

The Growth 475

Chapter 475 - 23: Son of Zeus · God of the End

"Enoch! Go to hell!"

Adam knew long ago that he was different from all the creatures created by the Holy Spirit.

He was born a Demigod, becoming stronger every moment, to an unimaginable degree.

At first, Adam found this rather puzzling, but as time passed, he grew accustomed to it.

However, occasionally, Adam would still feel lonely.

He was not like those sexless Angels, so they were not his kin.

Nor was he like those Foreign Gods transformed by the Holy Spirit, so they were not his kin either.

Until one day, the ever-elusive Holy Spirit declared to the world that Adam was His eldest son, His direct Divine Descendant.

Only then did Adam gain a true sense of identity and learn of his origins.

Turns out he was a blood descendant of the Holy Spirit, which explained his uniqueness!

This should have been a matter of joy, but the arrival of a woman that the Holy Spirit brought back caused the situation to take an eerie turn.

She was Adam's first wife, a witch named "Lilith."

Lilith was very mysterious and incredibly bold and daring, even showing no fear of the Holy Spirit.

Nominally, she was Adam's wife, but in reality, Adam regarded her more as a sister, or some kind of elder figure.

However, as they spent more time together, Adam gradually learned some terrifying truths from Lilith.

Such as the true name of the Holy Spirit...

Or the curse that the Holy Spirit feared...

These truths, which should have been buried in the dust of history, made Adam realize fear for the first time.

According to Lilith, the Holy Spirit was actually the Creator of the Yawei World, and also the third-generation God King of the Greek Gods—Zeus.

To escape the curse his father cast upon him before dying, he reincarnated as Jupiter and Jehovah in succession, but never escaped the "patricide" curse.

Initially, during the Roman Pantheon period, Jupiter himself initiated a war that overturned the Divine Pantheon.

That war spread across the entire Yawei World, nearly leading the whole world to the brink of destruction.

The reason Jupiter did this was very simple: to sever the lineage of Olympus, making the curse of God King Cronus disappear.

As long as he had no children, the "patricide" curse of God King Cronus would naturally vanish.

This method was indeed effective at the start; at least, that was what Jupiter thought at the time.

Then, to reorder the Yawei World, Jupiter reincarnated as the initial Holy Spirit, Jehovah, to re-create the Gods and civilization.

To ensure he had no offspring, Jehovah of this period became loveless and desireless, shedding the stallion image of the Zeus era.

Needless to say, he avoided contact with any unfamiliar female creatures.

He even rarely interacted with living beings, always maintaining an aloof and enigmatic image.

Unfortunately, the birth of Adam shattered Jehovah's delusion.

Because another identity of God King Cronus was the God of Time, the Supreme God above all Time Gods.

Heaven knows which era of Zeus was Adam's illegitimate son, but Zeus himself couldn't remember.

The only certainty is that Adam indeed came into being because of Cronus's curse.

As long as Zeus was alive, regardless of what form he took, Cronus's curse would deliver Zeus's sons from other space-times, even parallel space-times, into his world.

Realizing this fact, Zeus finally gave up on escaping the curse.

Especially after witnessing the astonishing potential demonstrated by Adam.

Incarnated as Jehovah, Zeus was almost certain that the other party was the "Curse Child" who would one day completely end his life.

With resignation and troubled thoughts...

Zeus ultimately chose to announce Adam's existence to the world and officially acknowledge his identity.

Then, Lilith was banished from Eden by the enraged Holy Spirit for revealing too many secrets to Adam.

Until the last moment of Lilith's departure, Adam could still remember the mocking ridicule on her face.

Adam respected the Holy Spirit, respected his father, from the depths of his heart.

Therefore, even knowing his destined fate to end his father, Adam did not change his thoughts.

Thus, Adam proactively requested the Holy Spirit to limit his potential, willing to forever remain below his father.

Eve was born under such circumstances.

She was both a woman transformed from Adam's rib and the "limiter" preventing Adam from being complete.

As long as Eve was alive, Adam would forever be the Holy Spirit's eldest son, not the "Curse Child" destined to kill his father.

Ultimately, even Adam being exiled from Eden might be because the Holy Spirit once again saw the possibility of patricide from him.

This was no alarmist talk.

The Holy Spirit, having experienced too many emotions, knew better than anyone that love could also make Gods reckless.

When the Holy Spirit was still Zeus, his queen—Hera—punished his stallion behavior by displaying the jealousy and anger in love to the fullest.

No one could guarantee whether Adam might one day rebel against the Holy Spirit for Eve's sake.

One could only say that the situation in the Yawei World eventually progressed to a point the Holy Spirit didn't wish to see.

For the continuity of the Yawei World, the Holy Spirit had to guide Enoch to seek the "Power of the Holy Father" and "Power of the Holy Son," leading to Adam running amok unsurprisingly.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The rampaging Adam only wanted to vent his inner anger now.

And as the main culprit of all this—Enoch naturally became his best target for venting.

Originally deadlocked with Gus to protect the Yawei World, Enoch now had to divert attention to handle the rage-blinded Adam.

At this precise moment, the Lance of Longinus and Cassius' Spear in Enoch's hands also started to stir.

During the battle with Adam, these Holy Spears, transformed from the Fruit of Life and Fruit of Wisdom, impatiently wanted to return to their master's hands.

"How can it be... this Power..."

In disbelief, repeatedly parrying Adam's furious attacks, Enoch felt for the first time what it was like to battle a storm.

He simply couldn't imagine where Adam, previously killed by him, had acquired such power?

Or how, having such terrifying Power, Adam was killed by him at that time?

Destruction born from the ultimate expression of pure violence.

The Adam of today has long surpassed the concept of a "God of Destruction," embodying the true "God of the End" capable of destroying everything.
