

The Growth 567

Chapter 567 - 37: Creator of Chaos

Time rewinds to one minute ago, when Haoguang had just used the [Sun-Hunting Gold Coin] to summon that Divine Power Spear.

Li Hao, who had been watching this war closely, immediately focused his gaze on the opponent.

A Divine Power Spear exchanged with the Epic Level [Sun-Hunting Gold Coin] is definitely an epic-level killing Divine Artifact.

In the lower tier of the [Sun-Hunting Gold Coin] exchange list, Li Hao couldn't even see the option to exchange for this epic Divine Artifact.

The only thing he could confirm was that when Haoguang exchanged for this spear, even Li Hao couldn't help but feel a chilling sense of crisis.

Li Hao was sure that this Divine Power Spear from Sun Hunter Ra was definitely a weapon that could kill him.

Even possessing the Immortal Body, Li Hao would inevitably die once if pierced by this Divine Power Spear.

So here's the question: can the nameless entity calling itself the "Chaos Seventeen Ancestors" withstand a strike from the Divine Power Spear?

With this curiosity, Li Hao locked his gaze on the Divine Power Spear.

Piercing through voids, penetrating chaos, tearing through space-time...

The Divine Power Spear was like a swiftly racing red sun, illuminating countless worlds of All Heavens and Myriad Realms in a very short time.

And the final target of this sun was indeed certain chaos-laden place of the [Ascension Area], a distorted space-time occupied and obscured by countless powerful beings.

Swoosh—Boom!

Effortlessly piercing through the barrier of that distorted space-time, forcibly breaking into the central region of the distorted space-time.

It was a world group composed of countless distorted worlds, whose numbers simply couldn't be described with known numbers.

Like the sands of the Heng River, these nearly infinite distorted worlds are disappearing every moment and being born every moment.

In just the fleeting moment when Li Hao observed this distorted space-time, tens of millions of distorted worlds had been annihilated and then reborn.

Compared to normal worlds, the lifespan of these distorted worlds is so short that they can't even form the most basic world order.

And right in the center of this distorted world, dozens of massive world clusters revolve around each other, barely forming some fixed rules that can be maintained long-term.

At this moment, the target of the Divine Power Spear was one of them.

"No!!! You'll regret this!!!"

The entity will composed of countless distorted worlds roared in the Void Chaos.

A being named "Seventeenth Ancestor of Chaos" in front of a deadly crisis showed not much more strength than the ants in his eyes.

Unfortunately, as the strongest weapon during Fourth Celestial Father Ra's incarnation period as "Sun Hunter," the Divine Power Spear didn't care about the Chaos Seventeen Ancestors' resistance.

Even if the opponent was the entity will of countless distorted worlds, a supreme existence surpassing countless Gods.

In the eyes of the truly "unique Sun Hunter of All Heavens," it wasn't much more powerful than an average God.

Roaring...

When the Divine Power Spear penetrated countless worlds, the will of Chaos Seventeen Ancestors vanished at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The twisted beasts flying out of the distorted world howled desperately, but couldn't possibly resist the residual impact of the Divine Power Spear.

Since Haoguang had wished for the complete annihilation of the Chaos Seventeen Ancestors, the Divine Power Spear would eradicate every twisted beast forming its consciousness.

"You group of lowly mortals, I curse you, curse your worlds to forever struggle in pain and destruction!"

Realizing there was no escape, the despairing Chaos Seventeen Ancestors finally uttered the final curse.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Those twisted beasts, which count as strong in any world, released malicious curses one after another.

And this extremely malicious curse, due to the death of Chaos Seventeen Ancestors, turned into a deadly curse that even a normal Supreme God could not escape.

[Indeed a strange existence...]

Witnessing all this, Li Hao let out an astonishing sigh.

Since becoming the Creator, Li Hao hadn't encountered anything that could surprise him for a long time.

Yet the emergence of this distorted world group made Li Hao realize once more that in these All Heavens and Myriad Realms, nothing is impossible.

Just like the current world group appearing with collective consciousness.

Compared with the Creator and Supreme God of a single world, the group consciousness formed by countless World Will has abilities beyond general Gods' cognition and imagination.

Li Hao wasn't sure who created this distorted space-time.

But he could roughly see the purpose of the creator in making this distorted space-time—to become a true Celestial Father.

Unfortunately, that unknown Chaos Creator seemed to have encountered some accident during the advancement to Celestial Father, ultimately failing to transform into an "unique Celestial Father" of All Heavens.

This distorted space-time composed of countless distorted worlds was the only "legacy" left after failing the advancement.

The so-called "Ancestors of Chaos" was merely a remnant thought of that failure, like the obsessions of the Ancient Gods who fell into [Fallen Area].

[Compared to the true Celestial Father, the remnant thoughts of these failures are truly pathetic.]

Seeing the Divine Power Spear destroying tens of millions of worlds and completely killing the Chaos Seventeen Ancestors, then vanishing into void again, Li Hao couldn't help but express such a sentiment.

That Divine Power Spear was the Divine Artifact projection formed by the [Sun-Hunting Gold Coin], a manifestation of Sun Hunter Ra's power during his peak period.

When it accomplished the bearer's wish, the power sustaining its existence disappeared accordingly, as if it had never appeared.

Li Hao didn't know whether the true Divine Power Spear still existed in some corner of All Heavens and Myriad Realms.

The only certainty was that the power of one epic-level [Sun-Hunting Gold Coin] only supported the fleeting appearance of this Divine Power Spear.

It's imaginable how powerful the complete state of the Divine Power Spear must be.

No wonder that throughout All Heavens and Myriad Realms to this day, only thirteen beings qualified to be honored as "Celestial Father" have been born.

Existences of this level can indeed dominate an era until their silence marks the entry into the next era.

[The current issue is, Sun Hunter's Spear only eliminated the Chaos Seventeen Ancestors.]

[Their final curse before death was not within the scope of Haoguang's wish...]

Thinking this through, Li Hao withdrew his gaze fixed on the distorted space-time and turned back toward the direction of the Celestial Human Realm.

The curse of Chaos Seventeen Ancestors had already come true in the Celestial Human Realm.

And those Lords of Chaos awakened by the Divine Power Spear's power were tentatively casting their gaze towards the Celestial Human Realm.
