

The Growth 709

Chapter 709 15: Donghuang Taiyi

Within the Shimmering World, under the wondrous scene of the sun and moon shining together.

The gigantic Three-legged Divine Crow roared in anger, its eyes full of frustration.

Di Jun harbored a deep-seated hatred for the massive fish that inexplicably attacked him.

If it weren't for not seeing traces of the [Bai Ze Monster Map] on it, Di Jun would have suspected it was a Divine Abomination created by Bai Ze specifically to target him.

Being well aware of the essence of the [Bai Ze Monster Map], Di Jun had no doubt that Bai Ze could accomplish such a feat.

After all, the ability of the Hunting Fish was too disgusting.

Able to travel freely between dimensions, it was essentially a fallen God—and the most troublesome Dimension God at that.

Ordinary Gods are high-dimensional beings, no doubt, but that doesn't mean they can change their dimensions at will.

Whether it's ascending or descending dimensions, it's a significant risk for Gods.

Especially when descending to the material dimension, it's almost the most vulnerable and easily killable moment for any God.

In contrast, the Hunting Fish, as massive as a world, doesn't care about high or low dimensions.

Even if it descends to become a material entity, there's nothing that can kill its true form in a short time.

If truly pushed, the Hunting Fish could merely descend a few more dimensions, then directly escape into the [Fallen Area], a place shunned by the Gods.

Anyway, the Hunting Fish could rely on its unique abilities to return to the [Ascension Area], but those Gods that have descended might not be able to.

"Foolish creature, do you think this means I have no way to deal with you!?"

Flapping its wings, creating a massive energy storm, the Three-legged Divine Crow demonstrated the terror of the Supreme God at this moment.

Vast energy radiated from within the world, spreading outward.

The temperature, already skyrocketing due to the appearance of the Shimmering World, became even more violently intense.

Whoosh!

In an instant, the terrifying solar storm swept through hundreds of nearby worlds, causing unimaginable disaster and impact to those worlds.

The nearby Hunting Fish was directly hit by the solar storm, rolling backward over several worlds' distances.

Fortunately, the Hunting Fish chose to descend dimensions at the last moment.

Transformed into a purely two-dimensional form, it completely shed the impact force.

"Shouldn't you consider the owner when hitting a dog, Di Jun!"

At this moment, a calm, almost indifferent voice reverberated within the entire world.

Crossing barriers of language and text, the gods of this world all looked up at the sky, their faces unable to hide their surprise and fear.

For right above the head of the Three-legged Divine Crow, the barrier of the world suddenly shattered.

A massive eye slowly opened from the endless void, overlooking the entire Shimmering World of beings.

That was the Eye of the Creator, the incarnation of Li Hao.

Using the Combined Divine Artifact he crafted, Li Hao easily invaded and interfered with this already crumbling world.

Under the strong dominance of the [Celestial Tao System], the light of the sun and moon was eclipsed by the Eye of the Creator.

Ten suns, twelve moons, and even the Three-legged Divine Crow itself all inevitably fell into a brief state of dormancy.

"Bai Ze!!!"

Also looking up to the sky, Di Jun's voice was filled with an angry tone.

In that massive Eye of the Creator, Di Jun sensed a familiar yet unfamiliar power.

Di Jun was absolutely certain; it was Bai Ze's power—the power of the [Bai Ze Map] that could save this broken world from destruction.

Yet facing Di Jun's bellow, the Eye of the Creator in the sky merely gazed at him silently.

"I am not Bai Ze."

Just a simple sentence, but it negated Di Jun's countless years of resentment and anger.

Because Li Hao had no reason to lie about such a matter.

Di Jun also understood that beings of such level couldn't possibly claim Bai Ze's identity.

Since the other party said he wasn't Bai Ze, then he certainly wasn't Bai Ze.

"Whether you are Bai Ze or not matters no more now!"

"Hand over the 'Bai Ze Map,' Creator of the Mountain and Sea Realm!"

Having recognized Li Hao's identity, Di Jun spread his wings in flight.

The enormous Three-legged Divine Crow at this moment transformed into the true Supreme Sun.

Boom!

As the sun capable of destroying worlds rushed toward the Eye of the Creator, the entire Chaotic Void trembled.

Even with the isolation of the world's barrier, the power of the Supreme Sun was still awe-inspiring.

"The Nine Heavens Profound Lady was right; you are indeed a pure tyrant."

"If violence is the 'language' you can comprehend, then let me subdue you with power!"

Following Li Hao's words, the huge Eye of the Creator quietly closed, while an Endless Scroll of ink paintings leisurely unfolded in the sky of the world.

——The Bai Ze Map·Heluo World!

That was a world created by Bai Ze, also a world that once gave birth to the Jiuge Gods.

When Li Hao fully unfurled this world, it also meant he temporarily connected the [Void Divine Hall] and the [Cup of Hygeia] to the [Bai Ze Map].

The constant flow of energy from the [Void Divine Hall] filled into the [Bai Ze Map] through the conversion of the [Cup of Hygeia]—the once Heluo World awakened again.

There was no need for interference from the [Celestial Tao System] and the [Chronicles of Time].

The [Bai Ze Map] inherently stored an incredible amount of information, reconstructing the former world was merely one expression of its authority.

"I... am alive again?"

In the Endless Scroll, the first to awaken was the Sun God of the Jiuge of god——Donghuang Taiyi.

Upon realizing his current situation and directing his gaze to the massive Three-legged Divine Crow below, his eyes were filled with a complex and hard-to-understand meaning.

——Taiyi, Star of Taiyi, Venerable Celestial God, worshipped in East Chu, matched with East Emperor, thus called Donghuang.

In the world of Heluo, Taiyi was the undisputed Sun God, the Venerable Celestial God created by Bai Ze.

But it wasn't until the final battle that Taiyi, who called himself the "East Emperor," understood that he was merely a crude replica of Bai Ze's against Di Jun.

Compared to that Supreme Sun, how dim his light was.

"Where is this place?"

Following Taiyi's awakening was Yun Monarch, who governed the skies and rain.

It was a dragon, a white dragon that blotted out the sun, formless and illusory.

"It seems our 'resurrection' didn't proceed according to the original plan."

"From the current situation, are we meant to continue the previously unfinished war?"

Silently, Xiangjun and Lady Xiang sighed slightly as they arrived hand in hand.

Xiangjun and Lady Xiang were a couple, an exceedingly rare deity couple among the Gods.

This couple didn't enjoy wars but always found themselves drawn into various wars; thus, they could only choose to lament.
