the setting sun.

This was also the time when most tourists visited the floating bridge viewing area. From time to time, one could hear the surprised cries and praises of the tourists.

Although it was created by the system, he was still a little proud to see that the tourists liked it.

Qin Lin went back to his office, curious about how his brother Li Kai's situation was.

On the other side.

Chen chuanyong had already left his neighborhood. Naturally, he wanted to go to Linlin villa to find Tang xiuwan. He wanted to use the child as an excuse to ask her to go see the child.

he knew that his daughter was her weak spot, so he could definitely do it.

chen chuanyong got into the car and was just about to drive out of the neighborhood when the front of a lamborghini suddenly collided with his car. 1

Chapter 435: -stealing a beam to raise ducks and ducks! Old brother li returns with a beauty in his arms!

This unexpected disaster made him very angry. As soon as he got out of the car, he saw a well-dressed beauty with an exquisite figure, who seemed to outline the curves of her body in golden proportions, coming out of the Lamborghini.

this beauty also had a mature beauty that could move men's hearts. the key was that she was sexy.

At that moment, Chen chuanyong's eyes lit up. He felt that this woman was much more attractive than Tang xiuwan. This was also a man's subconscious psychological comparison of beautiful things.

Although sexiness was always ridiculed and was easily criticized, it was definitely the most attractive thing to men. Otherwise, there would be no saying that cuteness was not worth mentioning in front of sexiness.

"Sir, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I'm not in a good mood today and I was distracted." Jiang Lingling apologized anxiously after she got out of the car.

It had to be said that her voice was very pleasant to the ears and had a sense of confusion to it.

chen chuanyong shook his head subconsciously when he saw how anxious she was. "It's fine, it's fine. It's just a little paint."

"Thank you, sir. You're such a nice person. My name is Zhao ya." Jiang Lingling thanked him immediately. For some reason, her eyes lingered on Chen chuanyong's face for a while, as if she was attracted by his handsome face. She even felt a little shy.

Even though Chen chuanyong was a scumbag, he had never seen such a scene before. His heart was in a mess.

At noon the next day.

Qin Lin received a call from wang yang, saying that there was going to be a good show.

He hung up the phone and walked towards the entrance of the villa. He saw wang yang already waiting for him.

"What good show?" qin lin asked in confusion.

Wang Yan pointed at the area where the drifting project exit was and said, "Chairman Qin, the show is here."

A man and a woman walked out from inside. The woman had a hot figure, and one look was enough to tell that she was a goddess. The man was handsome too, and they seemed to be a match. A perfect couple.

Chen chuanyong also felt the same way.

He didn't expect to run into Tang xiuwan when he was out of the neighborhood yesterday.

That's right. From their interaction the day before, he had already found out that this Zhao ya was the daughter of a company's CEO in min province. She was a typical fair, rich, and beautiful lady, which was why she could afford to drive a Lamborghini.

Moreover, he realized that this rich young lady was interested in him and even treated him to a meal last night.

He would not be wrong.

The way he looked at her was filled with love. Tang xiuwan used to look at him like this when she was in school.

Most importantly, he was confident in his looks. He had won Tang xiuwan's heart and defeated all the other competitors because of his looks.

If not for this, the other party would not have invited her to play at Linlin villa today.

Therefore, he had a little insomnia when he got home last night.

"Aiya!" jiang lingling suddenly let out a cry of pain. she threw herself onto chen chuanyong subconsciously and hugged him like a soft jade.

Chen chuanyong's heart skipped a beat as he hugged Jiang Lingling. He asked hurriedly, "What's wrong?"

"I... I twisted my ankle. Take me to the infirmary." Jiang Lingling said with a sullen face.

Chen chuanyong frowned.

Because Tang xiuwan was in the medical room. If she saw him accompanying another woman to Linlin villa, it would be impossible for them to get back together.

But then again, if he could marry this rich young lady, wouldn't he be better off than Tang xiuwan? He might even have the chance to enter her father's company and reach the peak of his life.

At that thought, Chen chuanyong couldn't care less and helped Jiang Lingling to the infirmary.

Jiang Lingling had a strange smile on her face. To be honest, the mission given by Wang Yan was not challenging at all.

Based on her past experience in the nightclub, this kind of man was the kind of loser who didn't have much ability and was overconfident. 1

It was not uncommon for such people to fantasize about themselves as the protagonists of their lives and place themselves as the center of attention.

They don't make much money in a month, but they always comment that other people's BMW is too low-class, and their Panamera only costs a few dollars. If I were them, I would definitely buy a Ferrari.

In the medical room.

Tang xiuwan arrived at the villa early in the morning. There were three doctors in the medical room, and she was in charge of the day shift. She had to take over the day shift between two doctors.

