

The Growth 575

Chapter 575 - 45: Akasha Records

Yue Ying was born during the zenith of the Celestial Civilization.

It was only in such a golden age, teeming with Celestial Beings and flourishing civilization, that a unique sect like the Three Worlds Sect, which only cared for talent and aptitude, could emerge.

However, even during the peak of the Celestial Civilization, the number of disciples in the Three Worlds Sect was not large.

Yue Ying was the little junior sister of this sect and also the last member of this sect.

In her pursuit to catch up with her master and senior sisters, Yue Ying, with a lack of responsibility, left behind the "Yanqin Three Generations Divination Technique" and decisively chose Ascension.

Of course, before Ascension, Yue Ying specifically peeked into the Heaven's Secret to ensure that a suitable successor for the "Yanqin Three Generations Divination Technique" could be found before ascending.

However, it was only after her Ascension that Yue Ying realized the true meaning of Ascension.

Even disciples of the Three Worlds Sect, with the ability to glimpse the Heaven's Secret, could only drift like duckweed after Ascension.

In such circumstances, Yue Ying came into contact with an Enlightener.

From a personal perspective, Yue Ying felt that she should refer to that "person" as her master after Ascension.

Unfortunately, the Enlightener had no concept of a "master," instead using the term "Guide."

Under the guidance of that "Guide," Yue Ying was introduced to the philosophy of the Godslayer Civilization and learned about the Enlighteners' purpose of existence.

As previously mentioned, Yue Ying was someone who did not care much about such matters.

However, Yue Ying was sentimental and despised chaotic disorder.

So, after officially becoming an Enlightener, Yue Ying began tentatively guiding more Celestial Beings to join the ranks of the Godslayer Civilization.

Indeed, Yue Ying was the first Celestial Being to come into contact with the Godslayer Civilization.

She was also the initial Celestial Being who guided numerous Celestial Beings into the Godslayer Civilization.

Unlike those Celestial Beings whose status and position were more akin to peripheral members, Yue Ying was a genuine Enlightener.

She embraced the Enlighteners' philosophy, learned their techniques, and even had a unique designation within the Enlighteners—Akashic Records.

Grasping the origin of cosmic life and knowing the course and end of all things, that is Akashic—the Book of Life.

Yue Ying, renowned as the "Akashic Records," was a true Enlightener, with considerable authority within the Godslayer Civilization.

However, perhaps precisely because she perceived the Heaven's Secret, Yue Ying increasingly felt that Celestial Beings were not suitable for joining the Godslayer Civilization.

Although the Godslayer Civilization was notorious externally, its essence was a civilization pursuing equality for all beings.

In contrast, apart from their shared origin of resisting the rule of the Gods, there was nothing in the Celestial Beings that resonated with this philosophy.

Upon realizing this, Yue Ying constantly sought ways to alter the thoughts of the Celestial Beings.

The result was predictable, even claiming mastery over the origin of cosmic life as the "Akashic Records," she couldn't truly change the positions and thoughts of those Celestial Beings.

Thus, when more and more two-faced Celestial Beings emerged, Yue Ying conceived a thought.

Since ascended Celestial Beings couldn't change, what about those yet to ascend and yet to begin their cultivation?

With mastery over the past and future, Yue Ying used her authority within the Godslayer Civilization for the first time, altering history in the name of "Akashic Records."

.....

"Are you saying... everything happening in the Celestial Human Realm now is due to you!?"

Liu Xiang's eyes widened in shock, staring at the woman in front of him, finding it unimaginable what kind of divine power she must possess to reverse the past and future.

"No, I'm only pursuing a result, unable to control the entire process."

"Just like I didn't expect that the cause of the Celestial Human Realm's appearance turned out to be the legacy of Sun Hunter Ra..."

"Moreover, I also didn't expect that the Second Generation Sun Star Monarch, who acquired the 'Heavenly Father's Treasure,' would catch the attention of another world's Creator."

"What surprised me most was that amidst a series of chain reactions, it directly led to the 'curse' from the Chaos Seventeen Ancestors on the Celestial Human Realm."

"Fortunately, that Creator is the supreme ruler of the Mountain and Sea Civilization, a Supreme God renowned for mercy."

"With their tacit approval and assistance, the crisis facing the Celestial Human Realm now isn't really a crisis."

"After all... that Creator possesses the power to reshape the entire world!"

Leveraging the power of the "Akashic Records," Yue Ying locked down the future of the Celestial Human Realm, yet the process was entirely out of her control.

"Then what is your ultimate goal in doing all of this?"

Gently rubbing his somewhat aching temples, Liu Xiang gained a clear understanding of his sect predecessor's "impulsiveness."

If he possessed such power himself, he certainly wouldn't dare to ignore the entire process in pursuit of a specific outcome.

Who knows how bizarre the process could be to achieve this result.

In the process of peering into the Heaven's Secret, events caused by excessive trust in the outcome have led to tragedies before.

Liu Xiang thought that any qualified Heaven's Secret observer wouldn't be so rash.

"Didn't I state my goal at the beginning?"

"To find a Celestial Being truly qualified to become an Enlightener in today's Celestial Human Realm."

Casually shrugging her shoulders, Yue Ying was well aware of how outrageous her actions were.

Yet, Yue Ying equally knew that her life dimension was no longer the same as those of ordinary beings; competing with the heavens and altering history was a testament to her existence.

"Did you find one?"

After a brief silence, with a vague conjecture in his heart, Liu Xiang asked calmly.

"I found one, but it requires further observation over time."

Nodding without hesitation, a smile once again emerged on Yue Ying's face.

This sincere smile was so brilliant that only Liu Xiang seemed to see a type of indifference towards all life within that radiant smile.

No, saying it was indifference to all life might not be accurate.

For the Enlightener's philosophy is that all beings are equal, Yue Ying's behaviors resembled a complete disregard for the weight of life.

This disregard included not only the life of the Celestial Human Realm but even her own life.

The sense of achievement from manipulating the Heaven's Secret and altering history far outweighed Yue Ying's concern for life of others and herself.

[The philosophy of equality for all beings?]

A myriad of thoughts turned in Liu Xiang's mind as he contemplated a new philosophy budding and spreading in the Celestial Human Realm.

[Is it Bai Shasheng? Or the entire Taiping Taoist Soldier collective?]

[It turns out, in the eyes of an Enlightener, there truly is no essential difference between mortals and Celestial Beings?]

[Even mortals who can't cultivate, as long as their thoughts hold value, are treasures in the eyes of an Enlightener like Yue Ying!]
