

The Game 711

Chapter 711 The New Flying Man! He Must Have Used Stimulants! 1

Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin had already been pulled into professor Ren's room. The TV in the room was broadcasting a sports event.

It was a 100m sprint event broadcasted by the official sports channel. It was the Maya Gold sprinting event that su ye had participated in.

Academician li, academician Lin, and academician Hao were all there.

The three of them also knew about the body-increasing medicinal liquid, so they were naturally curious about this match.

Beijing Chinese Academy of Sciences.

Minister Lu was also watching the game with the other leaders.

The leaders had always paid close attention to the body-increasing medicinal liquid.

the current match was the time for the body-increasing medicinal liquid to display its initial power.

At the same time.

There were quite a few people watching the live broadcast of the game.

Because this was a sports channel, it was supposed to be broadcasting NBA games at this time. Now, it was suddenly broadcasting a strange game.

Therefore, many people in the audience had their opinions. They had never heard of the Maya Gold sprinting competition.

the point was that the host was interviewing a sprinter who had never been seen before.

This made the fans who wanted to watch the NBA Live broadcast explode.

What's so interesting about the 100m sprint?

If God su participated in the competition, we would watch it live. Now that God su has retired, what the hell is this su ye?

It was obvious that this kind of small-time character was participating in a competition that wasn't popular.

Therefore, the internet was quickly stirred up.

"What's up with the sports channel today? The NBA is not broadcasting anymore. Are we supposed to watch su ye embarrass himself?"

"Who knows su ye? I'm sorry, I can even predict the outcome of a sprinting competition without God su."

in the 100-meter race, no one in the world except for God su is qualified to enter the semi-final.

obviously, most of the people who didn't know what was going on were cursing.

This was also the current situation of the country. As soon as there was any movement on the internet, these people would comment on it based on their subjective speculations.

These people had another elegant name-keyboard men.

Other than the keyboard warriors, there were also some who had brains.

"What are you guys thinking? This is Maya's golden sprinting Grand Prix, the biggest sprinting event apart from the big events like the Olympics. How can it be a small event?"

"I'm really convinced. Don't these people look at the contestants before scolding? They were the first, second, and third runners-up of the 100m sprint in the last Olympic Games."

"And the champion of the two before that, ran ran."

These people were obviously paying enough attention to the 100m sprint, unlike some keyboard warriors who didn't know anything and started cursing.

However, in the face of this popular science, some keyboard warriors were even more enthusiastic. They were not afraid of people retorting, but they were afraid that no one would argue with them.

if no one argued with them, how could they pull other people's intelligence to the same level as themselves and then use their low intelligence to defeat the other party?

haha, isn't it more embarrassing for an unknown kid to participate in a competition where many Olympic champions are gathered? "

I'm sorry. I've checked su ye's information. He has no reputation for participating in any competitions. I'm impressed by his courage to embarrass himself.

“...”

In any case, the popularity on the internet had risen due to the high spirits of these keyboard warriors, and more and more people were paying attention to this game.

Therefore, this keyboard man was also somewhat useful.

many people who wanted to use their phones to kidnap others would first use these keyboard warriors.

A group of people who thought that they were very smart were actually just pawns used by others.

At the National Stadium of Canada, the stadium was already filled with spectators because of Maya's gold sprinting competition.

This was because this time, Andre deGrasse from Canada was participating. He was the third place in the 100m sprint and the champion in the 200m sprint in the last Olympics.

And he was only a little bit away from winning the 100m sprint. As long as he was in a better state, and the champion, Marcelo Jacob, was in a worse state, he would be the world champion of the 100m sprint.

The key was that this was a home game, which was a huge advantage.

In the gold sprinting competition held in Canada, the people of Canada naturally wanted their athletes to win the World Championship.

In the stadium, on the running tracks both inside and outside the stadium, there were already many contestants preparing for the preliminaries.

The 100-meter sprint was not the only one. There were also 200-meter and 400-meter sprints.

Su ye was participating in the 100-meter run.

His preliminary round was in the third round, and it would be his turn soon.

There were more than 100 athletes in the preliminaries this time, and only 24 of them could pass the preliminaries and participate in the group matches.

The reason why there were so many people participating in the qualifiers was also because the various countries had sent many young generals to train their courage.

For those who had no experience in international competitions, they were just here to experience the atmosphere and tension of an international competition. For these people, the ranking was not important.

In the official competition, the 24 contestants were divided into three groups, with eight people in each group. The top four of the group stage would enter the semi-finals, and the semi-finals would select six people to participate in the final.

these people were basically the best track and field athletes in their respective countries. they were all very famous in their respective regional competitions. they were the champions, second runners-up, and third runners-up of several olympic games.

this was also why the maya gold sprinting competition was said to be a grand occasion in the short-distance running.

It was just that no one in the country had been able to enter an official competition in the past. In order not to hurt the morale, the country had not reported on this competition, and only a little information could be found on the internet.

Chapter 712 The New Flying Man! He Must Have Used Stimulants! 2

this was a good opportunity to raise his spirit.

After the soaring flight, there was another Chinese who could dominate short-distance track and field.

In China.

The people who were watching the sports channel also saw this scene.

Although they did not know who su ye was, at this time, other than the keyboard warriors, everyone would still pay attention to him, silently cheering for their own athletes, and even looking forward to their athletes' achievements.

What if there was a miracle?

After all, sprinters were not men's soccer, and it was a miracle that the skylight was not welded shut.

At the competition venue, su ye stepped onto the stage. However, he did not look relaxed at all, as he was a little nervous. After all, he had never participated in an international competition before.

It was inevitable to be nervous for the first time. It was just like how a man had watched countless movies and videos and had been taught by many teachers, but wasn't he still nervous on his first time?

After the referee's signal, su ye and the other contestants in the preliminaries began to get on their respective tracks.

However, it was clear that his anxiety did not ease.

This made his expression even uglier. He didn't think that he would drop the ball at this time.

"Yellow-skinned guy, did you cheat by drinking that drink today?" A white contestant next to him said in a mocking tone, "You didn't cheat. This isn't your match."

This voice also made the other contestants chuckle.

Other than su, no one else with yellow skin could run the 100-meter track, let alone a nervous newbie.

The other party was here purely to embarrass himself.

The harsh words and mocking made su ye angry. At that moment, the tension in his body disappeared inexplicably.

At this moment, the judge once again signaled for them to get ready.

Su ye bent over and got into a running position without any expression.

Finally ...

A gunshot rang out.

The white man who had provoked su ye rushed out.

He wanted to use facts to let the yellow-skinned man know that the 100-meter race wasn't a place for him.

However, at that moment, the white man's eyes were filled with shock. The yellow-skinned guy had actually run ahead of him.

Moreover, the other party's current speed was actually the fastest, and he was soon left behind by a large margin.

that was impossible!

The white man could not believe his eyes, but the truth was, he could only watch as su ye crossed the finish line as fast as he could.

After su ye stopped, he looked at the white man with disdain. Then, he ignored him and walked straight to the side.

Disregard was the best form of contempt.

When the results came out, the white man and the others all looked at the electronic timer.

It was 9.80 seconds.

he was not satisfied with su ye's results, as he had started too slowly.

