

The Game 51

Chapter 51: Qin Lin Rice? Someone from the Tourism Bureau!

Not only did the Xiangshui Tribute Rice cost 500 yuan per catty, but it was also used by the Great Hall. However, because the geographical environment was too demanding, the annual production was not much. Even most rich people could not buy it.

He had even heard an exaggerated saying that the real Xiangshui Tribute Rice was guarded by an army. As soon as it was harvested, it was already transported to the capital. Very few of it ended up outside.

Outsiders did not know if it was so exaggerated. Ordinary people could not eat it, and they did not know why this rice was so expensive.

It was not that they had not experimented with using the Xiangshui Tribute Rice seeds to plant elsewhere. Either it would not survive, or the taste, texture, and nutritional value were too far apart.

The price was 500 yuan a catty. In fact, the price had already been raised to a higher price. It was really impossible to buy it for 500 yuan a catty.

17 years ago, Jack Ma had some means. He had once completed three transactions of small wine jars filled with Xiangshui Tribute Rice. Each transaction directly exceeded 10,000 yuan.

Qin Lin did not expect that his game could plant such rice. The products of the game would have special attributes. He wondered how this was compared to ordinary Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

He directly bought the Xiangshui Tribute Rice and controlled the game character to plant the rice in the paddy field. Because it was a game, planting it was simple.

Then, he looked at a portion of Xiangshui Tribute Rice seeds again.

[Xiangshui Tribute Rice Seed: Quality 1]

[This is a special rice seed. After long-term research, it is a selected species that are constantly optimized. After planting it, it can harvest Xiangshui Tribute Rice! After being modified by the game, there is no season to plant it. There is a chance of mutation. It can adapt to a change in the environment (restriction: Game seed)

Mature time: 12 hours.]

The note attracted him. The seeds bought in the game had a chance to mutate and adapt to the environment.

Did this mean that if he took this seed outside and if there was a chance of mutation, this rice would also have a chance to grow this kind of rice in Youcheng County?

Then, would it be called Youcheng Rice or Qin Lin Rice?

...

The next day, he got up.

Qin Lin picked all the 24 boxes of okra, yams, and broccoli, six ripe strawberries, and two watermelons of Level 3 land and planted new seeds.

As for the strawberries in the other six plots of land, they would ripen later. As for the Xiangshui Tribute Rice in the paddy field, it would have to wait until noon.

After Qin Lin sent everything to the villa in batches, Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen came to the villa again.

“Boss Qin, has that thing arrived?” Ma Liewen was clearly in a hurry.

He had deeply experienced the effect of that thing last night. His wife had not been by his side the entire night.

“Mr. Ma, we might have to wait until noon.” Qin Lin naturally did this on purpose.

The item was in the game. He had a motive, so he asked again, “Gentlemen, have you eaten Xiangshui Tribute Rice?”

Ma Liewen nodded. “I have. That stuff is really good, but it’s hard to buy.”

Chen Shengfei asked curiously, “Boss Qin, don’t tell me you have Xiangshui Tribute Rice?”

“I got some!” Qin Lin smiled and replied, “Help me try this Xiangshui Tribute Rice to see if I was cheated.”

That was his goal.

He would know the difference if he let those who had eaten the Xiangshui Tribute Rice taste it.

When Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen heard this, their eyes lit up.

Especially Chen Shengfei. He had eaten here twice. The dishes were good, the fruits were delicious, and the fish was even more classic. It was just that the rice was lacking.

Now that the boss had actually obtained Xiangshui Tribute Rice, it was perfect.

As the three of them were chatting, a middle-aged man brought a young man into the villa.

The young man looked at the tourists around him and said, “Chief Chen, I can’t believe such a villa suddenly appeared in Youcheng County and became popular online. Look, there are already so many tourists early in the morning.”

“It’s indeed unbelievable.” The middle-aged man walked to the fish pond. There were many people fishing by the fish pond. They were either with a few friends or a family. They were all discussing excitedly. It seemed like they were lucky to be able to catch wild fish with higher taste and nutrition in the fish pond.

The middle-aged man nodded. The small fish pond had a sense of anticipation. This was a very good method. It was much more fun.

The two of them arrived at the triangular plum blossom sea ticket office.

“Welcome, sir. How many tickets do you need?” the ticket seller asked warmly when he saw the two of them.

“Two,” the middle-aged man said. When the ticket seller was counting the tickets, he asked calmly, “Sister, there are so many tourists in this villa. The tickets for the sea of flowers can be sold a lot in a day, right?”

The ticket seller did not think too much about it. Thinking that tourists were gods, he said truthfully, “There are a lot. I sold more than 950 tickets yesterday.”

The middle-aged man’s eyes clearly lit up. No wonder there were more guests in the three big hotels in Youcheng County.

One had to know that Youcheng County had carefully built the Hero Valley, which had already invested more than 300 million yuan in the third issue. Last year, it had only received more than 650,000 guests. Usually, it only received more than 1,600 people every day.

Now, because of the explosion of a triangular plum blossom sea, this villa had reached almost 1,000 people in a day. The Internet power was really very powerful.

He just did not know how long the villa could maintain this popularity.

However, the ticket seller continued, “There might be more today. At the same time, more were sold in the morning than yesterday. Furthermore, someone on the Internet asked about online reservations and the company wanted to buy them in groups. They were all rejected by our boss and we can’t receive them.”

“Oh!” The middle-aged man felt a little hurt when he heard this. After taking the ticket, he checked it with the security guard and entered the sea of flowers.

The sea of flowers was already very lively. There were tourists taking photos everywhere. It was really enviable.

The two of them had seen a sea of flowers before. They had even gone to the city and Xia City to investigate various seas of flowers. There were also many triangular plum blossoms, so they knew some basic situations.

However, as they went deeper, the two of them were completely shocked. How could they describe the sea of flowers in front of them? The more artistic one was that at first sight, there was no room for anything else.

Not only that, when they saw this sea of flowers, they felt that the sea of flowers they had seen in the past was really ordinary. At least, that sea of flowers would not attract them at first glance and make them feel comfortable.

When they arrived at the central area, there was even more laughter. Through the fence, many tourists were playing with small squirrels.

There were a few more squirrels. They were smaller and followed the big squirrel.

Those squirrels were not afraid of people. When a tourist took out pine nuts, they stared at him in unison. When a tourist put the pine nuts on his shoulder, the squirrels were not afraid. They jumped up and grabbed the pine nuts. The tourists took the opportunity to take photos.

The scene was harmonious and heartwarming.

Naturally, there were also tourists who wanted to catch squirrels to take more intimate photos. The security guards at the side would also go forward to stop them.

The middle-aged man personally went forward and fed the squirrel two pine nuts. He was really surprised. How did this villa train the squirrels to be so obedient? They seemed domesticated.

The two of them wandered out of the sea of flowers. After seeing this sea of flowers, they could confirm that this sea of flowers could continue to be popular. Those who had come to play once would definitely want to come again when they were free. They would introduce friends and bring them over.

To be able to create this sea of flowers, this boss was not simple.

However, after leaving the sea of flowers, the middle-aged man looked at the empty wasteland of the villa and the simple adventure and grass-skiing facilities from the forest and felt a little pained.

How could such a large number of tourists...

“Come, follow me to see the boss of this villa!” The middle-aged man hurriedly led the young man towards the villa’s hall.

Once they arrived outside the hall, the surroundings were equally lively. The stoves and grills beside them were also prepared by many tourists.

When they reached the hall, the two of them were attracted by two figures. They were Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen.

“Chief Chen, these two are indeed attracted by this villa,” the young man said.

The middle-aged man nodded. Didn’t this mean that the villa was very charming?

He went straight to a staff member. “Sister, I’m Chen Li, the director of the Youcheng Tourism Bureau. Can you bring me to see your boss?”

Gao Yaoyao was clearly shocked.

The little girl had never seen an official before and was a little nervous.

The people from the tourism bureau had come looking for him. Could something have happened to the villa?

Chapter 52: Unexpected Surprise! Vitamin VP! Anti-aging?

There was a large empty space in the backyard of the hall.

Qin Lin was holding a book and cultivating the triangular plum seedling according to the contents of the book. He was working on a flower pot, fertilizing the soil, transplanting, and filling the lid...

Beside him, Chen Dabei was also watering the seeds of the watermelon with a water bottle.

“Boss, can these watermelon seeds really germinate? It’s already winter.” Although Chen Dabei was puzzled, the work arranged by his boss was still very efficient.

Qin Lin smiled and did not explain further. He planted a triangular plum branch into the flower pot and picked up the kettle at the side to water the flower pot.

This branch was cut from the seven-colored symbiotic triangular plum produced by the game. It was the same as the Quality 2 watermelon seed planted. He wanted to see what would happen after this game was cultivated.

At this moment, Gao Yaoyao rushed in with two people behind her.

When Gao Yaoyao saw Qin Lin, she hurriedly said, “Boss, these two people say they’re from the tourism bureau and want to see you.”

“Hello, I’m Chen Li, the Director of the Tourism Bureau.” Chen Li extended his hand and introduced himself as soon as he saw Qin Lin.

“Director Chen, why are you here?” Qin Lin shook hands with him in surprise.

He had all the documents, so there shouldn’t be a problem, right?

