

I Help A NPC Become The Legendary Witch

Chapter 811 - 811: Mother and Daughter's Conversation (Part 2)

Chapter 811: Mother and Daughter's Conversation (Part 2)

" But I feel that, with your prideful personality, you wouldn't allow yourself to become someone else's weakness, or find yourself powerless when your loved one is in trouble, would you?"

Louise said as she left the desk and went to the window where Liz had been standing.

"You might think that I am exaggerating. You might think that although your strength is not as fast as your friends, it is not that much weaker. After all, you should know that your bloodline is at the ancestor level and has unlimited potential. Oh, although you might not like it..."

" However, I still have to tell you regretfully, Liz, that you are wrong. For others, it is true that you have the capital to be at ease just by relying on this bloodline. However, for them, for that man and beast...By the way, you've also seen the victory report from the front line, right?"

As she spoke, the lady cast her gaze onto the street below. Among the joyous crowd, she cast her gaze onto the poster with the fox-faced witch and the Demon Crab King's corpse printed on it.

" I was there at that time. It was because of this that I saw that unbelievable scene. After that little girl killed the Demon King Crab, I could clearly feel her strength increase. In other words, I now suspect that she can absorb strength from the corpses she killed with her own hands."

At this point, Liz finally stopped writing and turned around to look at the noblewoman with a frown.

"What do you mean?"

" Oh, don't get me wrong. I'm not saying that she used any evil magic. I can tell that clearly. Even if it's evil magic, to absorb power from a corpse, you have to at least prepare a ritual. It's impossible for her to advance almost at the same time as the Demon King Crab falls. Even though I've traveled the continent many times, I've only seen such a scene once. This time was recently. To be precise, it was in the past two or three months because that was...”

Louise put down her hand that was pushing the curtains open and turned to look at the girl.

“That was when the outlanders first arrived.”She said word by word.

Hearing this, Liz smiled instead.

“Oh, so you’re saying all this just to tell me that Vivian is actually a foreigner?”

” I didn’t say that. She’s a person of this world, just like you and me. That’s absolutely true, but I suspect that she has a special ability similar to that of a foreigner. She can increase her strength rapidly without any bottlenecks through killing.”

“However, after my investigation, I can confirm that there is an upper limit for foreigners. Up until now, there has never been a foreigner who can reach tier 4. They are all stuck at the early stages of tier 3 without exception. However, that little girl has already advanced to tier 5 on today’s battlefield.”

“As for Liz, think about it carefully. When did you meet her? What kind of strength was she at that time?”

Although Lissy was trying her best to control her facial expression, she was still very calm.

But when she heard the news that Vivian had reached the fifth step, her pupils constricted.

When they first met in the Fire Domain, Vivian was indeed very strong. After all, she could hold off the Fallen Abyss army alone. However, at that time, the little girl was only at tier 3.

However, it had only been a short time, and Vivian was already...He had advanced two levels in a row?

As Liz, who was also working hard on her cultivation in secret, how could she not know how unbelievable this was?

In comparison, he, who had awakened his bloodline in the Flame Domain and successfully reached Rank-3, had barely touched the threshold of Rank-4.

As for upgrading from tier 4 to tier 5...Liz felt that she had to use years as a unit of measurement.

“Now you understand how terrifying your friend is. The forbidden demon beside her, which is also your lover, the little wolf cub, seems to have the same ability. Otherwise...”

” A forbidden monster that has entered the quasi-mature stage of being born less than half a year ago. It can even suppress its breakthrough and deceive the ‘rules’ on its own...Tsk tsk!”

Louise smacked her lips. Even she didn’t know how to describe it.

” Fortunately, he can only deceive the ‘rules’ but can’t ignore the ‘rules.’ He still needs to ‘break through.’ Otherwise, I wouldn’t have come to look for you. We can just witness history together.”

“Oh, right, right, right! “I almost forgot about your other friend. When I walked into the mansion, I was almost discovered by her. It was really close at that time. Who would have thought that there would be a Tier 5 monster that could coexist with the will of Fallen Abyss?”

It was Shirley.

Liz, Liz immediately realized who she was referring to.

That fellow...

So he had been secretly staying in the mansion to protect her?

The young girl clenched her fists, which were hidden in her sleeves.

The reason why Xue Li did this was probably because of the previous example.

Previously, in the cabin of the ship, Shirley had shown her the corpses of the Blood Breed men of sacrifice who had come after her. At that time, Shirley had stopped them in advance, but she had no idea.

At that time, Xue Li had said that she was worried that there would be a second and third wave, and she had told him to be more careful. This might be the reason why Xue Li had always stayed in the mansion.

“In short, Liz, you’ve seen your friends around you. They’re all more abnormal than the last. Even I’m a little envious of you. If it were back then, my friends would have...”
Louise’s face revealed a few traces of desolation, but it was barely noticeable and almost disappeared in an instant.

Chapter 812 - 812: Mother and Daughter's Conversation (3)

Chapter 812: Mother and Daughter's Conversation (3)

"Well, forget it. It's precisely because I've experienced something similar that I can understand what it's like to be surpassed by a friend and see the other party getting further and further away from you."