However, the others were all looking at the result in surprise. The man from the eastern country actually ran in 9.80 seconds in the preliminaries.

How was this possible?

The fastest record in Asia was 9.82 seconds set by su.

Only director Hao and the people from the sports Bureau were calm enough to pass su ye a glass of water. They knew very well that this was not su ye's true strength.

It wasn't just the audience, but the people watching the live broadcast on the sports channel were also shocked by the results.

Su Bingtian's time of 9.82 seconds had already been called God su by the people.

Now, su ye was even faster than 9.80 seconds.

What should this be called?

He's also called God su?

At this moment, everyone finally realized that both of them had the same surname.

In an instant, the internet exploded.

One by one, videos of the new su Shen running 100 meters in 9.80 seconds went viral.

All of a sudden, the people who saw the news began to look forward to Maya's golden sprinting Grand Prix.

After all, the world champion of the last Olympic Games was only 9.80 seconds.

If the new God su kept this result, he might win the championship among the Olympic champions, second and third place if he was lucky.

Under the anticipation of the people, the group knockout competition began.

Su ye was assigned to Group A.

In other words, he had to be the first group to participate.

When they arrived at the track, su ye was surprised to find that the person beside him was the third runner-up of the last Olympic Games-Andrea degraz.

As soon as he got on the track, he frowned and looked at su ye. He was not a racist, but he could not believe that this man from the East could run 9.80 seconds.

Su ye noticed Andrade Degras 'gaze and felt the suspicion in it. He frowned again.

He didn't expect this kind of discrimination to be everywhere in sports.

the judge appeared again, signaling for them to get ready.

su ye bent down and prepared to start running.

At that moment, because of the 9.80 seconds in the preliminaries, su ye had become the main character, and countless eyes were on him.

The person in charge of the race, will, had also arrived early. He did not believe that su ye could run 9.80 seconds. This was not something that an Asian could do.

On the domestic internet, the people who were paying attention to the game were also fully focused and looking forward to it.

They only hoped that su ye could maintain the record of 9.80 seconds, and then he would have a chance to become the world champion.

After passing the preliminary round, su ye seemed to have become the darling of the country.

With a gunshot, the contestants of Group A instantly rushed out.

As the third runner-up of the last Olympic Games, Andrea deglass had gone all out from the beginning. He was qualified to win the World Championship.

Chapter 713 The New Flying Man! He Must Have Used Stimulants! 3

under normal circumstances, he would not have used his full strength in the group competition. he would have only used his strength that could guarantee his advancement. however, because of su ye's appearance, he had used his full strength in the 9.80 seconds. he did not want to lose to this yellow-skinned guy. the 100-meter track and field belonged to the black people.

However, just like the previous white man, after Andrade degraz rushed out, he was shocked to see that su ye had surpassed him and was in front of him. He tried his best to catch up, but he could not keep up.

Su ye took the lead again.

This scene once again shocked everyone.

In China.

Everyone who was watching the live broadcast of the game could hear the host's exclamation from the TV. su ye, su ye, he's in the lead again. He's surpassed Andrea degraz, one of the seed players for the World Championship, Richard!

This voice seemed to make people's blood boil.

Beijing.

Minister Lu and a few other leaders watched the live broadcast and smiled.

This was not bad.

Minister Lu reported to the leaders with a smile, " leaders, this is the effect of the body-enhancing potion. And it's not the limit. This Andrea degraz is a world champion. Now, su ye can easily outrun him with the help of the body-enhancing potion. Next, it's time to select a batch of athletes to use it.

These words made the leaders nod in satisfaction.

if a body boosting drug could allow their athletes to easily defeat their opponents in the 100m sprint, it would definitely not be difficult for them to win the championship in other sports.

Even if it was the men's soccer team, with this body-increasing liquid medicine, they should be able to qualify for the World Cup, right?

Sports competition was also a way to show one's strength.

On the television.

su ye crossed the finish line again.

When the time appeared on the electronic timer, everyone's jaw dropped. Even Andrea degraz couldn't believe it.

Su ye, 9.76 seconds!

His opponent had actually run in 9.80 seconds.

9.80 seconds used to be an insurmountable barrier for black people. That was why the champion of the last Olympic Games was only 9.80 seconds.

Now, a yellow-skinned person had reached 9.80 seconds.

He had actually lost to his opponent.

The surrounding Canadian people couldn't believe it.

They had been looking forward to andrede degraz winning the championship, and now andrede degraz had lost to this yellow-skinned man in the group stage.

impossible! He's just an Asian. How could he have such a result? " Will, who was in charge of the competition, stood up when he saw the results. He didn't believe the results at all. He asked his assistant, " "He must have cheated. Did he drink that drink?"

The assistant shook his head. no, we've checked. They didn't bring that kind of drink. We've been monitoring them, and no one has had the chance to give them that kind of drink.

Will's face immediately revealed an excited expression. " he must have cheated. arrange for him to do a drug test. there's no such drink this time. he must have used stimulants. "

However, no one noticed that su ye had secretly clenched his fists. He had been a little nervous when he was facing the world champion, Andrade degraz. He had not performed well, and it was not his best result.

Su ye returned to the resting area. Director Yan immediately asked, " "Su ye, how do you feel?"

" i didn't do well just now, " su ye said with a smile. " next, in this race, i'll run within 9.70 seconds. "

"It's good that you're confident." Department Director Yan said with a smile.

At this moment, will came over with a few people from the drug organization.

Mr. Su ye, I'm very sorry, " will said as soon as he saw su ye. I suspect that you're using stimulants. We need you to cooperate with us for a drug test.

"As expected, it's this move again." Department Director Yan frowned. However, he was not unprepared. He would not let the other party do anything to him.

Su ye looked at director Hao.

director yan nodded at him, then followed will out with su ye.

This scene was witnessed by everyone.

"He cheated as expected!" Andre degraz immediately consoled himself.

The norlanders booed when they saw this. They knew that Andrea degraz would not lose to an Asian. He had cheated.

Time passed.

The results of the medical examination were not out yet, but the semi-final still had to continue.

This time, there would be two groups, and there would be 12 people participating in the semi-finals.

Su ye was in Group A, and he was the first to go on stage. Coincidentally, he was accompanied by the world champion of Canada, Andre degraz.

Anderede deGrasse didn't expect it either. Thinking of the results he had achieved last time, he showed his disdain again."You don't seem to be nervous at all. The results obtained by cheating don't count."

He didn't believe that the other party could run that kind of result, because he couldn't do it now either. But he was black, the race that ruled the field.

With the referee's signal, su ye, Andrade degraz, and the other contestants began to prepare again. But at that moment, a shout suddenly rang out, "

"No cheating!"

"No cheating!"

"No cheating!"

It was the cantanians who did not believe in su ye's achievements. After they became allies with the xingtiao Kingdom, they had long become the most loyal dogs. The incident with lady Meng was the best proof.

They firmly believed that su ye had cheated and taken stimulants. After all, this country was a big cheating country, and the news of him cheating with drinks had long spread all over the world.

They wanted to use this method to oppress this yellow-skinned man and make him show his true colors.