She was arranging a few medicinal items when she saw Chen chuanyong walking in with a beautiful woman in his arms.

In that instant, she revealed a mocking expression.

A man who wanted to remarry her yesterday was actually with another woman today. No wonder he didn't continue to pester her yesterday.

However, she didn't know why, but at this time, her heart was unusually calm. The shadow in her heart was becoming clearer and clearer. A good man really needed to be compared with a scumbag to be more precious.

Chen chuanyong was naturally embarrassed to see Tang xiuwan. At this time, he pretended that he did not know Tang xiuwan, so as not to ruin his luck with her.

Jiang Lingling said to Tang xiuwan with a smile, "Doctor, please take a look at my foot. We were having too much fun and didn't pay attention, so I sprained it."

Not far away.

However, wang yang had already taken out a walkie-talkie in front of Qin Lin and said, " professor li kai, it's your turn now. your love will be a strong contrast to that scumbag. "

Qin Lin looked at this scene and couldn't help but sigh. A professional was indeed a professional. 2 li kai encouraged himself when he received the notice and walked towards the treatment room. he was wearing an earpiece and listening to wang yang's commands.

When he arrived at the infirmary, he saw Chen chuanyong and Jiang Lingling coming out.

Chapter 436-stealing a beam to raise ducks and ducks! Old brother li returns with a beauty in his arms!

"Professor Li Kai?" Chen chuanyong immediately recognized Li Kai. After all, he had wanted to remarry Tang xiuwan because Li Kai had developed adonashi root grass.

beat him up. Give him a good punch and call him a bastard. Wang Yan's voice sounded from the earpiece.

In that instant, Li Kai did not hesitate to punch Chen chuanyong's body as he cursed, " "Bastard."

This punch really made him comfortable.

Wang Yang's order was to his liking.

while chen chuanyong was stunned by the punch, tang xiuwan ran out and grabbed li kai, " senior brother li, don't hit him. It's not worth it for this kind of person.

Naturally, she thought that senior brother li had beaten up Chen chuanyong for her sake. Furthermore, she did not expect senior brother li to do such a thing for her.

wang yan's voice once again sounded in the headset."Take the chance to kiss her, kiss her. At this time, she must have been stimulated by your heroic act. Her dopamine secretion is severe, and it's attacking her last line of defense."

"What?" When Li Kai heard the order, he looked at the anxious Tang xiuwan in shock.

He did not hesitate when Wang Yan told him to kill Chen chuanyong, but he was afraid of Wang Yan's order.

kiss her, kiss her! The dopamine secretion is abnormal for only a moment. Professor Li Kai, don't hesitate, kiss her. Wang Yan shouted into the walkie-talkie beside Qin Lin.

But seeing that Li Kai didn't move for a long time, he could only sigh and say to Qin Yang, " " chairman qin, he's hopeless. he actually ran away at the critical moment. "

Qin Lin, on the other hand, felt that it was normal. After helping Dr. Tang move the furniture that night, old brother li was left at home. If he didn't help, he would have done something long ago. Today's incident might not have happened.

“Forget it, it’s my turn. The show is about to end.” Wang Yan helplessly sighed.

Li Kai was indeed scared, because he really liked Tang xiuwan. Then, he looked at Tang xiuwan in a daze, not knowing what to do.

Tang xiuwan seemed to have sensed his feelings. She took the initiative to hug Li Kai and whispered in his ear, “Senior brother li, thank you for being so good to me.”

li kai didn’t expect xiuwan to suddenly hug him, but at this moment, he regained his courage and hugged her back. a smile appeared on his face. after thinking for a long time, he finally got a hug.

To him, hugging her like this was also very blissful.

Chen chuanyong also reacted when he saw this scene, especially when he heard the words “senior brother li.”

He had found professor Li Kai familiar before, but when Tang xiuwan called him senior brother li, he remembered that they had met twice.

However, just as he was thinking about it, he saw a young man running toward him angrily. Before he could react, the young man punched him in the face again.

This young man was naturally a King.

“Who are you?” Chen chuanyong was stunned as he shouted at Wang Yan.

Wang Yan gave Chen chuanyong another vicious kick, hanging out with my girlfriend and driving my Lamborghini, and asking who I am? ”

Then, he glared at Jiang Lingling and said fiercely, “Jiang Lingling, can’t you explain it to me? I only scolded you twice and you’re driving my Lamborghini out to fool around with other men? Fortunately, I installed a GPS in the car.”

“hubby, i didn’t.” Jiang Lingling was also flustered as if she had been caught. She immediately went over and hugged Wang Yan, there’s nothing between us. I just want to take a break and ask him to be my guide.

