

I Help A NPC Become The Legendary Witch

Chapter 791 - 791: Quickly Send Di Hu Yan to Your Senior Sister!_2

Chapter 791: Quickly Send Di Hu Yan to Your Senior Sister!_2

The breeze blew the woman's long hair, and a few strands of silver hair at her temples fluttered in the wind. The ancient costume she was wearing was also very exquisite. It was black and white, with cloud patterns and golden edges. At a glance, she looked like an immortal.

However...

It was the complete opposite of the old man in casual clothes he had met in the forest.

Although the woman in front of him was dressed luxuriously, the way she wore it was neither fish nor water. She deliberately pulled the collar of an ancient costume from her collarbone to her shoulders, making her look like a rebellious girl.

As for the woman's actions, they were even more indecent, completely ruining the image of an expert.

In front of her was a simple set of Ji Xing cards, surrounded by a few small stone blocks for players to play cards. However, the woman did not sit properly. No, let alone sit upright, her feet left the ground. She hugged her legs and squatted on the round stone block, like a wild boy.

Even though the players were foreigners, they did not even look up when they entered the courtyard. They stared at the game in front of them with deep hatred. From time to time, they would even put their fingers in front of their lips, as if they were...Biting her nails?

".... I know! It's not my card skills, it must be that my cards are too weak!"

"Damn it! Why are all the cards issued blue and white! If I could have an Epic or Legendary card... Hmm?"

Halfway through her speech, the woman seemed to have sensed something. In the blink of an eye, the woman on the round stone block disappeared from the eyes of the members of the Moon Cutting Guild. When she regained her senses...

[Ding, you have successfully traded the blank travel record card x5 to " Ah Hua "]

Wha... What the hell?

The system announcement in Guild Master Waning Moon's mind confused him. He quickly checked his backpack. The slot that originally had blank cards had become completely blank.

And the cards he lost...

"Wow! Little brother, where did you get this card? Why is there nothing on it?" The woman in ancient costume played with the blank card in her hand with excitement and curiosity.

"That..."

"I know! I know! You want to make a Ji Xing card yourself, right? You're smart, little brother!" The woman's excited shout covered the waning moon.

Then, she slapped her forehead and began to pace excitedly in the courtyard, muttering something.

"That's right, why didn't I think of that? Those misers from the Adventurer's Association sold the card packs so expensive, and the probability of getting good cards was so low. I couldn't buy them in the first place...Cough."

"In short, as an immortal who protects the peace and stability of Gui Li, I must stop this kind of monopoly. Since I can't open it, I'll just close it myself! How could a mere travel record tablet be able to stop me, Exalted Immortal Ah Hua, in this world?"

"I want to create an epic based on myself...Pfft, it must be a legendary-level card! The kind that can end a match with just one card. At that time, I'll see how those kids can beat me! Hahaha!"

Amidst the maniacal laughter, he did as he was told.

The woman was just thinking about it a second ago, but in the next second, she began to focus all her mental strength on the blank card in her hand in front of the players.

Ten seconds, half a minute, one minute...

"Impossible! That was impossible! Hey, little brother, are your cards fake? Why isn't there any reaction from me?"Frowning in surprise, the woman finally turned her head to the players.

Waning Moon was a little nervous when faced with the questioning gaze.

Waning Moon had never even heard of NPCs stealing items from players' inventory space. If the other party was unhappy again, he would take everything from his inventory...

Just as Waning Moon was at a loss for an answer, he suddenly recalled the words the old mister had warned them about Immortal Chi Yuan in the forest.

Be patient and sincere. Don't worry too much.

"Ah...Immortal Ah Hua felt that the reason why you couldn't make your own cards was because you weren't famous enough."

"Not famous enough?"

"That's right! I didn't know if the Exalted Immortal knew Vivian, but this young girl from the Fire Domain was known by everyone because she resisted countless demon waves under Fire Code City. That was why she had her own exclusive Legendary Card."

"Vivian...Weiwei...Wei something, ah! I remember now, I do have some impression of it!" The woman pondered for a moment before her eyes lit up.

Seeing this, Waning Moon was secretly happy. As expected, there was joy, so he quickly continued.

"Right? Even the Exalted Immortal knew about it, which meant that he was very well-known. That was why there was a legendary card. If the Exalted Immortal wanted to have a place on the card, the most important thing was popularity!"

"Yes..."

"That's true! "What you said makes sense, but it's too slow for me to become famous by myself. Although I'm an Immortal, it's already a few hundred years ago. I'm afraid that people have long forgotten me. In that case..."

The players of the Moon Cutting Guild suddenly felt as if they were being looked at as prey.

"Since one person is too slow, let a group of people do the publicity!"

"Hey, little brother, I see that your bones are amazing. Your celestial heavens are full, and your aura is extraordinary. You must be talented and good material for immortal cultivation. Do you want to bring your subordinates..." Join our Divine Firmament Sect!"

"I promise! In less than three years...No, in a year, you will be able to master the divine technique and be omnipotent!"

Chapter 792 - 792: Quickly Send Di Hu Yan to Your Senior Sister!_3

Chapter 792: Quickly Send Di Hu Yan to Your Senior Sister!_3

[Ding, Ah Hua invites you to join the faction 'Divine Firmament Sect'.]

[Do you accept?]

Waning Moon was speechless.

If the other party had slightly changed the lines, he would not be so hesitant as he was now.

On the other side, the woman in ancient costume was a little anxious when she saw that Waning Moon was unmoved.

"Little brother, what are you hesitating for? This was a heaven-sent opportunity! It was me, the founding sect master, who invited you. In time, even if you don't have the ability, just with your status as the most senior elder, you can do whatever you want in the Divine Firmament Sect!"

"The most senior? The most senior?"

"Yes, because I just decided to build the Divine Firmament Sect. If you join now, won't you be the most experienced?"The woman in ancient costume said seriously,

Waning Moon: "???"

"Aiya, that's enough, little brother. Stop dawdling. This kind of opportunity that falls from the sky can't be missed. If he missed this opportunity, he wouldn't have this opportunity! Quickly enter the sect!"

"I..."

[Ding, you have successfully joined the faction 'Divine Firmament Sect']

I... It was a choice!