However, these shouts had completely aroused su ye's anger. His anger made all the cells in his body restless, and he was in his best competitive state.

Therefore, everyone was bound to be shocked the moment the gunshot was heard.

Su ye turned into a shadow and dashed out. It was a perfect run-up.

Therefore, from the very beginning, Andrea degraz was shocked by the speed. He even lost his balance and almost stumbled. The yellow-skinned man was too fast.

under everyone's shocked gazes, su ye overtook everyone by a large margin and crossed the finish line.

It was 9.69 seconds!

When the results came out, Andrea degraz's eyes widened in shock.

This was the second place in the world record!

The better result was only flying bolt's 9.58 seconds.

Therefore, to a certain extent, they were the new flying man.

"That's impossible!" Will, who was in charge of the competition, shouted when he saw the results, "quick, ask if the results of the other party's medical examination are out yet. The other party's results are definitely out of the norm. The results of the examination are out. The other party has to bear the consequences for this cheating result.

Chapter 714 335-How Can There Be No Problem? 1

Will couldn't believe that a yellow-skinned athlete could run 9.69 seconds.

What did this result represent?

He was the second in the world record for the 100m sprint, and he was the first in the world after the age of bolté borthéle.

An Asian had surpassed a Westerner in the 100m sprint. This had never happened in the history of the 100m sprint.

This was also something impossible.

The assistant beside him made a phone call and said, " Mr. Will, the results of the other party's medical test are out.

"Hurry up and send the report over." Will said in a hurry and then went to his temporary office in the stadium.

In China.

After the time of 9.69 seconds was released, the internet exploded.

Everyone knew what 9.69 seconds meant after they learned that the champion of the last Olympic Games only had a time of 9.80 seconds.

This was the rise of another flying man in the country. Moreover, it was in the 100-meter straight run. This was even more valuable than the flying man.

This was very uplifting.

None of the sprinters in China had ever won a gold medal in this event, and that changed in the future.

my girlfriend asked me why I suddenly knelt down. I said I saw the rise of a God, and she said I was sick in the head.

I knew it. Other than men's football, there will be miracles in any sport.

our athletes can even achieve such results in the 100m race. Please believe in the men's football team.

Soon after will arrived at the temporary office, the medical examination sent the report over.

Will immediately opened the report and read it.

"Mr. Will, how is it? Did he use any medicine? I'm going to get someone to kick him out of the competition now." The assistant asked and was about to leave.

"How is that possible?" will suddenly exclaimed. if no drug ingredients were found, how could the other party not have cheated?"

The assistant stopped in his tracks and said in disbelief, " "You didn't cheat?"

The two of them couldn't believe this.

If they didn't find any illegal content, then the other party must have really run so fast.

With his age, didn't it mean that the 100m sprint would be dominated by him in the next decade?

"Mr. Will, why don't you destroy him?" The assistant suggested in a low voice.

After all, this wasn't the first time they had done it. Previously, they had used medical tests to destroy one of their opponents 'World Championships.

Will was a little moved, but then he quickly shook his head. the other party is obviously prepared this time. We're also being watched and discovered. We can't handle the anger of that country.

His words shocked the assistant.

Indeed, although they were unhappy, the consequences were not something they could bear.

"Then what do we do?" The assistant asked again.

Will frowned. send them the test results, but we'll keep silent. We won't announce the results.

the assistant immediately understood.

Usually, when the results of a medical examination were out, they would announce it immediately to clear the name of the athlete and make it fair.

But sometimes, fairness was relative.

If they didn't announce it now, the outside world would continue to think that the other party had used drugs. Even if the other party had the results of the drug test, they would still be disgusted to death without their admission.

If they couldn't deal with the other party, they would just disgust the other party. This was also their usual method.

The assistant went out and asked the staff to hand the drug test report to director Hao and the others.

However, when director Yan received the drug test results, his face darkened.

He knew that the results of the medical examination would be announced to prove the athlete's innocence, and then the medical examination would be sent to him.

now, the other party had sent the results directly without any announcement. everyone knew what tricks they were playing.

However, he had encountered this kind of disgusting thing many times and was immune to it.

After all, it was not as disgusting as crossing the Pacific Ocean in a gymnastics competition, right?

Hmph, next year's Asian Cup and the next Olympic Games, I'll let you know what the power of the East is. department director yan did not mind. he knew about the body-increasing medicinal liquid.

This time, after su ye went back, he would give the body-enhancing liquid medicine to the athletes in batches. The next international competition would be very exciting.

after that, director hao also called for someone from the sports channel and asked them to broadcast the drug test results. no matter what, they had to let the people in the country know that su ye did not cheat.

When the results of the medical examination were sent back to China, the country was naturally completely excited.

in a short time, the entire internet was filled with videos of su ye's time of 9.69 seconds.

Compared to the news of the men's soccer team's closed-off leisure training, this was more news that everyone liked to hear and see.

therefore, during the 100m final of maya's golden sprint grand prix, countless people poured into the sports channel to watch the live broadcast.

In such a short time, the sports channel's viewership ratings had reached an extreme high.

Su ye didn't disappoint either. In the final of Maya's gold sprinting competition, he once again won the championship with a time of 9.69 seconds.

Linlin Manor.

Qin Lin smiled when he saw the results of the competition. The body-increasing potion had lived up to everyone's expectations. He believed that it would bring about great changes when it was given to the athletes in batches and widely used in the military.

this was what he wanted to see.

"This body-strengthening medicinal liquid is indeed powerful." Academician li was surprised.

The other two academicians also nodded. Before watching the race, they naturally knew about the 100m sprint. They knew what 9.69 seconds meant.

Chapter 715 335-How Can There Be No Problem?

The only person who could achieve such a result was a black person, and it was a black person who was hard to come by in decades.

That was a very terrifying effect, and the key was that this was not the limit.

Professor Ren said with a smile, " it is indeed amazing. However, the current body-increasing liquid has too many restrictions. It requires five hours of extreme exercise. Only soldiers and athletes can meet the requirements. Even athletes in some sports can't meet the requirements of using the liquid.

therefore, we'll try to analyze the ingredients of the body-strengthening potion and try to come up with a simplified or ordinary version so that the restrictions on its use are not that high. It doesn't matter even if the effects are reduced.

Professor Ren's phone rang.

Seeing the number, he immediately picked up the phone. okay, I understand. yes, " he said. I understand!

After hanging up the phone, professor Ren sighed and said, " academicians, it seems like I can't continue to recuperate here with you. The higher-ups want me to go back and formulate the next research plan for the body increasing potion.

the athletes and soldiers have to go back with us. After this, the experiment will be conducted in secret at a special place.

Academician li and the others nodded.

This was also necessary.

Su ye's results would definitely attract attention, and some people might even notice the body-increasing medicinal liquid.

Therefore, the following experiments might cause trouble for boss Qin.

Moreover, the level of confidentiality for future experiments would be very high.

Professor Ren looked at Qin Lin again and pretended to sigh. "Boss Qin, I'm leaving. I'm afraid I'll have a lot of opportunities to eat your cooking in the future."

Qin Lin instantly understood. He smiled and said, I'm going to prepare some things. We'll cook lunch to celebrate su ye's victory and send off professor Ren.

