

The Growth 589

Chapter 589 - 59: The Dragon King Who Descended with the Storm

As the Day of Sin was eroded, everyone despaired.

This was not just because black spots appeared on its surface, but also because everyone could see the difference in the level of power between the two sides.

The fully operational Day of Sin merely polluted a few of the Mother of Thought's faces.

In comparison to those billions of faces, it was not even a drop in the ocean.

On the other hand, the Mother of Thought, with just a glance, managed to control the Day of Sin, showing a tendency to completely assimilate it.

Woosh!

At this moment, the sound of a storm suddenly reached everyone's ears from an unknown origin.

This storm appeared from nothing, grew from small to large, and in an instant swept across the entire Celestial Human Realm.

Along with this storm came a new rule, symbolizing "freedom."

Everyone could feel that their body, and something deep within their soul, seemed to be emitting a new vitality.

"A wind of salvation?"

"A wind of freedom?"

While the people of the Celestial Human Realm were still bewildered, the Mountain and Sea People had already identified the source of this storm.

In the first Chapter of the history textbooks of the Mountain and Sea Civilization, it speaks of the great Storm Dragon King Ji Meng descending from a storm, uplifting the falling sun with the "Wind of Freedom."

From that day on, the Creator descended upon the Mountain and Sea Realm, becoming the supreme belief of the Mountain and Sea Civilization.

As the first Apostle of the Creator, the Storm Dragon King Ji Meng was also regarded as the freest and mightiest Apostle.

It is said that every appearance of Ji Meng is to execute the Creator's Divine Oracle, showing up only when the world is facing a crisis of extinction.

Therefore, when the storm sweeping the world appeared, all the Mountain and Sea People became excited and fervent.

Hearing the voices of these Mountain and Sea People, the people of the Celestial Human Realm came to a vague understanding of the current situation.

"Is this the God of the Mountain and Sea Realm?"

Looking up at the gathering storm in the sky, Tian Lihen's eyes showed both resentment and envy.

And then, as if in response to the anticipation of all beings, the eight storm chains that forcibly supported the entire sky suddenly trembled.

It was as if an invisible giant hand had forcefully dragged them, and the Day of Sin bound by the storm chains was also tugged along.

In the raging storm, a gigantic palm suddenly appeared in the center of the world.

Following it, a second fist-clenched arm smashed through space-time, unexpectedly striking the face of the Mother of Thought.

Boom!!!

With the shattering of countless faces, the Mother of Thought displayed a pained and twisted expression.

Unfortunately, this was far from the end.

Without any hesitation, a Dragon Head almost as large as the Mother of Thought suddenly appeared.

"Roar!"

The majestic Dragon Head inhaled and exhaled the storm, with a destructive Dragon Breath surging forth.

A chaotic world, one-third of the Mother of Thought, was almost completely overcome by the breath storm.

The destruction and damage caused by this single Dragon Breath surpassed all the damage the Mother of Thought had suffered over billions of years.

The most crucial part was when the head and arms appeared in the Celestial Human Realm.

The body and legs of Ji Meng also descended within the storm, fully appearing before the Mother of Thought.

Truth be told, when the Dragon King, who came into being from the storm, revealed its complete form, its oppressive presence was not inferior to that of the Mother of Thought opposite.

[However, this is still far from enough.]

In the mysterious realm, Li Hao flipped his hand, and a golden card abruptly appeared in his hand.

The front of the card showed Ji Meng with a Dragon Head and human body, while the back displayed a fully open Eye of the Creator.

When Li Hao chose to throw the golden card towards the Celestial Human Realm, a giant eye suddenly opened in the sky of the Celestial Human Realm.

Woosh!

Originally standing amid the storm, Ji Meng now shone even brighter.

As the leader of the Eight Great Apostles under the Creator, Ji Meng's strength was not significantly weaker than the Incarnation of the Third Ancestor of Chaos.

Now, with Li Hao's full support, Ji Meng was effectively ahead of the enemy in every respect.

Unsurprisingly, the fully unleashed Ji Meng shattered the Incarnation of the Mother of Thought that descended in the Celestial Human Realm with a few punches and kicks.

As for the Mother of Thought, who was continuously beaten?

Though it wanted to resist, unfortunately, there was no longer any opportunity.

Because Li Hao outside the world had already bypassed its Incarnation and launched a direct strike on its true form in the Chaos.

.....

In the Void Divine Hall of the Mountain and Sea Realm.

The slowly rotating Vast Heaven Mirror suddenly burst into light.

In the next second, this light penetrated the vortex of space-time outside the world, shooting into the endless Chaos.

It seemed to happen in the blink of an eye, yet also felt like it took billion years...

The Chaotic World that fleetingly appeared under the Divine Power of Sun Hunter Ra was once again forcibly illuminated by the light of the Vast Heaven Mirror.

In the Chaos, at the center of the chaotic world.

Still, there were those ten or so substantive wills formed from clusters of billions of worlds...

Still, there were those unnameable existences from outside referred to as "Lords of Chaos"...

But compared to the previous appearance of the Divine Power Spear, this time the Vast Heaven Mirror awakened more Chaos Incarnations.

"No!!!"

Just as the Chaos Seventeen Ancestors resisted when struck by the Divine Power Spear.

The Third Ancestor of Chaos·Mother of Thought, the "target" designated by the Vast Heaven Mirror, similarly twisted its form, transforming the billions of chaotic worlds it governed into reality.

However, the Vast Heaven Mirror was the strongest offensive Divine Artifact crafted by Li Hao in his capacity as the Creator.

Although its power might not match the true Power of the Celestial Father, it was definitely incomparable to the Divine Power Spear briefly manifested by the Sun-Hunting Gold Coin.

Swoosh—Boom!!!

Brighter than the sun, this light at this instant dispersed the mist of Chaos.

This Chaotic Space-Time, formed after the fall of the Chaos Creator, was entirely exposed to the All Heavens and Myriad Realms at this moment.

No longer hidden, no longer Chaotic...

The current chaotic space-time became part of the All Heavens and Myriad Realms, part of the normal order of the Ascension Area.

And as the true target of the Vast Heaven Mirror's attack—the Third Ancestor of Chaos was unsurprisingly shattered, scattering once more into billions of chaotic time-spaces.

Seeing this situation, the other Lords of Chaos disregarded everything else, each reaching out to receive and assimilate the time-space and world of the Third Ancestor of Chaos.

This also proclaimed the complete death of the Third Ancestor of Chaos.

The Lord of Chaos, known as the "Mother of Thought," now had no possibility of revival or Rebirth.