“Mm, not bad, not bad. From now on, you will be disciples of my Divine Firmament Sect and be active outside. Remember to do good deeds and accumulate merit. Don’t cheat, swindle, rob, and steal. You must spread the name of our Divine Firmament Sect.”

“Ming... Understood.” The members of the Moon Cutting Guild raised their hands weakly and swore.

“Oh right, speaking of which... Why did you come looking for me in the first place?”

The satisfied woman in ancient costume finally remembered this. Waning Moon quickly told the woman about his request for other collection points of the ” Dihu Rock “.

“What? Just this? Wait a moment.”

After the woman heard this, she felt a little disdainful. Immediately after, under the shocked gazes of the players from Moon Cutting, the woman turned the ring on her finger and after a golden light flashed.

Rumble!

Countless glittering orange crystals seemed to have fallen from the sky. In just a few breaths, they had piled up into a small mountain in the courtyard.

They emitted a rich rock elemental energy, and their appearance was crystal clear. If one looked closely, one would find that there seemed to be patterns of the ” Wandering Dragon ” costume within these crystals.

Wasn’t it the Dihu Rock they were looking for?

“Is this enough? If it’s not enough, I took a look just now. There should be more... About 30 to 40 yards of this kind of storage.”

Looking at the shocked faces of the new members of Divine Firmament Sect, Ah Hua shook his head.

Didn’t these broken rocks just have a little of the Rock God’s aura on them? What’s the big deal?

It seemed that if he wanted to increase his popularity, it was not enough to rely on these people.

She had to find some more powerful underlings...

However, the problem was that other than a few little ghosts in the village, he did not seem to know anyone else...

Suddenly.

The woman in ancient costume had a flash of inspiration.

No!

He automatically removed the executive officer from the organization.

Didn't she know someone who should be quite capable?

Although that person might not know her, right?

But...

"Wait a minute!" Just as the players were about to use the blank cards to turn these Dihu Yan into cards and happily hand in the mission for Hei Yu, Ah Hua suddenly stopped them.

"I know you're sending these to Vivian from the Thousand Islands. It wouldn't have mattered if it were before, but now that you're disciples of the Divine Firmament Sect, the sect has its rules. You can't just give these things to outsiders."

"What? This..."

The people from Moon Cutting Sect looked at each other. They didn't know what their boss meant. He gave it to them but didn't want them to give it to him?

"Aiya, are you guys stupid? Although the rules of the sect are dead, we are alive. Can't you guys be more flexible?"

Seeing that he had already given such an obvious hint, these foreign underlings still could not react. Ah Hua felt a little disappointed that he had not expected better from him, and he was even more determined to recruit people.

Thus, she instructed him in an educational manner,

"Didn't I say that the sect's treasures can't be given to outsiders? Then wouldn't it be in line with the rules if you turn that fox-faced witch, Vivian, into one of our own?"

"Ah?"

Before the players could keep up with the woman's thoughts, she had already taken out a piece of paper and a pen from her Cosmos Ring.

With a wave of his pen, he finished writing an "admission notice".

“Alright, this way, Vivian will be our Divine Firmament Sect’s chief disciple. Hey, what are you all still standing there for? Hurry up and send this notification of being sealed into the sect and Di Hu Yan to your senior sister.”

“Remember, when Divine Firmament Sect is outside, we must help each other!”

“Oh, right, right, right. I almost forgot. Remember to send a message to your senior sister. Tell her to come back to the sect to see me after she’s done with the Thousand Islands!”

“Because our Divine Firmament Sect is going to...There’s going to be a big move!”

Chapter 793 - 793: Past and Present Life

Chapter 793: Past and Present Life

In the following week.

The Fallen Abyss, which had been temporarily delayed by Damir, finally arrived. Countless monsters that had been corroded by the Fallen Abyss began to attack the Thousand Islands.

No one from the Thousand Islands would ever forget the first day of their descent.

The blue ocean that they were so proud of was dyed black, and a huge and terrifying whirlpool rolled up from the surface of the sea. Dense dark clouds filled the sky in an instant, and the sun that once shone on the earth could only vaguely seep out the last trace of dim light under the dark clouds.

The changing weather under the influence of the Fallen Abyss Serpent was like a command, but also like the soil that allowed the Fallen Abyss to spread. It allowed the dark creatures that feared the ” sunlight ” to finally no longer hide in dark and damp corners. They could crawl out of their nests to take back and enjoy the land that ” belonged ” to them.

Under the control of the Fallen Abyss ‘will, deep-sea creatures that the people of the Thousand Islands had never seen before were awakened from the deepest part of the Abyssal Sea. They crawled out from the cracks and gathered in the ravines of the deep sea. They were like the army of the sea demons in the ancient legends of the Thousand Islands, with no end in sight.

It turned out that Liao Zixuan's strategy of reducing the dozens of islands in the Thousand Islands to only four or five island chains was correct.

The shrinking of the battle line meant that there was less contact with the enemy. In this way, no matter how many Fallen Abyss creatures there were and how they surrounded them, there was a limit to the number of people they could attack each time.

On the other hand, the Thousand Islands Army, which was formed by the players and the Great Fu Pursuer, only needed to defend these four islands. This greatly relieved the pressure on their defense and prevented them from losing focus.

Moreover, by concentrating their strength and having extra time to prepare, if they only looked at the battle situation in the first week, they were still very optimistic.

The Fallen Abyss's will was completely suppressed by the Thousand Islands 'attack. They were blocked outside the first island chain with Sakuragi Island as the core. Even if some Fallen Abyss creatures managed to land on the island, they would soon be killed by the mobile team on the shore who was on full alert.

Therefore, judging from the current situation, especially the number of casualties, compared to the plot in his previous life, Liao Zixuan felt that it could be described as a difference of heaven and earth.

Although the level of the players was indeed much lower than in his previous life, under Vivian's influence, the players of the Thousand Islands were not fighting alone. Instead, the players of the Thousand Islands and the Fire Domain were gathered. The number of players in his previous life had more than doubled.

Although it was a little inappropriate to say this, the increase in the number of players meant that the inevitable casualties of the soldiers of the Great Fu Court in the battle against the Fallen Abyss were borne by the players.

The native soldiers of the Thousand Islands were dead, but the players could resurrect indefinitely. This was also the biggest reason why the casualties remained extremely low in this week's defensive battle, even though the battle had reached a white-hot point and they were engaged in close combat.

