

The Growth 710

Chapter 710 16: Da Yi Shoots Down the Suns

"A bunch of defeated generals, do you really expect them to defeat me?"

Looking disdainfully at the Gods emerging from the Heluo World, Di Jun's words were filled with unabashed arrogance and pride.

Donghuang Taiyi, Yun Monarch, Xiangjun, Lady Xiang, Grand Fate, Junior Fate, He Bo, Luo God, Mountain Ghost...

As the once Jiuge Gods and spirit monsters appeared one by one.

The ten suns and twelve moons behind Di Jun, along with other Gods, greeted their past opponents.

Since they had fought before, there was no probing, only lethal attacks right from the start.

Even though the gods on Di Jun's side had undergone a long slumber, they still possessed formidable power.

The Jiuge Gods, relying on their fearlessness of death and supported by the [Bai Ze Map], repeatedly made comebacks.

"Immortal Body?"

Soon, Di Jun noticed the trick.

Compared to the [Bai Ze Map] held by Bai Ze, the one in the hands of Li Hao evidently displayed entirely different might.

With the backing of the [Void Divine Hall] and the [Cup of Hygeia], the Gods and spirit monsters in the [Bai Ze Map] had no concept of death.

Unless one forcibly entered the [Bai Ze Map] to erase the stored information and data.

Otherwise, the deaths of the Jiuge Gods merely consumed a bit of energy and matter, having no impact whatsoever on Li Hao.

This was something Bai Ze of the past could absolutely not achieve, highlighting one of Li Hao's most distinct characteristics as different from other Creators.

"Is this what you rely on, Creator of the Mountain and Sea Realm?"

Di Jun roared once more.

In the next second, the ten suns in the sky transformed into ten Golden Crows, plunging into the scroll.

These ten Golden Crows were Di Jun's offspring and ten mighty Main Gods.

Immediately afterward, the twelve moons in the sky also broke free of their original opponents, transforming into twelve agile Jade Rabbit figures.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The twelve Jade Rabbits, whether in human form or beast form, fierce or docile, huge or small, all shared the same power.

These twelve Jade Rabbits, only slightly weaker than the Golden Crows, followed their brothers, intending to rush into the [Bai Ze Map].

Unfortunately, this time Li Hao reacted in advance.

Instead of using the power of the [Bai Ze Map], he delivered his Divine Oracle, in his identity as a Creator, to the long-prepared Death Goddess Yao Xin.

Thus, Yao Xin crossed two worlds, disturbed time and space, summoning her most powerful Divine to the battlefield.

"Roar!" X7

In an instant, a huge vortex emerged from the Void.

Seven Azure Dragons, incarnated by star constellations, appeared perfectly in front of the twelve Jade Rabbits.

These seven Azure Dragons came from the Mountain and Sea Realm, newly crafted star weapons by the Mother of All Stars Doumu Yuanjun to protect the Mountain and Sea Realm — Canglong Seven Stars!

Also existing at the Main God Level, the seven Azure Dragons fought fearlessly with the twelve Jade Rabbits.

Whenever an Azure Dragon fell, its body disintegrated into starlight and then revived under the radiance of all celestial stars.

This was a different Immortal Body from the [Bai Ze Map], a manifestation of the Mother of All Stars Doumu Yuanjun's power.

In a daze, Di Jun seemed to see the boundless stars winking at him.

In this world that originally belonged to Di Jun, the heavens' stars were being eroded and assimilated by the Gods from the Mountain and Sea Realm.

Doumu Yuanjun, known as the "Mother of All Stars," was never fighting alone.

Seven Stars of the Big Dipper, Twenty Eight Star Constellations, Thirty Six Celestial Spirits, Seventy-two Earthly Fiends, One Hundred and Eight Celestial Stars...

These entities, which ascended to godhood through the grace of Doumu Yuanjun, joined the war, providing endless power and support to the seven undying Azure Dragons.

To be truthful, if it weren't for the All Heaven Star Gods not having fully returned, appearing in Di Jun's world now wouldn't have been just the [Canglong Seven Stars].

Even so, the involvement of the All Heaven Star Gods still tilted the scales of victory in favor of the Jiuge Gods.

"All Heaven Star Gods?"

Finally calming down, Di Jun realized he had kicked a hard stone this time.

If anything, the twelve Jade Rabbits actually belong to the sequence of the All Heaven Star Gods, naturally weaker than the Mother of All Stars-Doumu Yuanjun.

If it weren't for the home court advantage, those twelve Jade Rabbits might have been disarmed and captured long ago.

"So what about the All Heaven Star Gods?"

"My children have already entered the 'Bai Ze Map'!"

With a change of perspective, Di Jun saw the ten Golden Crows that previously plunged into the [Bai Ze Map].

Within the ever-changing scroll, the ten Golden Crows freely released their heat, illuminating the entire Heluo World like ten suns.

The original Heluo World was utterly destroyed by these ten Golden Crows.

However, the ten Golden Crows attempting to repeat their old tricks overlooked the most crucial point
— Li Hao was not Bai Ze.

— Classic of Mountains and Seas·Eastern Classic beyond the Seas.

— Above the Tang Valley there is a Fusang tree, where the ten suns bathe, north of the Black Teeth. Residing in water, there is a great tree, nine suns stay on the lower branches, one stays on the top branch.

— Essays on the Chu Ci·Volume Three·Heavenly Questions.

— In the time of Emperor Yao, the ten suns appeared together, burning the vegetation, Yao ordered Yi to shoot the suns, hitting nine, with the nine sun-crows dying, and only one sun was left.

Buzzing...

An invisible brush stirred within the [Bai Ze Map], as a gigantic figure gradually took shape under the brushstrokes.

Solemn—Boom!

The giant drew his bow to a full moon, exhaling deeply.

In an instant, an arrow flew off the string, piercing through the chest of one Golden Crow, shooting it down instantly.

"Da Yi!?"

Di Jun, who was shocked to see the figure that should have been dead, could no longer control his emotions and let out a cry of surprise.

As if he heard Di Jun's voice, the giant suddenly turned his head, with his pupils faintly reflecting Di Jun's current appearance.

Solemn—Boom!

With a rugged smile emerging at the corner of his lips, the giant continued to draw his bow and shoot arrows without looking back.

In an instant, yet another Golden Crow fell, then a third, a fourth...

It was as if the myth of the past was being reenacted.

In a short amount of time, Da Yi shot down the ten Golden Crows that entered the [Bai Ze Map].

His speed was swift and his attack fierce, making it seem as effortless as slaughtering ten chicks.

"You..."

Noticing Da Yi's challenging gaze.

Di Jun was almost exploding with rage, trembling uncontrollably.

As offspring of the Supreme God and main god-level higher dimensional lifeforms, the Golden Crows were naturally not so easy to kill.

But having died by Yi's Sun shooting Bow, even Di Jun found it no simple matter to resurrect the ten Golden Crows again.

"Mere afterimage, how dare you be so arrogant?"

"I could tear your family apart when you were alive, let alone now when you're just a dead man!"

Without further hesitation, aiming to seize the [Bai Ze Map], Di Jun chose to enter himself.

Boom!

When Di Jun, as the Supreme Sun, forcibly broke into the [Bai Ze Map].

The scroll covering the entire sky seemed unable to withstand this power, being torn and set ablaze.