Chen Li smiled and said, “Boss Qin, we’re here to investigate and learn the management of your villa. Boss Qin, you should also know that our county is in charge of a fusion-type demonstration area for the entire tourism industry.”

“I roughly understand!” Qin Lin nodded.

He studied tourism management and naturally knew about the development of tourism in his hometown.

Over the past few years, the county had been shouting that the scenic area was their home. They used tourism+ and +tourism to promote the integration of tourism with the first, second, and third industries, stimulating the overall strength and competition for high-quality development in the entire county.

Simply put, it meant that they relied on tourism to attract tourists and promote the operation of other industries. Therefore, in the past few years, the entire county had been doing tourism. In the county city, a few temples had been built into basic attractions. Tourists were also developing everywhere.

The most famous were the Hero Valley, the galaxy scenic area, the terraced scenic area, and the Zhuzi Cultural Garden.

There were many other scenic areas of various sizes in villages and towns. A ginkgo forest had also been developed into a slightly famous scenic area.

Over the years, the tourism development of the entire county had soared from more than 700,000 people a year to more than 7.5 million people, and it was still increasing.

Naturally, he had also heard rumors that other than developing, it was also because there was a possibility of the county rising to the market and changing the awkward situation of low wages and high housing prices.

As for the truth, he was not sure. It was not something ordinary people should investigate.

However, although Youcheng County was in an awkward position with a low salary and high housing prices, it also had many advantages.

Firstly, it was known as a thousand-year-old county. Secondly, it was the hometown of gold foil, tea oil, and green bamboo. It was also in the Central Su District. The train station, high-speed entrance, and so on were all complete.

If they did a good job in the global tourism industry, it would definitely promote the economy and increase the income of the people.

For example, in his villa, Gao Yaoyao and the others only had a salary of 3,500 yuan. If his business was good, he would naturally increase their salary. Coupled with the commission, it would definitely far exceed their original income.

Only then did Qin Lin realize that his villa had become popular. The customer flow had almost reached 1,000 yesterday. Just this alone could attract nearly 300,000 tourists a year.

This was already close to the 30% and 20% of the tourists that the Hero Valley received every day, and it would increase.

This was the attention of the county.

This made him subconsciously hold his forehead. How could he have forgotten about this? He was actually troubled by the paperwork for the drifting project.

He could totally apply for the tourism support fund designed by the county in the past few years.

With his customer flow, the county would probably take the initiative to settle the procedures for him and even come up with a supporting plan for him.

This was his first time doing business. This was embarrassing.

“Boss Qin, I took a look at your villa just now. Your sea of flowers can definitely become a huge feature of our Youcheng County. It will also attract a lot of people.” Chen Li praised from the bottom of his heart. Then, he changed the topic and said, “However, your villa has too few supporting facilities. A sea of flowers is not enough to divert the traffic. There’s a limited capacity. Boss Qin, have you thought of expanding the project?”

“I took a look just now. The villa has a range of 500 acres, and most of it is still a wasteland. Are you planning to create another kind of matching sea of flowers? There’s also a river beside the villa. With the passenger conditions, we can completely build a permanent drifting project in the scenic area.”

Chen Li was already a little anxious. After all, this villa had already approached 1,000 customers yesterday. There would be more today. If he could let this villa break through the stable 2,000-day customer flow, this villa would be able to accommodate about 750,000 tourists a year.

The key was that the villa was only 30 minutes away from the county city. This was an advantage that other scenic areas did not have.

Thinking about it, if more than 750,000 tourists just left after seeing the sea of flowers, it would be a loss. However, if there were more projects in this villa, not only would the villa earn more, but it would also pay more taxes.

When the tourists finished looking at the sea of flowers and drifting around, it would be dark. Would they have to stay? Would they have to eat, drink, and play in Youcheng County? How much would it promote the economy?

They could squeeze the tourists' wallets to their heart's content.

What they were afraid of now was that the villa's popularity would subside.

When he returned to the bureau later, he still had a meeting to think about how to give some suggestions to maintain the popularity of this villa.

This opportunity could only be chanced upon by luck.

When Qin Lin heard Chen Li's words, he could not help but admire him. As expected of the leader of the tourism bureau, he was forward-looking.

Furthermore, after coming back to his senses, he roughly knew the other party's goal. It seemed like this villa's explosion was going to bring him unexpected benefits.

Chen Li took out another document and handed it to Qin Lin. "Boss Qin, you can take a look at this document. If you want to expand the villa project, the county can provide an interest-free support fund or a tourism subsidy fund to help you expand the villa."

Qin Lin had already guessed this in his heart, but the tourism support fund and the tourism subsidy fund were different. The difference was that one was paid, and the other was free. The amount was also different.

The tourism support fund was to provide loans or real bonds to the tourism industry, but it was less likely to use funds to invest.

To put it simply, if the government lent you a loan, you had to repay it. Naturally, if you invested in it, there was no need to repay it. The price was that you would lose a lot of dominance.

Many scenic spots in Youcheng County chose this kind of support fund.

The tourism subsidy fund was a pro bono subsidy for the tourism industry. It was usually funded by the fiscal budget, financial discounts, tax returns, and so on.

This method had a small amount of money and had to be reviewed by the government. For example, the income of the villa, taxes, and the value of the sea of flowers.

Although this was free, Qin Lin clearly did not dare to accept it for fear of being investigated.

“Chief Chen, if my villa is good enough, I want to apply for a travel support fund.” Qin Lin also voiced his thoughts. Although he had to return the money, he could rest assured. It was equivalent to getting the money first.

“Alright!” Chen Li was very satisfied with the answer. He smiled and said, “Then I’ll go back to the county for a meeting first. We’ll discuss the specific plan with Boss Qin after we’re done discussing it?”

“Alright, I’ll wait for Chief Chen’s good news.” Qin Lin smiled and nodded. With the government’s support, they would naturally make some corresponding requests. When the time came, he would see how to negotiate.

As for the procedures, he did not have to worry about them. The tourism bureau would help him settle them first.

After Chen Li left, Qin Lin was in a good mood. This was really an unexpected surprise.

At this moment, a notification appeared in the game in his mind: [Xiangshui Tribute Rice has matured!]

Qin Lin looked at the screen in his mind and controlled his game character to harvest the water fields and store them in the storage room.

Qin Lin drove to the warehouse and entered the game. The first thing he saw was the message:

[Xiangshui Tribute Rice: Quality 1 (100 catties)]

[This is a specially cultivated rice. It’s extremely rare and has rich nutritional value. It’s rich in nutrition +1, taste +1, mellow +1, delicious +1, and vitamin VPP anti-aging +1.]

[Xiangshui Tribute Rice: Quality 2 (5 catties)]

[This is a specially cultivated rice. It’s extremely rare and has rich nutritional value. It’s rich in nutrition +2, taste +2, mellow +2, delicious +2, and vitamin VPP anti-aging +2.]

Vitamin VPP?

‘Anti-aging?’

Chapter 53: Boss Qin, You’ve Been Deceived! It’s Impossible to Buy So Much Real Rice!

The taste, fragrance, rich nutrition, and deliciousness were basically ignored by Qin Lin.

His gaze went straight to the vitamin VPP’s anti-aging attribute.

He finally understood why this Xiangshui Tribute Rice could crush those more expensive rice and become a special offering for those big shots in the capital.

The attributes given by the system were all added to the original attributes of the item. In other words, the Xiangshui Tribute Rice itself had an anti-aging effect.

This was a type of rice that was truly priceless. Not only was it expensive, but it also had to be eye-catching. This was because the rice sold in the market was basically fake, or it was Xiangshui Rice, not Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

The Xiangshui Rice and the Xiangshui Tribute Rice looked only one word apart, but they were not the same. The difference was huge.

Due to the game setting, the rice in front of him had already been automatically packed into bags. There were a total of two bags, each weighing 50 catties. The words “Xiangshui Tribute Rice” were even printed very bluntly on them.

Qin Lin went forward and opened a bag to check.

The rice grains were as green as jade and crystalline-like suet. They were indeed a little different from ordinary rice.

He directly moved a bag of Xiangshui Tribute Rice out of the game, as well as the Quality 2 okra, yams, and broccoli he had promised Ma Liewen.

There were not many yams and broccoli. Although he had brought more okra, he only had more than 10 catties.

Even if he wanted Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen to owe him a favor, he did not give much.

If he gave too much this time, it would be difficult to do favors in the future.

After putting everything on the tricycle, he drove to the villa.

As noon approached, the villa became even more lively.

After foreign tourists finished admiring the triangular plum blossom sea, if they were not driving, they would usually leave behind a grill and a stove to cook.

This was the complete fun of coming to such a place.

Qin Lin drove the tricycle out of the hall and Chen Dabei welcomed him.

“Carry this rice in,” Qin Lin instructed directly. He also walked in with Quality 2 okra, yams, and broccoli.

Chen Dabei and the security guard immediately attacked.

Qin Lin also entered the hall and saw Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen. Then, he walked forward and said, “Mr. Chen, Mr. Ma, I’ve brought back the okra, yams, and broccoli I wanted. Also, I’ll let you try the Xiangshui Tribute Rice at noon.”

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen were also looking forward to the Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

They knew the inside story and knew how difficult it was to buy this rice. It was difficult for locals to buy real Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

It was sent to the capital as soon as it was harvested. In a place like the capital, it was obvious who the table was for. They had once encountered a high-end rich person’s gathering. An explosive rich person had heard of the famous Xiangshui Tribute Rice and asked if he could buy 20 catties to try. Everyone only looked at each other with a special smile.