Of course, another factor that couldn't be ignored was the high-end combat power of the Thousand Islands side. Compared to the storyline in his previous life, where the Six Paths Gauze Robe was barely holding on, the high-end combat power of the Thousand Islands side now wasn't as simple as doubling.

There was no need to mention Vivian. The little girl had already gone to the front line. She did not even have to do anything. Just her appearance on the battlefield was the greatest encouragement to the player army. It was not a problem for the combat power to increase by 30%.

Liz's half-brother, Owl of the original eightfold clan, also volunteered. His brother-in-law was a typical example of a person who didn't speak much. One man and one halberd had become the nightmare of the Fallen Abyss creatures. According to the reactions of the players on the forum, almost no matter what time it was, one could see this brother-in-law "uprooting the earth" all over the coastline.

As for the internal situation, when the disaster struck, the external enemies were terrifying, but the internal order was chaotic and even lost. This was also the reason why the Thousand Islands were destroyed in his previous life.

When the gangs ran rampant, the people were in a panic, and the supply chain was cut off. The soldiers at the front line were still fighting with the Fallen Abyss. Perhaps the gangs at the back took advantage of the empty security forces and plundered wantonly, taking the opportunity to accumulate wealth. Then, they drove the supply ships that were originally sent to the front line and could save lives to escape abroad.

However, this time.

The supply chain was under the control of the Zhao Chamber of Commerce. They worked overtime day and night. As the boss, Zhao Jie ate and slept with the workers to ensure that the production capacity was met. In order to ensure that the production capacity was met, Liz personally took charge of the internal management to maintain stability. She passed down orders one after another, allowing the people of Sakuragi Island to quickly break away from their fear of Fallen Abyss. They threw it to the back of their minds and continued to focus on the island's construction.

As for the gangs...

Boss Ke, who was known as the founder of thieves by the players in his previous life, could easily deal with these stinky fish and shrimps in Thousand Islands. In fact, he even took the opportunity to expand the overseas influence of the Treasure Thief Group and started to occupy the space of local gangs in Thousand Islands. This allowed the Treasure Thief Group to take an important first step towards becoming a "international organization."

Sakuragi Island had Lissy in the open and Chris in the dark. In the past few days, Liao Zixuan was obviously more worried about the three pursuers who were very awkward in the plot in his previous life.

Chapter 794 - 794: Past Life and Present Life (2)

Chapter 794: Past Life and Present Life (2)

But unexpectedly.

Apart from the general, the new Shinshiro siblings seemed to be doing a good job, especially the elder brother.

Judging from the stability of the island chain, its governance abilities and methods were probably not much inferior to Liz's.

This made Sakai Risa, the head of the original society, who had originally planned to return from Sakuragi Island, give up. She brought her little secretary, Roko, and stayed on Sakuragi Island. After all, there were many foreigners here, and everyone had a beautiful voice and a pleasant tone. She would give the position of head of the family to the little siblings. To Bella, who was actually a great witch, the official position was just for fun.

Oh, it seemed like another key character who had been very eye-catching at the beginning had faded out of sight after the True Fallen Abyss descended?

That's right. After Damian woke up, Vivian assigned him another important task that he could not refuse. He was to bring the unsealed Water God's Chains back to the Flame Domain and hand them over to the Fire God.

The reason why she came to the Thousand Islands was something that the little girl would never forget, even if she was slightly interrupted by the descent of the Fallen Abyss. However, such a valuable item that had risen to the legendary level could not be transported through the Adventurer's Association. Even if it could, Vivian would not be so careless about such a major event. Moreover, she was now tied up by the Thousand Islands. It seemed that the only person who was suitable and capable of bringing the necklace back to the Fire Domain was Damir.

It was just that this version's son from his previous life was pitiful. It was not easy to get a chance to show off, but in the end, he had gone too far. When he woke up, he had become an errand boy again.

After sorting out the past week's events, the little wolf cub looked at the famous and familiar NPCs from his previous life who were now active in the plot again. He felt like he had returned to his old self. Seeing that all of them were circling around his little girl, and many of them were even kneeling before the little girl's skirt, the little wolf cub felt even more satisfied and full of sense of accomplishment.

He suddenly felt that his way of thinking was a little too narrow. Legendary witches did not necessarily have to walk the path of fear and reverence. They could also walk the path of a dandruff witch who loved both men and women!

Hmm, I've decided. In the future, the goal I'll set for my little girl will be to first capture all the main character NPCs in the various versions that I can name. One by one, I'll capture all of them!

For this grand goal.

As the wolf cub behind the legendary witch, he had to work harder. While everyone else was busy with the Fallen Abyss, he naturally did not idle. The wolf cub had been watching the production of Planet Annihilation.

First, the conclusion.

Ka's performance far exceeded the little wolf cubs 'expectations.

All the materials from Planet Annihilation that were distributed across the five countries were handed over and transported in just three days. Furthermore, the next important thing was that all the materials were doubled in quantity. Some of them, such as the "Dihu Rock", even had three to four times the demand.

Thus, it could be seen how important a powerful network was.

However...

What made the wolf cubs speechless was that the foreign collaborators that Ka had found were indeed fast and efficient, but...It seemed like Yazi, who was a little crazy?

The White Ghost of Winter was still fine. It was just concerned about the blank cards and liked the blueprints. It requested to participate in the production of the Annihilation Star, but the remaining two countries...

[I hope that the fox-faced witch can bestow me with a personal item. Anything is fine. I don't need anything expensive, but the closer it is to me and the longer I use it, the better!]

The little wolf cub was speechless.

Stick your head!

Fortunately, Green Maple's collaborator," My Soul," was a female player. If it were a male player, the wolf cub would have probably gone to issue a bounty.

Moreover, if there really was such a thing, wouldn't he have to keep it for himself? Would outsiders have a share?

Compared to the previous perverted statement, the next one was a little... He was retarded.

[Today, you are specially permitted to enter the Divine Firmament and return to the sect after leaving the Thousand Islands. If you have any difficulties, feel free to speak. The disciples of the Divine Firmament are extremely sharp!]

The little wolf cub was speechless.

Other than this letter, there was also a small advertisement in the letter!