“????”Chen chuanyong was dumbfounded by this sudden turn of events. It was as if he was asking the heavens if they were joking.

“Hmph!” Seeing this, Tang xiuwan did not even look at Chen chuanyong. She turned to Li Kai and said gently, “ senior brother li, your hand is red. Go to the treatment room inside, I’ll apply the medicine for you.

Li Kai had never seen xiuwan so gentle to him. He immediately nodded with a silly smile and let Tang xiuwan pull him into the room.

Qin Lin finally understood wang Yang’s trick. In fact, when faced with such a trick, as long as he was upright and did not have any messy thoughts, he would not fall for it.

In any case, he could confidently say that this move was useless against him.

He only had mo Xiao in his heart. 2

However, it seemed that old brother Li's wish had been fulfilled.

Seeing that there were already tourists gathered around, he didn't stay any longer. He left and went to the backyard of the original Hall to see how the beautiful cucumber was growing.

Chapter 437: two mutant crops! The dwarf wants to compete with me in running!

At the entrance of the medical room.

the tourists who were attracted by the ruckus came over.

Chen chuanyong was completely dumbfounded.

He thought that he was lucky enough to meet a rich young lady who drove a Lamborghini. Who knew that she was just a cheap slut who secretly drove her boyfriend's car to seduce people?

More importantly, the other party's name was fake.

He really wanted to give himself a tight slap right now.

especially when he thought of the scene of his ex-wife hugging another man, he knew that he had lost both a wife and a soldier.

However, looking at Wang Yan's furious expression, he was really afraid of being beaten again. After all, it was a matter of being cheated on.

More importantly, he hadn't done anything with the other party's girlfriend yet. It would be a waste if he was found out to be a problem.

Therefore, when he got up, he did not dare to stay any longer and fled in a panic.

When Wang Yan saw this, a smile appeared on his face.

His mission had been completed.

This could be considered as a good performance in front of Chairman Qin.

Looking at sister Lingling, who was holding him, he said, "Sister Lingling, the show is over. You can let me go now."

However, Jiang Lingling didn't let go of him. She said, "Hubby, I was wrong. I'll apologize to you properly tonight, okay?"

"???" Wang Yan was dumbfounded.

What are you doing? 2

qin lin soon arrived at the original hall. the aquarium's renovation was going well, and the overall appearance could already be seen.

He entered the backyard and walked to the man-made paddy field.

The area where the beautiful cucumbers were planted was already luxuriant, and there were beautiful cucumbers hanging down from the top. The flower buds at the tail were completely gone, which meant that they were about to ripen.

It was just that the slender body of this beauty cucumber, coupled with its meaty yellow skin, gave people an inexplicable sense of shame.

"When it's ripe, I'll let old brother li discover the abnormality of this beauty cucumber." qin lin smiled and then looked at the other dozens of crops in the paddy field that were used as a cover.

Among the dozen or so crops, many okra and eggplant were already mature, and they were growing faster.

Qin Lin squatted down and picked some ripe okra and eggplant.

Since he had already planted them, he couldn't let them rot in the field. In any case, he had taken care of them for so long to cover up the beauty cucumbers, so he would let them be eaten as a delicacy to repay him.

He sent the okra and eggplant to the kitchen and told Master Lin to make them for him in the evening. Then, he returned to the office.

Although the okra and eggplant were definitely not as delicious as the quality 2 products from the game, it was still meaningful to eat them since they were personally grown.

In the evening, Qin Lin asked Zhao Moyu to go to the staff cafeteria for dinner. They saw wang yang walking out of the cafeteria with a beautiful girl.

Wasn't that beauty the one who was playing the role of Chen chuanyong together with him?

"Chairman Qin." Wang yang greeted Qin Lin the moment he saw him, and at the same time, he did not forget to introduce him."Mr. Qin, this is Jiang Lingling, one of my agents. She is the one who promoted the Linlin leisure tea the most,"

"Chairman Qin." Jiang Lingling finally realized that the young man in front of her was the boss of Wang Yan, so she greeted him with respect.

"En!" qin lin also smiled and nodded at the other party.

The other party had helped old brother li a lot today.

After chatting with Wang Yan for a while, Qin Lin also brought Zhao mochen into the staff cafeteria.

"This Chairman Qin is really young." Jiang Lingling couldn't help but sigh.

Wang yang looked at her. sister Lingling, we can't book the nuptial room. Now that we've finished eating, I'll take you to you city to book a hotel.

“Don’t you already have a nuptial chamber? I can share a room with you,” Jiang Lingling said seriously.

