

The Growth 714

Chapter 714

One day later, within the Sun God Palace of the Disaster Realm.

"Your Father God is truly biased beyond the ordinary!"

Looking at Yao Xin, who held a tripod in one hand and a spell in the other not far away, Hua She's eyes were almost bursting with envy, jealousy, and hatred.

Sharing the same thoughts as Hua She was the Nine Heavens Profound Lady, who had been silent since arriving here.

"Biased?"

Tilting her head slightly, Yao Xin, who was adjusting to the new power within her, questioned.

"Isn't it biased!?"

Widening her eyes, Hua She unceremoniously retorted to Yao Xin.

"You're the Death God, and I'm the Sun God!"

"But what's going on now?"

"Your authority over the Sun God is even stronger than mine. Why not let you be the Sun God?"

Grumbling with resentment, Hua She continued to jab.

"The Supreme Death God, Supreme Sun, and that absurdly exaggerated Power of Creation..."

"Combine three authorities into one, becoming a true 'trinity'..."

"Is there anyone more outrageous than you in the All Heavens and Myriad Realms?"

"Other gods, in order to ascend to become the Creator, have to harvest and gather the authority of other gods one by one."

"But look at you, you harvested two divine pantheons and the power of an entire world all at once!"

"You're both a Supreme Death God and a Supreme Sun, and even a powerful Creator..."

The more Hua She spoke, the more envious she became, having never seen anything so outrageous.

Supreme Death God, Supreme Sun, and the status of a Creator...

Any of these three paths alone represents a Supreme God, one that far exceeds ordinary Supreme Gods in power.

But now Yao Xin embodies all three, which simply cannot be described as merely having a gift from heaven.

Think of the Nine Heavens Profound Lady, who was judged by Li Hao as a 'half-baked Creator.'

Even in her strongest state, she is merely a Supreme War God.

Aside from her strong combat power, in other aspects, she can't compare with the Supreme Death God or Supreme Sun at all.

The Supreme Sun presides over vitality, is the original source of life.

The Supreme Death God presides over death, the ultimate destination of life.

These two are like two sides of Yin and Yang, opposing yet nurturing a certain unity in concept.

Without exaggeration, if there were no Supreme Sun, the birth of life would be impossible, and naturally, there would be no other gods.

The Supreme Death God, similarly, is an indispensable factor in forming a complete world.

A complete world can lack a War God, a Goddess of Beauty, a God of Wisdom, but absolutely cannot lack a Death God.

"What exactly happened between Di Jun and Bai Ze?"

"Now that you've inherited Di Jun's divine format, can you determine Bai Ze's life or death?"

At this moment, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady, who had been silent all along, suddenly spoke up.

This wasn't a deliberate attempt by the Nine Heavens Profound Lady to change the subject; she genuinely wanted to know whether Bai Ze was truly dead.

"You are very familiar with Bai Ze?"

Noticing the fleeting emotion on the Nine Heavens Profound Lady's face, Hua She opened her mouth in slight surprise.

According to the ancient legends of the Mountain and Sea Realm, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady and Bai Ze seemed to belong to different eras?

However, judging by the Nine Heavens Profound Lady's current demeanor, it's clear that she has some sort of connection with the long-gone Bai Ze.

"Didn't I ever mention it to you before?"

"If we were to speak of inheritance, Bai Ze should be considered my third master."

Seeing the equally surprised Yao Xin, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady's usually cold face cracked a rare smile.

"The first to lead me onto this path was the first Phoenix of the Mountain and Sea Realm — the Phoenix Sovereign."

"The second master who helped me ascend to divinity was the Lord of Kunlun, the God of Plague and Punishment — the Queen Mother of the West."

"Bai Ze was truly the guide who led me onto the 'Path of the Creator,' my third master in heart."

After a slight pause, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady continued speaking.

"Regrettably, though Bai Ze and I had the reality of a master-disciple relationship, we never bore the title."

"Because what I received were just remnants of 'Bai Ze's Fragment' left in the Mountain and Sea Realm. I never saw Him with my own eyes."

Heaving a deep sigh, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady earnestly stared at Yao Xin.

"Perhaps it seems unbelievable to you..."

"But if Bai Ze's death is truly confirmed, I wish to commemorate Him in stone and legend."

"Bai Ze was a kind god; He did much for us. I don't want His name and deeds to vanish after His demise."

Though unable to empathize with the emotions of the Nine Heavens Profound Lady, Yao Xin calmly nodded.

"Whether Bai Ze has truly perished is for you to discern."

"However, I can tell you what transpired between Bai Ze and Di Jun..."

Gently lifting the tripod furnace amongst the three, Yao Xin's vast Power of Creation was revealed for the first time.

Roar!

The tripod detached from Yao Xin and slowly spun, its interior evolving into a vivid embryonic world.

"This..."

Pupils constricting abruptly, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady clearly saw the reflection of the past Mountain and Sea Realm within the tripod.

It wasn't merely a reflection of the world; this tripod even harbored various ancient spirit monsters and divine beasts that once thrived during the ancient Mountain and Sea Realm.

In disbelief, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady blinked, glancing at Hua She beside her, only to find her equally astonished.

"Bai Ze Map?" X2

Both the Nine Heavens Profound Lady and Hua She simultaneously uttered the term.

Apart from the different manifestation, this tripod clearly shared the same function as the [Bai Ze Map].

Or more precisely, this was the [Bai Ze Map] in the form of a tripod, a manifestation of Yao Xin's identity as a Creator.

"When Father God resurrected me, He fused not only the world of Di Jun."

"Although the original 'Bai Ze Map' Father God obtained was destroyed, the factors that constituted the 'Bai Ze Map' still existed in that world."

"During the resurrection process in the tripod, that 'Bai Ze Map' was also refined within."

Explaining calmly, Yao Xin's expression remained composed, as if she were simply discussing a trivial matter.

"He... is truly too biased!"

After a brief silence, the Nine Heavens Profound Lady spoke the same words as Hua She.

Li Hao's favoritism towards Yao Xin reached a level that angered both gods and mortals, inviting such remarks from those in the know.

"Biased?"

The serenity on her face gradually transformed into a smile; Yao Xin enjoyed this feeling of being favored.

Especially when she saw the unabashed envy and jealousy on the faces of Hua She and the Nine Heavens Profound Lady, an inexplicable sense of satisfaction arose within her.

"A Father God's love for His child, isn't that a perfectly normal thing?"