The small advertisement here was not a metaphor. It was a real small advertisement.

[Exalted Immortal Chiyuan has boundless magical power. I'm the only one in the world. If you join my Shenxiao, you won't have to worry about food and drink!]

[Lu Wen, where are the immortals? The Shepherd Boy points to the Divine Firmament Sect.]

[Mighty Divine Firmament Sect, come at me if you dare!]

[I'm born with talent. Everyone in Shenxiao is a talent.]

There was also a small note that looked like an explanation in these small advertisements.

(Note: Senior Sister Wei Wei, the sect master heard that you have an island and wants you to put up more of our sect's recruitment flyers on the island to increase our popularity. If you are willing to join, Senior Sister Wei Wei can accept them on your behalf.)

After reading it.

Whoosh!

The expressionless little wolf cub raised flames from its claws and burned the small advertisements to ashes.

Put an end to small advertisements and start with me.

Sigh.

The wolf cub sighed.

Was this the so-called price? It seemed like they were being targeted by a strange person. If they were to go to Guili in the future, he had to remind Vivian to stay away from this so-called Divine Cloud Sect.

Even though he was complaining, the little Wolf cubs were still unwilling to give up on their connection with these foreign players.

Chapter 795 - 795: Past and Present Life (3)

Chapter 795: Past and Present Life (3)

After all, this mission had already proven their ability. If the wolf cubs wanted to develop these foreign players into their own players, they would go offline directly. This way, if they needed to work internationally in the future, they would have to go through Ka as a middleman.

Since she was offline, communication methods became a big problem. Although Vivian had a player interface, she still could not add friends or private messages with players.

Since he couldn't solve it through the system, he could only find a realistic solution. Thinking of this, the little wolf cub took out a dark green egg from his inventory space.

The offspring of the snake that was born in this egg could even travel through time, let alone space. By then, it should not be a problem for the snake to organize a chat group in another space similar to the "Ji Xing Hui" with its ability. Then, he could sit firmly as the group leader with the identity of Bai. Perfect.

Now, everything was ready. The only thing left before the completion of Planet Annihilation was the Forbidden Blood.

With sufficient materials and with the help of White Spectre's Mechanic, Ka successfully built two Annihilation Stars, which meant that they needed two portions of forbidden monster blood.

One of the wolf cubs was naturally obliged, but the second one...

He looked at the little sparrow that was flying around excitedly around the snake egg he had taken out.

"Roar!" (Xinyan, have you gotten fatter recently?)

"Hah! Chirp!"

The little sparrow flew halfway around the egg, but stopped abruptly because of the wolf cub's words. She landed on the ground angrily, then flapped her chubby wings and stuck out her round belly, severely reprimanding the wolf cub and spitting blood at the bird.

However, in reality, everyone could see the fear and panic in the little sparrow's eyes. As the reputation of the fox-faced witch rose, the sparrows around her naturally rose as well. They were like fish in water among the players, enjoying themselves as they were crazily fed. With Xinyan's willpower, he naturally did not reject anyone. As time passed...

Alright then, the little wolf cub knew that it was not a problem of eating too much. It was just that as a phoenix, after Xin Yan was reborn from the ashes, his body size had returned to its peak over time.

However, Xin Yan himself did not know that the wolf cub had summoned an ordinary sparrow with its claws. When compared to Xin Yan, Xin Yan was visibly fatter than the other party by more than a size.

"Ji... Chirp..."

As expected, Xinyan was even more anxious now. Even his confidence in quibbling was much weaker now. At this moment, if the wolf cub were to suggest for Xinyan to donate a little blood, wouldn't his body become thinner once the blood was donated?

However, the little sparrow was not a fool. It still had some doubts, mainly because it was a little afraid of drawing blood. Therefore, the wolf cub had no choice but to use its trump card.

He pointed at the snake egg with his little paw. He meant that as long as Xinyan was willing to donate blood, he would make the decision to cook this snake egg that she had been coveting for a long time after the descent of the Fallen Abyss was over. He would cook it personally and cook it for her to eat to nourish her body! Is this alright?

"Chirp chirp!" Upon hearing this, the little sparrow's eyes immediately shone brightly. She fiercely swallowed her saliva at the snake egg, almost leaving saliva at the corner of her mouth.

Snakes and birds were natural enemies. Perhaps this was why the Snake-Snake's egg was so attractive to Xin Yan.

Therefore, in order to eat the snake egg custard...

"Ji!"

The little sparrow gritted its teeth and kicked its leg. It closed its eyes and stretched out its wings. It seemed to be saying, 'Come on, whip me as you wish!' Anyway, as a phoenix, her recovery ability was extremely strong. In addition, she had the snake egg custard to supplement her...

Snake Egg Custard...Snake Egg Custard...Hey... Hehe...

Chapter 796 - 796: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (1)

Chapter 796: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (1)

"Madam! The lady over there!"

It was a small island very close to the battle line. Logically speaking, the residents on the island should have all evacuated. It was an empty island, but a surveillance ship of the three courtiers still discovered the figure of a civilian from afar.

Therefore, the scout ship that was supposed to be on patrol duty immediately changed its course and headed toward the shore of the island.

After reaching the shore, an angry warrior quickly got off the boat and ran towards the figure of the civilian on the shore while shouting. In such a dangerous place, he still stood so brazenly by the sea. He did not want to live anymore! ?

However, as the distance between them grew closer, the warrior gradually stopped shouting and slowed down his pace when he could clearly see the woman's clothes and appearance. In the end, he even approached the woman cautiously.

No, it should be this person who appeared in front of the foreign witch on the shore of the deserted island.

The lady in front of him was wearing a very traditional Thousand Islands Witch costume, but she had a foreigner's face. He had seen such witches before. The most famous one was the fox-faced witch, Lady Vivian from the Fire Domain.

But unlike Vivian, the foreign witch gave the warrior a strong sense of discord.

With her bright red lips, beautiful eyeliner, and the beautiful red eyes that seemed to be able to capture one's soul, she emitted a beautiful aura from head to toe, which was incompatible with the witch dress that represented holiness and solemnity.

Not to mention the other party's exaggerated voluptuous figure. Although she had a very slender waist, she could wear the wide witch's dress with a full feeling. The warrior did not dare to look at her directly, afraid that it would be a sin to look at her too much. He lowered his head and stared at the ground in panic, stuttering as he spoke.

