

I Help A NPC Become The Legendary Witch

Chapter 761 - 145-This Is A Shuraba?_1

Chapter 761: Chapter 145-This Is A Shuraba?_1

Vivian had temporarily left Cherry Island.

The explanation to everyone was that everyone on the island was busy farming and developing, and the little girl couldn't help much in this aspect. She didn't want to stay idle either, so it was better to go to the defense line connected to the Fallen Abyss Sea Area and patrol to prevent any fish from escaping.

The little girl even deliberately rejected other people's companions, including the little wolf cubs that she had always been inseparable from.

Although Vivian's reason was that she didn't need to trouble everyone and that she alone was enough, the wolf cubs knew that the little girl was probably feeling a little complicated because of the incident with the Inagawa Clan.

Many times, it was like this. On the road of growth, one would definitely encounter all kinds of inner entanglements. If one wanted to resolve these entanglements, one could only rely on oneself. Therefore, when one was frustrated, one would want to go out and vent. The Fallen Abyss monster was obviously a good choice.

So the wolf cub expressed his understanding. Not only did he not say anything, but he also encouraged the little girl and let Vivian go with ease.

Firstly, Vivian was no longer the village girl who could faint from the fear of her summoned beast cub. Secondly, the second personality had returned. With Vivian's current combat power, it would not be easy for anything to happen to her.

As for the last part...

With the little girl not on the island, the wolf cubs could move independently and begin the next step of the preparations.

The first wave of Fallen Swamp Piranhas had been taken care of in advance. According to his previous life's experience, the next wave of bosses, Deep Sea Giant Crocodiles, was not difficult to deal with. However, when it came to the third wave of bosses, the " Devil King Crab " was a tough nut to crack.

The 'hard bones' here referred to 'hard bones'.

Liao Zixuan clearly remembered that in his previous life, the Descent of the Fallen Abyss could last for as long as a month, causing the Thousand Islands to be riddled with holes and suffering. The most critical part was delayed by the third wave of bosses.

During the one month of the Fallen Abyss, it was not an exaggeration to say that the players had spent half a month fighting against this " Demon King Crab."

It wasn't that these three bosses were too strong, but that these three bosses had too high defense and knew how to survive!

When the " Demon King Crab "'s HP dropped to a certain level, it would release a very disgusting " Shrink Shell " skill, which would harden and strengthen the crab shell that already had high physical and magical resistance. At the cost of completely giving up movement and attack, it would shrink its entire body into the crab shell and turn into a hermit crab.

At that time, the players could only deal very low damage to the Demon King Crab in its host form. They could not even recover as fast as the Demon King Crab in its shell.

Fortunately, this " Shrink Shell " skill had a cooldown limit and could only be used once every other day. Moreover, there was also a limit to the amount of HP that could be recovered in the crab shell. The players kept taking advantage of the cooldown period of the " Shrink Shell " to reduce the Boss 'HP as much as possible. As long as they could recover more HP than the Boss, they could slowly grind the Boss to death.

The third BOSS was the one with the least casualties. After all, most of the time, the Demon King Crab was in its shell state. Therefore, the players in his previous life scolded it for not being called a Demon King Crab, but a Turtle Crab.

However, this third wave was the one where the native land of the Thousand Islands suffered the most damage and the natives suffered the greatest casualties.

As mentioned before, every wave of Fallen Abyss 'attacks would automatically retreat after killing the Boss, announcing the success of the defense. For example, the first wave of Fallen Abyss's Man-eating Fish was killed by Damir's AOE, causing the entire wave of attacks to disappear.

On the other hand, if the BOSS was still around, then no matter how many monsters the players killed, Fallen Abyss's attacks would continue.

In the plot of his previous life, it was because this " Demon King Crab " was too difficult to kill that the third wave was delayed for too long, causing the small monster tide to continue.

They had to fight day and night for a long time. They barely had time to eat, not to mention the wear and tear on their equipment and the psychological pressure. It was barely enough to last for a week. If it lasted for half a month, even the players would not be able to endure, let alone the strength of the natives of the Thousand Islands.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that the collapse of the Thousand-island Defense Line had allowed Fallen Abyss to break through the army of the Three Executors and start massacring the civilians.

If he was still a player in his previous life, it would be fine. No matter how many NPC died, it would not affect his interests.

But now, he had a native girl and a local industry with great potential in the Thousand Islands. Liao Zixuan would definitely not allow the tragic war in his previous life to happen again.

A total of five... Now that the Fallen Abyss had descended in four waves, Liao Zixuan had to do his best to fight as fast as lightning in every wave. Only in this way could he protect the Thousand Islands to the greatest extent, protect Sakuragi Island, and protect their territory with the least loss.

In that case, it was very important to find a powerful attack that could break the opponent's turtle shell before the third wave of the Devil King Crabs arrived.

In the past, Liao Zixuan had relied on his and Xinyan's powers. Although their attributes were restrained, it should not be a problem in the face of taboo powers.

The only thing he was worried about was exposing his identity as a forbidden monster.

The word 'taboo' was powerful, but also repulsive. After knowing that Vivian had contracted two forbidden monsters, the remaining seven countries would pay great attention to this "self-propelled nuclear bomb" and pay close attention to the little girl's every move. Of course, Liao Zixuan did not want to see this.

Chapter 762 - 145-This Is A Shuraba?_2

Chapter 762: Chapter 145-This Is A Shuraba?_2

Fortunately, as their network expanded and their knowledge became richer, it seemed that they had other options if they were to talk about powerful attacks.

Liao Zixuan could still vaguely remember the deafening blast that was dozens of miles away. The white light streaked across the sky like a meteor and almost flattened the entire mountain.

That's right.

It was the 'strategic' heavy cannon that used the entire warship as its cannon body, and had terrifying lethality and range. It was the Annihilation Star.

Back then, he had asked Vivian to convey to the captain of the Northern Cross that he hoped to get the blueprint of the Annihilation Star. Unfortunately, it was delayed by the sudden "Apostle" incident.

Now, Liao Zixuan took advantage of this buffer period and planned to talk to Nan about this matter again and ask about the progress. This time, he did not use Vivian as the middleman because it was a serious matter. Moreover, the little girl happened to be not on the island. Liao Zixuan thought about it again and again...

In the end, it was decided that the manager would play in person!

After the wolf cub finalized his plan and prepared his words, he transformed into a human again. However, he did not go to Captain Nan directly. Instead, he rushed to the Zhao Chamber of Commerce first.

After all, Zhao Jie was a heavyweight chip and a person...Pui! Pui! If it was his respected "father-in-law", he had to bring it along.

