

The Growth 424

Chapter 424 - 10: Everyone a Soldier

The dream is an extremely unique phenomenon.

Looking at All Heavens and Myriad Realms, various interpretations regarding dreams are also endless.

Especially in those worlds possessing a Spiritual Dimension, dreams can even be seen as the other side of the material world, a world with spirituality.

The will of all sentient beings will gather in this dream world.

Their subconscious reflections will be manifested in this world in a tangible state.

According to the research of the Mountain and Sea Civilization, the Mountain and Sea Realm was originally supposed to nurture a dream world.

However, due to the interference of the Creator and the birth of the Goddess of Death, the Netherworld replaced the original dream world, becoming the mirrored world that is one with the Mountain and Sea Realm.

Nevertheless, the power of the dream did not disappear; instead, it was segmented into various dream-related Divine Positions by the Celestial Tao System.

Thus, some Ascenders in the Mountain and Sea Realm proposed a bold idea.

Could one person alone materialize the dream and then raise this dream as a Divine Kingdom into ascension?

This was the [Dream Entering God Ascension Technique] widely circulated among the Ascenders in the Mountain and Sea Realm for a long period.

It was said that the Supreme God Brahma of the renowned Indian Gods in All Heavens and Myriad Realms once nurtured countless Divine Spirits and Life in a dream.

If not for a conflict with the Thirteen Celestial Fathers Gu A, Brahma might have been able to let his dream encompass All Heavens and Myriad Realms, becoming the fourteenth Celestial Father Rank existence.

Unfortunately, the Ascenders of the Mountain and Sea Realm ultimately chose to abandon this path.

Because they realized that one person's dream could not possibly flawlessly and infinitely emulate the real world.

And if one were to include many people in the dream, it would be using countless lives to achieve their own Path to Divinity.

This is absolutely not allowed to exist in the Mountain and Sea Realm, thus the [Dream Entering God Ascension Technique] became a taboo.

Now, only the Evil God Processing Center, specifically targeting various gods, still retains such records.

"Isn't it just a dream?"

"I want to see exactly what is hidden within your dreams!"

Without the slightest hesitation, Ao Xing, thinking he understood the situation, directly reached out to touch that dark vortex.

In an instant, Ao Xing felt a sensation of the world spinning, and he was sucked into an unknown dream.

.....

Meanwhile, in the Sky City of the Mountain and Sea Realm.

"Have you figured out what exactly is going on here!?"

With a suppressed tone of anger, the Myconid turned and questioned the Burrowing Insect beside it.

Because not far from a group of people, that dark mire was still continually devouring the surrounding other matter.

Combining with other simultaneous occurrences of dark mires in the city, it seemed as if some unknown force wanted to drag the entire Sky City into an unknown realm.

In this situation, the Myconid's responsibility made it necessary to quickly figure out what was going on.

"That's a materialized dream!"

Maintaining the unique calmness of the Burrowing Insect, it did not lose its reason due to its superior's yelling.

On the contrary, the Burrowing Insect could particularly understand the inner agitation and anger of the Myconid.

The investigators from the Evil God Processing Center had just stepped into the building, and those materialized dreams appeared right after.

Anyone would hardly consider this just a simple coincidence.

"I suggest applying to invoke 'Subspace Restraint Device' from Zhiku..."

"If necessary, even if abandoning this city, we must not let these materialized dreams spread."

The "Subspace Restraint Device" is a byproduct of the Mountain and Sea Civilization's research on Sky City.

Its essence is a highly compressed small subspace but unexpectedly can have a sealing effect on non-material entities.

"Then why are you still dawdling! Apply for it now!"

Issuing the order without courtesy, before the Myconid's words had dropped, they saw the dark mire change again.

Twisting, tearing, gathering, merging...

Under everyone's gaze, indescribable nameless beings emerged from the materialized dream.

They are the followers of the God of Chaos, incarnations of the darkest emotions in the human heart.

When they descended upon this world, it signified this space was blurring the boundary between reality and dream, allowing those indescribable beings that could only appear in the dream world to appear in reality.

"Guardians! Get ready for battle immediately!"

Seeing this situation, the Myconid immediately activated the communication network and roared on all channels.

"The remaining Mountain and Sea People should prioritize self-preservation and avoid direct conflict and contact with these monsters!"

As if responding to the Myconid's words, the guardians of the city appeared in every corner of the city, launching counterattacks on the monsters from the dream world immediately.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Huge explosions resonated throughout the city instantly.

These explosions were not only the sounds of weapon attacks but also of city structures collapsing.

Mighty MinAseerpentg She soared into the sky...

The flamboyant Nine-tailed howled to the sky...

The soaring Canglong called wind and rain...

The agile Skeletons deployed armament...

In the current Sky City, anyone capable of participating in this war brought out all their skills, trying to limit the invasion of those monsters.

Thankfully, the Mountain and Sea People belong to a civilization where everyone is a soldier.

Whenever needed, even the weakest Mountain and Sea Person could make the most correct judgment immediately.

Therefore, those suddenly appearing dream monsters did not cause significant casualties; instead, they were suppressed by the Mountain and Sea People immediately.

However, the dream monsters did not disappear due to the suppression.

Instead of vanishing, they seemed to absorb the fear of the Mountain and Sea People, summoning more and more terrifying indescribable beings from the dark mire.

"The existence manipulating these materialized dreams seems to be very aware of our action process..."

At this time, the Burrowing Insect, which had just transmitted the Myconid's orders, said.

Judging from those materialized dreams' responses, they were clearly executing a premeditated plan to create panic in the city.

Moreover, they apparently knew the internal rules and processes of the Mountain and Sea Civilization very well, never truly giving the Mountain and Sea People a chance to counterattack.

"I actually hate 'personal heroism' game plots!"

Sharing the same judgment as the Burrowing Insect, the Myconid sighed somewhat helplessly.

"But now, we can only place our hopes on that investigator..."
