

The Growth 284

Chapter 284 20: Named Qi Tian! (2/3)

Over there, Huang Mei was busy saving people, while Yao Xin was certainly not idle here.

Stepping out of the World of Fallen Gods, which had been reduced to a two-dimensional plane, the figure of Yao Xin appeared near the corpse of the Golden Giant Ape.

The heart of the God had stopped beating, golden blood continuously seeping out...

In this chaotic Dimensional Gap, the Golden Giant Ape was like an eternal, immortal body, enduring the relentless erosion from the Void and the dimensions.

As for the supermassive entity that was once an enemy of the Golden Giant Ape?

Its body had already shattered into countless pieces and was gradually disappearing into the chaotic flood.

"Ultimately, just an entity close to divinity, not a genuine God?"

Her gaze did not linger on the supermassive entity for long, and Yao Xin mused inexplicably.

The Godslayer Civilization is indeed powerful, no wonder they dared to declare war on the Gods.

Yet, the unfortunate truth is that the individuals of the Godslayer Civilization possessed the ability to rival Gods due to the power of technology.

In terms of the essence of life alone, they are still quite a distance away from a True God.

The different fates of the supermassive entity and the Golden Giant Ape after death were enough to prove this point.

For even if the supermassive entity possessed the mass of an entire world, within the endless dimensions and Void Chaos, it could only gradually accept its fate of being dismantled and reduced in dimension.

In contrast, the Golden Giant Ape, successful in its Ascension to Divinity, could have its immortal corpse endure for eternity until it falls into the Fallen Area.

Yes, that's right!

The Golden Giant Ape is now a True God.

With the assistance of the Five Lucky Boys, the Immortal Stone sublimated at the last moment, transforming itself into a Golden God manifesting in the Saint Form.

"You should not die here; you have a broader future ahead."

Traversing the Void, crossing time...

Yao Xin's voice seemed to appear in every moment of the past, present, and future, echoing by the ears of the deceased Golden Giant Ape.

"Immortal Stone... No, Little Stone, you should wake up now!"

With permissions from the Celestial Tao System, and the power of Yao Xin as the Supreme Death God.

The boundary between life and death was blurred at this moment.

The ancient, immortal body suddenly opened its eyes, shooting out two beams of golden light piercing through the Void.

"Am I... still alive?"

The lingering confusion was soon replaced by even deeper bewilderment.

The Golden Giant Ape distinctly remembered perishing together with that massive black hole, didn't it?

Why am I still alive now?

And it seems everything has changed?

Slowly standing up from the Void, the Golden Giant Ape saw through the essence of the world, saw the existence of higher dimensions.

It was an entity like a conglomerate of the concept of death.

A Goddess of Death embodying both ruthlessness and compassion.

"Mother of the Netherworld?"

Upon seeing the Goddess of Death, the Golden Giant Ape instinctively called out her revered name in the World of Fallen Gods.

"Was it you who saved me?"

Looking at the still-dazed eyes of the Golden Giant Ape, Yao Xin nodded with a smile.

"You are now a God; do you have any plans for the future?"

In response to Yao Xin's amiable inquiry, the Golden Giant Ape fell silent.

Although expected, upon learning that it had become a God, a feeling of things never being the same arose within it.

The Golden Giant Ape was reluctant to become a God, unwilling to leave the Divine Fall Realm.

Because the "equality" that the Golden Giant Ape hoped for had not yet fully arrived in the Divine Fall Realm, its ideals remained unfulfilled.

With this in mind, the Golden Giant Ape suddenly remembered something and quickly turned its head to look toward the direction of the Divine Fall Realm.

"Was the Divine Fall Realm destroyed!?"

At this very moment, what appeared before the eyes of the Golden Giant Ape was no longer that high-ranking entity.

It was a "two-dimensional canvas" devoid of any material concept, a "world imprint" that appeared utterly flat from any perspective.

Furthermore, that "two-dimensional canvas" continued to shrink and collapse, tending toward reducing to a line.

"No, the Divine Fall Realm has not been destroyed."

Seemingly confirming Yao Xin's words, the originally shrinking "two-dimensional canvas" suddenly ceased its collapse.

In the perspective of the Golden Giant Ape, the inside of the "two-dimensional canvas" suddenly appeared with "support structures" formed by countless dashed lines.

That was the Celestial Tao System functioning at full capacity.

Power from the Void Divine Hall, transformed through the Cup of Hygeia, continuously filled into the collapsing interior of the Divine Fall Realm.

Simultaneously, immeasurable Buddha's Light illuminated the World of Fallen Gods, reopening the world's evolutionary journey.

"As long as the Creator and Venerable Maitreya have not given up on the World of Fallen Gods, it absolutely cannot be destroyed."

A calm tone filled with unquestionable trust; Yao Xin never doubted the Creator's ability.

It was a great being that lifted the Mountain and Sea Realm from the Fallen Area to the Ascension Area.

The fate of a mere world lies entirely within the Creator's thoughts.

"However, even if the Divine Fall Realm is reborn, you can no longer appear there as the Immortal Stone."

"It is a covenant of the two Supremes; the Divine Fall Realm does not permit the intervention of Divine Level beings."

Upon hearing this, the Golden Giant Ape suddenly looked up at Yao Xin, seeing her enigmatic smile.

"Little Stone is dull-witted, Goddess, please enlighten me!"

The smile at the corner of her mouth grew more pronounced; Yao Xin appreciated the Golden Giant Ape's candid nature.

"I am a capricious God who has grown weary of continuing the duty of guarding the World of Fallen Gods."

"Therefore, I am now seeking a Divine who can assume this duty on my behalf—would you be willing to take up this responsibility?"

"Ecstatic" was inadequate to describe the Golden Giant Ape's present mood; it agreed to Yao Xin's terms almost without hesitation.

"Great Mother of the Netherworld, from today on, I am your Divine!"

Kneeling on one knee before Yao Xin, the Golden Giant Ape slowly lowered its proud head, its body rapidly shrinking at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In a flash, the once towering Golden Giant Ape vanished, replaced by a Golden-haired Monkey the size of a human.

"Hmm, but since you have become my Divine, you can no longer be called Little Stone from now on."

After a moment of thought, Yao Xin declared as the "Goddess of Death."

"From today forth, you are the Dharma Protector of the Netherworld, the Deputy of the Goddess of Death·Yao Xin in the World of Fallen Gods."

"Your responsibility is to maintain the balance of the Divine Fall Realm, preventing the powers of other Gods from interfering with the operation of this world."

"If necessary, I permit you to use the authority of the Celestial Tao System, bypassing the covenant of the two Supremes, and incarnate a True God."

"Henceforth named: Qi Tian!"