Liao Zixuan hoped that Nan Nan and the rich woman behind Nan wouldn't be so ungrateful. They were family now, so it wasn't too much to give them a blueprint, right?

At the thought of this, Liao Zixuan instantly became more confident and straightened his back.

Soon, he strode into the chamber of commerce. The butler in the chamber of commerce recognized Liao Zixuan's face. After all, there were very few people who were so handsome. In addition, he also knew that this was the son-in-law of the boss. He might be the future boss of the Zhao Chamber of Commerce. Therefore, Liao Zixuan had a smooth journey and was soon led to the door of Zhao Jie's room.

"Cough cough..."

Liao Zixuan cleared his throat and tidied his clothes before knocking on the door a few times.

There seemed to be a conversation in the room. It was probably Zhao Jie who had brought a guest, but no matter who it was, they had to make way for Liao Zixuan. There was no choice. This was the confidence of an excellent son-in-law.

“Enter!” Zhao Jie’s voice came from inside.

Liao Zixuan pushed the door open and entered. He had just stepped in, and before he could even step in, he heard two voices.

“Son-in-law!”

This was Zhao Jie’s surprised voice when he saw the young man.

However, he also remembered at almost the same time that the same surprised voice was...

“White?”

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

He looked at the golden-haired noble girl sitting on the guest sofa opposite Zhao Jie.

Liao Zixuan was about to step forward when he suddenly braked. At the same time, there was a word in his heart.

F * ck!

As the foreign aid that Vivian had invited from Fire Code City, Liz had already demonstrated her powerful abilities and strong dominance on the first day. As the original local tyrant of Sakuragi Island, Zhao Jie, both parties must have communicated frequently. Therefore, Liao Zixuan was not surprised that Liz would appear here.

He only regretted not thinking of this before he pushed the door open. Why did he not use his perception to sense if there were any familiar auras in the room?

“That... You guys chat first. I’ll talk to you another time...”

Liao Zixuan said as he pushed the door out and closed it very considerately.

Unfortunately, it was already too late.

“Wait a minute!”

This time, they spoke in unison.

Seeing that Liao Zixuan was about to run away, the two people in the room called out at the same time. Then, they looked at each other at the same time.

“Boss Zhao, what did you call him just now? If I didn’t hear wrongly, it’s... Son-in-law?” Liz frowned.

The girl asked Uncle Gui Li in an unfriendly tone.

As for Uncle Guili, Zhao Jie was already suspicious of Liz’s “ Liao Zixuan “. Although it was just one word, as an experienced uncle, Zhao Jie could hear the “ special ” tone in Liz’s voice.

Although Zhao Jie had only known Liz for a few days, the image of a shrewd and proud noble lady had already been established in his heart. To think that a young lady would use such a tone and address a man so intimately...

All of this made Zhao Jie alert and stop Liao Zixuan. After all, as long as it was related to his daughter, it would always be ranked first in the old father’s heart.

After that, Zhao Jie did not expect that before he could speak, the Countess opposite him would ask about him first.

However, this also made Zhao Jie certain that the relationship between this young lady and his son-in-law was definitely not that simple!

“Yes, is there a problem, Earl?”

Zhao Jie first nodded calmly, then quickly asked without giving Liz a chance to speak,

“I’m surprised that you know our son-in-law. Is it through Vivian?”

Humph.

Hearing Zhao Jie deliberately emphasize the word ‘son-in-law’, Liz snorted coldly.

“How did Bai and I know each other? That’s a long story. I’m afraid Boss Zhao won’t be able to finish listening to it for a day and a night.”

“Therefore, why don’t we...”

Liz changed her posture.

She was originally sitting on the sofa quite obediently, but now she had her arms crossed in front of her chest, her right leg raised to her left leg, her two legs crossed up and down, and her toes were raised. She had the domineering aura of a young miss from back then.

The girl said word by word,”

“Why don’t you tell me first, Boss Zhao? How did you get this ‘son-in-law’ that you keep calling?”

The strong smell of gunpowder began to spread in the room.

Zhao Jie had always harbored a faint hostility towards Liz. After all, this shrewd businessman had long seen through her intentions to snatch his business and share the cake.

Zhao Jie knew that as Sakuragi Island became more and more eye-catching, he would no longer be able to monopolize the island. In addition, with the relationship between Liz and Vivian, Zhao Jie felt that it was better to have one more enemy than one more opponent. Therefore, he had taken the initiative to ask Liz out for this conversation.

However, everything changed after Liao Zixuan pushed open the door.

If this young girl was interested in Liao Zixuan, then she was equivalent to her daughter’s love rival. She could give up her business, but not her son-in-law!!

If he let this one go, where would he go to cheat...Find such an outstanding son-in-law for her daughter!

As for Liz, who was sitting opposite him, there was no need to mention her.

The girl was actually curious about how Zhao Jie managed to dominate the island.

Liz originally thought that Zhao Jie had unique foresight and was a businessman who could seize opportunities and take risks. Now, it seems that it’s not that simple!

There was also...

She knew it!

How could Bai, that bastard, stay on the Thousand Islands and do nothing bad?

A son-in-law had popped up in such a short time.

She didn’t even dare to think about what would happen next!

Fortunately, she caught him today!

Liz didn’t really mind. Bai had many women. After all, it was common among nobles, especially those who were more capable and had higher titles. On the contrary, it was rare for her father to only like one woman. It was also because of this that her father had fallen into such a state.

However, what Liz couldn't accept was the sudden "Descent" series like this. Although she and Cher had been bickering and going against each other, this also indirectly showed that Liz recognized Cher and the bond between Cher and Bai.

But...

This foreign businessman in front of her had a round figure and an ordinary face. Other than being a profiteer, he seemed to have no other characteristics. Liz really could not think of how high a status the daughter of such a person could have. Why was she worthy of Bai??

In this scene.

Liao Zixuan, who had one foot in the room, didn't know whether to enter or not.

There was only one sentence in his heart right now.

How could this be the Asura Arena?

However...

It was as if the heavens were watching over him.

Another series of footsteps came from the corridor. Then, a valiant woman with a greatsword on her back and an eyepatch appeared in everyone's sight.

"Uh..."

"Did I come at the wrong time?"

Nan was at a loss when she saw the strange scene in the room.

Seeing that Nan was about to leave, Liao Zixuan quickly pulled his savior back.

"No, I can't! Miss Nan, you came at the right time!"

"I happen to have something important to discuss with you regarding the survival of the Thousand Islands!"

Chapter 763: Chapter 146-Winning the Sky-Level Member Member!_1

As soon as Liao Zixuan said this, the smell of gunpowder in the room faded a lot.