This was an open hint again, and Wang Yan was instantly vexed. “Sister Lingling, I’ve already promised su Juan that I’ll leave the nightclub.”

“I’m also quitting!” we’re not going to a nightclub. You’re the boss, and I’m your subordinate. I can be your temporary secretary,” Jiang Lingling said seriously.

“I’m married.” Wang Yan said.

“I don’t want that marriage certificate!” Jiang Lingling then whispered into Wang Yan’s ear, I’ve brought some very sexy clothes. They were the ones we wore when we were discussing the length and depth of the dress. Didn’t you say that you liked that style? I have a few tools too. Come with me to the car to get them. 1

He looked like a king.

Qin Lin and Zhao Moyu entered the staff cafeteria and saw that their mother had already arrived with wangcai.

Master Lin had also prepared a table full of dishes, including the okra and eggplant that he had picked in the afternoon.

He and Zhao Mo had just sat down when Li Qing arrived.

After the aquarium was renovated, the Li family uncle and nephew had been eating with him in the villa.

As soon as Li Qing sat down, he hurriedly said, “Qin Lin, do you have any way to get more Xiangshui tribute rice? I’ve come up with a special wine-making recipe, and we can try it with the Xiangshui tribute rice.”

“Yes, I’ll take a look later.” Qin Lin nodded.

He had a lot of Xiangshui tribute rice, and he could easily get a lot of it by entering the game.

Moreover, he was looking forward to what kind of wine Li Qing would brew with the wine-making formula he was researching.

After all, the wine would be his.

“alright, i’ll wait for your news.” Li Qing was also looking forward to it.

The reason why he liked to practice at Qin Lin’s place was that he didn’t lack ingredients. Even Xiangshui tribute rice could be used to make wine.

He could now try something he didn’t have the chance to do before.

Li Qing looked around again and asked when he didn’t see Li Kai, “Where’s my uncle?”

“He went to Dr. Tang’s place,” Qin Lin explained with a smile. “He should be home with a beauty this afternoon.”

Chapter 438: Two mutant crops! The dwarf wants to compete with me in running!_2

“what, this bootlicker has grown up?” Li Qing said in surprise, and then sighed inexplicably, “Let him enjoy his happiness for a while. He’ll be annoyed later.”

Qin Lin felt that Li Qing’s words were a little strange, but he didn’t intend to probe further. He invited Li Qing to eat, and even gave a piece of eggplant to his mother and Zhao moyin. mom, Mo Mo, try this eggplant. I grew it in the artificial field.

When Zhao mochen and Lin Fen heard this, they naturally started eating immediately.

If Qin Lin planted it himself, it would have a different meaning to them.

“Eh, this eggplant is delicious.” Lin Fen said in surprise after eating.

“It’s true. It’s even more delicious than the eggplants I’ve eaten before,” Zhao mochen agreed.

“I say, even if I planted it myself, you two don’t have to give me so much face, right?” Qin Lin shook his head when he heard his mother and wife’s praise. He also picked up an eggplant and put it in his mouth.

However, the moment he took a bite, his face revealed a look of disbelief.

Because it was really delicious.

This taste and texture definitely surpassed those ordinary eggplants he had eaten before.

This can’t be, right?

Qin Lin thought of a possibility.

Previously, these seeds had been used as a cover for the beauty cucumber, so he had never thought that these ordinary seeds would also undergo a genetic mutation in the special soil, which had an element of +1 genetic improvement rate.

However, the eggplant seemed to have undergone a genetic mutation.

This taste was definitely at the level of a Grade 1.

At this moment.

li qing’s voice also rang out. “ qin lin, when are you going to make some more of those high-quality okra that cost 400 yuan per 500 grams? i haven’t had them in a long time. these ordinary special species don’t feel good. ”

“???”Hearing Li Qing’s words, Qin Lin subconsciously picked up some okra from the serving and put it in his mouth.

Li Qing said that it was a special species of okra, not an ordinary okra.

Did the okra also mutate?

After a mouthful of okra, Qin Lin was really surprised.

A warm current flowed through and rushed to his waist.

Although it wasn't as good as a quality 2, it was almost the same as the quality 1 from previous games.

He had thought that the okra and eggplant matured faster because they had a faster growth cycle.

However, it did not seem to be the case. The two crops had undergone genetic mutation under the effect of special soil.

however, he didn't know if two out of a dozen seeds had mutated due to luck or if the mutation rate was very high.

After this, he would have to find more seeds to experiment with.

Qin Zhi 'an suppressed her surprise. After dinner, she went back to the backyard of the original Hall, picked a few okra and an eggplant, and returned to the office.

