Recognition

Chapter 48 Recognition

Director Martin smiled upon seeing the tyriplet including Ariel run toward Jarek, "White Tigress, your little children must really like President Jarek?" He commented; he was still admiring Tinsley's way of raising her clever children, so he didn't notice how Tinsley's body was shaking.

Jason was already interested in Jarek due to his repeated failure of hacking the J Empire's system, so he decided to run to the man who was the owner in order to check him out to see if he could find a clue or something.

"President Jarek?" Ariel batted her cute eyes at Jarek immediately after she arrived in front of him.

Jarek finds his heart-warming upon seeing Ariel; he doesn't know the reason, but he finds himself willing to protect the little girl with all his heart. Why should he feel this way about someone else's child? Probably, it was because she was Tinsley's child. The thought that Tinsley gave birth to someone's child made him weak.

Then he saw another child run toward him and almost knock him down due to his excitement. "President Jarek, I want your autograph," Mason said with shining eyes. Only God knows where he found it; Mason suddenly brought out a pen and notepad and pushed them toward Jarek. "Autograph."

Rylee's eyes warmed at the two little cuties in front of her but the more she looked at these kids, why do they look like her big brother Jarek?

It was during this thought that Jason appeared, he was looking cold and the perfect miniature of Jarek.

Jarek froze upon seeing Jason. How come? Why did he feel that this little kid looked a lot like...

"Brother, when did you and Tinsley do that? Why did you hide this from us?" Rylee froze as she stared at Jason who was silently glaring at Jarek as if he was having an enmity with him.

After giving Walker a warning to desist from Tinsley and seeing Tinsley's novel and pictures in Jarek's office, Rylee only had the thought that Jarek and Tinsley are together.

Jarek's heart sped up but he wanted to say that Rylee was talking nonsense but when he saw Tinsley's guilty expression as she walked up to them and he took a look at Jason while secretly calculating everything, he couldn't help but grit his teeth and clench his fist in anger. That woman!

"Tinsley. You are really capable." Jarek finally spat out after a few minutes of glaring at Tinsley.

Tinsley shivered in fright when she saw Jarek's cold expression but she tried to stay calm. "What... What are you talking about! What are you saying?" She replied with a nervous and fearful stutter.

"Leave." Jarek glared at the Taming Her team that were currently in the rooms and they quickly dispersed fearfully under his cold expression. Even though they were curious about this gossip, they didn't dare stay inside when Jarek sent them outside.

"Tinsley, you're really capable of hiding my kids from me." He said in a cold voice thinking that she had completely gone out of line. What if he didn't appear, would he never get to know about his kids? The more Jarek thought about this, the angrier he was.

"I... You're mistaken." Tinsley gritted her teeth fearfully as she tried to stay calm.

"Really?" Jarek smirked and held the triplet's hand. "Let's make a bet, if they're mine they have to be with me from now on. And if they're yours, I will apologize and compensate you." He said sinisterly.