Zhao Jie and Liz no longer glared at each other like tigers eyeing their prey. Instead, they quickly shifted their attention to the young man at the door. The two of them were quite reassuring when it came to identifying their priorities.

On the contrary, Captain Nan, who had just arrived, was a little stunned.

Of course, part of this was due to the sudden comments of the unfamiliar young man standing at Boss Zhao's door.

However, what made Nan unable to recover from her shock was...

The young man's sudden action.

Nan subconsciously looked at her hand that was grabbed by the unfamiliar young man.

Perhaps in the eyes of an ordinary person, this... What's wrong?

However, only Nan herself knew that due to her habit, before she made a name for herself as the Northern Cross, she spent most of her time wandering the seas and killing. As a result, she had cultivated a high level of vigilance. After all, if you were to relax, the next corpse of the silent sea might be you.

After that, she traveled all over the world and befriended heroes from all walks of life, making the Northern Cross larger and more famous. From then on, she rarely had to personally take action.

However, the habit of licking blood on the edge of a knife at sea was still engraved in Nan's bones.

If it was a familiar friend, it would be fine. However, if it was a stranger like the young man at the door who she had never seen before, Nan could guarantee that if the other party did the same thing as this young man and suddenly grabbed her, Nan's brain might not have given the order before her body instinctively countered the other party.

Therefore, most of the time, it was often the body that was used to fighting and killing that overreacted. After Nan realized it, she had to quickly control her strength to avoid accidental injuries.

However, this time...

“Ah! Sorry, sorry, I was too excited to see Captain Nan.” Liao Zixuan saw Nan’s eyes on his hand, so he slapped his forehead and quickly let go of her and apologized.

He was just thinking that he could not let Nan, the savior from the heavens, go. In the end, he forgot that Nan did not know him. Anyone would feel uncomfortable being suddenly grabbed by a stranger.

But soon, Liao Zixuan was generous. He took his hand back and used another method to extend it in front of Nan.

“Nice to meet you, Captain Nan. I’m Boss Zhao’s, uh... Friend and partner, you can call me Bai. I’ve heard of Captain Nan’s name for a long time. Now that I’ve seen him in person, he really has an extraordinary bearing, a heroic bearing, a hero among women! Nice to meet you!”

On the other side.

Boss Zhao’s... Friends? Partner?

When Nan shifted her gaze to Zhao Jie, she saw that Uncle Guili nodded at her and then winked at her.

Moreover, from the way Zhao Jie was opening his mouth, he should be saying to her... Nan instantly understood the identity of the young man opposite her.

She quickly shifted her gaze back to Nan, who also reached out to shake hands with the young man.

“What are you talking about? It’s just a false reputation. It’s not worth mentioning. On the other hand, Mister White, when we first arrived at Sakuragi Island, Boss Zhao had mentioned you a lot in my ears. He even told me a lot of your heroic deeds. Some of them were so good that even I, a knowledgeable navigator, was amazed and cheered.”

Nan shook her head as she spoke.

“At that time, I admit that I was indeed a little suspicious that Boss Zhao had added fuel to the fire, but now... Hahaha, after seeing Mister White in person, I didn’t even realize what happened just now. I knew that Mister White must be a martial arts master, or at least much stronger than me.”

Experts did not need to talk too much. They could be distinguished by a few details, not to mention Nan, who had a sharp eye and was very accurate in judging people.

While Nan was laughing, Liao Zixuan pretended to be humble and played dumb as he scratched his head, saying, "No, no, Captain Nan is exaggerating."

After a simple face-to-face meeting, it was considered an acquaintance.

Nan took the initiative to bring up serious matters.

"Just now, Mister White said that he had something important to discuss with not only Boss Zhao and the Countess, but also me?"

"That's right, Captain Nan. I wonder if you still remember my colleague, Vivian, who mentioned to you before that I hope to buy the blueprint of the heavy cannon [Annihilation Star] on the Northern Cross?"

Nan hesitated for a moment before glancing at Liz.

Liao Zixuan immediately added,

"Oh, Miss Liz is a good friend of Vivian and I. Captain Nan, you don't have to mind. If there's anything you need, feel free to say it."

"Is that so..."

Nan nodded. Because they were going to talk about the "Five Elements of Return-Separation", Nan also treated Liao Zixuan as a secret member of the "Black Tortoise Pass" due to Zhao Jie's relationship. That was why she was so cautious.

However, since the other party said that he didn't mind, Nan didn't hide it and said bluntly,

"To tell you the truth, I came to see Boss Zhao today because of this matter. Let's talk about the blueprint of the Annihilation Planet that Mister White mentioned just now. I've already negotiated with the people of Qilin Pavilion, and their reply is that they do have this blueprint and can give it to you."

Chapter 764 - 146-Winning the Sky-Level Member Member!_2

Qi... Qilin Pavilion! Zhao Jie, who was listening in, felt his eyelids twitch when he heard these three words. However, after thinking about it carefully, it seemed that only the wealthy Qilin Pavilion in Gui Li could have such a collection and give it away so easily.

Liao Zixuan was not surprised by the Qilin Pavilion. After all, he already knew about it. What he was more concerned about was what kind of exchange the rich woman behind the Qilin Pavilion would propose.

He didn't have to wait long. Nan's next sentence gave him the answer.

"Of course, the Qilin Pavilion will definitely not give away the blueprint for free. Their condition is to be able to participate in Cherry Wood Island...Ah, right! They also specifically mentioned that the participation was not to interfere in internal affairs. Qilin Pavilion only did business and did not participate in politics."

"They said that the reason why they wanted to have a non-participation was because only then would Qilin Pavilion be able to invest in the construction of the dock and open the trade route between Sakuragi Island and Gui Li. Sakuragi Island must allow the merchants of Gui Li to come and go, guarantee their legal rights, and promise to give them additional tax deductions."

"If Sakuragi Island agrees to this, they gave me a special communication tool. Although only I can use it, I can still bring a copy of the blueprint over."

After Nan's words, the room fell silent, leaving only Liao Zixuan who was deep in thought, as if considering the conditions proposed by Qilin Pavilion. Although Zhao Jie and Liz also wanted to express their opinions on this, they held back. After all, the young man was the true speaker, and everything had to be based on the young man's wishes.

"Why don't I go back today? When will Mister White..."

Nan had just opened her mouth, but before she could finish speaking, the young man interrupted her.

"There's no need to go through so much trouble. Thousand Islands doesn't have so much time. Captain Nan, I'll have to trouble you to help communicate with Qilin Pavilion. Sakuragi Island accepts Qilin Pavilion's shares and welcomes investment in the construction of docks and sea routes. However, the last tax..." Forgive us for not being able to agree."

