

The Growth 564

Chapter 564 - 34: Ancestors of Chaos · Twisted Beast

"Now it's two against one, and the scales of victory seem to have begun tipping in our favor."

Changing his previous tone and speaking style, Haoguang once again looked at the Dragon Bird with a hint of provocation in his eyes.

"Scales of victory?"

Slowly flapping its wings that blocked out the sky, the Dragon Bird's voice was deafening.

"You don't even know who you're dealing with."

"In my current state and power, I can maintain this for a hundred years!"

"And what about you? One of you is a half-baked Celestial Being exchanging life for power, and the other isn't even a Celestial Being."

As if to affirm its words, the Dragon Bird, whose momentum had reached its peak, unexpectedly pushed its Primordial Pill again.

Roar!

In an instant, even more vast Primordial Qi surged from the Dragon Bird's body, continuously disturbing the balance of Primordial Qi in this world.

Affected by this, the Primordial Qi in the entire Celestial Human Realm began to become unbalanced.

Looking at the current Celestial Human Realm, the already near-depleted Heaven and Earth Primordial Qi began to accelerate its collapse and disappearance under a unique siphon phenomenon.

Such exaggerated power, such abnormal phenomena, completely exceeded the ability limits of a Celestial Being.

"You're not a Celestial Being!"

"Or rather, you're not completely a Celestial Being!"

"Exactly who or what are you!?"

Seeing through the true nature of the Dragon Bird at that moment, Haoguang shouted sternly and loudly.

In Haoguang's perception, the Dragon Bird seemed to become a moving "black hole," continuously spewing out the impure Primordial Qi.

If the Dragon Bird were allowed to continue like this, even if the Celestial Human Realm weren't destroyed by the imbalance of Primordial Qi, it would be polluted by that impure Qi.

By then, the impure Qi would twist the ecology of the Celestial Human Realm, breeding demons completely incompatible with the world's rules.

"Who am I?"

"I am Demon King Teng Niao, also the seventeenth Ancestor of Chaos..."

"However, if you must describe me with words you can understand, you can call me 'Twisted Beast'."

The voice became exceptionally low, and the impure Primordial Qi twisted the Dragon Bird's body.

The Dragon Bird, or rather the unknown entity occupying the Dragon Bird's body, continued murmuring.

"I am the most curious individual among the Ancestors of Chaos, also a collective of twisted consciousness."

"My essence is composed of countless twisted wills and forms, and the Demon King Teng Niao you speak of is just one of them."

The tone paused for a moment, as the unknown entity slowly explained its origin as if not considering Haoguang and Yu Wei on the opposite side worth any regard.

"After Demon King Teng Niao's Ascension, he got lost in the endless chaos."

"At the final moment, it was I who heard his prayer and accepted his existence..."

"Since then, he became a part of 'me', becoming the derivative will of the 'Twisted Beast'."

"With his help, many wills and forms also became part of 'me'..."

"Unfortunately, it seems the Godslayers have been aware of my existence and have been on guard against my appearance all along..."

Before the words finished, the already twisted Dragon Bird suddenly showed an odd smile.

"However, now I've finally caught an opportunity."

"A complete world, a true Heavenly Father's Treasure..."

"If I can make you become a part of 'me', perhaps this time I can barely maintain a hundred years of 'clarity'!"

As his pupils suddenly contracted, realizing the danger, Haoguang instinctively used the Golden Light Spell, knocking Yu Wei beside him away.

Boom!

In the next second, the Dragon Bird, which had completely lost its form, turned into an indescribable twisted entity and swallowed Haoguang whole.

"Haoguang!"

Watching Haoguang's figure being devoured by the nameless twisted entity.

With eyes almost tearing, Yu Wei, without any hesitation, instantly unleashed all the power in her body.

The various implanted devices within her operated in overload, and stunning Electric Light bloomed from the patterns on her skin.

Snap—Boom!

In less than a breath, Yu Wei's figure transformed into Electric Light, tearing through chaos.

Her skin ruptured, circuits burned out...

Yu Wei didn't hesitate, but instead, with the help of high-concentration hormones and self-healing factors in her body, unleashed a terrifying power beyond her limits.

"Interesting, now you also have the value to join 'me'."

The twisted chaos presented a huge, almost human face, rapidly engulfing Yu Wei with overwhelming black flames.

.....

"What... exactly happened here..."

The Steel Azure Dragon conjured rain from clouds, barely forming a safe zone under the vast black flames.

In that safe zone, Xiang Yao gazed up at the sky where a true battle of the Gods was unfolding, with eyes filled with confusion and an eager battle intent.

The initial appearance of Haoguang and the Dragon Bird were one thing, but the later appearance of the Twisted Beast was clearly a genuine God Level existence.

No, that Twisted Beast was considered a strong level even among the Gods.

"Captain?"

"You wouldn't be thinking of fighting a monster of that level, would you?"

Familiar with their captain's personality, the Horned Rat, who had just controlled the Mecha to repel a Beast Tide team, had to personally approach Xiang Yao.

Due to the distraction of the main body, coupled with the continuous onslaught of black flames from the sky...

The exterior Mecha also decisively abandoned the intention of continued pursuit, instead taking a defensive stance like the Steel Azure Dragon.

"Captain, I'm telling you, if you leave us behind again to fight, be careful you'll be assigned to block the sea eye when we get back!"

Hearing the Horned Rat's warning, Xiang Yao barely restrained the impulse within himself, then sighed a bit reluctantly.

"That's a real God!"

"Outside of the Divine Fall Realm, I've never seen a True God descend..."

"If I could battle it once, maybe I could break through the limits of the 'Ascension Ladder'."

Upon hearing this, the Horned Rat immediately rolled its eyes.

"I don't care about that; anyway, you absolutely can't leave us behind this time."

Though Xiang Yao is the General of the entire "Weihe Combat Team," he's also recognized by all as a battle maniac.

It's just that in most cases, very few can truly ignite his battle intent, which prevents him from acting too outrageously.

"Had I known this mission would involve true Gods, I shouldn't have become this captain in the first place."

Sighing again, Xiang Yao then turned his gaze to Yu Wei.

"That woman... she's not a Mountain and Sea Person, is she?"

"What's with those implants in her body? And there's even an additional external interface left over?"

