Chapter 175 7: The True God on Earth (Part 1)

At the same time, at the foot of Mount Tai.

A beautifully dressed woman suddenly stopped in her tracks, a hint of surprise appearing on her face.

"You still possess such powerful Divine Power?"

As if to confirm the woman's words, the space not far from her twisted directly.

Then, a White Serpent twisted out from the distorted space, instantly transforming into the image of a Beautiful Serpent with a human form and snake tail.

"I never thought there would be such a complete God like you in the 'Fallen Area'."

Hua She stared tightly at the woman opposite her, yet dared not relax in the slightest.

Because on the other's body, Hua She also felt a sense of complete Divine Position and powerful Divine Power.

Except for not ascending dimensions like a True God, the other was a Divine Spirit living in the [Fallen Area].

"Gods?"

"That depends on your definition of 'Gods'."

Shaking her head with a smile to deny Hua She's claim, the woman softly said.

"Only those who transcend the dimension of life are True Gods."

"Other than that, no matter how much something resembles a god, it's just a Pseudo-God."

"By comparison, I am merely one of the more fortunate Pseudo-Gods."

After saying this, the woman did not wait for Hua She to rebut, and instead proceeded to introduce herself.

"I am Lin Momei, double wood Lin, silent Mo, wife's Mei."

"I've long heard of you, but meeting in person really surprises me."

"You have no belief on this planet, so how do you possess such strong Divine Power?"

Lin Momei made no effort to conceal her curiosity.

Unfortunately, Lin Momei's curiosity did not receive a response from Hua She.

"I am Hua She, here for the necklace in your hand."

With the same self-introduction, Hua She's tone was much colder and very straightforward in declaring her intention.

"You're here for 'Cruelty'?"

Gently shaking the Chain Bead on her wrist, Lin Momei was truly surprised this time.

"It seems this guy has offended quite a few for the sake of 'Resurrection', even attracting your attention."

Saying this, Lin Momei lowered her wrist once more.

"But I cannot possibly hand this guy over to you."

"You would kill him completely, I can see that."

"Whether as a comrade or Prison Guard, I can't give him to you now."

With Lin Mo's words falling, a cold oppressive aura appeared simultaneously.

It was obvious Hua She, to fulfill Li Hao's instructions as quickly as possible, was already planning to take action.

"Wait, I only said I can't hand him over to you, I didn't say I couldn't help you solve the problem."

Seeing this, Lin Momei quickly waved her hand, indicating she didn't wish to fight Hua She.

Hua She could tell that the other party was not afraid to fight her, just simply didn't want to bother with it.

"I imagine you sought me out now because the incarnation of 'Cruelty' is causing trouble, right?"

"That guy is very troublesome, yet has no physical form in the material world."

"If you really want to deal with him, I can tell you all the information, and promise not to charge you a dime."

In saying the last sentence, Lin Momei mischievously blinked an eye.

.....

"Lin Momei? Is she Mazu?"

To tell the truth, when Li Hao heard the name Lin Momei, he was genuinely shocked.

In this mainland area, Lin Momei and Mazu might not be exceptionally famous Gods.

But in coastal areas and among Chinese communities in coastal countries, this name is renowned.

Since becoming a God, Li Hao had continuously studied the mythological schema of the Chinese Land.

So he naturally wouldn't overlook Mazu, who is honored by both Buddhist and Taoist as the "Sea Goddess" and "Celestial Consort".

However, research aside, Li Hao never thought he would meet Mazu in person one day.

"Sure enough, being low-key has its advantages."

Hua She's incarnation was still launching attacks everywhere, sweeping through the remnants of that Ancient God's aura in reality and the internet.

Li Hao, meanwhile, through Hua She's true body, gradually learned from Lin Moniang the intention of the Ancient God's incarnation.

As previously stated, the Ancient God's incarnation sought to cultivate a temporary vessel it could inhabit - namely an artificial Saint.

By gathering widespread belief, they would artificially create a Saint that fit their being.

This was the Ancient God's plan.

So the question arises, in this internet age, what could more easily garner widespread attention than a "virtual celebrity"?

That Ancient God, named "Cruelty" by Lin Momei, was essentially a God of Combat.

Thus, when Li Yun's short video appeared online, the Ancient God realized this was the perfect "embryo" for an artificial Saint.

Inherently matching its Divine Position, while attracting much attention on the Internet.

If it could resurrect using Li Yun's body, it could retain most of its Power.

Therefore, Li Yun's video, propelled by those with aims, occupied the online trending headlines.

As more people paid attention to this, the more widespread Faith gathered on Li Yun, making it easier for the God of Combat to achieve its goal.

Why not just simply pick an existing entertainment industry star as an "embryo"?

Simply put, even a fallen God maintains its own dignity.

Personality, renown, compatibility, and even the Ancient God's own preferences...

Only by simultaneously meeting these criteria could one qualify as the temporary resurrected "embryo" for that God of Combat.

"Was this really just a coincidence?"

Reflecting carefully on the timing of Li Yun's short video suddenly going viral.

Li Hao suddenly realized that it was precisely after she arrived at his apartment.

"Was it influenced by me?"

With furrowed brows, Li Hao remembered his [Innate Misfortune] entry, and a certain hypothesis formed within him.

This was the first time Li Hao realized that the [Innate Misfortune] entry could affect people other than himself.

Although not yet understanding the mechanics of [Innate Misfortune], it's likely influenced others based on his relationships.

Fortunately, Li Hao was not just any ordinary person completely lacking resistance.

As a Creator of a world, a True God hidden in the mortal world, Li Hao was fully capable of averting his "Star of Calamity and Solitude" fate.

"Next, it's about finding that band of Ancient God followers."

Lightly touching his own cheek.

Li Hao hesitated only a moment before removing the disguise of the [Candle Dragon Mask].

Then when Li Hao chose to step out of his home, a Dragon Head, human-bodied True God appeared unmistakably in the world.
