Taking His Triplets

Chapter 49 Taking His Triplets

Even though he didn't know how she was able to have the triplets with his testicular trauma, he was sure with her expression that the triplets were his kids.

Tinsley began to tremble upon hearing his word. If they did the DNA test, isn't she finished!?? "I..."

"What did you say your answer is?" He asked while towering over her which frightened her extremely and made her take two steps back.

Jarek took a step forward and she immediately took two steps. He sneered at Tinsley, "You're really capable of hiding my kids from me for years. If I didn't see them by mistake, will you hide the truth from me for life?" He asked her calmly but his voice was able to send chills down her spine.

"I..."

"I'm really disappointed. Not only did you hide me from them, but you also hid them from me. What if I didn't see this? Will you let them call someone else's father?" He asked with anger burning through him.

"I'm sorry." Tinsley could only beg in a trembling voice.

"Mom? Why are you crying?" The Triplets began to panic on Tinsley's behalf. She wiped her tears and shook her head in order to make the kid calm down.

Seeing Jarek's hold on the triplets tightening, Tinsley couldn't help trembling in fear because she understood the meaning behind his actions. "Jarek, please don't take them away from me."

"You don't think it's too late to beg me for that? How many years of their life did I miss? You were able to see me for months but you daren't tell me?" Jarek accused her angrily.

"Tinsley, you are really cold-hearted, aren't you? Did you care about my feelings and the children's?" He asked her, once they were both left in each other's privacy.

Tinsley bowed her head full of remorse and pity, "I... You have a girlfriend, I didn't want to tell you in case you'll separate me from them. Jarek, I'm really sorry." She said while clutching his suit arm subconsciously.

Jarek looked at her with bewilderment, "Girlfriend? What are you talking about?" He asked with confusion.

Tinsley blurted out, "You have Rylee..."

Jarek didn't know whether to laugh or not when he heard her reply. "Rylee? Rylee is my younger sister." He replied

Now it was Tinsley's time to be stunned. It turned out that Rylee was Jarek's sister but why was he glaring at her back then? "I..."

"Still that is not an excuse." He cut in coldly which made her tremble in fear.

She didn't expect that he'd want to know his child, she thought that he would be angry that she stole his seed, but unexpectedly the outcome turns out to be not that. And it made Tinsley afraid because she also can't do without the triplets.

She quickly grabbed his hand with tears in her eyes, "President Jarek, I really can't do without my children..."

"Your children?" It was as if Jarek's anger had increased by a notch. "They're mine also. But it seems you're yet to put me in the eyes." Jarek bellowed and stormed out of the set while holding the triplets tightly.

"Jarek." Without caring for the people who were watching the drama that was unfolding between them, Tinsley immediately bolted after him but the angry Jarek immediately got into his car with them and drove off.

Tinsley gritted her teeth sadly, got into her car, and immediately followed after him.