After locking the door, he entered the game with a thought. He looked at the okra and eggplant in his hands and saw their remarks:

[(unnamed) okra: Grade 1]

[this is a genetically mutated special okra. After eating it, it has a special effect: Lower breast regulation +1, drenching flow +1, kidney essence replenishment +1.]

[(unnamed) eggplant: Grade 1]

[this is a special type of genetically mutated eggplant. After eating it, it has a special effect: Taste +1, deliciousness +1, prevention of cardiovascular disease +1, cholesterol reduction +1, heat-clearing and detoxification +1, age spots reduction +1.]

These two remarks also confirmed the fact of the genetic mutation.

Qiu kui's remarks were almost exactly the same as the ones in the game.

What surprised him was eggplant.

It was already more delicious than ordinary eggplants with + 1 taste and +1 taste. It also had +1 cardiovascular disease prevention,+1 cholesterol reduction,+1 heat-clearing and detoxification, and +1 age spots reduction.

The first three might not have an obvious effect, but the +1 to reduce age spots was definitely needed by people who were slightly older, especially women.

This meant that he would not have to move the okra from the game anymore. He could just cultivate and plant it outside. Moreover, he had an extra eggplant. When he cultivated the eggplant, he could exchange for it. Then, he would not have to move the broccoli from the game anymore.

Compared to this special crop, the villa only needed to maintain a certain number and have its own characteristics.

in the future, he would rely on special soil to cultivate more of these mutated crops. when he could cultivate them himself, he might have to stop his work as a porter.

When that time came, he would just send things like wild honey and occasionally bring some quality 2 things to the villa.

Just thinking about it made him feel very free.

After Qin Lin confirmed that the okra and eggplant were of the first grade, he took out his phone and called Li Kai.

Linlin's laboratory had been built. Li Kai could test the game's attributes and produce a formal scientific test report. After promoting it, he could tell everyone that this thing had such effects.

On the other side.

Li Kai was playing with a little girl.

The little girl was very cute, and she was having a lot of fun playing with him.

tang xiuwan was washing the dishes with her mother in the kitchen. she was relieved to hear the voice outside. she had brought li shixiong home for dinner, and they had finally met each other's parents.

What she was worried about now was whether or not senior brother li would like her daughter.

"You should go and accompany him!" Mrs. Tang nudged her daughter.

Tang xiuwan walked out of the kitchen and sat down beside Li Kai. She laughed when she saw him lift her daughter up. senior brother li, do you really not mind? "

"Mind what?" Li Kai asked, puzzled.

if we remarry in the future, Xiao Ling will definitely be involved. She's not your daughter, " Tang xiuwan said.

Chapter 439: Two mutant crops! The dwarf wants to compete with me in running!_3

Li Kai understood and subconsciously said, " "Xiao Ling isn't my daughter, but her mother will be my wife."

Perhaps, sweet-talking was a natural skill for men, and even Li Kai could start to be glib with his words.

However, this sentence was obviously very effective on women.

Tang xiuwan was touched.

At this moment.

Li Kai's phone rang. Seeing that it was a call from Qin Lin, he immediately answered, " Brother Qin, why are you calling at this time? there are eggplant and okra seeds in the artificial fields that have mutated, Yingluo. How are you so sure, Yingluo? I've already eaten Yingluo.

Tang xiuwan also took the child. After he hung up the phone, she said, " the boss is calling for you. Hurry up and go. Business is more important.

"En!" Li Kai also got up and left after hearing Tang xiuwan's words.

As soon as he returned to the villa, he found Qin Lin and complained, " "Brother Qin, can't you just talk about this tomorrow?"

"Let's go take a look at the eggplant and okra," he added.

Qin Lin smiled. He thought that brother li should be flirting with Dr. Tang at this time. He thought that the other party was doing nothing in the nuptial chamber alone, but it was a mistake.

The two of them quickly arrived at the artificial paddy field, picked a few mature okra and eggplant, and headed to an office in the office area.

This office was originally used by professor Ren to study the changing elements of the medicinal wine, but later it was given to Li Kai. When the official laboratory was built, Li Kai would go to the laboratory over there.

There were many experimental equipment in the office. Li Kai had brought them over from the laboratory in Ming city. Initially, Li Kai had wanted to return them to the Linlin laboratory, but that would be too troublesome. Hence, he had asked the Linlin laboratory to buy them at a discount.

Li Kai went to a piece of equipment and started fiddling with the eggplant.

After about half an hour, he said in surprise, " the elements in it are really different from normal eggplants. Some of them contain a lot more vitamins, and some of them don't have nutrients in the first place. I'll need some time to get the exact data.

Li Kai was very focused when he was working. For the next two days, he spent most of his time in front of the equipment, except for Tang xiuwan.