At this moment, Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen also saw Chen Dabei coming in with a bag of rice. When they saw the bag with the words “Xiangshui Tribute Rice”, they were stunned.

“???” Chen Shengfei.

“???” Ma Liewen.

Xiangshui Tribute Rice?

Qin Lin also instructed Chen Dabei, “Put this rice alone and get Master Lin to specially make one for Mr. Chen and Mr. Ma.”

“Okay, Boss!” Chen Dabei nodded and carried the rice into the kitchen.

Chen Shengfei frowned and said, “Boss Qin, you might have been deceived.”

Ma Liewen nodded and said tactfully, “Yes, Xiangshui Tribute Rice is very rare. Old Chen and I can only occasionally pull strings to buy some. The number won’t exceed 10 catties.”

That bag was 50 catties, right? It was a joke to buy so much Xiangshui Tribute Rice at once.

It was impossible to buy so much.

There were indeed many fake goods on the market. Some people who did not understand would be fooled and buy fake goods.

Actually, if one thought about it carefully, they would know that there was only so much production in total. Other than those that were transported to the capital, how could some of the shares still have a chance to be sold on the market?

Qin Lin was stunned when he heard their words. He did not expect to be deceived.

But his rice was real.

However, when he thought about it, if it were him, he would also think that he had been deceived when he saw more than 50 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice.

This reminded him that this thing was not suitable to be taken out in large quantities. Otherwise, if it was 100 catties a day, it would be 3,000 catties a month. How many catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice were produced a year? He could probably produce only 1.5 catty a month.

Was he so awesome?

Or could he produce it himself?

At the thought of this, he thought of the seeds produced by the game and immediately decided to try getting the seeds from the game.

What if he could really produce it himself?

However, when he heard Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen’s words, Qin Lin pretended to be stunned. “That shouldn’t be possible, right? We’ve known each other for a long time. You’ve never lied to me before.”

He really acted like he didn’t know anything. After all, he couldn’t say that he wanted the two of them to distinguish between them previously, but ended up saying that it was real, right?

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen smiled and did not say anything else. After all, Boss Qin had just been deceived. He must be feeling terrible.

Qin Lin did not disturb the two of them. Just as he was about to walk into the courtyard again, he saw Zhao Moqing walk in from outside. She was holding a Han uniform that was protected by a plastic film. As soon as she entered, she said to Gao Yaoyao, "Yaoyao, when you're free in the afternoon, change into this outfit. I'll take a video for you."

"Okay, Sister Moqing." Gao Yaoyao nodded and took the Han uniform carefully.

Qin Lin walked in front of Zhao Moqing and asked with a smile, "Moqing, have you thought it through? Come to the villa to help me. I'm really worried about leaving the finances to others. I only trust my wife."

Zhao Moqing snorted. "Don't rush me. I'll tell Uncle tonight. As long as he agrees, I'll resign tomorrow, okay?"

...

In the kitchen.

Master Lin was already busy with the kitchen. It was the busiest at this time every day. Many tourists did not know how to cook. After coming to see the triangular plum blossom sea, it was time to order.

Suddenly, Master Lin was attracted by the fragrance of rice. It seemed to be specially steamed rice for Mr. Chen and Mr. Ma.

"It smells so good!"

"You smelled it too. I thought I smelled wrong."

"..."

The kitchen helper also smelled this mellow fragrance and revealed a surprised expression.

Rice had a mellow fragrance, but it could not be smelled anymore when cooked in a rice cooker. In the past, the fragrance of rice would be emitted when it was steamed with wood and cooked with wood.

But this mellow fragrance was clearly different now.

The steamed rice was less than one catty of rice, but it was actually so mellow and fragrant. It could not help but be surprising to people.

In the afternoon.

The hall became lively. The dining table was already filled with people, but the seats were limited. More people could only leave the villa to eat in the county city.

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen were already eating watermelons and strawberries of Quality 2.

This delicious dessert was also a pleasure.

When a Quality 2 bass was served, the two of them picked up their chopsticks and tasted it.

“Sirs, our boss especially cooked rice for you!” A waiter served the rice again.

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen looked at each other.

This should be Boss Qin’s Xiangshui Tribute Rice, right?

“It smells good,” said Ma Liewen, surprised.

Chen Shengfei also said, “Yes, this fragrance is very strong.”

Both of them were clearly attracted by the mellow fragrance.

The two of them picked up their chopsticks and ate. However, a moment later, they looked at each other in disbelief.

This taste and texture.

How could it be?

Chapter 54: Stupid and Rich! The Clown is Me!

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen looked at each other and understood what each other meant.

“Old Chen, this rice... seems to be much better than the ones we bought in the past!” Ma Liewen opened his mouth.

“...” Chen Shengfei was silent for a moment before saying, “It doesn’t seem like Boss Qin was deceived. It seems like we were the ones who were deceived. If this is the real Xiangshui Tribute Rice, then what we spent more than 1,000 yuan a catty to buy previously was fake.”

Ma Liewen’s temper flared up. “Do you all think that we’re fools because we’re rich? The Fragrant Pavilion isn’t fooling me with pure wild fish. Now, that bastard Li Fei is also fooling us with fake Xiangshui Tribute Rice?”

Chen Shengfei frowned and said, “Who asked us to have never eaten real Xiangshui Tribute Rice? Li Fei wants to get close to our circle, but he still used fake goods to fool us. Just ignore him in the future.”

“Yes!” Ma Liewen nodded and then said bitterly, “It’s embarrassing. I just said that Boss Qin was deceived.”

“...” Chen Shengfei was also helpless. Who knew that the clown was him? Then, he suddenly said, “Boss Qin’s bag of rice should be 50 catties, right?”

Only then did Ma Liewen react. He could get 50 catties of such rice in one go. The person who sold Boss Qin the rice was either not simple or the other party thought that it was a fake and was using it to deceive Boss Qin.

Of course, they did not want to pry. After all, they did not rely on this to earn money. They were just customers. There was no need to worry about the rice.

Even if they knew that Boss Qin could get it, they might not be able to get it. The circle was different, after all. It was true that they were rich, but in some circles, they could not even buy it.

Otherwise, if they were rich, how could they have bought fake Xiangshui Tribute Rice before?

They just had to build a good relationship with Boss Qin. If Boss Qin had something good, they could just look for him.

Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen enjoyed this meal very much. It could be said that they had never been so carefree. From rice to fish and fruits, everything was classic.

Naturally, the price of these three dishes, one fish, one rice, and two fruits had also reached more than 9,000 yuan.

After the meal, the two of them looked for Qin Lin.

“Sirs, are you satisfied?” Qin Lin asked with a smile when he saw the two of them.

Chen Shengfei said awkwardly, “Boss Qin, your bag of rice might really be Xiangshui Tribute Rice. What we ate in the past was fake. It’s much worse than yours.”

Ma Liewen sighed and said, “We’re stupid and rich. We’ve always been fooled by people who give fake goods and treat us as fools. We were naive to think that what we ate was real.”

Hearing this, Qin Lin understood in his heart that the Xiangshui Tribute Rice produced by his game was definitely more delicious than the real one.

The two tycoons treated the food they had eaten previously as fake. They seemed to be very angry at the person who sold them the rice.

There was really no way to explain this. He could only say that someone had been implicated.

However, Qin Lin could only pretend to be surprised in front of the two of them. “In other words, I wasn’t deceived? There are indeed more good people in the world. How can there be so many liars?”

“...” Chen Shengfei.

“...” Ma Liewen.

Qin Lin was not deceived. They were deceived. Be it the Hundred Fragrance Pavilion or Li Fei, who sold rice, they all treated them as fools. No wonder there was a saying that said that fools were rich.

Ma Liewen said awkwardly, “Boss Qin, I actually have something to discuss with you. Your watermelons are not bad. Can you sell me another batch? My company happens to have an anniversary celebration to entertain VIPs.”

Qin Lin’s eyes lit up when he heard this. He was just worried that the sales of Quality 2 watermelons were not high for the time being. He could only sell a few a day.

There were already more than 60 in the game.

He immediately asked, “Mr. Ma, how many watermelons do you need? I don’t have many of these watermelons in stock. Let’s have more than 60.”

“More than 60 is enough. I’ll take them all!” Ma Liewen said decisively.

Qin Lin nodded and said, "Alright, I'll contact a car and install it later. I'll follow you to the city to avoid the problem of shipping and output."

"Okay!" Ma Liewen nodded in response. Then, he said in embarrassment, "Boss Qin, I have a presumptuous request. Can you give me some of your Xiangshui Tribute Rice?"

Chen Shengfei also said, "Boss Qin, on the account that we were deceived as fools in the past, transfer some to us this time."

Alright, he was already acting pitiful, making Qin Lin a little embarrassed. He smiled and said, "Mr. Ma, Mr. Chen, ordinary customers can't afford this rice. Take care of my business. I'll keep some for myself and transfer the rest to you!"

These words immediately made Chen Shengfei and Ma Liewen feel very good. Their impression of Qin Lin increased.

For a big client like Ma Liewen, Qin Lin naturally had to serve him well. After negotiating, he drove the tricycle to the warehouse and moved the accumulated Quality 2 watermelons out of the game. He then spent some time loading the tricycle.