"You... Hello, may I know who you are? Ah, no! Miss Witch, no matter who you are, this area is too dangerous. Please leave the beach immediately and find a hidden place to hide!"

When a life was at stake, the samurai quickly shook his head and stopped letting his thoughts run wild. He said seriously,

"We will report the coordinates of your location later, and the rescue team will come to pick you up very soon. This is a guide, keep it well. With this, you don't have to come out of your hiding place, and the rescue team will be able to find you!"

As he spoke, the samurai skillfully took out a guard from his waist pocket and handed it to the foreign witch in front of him.

"Guiding object?" The foreign witch didn't seem to care too much about the samurai's warning of "it's very dangerous here". Instead, she was very interested in this samurai.

After she took it, she played with it in her hand a few times, then tilted her head and asked the samurai,

"Interesting... Could it be that this little thing was made by you three?"

"Of course! It was developed by the new head of our society, Shen Dai. It has greatly improved the efficiency of our rescue... No! Now is not the time to talk about this. The third wave of the critical battle is about to begin. The Fallen Abyss monsters will become even more violent."

As the warrior spoke anxiously, the foreign witch nodded in response while mumbling to herself.

"Tsk, looks like the Three Executors have another rookie besides that Little Heavenly Hound. Not bad, not bad..."

Finally, she turned her attention back to the samurai and said with a smile,

“Hello, sir. I haven’t introduced myself yet. My name is Louise Dracula. I’m an apprentice witch from Green Maple. I’m preparing to go to the Yae Shrine, so you don’t have to keep calling me Miss Witch. Just call me Louise.”

“I... My name is Ichiro.”

” Alright, Mr. Ichiro. To tell you the truth, I sprained my ankle just now and couldn’t move vigorously. Mr. Kindness Ichiro, who specially drove the reconnaissance ship here for a civilian, surely couldn’t bear to see a weak woman with limited mobility like me waiting for the rescue fleet alone on the island, right?”

Louise blinked her long lashes, her blood-gemstone-like eyes seemed to be sparkling.

“Then, then...” The warrior’s face turned red, and his blood was flowing out of his body.

“Can I stay on your ship first?” Louise said with a smile.

Then, she quickly said, “Don’t worry, just continue with your mission. Don’t worry about me. After the mission is over, I’ll follow you back to a safe place. This way, we can save the rescue fleet for those who are in a more urgent situation. What do you think, Ichiro?”

“Then... Fine!”

When Ichiro led Louise back to the reconnaissance ship in a daze, he saw the surprised looks of his subordinates around him. Ichiro then came back to his senses. What...what had he done?

They were supposed to go on a dangerous patrol mission, how could they bring outsiders along!

However, the scout ship had already set sail and left the island. They couldn’t possibly let the others go back now, so Ichiro had no choice but to accept the fact that Louise had boarded the ship.

Louise, on the other hand, was as if nothing had happened. She had appeared at the bow of the reconnaissance ship in a moment of carelessness. This frightened Ichiro so much that he quickly ran over to ask Louise to stay in the safe cabin obediently and not come out.

Chapter 797 - 797: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (1)

Chapter 797: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (1)

But...

"Ichiro-san, you just said that the third wave of the crucial battle is about to begin. What do you mean?"

Louise looked at the fierce battle on the sea in the distance. As if she had expected it, she changed the topic in advance and diverted Ichiro, who was running over.

The samurai who was clearly here to chase her away, for some reason, naturally forgot their original purpose and started chatting with Louise.

"According to the information we received, the Fallen Abyss will descend in five waves, and each wave will have a Commander-tier monster. As long as we defeat the leader, we can quell this wave of monster attacks, so we call it the key battle."

"According to the information we received from the front line, we have already discovered a huge Demon Crab swimming towards the defense line. Judging from its size, it should be the leader of the third wave. Our current mission is to follow that Demon King Demon from afar and find out its real-time movements."

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh Louise nodded.

Then, she quickly changed her tone and asked curiously,

"That's clearly such a dangerous mission, but I think you guys... Why didn't he look scared? And since it's the third wave now, did you survive the first two waves of Fallen Abyss?"

After Louise's words, a proud expression appeared on Ichiro's face.

"Of course!"

"Madam Louise, you don't know this, but we were indeed very afraid back then, especially when the foreigners brought back the images of the Fallen Abyss. That was the first time we saw those terrifying monsters. At that time, we were not only afraid, but the entire Thousand Islands could be said to have fallen into despair."

“But...” Ichiro’s tone suddenly changed.

” But later, when the Flame Field’s reinforcements arrived, everything was different. The vast fleet brought resources and supplies, and there was even a Great Mage. Although I wasn’t there, I heard from my colleagues that the Fallen Abyss Piranhas surrounded the Flame Field’s fleet at that time. In the face of extreme danger, that Great Mage didn’t panic.”

” He wore a crown, his robe fluttered in the wind, and he raised his wand high. Under his magic, countless huge fireballs rolled down from a thousand meters in the sky. Even the sky changed color, let alone the mere piranhas.”

“After this battle, not only did we get rid of the first wave of Fallen Abyss ‘attack, but we also gained some precious time to breathe. More importantly, the confidence of the people of the Thousand Islands has increased greatly!”

From Ichiro’s excited words, it was not difficult to see the regret on his face. He regretted not being able to see the Great Wizard with his own eyes.

Louise, who was beside him, was also listening with great interest. She even nodded and analyzed,

“Yes... Although I suspected that it was an exaggeration, if all of this was true, then it would probably be a Super Spell, and it was a Super Spell that had been cast several times in a row. Tsk tsk...When he woke up, had that little bookworm of the Flame Domain also grown to such a level? Fire God’s judgment is indeed not bad.”

“However...”

“Mr. Ichiro, I have another question. I remember that although the Thousand Islands and the Flame Domain are very close, the relationship between the two countries shouldn’t be that good, right?”

Faced with Louise’s curiosity, Ichiro was even more delighted because of the name that was about to appear.

“That’s right. That’s why we have to mention a very important person. That’s our fox-faced witch, our Lady Vivian!”

“Wei...Vivian? The fox-faced witch?” Louise showed a rare look of surprise.