"We also have to protect the interests of local and foreign merchants, so we can't give this privilege to the Gui Li Caravan alone. I hope Qilin Pavilion can understand."

Liao Zixuan's words made Zhao Jie and Liz secretly heave a sigh of relief.

"Also, I believe Captain Nan knows better than me that even if we have the blueprint, the Annihilation Star isn't something that can be built easily. Since we've come this far, I'll be straightforward. Captain Nan has seen the crisis of the Thousand Islands. I didn't expect to use the blueprint to build the Annihilation Star from the beginning. I just hope that we can use the blueprint of the Annihilation Star to absorb some of its strengths and improve the cannons on our island so that we can have a better chance of winning the next battle."

"I understand." Seeing the sincere and helpless look in the young man's eyes, Nan nodded, and her expression became more serious.

She did not even wait for him to return to the ship. Instead, she directly said to Zhao Jie, who was in the house,

"Boss Zhao, can you give me a private room? I'll go and pass on Mister White's words to the Qilin Pavilion."

"Oh... Okay, okay, I'll follow you here."

Zhao Jie got up and quickly led Nan to an empty room next door.

After Zhao Jie closed the door and left, Nan took out the talisman from last time and chanted the incantation.

A green light immediately bloomed from the talisman, eventually filling Nan's entire vision.

A second later.

The scene in front of Nan was no longer the small room in the Zhao Chamber of Commerce, but Gui Li's Qilin Pavilion.

He didn't know what was going on today.

It seemed that she would always run into some inappropriate situation?

This time, Nan Gang had used the power of the talisman to project the image of the jade carving into the room. She instantly felt that two sharp gazes were looking at her in the secret room.

One had to know that this was a secret chamber designed by Zhao Yu-er. To be able to discover him so quickly, the person outside was definitely not an ordinary person. More importantly, these two gazes were not disguised at all. At least, it proved that the other party was not like Lord Li of the White Tiger Hall last time, who still cared about Zhao Yu-er's face.

Just as Nan was still hesitating whether she should open the screen mechanism and go out...

It's time for you to come to the right place."Zhao Yu 'er's voice came from outside at this time, making Nan heave a sigh of relief.

When she walked out from behind the screen in the secret room and stood in Zhao Yu-er's room...

Nan sighed in her heart.

Because her guess was right.

There were four people in the room, including her. Besides Zhao Yu 'er, the other two guests of the Qilin Pavilion were blue-haired women.

However, although they both had blue hair, their auras were completely different, even a little opposite.

First of all, the first thing that caught people's attention was definitely the woman with a very strange horn-like head. This characteristic was very rare in Guili. There was almost only one possibility: a hybrid between a human and an immortal beast.

Her long dark blue hair was combed into a ponytail that hung down from her chest. She was dressed in leather clothes that looked like she could fight at any time. Because she was a mixed-blood immortal beast, her eyes were a very special red. It was these red eyes that were staring at Nan, who was walking out of the secret room, covetously and unfriendly.

Chapter 765 - 146-Winning the Sky-Level Member Member!_3

The long-horned woman gave others the feeling that she was like the saber at her waist that was inseparable. She emitted a sharp and domineering aura that could not be questioned.

Compared to the former, the second blue-haired woman gave off a much better feeling. She no longer had long hair that gave off an oppressive feeling. Instead, she had a small and exquisite short hair that covered her ears. Even her attire seemed to be in a lazy style. At a glance, she looked very luxurious and beautiful. A white fluffy coat was draped over her shoulders.

After Nan's appearance, she only took a glance before she continued to focus on tasting the tea. The only thing that caught people's attention was the dice that she kept playing with on the table with her other hand.

As for why Nan sighed...

Because these two blue-haired women were famous in Guili, as the captain of the North Ten, how could Nan not recognize them?

In the Green Dragon Yamen, which was in charge of most of the soldiers of Guili, was responsible for maintaining the public order in the country and dealing with a series of criminal cases. It was known as the peak of martial arts. A "Red Cloud" divine knife had killed countless criminals in a row. Just the name alone was enough to make evil people tremble in fear...Constable Chen.

And... Although it had not been announced yet, it was basically decided internally that the next head of the White Tiger Hall, Lan Ye, would be in charge of supervising the officials.

There was also the Qilin Pavilion's Pavilion Master, Zhao Yu-er.

It could be said that if any of the three women in the room stomped their feet, the entire Gui Li would probably tremble.

What exactly...What happened?

It could actually alarm the Qilin Pavilion, the Azure Dragon Ya, and the White Tiger Hall at the same time? Moreover, two of the lines were based on "martial strength".

The other thing was...

Why did he say that he came at the right time?

Just as Nan was worried and confused, Zhao Yuer spoke before she could ask.

“Nan, do you remember the young man who claimed to be a member of the Black Tortoise Pass on the Thousand Islands?”

Nan nodded.

Or rather, she was going to pass on a message to Liao Zixuan this time.

But then...

“After you told me this news, I immediately asked someone to go to Black Tortoise Pass to investigate, and then...”

Zhao Yu-er paused for a moment.

“Let me say it. After all, this is the jurisdiction of our White Tiger Hall. If Pavilion Master Zhao wants to investigate, it must be a big matter. Therefore, after I found out, I personally accepted the mission. In the end...”

“Although Pavilion Leader Zhao wanted to investigate the Black Tortoise Pass secret agent who was sent out from the Thousand Islands, I was unable to find out. However, during this investigation...”

“I accidentally discovered a group of highly suspicious high-ranking officials of Xuanwu Pass.”

There was a problem...Was it corruption? No, it shouldn't be alarmed to this extent, right?

That's how you can get that. That's how you can get that Suddenly, Nan's eyes widened.

Seeing Nan's expression, Lan Ye nodded.

“That's right, one of the biggest duties of Xuanwu Pass is to guard the border. Any foreigner who wants to enter Guili must go through Xuanwu Pass and obtain an entry permit. This review has recently become extremely strict, and anyone with a criminal record is not allowed to enter Guili. As for why, I think I can guess from Miss Nan's appearance. After all, it's the biggest event in Guili in a hundred years.”

“The Emperor has come out of seclusion.” Nan spat out these four words in a low voice.

” Yes, after our interrogation, we found out that the faction behind these problematic officials might be targeting the Emperor who came out of seclusion, so...”

Lan Ye's other hand that was spinning the dice on the table suddenly stopped. Then, her entire aura changed.