Only then did he transport the watermelon to the villa.

...

There were clearly more local guests in the villa in the afternoon. The short distance could give local tourists more time to choose and come at any time.

Furthermore, the weather was already turning cold. The afternoon sun was warm, and it was the best time to go to the sea of flowers.

Therefore, those who were not prepared to experience cooking in the villa would choose this time to play.

Li Jiawen was like this. Previously, her sister-in-law had given her so many tickets, so she had made an appointment with her three best friends to bring their husbands and boyfriends to see this sea of flowers. However, she had also asked around and found out that there were many tourists in the villa now. It was very difficult to park the car, so she only drove two cars.

Zhao Moyun parked his BMW 5 Series and got out of the car. Although he had used his uncle's connections, he had opened a KTV and had a BMW 5 Series. He had also married a beautiful and educated wife. He was definitely a successful person that everyone envied.

After Li Jiawen got out of the car, she held his arm. How could they not show off their love when they came to such a scenic area?

"I didn't expect this rich villa to have so many owners and tourists."

"That triangular sea of plum blossoms is really hot now. I see it on Douyin every day."

"Jiawen, hasn't this villa restricted ticket reservations? How did you get so many tickets?"

Li Jiawen did not know how to explain this question. Her sister-in-law had given it to her. Perhaps it was because of the tax bureau. After all, this villa had been taken by the tax bureau previously.

“Is that Qin Lin?” Zhao Moyun was walking when he suddenly saw Qin Lin driving a tricycle and pulling a car full of watermelons into the villa.

He naturally knew his sister’s boyfriend and interacted with him a lot. To be honest, he knew Qin Lin’s character. He was a good person. If his sister chose him, he would not object.

However, his mother was unwilling to see his daughter suffer. Since his mother objected, as her son, he could not say much. Otherwise, it would really be uncomfortable to be sandwiched between his sister and his mother.

“It’s him!” Li Jiawen nodded.

“Jiawen, who is it?” a woman beside her asked.

“My sister-in-law’s boyfriend,” Li Jiawen explained.

A man beside him said in surprise, “Moqing’s boyfriend? It seems like he’s not very good. With Moqing’s looks, can’t she find someone better?”

Li Jiawen frowned and looked at the man. “Liu Hua, don’t say that. Qin Lin is a good person. He was dragged down by his family. I heard that he’s in the fruit wholesale business now. He should be here to deliver watermelons.”

Liu Hua said indifferently, “He even came to deliver fruits wholesale. I think business isn’t very good. I heard that it’s difficult to do wholesale now. Moqing can find a better person. Why don’t I introduce someone to Moqing? She can interact with more people and meet better people?”

Chapter 55: Qin Lin is the Boss of This Villa!

“Alright, since you’re here to play, don’t talk nonsense.” Zhao Moyun directly stopped this topic.

To be honest, he did not care about Liu Hua at all. He had just opened a smoke hotel and did not even earn much money, yet he could not recognize himself.

He had been in contact with people who lent money and used POSS machines all day. He only knew how to eat, drink, and play. This kind of person came and went quickly. He was also easy to cause trouble. In his eyes, he was inferior to Qin Lin.

At least Qin Lin was hardworking and reliable!

However, the other party was his wife’s best friend’s boyfriend, so he could not say anything. When he returned, he had to remind his wife not to interact with this best friend.

Humans were very easily affected by their surroundings. His wife and best friend were fine now, but with such a boyfriend, their values would naturally slowly be assimilated over time.

Moments were important.

In a circle, if there was someone with bad values, it might lead a group of people’s values astray.

After hearing Zhao Moyun's words, the group did not talk about this anymore and walked straight into the mountain villa.

After entering the villa, Li Jiawen saw Zhao Moqing walking over with a girl in a Han uniform. She shouted in surprise, "Moqing."

Zhao Moqing was returning from the sea of flowers with Gao Yaoyao when she bumped into her brother and sister-in-law. She immediately jogged over and greeted, "Brother, sister-in-law, why are you here?"

Li Jiawen asked, "Moqing, shouldn't we be asking this? Why are you here?"

"Sister-in-law, it's a long story. Let's go to the hall and I'll tell you in detail." Zhao Moqing immediately welcomed Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen to the hall.

When they arrived at the hall, Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen saw Qin Lin and two security guards holding watermelons and exchanging greetings at the door. There were two people standing beside him, and one of them looked familiar.

Zhao Moqing jogged to Qin Lin's side. "Qin Lin, my brother and sister-in-law are here."

Qin Lin turned around and saw Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen walking forward. He greeted them warmly, "Brother, Sister-in-law!"

Zhao Moyun went forward and patted Qin Lin's shoulder. He asked, "What's the market for these watermelons now? My KTV needs a lot of watermelons every day."

Previously, he did not know that Qin Lin was involved in wholesale watermelons. Now that he knew from his wife, he hoped to help as much as he could. After all, he could tell that his sister had decided on Qin Lin.

Qin Lin smiled and explained, "Brother, these are not ordinary watermelons. They're a special quality watermelon. One catty costs 100 yuan."

"..." Zhao Moyun was suddenly stunned when he heard this price.

100 yuan a catty?

A watermelon?

Liu Hua and the others clearly could not believe it either.

One of Li Jiawen's best friends said in surprise, "A watermelon that costs 100 yuan a catty? I've never eaten such an expensive watermelon."

"I think he's crazy about money." Liu Hua clearly did not believe it.

Li Jiawen thought of something and said, "This villa sells a special quality watermelon that costs 100 yuan a catty. Previously, it was on the hot search because of this. In the end, it was bought by the boss of Blue Ocean Corporation in the city. Qin Lin, did you supply this watermelon?"

When Zhao Moyun heard this, he subconsciously looked at Chen Shengfei.

He finally knew why it looked familiar.

He had seen that video before.

The other party was the chairman of Blue Ocean Corporation. He was a big shot.

He really wanted to know him, but he did not dare to go over and greet him.

Liu Hua said again, "Jiawen, you're thinking too much. There are definitely a large number of merchants who can supply such watermelons. How can they deliver them themselves?"

Clearly, self-righteous people often did not need a reason to target others.

When Zhao Moyun heard this, he glared at Liu Hua and secretly decided to let his wife interact less with his girlfriend.

This guy was simply arrogant and had no EQ at all.

At this moment, Chen Dabei put down the last watermelon and said to Qin Lin, "Boss, I've weighed it. It's a total of 748 catties."

The term 'boss' stunned Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen.

The couple looked at Zhao Moqing in surprise, their faces full of questions.

At this moment, Qin Lin also apologized to Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen. Then, he welcomed Ma Liewen and said, "Mr. Ma, the weight is out. You can randomly pick a melon to test. After that, I'll call a car to drive you back."

"There's no need. I believe in Boss Qin!" Ma Liewen waved his hand. Clearly, he did not want to do such a useless thing. Then, he said to Qin Lin, "Boss Qin, how much is my total? Let's settle it together, including the 40 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice. I'll pay for Old Chen's portion."

"Okay." Qin Lin nodded and took their bills. The meal was a total of 9,200 yuan. He had given the two of them 40 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice. The two of them insisted on bidding 1,000 yuan a catty and finally paid 49,200 yuan.

The watermelon weighed 748 catties. One catty was 100 yuan. 748,000 catties was a total of 124,000 yuan.

Qin Lin calculated the price and said to Ma Liewen, "Mr. Ma, the final price is 124,000 yuan."

"Alright, I'll transfer the money to you, Boss Qin." Ma Liewen did not waste his breath and directly transferred 124,000 yuan to Qin Lin to complete the transaction.

This stunned Zhao Moyun, Li Jiawen, and the others.

Especially Liu Hua. He could not believe it.

It was already 100,000 yuan? Why did it feel like it was as simple as 10 yuan?

When he thought of what he had just said, he panicked.

"Your last number... income is 124,000 yuan. The balance is 812,654.60 yuan."

Qin Lin's phone immediately received a transfer message. In addition to Ma Liwen's money and the income from the villa, his balance was about to exceed a million.

Then, he called Zhao Liyuan from the transportation company and asked him to send a small truck to transport the watermelons and follow Chen Shengfei and the other man back to the city.

After making the arrangements, Qin Lin said to the two of them, "Gentlemen, the car will be here soon. Wait for a while. I'll entertain the others."

Ma Liwen smiled nonchalantly and said, "Boss Qin, don't worry about us. Old Chen and I can handle it ourselves."

"Yes!" Chen Shengfei nodded.

Qin Lin walked toward Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen. "Brother, Sister-in-law, please come in." He brought the group to a table in the hall and sat down. He then instructed Chen Dabei, "Cut out a special quality watermelon."

"Okay, Boss!" Chen Dabei nodded and walked to the kitchen with a special watermelon on the shelf.

Ma Liwen packed the Quality 2 watermelons in Qin Lin's inventory. The few Quality 2 watermelons on the shelves in the hall were still there.

Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen were already looking at Zhao Moqing appraisingly.

"Moqing, tell me, what exactly is going on?" Li Jiawen interrogated her directly.

Her best friend also looked at Zhao Moqing curiously.

The group of people came to this villa in high spirits, but they did not expect that this villa might be opened by Li Jiawen's sister-in-law's boyfriend.

