Chapter 535 - 5: Creation Gold Coin

"That guy... did he discover something?"

Only after the Merfolk had left for a while did Yu Wei snap out of her daze.

"Truly worthy of someone who can strategize against those devils and evil gods. This insight is simply incredible."

Softly sighing, Yu Wei couldn't help but take out the [Creation Gold Coin] from her pocket and carefully examine it.

Ever since coming to this world, Yu Wei had been exploring the abilities of this [Creation Gold Coin].

Although she hadn't fully figured out its true use...

Yu Wei knew clearly that this [Creation Gold Coin] was certainly not just about transporting her to the Mountain and Sea Realm.

In sending her to the Mountain and Sea Realm, it seemed to have also woven a seamless identity for her.

Before Yu Wei arrived at this port city, no one had ever doubted her identity.

It was as if Yu Wei was originally a native of the Mountain and Sea Realm, a native-born Mountain and Sea Person.

If not for the appearance of the Merfolk shareholder, perhaps no one would have realized that Yu Wei was actually a transcender from another world.

Language, script, identity, even common sense...

These were all conferred upon Yu Wei by the [Creation Gold Coin], the foundation that allowed her to stand firm in this world.

"Is war about to break out in the Celestial Human Realm...?"

Tightly gripping the [Creation Gold Coin] in her hand, Yu Wei's once-calm heart began to stir again.

Having spent so much time in the Mountain and Sea Realm, Yu Wei had thought she had thoroughly forgotten the Celestial Human Realm.

But upon hearing news from the Celestial Human Realm again, Yu Wei realized she had been deceiving herself.

Even if she consciously avoided cultivating the "Lotus Descent Record"...

Even if she only dabbled in sideline practices like Alchemy Dao, talismans, and artifact refining...

Even if her body now was an "Immaculate Body" reshaped by the Creator of this world...

Yu Wei was still Yu Wei, the great divine power user who once roamed freely in the Celestial Human Realm, the unparalleled strongwoman who led the [Taiping Tao] in the "War of the End of the Dharma."

"So now the question is, which path should I take?"

Glancing around her shop at the elixirs, talismans, and magical artifacts.

Yu Wei knew that relying solely on these things, she had no way to interfere in the impending war.

In the Mountain and Sea Realm, the exploration and expansion by the Mountain and Sea People are very cautious, often permitted only to those half-god level strong individuals who can freely travel in and out of the Mountain and Sea Realm.

This means that if Yu Wei cannot restore her former cultivation in a short time, she might not even be allowed to access any information related to the Celestial Human Realm.

It's a protection from the higher-ups of the Mountain and Sea Civilization for its people, also what sets the Mountain and Sea Realm apart from other worlds.

In the Mountain and Sea Realm, the Mountain and Sea People have their respective duties.

Numerous half-god level strong individuals are willing to carry burdens in the dark to protect those seen as weak by outsiders.

Yu Wei enjoyed this feeling of protection very much.

Because it made her feel as if she was back when she served as a maid to the Sun Star Monarch.

However, after a moment of enjoyment, Yu Wei knew it was time to end this kind of life.

"If it were in the Celestial Human Realm, it would be a pipe dream to restore my former cultivation in a short time..."

With determination, Yu Wei took one last look at her shop, then closed the door and walked out.

"But here in the Mountain and Sea Realm, there is more than one path to restoring power."

.....

Fertile Plains, Central City.

Following the principle of "small matters call big meetings, big matters call small meetings," the high ranks of Zhiku rarely convened an all-member meeting.

The Great Prophets of all races gathered in the hall near the Creator Altar, all staring intently at the one in the center, Tianyou.

"Is the situation over there really that severe?"

After a brief silence, the Great Prophet of the Nine-tailed Fox Race spoke first.

"The situation is even more severe than I described. The Celestial Human Realm has already sent us a signal for help."

Glancing at the Great Prophets of each race, Tianyou nodded seriously, his expression matching their grave demeanor.

"About the Celestial Human Realm, I believe everyone here is well aware."

"That is a world chosen by the Creator..."

"That world demonstrated to us the sorrow of a world ruled by absolute powers."

"Even after those powers departed, the order they left behind continued to bind that world in inertia."

Through the images captured by the "Heaven Peeping Array,"

The high ranks of the Mountain and Sea Realm saw the war between practitioners and mortals and understood its entirety.

So, when someone from the Celestial Human Realm stepped out of the old order and sought assistance from the Mountain and Sea Realm, the Mountain and Sea Realm responded.

Regrettably, the other side seemed to harbor great caution towards the Mountain and Sea Realm, especially as they held the [Creation Gold Coin] that possessed the Creator's power.

The Mountain and Sea People had to abandon their usual assertiveness, opting instead to provide support through knowledge and technology, hoping to help the Celestial Human Realm escape the old order.

Unexpectedly, before the Mountain and Sea Realm's aid could show results,

The one who had always been wary of the Mountain and Sea Realm proactively requested direct military assistance from them.

Because the Celestial Human Realm faced a new crisis—unknown invaders had breached that world.

Whether practitioners or mortals...

In the face of those invaders, they were nothing more than a group of weak chickens.

"Have we identified the invaders' identity?"

At that moment, the Great Prophet of the Serpent Race flapped his wings and asked in a low voice.

"Not yet."

With regret, Tianyou shook his head, his expression unchanged.

"Currently, the only certainty is that the invaders are still probing and haven't committed substantial forces for invasion."

"Unfortunately, the Celestial Human Realm is embroiled in a war between practitioners and mortals."

"If this situation is allowed to worsen, there's a significant chance the Celestial Human Realm will fall into the 'Fallen Area.'"

"Therefore, I suggest we immediately aid the Celestial Human Realm; their existence holds significant research and observation value for the Mountain and Sea Realm."

Just then, a great prophet with a tiger head and human body firmly expressed his opposition.

"I oppose!"

"If the Celestial Human Realm is destroyed, so be it! What does it have to do with us?"

"Moreover, the 'celestial beings' in that world are absolutely selfish; can you guarantee that after we aid them, we won't face backlash?"