If Constable Chen's direct and aggressive judgment was compared to a raging fire, then the feeling that Lan Ye gave Nan was more like a block of ice. If she angered the former, she might be burned to death directly. However, if it was the latter, the ice would not kill her immediately. Instead, the cold air would slowly seep into her bones and spread throughout her body. Finally, she would turn into a frozen corpse in pain and torture.

"Miss Nan, I can tell you very responsibly that the young man you met at the Thousand Islands who claimed to be a secret agent of the Black Tortoise Pass has already been listed by our White Tiger Hall...The highest "Heaven-rank" observation target."

"And I, in the name of the White Tiger Hall's Chief Inspector General, request that you tell us everything you know about him!"

Chapter 766 - 766: If He Can Create the Annihilation Planet, I, Lan Ye, Will Write My Words Reverse!_1

Chapter 766: If He Can Create the Annihilation Planet, I, Lan Ye, Will Write My Words Reverse!_1

Under Inspector Lan Ye's sharp and serious words, the atmosphere in the room instantly became a little tense and solemn. Nan's palms were slightly sweaty.

Nan's current performance wasn't because of Lan Ye's imposing manner. Even the White Tiger Hall's Inspector General wasn't enough to deal with the leader of the Northern Tenth Team, as well as the big sisters of the entire Eastern Continent's five countries.

What really made Nan's palms sweat was that she realized that this matter was related to the Emperor.

For any Guili person, no matter how high their status was or how powerful their martial arts were, they would always have a sense of reverence for the Emperor.

However, this was a little different from the attitude of many other countries towards 'gods'. For the Guili people, rather than saying that the Emperor 'was their god, it was more appropriate to say that he was like an elder like an old father.

Therefore, at any time, anything related to the Emperor would always be highly regarded by the Guili people.

Nan's current nervousness was also due to this.

Fortunately, Zhao Yu 'er spoke up from the side.

"Enough, Miss Lan Ye. It's fine if your White Tiger Hall acts pretentiously to the officials of the other four industries, but do you have to do the same to the commoners?"

"Her? Commonfolks? Are you sure?" Lan Ye rolled his eyes at Zhao Yu 'er, but he could tell that the girl was trying to protect him.

In the Gui Li Realm, the only person the Qilin Pavilion Master wanted to protect was probably the Emperor, right? Although Lan Ye had already investigated the behind-the-scenes relationship between Northern Cross and Qilin Pavilion, it seemed like...

Lan Ye's gaze lingered between Nan and Zhao Yuer.

The relationship between these two people should be deeper than what he had imagined. He had to add another record in the White Tiger Hall regarding this point.

Lan Ye thought so in his heart, but he quickly compromised,""Thank you for your reminder, Pavilion Master Zhao. Also, Miss Nan, I'm sorry. It's just a habit of mine."

"It's alright. Sometimes, I still retain my habits from when I was at sea."Nan waved her hand, not minding it." Besides, this matter concerns the Emperor's seclusion. I can understand how strict Miss Lan Ye is."

Because she knew that Lan Ye was not targeting her, but this matter.

Lan Ye nodded." If all the Guili people have the same mindset as Captain Nan, then our White Tiger Hall's work will be at least half as easy."

Seeing that the atmosphere had finally eased up a little, Lan Ye did not continue to ask. Zhao Yu-er took the opportunity to continue speaking to Nan,

"Don't worry, things aren't as tense as you think. You're not in the five elements, so you might not know. If the young man from the Black Tortoise Pass of the Thousand Islands is found to be suspicious, then the one asking you now won't be Lan Ye, but Constable Chen."

Constable Chen...

Nan followed Zhao Yu 'er's words and shifted her gaze to the direction of the knife-wielding woman who had been silent from the beginning.

Constable Chen nodded at her and explained,

“There are two lists in Guili. One is a pure blacklist, which is handled by the Azure Dragon Office. As long as the people on it appear in Guili, we will do our best to capture them. If there is news of the people on the blacklist overseas, if they are people above the ‘Black’ level, we will not hesitate to go overseas to execute them.”

” As for the second list, we usually call it the Grey List. The more official one is the Observer List, which is managed by the White Tiger Hall. As the name suggests, as long as someone has the ability to bring ‘instability’ to Gui Li, they will usually be on this list. For example, famous local bosses, gang leaders, or business tycoons...”

“These people are regularly monitored by the White Tiger Hall. The strength of this list is naturally much weaker than the previous list. Moreover...”

“And we don’t want to be enemies with these people.” Lan Ye interrupted at the right time and took over the conversation from Constable Chen.

“The White Tiger Hall is doing this just in case. Sometimes, we even provide extra convenience for these people, such as internal passages, etc.” He turned a blind eye to their illegalities on paper.”

When he said the last sentence, Lan Ye deliberately dragged out his voice a little. There was a deeper meaning to it, and as expected, what happened next.

“By the way, Captain Nan, you’re also on our grey list, and your rank isn’t low.”

After a short period of digestion, Nan did not hold back at all. Instead, she smiled even more brightly and said, "Haha, then I'm truly honored."

She finally understood why Zhao Yu-er had never mentioned the name list to her before. It was probably because she was concerned about her feelings. Zhao Yu-er's helplessness was the best proof.

But in fact, after Nan listened to the general description of the list, she felt that she could be on it...It's pretty cool?

How many of them were there? How many of them were there? How many of them were there? How many of them were there? How many of them were there? How many of them were there? How many of them were there? How many of them were there?

Of course, Nan heaved a sigh of relief in the end.

“So... Brother Bai actually has nothing to do with the organization that has designs on the Emperor, right? Whoosh! This is the best news I’ve heard today.”

Chapter 767: If He Can Create the Annihilation Planet, I, Lan Ye, Will Write My Words Reverse!_2

“Brother Bai?” Lan Ye raised his eyebrows.

“Yes, it’s that young man’s name. However, I learned from Xiao Yu’s father...Cough, I found out from other sources that Bai was just a code name for that young man. His Guili name was Liao Zixuan. Anyway, I don’t think he was lying. After all, he looks like a Guili person.”

“Not necessarily.” This time, it was the silent Constable Chen who spoke.

“The Thousand-island people in the Eastern Continent are very similar to us. Besides, he is also in the Thousand-island. It is too early to make this conclusion.”

At the same time, Constable Chen continued to ask,”

“Also, Miss Nan, from your tone, you seem to trust this young man very much?”

“Say it’s trust.” Not yet, but he gives me the feeling that he’s a very reliable person.”

“Very reliable? Miss Nan, can you elaborate more?”

Nan scratched her head and suddenly clapped her hands.

“I don’t know if you can understand this, but if he was my crew member, I would trust him with my back, right? If you ask me why again...”