Therefore, it was inevitable that a very strange mentality would appear! Surprise? Curiosity? Or a hint of envy?

That feeling was hard to describe.

Zhao Moqing said proudly, "Qin Lin is actually the boss of this villa!"

Even though Li Jiawen had already guessed it, she was still very surprised. "No wonder the villa doesn't accept reservations, but you can give me so many tickets."

Zhao Moyun could not help but open his mouth. His family knew the situation of Qin Lin's family very well. They had not seen Qin Lin for a while, but he had already created such a villa?

From the video, it was impossible to get that sea of flowers without millions.

At this moment.

Qin Lin also brought a few cabbages of Quality 2 strawberries over and said, "Brother, Sister-in-law, try this special quality strawberry."

Li Jiawen looked at the strawberries and was stunned. She picked one up and tasted it. Then, she thought of something and asked Zhao Moqing, "Did you bring this back last time?"

"I think so!" Zhao Moqing nodded.

"Aiyo, I've wronged you." Li Jiawen suddenly felt bitter. Last time, she thought that the imported strawberries bought by her university best friend were not as good as Qin Lin's 20 yuan a catty. Who knew that Qin Lin's strawberries were also of special quality?

In those videos, the special quality strawberries in the villa cost 200 yuan a catty.

Chapter 56: People With Low IQ and EQ Are Terrifying!

Everyone at the table was clearly very interested in this strawberry. They all tasted it and were surprised after eating.

"This strawberry is too delicious, right?"

"Previously, I bought 200 catties of imported strawberries from my university best friend with Jiawen. The taste is much worse than this."

Li Jiawen's three best friends were also shocked.

Delicious +2, taste +2, sweetness +2, aftertaste +2. This kind of strawberry was definitely something they had never eaten in their lives.

Soon.

The watermelons were also brought out.

"Qin Lin, is this watermelon the kind that costs 100 yuan a catty?" Li Jiawen asked expectantly. She had seen the video previously and thought about what a watermelon that cost 100 yuan a catty tasted like.

Qin Lin nodded and said, "Yes, there are very few of these watermelons. Sister-in-law, try them."

Li Jiawen did not stand on ceremony. She picked up a piece of watermelon and took a bite. Then, she was attracted by the deliciousness of the watermelon again. "Yes... Yes, this watermelon is so sweet. The taste is too wonderful. I've never eaten such a delicious watermelon."

This attracted the interest of the others. They picked up the watermelons and ate them. Then, they were attracted by the deliciousness of the watermelons. In the past, they thought that those watermelons that cost more than 100 catties were paid by rich people, but the taste was no different from ordinary watermelons.

But now, it seemed that poverty had really limited their imagination. Indeed, you got what you paid for.

After eating it, they realized that the fruits at this price were indeed much more delicious than ordinary ones.

Naturally, the group did not know that their original thoughts were not wrong.

What they were eating now was a game product with attribute bonuses. Even watermelons that cost 100 yuan a catty outside could not be so delicious.

Liu Hua had to admit that this watermelon was delicious. After eating one piece, he did not forget to take a second piece. Then, he took out his phone and took a photo of the watermelon and strawberries before sending it to his WeChat Moments.

Title: 200-catty special-quality strawberries and 100-catty special-quality watermelons from Qinglin Villa. They are indeed delicious.

He knew very well that there were very few people in his circle of friends who had eaten fruits of this level. It was worth showing off.

As expected, someone liked and commented on his Moments.

After all, Qinglin Villa was not only popular online but also in Youcheng County.

“Brother Hua is awesome. These fruits are something I can’t afford for the rest of my life!”

“Brother Liu, why did you go to Qinglin Villa to play?”

“...”

Those surprised comments made Liu Hua inexplicably proud and satisfied. He could not help but reply, “Boss Zhuang is my friend. He invited me to be his guest.”

This attracted the surprise and envy of many people. After all, everyone knew that the boss of Qinglin Villa was definitely an impressive person in Youcheng County.

Liu Hua was even smugger. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly as if all of this was really related to him. Actually, all of this had nothing to do with him.

But who in his circle of friends knew that he had only taken advantage of them?

The smug Liu Hua did not see that her girlfriend was already frowning slightly as she held her phone. She saw her boyfriend’s Moments and clearly felt a little embarrassed.

He had the cheek to show off something that had nothing to do with him. The key was that this reply really made her blush. Fortunately, she had not known this boyfriend for long and did not add Li Jiawen and the others on WeChat.

Arrogance, pride, and love to show off... When the other party was chasing him, he had not discovered these shortcomings. But now, it seemed that compared to Jiawen’s husband’s steadiness or Zhao Moqing’s boyfriend’s young and promising character, this was...

She didn’t even know how to describe it.

Quality 2 watermelon and Quality 2 strawberries were definitely delicious.

He was still unsatisfied when he finished a watermelon and a few catties of strawberries.

Qin Lin got someone to cut another Quality 2 watermelon.

At this moment, the car sent by Zhao Liyuan arrived. Qin Lin greeted the group and brought Chen Dabei to load the car. Then, he had to send Ma Liwen and Chen Shengfei off.

Both of them were big customers.

After Qin Lin left, Zhao Moyun could not help but ask his sister, "Moqing, what's going on? Why did Qin Lin suddenly open this villa?"

He was worried.

After all, a person with a difficult family suddenly became rich. He was either lucky to have won a prize or did something illegal. It was impossible for him to earn a few million yuan in a short period of time.

Zhao Moqing explained to Qin Lin, "Brother, Qin Lin was lucky to catch an ornamental fish and it was bought by a boss for 650,000 yuan. After that, the boss recognized Qin Lin and even lent him money to open this villa. He even asked Qin Lin to help him catch fish again when he has the chance."

"Ah... What fish is so expensive?" Li Jiawen was surprised.

Everyone at the table was clearly attracted by this topic.

Their life circle clearly could not come into contact with such things.

Zhao Moqing explained, "I think it's called a wild Albino Tiger Fish!"

The moment this name was mentioned, everyone at the table took out their phones and searched.

Zhao Moyun was the same. Soon, he found relevant information. There was indeed an ornamental fish like the Albino Tiger Fish. It was terrifyingly expensive, and the wild ones were even more expensive. One was equivalent to his BMW 5 Series.

The information also said that this kind of fish was very rare in the country. However, some fish would appear in some river zones in the country, but the quality was not high. If one could catch a high-quality fish, there would definitely be people buying it for hundreds of thousands.

It seemed like Qin Lin was lucky. The heavens were blessing him. Not only did he catch a sky-high price fish, but he also got to know a boss who appreciated him.

There were always some people in this world who would be helped by nobles.

Qin Lin had clearly met a benefactor.

Zhao Moyun did not continue to probe. Firstly, it was rude. Secondly, he would be thought of as wanting to catch this fish. After all, some people with low EQ or IQ would definitely have such thoughts.

"Moqing, where did your boyfriend catch the fish?" Liu Hua could not help but ask.

650,000 yuan for a fish. Just the thought of it was tempting.

"..." Zhao Moyun frowned.

Zhao Moqing shook her head and said, "I don't know. Qin Lin didn't say anything."

Not long after.

Qin Lin had already returned after sending them off.

When Liu Hua saw Qin Lin, he seemed to have held it in for a long time. He asked anxiously, "Qin Lin, where did you catch that wild Albino Tiger?"

"???" Qin Lin did not expect anyone to ask this question. He had not made it up before, so he could only make it up on the spot. "It's in the area connected to the Central Lake by the reservoir beside the villa. It took three days and a lot of money to make preparations. I spent a full week to capture it, but my hard work paid off."

"It's at the reservoir!" When Liu Hua got the location, he immediately smiled and started calculating in his heart.

Zhao Moyun frowned again.

He really felt that he should let his wife interact less with that best friend. Women with such a boyfriend either had really bad taste, were like-minded, or were stupid!

Zhao Moqing had already held Qin Lin's arm and said, "Qin Lin, I'll bring my brother and sister-in-law to take a walk in the sea of flowers."

"Yes!" Qin Lin nodded.

Just as the group was about to set off, Zhao Moqing's phone suddenly rang.

She immediately picked up the phone and heard her mother's angry voice. "Zhao Moqing, go home immediately. Also, bring Qin Lin."

"Uh!" Zhao Moqing was stunned. Before she could understand, the other party had already hung up.

Li Jiawen asked, "Moqing, what's wrong?"

Zhao Moqing said nervously, "Mom asked me to go back and bring Qin Lin along. She seems to be very angry."

"Ah, how did Mom know that you're with Qin Lin now?" Li Jiawen immediately raised her hand and said, "I didn't say it. I didn't snitch."

Then she looked at her husband.

Zhao Moyun was depressed. "Why are you looking at me? I haven't sent a message or called since I came in. It wasn't me."

Zhao Moqing and Qin Lin looked at each other guiltily.

Chapter 57: Mother-in-law Who Is Stubborn but Soft-hearted!

Suddenly disturbed by such a call, Zhao Moqing's interest disappeared.

When Zhao Moyun saw this, he could only say, "Moqing, Qin Lin, I'll drive you back!"

Li Jiawen could only say to her three best friends, "Shan Shan, go play in the sea of flowers first. I'll accompany Moqing back."

She had also heard her mother-in-law's voice on the phone just now. She seemed to be very angry and looked like something was about to happen.