Since there was a very strong word like ” vixen,” the only person that Louise could think of was the heir of the little fox of the Yae Shrine.

But...

“Wait a minute, Mr. Ichiro, Vivian...This wasn't a Thousand Islands name, was it? Why did he sound like he was from the Yan Domain?”

This was what surprised Louise.

After all, she was familiar with the little fox from back then. She also knew her stubborn and picky personality. She could not tolerate any evil thoughts in her eyes. Moreover, she valued tradition very much. She must have a sincere heart for the Thousand Islands.

But now, he had chosen a foreigner to entrust the Yae Shrine to him. This could only prove that the little fox spirit could not find a reason to reject this foreigner, whether it was his character or ability.

Interesting...

It had been a long time since Louise had felt a sense of freshness. It was her first time going out after taking a nap for decades, and she ended up meeting such an interesting person and thing...

It was the right decision to come to the Thousand Islands this time.

Just as Louise was sighing in her heart, the next second, she heard even more shocking news from Ichiro.

“That's right, Lady Vivian was born in the Flame Field, and she has deep connections in the Flame Field! According to the rumors, when the Three Executors asked for help from the Fire Domain earlier, the Fire Domain was very cold. However, when Vivian came forward and issued a request through the unofficial Adventurers Association, the Fire God Cult, the nobles, and the Knights of the Fire Domain came out in full force!”

“Especially that Transcendent Great Mage I mentioned earlier. In order to reach the Thousand Islands earlier, he used wind magic to speed up the fleet almost the entire time! The one-week voyage was shortened to less than three days. When we arrived, we really met our Lady Vivian. According to the description of the colleagues on the ship, that arrogant archmage was in front of our Lady Fox-faced Witch...”

Chapter 798 - 798: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (1)

Chapter 798: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (1)

When Ichiro said this, he subconsciously looked around to see if there was anyone around. Then, he leaned closer and whispered,”

“But you’ve been asking me about my well-being and trying to please me! He didn’t look like an archbishop at all! He looks like an admirer!”

The pursuer...

After hearing the samurai’s words, Louise covered her mouth like a big melon.

That little nerd from the Flame Domain who he had identified as a pure blockhead, who could still calmly read books even when thrown into a group of little lolis and would never be enlightened in his life, actually had a little girl who could move that blockhead.

No, from the description of the samurai painting, this was more than just being moved. Wasn’t this pure...He was just a bootlicker!

Puchi!

Louise couldn’t help but laugh.

She was even more excited than Vivian, who was a foreigner, to be chosen by the Yae Shrine.

After all, women loved gossip no matter how old they were.

“Eh? Really? How could Vivian be so charming?”

“Isn’t that so? Moreover, the charm of our fox-faced witch isn’t limited to the opposite sex. I’ve already heard that there’s a young Countess who’s also a good friend of the witch. Their relationship isn’t ordinary.”

“Countess...Could it be...” Louise was deep in thought.

If she remembered correctly, there were only three Earls in the Flame Domain, and the only one who had a daughter as the heir should be...

She was...Is he also in the Thousand Islands?

And he’s even in contact with the heir chosen by Little Fox?

Aiya, this trip to the Thousand Islands was really full of surprises.

Louise's original plan was to take Owl away so that he wouldn't be involved in the destruction of the Thousand Islands. But now, it seemed that the situation at the Thousand Islands was much better and more interesting than he had imagined.

"By the way, Mr. Ichiro, how do you know Vivian so well? Even if she wasn't there, you could still inquire about her in such detail. It feels like you pay special attention to her?"

"Cough, then...That was just because...Ah, yes, it's all because of my friend. My friend was a notorious supervisor on the Astorokis. After being redeemed by Vivian, not only did he find his original heart, but he also broke through the bottleneck and was promoted. From then on, he became a fanatic fan of Vivian."

"He, sigh, he kept telling me about Vivian the moment we met. I heard all this from him. I didn't join the Fox Witch fan club, nor did I buy any posters of Lady Vivian, nor did I urge him to write more light novels about the Fox Witch. It's all because of my friend, my friend..."

"Actually, I've talked about him every time. He's just a nobody, yet he's worthy of liking Lady Vivian. He even dreams of contributing his strength so that Vivian can remember his name. He's not afraid of being laughed at by others, but this friend of mine just doesn't listen. Sigh..."

Ichiro's voice became increasingly low, and a lonely expression appeared on his face.

On the other side.

"I see." Louise nodded in understanding.

Suddenly, a smile appeared on her face, and her beautiful red eyes stared at the lost warrior in front of her.

Louise raised a white finger and waved it in front of Ichiro. She smiled and said,"

"But Mr. Ichiro, I don't think that your friend is the problem. Instead, it's you. Everyone has the right to pursue beauty. It doesn't matter if you're a Transcendent Great Mage or a captain of a small patrol ship. Besides..."

A look of recollection flashed across Louise's eyes. She said seriously,"

"Mr. Ichiro, don't think that ordinary people don't have power. I've seen many times that even mortals can do things that even gods can't do. Since they can do it, you can do it too. Mr. Ichiro, be confident! Liking others was never a shameful thing. Instead, it was precisely because of this kind of emotion that gave mortals the strength to do those things that were impossible in the eyes of outsiders."

“Really, really! Mortals could really do it too...I understand now! Ms. Louise, you’re the first to confirm my... Cough, I’m sure my friend will. I’ll definitely pass on these words to him and make him confident. I’ll thank you on behalf of my friend!”

Sigh...

Louise held her forehead helplessly.

“I’m calling you.”

“Ichiro-san, look at the large crab shell that’s half-exposed over there. Is it the leader monster of the third wave that you mentioned earlier?”

Chapter 799 - 799: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (2)

Chapter 799: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (2)

Ichiro looked in the direction Louise was pointing at and suddenly woke up from his idle chatter.

It turned out that while they were chatting, the reconnaissance ship had already sailed to the Fallen Abyss waters outside the defense line. This made Ichiro, who had come back to his senses, break out in a cold sweat. He was extremely glad that he did not encounter any monsters along the way.

Not far away from them, there was a huge dark brown crab shell covered in moss and unknown mud. It was so large that if one did not look carefully from afar, they might mistake it for a floating island.