Nan shrugged and said,” I can only say that this is a sailor’s intuition. Anyway, I’ve always believed in my own intuition.””

“Is that so...Thank you for the information, Captain Nan.”

Constable Chen nodded to Xiang Nan. He could tell that Constable Chen was more comfortable talking to Lan Ye of the White Tiger Hall.

After that, Nan quickly told the three of them everything she knew about Liao Zixuan. This naturally included Nan's judgment of Liao Zixuan's strength through the small detail of pulling his hand.

Among the three people present, Zhao Yu-er seemed to be a little suspicious. It was not that she doubted the young man's strength, but she doubted Nan's words. How could one's strength be seen from a small action?

However, Constable Chen, the "First Constable" of the Green Dragon Ya, agreed with Nan's judgment.

"Pavilion Leader Zhao specializes in magic and isn't a martial artist, so it's normal that she can't understand it. However, both Lan Ye and I have experienced it deeply. This is definitely not an easy task. At the very least, Lan Ye definitely can't do what the young man did back then, to make Captain Nan grab her before she could react."

Lan Ye was speechless.

"Chen, you don't have to say anything if you don't know how to speak."

He glanced at the short-haired woman with the same hair color as him and then retracted his gaze.

"It's just the truth." Constable Chen, who had turned into a scabbard at some point, said.

However, Arrestor Chen quickly stopped talking about this topic and began to analyze seriously,

"From Captain Nan's description, this young man doesn't seem to be an evil person. He was willing to stay behind and endure the disaster when Thousand Islands was faced with it. He's a courageous person."

It could be seen that Constable Chen's evaluation of Liao Zixuan was surprisingly high, but the other person...

"More importantly, he was able to recruit Vivian as his companion and help him hide his identity." Lan Ye added.

"Oh, now there's an update of information. There's also a new lover of the Countess of the Flame Region. Sure enough, he sounded like a troublesome fellow."

"I have to get the White Tiger Hall to add that Countess to the list..." Lan Ye seemed to be talking to himself as the dice in his hand spun very quickly.

“Vivian?” Nan was a little surprised. You know her too?”

“Of course, although our White Tiger Hall’s intelligence isn’t as good as the Qilin Pavilion’s, if we really want to investigate, it’s still very fast. When we put the young man on the list, we naturally had to pay attention to the little girl from the Yan Domain who was willing to cooperate with him to disguise herself. She’s also on our list now, but her level is much lower, only Black Rank.”

Hearing that Vivian was also included in Lan Ye’s list, even though she was only in the middle of the “Heaven and Earth Black Yellow People”, Nan’s mouth twitched. She could not help but sigh for the little girl. If Liao Zixuan said that she was not sure, but Vivian...

If that kind of girl was a bad person, then there probably wouldn’t be any good people in the world, right?

Therefore, this led to a problem.

“I’ve been a little concerned since the beginning. You’ve been talking about pretending to be someone else and disguising yourself...Are you sure he’s not from Black Tortoise Pass? If that was the case, shouldn’t he be more suspicious?”

Zhao Yu-er answered Nan’s question.”

“Nan, think about it. If you were that young man and were related to this operation, in order not to be exposed, would you choose a fake name that has nothing to do with the organization, or would you directly use the organization’s real name?”

Seeing Nan’s expression of realization, Zhao Yu-er nodded.

“That’s why I told the other two lords about the young man before you arrived. Ever since our first meeting, I’ve been thinking about why the young man approached my father on purpose and why he chose to say that he was a secret agent of Black Tortoise Pass.”

“At first, I thought that it was because Black Tortoise Pass was in charge of customs and would naturally have many contacts with foreign countries. It would be easier to believe that he was disguised as a member of Black Tortoise Pass, but now it seems...I’m 80% sure of my goal, I’m just trying to borrow you, I’m giving you a warning.”

Following Zhao Yu-er’s words, Nan also nodded thoughtfully.

“Therefore, he expected that after you found out, you would definitely immediately investigate his identity in Black Tortoise Pass. However, his ‘identity’ was actually just a cover. What he really wanted you to investigate was the person who had been infiltrated into Black Tortoise Pass from behind...A spy from another country!"

Chapter 768 - 768: If He Can Create the Annihilation Planet, I, Lan Ye, Will Write My Words Reverse!_3

Chapter 768: If He Can Create the Annihilation Planet, I, Lan Ye, Will Write My Words Reverse!_3

The more Nan spoke, the more she couldn't help but clap her hands and exclaim.

Immediately after, he was shocked.

Why?

This was because the strategy behind this move and the seamless connection between the links made it hard to imagine how powerful the person behind this move was when the truth was revealed.

This young man was actually able to find his overseas father, whom the mighty Guili Qilin Pavilion Master could not find. Moreover, he must have found him long ago and had been acting as a hidden chess piece. Otherwise, there was no way to explain why the other party could choose such a coincidental time to let Zhao Jie appear in Zhao Yu 'er's sight.

Wait a minute! Nan suddenly had a terrifying thought.

In that case, the reason why Zhao Yu 'er was able to discover Zhao Jie's source of information and the fake sinking of the Astorokis was actually a deliberate plan by the other party! ?

From Zhao Yu 'er's expression, Nan knew that the young girl had also realized this point. The young man was absolutely certain that Zhao Yu 'er would send someone to the Thousand Islands to pick up Zhao Jie. This was indeed the case. Then, the young man could logically send out the information without even moving. He only needed to move his mouth a few times to send out the information.

This was...This was...

Unknowingly, they had been hooked from the very beginning. Like fish, they followed the fragrance of the bait and finally took the bait step by step.

Terrifying, so terrifying.

This was the first time Nan felt this way about someone.

It was also the first time she had seen the genius girl known as "Gui Li's brain", the youngest Qilin Pavilion Master, being led by the nose step by step from the beginning to the end.

Now that she thought about it, she felt that it was a little unfair for the young man to be included in the highest "Heaven Rank" list, but now it seemed that just his ability to plan and strategize...Heaven-grade, he was well-deserved.

"If I'm not wrong, that Blue isn't helping Guili on purpose. It's the same as helping the Thousand Islands. They're basically going against another organization, or rather, the country."

"Organization? Country?"

"That's right. It's Lin Dong. The source of the current calamity on the Thousand Islands is Lin Dong's executive officer. Although they hypnotized a high-ranking official of Black Tortoise Pass with a very strange order, the mastermind behind this is definitely Lin Dong."

After Constable Chen said that, Lan Ye comforted him in a relaxed tone,"

"Actually, I'd like to see this scene. After all, a person who helps you with a purpose is much more reassuring than a person who helps you without knowing why."

