

The Growth 549

Chapter 549 - 19: Black Pool Dragon Monarch

"Why do you trouble yourself with this?"

Walking over to the Heavenly Taoist who knelt in defeat, Bai Mei sighed lightly.

"I just wanted to obtain the Demon Vanquishing True Monarch's lineage, I never intended to exterminate you all."

"Whether it's you or your disciples, you're all too reckless."

Hearing this, the Heavenly Taoist struggled to lift his head to look at Bai Mei, showing a slightly mocking smile.

"Those words... you're only fooling yourself."

"The Demon Vanquishing True Monarch's lineage is just the first step..."

"Regardless of your ultimate goal, what follows is to reclaim this world, isn't it?"

"Cough cough... I won't let you succeed..."

With a violent cough, the Heavenly Taoist suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Stubborn and incorrigible."

Shaking his head lightly, Bai Mei had no intention to continue the conversation with the Heavenly Taoist, instead turning to look towards the sect behind him.

To Bai Mei's surprise, there was not a trace of life behind the mountain gate.

"What did you do?"

His gaze immediately focused again on the Heavenly Taoist, for the first time revealing a look of surprise.

It was not unusual for the Heavenly Taoist to quickly gather disciples when the sect was invaded.

But to make so many disciples disappear in an instant had already exceeded Bai Mei's understanding.

Even the famed [Close Proximity, Far Away] divine technique couldn't possibly transfer so many disciples away from Luofu Island in such a short time.

"Cough cough... just preserving some embers..."

"This era... is no longer the era of the Celestial Beings..."

Looking at the Heavenly Taoist who had no intention of answering his question, Bai Mei, feeling quite annoyed, couldn't be bothered to waste words with him any longer.

"Since you don't want to speak, then go die!"

With a slap on the Heavenly Taoist's crown, Bai Mei directly shattered his Purple Mansion and Primordial Spirit.

Pa!

The last scene the Heavenly Taoist saw was Bai Mei striding away towards the Scripture Pavilion.

Although the Heavenly Taoist managed to transfer a number of disciples at the last moment, the thousands of years of scriptures accumulated by the Celestial One Sect couldn't be moved in such a short time.

What Bai Mei planned to do next was to peruse those scriptures while using Luofu Island as a coordinate to allow more Celestial Beings to descend into this world.

.....

In a fisherman's village hundreds of kilometers away from Luofu Island.

"Master!!!"

A sudden appearance of a young boy, eyes torn, gazed at the already shattered and fragmented Luofu Island.

This boy was one of the disciples the Heavenly Taoist sent away at the last moment.

Thanks to the latest study of the "Array of Shifting" by the Celestial One Sect, the boy's disappearance and appearance did not disturb anyone.

Unfortunately, the "Array of Shifting" had not yet developed a positioning function, only able to randomly teleport within the Celestial Human Realm.

Therefore, the boy might be the only Celestial One Sect disciple to appear in this small fisherman's village.

Bang!

Just as the boy was filled with grief and indignation, a massive explosion suddenly erupted from the distant Luofu Island.

Then, under the boy's stunned gaze, a gigantic void appeared out of nowhere above Luofu Island.

It seemed to connect to an unknown realm beyond the world.

The huge void, like an eye silently opening, gave an incredibly terrifying and awe-inspiring feeling.

In a daze, the boy seemed to see an indescribable existence reaching its "hand" towards this world.

"No!"

With instinctive fear of the unknown, the boy let out an involuntary scream.

Immediately, the void seemed to notice the boy and shot a world-destroying chaos beam towards the fisherman's village.

Rumble...

The chaos beam's speed was so fast that the boy couldn't react at all.

In just a blink of an eye, the chaos beam obliterated the entire small fisherman's village, leaving a crater hundreds of meters deep in its wake.

"I..."

The boy, who narrowly survived, stared dumbfounded at the crater, unable to regain his senses for a long time.

Because if that chaos beam had spread even one meter further, the boy would have vanished like the villagers.

Even so, the unabashedly destructive power left a terrifying psychological shadow on the boy.

However, the chaos beam was only the beginning.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

After a brief silence, the void above Luofu Island once again shot out terrifying chaos beams in other directions.

Each beam could destroy a village hundreds of meters in radius.

After just two rounds of salvo, there were no more living mortal settlements near Luofu Island.

"Roar!"

Only then did a piercing dragon roar echo from the void.

Looking over, the boy saw a pitch-black "giant dragon" straining to emerge from the void.

From afar, it seemed a majestic, terrifying dragon.

But upon closer inspection, it was clear that the so-called "giant dragon" was merely a mass of terrifying tendrils twisting together into an indescribable form.

The earlier destructive beams had been emitted from the ends of those tendrils.

"Roar!"

The countless tendrils twisted into a dragon-like shape, the grotesque form revealing a strange harmony amidst its distortion.

This was the Celestial Being summoned by Bai Mei—the Heitan Dragon Monarch!

"Wretch! How dare you be so wanton!"

With a tone full of endless fury, a stern shout suddenly came from the sky.

In an instant, a figure radiating golden light appeared, as if the Sun God had descended to the world.

Whoosh!

The newcomer was none other than Haoguang, who had perfected the Golden Light Escape Technique.

Upon sensing spatial disturbances here, Haoguang had rushed over at maximum speed using the "Vertical Earth Golden Light Technique."

In the end, still a step too late, watching helplessly as this Evil Dragon obliterated all human settlements within a thousand miles.

"Celestial Spirits and Earthly Fiends! Pure Yang Borrowing Technique!"

Forming the Subduing Evil Seal with his hands, vast primordial qi transformed into talismans.

In his outrage, Haoguang unleashed a killing move, disregarding that the opponent was a true Celestial Being.

"Roar!"

The Heitan Dragon Monarch, realizing the peril, had no time to ponder why a more powerful presence than itself appeared in this realm.

The chaotic Dragon Breath spewed from its mouth and nose, colliding with the surging Pure Yang Fierce Fire.

"Roar!"

The intense Pure Yang Fire illuminated half the sky.

Forced back before fully descending into the Celestial Human Realm, the Heitan Dragon Monarch howled, disappearing along with the void above Luofu Island from the boy's sight.