Around their reconnaissance ship, many similar ships of the Sangha appeared one after another. Their mission was obviously the same as Ichiro’s. They were responsible for tracking the Demon King Crab’s movements and determining its final landing point according to its route. Then, they could gather their men in advance, either to intercept it or to set up traps at the destination.

There were a large number of Fallen Abyss creatures following the King Crab. Several reconnaissance ships had been forced to pull away from the monsters, or they had already fought with the monsters.

Only Ichiro Soguryo led the scout ship as if it was invisible. Not a single Fallen Abyss monster came to interfere.

Such a great opportunity made Ichiro nervous and excited. He had even forgotten that Louise was beside him. He was fully focused on controlling the reconnaissance ship to tail behind the Demon King Crab and constantly ordered his crew to report the information.

Finally...

"Phew!" Ichiro suddenly let out a long breath, and his sweaty hand on the control stick was finally put down.

The shadow of an island appeared in front of them. If they walked any further, they would enter the shallow water. This island, which was similar to a defense line, was obviously the target of the Demon King Crab.

At this point, the mission of these reconnaissance ships was completed. Next, it was up to...

Whoosh!

A thunderous sound rang out, followed by a purple light shooting out from the island at lightning speed. In the blink of an eye, it arrived in front of the Fallen Abyss creatures led by the Demon King Crab.

It was only now that he could vaguely see that it was not a real bolt of lightning, but an arrow wrapped in lightning.

Boom!

The arrow landed precisely at the center of the monster horde and exploded. Violent lightning erupted from the arrow in an instant, as if it had really been struck by lightning.

Countless Fallen Abyss creatures that were caught off guard did not even have time to react before they were heavily injured and sent flying. They lost their ability to move, and the weaker ones were directly annihilated by the purple light of the lightning.

"Look, Madam Louise, it's Lord Luo Sha!"

Ichiro, who had anchored the reconnaissance ship on the surface of the sea to watch the battle, could not help but clap his hands and cheer in excitement.

On the other side, Louise, who was at the bow of the ship, had already set her sights on the figure of a purple-haired, cold female general on the opposite island.

“Release the arrows!” The Six Paths Gauze Robe shouted and gave the order.

On the shore, rows of archers who had been waiting for a long time and were ready to go fired their arrows simultaneously. Before the Fallen Abyss army led by the Demon King Crab landed on the shore, they first launched a round of arrow rain to weaken it.

However, weakening was just weakening. If one wanted to stop the Fallen Abyss monsters, close combat was the inevitable main battlefield.

When the vanguard monsters of the Fallen Abyss army were about to climb ashore under the rain of arrows, the Six Paths Robe ordered the archers to retreat, and then...

” Brother Meng, let’s get to work!”

“My experience bar is only a little bit away from level 20. I won’t go offline until I level up today!”

“Get up! Yesterday, I just got a top-grade double-explosive weapon. Today, no one can stop me from killing in all directions! Watch my performance!”

“Just this? My evaluation isn’t as good as Brother Kai’s all-defense assassin. Do you know what tanking is? What’s so scary about being an assassin?”

” Let’s earn activity points! Let’s go!”

The native soldiers of the Great Fu Ceremony tacitly retreated. Countless players, like a tide, began to shout excitedly and rush out from all directions to take over the main battlefield.

For a moment, all kinds of skills were flying, and all kinds of lights and shadows flashed on the chaotic battlefield.

An endless stream of Fallen Abyss creatures attacked from the shore in an attempt to occupy the coastline, but every attack was pushed back by the player army that had gathered in advance.

The soldiers of the Great Fu Court did not stay idle either. They climbed onto the various fortifications that had been built in advance and continued to provide fire support from afar.

From the looks of it, the Fallen Abyss army did not have the upper hand at all. They were even on the verge of being pushed back into the sea by the player army. If this continued, it was only a matter of time before they forced the other party back.

“Ms. Louise, how is it? Now you know why we’re not afraid!” Ichiro watched the battle on the island’s shore and felt his blood boil. He wished he could join the battle and fight the monsters.

However, Louise’s focus was on the large number of outlanders on the battlefield.

“Mr. Ichiro, I’m very curious. How did you order and gather so many foreigners?”

“Us? No, no, no, Madam Louise, you overestimate us. The Three Pursuers don’t have this ability. When the outlanders first arrived, the Three Pursuers chased them to Sakuragi Island in fear and rejection. It wasn’t until the appearance of the fox-faced witch that the outlanders were able to gain a firm foothold on Sakuragi Island. Then, under the leadership of the fox-faced witch, they actually forcefully removed the curse of the Thousand Islands ‘Disaster Island that had been recognized for hundreds of years!’”

Chapter 800 - 800: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (2)

Chapter 800: The Shocked Progenitor Vampire (2)

” So these foreigners are Lady Vivian’s troops, and they only listen to the Fox-faced Witch. They are only temporarily lent to us. After the disaster is over, we will have to return Sakuragi Island.”

Seeing the warrior’s proud expression, Louise couldn’t help but hold her forehead and ask,”

“... Ichiro-san, do you still remember that you’re Sanbukuro’s man?”

“Of course!”

“Alright then.”

At the same time, on the other side.

It was also in an open area that could overlook the entire battlefield.

The handsome blond foreign youth and a petite white haired loli dressed in Lorita were also watching the situation below.

Seeing that the players were evenly matched with the monsters of the Abyss, the white-haired loli couldn't help but say,

" Doctor, I think we have to reevaluate the strategic value of the outlanders. From their current performance, if we can build an outlander army of this scale..."

" Yes, indeed. It's a good idea, but you also mentioned the scale. That's the key point. How can we, Winter, be like that little girl? How can we make such a large number of outlanders highly obedient and form a cohesion to serve the Ice Queen? That's the next topic we need to study."

"Yes, Doctor."

Looking at the serious expression on the white-haired loli's face, the golden-haired young man waved his hand in satisfaction.

"Well, it's the first time I've seen a foreigner go from quantitative to qualitative. I didn't come here in vain. Have you collected the data records?"

"Whether it's the Fallen Abyss or the outlanders, I've already collected them, but... According to the current analysis of the Thousand Islands side's combat power, it's very likely that we'll be unable to record the complete data of the Fallen Abyss leader like the last wave."