These words made the four old seniors laugh.

They weren't gluttons, but boss Qin's herbal dishes had really made them gluttonous.

The next day, professor Ren said goodbye and left.

Several athletes and soldiers from Linlin's laboratory also left.

After that, the research related to the body-increasing medicinal liquid would become a top secret.

At the same time, Minister Lu had already prepared a batch of body strengthening medicine and provided it to the sports Bureau and a special company.

After Qin Lin decided to give the body-increasing medicinal liquid to the top, he began to have people prepare the medicinal liquid.

Therefore, he began experimenting with the body-increasing medicinal liquid in batches.

To the athletes, it was called a nutrient medicine and they had to take it every day.

Su ye and the others were also asked to keep it a secret.

After su ye returned to the country, he naturally became a hero. In the following days, she could see his videos almost every day.

In the blink of an eye, New Year's Day arrived.

Another year had passed.

Night.

Qin Lin appeared in the food street with Zhao Moyu. They were wearing masks and hats for fear of being recognized. After all, they were the internet celebrities, little Qin and little Zhao. If they were recognized, they would be surrounded.

This was also a very bad situation. He lacked freedom even when he went out.

"Qin Lin, why did you think of giving me a diamond ring this year?" Zhao Moyin looked at the diamond ring on his finger happily. Today's New Year's Day was engraved on it, as well as her and Qin Lin's names. It was Qin Lin's New Year's gift to her.

She put the diamond ring on her left ring finger.

This was the place to wear the wedding ring.

Although this diamond ring was not a wedding ring, she still had to wear it to show that she was married and already taken.

In her mind, if she didn't wear the ring on her finger to show that she was single after getting married, it would be disrespectful to her husband.

Although it was said that it was freedom to wear the ring, one had to pay attention to how to wear it knowing that it had this meaning. Sometimes, it was not a matter of freedom.

After all, if a man saw you wearing it, he would have the illusion that you were single.

Of course, he didn't know what this kind of woman was thinking, but it was a fact that she was disrespectful to her husband.

Qin Lin explained, "It's custom-made. I added my name and date. It's not worth much without a certificate.

Zhao Mo sneered and said, "I like it since it's a gift from you. I don't care if it's valuable or not."

Qin Lin was holding Zhao Moyi's hand and managing the food street. He and Zhao Moyi rarely came out.

The food street had become one of your city's specialty streets. Many tourists who came to Linlin Villa would come here to play and eat your city's snacks.

Because of Chen Li's care, he found all the classic snack crafts. With your city's official complaints and supervision, the snacks in the food street were very good and had a good reputation among the tourists.

Naturally, by relying on the food street, these bosses also made a lot of money. It was easy for them to buy cars and houses. Therefore, everyone put more effort into cooking the food, afraid that they would ruin their money tree.

The black-hearted ones didn't have a good ending either. There were a few people who couldn't think things through and were dealt with when they first opened for business, and others came in.

Now, those who couldn't think things through must be regretting to death.

Su Ye's banner could be seen on the food street, celebrating the 100m sprint Championship.

The result of winning the 100m sprint Championship was indeed extraordinary for China.

Qin Lin held Zhao moqian's hand and stopped at the biggest three-story shop on the food street.

This shop was called 'Qin's restaurant'! It was also the most famous restaurant in the food street. Not only were the skills good, but the storefront was the largest, very spacious, and the dining environment was also very good.

Qin Lin brought Zhao mochen into the Qin family restaurant, then directly went up to the third floor to a private room.

This Qin's restaurant was opened by uncle Dalin and brother coffee. Because of the information disclosed by him, uncle Dalin left his original shop and even used a house loan to buy the best location.

The original owner of the house must be regretting it now.

When Qin Lin entered the private room, Qin Ren, Qin Long, Liao Li, and Shanshan were already seated.

Liao Li had given birth to Qin Ren's child, and her body had gained a lot of weight. Shanshan and Qin Long heard that both parents had also come to an agreement.

The other person was brother coffee, who was alone. He was older and his wife was the manager of the lobby on the first floor, so he didn't come up.

because of qin lin, the three of them were considered to be the best in the village.

Not only could they drive their own BMW e-sports cars easily, but their father could also buy one.

Qin Ren was doing the best. He had already given the Audi he bought to Liao Li as a grocery car and got a Porsche Palmera for himself.

Naturally, their family was doing better and better. Many people in the village were envious and regretted not helping Qin Lin's family.

Many people were even jealous and would even curse that they were lucky to have Qin Lin.

However, these people should also be grateful to Qin Lin. After all, they could also make money by growing Linlin watermelons.

if qin lin wanted to argue with them, he wouldn't even let them plant watermelons.

"Mo Xiao, you're here." When Shanshan saw Zhao mochen, she went forward, took his arm, and sat down. Then, they started chatting.

"We're all waiting for you, Auntie." When Qin ka saw Qin Lin, he also warmly welcomed Qin Lin to sit down.

It was a small gathering, so Qin Lin came over when he had time today.

...

Beijing.

Chinese Academy of Sciences.

Minister Lu was not relaxed on New Year's Day, because the body-increasing medicinal liquid had been sent out for more than ten days, and the first test data had been sent over today.

According to the data provided by professor Ren, those who were talented would have some initial effects after more than ten days, just like su ye.

He also had to sort out the data overnight and then report it to the leader.

Moreover, he wouldn't be at ease if he didn't handle it himself. After all, the body-increasing medicinal liquid had already been listed as a confidential experiment.

"The results are pretty good." Minister Lu looked at the data with a smile on his face.

Needless to say, the soldiers of the special company who had taken the medicinal liquid all had some effect in a short time.

On the athletes' side, badminton, tennis, running, and running had also shown some results in one or two of their events.

However, when he read the last page, he frowned.

This was the report from the men's soccer team.

After reading the report, Minister Lu couldn't help but curse, "the 30-man list and the 40 youth team list, not a single person is effective. What the hell is going on?"

However, Minister Lu sighed helplessly after he finished cursing.

In the past, he didn't believe that there was any mud that couldn't hold up a wall. Now, he really believed it.

Chapter 716 336-Commemorative Coins! The King Was Scammed! 1

Linlin Manor Office.

As usual, Qin Lin controlled the game characters to complete daily tasks, such as fishing, collecting honey, and cutting trees.

His luck seemed to be pretty good today. While he was cutting down trees, he encountered another yellow pear tree. Furthermore, while he was looking for mountain goods, he actually obtained another batch of Golden Cherry and momokus. He could make another 100 pounds of Linlin medicinal wine.

After harvesting the Golden Cherry and the peach sprite, Qin Lin also went to his wine cellar.

After entering the wine cellar, he controlled his game character to take the newly cut yellow Rosewood to the Experience Hall and used the wood processing machine to process it into a wine rack.

A moment later, he entered the game. When he reappeared, there were two more wine racks made of yellow Rosewood in the wine cellar.

Then, Qin Lin re-entered the game and went to the storage room.

The newly-picked cherry blossoms and peach mommies were already on the two platforms. Since there were wine and wine-brewing tools in the game, Qin Lin had also soaked these cherry blossoms and peach mommies into medicinal wine.