Two days later, he found Qin Lin and gave him a test data form."Old Brother Qin, you're going to have a new product."

"The okra is almost the same as the one you had before, but this eggplant contains a lot more vitamin E/P, as well as a lot more protein and various nutrients."

I'm pretty sure that the genetically mutated eggplant has a good effect on preventing cardiovascular disease, lowering cholesterol, clearing heat and detoxing. It also reduces dark spots, and should be effective for age spots.

Qin Lin had to admit that the power of science was very strong.

He had to rely on the system to know these attributes, but old brother li had directly used science to thoroughly check them.

Brother Qin, this special soil is more effective than we thought," Li Kai said. The laboratory should have done some protection work on the experimental land. Should we go to your hometown and move all the soil from the old field there? If people find out, it'll be a loss.

Qin Lin also nodded and said, "I'll find a time to bring some people over."

Li Kai hurriedly said, "Don't look for time. Let's do it tomorrow. Also, this kind of thing has to be done secretly. You and I will be fine.

Also, it'll take some time for the two of us. You take Mo Xiao and I'll take Xiuwan. We'll get some soil and have them cook.

"Eh!" When Qin Lin heard this, he looked at Li Kai with a strange expression. Was this old brother Li going to get the soil, or was he going to take the girl out for a walk?

But thinking about it, people who had just fallen in love would always want to take their partner out for a walk. It didn't matter where they went. The main thing was that they wanted to hold hands for a walk.

It would be best to go somewhere far away and not come back. There was only one room, so he could do some things in the meantime.

This kind of outing was also the best way to promote intimate relationships.

A man and a woman going out to play wouldn't do nothing, right?

It's not like we're male besties.

"Old brother Li, you've turned bad." Qin Lin saw through Li Kai's thoughts and teased him.

"Then it's settled." Having been seen through, Li Kai's face turned red and he left in a hurry.

Seeing this, Qin Lin also told Zhao Moyu, and Zhao Moyu did not object. For her, it was a good idea to rest for a day and go back to Qin Lin's hometown to relax.

So, the next day, after Qin Lin delivered the game items, he and Zhao Moyu waited for Li Kai to come and gather.

Li Kai was holding Tang Xiuwan's hand when he arrived.

Tang Xiuwan was obviously a little shy, like a girl who had just fallen in love.

However, Zhao Moyu took the initiative to hold Tang Xiuwan's arm and get into the car with her, which made Tang Xiuwan feel more relaxed.

After everyone got into the car, Qin Lin started the car and left the villa, heading in the direction of his hometown.

Along the way, he began to think about how to take out all the special soil.

After all, there were only two bags of special soil mixed with mud in the old field, and there were more than ten bags in the game.

Although Li Kai was easy to fool, he wasn't blind.

Halfway through the journey, Qin Lin was stunned for a moment. Something had happened to the game in his mind.

A small figure appeared on the farm. It was the dwarf, ah ni.

he had triggered another plot.

[Hi, we meet again. I lost to you in the previous two competitions. This time, I'm going to compete with you again. If you win, you'll get a gift too.]

[do you accept the dwarf ah NI's competition invitation?]

Qin Lin didn't dare to be distracted while driving. He focused on driving and parked the car all the way to the old house. Then, he immediately looked at the screen in his mind and chose "yes."

[then let's have a friendly running competition! If you win, you can get a gift!]

"?????"Qin Lin didn't know how to react when he saw the dialogue.

a dwarf wanted to compete with him in running?

Why did it feel a little off?

Chapter 440: -being used as a scapegoat again! unknown seed!_1

The dwarves wanted to race.

Aren't these short legs looking for abuse?

Qin Lin felt that something was wrong.

However, the plot mission had triggered him, so he could only choose to confirm the competition.

[then let's go to the goddess mountain and compete. Let's see who reaches the top of the goddess mountain first!]

The dwarf ah NI's conversation reappeared.

Then, the game screen changed.

it was another small game interface. it was a mountain path that was specially marked. it extended from the ranch to the top of the goddess mountain. however, the way it was represented in this small interface was different from the normal way in the game.

Following the notification, Qin Lin controlled his game character and arrived at the starting point with the dwarf ah ni.

Then, the countdown began.

Qin Lin was naturally fully focused. When the countdown ended, he controlled his game character to run quickly and go straight to the villa.

however, as soon as he ran out, he realized that something was wrong.

The little dwarf ah ni watched him run while he walked slowly?

Was this running?

You should at least take a few steps in a running competition.

Qin Lin subconsciously controlled his game character to stop.

However, when the game character stopped, the dwarf also stopped.

