

The Growth 278

Chapter 278 14: Chaotic Timeline (2/3)

The massive MinAseerpentg She was flying above the Floating City.

After talking with Dororo and Xiao Gu, Luo Yan also roughly understood the current situation.

Dororo and Xiao Gu had undergone numerous instances of time remolding, retaining far more relevant memories than Luo Yan.

Even though the specifics weren't clear.

Dororo and Xiao Gu had previously cooperated many times with other investigation team members in previous timelines, and Luo Yan was counted as the most tacit teammate among them.

In fact, a lot of Dororo and Xiao Gu's intelligence actually came from the hands of Luo Yan from different timelines.

"Simply put, that Crow Tengu is indeed the key to unraveling this chaotic timeline."

After transforming into MinAseerpentg She, Xiao Gu's voice was deep and resonant.

Upon hearing its words, Dororo and Luo Yan nodded simultaneously.

"So are we going to kill it, or imprison it?"

When Xiao Gu posed this question, Dororo and Luo Yan once again fell into simultaneous silence.

Indeed, this was the crux of the problem; the trio knew for the moment only that the Crow Tengu was the key to resolving the chaotic timeline, but they didn't know the role it played in it.

According to normal game logic, defeating the final boss could solve more than ninety-nine percent of the issues.

But the problem is, reality is never a game.

What if killing the Crow Tengu made the entire timeline even more chaotic?

"I think now is not the time to discuss this."

Just then, realizing something unusual, Luo Yan's three eyes widened and he issued a timely warning.

Boom!

In an instant, a deafening sound suddenly came from the Floating City beneath their feet.

By the time the three reacted, that suspended Floating City had tilted and was falling towards the ground.

Even more astonishing, as the Floating City fell, the invisible electromagnetic field actively converged, turning into a towering Crow Tengu figure.

Zzzzzz...

Intense electric currents turned into substantial thunder and lightning.

The Crow Tengu manifested among the clouds like a God of Thunder, emitting tens of thousands of cobalt blue radiant lights.

"Crow Tengu!?"

Under Dororo's exclamation, that Crow Tengu constructed entirely from the electromagnetic field suddenly raised its head to look in their direction.

From afar it seemed like a creature with a dog's head, human body, and crow wings.

The gigantic dog head bared its sharp teeth, with eyes that emitted dazzling electric light.

Its tall and majestic figure stood like a mountain floating in the air.

And those enormous wings that shaded the sky were also filled with thunder, showcasing intricate and lifelike mimetic feathers.

"Whoa!"

No one knew if it was the thunder or a bird's cry.

The enormous Crow Tengu suddenly soared skyward, with its target set on MinAseerpentg She, who was Xiao Gu's incarnation.

Due to this impact, the Floating City beneath the Crow Tengu's feet began to fall to the ground at an even faster speed.

Whoosh—Boom!

In the blink of an eye, Xiao Gu, unwilling to show weakness, dived downward.

Under the sweep of wild winds, and with the aid of gravitational acceleration...

Plunging downward, Xiao Gu seemed like a legendary "kinetic bombardment weapon," completely converting his potential energy and acceleration into impact.

.....
"I knew it was you pesky spirits again!"

At the heart of the Crow Tengu formed by the electromagnetic field, a miniature Crow Tengu clenched its teeth and glared at the sky.

Just like Xiao Gu, Dororo, and Luo Yan who, under the protection of the Celestial Tao System, possess memories from other timelines.

As a "coordinate" set by the Godslayer Civilization at this time node, the Crow Tengu also possessed memories from other timelines.

The only difference was that the Crow Tengu's ability seemed more like a time regression and reload ability.

By constantly saving and loading, the Crow Tengu repeatedly rewound the timeline, endeavoring to avoid the ambush of Xiao Gu, Dororo, and Luo Yan's trio.

But the result was, this trio appeared like "Chosen Ones," showing up to thwart at the last moment every time the Crow Tengu raised its Divine Throne.

Even if occasionally, the Crow Tengu managed to remove one or two members of the trio in advance, the remaining one would turn the tables like a Protagonist of Destiny.

If you wrote about Crow Tengu's experiences during this time as a novel, it would surely be an epic plot of "Transmigrator" battling "Protagonist of Destiny."

Anyway, no matter how well-prepared the Crow Tengu was, ultimately it couldn't prevent Xiao Gu, Dororo, and Luo Yan's trio from reaching it.

Thankfully, after so many cycles, the Crow Tengu finally cornered Xiao Gu, Dororo, and Luo Yan this time.

The collapsing timeline converged, merging countless parallel space-time individuals within itself...

At this very moment, sacrificing the entire Floating City, the Crow Tengu seized that singular chance to let the Power of Thunder descend once more upon this world.

In a daze, transformed into the God of Thunder, the Crow Tengu seemed to witness the "truth" of this world.

That was the last opportunity for the Crow Tengu to raise its Divine Throne and the very endeavor it pursued by repeatedly rewinding the timeline.

"Perish! This time you absolutely cannot stop me!"

Facing the giant descending MinAseerpentg She, the Crow Tengu roared furiously.

In the next instant, the two colossal beings collided in midair.

Crash!

The sky seemed to collapse at that moment.

The powerful shockwave directly dispersed the cloud layers within a thousand-mile radius.

Everywhere you looked, the sky seemed to have a massive gaping hole, with only the azure blue firmament appearing so pure.

However, this was just the beginning.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

After a brief silence, a series of thunders began spreading in different directions.

As fierce winds surged, as lightning flashed and thunder roared...

With perfect coordination, Dororo immediately joined the battle, leveraging her Wind God's authority.

Seeing this, Luo Yan did not hesitate for a moment, leaping into action, transformed into a slightly smaller Furious Vajra to participate in the fight.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Under the watchful eyes of numerous Ascenders, this cataclysmic battle swept across the entire world.

It only took a moment of hesitation for the remaining Ascenders to realize what this battle meant.

—This is a new "War of the Godslayer"!

That Crow Tengu, constructed entirely from the invisible electromagnetic field, seemed to have grasped the Authority of Thunder God by some means?

If the Crow Tengu successfully ascends to divinity and raises its Divine Throne, then a new Thunder God will be born in this world!

Thus, the Ascenders of the Divine Fall Realm didn't hesitate to reveal their divine techniques and join the siege against the "New God."