Following that, he went to the side, which was filled with antique wine bottles, all made of excavated gold, silver, and copper.

Although the precious items in the two mines could only be excavated once and would not respawn, the gold, silver, and copper mines could be excavated continuously, so there was no shortage of materials.

Qin Lin picked up an antique wine bottle and moved to another wine vessel. This was the last batch of Linlin's medicinal wine, which had been brewed for more than 40 years.

Now that there were two more wine racks, he naturally planned to bring some wine out and fill up the racks.

He filled these antique wine bottles with wine one by one and brought them out of the game. He repeated this again and again. When all the wine in the wine container was filled, the two yellow Rosewood wine racks were basically full.

Qin Lin looked around with satisfaction. The entire wine cellar was becoming more and more substantial.

Then, he went to the wine rack at the side, took a bronze bottle of medicinal wine out of the wine cellar, and brought the bottle to the shop in the manor.

Occasionally, a bottle of Linlin medicinal wine would be placed on the table as a surprise for the guests.

"boss!" There was a waitress in the shop.

When the guests came to buy things, she had to make arrangements for them and get the kitchen to pick up the things, make them into dishes, and send them over.

put this wine up there. Set the price at 100000! qin lin passed the linlin medicinal wine to the waiter.

"Okay, boss!" The waitress nodded and carefully placed the bottle of wine on the table, afraid of breaking it.

After all, it was 100000 a bottle.

qin lin also left the manor after giving them the wine. he went to the villa to patrol.

There was a holiday tourism tide around New Year's Day, and the number of tourists in the mountain villa also soared.

after qin lin left, liu shangchuan entered the shop. the old man was obviously recuperating well in the manor. he looked well and was not as thin as when he first arrived.

Liu Shangchuan couldn't be more satisfied with Linlin Manor's treatment. The air was fresh, the environment was good, the food was good, and he could always have extra meals for himself.

For example, the Xiangshui tribute rice. When he was in Ming city, his son could only get a little from Li Fei for his family to try.

However, he could often eat them here, and even if they were occasionally available in the shops, he would buy them for his own meal. The taste was obviously better than Li Fei's.

He even suspected that Li Fei was not selling the real Xiangshui tribute rice, and that this unscrupulous merchant might have been trying to earn money from them.

"Mr. Liu, welcome." The waitress greeted Liu Shangchuan sweetly when she saw him.

Working in the manor, he naturally had to recognize the guests in the manor, and he had to be polite.

Liu Shangchuan glanced around the shop and was attracted by the Linlin medicinal wine on the wine rack. "The store still sells Linlin medicinal wine?"

The waitress nodded and said, "the boss would occasionally put a bottle on the shelf." &Nbsp;

"I'll take this wine." Liu Shangchuan hurriedly went forward to take the wine.

He didn't expect that he would have the opportunity to buy it other than the regular supply from the manor.

What a pleasant surprise.

He knew how much of this wine there was. Ming city was in a frenzy, and people who wanted to buy it could not get their hands on it at all. It was even harder to buy than the medicinal wine from the two Traditional Chinese Medicine aristocratic families in min province.

Of course, he had used it before and knew that Linlin was better than the wine from the two Traditional Chinese Medicine families.

The effect of replenishing blood and promoting Qi was simply a divine product for these old people.

Qin Lin quickly entered Linlin villa. The villa was indeed packed with tourists.

Fortunately, the villa had been open for a long time, and it was common to see such a scene full of tourists. Which event wasn't crowded?

Qin Lin walked into the aquarium and saw many aquarium boxes with small ornamental fish inside.

This was the first batch of ornamental fish that the aquarium director, Ling Xuan, had cultivated. They were all small ornamental fish that had a short growth cycle, and the parent species were naturally the wild ornamental fish he had brought out from the game.

Since the ornamental fish produced in the game had game attributes, even if the attributes of the offspring were degraded, they were still very beautiful.

As a result, there were a lot of tourists who bought ornamental fish. After all, most of them came with their children. When their children clamored to buy them, their parents wouldn't be stingy. After buying the fish, they would naturally need containers and food.

These also required money.

Qin Lin was about to leave when he saw a few staff members carrying out a table covered with cloth. A waitress in uniform was following them with a microphone.

Chapter 717 336-Commemorative Coins! The King Was Scammed! 2

This waitress was very cute and innocent. The key was that her chest was well developed. She should be the type that many LPS liked.

But when he took a closer look at the girl, she looked very familiar. Wasn't she Chen Li's daughter, Chen xiaoru?

This little girl's mouth was very sharp. When he chatted with her, he had the urge to beat her up. She should be in University this year.

It was New Year's Day and he had come to the villa to work during the summer.

“? ? ?”Qin Lin felt that something was wrong.

Chen xiaoru was very thin at first, and she had the potential to be an airport runway. How did she suddenly become so voluptuous after going to college?

He almost didn't dare to admit it.

If they didn't eat anything special, then they must have been served.

Just like the two men he had served Zhao moyin every day, it was much more exciting than before.

Girls these days are just freshmen, Yingluo.

When Chen xiaoru came out, she was already holding the microphone and starting, welcome, everyone, to Linlin villa. Thank you for visiting our aquarium. In order to give back to the tourists, we have another batch of commemorative coins that have been blessed by bubble nests. If you spend more than 500 yuan in the villa, you can buy one!

this attracted many people. those who came to see the aquarium naturally knew about the koi bubbles in linlin villa. its huge size, the ability to spit out love-shaped bubbles to play with children, and the ability to bite money to build a nest made it the number one popular fish on the internet.

Even the two blood red Dragons of Linlin villa, which were worth millions, could only be his underlings.

Moreover, the commemorative coins that bubbles built their nests were also very popular on the internet. Therefore, many people who had the opportunity to come to Linlin Manor would not mind buying a few coins, even if one coin cost 50 yuan.

Qin Lin smiled when he saw the enthusiasm of the tourists. The hype on the internet was actually created by Ling Xuan, the director of the aquarium.

From the looks of it, the effect was not bad.

Qin Lin walked around the villa and returned to the manor after seeing that there was nothing else.

As soon as they arrived at the villa, Huang Xin came looking for them. When he arrived at Qin Lin's office, he said, "Qin Lin, the perfume sample is ready."

As he spoke, he took out two bottles of perfume.

The perfume bottle was very high-end and extravagant. It was pink in color and very exquisite. Just from its appearance, it was as exquisite as it could be.

It was just that the brand name 'imperial concubine' in the middle of the bottle had affected the style.

Qin Lin shook his head and once again complained in his heart that Huang Xin was a bad name. Then, he asked, "How much is the cost of this perfume?"

"The cost isn't high, but I plan to sell it for 1500 yuan a bottle," Huang Xin explained.

"???" Qin Lin heard the price and couldn't help but ask, "Huang Xin, are you going to kill a pig? Someone would buy it at such a high price?"

Huang Xin said matter-of-factly, "Qin Lin, you don't work in the perfume industry, so you don't know. Those big brands sell perfumes for more than 1000 Yuan each. Some even sell for more than 3000 Yuan each."

"What do you think the perfume is for? Let me tell you, one of the biggest functions of perfume is to increase the success rate of a date, or to attract a woman's husband."