“???”Qin Lin was stunned. He tried to control the game character to move back, and the dwarf ah ni also stepped back.

Qin Lin was completely dumbfounded.

Did he not see the rules of the competition clearly just now? it was not to see who ran faster, but to see who ran slower?

That was impossible. He clearly remembered that the rules of the competition stated that whoever reached the peak of the goddess mountain first.

Right now, the dwarf ah NI’s expression clearly showed that he wanted to lose.

For some reason, he felt that he had been tricked.

Qin Lin felt helpless when he saw this situation. If he didn’t finish this mini-game, the screen would be stuck here. He couldn’t get out, so he had to control the game character to run to Mount goddesses and finish the game first.

When he controlled his character to run to the end of the goddess mountain, the notification appeared again.

[congratulations on winning the running competition!]

The screen of the mini-game disappeared.

The game character and the dwarf, ah ni, appeared in the farm again.

The dwarf ah NI’s conversation reappeared.

[you’re really amazing. I lost to you again. This is a gift for you. I hope you like it. I’ll be leaving then!]

After the dwarf finished his lines, he left a box on the spot and ran away.

This made Qin ran feel that there was a problem.

He stepped forward and opened the box left behind by the dwarf ah ni, revealing a white figure.

“Fox?” qin lin’s face was full of surprise.

There was a very cute white fox in the box, and its tail was especially beautiful.

When Qin Lin saw this scene, he thought of red hair.

Previously, the dwarf ah ni couldn't wait to find a master for the red fur, so he lost the red fur to him.

It couldn't be the same situation now, right?

The more Qin Lin thought about it, the more he felt that it was possible.

However, he felt that the other party did not have to go through so much trouble. The zoo that was transformed from the original buffet restaurant in his villa only had squirrels.

The other party could just send over as many of these animals as they wanted, and he would accept all of them. There was no need to go through so much trouble to organize a competition and then pretend to lose to him?

This white fox was really good looking.

At this moment, under the cartoon figure, a pair of bright eyes were very lively.

However, its body was curled up, with a sense of vigilance and panic. It was in a very bad mood.

Seeing how pitiful it looked, Qin Lin subconsciously wanted to enter the game and hold it up to comfort it.

However, there were other people around him, and it was not suitable for him to enter the game. He could only find an opportunity.

"Qin Lin, open the trunk. I'll get the food." Zhao Moshu's voice rang out.

Qin Lin nodded and opened the trunk.

This time, he had prepared a lot of dishes. Otherwise, there were no restaurants or restaurants in his hometown.

"Mo Xiao, I'll help you." Tang xiuwan was the first to help.

Along the way, she had become more familiar with Zhao Moyu.

Zhao mochen nodded and handed a few dishes to Tang xiuwan.

"qin lin, xiuwan and i will take care of the cooking. you and professor li should go and get down to business." Zhao Moyu naturally knew that his husband had come to the old house this time to bring back the special soil.

As she spoke, she took out some other dishes from the trunk and brought Tang xiuwan to the kitchen.

"Old Brother Qin, let's go take a look at the old field you mentioned." li kai said.

well, brother li, wait a moment. I'll go to the storage room to get some tools. Qin Lin said as he walked to a corner of the old house and opened a storage room.

This kind of storage room was also necessary for a house in the countryside. In addition to storing tools, the rice harvested in the past would also be stored inside. Various new year goods and so on would also be stored inside.

Qin Lin entered the storage room, locked the door, and then entered the game with a thought.

The main reason he came here was naturally not to find tools. He just wanted to find a place to enter the game, then move out the soil from the game and take a look at the white fox.

The scene in front of him changed, and Qin Lin appeared in the game farm again.

As soon as he entered the game, he felt a furry feeling on his feet.

The white fox was curled up at his feet, looking timid.

This aroused his love. He squatted down and began to stroke the white fox's soft white fur. However, under his touch, the white fox became even more nervous, and its body curled up more.

This white fox must have suffered some kind of stimulation or injury.

The white fox that wasn't in a cartoon was even more attractive. It was really likable at first sight. Anyone would be pampered by it as a pet.

Moreover, it was also very large, far larger than a poodle. Even the pet foxes raised in the real world were not this big.

[(unnamed) white fox: special pet]

[this is a very good-looking white fox. It has soft white fur that all animals are envious of, and it also has a very high intelligence.

The white fox was naturally afraid of strangers and timid. After seeing its companion's male Fox die in a trap, it became even more timid, as if it had no sense of security at all times. As long as you were good to it, it would be very dependent on you and make you happy.

Due to its huge size, the dwarf ah ni couldn't afford it after saving it, so he had been trying to find a long-term meal ticket for it.