"Moreover, this little brother also asked us for a reward."

The reward...

At the mention of this, Nan suddenly realized what she was supposed to do this time. It was not her fault. Too much had happened in between.

"Regarding this, the three of us had already discussed it before you came. Arrestor Chen voted against it because Planet Annihilation is too powerful and such a destructive weapon cannot be leaked. However, Pavilion Master Zhao and I voted in favor because we all agreed that Planet Annihilation cannot be replicated, at least not in the short term."

"To replicate Planet Annihilation, we need to overcome three difficulties. If the blueprint is counted, then there are four. First, we need a group of high-level craftsmen who can understand the blueprint and guarantee that there will be no mistakes. This is the first and easiest of the three stages. Even if he has the ability to recruit such a group of craftsmen, the second difficulty will definitely not be completed without three to five years.”

The material, the star, the production, all kinds of precious materials, even more regret, the material, the single distribution, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country, the country. It would take two months to travel by sea, not to mention the winter that was further away.”

"However, in terms of quality, the materials from the five countries are still not enough compared to the third obstacle. However, the third obstacle to create the Annihilation Planet is the most important because it involves the core power and power of the Annihilation Planet. I don't need to say this, Captain Nan should understand."

After Lan Ye said that, he nodded.

"Forbidden Devil." She slowly spat out these four words.

“That’s right. The reason why Planet Annihilation can be so powerful is because it needs a large amount of blood essence from the Forbidden Demon to refine the core. If he can find a living Forbidden Demon within three years and is willing to donate a large amount of precious blood essence to him...Hmph hmph.”

"I, Lan Ye, will write the two words backwards for him!"

The short-haired woman smiled confidently. That young man liked to play chess, right? Then she would play along with the other party, and Annihilation Star was the bait she had set out. Lan Ye was very sure that the other party would definitely bite the bait.

In that case...

The fish that had bitten the hook had to pull back the line.

“Captain Nan, after a two-to-one vote, we agree to let you bring the blueprint of Planet Annihilation to him. However, I have one more condition, a very small condition.”

“I need him...After I settle the problem at the Thousand Islands, I will return to Guili with you!”

Lan Ye placed this on the table.

As for what the audience didn't say, it was naturally...

Then, in order to praise his contribution, the White Tiger Hall's Chief Inspector, Lan Ye, applied to his superiors and transferred him to my direct subordinate!

Chapter 769 - 769: I Will Make a Great Creation That Jumps to a New Version!(1)

Chapter 769: I Will Make a Great Creation That Jumps to a New Version!(1)

"Miss Nan, why hasn't there been any movement after so long... Could it be that Guili didn't agree? ?" Among the three people who were waiting for news in the room, Zhao Jie was the first to get a little restless.

Seeing that Nan had not come out of the room after more than an hour, Zhao Jie became more and more worried. Moreover, it was precisely because he was also a Guili person that he was even more uncertain.

"Bai, if it really doesn't work out, then let's give them more benefits. I've done business with those guys from Qilin Pavilion before, and they can't take any losses."

"Moreover, we are the ones who need help. It's not shameful to nod our heads in times of difficulty."

Zhao Jie was obviously more conservative and had already started to take the initiative to suggest to the young man. However, before Liao Zixuan could speak, Liz's voice came from the side.

"Isn't Boss Zhao's daughter the secretary of Qilin Pavilion? I believe that after she learns about Captain Nan, she will definitely help us deal with it, right?"

"This... This..." Zhao Jie stammered under the young girl's question.

On the one hand, he wanted his daughter to help him. This way, not only would he gain some face, but he could also kill the Countess 'spirit in front of Liao Zixuan. But on the other hand, because this was not a small matter, Zhao Jie was worried that his daughter might forcefully interfere and ruin her future in Qilin Pavilion.

Therefore, Zhao Jie didn't let Nan pass on a message to his daughter. This was probably a little selfish as a father. However, his vague attitude was already conveying a lot of information to Liz.

Firstly, Zhao Jie's daughter was indeed not a big shot and her status was not very high. Otherwise, Zhao Jie would not be so worried. Secondly, the other party's relationship with Bai was probably not that deep. It would be difficult for her to even help him with such a matter.

If it were her, no matter what Bai suggested, she would put everything else aside and support him with all her might. Just this point alone was enough to win her too much.

Therefore, the so-called "son-in-law" was probably Uncle Guili's own wishful thinking.

After gradually analyzing the whole story, Liz felt much more relaxed. At the same time, she shook her head at her previous jealous attitude. After all, if this was considered an opponent, it would be too low of a status.

After a short while, footsteps could finally be heard from the corridor. Zhao Jie was the first to get up quickly. When he opened the door, it was Nan who had ended the call.

"Miss Nan, so the result is...?"

Liao Zixuan also got up and went straight to the point nervously.

Although he knew deep down that with Zhao Jie's relationship, that rich woman should at least give him some face, as for how much she could give, it was unknown how much weight Zhao Jie, the bastard father who abandoned his wife and daughter, could give.

Liao Zixuan was already prepared to negotiate many times, but he didn't expect...

Nan didn't reply to the young man in words. Instead, she took out an exquisitely crafted box from her bosom.

When she opened it in front of everyone, there was a thick stack of complicated engineering drawings with various symbols and markings.

Even though he couldn't understand these abstruse engineering drawings, there was a final drawing attached to it.

The thick and tall cannon barrel that seemed to pierce through the clouds, the layers of shock cushions that were in a geometric staircase that firmly grasped the ground, and finally, the pitch-black and deep muzzle that seemed to suck people in.

Just a hand-drawn picture was enough to make people feel a sense of destruction. If it wasn't the blueprint of Planet Annihilation, what else could it be?

Nai Si!

Liao Zixuan was ecstatic. He wished he could immediately put the blueprint into his inventory space, but he still had to suppress the fire in his eyes on the surface because he was afraid that it was not that simple. Nan had been gone for so long, there must be something waiting for him in the future. You can read short, touching, and romantic stories about couples, as well as children's stories for free on stories\(.com\)

As expected.

"Bai... Sir, the people from Qilin Pavilion have agreed to your request to cancel the preferential treatment of the customs duties. However, as a condition for concession, they hope that you can also fulfill a small request."

"The people from the Qilin Pavilion hope that Mister White can return to Guili with me after dealing with the Thousand Islands."

After Nan finished speaking, it seemed that there was no follow-up. Liao Zixuan's heart was filled with question marks.

Just this?

You guys went to discuss for half a day, and the result was that you wanted me to go to Guili?