Therefore, our product can achieve this effect perfectly. It's just that the environment for its use is limited. However, there are always more solutions than difficulties.

"Do you think that a woman really has ulterior motives towards a man? She pretended to be drunk on purpose and asked the man to send her home. She could spray some perfume in the car and might even save a room."

Qin Lin instantly changed Huang Xin's mind. However, he had no intention of interfering with the perfume company's business. Huang Xin must have his own reasons for setting such a price.

"I'm already developing a new perfume," Huang Xin said. "I'm using this perfume as a base to extract the fragrance. However, before the new perfume is released, the company needs to withdraw some funds."

"It's just that I can't find a proper distribution channel for this perfume. After all, this perfume has been restricted by the audit, so I can't promote it through normal perfume distribution channels. That's why I came to ask you."

"Channels?" Qin Lin didn't have any channels.

"This perfume's approval was limited, and they could only use  to support the promotion of different types of shops."

There were restrictions on the promotion of such sex products and advertisements. Even the sound of a certain voice would be restricted.

If they insisted on advertising on the TV station, the TV station would still care about their face. The price they would have to pay was unimaginable. At least, the charm fragrance company could not afford it now.

however, qin lin suddenly thought of one person, and that was wang yan.

This guy used to go to nightclubs, and it seemed like he was famous in min province. Perhaps he had some connections in this area?

With that in mind, Qin Lin took out his phone and called wang yang.

As soon as the call went through, he heard Wang Yan's panting voice from the other side. "Hello, Chairman Qin, what are your orders?"

"You're panting so heavily, why are you so weak?" Qin Lin said jokingly. Then, he said, I'll send you two bottles of perfume. Remember to look at the introduction and try it out for me to see if there are any channels.

Qin Lin hung up the phone without explaining too much. The other party would know the effects of the perfume once he gave it to them.

Min province.

Wang Yan put down his subordinate in confusion. He didn't understand why Chairman Qin would call him to send him perfume.

Could it be that Chairman Qin had made some perfume?

As he was thinking, he took a deep breath, and then revealed a carefree expression.

After a while, Jiang Lingling stood up from the table and licked her lips.

"Sister Lingling, can you not squeeze me like this?" Wang Yan looked at Jiang Lingling helplessly, " "su yue has just given birth and her needs are huge. i can't be worse off with you."

Chapter 718 336-Memorial Coin! King's Appearance Scammed! 3

jiang lingling looked at him with her charming eyes, then took out a bottle of linlin leisure tea from her bag and handed it to wang yang.

Looking at the Linlin leisure tea, Wang Yan silently rejoiced. Luckily, he had this.

however, what kind of perfume was chairman qin sending?

A day passed.

Chu Jianan walked into Wang Yan's company in a beautiful short skirt and business suit. Back then, she had helped brother Yan get an order of 200000 bottles of Linlin leisure tea from his Godfather. She had also become one of brother Yan's generals, so she naturally had to act like a strong woman.

Now that her Godfather had been killed and she could earn money on her own, she didn't have the mood to rely on anyone.

Chu Jianan was holding two packages in her hands. One was for herself, and the other was for brother Yan. She had brought them along.

The moment she entered the company, she saw Jiang Lingling, the slutty woman, walking out of brother Yan's office.

This made her a little jealous. Everyone knew that this guy had played with brother Yan. Sometimes, after playing with him, brother Yan would come over to chat with them on purpose, leaving the taste in his mouth.

What right did Jiang Lingling have?

Back then, she had only received an order of 200000 bottles of Lin leisure tea from her Godfather.

It was as if someone had not received an order of 200000 bottles.

As Chu Jianan thought about it, she put on her mask and went to Wang Yan's office. After closing the door, she sat down on Wang Yan's desk in a dainty manner, completely ignoring the fact that her short skirt was very short, and that it was easy for her to be exposed.

However, they had already known each other's depth more than once at the nightclub, so why would they care about this?

"Sister Jia Nan, what's the matter?" Wang Yan looked at Chu Jianan and asked teasingly. He could vaguely see a touch of pink.

Brother Yan's express delivery. I'll bring it in. Chu Jianan handed the package to Wang Yang.

Wang Yang thought of something and took the package. When he saw the receipt, he knew that it was the perfume from Chairman Qin.

He immediately opened the package and saw two bottles of perfume inside. He didn't read the manual's specific effects and just took one out and handed it to Chu Jianan. "Sister Jia Nan, take a look at this perfume. It's from Chairman Qin's side."

Chu Jianan heard the name 'Chairman Qin' and immediately took the perfume. That Chairman Qin was the boss of brother Yan.

She took the perfume away and sprayed it on her wrist to try the fragrance.

As soon as she smelled the perfume, she was surprised because it smelled so good. The perfume she used was a luxury item that cost more than 2000 Yuan, but it didn't smell so good.

"Brother Yan, this perfume smells really good, you can smell it." Chu Jianan moved in front of Wang Yan, putting his wrist to the tip of Wang Yan's nose.

A pleasant and alluring fragrance wafted into Wang Yan's nose.

He had to admit that it did smell good. He had seen many women, and they had used all kinds of perfumes, but none of them smelled this good.

however, when he smelled it, he felt that something was wrong. he felt that his body was a little impulsive, and his eyes couldn't help but glance at sister jia nan's . even in his mind, he couldn't help but think of the pink color he had just seen.

wang yan was a prince of nightclubs. his self-control and resistance to women were definitely not high. therefore, with the effects of this perfume, the situation was obvious.

"Brother Yan, does my  look good?" Chu Jianan seemed to have noticed the king's gaze. Thinking about how Jiang Lingling could play with brother Yan, she became inexplicably delicate.

"F * ck, f * ck, f * ck." Wang Yan suddenly lost his ability to resist.

Chu Jianan didn't seem to resist the king's behavior, and boldly sat on his lap, her arms around his neck. "Brother Yan, I really miss the days in the past. You really took care of me sometimes."

Wang Yan naturally had an image in his mind. He used to take care of this sister Jia Nan, how else could he take care of her?" He was meticulous!

Under the effects of the perfume, Wang Yan felt like he was going to explode.

So ...

...

An hour later.

Wang Yan looked at Chu Jianan, who was tidying up his clothes, and picked up the perfume package awkwardly, reading the instruction manual.

He didn't think that he was someone who didn't have this bit of self-control, and the first thing he thought of was the perfume problem.

After reading the instruction manual, he covered his face. It was indeed the perfume's problem.

Wasn't Chairman Qin trying to harm her?

but thinking about it, chairman qin seemed to have reminded him to read the instructions first.

This ...

"Brother Yan, if you need something in the future, don't keep looking for Jiang Lingling. Change your taste. I'm not worse than her." Chu Jianan said with a face full of satisfaction.

She felt that brother Yan was more powerful than before. No wonder Jiang Lingling had her eyes on him.

King Yan didn't know how to answer because he wasn't protected just now. He could only remind her, "Remember to take your medicine."

"I'm not eating!" chu jianan said.

Wang yang immediately tried to persuade her. great aunt, don't mess around. It'll kill you.

if someone dies, I'll find an honest boyfriend and marry him, " Chu Jianan said. he'll be the child's father.