[bindable name. do you want to bind it?]

the note was a little long. qin lin's head was full of black lines after reading it.

As expected, the dwarf ah ni had lost the match on purpose.

Was this guy used to treating him as a scapegoat?

This kind of behavior should be condemned, but he welcomed ah NI's behavior.

if there was anything she didn't want, she would give it all to him.

He wouldn't mind if there were ten or even a hundred White Yellow Tigers that cost more than 600000.

Qin Lin immediately chose to bind it and gave the white fox a name: "You're snow-white all over, so I'll call you little Xue!"

[begin binding to Xuanji in white fox little snow]

The system's notification also sounded at this time.

A moment later, the system's notification sounded again.

[white fox little snow binding successful]

At that moment, Qin Lin felt the difference in the white fox. It stood up gently and began to rub against his feet.

She was clearly attached to him, as if a helpless child had found someone to rely on. Her beautiful eyes were also staring at him.

Qin Lin reached out his hand, and without doing anything, it jumped into his hand and curled up in his arms. He reached out to stroke its fur, and the little guy obviously calmed down.

While Qin Lin was still in shock, he saw the white fox stretch out its paw and pass it to him. A small bag was wrapped around its paw, and it seemed to contain something.

Qin Lin took the bag with a puzzled look. He opened it and found some seeds inside. He looked at the remark and saw it:

[unknown fruit seed!]

[this is the seed of a fruit that the dwarf ah ni picked in the depths of Mount Saint missus. After eating it, ah ni didn't have any adverse symptoms, and the taste was very delicious. He was deeply attracted to it and planned to bring it home to cultivate it. Now, I don't know why it was left behind.]

Qin Lin was stunned when he saw the note.

Was this compensation?

Or was it because this Shorty ah ni was trying to trick him and forgot to take it away in a panic?

But no matter what, he had to accept this.

The note stated that the dwarf ah ni was fine after eating it. It was also very delicious and he was deeply attracted to it. It should be something good.

Qin Lin played with the white fox for a while more before carrying it into the house on the ranch. Then, he began to get down to business.

He had dug up a lot of special soil in the spring Mine before. There were 13 bags in total, and each bag was 50 pounds, which meant that there were 650 pounds in total.

Since he had come with Li Kai to move the items, he naturally had to take the in-game items back as well. He had to think about how to take them out openly.

Qin Lin took some time to move 10 bags of special soil out of the game and put them in the storage room. Then, he left the storage room with two hoes and a loading tool and returned to the car.

Li Kai had already taken out a sack from the car.

It was specially brought here to store soil.

"Old brother li, let's go!" Qin Lin beckoned to Li Kai and brought him up the back of the mountain. When they reached the mountainside, they circled around to where old Tian was.

“Old Brother Qin, is this the place?” When Li Kai arrived at the old field, he found something amiss after a quick look. This entire field seems to have been turned over not long ago. Did someone come to dig it?

Qin Lin couldn't help but admire Li Kai's ability in this aspect.

Didn't he flip through it during the new year?

At that time, in order to better cover up, he poured special soil into the field. He turned the entire field over to mix the special soil and the soil in the field evenly.

“old brother li, isn't this the one i dug up before?” I've dug the entire paddy field before. Other than the ones I brought back to the villa, there are still 10 bags in the old house, each bag weighing 50 catties. I'm not stupid, so I naturally have to hide these good things in advance.”

“Doesn't that mean that we've already dug up 500 catties?” Li Kai looked at the old field in surprise. This old field can be dug up so much? ”

Qin Lin naturally knew that this old Tian couldn't dig out so many. He simply got them from the game. He could only continue to make up nonsense. “Actually, it's not just this old field, there's also the mud wall beside it.”

Li Kai nodded when he heard this explanation. Although he still had some doubts, he didn't ask further. It would be annoying to ask too much when friends interacted.

there's so much soil, ” he continued. there's not enough space in your trunk to pull it back.

Qin Lin smiled. of course not, but I forgot to call a car here. Brother Li, you may have to stay here tonight. Dr. Tang will stay with you. I'll arrange a room for you.

He then teased, “old brother li, how's my memory?” I'll forget the things that I should forget.”

li kai naturally understood qin lin's meaning and couldn't help but reveal a silly smile that all men understood.

Brother Qin is a good person.

Qin Lin picked up his hoe and was about to start working in the old field, but he was stopped by Li Kai. “Old Brother Qin, don't be anxious. It's just this old field. We can look at the scenery first. If we take it slow, we'll be in a hurry.”

As he said that, he even revealed a look of shame on his face. it's best if you can drag it out until the evening. That way, it won't seem so deliberate for me to stay in your old residence to guard the special soil at night.