Hey, hey, your father called you son-in-law. Don't tell me you've really accepted your fate and are really craving my body!

"Other than that, is there anything else?" Just in case, Liao Zixuan confirmed it again.

"No, then Mr. White, your answer is..."

For some reason, Liao Zixuan felt that Nan, who was sitting opposite him, seemed to be more interested in this question than himself...A little nervous?

This was different from when they first met.

But he did not care about that.

"Of course not!" Liao Zixuan blurted out without thinking.

Taking a verbal agreement in exchange for a planet annihilation blueprint, only a fool would not do such a cheap deal.

On the other side.

Whoosh!

This time, Liao Zixuan was sure that he was not mistaken. After Nan received his affirmative answer, she let out a long sigh.

Before Liao Zixuan could react, Nan took the box containing the blueprint of the Annihilation Planet and placed it in his hand. He quickly said goodbye, turned around, and left. The whole process was done in one go without any hesitation.

Chapter 770 - 770: I Will Make a Great Creation That Jumps to a New Version!(1)

Chapter 770: I Will Make a Great Creation That Jumps to a New Version!(1)

Liao Zixuan had wanted to pretend to chat with Nan and take the opportunity to get some information about what had happened at Qilin Pavilion. In the end, he did not give him a chance at all and left at the speed of light. It was as if he did not want to stay here for another second, which made Zhao Jie and Liz a little stunned.

“Uh...”

Previously, Liao Zixuan was still thinking that it was just Guili meeting the netizens, so he could just go. However, when he saw Nan’s behavior, he suddenly felt uneasy.

This was bad.

Could it be that the rich woman wasn’t greedy for my body but wanted to trick me over...Grandpa Gaya’s kidney!

Moreover, from the looks of it, it seemed that he was certain that he would agree?

Where did she get this confidence from?

Thinking of this, Liao Zixuan looked at the blueprint in his hand.

[Annihilation Star (blueprint)]

[Rarity: Legendary]

[Blueprint Type: Weapon-Battlefield Heavy Cannon-Lethality Specialization Type IV]

[Total number of blueprints: 27 (3 support bases, 8 basic frame structures, 5 core power furnaces, 2 cooling devices, accelerated centrifugal...Splicing...)]

[Blueprint usage requirements: Different types according to different parts, wood/machinery/iron/alchemy... Craftsman Proficiency]

[Annihilation Star ((Finished))]

[Basic Attack Power: 800,000 – 1,200,000]

[Charge Time: 1 – 1 minute (Depends on core power attribute)]

[Basic Range: 28-80 kilometers (depends on core power attribute)]

[Fixed Skill 1: Armor-piercing-Transforms this cannon into an armor-piercing cannon that ignores 60% of the enemy's defense. At the same time, the maximum range is +9%, the minimum attack power is +30%, and the speed of the trajectory is +17%.]

" Fixed Skill 2: Explosive Bomb-Transforms this cannon attack into a cannon attack that can cause a large-scale explosion at the landing point. Maximum range +21%, maximum attack-18%, maximum speed-5%."

[Specialized Skill 1:??? (Depends on core power attribute)]

[Specialization Skill 2??? (Depends on core power attribute)]

(In the long history of Guili, there were countless disasters of all sizes. The most serious disaster was once recorded as the Catacombs Calamity by the Guili people in the future. It was also the origin of the Annihilation Planet.)

(The earth collapsed, and countless monsters emerged from the caves. No one knew where they came from or what they were. They only knew that they were cruel and bloodthirsty, slaughtering all living things in sight.)

(Although the immortals were powerful, they were no match for the number of monsters. With the continuous emergence of batches of monsters, immortals fell one after another. Just as Gui Li was in danger and the immortals were almost all killed or injured, the army formed by mortals filled the gap between the immortals.)

(The founder of the first Suzaku Gate gathered all the skilled craftsmen in the GuiLi territory to improve and combine the immortal mechanism with the mortal cannon. Finally, with the help of a traveling foreign female inventor, she successfully created the "Annihilation Star" heavy cannon.)

(With the power of the 'Star of Annihilation', even mortals without immortal power or magic could destroy the Devil's Den from a hundred miles away with artillery, releasing a terrifying power that even the immortals were amazed by. In the end, with the power of the 'Star of Annihilation', Gui Li won the war at a tragic price.)

(But it's strange. After the war ended, almost all the [Annihilation Stars] were destroyed overnight, and even the blueprints disappeared. The descendants of the Rosefinch Gate could only rely on the destroyed [Annihilation Stars] to try to reverse reverse engineer the blueprints and use different materials to try to replace them.)

[The above is an extract from <<The Story of the Human Immortal>>: Rare Artifacts (III)>]

After reading the additional information on the system panel, Liao Zixuan had a better understanding of Planet Annihilation. No wonder this cannon could be so powerful. It turned out that it was modeled after an immortal mechanism.

At the same time, he also sighed at the strength of the Gui Li craftsman, the founder of the Vermillion Bird Sect, and...Uh, a great foreign female inventor passing by?

Finally, Liao Zixuan looked at the attachment of [Annihilation Planet (Blueprint)]. It was a page full of materials required. What was even more ridiculous was that the basic materials were not mentioned. At a glance, there were many special materials written in bold. The collection locations indicated by the system were from all over the world! ? The entire five nations of the Eastern Continent?

NMMD!

The bastard who destroyed the "Annihilation Planet" destroyed it, so what? Why did he burn the blueprints?

Also, the descendants of the Vermilion Bird Sect were too weak. The first generation of the Vermilion Bird Sect was facing a great enemy. How could they go abroad to find materials? Therefore, Liao Zixuan deduced from the story that the materials of the "Annihilation Planet" must have been made from the materials of the country.

In the end, the blueprints were gone. If they were to recreate it, they would have to find similar materials from all over the world. This... Wasn't the difference too great?

It seemed like the blueprint had been restored, but in reality, it was as if it had not been restored at all. With these substitute materials...

Liao Zixuan sorted out what he did not have.

"Winter Snow Lotus"-a unique lotus flower born in a blizzard. Its lotus seeds have a powerful cooling effect similar to a hundred-year-old ice. No matter how hot the environment is, it can continuously supply cold air. It is the core of the cooling device of Planet Annihilation.

[suggested location: Winter-Barbaric Ice Cliff]

” Phoenix-perched Wood “–This kind of perching wood can be found in the forest where the legendary phoenix once lived. It has been contaminated by the scent of the phoenix for a long time and possesses extremely high heat resistance. When the wood shavings are mixed into smelting, it can greatly enhance the heat resistance of the metal. It is the core of the cannon barrel of the Annihilation Star.