The king of " f * ck " was speechless.

Then, he thought of something and immediately found Qin Lin's phone number and dialed it. As soon as the call went through, he hurriedly said, " "President Qin, can you give me the right to distribute the perfume too? ran ran, I'll go to the Qingli villa to talk to you."

After hanging up the phone, Wang Yan's eyes lit up as if he had seen a path to wealth.

He knew the use of this perfume and naturally saw the market. He was very familiar with this area.

At the side, Chu Jianan's eyes lit up when she heard Wang Yan's words, and she said sweetly, " "Brother Yan, you're going on a business trip? I'm going on a business trip with you. You've already brought Jiang Lingling with you, so you can't be biased."

This last sentence really made Wang Yan helpless, and he could only sigh."Go and prepare the car!"

"alright, brother yan!" Chu Jianan replied with a bright smile.

Wang yang was completely helpless, feeling that his life was out of his control. This time, when he went to Linlin Manor, he would definitely ask Chairman Qin to sell him two more bottles of Linlin medicinal wine.

Men are so difficult!

To him, this life was a sea of bitterness.

Chapter 719 A Profiteering Perfume! Someone Called Li Fei Came To The Door! 1

Wang yang watched as Li Jia Nan left the house happily, and could only helplessly take out his phone to call su Juan.

Su Juan had even given birth to his child, so he still had to report to her about his business trip.

The key was that he had a guilty conscience.

He promised su Juan that he would leave the nightclub with her and would not play around anymore. Su Juan had completely stopped caring. She was either taking care of the child or being filial to his parents, doing her part as a wife.

However, he seemed to be a bit of a bastard.

After reporting to su Juan, wang yang hung up the phone and was about to leave when Jiang Lingling walked in and said with a bitter face, " "Boss, you're going on a business trip to Linlin Manor, and you're bringing Jia Nan along?"

um, sister Lingling. Wang Yan obviously felt a hint of jealousy, and didn't know how to explain.

after all, sister lingling had been his lover for a long time.

suddenly, he was like this with sister jia nan again, it was a bit of a joke.

"I want to go too." Jiang Lingling said directly.

How could she not know Chu Jianan's thoughts? she could choose not to fight with su Juan, the first wife, but that didn't mean that she would give up her authority in the company.

"Sister Lingling, I promised sister Jia Nan," Wang Yan said helplessly.

"i don't mind going with her." Jiang Lingling snorted and said indifferently.

rustle, rustle. when Wang Yan heard this, he felt his legs go soft for some reason, and he couldn't stand steadily.

He understood what Jiang Lingling meant.

Don't be like this, it'll make his life harder and harder.

when wang yan brought jiang lingling out of the office, chu jianan was also ready. however, when he saw that brother yan had brought jiang lingling along, he immediately became competitive.

This time, he would compete with this woman and see who could make brother Yan happier.

Anyway, she didn't mind playing a little crazily before she found a boyfriend.

Wang yang could only helplessly set off with the two women, and it took them nearly three hours to reach Linlin Manor.

...

when qin lin saw the king, he was hugging women on both sides as he entered the manor.

Every time this King came to him, there would be girls he had never seen before. The key was that the girls not only had good figures, but they were also beautiful.

Seeing how intimate they were, no one would believe that the two girls had nothing to do with him.

He suddenly wondered if this guy was the big winner that everyone always talked about.

"Long time no see, Chairman Qin." When wang yang saw Qin Lin, he immediately took the initiative to greet him respectfully.

He was now respectfully addressed as President Wang in some circles in the provincial capital of min province, and it was all because of Chairman Qin's support.

Jiang Lingling had met Qin Lin before, so she greeted him with respect, " "Chairman Qin."

Chu Jianan had been at Wang Yan's nightclub for so long, so he was naturally good at reading people. He immediately greeted respectfully, " "chairman qin."

"let's talk in my office!" Qin Lin also greeted him and brought Wang Yan to his office. At the same time, he called Huang Xin and asked him to come over.

Huang Xin had to come over and talk to wang yang about the perfume.

Wang Yan followed behind Qin Lin. Jiang Lingling and Chu Jianan followed behind Wang Yan, their faces filled with shock as they looked at their surroundings.

They had seen videos of the manor on the internet and were shocked by it.

Now that they had seen it with their own eyes, they felt that the shock was indescribable. She was much more beautiful than in the video.

It wasn't just the scenery, there was also the smooth air.

The entire Manor seemed to be a paradise.

If she could become the mistress of such a Manor, it must be the happiest thing in the world, right?

However, they only dared to have such thoughts and did not dare to have wishful thinking.

Qin Lin sat down in his office and asked, "You've used your perfume? How do you feel?"

"Chairman Qin, we've tried the effect of this perfume." When Wang Yan spoke, he was a little embarrassed.

After all, it wasn't this perfume. He only had to deal with sister Lingling, and now he had to deal with sister Jia Nan.

he felt that he would not have a good time in the company in the future.

Following that, Wang Yan explained the purpose of his visit. "Chairman Qin, is this your new product? give me the rights to the perfume!"

Qin Lin smiled and said, "there's no problem with you being the agent of the perfume. However, there's something I have to tell you. There are restrictions on the approval of this perfume. It can't be sold through normal channels. It can only be sold through supplementary products. Therefore, there are very many restrictions on the promotion of this perfume.

Wang Yan didn't seem to care. Chairman Qin, I thought of this when I found out about the effects of this perfume. But I have my own channels in this area. Trust me.

He was very confident.

Because with his connections in the nightclub, he didn't have to worry about the sales of this thing.

It was difficult for high-end nightclubs like theirs to sell things in this area other than wine. No, it was definitely not hard to sell.

He only knew a few guys who specialized in this area. As long as he got the agent rights of Chairman Qin's perfume, he could cooperate with those guys.

They were all smart people. After knowing the effects of the perfume, they would know what to choose.

Seeing how confident Wang Yan was, Qin Lin also said, alright, I have a friend coming over later. You can talk to him. He's in charge of the perfume.

"Alright, Chairman Qin." hearing this, wang yan was more confident.

He knew that he had a great chance of getting the distribution rights of this perfume.

A moment later, Huang Xin arrived. As soon as he entered, he said, "Qin Lin, you have a guest?"

Huang Xin's entrance had obviously attracted Wang Yan's attention.

Because he heard the other party call Chairman Qin by his name. To be able to call Chairman Qin by his full name here, either he had a good relationship with Chairman Qin, or he was a very powerful person and was on the same level as Chairman Qin.

Chapter 720 A Profiteering Perfume! Someone Called Li Fei Came To The Door! 2

"It's about your perfume." "Huang Xin, let me introduce you to Mr. Wang," Qin Lin said with a smile. "He's a major agent for Linlin food company. He has a channel to sell your perfume."

"Wang Yan, this is Huang Xin. He's also in charge of the perfume, so you can talk to him about it."

When Wang Yan heard this, he immediately shook hands with Huang Xin enthusiastically. Hello, CEO Huang. This perfume of yours is really good stuff.

Qin Lin also welcomed them to the tea table and let Huang Xin and Wang Yan have a detailed conversation. He took out a quality 2 tie Guanyin and made some tea.