Shan Shan was Liu Hua's girlfriend. She and her other two best friends could only nod.

"Qin Lin, Moqing, let's go!" Zhao Moyun called out to the two of them again.

The four of them arrived at the parking lot and got into the BMW 5 Series.

As soon as he got into the car, Zhao Moyun reminded him, "Qin Lin, why didn't you keep it a secret? You told Liu Hua where you caught the fish. I think that guy is an opportunist. He wants to catch it himself."

Qin Lin was stunned for a moment before smiling. "Then let him catch it. It's his ability if he can catch it."

Was this a joke? His fish was made in the game. It would be strange if he could catch it in the place he said.

"You're really bold." Zhao Moyun shook his head and did not say anything else.

At least Qin Lin's temperament was not bad and his sister would not suffer. It was probably because of this that the boss decided to help him.

If it were Liu Hua, even if he sold the fish, with his character, the boss would not look at him after the transaction.

On the other side, Shan Shan and the others were also planning to enter the triangular sea of plum blossoms after Li Jiawen and her husband left. Liu Hua suddenly said, "Shan Shan, I have something to do in the county. You and everyone go and see the sea of flowers first."

He was clearly not in the mood to look at the sea of flowers anymore. Because he knew about the fish, his mind was filled with thoughts of catching fish. He said something and left.

Shan Shan's frown deepened.

She had inexplicably become the third wheel of two best friends?

"Shan Shan, your boyfriend doesn't seem reliable..."

"Shan Shan, why is he like this?"

These words made Shan Shan even more uncomfortable. Clearly, Liu Hua's performance this time had disappointed her too much.

However, Liu Hua had already walked out of the villa and did not forget to make a call. "Hao Zi, call Xiao Long to my shop and tell you about getting rich... What do you mean by getting rich? Do you know the boss of Qinglin Villa... Yes, he invited me to play in his villa just now. I heard that he got rich. There's a kind of fish in the area connected to the reservoir here..."

The more Liu Hua spoke, the more excited he became. A fish was worth 650,000 yuan.

...

Zhao Moyun's car quickly entered Youcheng County and stopped at Ming Yuan District in the Eastern City.

When he arrived outside Zhao Moqing's house, Qin Lin could not help but feel a little nervous.

Zhao Moqing seemed to have noticed his emotions and took the initiative to hold his hand.

Zhao Moyun opened the door. When the group entered the hall, they felt a stagnant atmosphere. Chen Xiao was already sitting on the sofa without a word. His face was ashen, like a volcano that was about to erupt at any time. There were even two packed suitcases beside the sofa.

Anyone could tell that this was the prelude to the storm.

Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen did not dare to speak anymore. They obediently sat on the other side and gave Zhao Moqing a look that said, "You're on your own."

When Zhao Moqing saw this, she went forward nervously and sat beside Chen Xiao. She asked nervously, "Mom, why did you pack your luggage?"

"That's your luggage," Chen Xiao said coldly. It was obvious that she was holding back her anger.

How could she not be angry?

She was originally going to update the household register today. After Li Jiawen married into the family, she had not been using the household register. She hoped that her daughter-in-law would have a grandson and planned to update the household register.

She had originally made an appointment with her friend who worked at the police station happily. Unexpectedly, when she updated the household register, she realized that her daughter was already married.

She thought that there was a mistake. After checking, she realized that her daughter's husband was actually Qin Lin.

How could she not know that her daughter had actually taken the household register and secretly registered her marriage with Qin Lin?

"Mom, what's wrong?" Zhao Moqing asked.

Chen Xiao threw a marriage certificate on the table angrily. "You're still asking me what's wrong? Do you even care about me?"

When they saw the marriage certificate, Qin Lin and Zhao Moqing knew what was going on.

Li Jiawen took the marriage certificate in confusion and looked at it. Then, she was in disbelief. "Moqing, you and Qin Lin actually registered your marriage. It's been so long."

Zhao Moyun looked at the date on it in disbelief.

His sister did not care about her mother at all. She had really done a good job.

He did not have the guts!

Zhao Moqing hurriedly said, "Mom, listen to me..."

"Don't say..." Chen Xiao interrupted Zhao Moqing angrily. Then, he looked at Qin Lin and said, "Qin Lin, bring him back. We've already registered our marriage. There's no need for him to stay at his mother's house forever."

"Auntie, I'm sorry. I know I was wrong about this." Qin Lin felt guilty and could only apologize sincerely. He also promised, "I can promise you that I'll definitely treat Moqing well. I definitely won't make her sad or aggrieved."

"Mom!" Zhao Moqing knew that her mother must be very angry this time.

"Let's go!" Chen Xiao did not give Zhao Moqing a good look at all. After stuffing the marriage into Zhao Moqing's hand, he did not wait for Zhao Moqing to react and took out a bank card and placed it in Zhao Moqing's hand. "There's 300,000 yuan here. Take it and pay for a house with Qin Lin. Otherwise, others will say that your father and I mistreated our daughter."

"Mom!" Zhao Moqing was stunned by this sudden action, but she could not control the warmth in her heart and a deep sense of guilt.

When Qin Lin saw this, he could only guarantee with the most sincere attitude, "Auntie, I don't need your money to buy a house. I promise to buy a house more than 120 square meters and write Moqing's name."

Zhao Moqing hurriedly returned the bank card to Chen Xiao. "Mom, Qin Lin is very capable now. He will buy a house soon. We were wrong previously. We won't dare to do it again."

Seeing that the two of them were serious, Chen Xiao's anger dissipated a little. Then, he frowned and looked at Qin Lin. "Qin Lin, I know you're a good person, but this isn't the time for you to have a backbone. Since you've done this, it'll be embarrassing for you to take this money. You'll even feel ashamed to live in Moqing's house in the future. You have to accept it."

Seeing that his mother's anger had subsided a little, Zhao Moyun finally said, "Mom, Qin Lin can really afford a house now. You don't have to worry."

Li Jiawen echoed, "That's right. Didn't you also know about Qinglin Villa? Didn't you realize that this name is very strange? Take out Moqing and Qin Lin's words and take a look."

"???" Chen Xiao frowned and looked at his son and daughter-in-law. "What do you mean?"

She naturally knew about Qinglin Villa. Her daughter-in-law had mentioned it a lot, and she had also seen it many times on WeChat. Everyone said that the owner of the villa was definitely a rich person. That triangular plum blossom sea could not be obtained without a few million yuan.

Zhao Moyun explained, "Mom, Qin Lin owns Qinglin Villa. Business is very good now. We just came back from there."

"..." Chen Xiao was clearly stunned as she looked at Qin Lin in disbelief.

Qin Lin was that rich man?

It was not like she did not know Qin Lin's situation. She could not react for a moment.

Actually, she did not hate Qin Lin. It was just that as parents, everyone wanted their daughter to live well.

She was angry when she knew that her daughter and Qin Lin had secretly registered their marriage, but she also saw her daughter's determination. She could only accept it. She did not want her daughter to get married again.

However, what she meant now was that Qin Lin was actually very promising?

For a moment, she looked at her daughter and Qin Lin's hands that had been holding each other. She actually could not get angry anymore. However, she had created a storm just now, so she did not know how to continue.

"Mom, we were wrong!" Zhao Moqing apologized again and even gestured to Qin Lin.

When Qin Lin saw this, he apologized sincerely in a low voice. "Auntie, we were really wrong. Please forgive us."

Chen Xiao looked at the two of them who were admitting their mistakes and could only pretend to snort angrily. "Hmph, if you needed my forgiveness, you wouldn't have secretly done this. You've already registered our marriage. Go back to your house now. Qin Lin, take her away now."

Chapter 58: Shameless Living Together? You Change Your Words Pretty Quickly!

At this moment, Li Jiawen came out to smooth things over. "Moqing, why don't you and Qin Lin go back first? I'll help you persuade Mom."

"Mom!" Zhao Moqing looked at Chen Xiao.

"Aren't you leaving?" Chen Xiao snorted again.

She had actually already forgiven the two of them. After all, she was her daughter and her son-in-law. She did not want to become enemies.

However, their secret marriage still made her angry.

She did not even know that the daughter she had cherished for more than 20 years belonged to someone else.

She had to show the attitude she should have as a mother. It was also for Qin Lin to see. She had to let him know that she was the one who chased her daughter out today and let him know how much her daughter had sacrificed for him.

Zhao Moqing was helpless.

She knew that her mother had a sharp tongue but a soft heart. She could not be stubborn with her now. Anyway, she would be fine in two days. Zhao Moqing could only silently pull the two suitcases over and look at Qin Lin.

When Qin Lin saw this, he could only step forward to help.

“Take this away!” Chen Xiao stood up and stuffed the bank card into Zhao Moqing’s hand. “I said that the dowry is yours. You can spend it however you want.”

Even if Qin Lin was successful and rich and her daughter would not suffer if she followed him, she also knew that as a woman, she had to have her own pocket money to be more confident and comfortable.

“Mom!” Zhao Moqing took the card and could not help but hug Chen Xiao.

“Go,” Chen Xiao whispered into Zhao Moqing’s ear, his tone already very gentle.

“Qin Lin, drive my car back.” Zhao Moyun threw his BMW key to Qin Lin and instructed, “Don’t let my sister suffer in the future.”

