

The Growth 540

Chapter 540 - 10: The Returning Celestial Being

Under the unique "Vertical Earth Golden Light Technique" of the Golden Crow Sect.

The golden light of Haoguang's Incarnation did not take long to successfully reach the sunken lands of the Five Fingers.

As for the Preliminary Sect Leader who actively volunteered to follow?

He was refused by Haoguang with the reason "You are the Sect Leader now".

He also decisively rejected other disciples who wanted to follow.

After circling twice over Shuangliu Village, Haoguang noticed that the Taiping Taoist Soldiers had already quarantined this area.

Furthermore, hundreds and thousands of Taiping Taoist Soldiers entered combat readiness, diligently sweeping every inch of land within a thousand miles.

For a mortal army that has not formally stepped into the threshold of cultivation, this is the best search method they could think of.

To minimize the burden on the Taiping Taoist Soldiers, local villagers also spontaneously provided logistics support for them.

Mortals who have survived until now basically understand the principle of shared fate.

Especially against those evil demons who have completely lost their humanity, no one has the delusion of reaching any consensus with them.

Soy!

After a brief pause and observation, Haoguang, unwilling to conflict with the Taiping Taoist Soldiers, slipped into the nearby mountains and forests.

The Taiping Taoist Soldiers can only use primitive methods to search for traces of that evil demon, which does not mean Haoguang as a cultivator does not have other methods.

In fact, this is also the reason Bai Shasheng wants to pass this "black pot" to the cultivators.

In just a blink of an eye, Haoguang's figure appeared next to a spring in the forest.

This is an extremely murky dead spring.

Due to lack of mobility, the entire spring presented an unusual murky color.

However, what is bizarre is that the surface of this dead spring does not have any snake, insect, rat, and ant carcasses, contrasting sharply with its own water quality.

"Eight hundred desert realms, three thousand depths of Weak Water. Goose feathers cannot float, rush flower settles at the bottom."

"I never thought I would see a real 'Weak Water Spring' in today's era."

With a hint of sarcasm, Haoguang's voice echoed in the forest.

Gurgle gurgle...

Suddenly, the eerie dead spring began to ripple with gurgles.

The next second, the murky spring surged into a vague humanoid form and began to speak.

"I also did not expect someone in this End of the Dharma Era to recognize Weak Water."

The humanoid formed by Weak Water gradually solidified into a physical entity and then morphed into robes, Taoist robe, and duster.

Compared to the current Haoguang, this Daoist transformed from Weak Water appeared younger in appearance.

Sword-like eyebrows and starry eyes, a face as fine as jade.

That is the best description of this Daoist.

"Ice Skin and Jade Bone, Flawless Body."

"You indeed have achieved the Celestial Human Dao Fruit."

Ice Skin and Jade Bone and Flawless Body are the two major features of becoming a Celestial Being.

No matter their original appearance, upon becoming a Celestial Being they automatically gain Ice Skin and Jade Bone and Flawless Body.

Compared to changes in appearance, the true role of Ice Skin and Jade Bone and Flawless Body is to help Celestial Beings construct self-circulation, transcending earthly restraints.

Once the "Celestial Human Dao Fruit" is achieved, the Celestial Being itself becomes a "Small World" with independent circulation.

"Like you, a Celestial Being, haven't you already chosen to leave this world long ago? Why return?"

Straight to the point, Haoguang asked, with not a hint of fear in his words.

Instead, the opposite Daoist laughed after hearing this question.

"Haha, just a bunch of ants!"

"Do I need to report my reasons for returning to you?"

Before the words were finished, the Daoist took the initiative, directly sending a spray of Weak Water with the duster.

This Weak Water was like the sharpest "Arrow Rain" in the world, aiming at every acupoint of Haoguang's body.

The Daoist was very confident, even though Haoguang was a Celestial Being of the same level, it was absolutely impossible to resist these targeted Weak Water attacks.

"I knew it would end up this way..."

Seeing this situation, knowing well the personalities of his Celestial predecessors, Haoguang muttered.

In the blink of an eye, Haoguang emitted radiant light rivaling the sun.

——Sun Scripture - Golden Light Spell!

Crackling...

Under the protection of the Golden Light Spell, those Weak Water droplets were rapidly evaporated before they could come within three feet of Haoguang.

This scene, from the Daoist's perspective, was no less shocking than the first time humans learned of the existence of dinosaurs.

"Impossible!?"

Too lazy to continue wasting words with the Daoist.

Haoguang formed a hand seal with one hand, controlling the overwhelming golden light to transform into a giant hand, reaching for the opponent.

Instantly, surging mist covered several meters.

Realizing the danger, the Daoist no longer maintained human form and attempted to turn into mist to escape this perilous place.

However, Haoguang's reaction was faster.

"I don't care why you return, but this era is no longer your era!"

With a rare fierce glint in his eyes, Haoguang also transformed into streams of golden light, soaring into the sky.

.....

At the same time, the Taiping Taoist Soldiers patrolling the outskirts of the forest noticed the anomaly here.

"What's that?"

The soldier closest to the forest widened his eyes and immediately signaled.

Endless mist transformed into mist dragons enveloped the forest, countless golden lights soared into the sky...

The two parties seemed like descending Gods, with each impact and clash destroying several kilometers of forestland around.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

After a few brief exchanges, the pitch-black Thunder quietly descended.

Within sight, a vortex of Primordial Qi akin to a Celestial Calamity emerged, sweeping everything in its path.

"There are Great Divine Power Users engaging in battle!"

"Do not approach that area! Notify the stationed troops to activate the 'Immortal Spirit Fire Cannon'!"

Soon, knowledgeable warriors among the Taiping Taoist Soldiers loudly shouted, quickly relaying this information to the rear line.

In the Celestial Human Realm where Primordial Qi is fading, a cultivator who can stir up a Celestial Calamity of this scale with their own strength is undoubtedly a true Great Divine Power User.

And the battle between two Great Divine Power Users is something ordinary mortals cannot intervene.

Only the Immortal Spirit Fire Cannon secretly forged by the Taiping Taoist Soldiers can pose a threat to such beings.

"Watch the battle closely, that may very well be the evil demon we're looking for!"

After layers of information transmission, the upper echelons of the Taiping Taoist Soldiers quickly learned about the battle happening here.

As the leader, Bai Shasheng resolutely mounted his steed, leading his troops to the battlefield without hesitation.
