

The Growth 310

Chapter 310 - 1: The Lucky Cat (1/3)

"Meow!"

Sitting obediently in front of Huo Dou, the white cat with black paws tilted its head, its tail with the golden tail ring occasionally swaying.

"Are you teasing Ta Xuan again?"

"Ta Xuan" is the name given to this white cat by Luo God.

Because of its pure white body with only black paws, "Ta Xuan" was indeed a fitting name for the cat.

"Do you think I'm like you? Coward!"

Turning to look at Luo God, who never dared to get close to Ta Xuan, Huo Dou mercilessly mocked her.

"Who's a coward!?"

"It's called a wise man keeps away from danger, what do you know!"

Rolling her eyes in annoyance, Luo God was, of course, unwilling to admit her fear of Ta Xuan.

However, the initial shock Ta Xuan gave Luo God was simply too terrifying for her to treat it as a normal cat.

"Ta Xuan is no longer dangerous now."

Huo Dou naturally noticed Luo God's little thoughts, so he took the initiative to explain.

"Ta Xuan was once influenced by the 'Throne Angels,' essentially an incarnation and vessel of them."

"After the 'Throne Angels' were defeated and contained again, its influence has been greatly weakened, and now it's merely a pure Mythical Armament."

"The most crucial thing is that due to the residual influence of the 'Ring of the Throne Angels,' Ta Xuan unexpectedly gained true wisdom."

"In terms of knowledge and intelligence, she might even be a bit smarter than you."

Upon hearing this, Luo God's eyes widened in anger, for she could already hear the implication in Huo Dou's words.

"Are you subtly calling me dumb?"

"You're the dumb one! You and He Bo are the real fools!"

Shaking his head with a smile, Huo Dou enjoyed seeing Luo God in such a flustered state.

This finally made Li Hao understand why his sister always liked to tease him, because this feeling was just too amusing.

"Rest assured! Ta Xuan is truly not dangerous anymore."

Though teasing Luo God was fun, Huo Dou did not intend to keep doing it.

Since He Bo decided to induct Ta Xuan into the 749th Bureau, it was very necessary for Luo God to gradually get familiar with Ta Xuan.

"Really?"

Giving Huo Dou a skeptical glance, Luo God still trusted him deeply.

Thus, although she still couldn't forget the scene when Ta Xuan first appeared, she forced herself to look at it, suppressing her fear.

"Meow!"

Seeing this, Ta Xuan also seemed to realize that its upcoming actions would determine whether it could truly integrate into the 749th Bureau.

So not only did it restrain its claws and wildness, but even gave a humanlike smile to please Luo God.

"Eh? It seems to understand what we're saying?"

With eyes widened in surprise, the fear in Luo God's heart gradually faded, replaced by a sense of keen curiosity.

"I told you, in terms of intelligence, she might even be a bit smarter than you."

"What do you think I've been doing these days? I've been trying to teach her human language."

"Even though it's just simple sentences, Ta Xuan can indeed understand our conversations now."

After a slight pause, Huo Dou added another point.

"Of course, Ta Xuan's understanding of human language is limited to merely comprehension."

"Her vocal cords and sound-producing structure are ultimately different from humans, so she can't communicate with you in the human way."

"By the way, Ta Xuan is a female cat..."

Upon hearing this, Luo God's fear dissipated further, and she even dared to squat next to Huo Dou, looking directly into Ta Xuan's eyes.

"Really?"

"I thought such a fierce cat would be male?"

Upon hearing this, Ta Xuan's smiling face noticeably tensed up.

If Huo Dou weren't watching, Ta Xuan would definitely stop showing even a hint of pleasant countenance to Luo God.

"Oh? Can it get angry too?"

Ta Xuan's obvious change in expression certainly didn't escape Luo God's sharp eyes.

This made Luo God even more interested in Ta Xuan.

"After studying for a few days, you've only taught her to understand humans?"

"Does she have any special abilities? Will she ever become human like you?"

Faced with Luo God's blatant questions, Huo Dou scratched his cheek, a bit speechless, not knowing how to answer her.

"Do you think everyone can be like me?"

"The 'Ring of the Throne Angels' has no ability to alter the host's form."

"Ta Xuan isn't even the true owner of the 'Ring of the Throne Angels'; she's merely a temporary vessel chosen by the ring."

What Huo Dou said was true, Ta Xuan can now utilize the power of the 'Ring of the Throne Angels' purely because someone suppressed that Throne Angel for her.

"But if you talk about special abilities, Ta Xuan does have a very unique passive ability."

Upon hearing this, Luo God immediately asked with curiosity.

In fact, not only Luo God, but Ta Xuan herself showed a hint of curiosity.

For Ta Xuan, who already possesses and even surpasses human intelligence, she realized that the "natural enemy" in front of her would never lie.

But the problem was, even Ta Xuan didn't know what special abilities she possessed.

If you consider something special, does the tail ring that can't be shaken off on her tail count as a special ability?

"Luck, or rather good luck."

Patting Ta Xuan's head, Huo Dou said with a tone of certainty.

"Ta Xuan can bring good luck to herself and those around her..."

Blinking in confusion, Luo God asked, slow to react.

"Good luck? What kind of good luck? This sounds so abstract."

It's not surprising that Luo God reacted this way, even Ta Xuan herself revealed an obvious look of disappointment.

After all, luck is too abstract a concept, unlike other Mysterious Creatures' abilities that are straightforward and striking.

"Abstract?"

"Ta Xuan's ability is not abstract at all."

With a mysterious smile on his face, Huo Dou suddenly pulled out a handgun from nowhere and aimed it at his own temple.

"Ta Xuan, you should have seen a gun before!"

"What do you think will happen if I pull the trigger?"

Ta Xuan's pupils contracted sharply; she naturally recognized firearms, as they were not uncommon in this military base.

During the day, Ta Xuan had seen many soldiers practicing shooting nearby.

"Meow!"

Instinctively letting out a meow, Ta Xuan seemed to want to stop Huo Dou from this dangerous action.

Unexpectedly, Huo Dou really did pull the trigger with a smile.