" Yes, the combat power of the top executives of Thousand Islands is indeed beyond my imagination. The giant crocodile from before didn't even last a minute against that little girl." "The blonde youth shook his head regretfully.

However, when he turned his gaze back to the battle, the golden-haired youth narrowed his eyes and smiled.

"However, you can rest assured this time around. This large crab is not ordinary. As long as there are no major accidents...We definitely have plenty of time to collect the data we want."

As the golden-haired young man spoke, the battle below began to change subtly. The Demon King Crab, which had been motionless in the shallow water, finally moved.

Its huge body occupied almost half of the main battlefield on the shore. The players tried to throw skills at the Demon King Crab, but the results were not satisfactory. They could not stop the land tank from advancing, so they were forced to retreat.

Once the player army was forced to retreat by the Demon King Crab, the gap that was left was immediately filled by the Fallen Abyss Creatures following behind the Demon King Crab. If this continued, even though the Demon King Crab carried a heavy shell and its movement speed was slow, if they could not stop its advance, the defense line would fall sooner or later.

Some of the players who were too eager to fight did not retreat in time. When they wanted to retreat after they had used up their skills and supplies, they found themselves surrounded by the creatures of the Fallen Abyss.

The situation was even more dangerous. They were stuck in the path of the Demon King Crab. The two pairs of huge pincers were raised high and were about to swing down. With the small bodies of the players, it was impossible to block this attack from the BOSS...

Shua!

A blood-red spear was thrown from the back of the battlefield, and it directly knocked away one of the Demon King Crab's huge claws. Following closely behind the blood-red spear was the figure of a young man.

He quickly tightened his grip on the blood spear and gave up the good opportunity to expose his left pincer. Instead, he chose to defend. He used the blood spear to block the right pincer of the Demon King Crab.

And the reason why he chose to do so was...

"You guys, leave quickly." The young man blocked the crab and fought with it while he turned his face to the side and urged the players with a cold tone.

Although his tone was cold, the players felt warm in their hearts.

"Lord Owl has come to save me. I am indeed in his heart. Sob, sob, sob..."

"Don't stay in this barbershop anymore, hurry up and leave!"

After the players retreated quickly and left the Demon King Crab's attack range and returned to the safe zone, Owl made a clever move and stopped fighting the two Demon King Crab's huge claws. He tapped the tip of his toes and held his Blood Spear to pull away from them and confront them.

It was not until this point that Ichiro, who was watching the battle from the reconnaissance ship on the surface of the sea, wiped the sweat off his forehead and let out a long sigh.

"Hu! It was really too dangerous just now. Fortunately, Lord Owl arrived in time! Madam Louise, the one holding the blood spear is Lord Owl, one of the fox-faced witch's subordinates. He also belongs to Sakuragi Island and is extremely powerful!"

Ichiro was still introducing the youth to Louise. However, Louise was already watching Bloodspear's figure, and her lips curled into a playful smile.

"Aiyaya, how long has it been since I last saw him? Owl, this child, is actually able to use his long spear, which has a killing ability, to defend and no longer persist in attacking...Tsk tsk, this is quite a big improvement. No wonder I thought the breathing technique used by these foreigners in battle was a little familiar. Hmm, now I have an answer."

Louise nodded thoughtfully as she looked at Owl's figure participating in the battle. She was like a judge commenting to herself.

"If I didn't see it with my own eyes, I really couldn't imagine it. The child who had always fought alone and rejected people thousands of miles away could actually fight with others. He even taught so many foreigners who had comprehended the Breath of Blood, and even..." And you're willing to become someone else's subordinate?"

Louise sighed as she spoke, and a sense of defeat appeared on her face.

"So... 'Even I, his mother, can't do anything about this problematic kid. But after coming to the Thousand Islands for less than a month, his personality has improved a lot. Hiss! Was that Vivian really that powerful? In comparison, wouldn't I be a failure as a mother?"

But very quickly.

The worry on the beautiful woman's face turned into excitement as she hammered her palm.

"Eh, that's not right. In that case, I won't throw every child to that little girl in the future. Then, I won't have to worry about anything in the future? He could sleep peacefully in the coffin? Well... This method is good!

"What is it? Madam Louise, what did you say?" Ichiro didn't know if there was something wrong with his hearing, but it was always good and bad.

"No, no, no. I'm just complaining a little. Speaking of which, Ichiro, what do you think of the current situation?"

"With Lord Owl and Lord Luo Sha here, no matter how you look at it, we will definitely win, right?"Ichiro answered without hesitation.

This was indeed the case.

The Demon King Crab, which had been attacking the players with its pincers, was not as calm when facing Owl and Six Paths Robe's attacks. This was because if the Demon

King Crab wanted to move, it was bound to expose parts that were not protected by its outer shell. Owl and Six Paths Robe were able to accurately seize this opportunity every time and hit the Demon King Crab's vulnerable parts.

After only a few rounds, the Demon King Crab's body was covered in wounds, and its aura was half as weak as before. If they worked harder, it would not be a problem to eliminate this wave leader.

The situation of the last wave of the giant crocodile was almost exactly the same as the current one, but it was even faster because Vivian had personally made a move. This time, although Vivian did not appear for some reason, since there was a successful precedent, Ichiro and the players of the Thousand Islands side and the three judges on the battlefield were full of confidence.

However...

Louise shook her head and said, "Mr. Ichiro, I don't think this monster leader is that simple. I suggest that you inform the three officers as soon as possible and prepare more supplies. You have to be prepared to fight a long battle with this big crab here."

But Ichiro did not take Louise's advice seriously.

"Prolonged war? " Don't worry, Madam Louise. In my opinion, this Devil King Crab won't be able to hold on for another fifteen minutes at most."Ichiro said with absolute certainty.

" Then, shall we make a bet? Mr. Ichiro, there's no need for a quarter of an hour. If you can't deal with this Devil King Crab within two hours, you'll have to obediently do as I say, and then, um... Also, give me your most treasured set of drawings, posters, and light novels about the fox-faced witch!"Louise's eyes sparkled at the end of her sentence.

"Of course, it's a bet. Although I don't think I will lose, if your Thousand Islands can really turn this big crab into a braised crab within two hours, then I will...Satisfy Ichiro-san's wish!"