“Brother, I can’t wait to protect her!” Qin Lin immediately promised.

He brought Zhao Moqing out. After getting into the car, he was still a little stunned. However, when he saw Zhao Moqing, he felt guilty. He knew that he could not let her suffer in the future.

As for his apology to her parents, he could only slowly make up for it in the future.

“Moqing, I’m sorry for making you suffer,” Qin Lin said apologetically.

Zhao Moqing smiled and hugged Qin Lin’s arm. “Hubby, I want to post our marriage certificate on my social media!”

“Your mother is still angry. Aren’t you afraid of agitating her?” Qin Lin said worriedly, “Besides, we still don’t know your father’s attitude.”

Zhao Moqing explained, “My mother has a sharp tongue but a soft heart. She has already forgiven us just now. Moreover, my mother is in charge of my family. My father listens to my mother.”

Qin Lin immediately said, “You’ll be in charge of our family in the future.”

“Really?” Zhao Moqing asked happily.

“Yes!” Qin Lin nodded.

Zhao Moqing immediately pretended to be a leader and said, “Alright, take me home now. Take out your marriage certificate and I’ll take a photo and post it on WeChat.”

As a woman, getting a marriage certificate was a huge matter in her life. Who didn’t want to show off their Moments and receive the blessings of their friends?

She did not dare to do it before, but now, she could do it openly.

“Then let’s go home.” Qin Lin smiled and started the car.

His mother would definitely be very happy for him to bring Zhao Moqing home, right?

Furthermore, he and Zhao Moqing could now live together openly. When he wanted to be shameless, he did not have to secretly go to a hotel to get a room.

...

Upstairs.

“Mom, actually, Qin Lin is quite good. He’s become successful now. You don’t have to worry about Moqing suffering.” After Qin Lin and his sister left, Zhao Moyun helped persuade her. “Moreover, since Moqing chose to secretly register her marriage with Qin Lin, it means that she really believes in Qin Lin. In that case, we might as well bless them.”

When Chen Xiao heard these words, she rolled her eyes at her son and even snorted heavily.

Li Jiawen, on the other hand, was very tactful. She pinched Zhao Moyun and reminded him, “I said you don’t have EQ. You’re so good at everything outside. If you have EQ, can’t you tell that Mom has already forgiven Moqing and Qin Lin? Did she deliberately let Qin Lin take Moqing away? She doesn’t need you to persuade her.”

When Chen Xiao heard this, she looked at her daughter-in-law in satisfaction.

In this house, her daughter, this little cotton-padded jacket, had been cheated away. Fortunately, the little cotton-padded jacket her son had stolen from someone else was also considerate.

“Oh, Mom is trying to save face again!” Zhao Moyun suddenly came to a realization.

“...” Chen Xiao’s expression could not help but darken again. She rolled her eyes at her son without hesitation.

A moment.

The door opened.

Zhao Xianhong walked in and saw that the atmosphere in the family was a little off. “What happened? Why are you in such a hurry to call me back? I came back as soon as the school meeting ended.”

He was Zhao Moqing’s father, the senior chairman of Youcheng High School.

“What else happened?” Chen Xiao said angrily, “Your daughter secretly registered her marriage with someone else and was kidnapped.”

“Is it Qin Lin? That child is not bad. Since your daughter is so determined, don’t worry too much about the young people. They have their own lives to live.” Zhao Xianhong immediately sat beside his wife and comforted her. “Back then, your family must have objected to your puppy love. Didn’t you secretly write me a love letter in high school?”

Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen seemed to have discovered a new continent as they looked at Chen Xiao in surprise.

This made Chen Xiao angry. She glared at her husband and said, “Zhao Xianhong, tell me clearly. Who chased who?”

Zhao Xianhong said very seriously, “Isn’t it because of the love letter you wrote that chased me? However, I’m glad that I accepted your love letter and have this lifetime of happiness. I have a good wife like you.”

These words directly attracted Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen.

Zhao Moyun did not know that his father was strict in front of his students and could educate those students who were in love at a young age. He was actually an experienced lover. When he saw his mother's angry expression, his heart softened.

Li Jiawen pinched Zhao Moyun's waist and glanced at him. "Why didn't you learn it?"

"Honey, with you, I'll be happy for the rest of my life," Zhao Moyun immediately said to Li Jiawen seriously. However, what greeted him was two coughs from Zhao Xianhong and Chen Xiao.

Seeing that he had coaxed his wife, Zhao Xianhong said, "Wife, I'm freer in two days. I'll apply for leave from school and visit Qin Lin's house personally. It's already like this. The two families still have to move around."

"Yes!" Chen Xiao nodded.

When Zhao Moyun and Li Jiawen saw this scene, they heaved a sigh of relief. Otherwise, they would definitely feel uncomfortable being sandwiched in the middle.

Li Jiawen even took out her phone and secretly sent this good news to Zhao Moqing.

...

Qin Lin drove to the district and stopped. As soon as he got out of the car, he saw Zhao Moqing throw herself into his arms happily and show him the message Li Jiawen had sent. "I told you Mom had forgiven me."

"Dad, Mom is coming to our house. We have to prepare well." Qin Lin smiled when he saw the message. He was already planning how to entertain them.

Quality 2 fruits and vegetables could not be lacking. Of course, Quality 2 Xiangshui Tribute Rice and wild fish could not be lacking either.

"You changed your tune pretty quickly." Zhao Moqing snorted.

Qin Lin helped Zhao Moqing move her luggage out of the car and went upstairs.

When he opened the door, Wang Cai came forward with a cry. When it saw Qin Lin and the others, it first jumped in front of Qin Lin twice before running to Zhao Moqing. Zhao Moqing liked it and squatted down to rub its head.

"Moqing, you're here." Lin Fen was cleaning the kitchen when she saw Zhao Moqing coming out with a smile.

"Mom!" Zhao Moqing immediately shouted sweetly when she saw Lin Fen.

This greeting stunned Lin Fen on the spot. She could not react for a moment.

Qin Lin looked at Zhao Moqing. This woman even said that he changed his words quite quickly.

Chapter 59: Surprise Lin Fen! The Sales Center Is Built!

Lin Fen also saw Zhao Moqing's luggage and asked curiously, "Xiao Lin, what's going on?"

Qin Lin smiled and explained, "Mom, Moqing moved in and has been hiding something from you. Actually, Moqing and I have already registered our marriage."

"You registered your marriage?" Lin Fen was clearly shocked by this news. Then, she became anxious and complained to her son, "Xiao Lin, how could you do this? Didn't you think how uncomfortable Moqing's parents would be if they knew?"

"Mom, Moqing's family already knows," Qin Lin immediately explained.

Zhao Moqing also said, "My mother asked me to move here. My father and mother even said that they would visit in two days!"

Naturally, she would not say that her mother had chased her out. Also, she did not want her mother-in-law to worry about her.

"Really?" Lin Fen could not believe it.

"Yes!" Zhao Moqing nodded affirmatively.

Lin Fen was pleasantly surprised. She did not even know how to express the joy in her heart for a moment. Then, she rushed forward and snatched the luggage. "Rascal, what are you waiting for? Quickly bring Moqing to sit down. I'll help her bring her luggage into the room."

After that, Lin Fen packed up with a smile. The debt had been repaid. Zhao Moqing had really become a daughter-in-law. It was great.

Qin Lin was naturally in a good mood. He and Zhao Moqing had secretly registered their marriage. This was also a knot in his heart. Now that he had laid his cards on the table, he felt much more relaxed.

After helping Zhao Moqing arrange it, Qin Lin was about to bring her out to buy some toiletries when Lin Fen stopped him. "I still have to buy some women's toiletries. Why are you, a man, joining in the fun? I'll accompany Moqing."

"You can go back to the villa. Mom and I can go," Zhao Moqing said with a smile. She also wanted to shop with her mother-in-law. After all, she had moved in and had to start nurturing her relationship.

One of the best ways for women to get closer was to shop together.

Qin Lin nodded and was not worried. His mother cared a lot about Zhao Moqing. She would make proper arrangements.

When he returned to the villa, Qin Lin received another piece of good news.

A man in a suit and a hard hat came to him. "Boss Qin, your sales center is completely completed. You can check it."

Previously, when he built the triangular sea of plum blossoms, he had asked the contracting company to build the sales center together. In the beginning, his plan was to rely on the triangular sea of plum blossoms to attract tourists and then sell the things in the game (Chapter 28).

This man in a suit was a supervisor of the contract company. His surname was Lin.

The sales center was not far from the reception hall. It could be seen at a glance. It was still under construction previously, but it had been surrounded after the villa opened.

The sales center was a purely retro wooden structure. Naturally, it was not right to say that it was purely wooden. It was naturally impossible to use wood for some support points and key positions. There could not be any safety hazards.

“Manager Lin, let’s go take a look!” Qin Lin smiled and followed the other party to the sales center.

The overall appearance of the sales center was retro. There was a specially built fixed sales table inside, separated from the sales area, and the location and design of the shelves were all references to some advanced scenic spots.

As for the scale, it was built according to the size of a medium-sized supermarket. It occupied about 800 square meters and had a total of two floors.

The second floor was relatively small, and the middle was clear. The second floor only had a circular area.

After building this building, other than the payment from before, the remaining money would be more than 200,000 yuan.

Qin Lin patrolled the sales center. Just the surface facilities alone had reached his expectations.