As for Jiang Lingling and Chu Jianan, they sat quietly beside Wang Yan, not daring to interrupt. They were very sensible and knew that they had no place to speak.

Qin Lin made some tea and poured a cup for Huang Xin and Wang yang. Naturally, Jiang Lingling and Chu Jianan also poured a cup for them.

"Thank you, Chairman Qin!"

"Many thanks, Chairman Qin!"

The two girls spoke politely and picked up their teacups. They even had some tea-making skills.

Because wang yang had learned how to make tea, and since Chairman Qin always made tea, he naturally had to cater to the big boss.

therefore, since they followed wang yan, they naturally had to learn how to make tea. they even signed up for a tea art class.

However, the moment the tea entered their mouths, the two women's Red lips curled up in surprise.

This was because the tea was too delicious.

They couldn't describe the feeling. Brother Yan had already bought expensive tea from the teahouse, but none of them tasted as good as this.

Even the tea that this Big Shot drank was different.

Huang Xin had already started talking to Wang Yan about the perfume.

Qin Lin didn't know much about this kind of thing, but the two of them obviously had a great time chatting. So, after he treated Wang Yan and Huang Xin to lunch, he also let them go to the charm Company to talk about it.

The two sides quickly reached an agreement.

Huang Xin then brought wang yang to Linlin Manor and spent some money to treat him to another Supreme Emperor set meal.

Jiang Lingling and Chu Jianan were the happiest.

They had managed to get two Emperor supreme set meals on their first visit. They would not have been able to eat such a meal normally.

However, Wang Yan anxiously said to Qin Yang while eating, Chairman Qin, I have a presumptuous request. Can you sell me some Linlin medicinal wine this time? "

Qin Lin glanced at Jiang Lingling and Chu Jianan subconsciously, and he understood what she meant. "Sure, I'll get it for you later."

"Many thanks, Chairman Qin!" Wang yang hurriedly expressed his thanks.

this was really a life-saving grace.

Sister Lingling and sister Jianan came with him. Without this wine, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to walk tomorrow.

With their methods, he firmly believed in this.

For the next week, Qin Lin didn't pay any more attention to the perfume, until Huang Xin came to him again with a face full of joy.

"you're smiling so happily. is there good news from the perfume company?" Qin Lin asked with a smile.

Huang Xing said with a smile, " Qin Lin, this Wang Yan you introduced is really a talent. I'm really impressed. It's only been a week, but he has sent me an order of 50000 bottles.

"Wouldn't that be a huge profit?" Qin Lin said with a face full of surprise. He remembered that Huang Xing had set the price of this perfume at 1500 Yuan.

huang xin smiled and said, " he did earn quite a bit. i gave him 1300 bottles, and he can sell them for 1500. the market price is 200. he can also earn 10 million from these 50000 bottles. "

Naturally, if King grade earned more, they would earn even more. If they gave 1300 to the other party, 50000 bottles would be 65 million.

The total cost of the perfume, including the packaging, was not much. It was less than 200 yuan.

From this, one could see how much those luxury brands made, or how black-hearted they were.

England's Daily Mail had once investigated and calculated that the liquid of a bottle of luxury perfume only accounted for 3% of its production cost, while the profit generated from the retail price of a bottle of perfume could reach up to 95%.

This was also the reason why a luxury perfume could be sold for tens of billions of dollars a year.

although the 95% profit margin was a bit exaggerated, it was enough to show how much profit it was.

However, this was a good thing for the two of them.

After Huang Xin explained the matter to Qin Lin, he left in a hurry. He was very busy right now. Not only did he have to arrange for the production of Wang Yan's order, he also had to recruit more people.

Although he made a lot of money by selling the perfume to Wang Xiang, he also knew that there were restrictions on the approval of perfume. He was going on the luxury route, and there was no way to promote it on a large scale, so there was a limit to the profit.

However, the perfume formula given by Qin Lin was a treasure trove. As long as the fragrance part could be extracted and the supplementary effect removed, he could get a luxury perfume that could really be made into a brand.

When the perfume was developed, it would be a real profit.

However, it would take a lot of time for him to study it alone. Therefore, it was necessary to recruit more professional talents.

This way, he could develop the new series of perfume faster.

While Huang Xin was happy that the perfume had its first sales channel, someone else was unhappy.

On you city street, a man with a crew cut was frowning and sighing in a car heading for Linlin Manor.

His name was Li Fei, and he opened a luxury goods store in Ming city that specialized in high-end food ingredients. Because of his wide network in this area, he could get any high-end food ingredients.

he even had some knowledge of xiangshui tribute rice.

Therefore, his luxury goods had always been popular.

It was unknown when it started, but rumors began to spread among the wealthy circle of Ming city that his luxury goods were all inferior goods, even fake.

These rumors made him feel very helpless.

Because those people were either rich or noble, they said that he would not dare to take revenge no matter what.

Recently, people had started to say that the high-quality vegetables in Linlin Manor were better than his luxury ones, so he naturally had to make a trip to Linlin Manor.

Naturally, he wanted to come to Linlin villa to ask for some goods and see if he could get some from them.

In this way, those rumors would not be able to continue spreading, right? He also had the Linlin Manor's luxury goods.

Li Fei soon arrived at the villa's parking lot. After asking around, he went to the office where an attendant was and found the media department in charge of communication.

...

Linlin Manor.

Linlin looked at the screen in his mind. He was controlling his game character to fish when he received Lin Lanzi's call.

"What's the matter, manager Lin?" Qin Lin answered the call.

Lin Lanzi immediately reported, "boss, there's a guy called Li Fei looking for you. He said he's the boss of Ming city's gold and Jade luxury goods!" &Nbsp;

"Li Fei?" Qin Lin was a little surprised to hear this name.

This wasn't the first time he had heard of this name. Every time old Chen and the others came to the villa to play, he would bring up Li Fei and compare his items with Li Fei's.

However, Li Fei's items were real, while his items were in-game. Naturally, Li Fei's items could not be compared to his. Therefore, old Chen and the others would always treat Li Fei's items as inferior and fake.

To be honest, he knew what was going on every time, but he couldn't explain it. He even felt a little sympathetic for Li Fei.

He didn't expect Li Fei to come to him now.

"Manager Lin, please bring Li Fei here!" Qin Lin also instructed through the phone.

"Okay, boss." Lin Lanzi responded and hung up the phone.

soon, lin lanzi brought a man with a crew cut to qin lin. lin lanzi introduced him, "Mr. Li Fei, this is our Chairman Qin. Boss, this is Mr. Li Fei."

When Li Fei saw Qin Lin, he was just as surprised as the others. After all, Qin Lin was too young.

Qin Lin was also sizing up Li Fei, and asked curiously, " " mr. li fei, i've heard of you before. may i know what business you have here? " li fei didn't dare to hesitate and explained his intention, " Chairman Qin, I run a high-end food ingredient business in Ming city. I even have a specialized big restaurant. But I don't know when it started, but people started to spread rumors that my ingredients are fake and substandard. So, I have no choice but to find a new source of goods. I'm begging you to come here.

When Qin Lin heard this, his face clearly showed a trace of strangeness!