He did not know much about buildings and could only see some superficial problems. However, this contract company had a good reputation and would not ruin it for this sales center building. He did not have to worry about the quality.

Then, he looked at a sales area. It was a special area he had specially set up. Every sales table had a standing half-meter card slot. He had specially requested it.

This way, when the items produced by the game were placed on this sales desk in the future, he could also make an introduction card and place it in the slot for tourists to see.

For example, after placing the goods, the effect of the Quality 1 okra was introduced. Quality naturally could not be expressed with a +1 attribute. When the time came, the specially cultivated okra would be more effective.

This could also let tourists know why this thing was more expensive than the others.

With the area of the sales center, it was naturally impossible for him to fill it with the items he had taken out of the game. Even if he added the fruits and seafood sent by Lin Feng and Wang Wei, he could not do anything.

Now, the county had to give the support fund. After the approval and signing of the contract, they would have to add more drifting projects and accommodation projects. They had to prepare to wholesale some other things first, especially since the second floor was a special snack area. Otherwise, with so few things now, it would be far from satisfying.

With the county’s support, once the funds were in place, the drifting project would probably be operational within a month.

The sales center was not bad overall. The pure wood structure was to reduce the time it took to renovate the poisonous substances. After some time, it could be used.

After confirming that there were no problems, Qin Lin called Chen Dabei over and instructed him to bring people to clean up the sales center. He also signed an acceptance contract with the other party and transferred the balance into the contract company's account.

Time passed and it was evening.

Ma Liewen also returned home happily. He returned to the company first and sent those special watermelons over before getting the driver to send him home.

The driver followed behind with 30 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice, as well as special-quality broccoli, yams, and okra. He had obtained 10 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice from Chen Shengfei.

When he entered, he realized that there was someone at home. His wife, Chu Qing, was entertaining a young and beautiful woman carrying a child. It was her best friend, Lin Liu. Her husband had an ordinary job, but he had to give her husband a lot of face because her husband's brother and father were very important in the city.

He and his wife were even brought together by Lin Liu.

"Hubby, you're back!" Chu Qing stood up to welcome him with a smile. "After Lin Liu gave birth, her mother-in-law said that she had too little milk. Coincidentally, I bought five catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice from Li Fei's gold and jade luxury goods today. When I saw that she was depressed, I invited her home. Sister Wu is cooking. It's good that you're back."

When he heard the Xiangshui Tribute Rice, Ma Liewen was excited. "That's a coincidence. I got some Xiangshui Tribute Rice too."

With that, he asked the driver to carry the 30 catties of Xiangshui Tribute Rice over.

Marvin opened the bag proudly and said, "Honey, don't spend that money to buy water and rice from Li Fei in the future. That guy thinks we're stupid and rich."

When she saw the bag of Xiang Water Tribute Rice carried by the driver, Chu Qing was stunned. "Hubby, you're not saying that these are Xiangshui Tribute Rice, are you? Have you been deceived? Xiangshui Tribute Rice is not cabbage. There are still people who want to snatch my five catties. It's Li Fei who said your name, and the other party gave in."

Chapter 60: The Watermelon Seed Grew!

When Ma Liewen heard his wife's words, he was unhappy. He shouted inside, "Sister Wu, come out for a while."

A middle-aged nanny walked out. "Mr. Ma."

"Sister Wu, take this rice in and cook it too. It's different from Madam's. Also, make a portion of these okra, yams, and broccoli." Ma Liewen instructed the nanny. This nanny's culinary skills were very good, and it was precisely because of this that he had hired her at a high price.

“Okay, Mr. Ma.” Sister Wu nodded.

The driver also followed Sister Wu into the kitchen with his things and left respectfully.

Not long after.

Sister Wu finished cooking and came out to invite the three of them to the table.

The table was already set with okra, yams, broccoli, and two kinds of rice.

For a tycoon like Ma Liewen, such a meal was a little embarrassing, but only he knew that this meal was something many tycoons could not eat even if they wanted to.

Be it the real Xiangshui Tribute Rice or this special quality okra, yams, and broccoli, they could not be bought with money.

“Sister Wu, which portion of rice did I bring back?” Ma Liewen asked.

Sister Wu pointed to the one on the left and said, “Sir, this one.”

Ma Liewen nodded and said to his wife, “Honey, try the one you bought from Li Fei first.”

Chu Qing nodded and filled a bowl of rice for himself and Lin Liu. Then, he tasted two mouthfuls.

Then, she said, “The texture and taste are the same as before. This is real Xiangshui Tribute Rice.”

Lin Liu nodded as well.

Ma Liewen shook his head and said, “That means we’ve been tricked again. Now try what I brought back.”

“???” Chu Qing’s mind was filled with doubts, but she did as she was told. She filled another bowl of rice that Ma Liewen had brought back. However, after taking two bites, her face revealed disbelief. “Hubby, why is this rice so delicious?”

Chu Liu, who was holding the child beside her, was also in disbelief. She had never eaten such delicious rice before.

Ma Liewen smiled. “Now you know? This is the real deal. I’ve never eaten real rice before. I thought the ones I bought were real, but I’m paying a wisdom tax.”

When Chu Qing heard this, he was immediately vexed. “Why would a luxury item do such a thing? I won’t go there again.”

No one liked to be an idiot.

Ma Liewen said proudly, “Don’t be angry. Fortunately, I met Boss Qin this time and realized that I’ve been deceived. In the future, I’ll only believe in Boss Qin. By the way, try these okra, yams, and broccoli. They’re also treasures from Boss Qin.”

These words clearly made the two women curious. What kind of big shot was Boss Qin to make the dignified Ma Liewen say such things?

This Quality 2 okra, yam, and broccoli did not have any deliciousness or texture. It tasted normal.

However, as time passed, the feeling was different. Slowly, a warm and comfortable feeling appeared.

“Hmm... Ah...” Lin Liu had just finished eating. When he put down the bowl, he suddenly could not help but make a very ambiguous sound.

This made the couple look at her in surprise.

“Erm...” Lin Liu was suddenly embarrassed. She did not expect to suddenly feel two warm currents flowing to the front two places. She could not help but feel comfortable, just like...

This was naturally the effect of Quality 2 okra under Milk modulation +2. After all, she had just given birth.

With this interlude, Lin Liu was also embarrassed. After dinner, she bade farewell and left with her child.

Ma Liewen, on the other hand, pulled his wife upstairs with a smirk.

...

This night.

This was the first time Zhao Moqing had stayed in Qin Lin’s house. The room was also filled with an ambiguous atmosphere.

Qin Lin hugged Zhao Moqing from behind. “If I had known earlier, I would have brought you to the hotel first. There’s no way to celebrate!”

“Pfft, you’re thinking about such a thing?” Zhao Moqing said shyly.

“How can you blame me? You were the one who asked me to help you tidy your underwear!” Qin Lin said bitterly. The soundproofing of this rented house was not good, so he could not do anything.

“You’re just dirty-minded!” Zhao Moqing pouted.

The night was calm, but it was different.

The next day, Qin Lin woke up and looked at the screen in his mind. All kinds of crops had ripened. The Xiangshui Tribute Rice had ripened late last night. He had also slept then and could only harvest it this morning.

He controlled the game character to harvest all the crops and planted new seeds before retracting his attention. He realized that Zhao Moqing had already woken up and was staring at him with her beautiful eyes.

To Zhao Moqing, this night was different. After all, she had openly stayed in Qin Lin’s house as his wife.

“Rest more. I’ll transport the goods to the villa. I want to go personally for those special goods.” Qin Lin kissed Zhao Moqing’s forehead before getting up to wash up and leave.

On the other side.

Ma Liewen woke up early in the morning. Boss Qin’s things made him a warrior after a night. He was really in a good mood.

This also made him decide to build a good relationship with Boss Qin. After all, only Boss Qin had these things.

Half an hour later, Ma Liewen and his wife showered and went downstairs. As soon as they arrived, Chu Qing received a message. Then, he said to Ma Liewen with a strange expression, "Hubby, where did you get those things yesterday?"

"What is it?" asked Ma Liewen.

Chu Qing pointed at her chest and explained, "Didn't Lin Liu eat yesterday? When she woke up this morning, she had enough for the child to eat. There was actually still a lot left. She didn't have enough for the child in the past."

"..." Ma Liewen was stunned. This was not only effective on men, but also on women?

He immediately took out his phone and searched. It was true. The effect of the okra was not only good for men but also for women. It was just that the effect of Mr. Qin's special breed was especially strong.

This reminded him of something.

...

When Qin Lin arrived at the warehouse, he entered the game and moved out the okra, yams, broccoli, strawberries, and watermelons in batches to the villa.

As for the Xiangshui Tribute Rice, he had left it in the game. It was not appropriate to take out too much of it. Other than what he ate, he was afraid that it would have to be sold in the game for the time being.

When Qin Lin finished sending everything to the villa, he realized that Zhao Moqing and Lin Fen had also arrived.

"Mom is coming over, so I brought her over," Zhao Moqing said.

"Yes!" Qin Lin nodded.

He knew his mother's personality. He had promised her to come to the villa to help but had never fulfilled his promise. Now, she had seized the opportunity.

As soon as they entered the hall, Chen Dabei ran over and said in surprise, "Boss, those watermelon seedlings have grown!"