"I've said everything I need to say. Liz, if you want to catch up to your friends and not be left behind, you only have one choice. That is to come home with me and learn how to truly stimulate the potential in your bloodline. You can comprehend the powerful secret techniques in your inheritance and accept my nurturing."

"Yes... In less than half a year. I can't guarantee that I'll surpass your friends, but at least I think it shouldn't be a problem to catch up. After all, although your mother wasn't a good mother, she was one of the top perverts. Although she's old now and doesn't have the elegance of her youth, it should be easy to raise a little pervert!"

"By the way, although I've always said that your friends are very abnormal, even if they are compared to your mother when she was young, I think they are still a little lacking in the degree of abnormality and madness."

Louise puffed out her chest and proudly compared the words "pervert" and "crazy" with two fingers.

They had talked for so long.

The lady yawned tiredly.

"Sigh, after I grew up, I really liked to talk. If it were me in the past, I would have used my hands instead of my mouth." Louise shook her head as if she was reflecting on herself.

"Let's call it a day. Because of a bet, I'll probably stay in the Thousand Islands for a while longer. So, I don't need you to give me an answer right now. As long as you change your mind before the Fallen Abyss comes to an end, you can contact me anytime through this drop of blood."

Louise waved her hand, and a translucent red crystal floated in front of Liz's desk.

After that, the noblewoman turned around and left in the direction of the door. She turned her back and waved at Liz. Louise's last words echoed in the girl's ears.

"Everyone has the right to choose their own path, and they also have the responsibility to bear the consequences. At this critical juncture in life, I still hope that you can trust your mother once. After all, in an ancient saying of Guili, it is... Eh, how did it come about? Oh right! It was called 'after this village, there won't be this shop'."

Louise opened the door and walked out. Her figure disappeared at the end of the corridor.

However, five to six seconds later.

Creak...

The door of Liz's room was opened a little, and Louise's head popped out. Looking at the girl who was caught off guard, the noblewoman stuck out her tongue playfully.

"I almost forgot to say, Liz, your taste in clothes is impeccable. You have your mother's taste when she was young. I'll lend you this dress for a while. My original one is out..." Cough cough, there was a small accident, so I have to send it to the washroom. That's all. I'm really leaving this time. Remember to contact me at any time!"

Peng.

Louise closed the door and walked out of the mansion with elegant steps. The busy staff around her didn't even look at this noblewoman. It was as if she didn't exist.

When she finally walked out of the main entrance of the mansion and turned around to take one last look at Liz's room on the highest floor.

Louise hummed a light tune.

When she opened the door, Louise saw that the blood crystal floating on the table had already been collected by Liz.

Chapter 813 - 813: We're Back!_1

Chapter 813: We're Back!_1

“We’re back!”

A few hours later, the door to Liz’s room opened again with the sound of someone finally relaxing.

However, this time, the person who appeared at the door was a young lady who had just experienced a great battle. Although she looked a little tired, one could still see that she was full of vigor and vitality.

“Thank you for your hard work, Vivian. The news of your victory at the front line is spreading throughout the Thousand Islands! I even got someone to buy a promotional poster and hang it on the wall!”

Vivian’s face turned red as she looked in the direction of Liz’s finger.”“Ah! How come even Liz... Quickly take it off!”

In fact, the little girl had seen many similar things along the way.

It was better to use the official camera to shoot normally, but when it came to the foreigner, the style changed instantly.

She sat cross-legged on the steps of the shrine pond, stepping on a poor little crab that was only being played and ravaged under the white socks of her witch costume.

What did he mean by turning himself into a chef, holding a pot of steaming soup and shouting crab soup?

Something about her wearing sunglasses, a cigarette in her mouth, the aurora of the explosion of Planet Annihilation behind her, and the slogan beside her that said, ‘Real women never look back at the explosion...’

Who was it?

Who gave the foreigner the permission to print posters?

The little girl was planning to investigate the whole matter after the descent of the Fallen Abyss to put an end to this corrupt atmosphere!

Meanwhile, a wolf cub in her arms was also indignantly criticizing these shameless foreigners.

He opened the game forum and continued to write his second income-generating post. He had already received a prize to collect the Doujinshi pictures of the fox-faced witch and had successfully printed them in the game. The next step for the wolf cub was to enter the field of Doujinshi and prepare to dominate the light novel market in Thousand Islands.

Since he could publicize the popularity of the fox-faced witch and add to his own little treasury, why not?

It's just that the little wolf cubs are a little angry

I already said I don't want Seto, I don't want Seto, why are there still so many big-handed Seto Doujinshi who have fox witches!

Where are your morals? Where was the bottom line? Check out more links! ?

The little wolf cubs had zero tolerance for this kind of thing. They directly executed justice and threw all of them into their own private collection... Ah pui! Throw them all into the trash can and clear them with one click!

As for those really good Seto's big hands, the little wolf cub wanted to express his anger and fiercely followed them. He hoped that these people would restrain themselves after realizing that they had been targeted by him. They would not be ungrateful and update so slowly!

By the way, ever since the fox-faced witch was revealed to be Vivian, the account of the most handsome wolf, which was originally operated by the wolf cubs as the leader of Vivian's anti-fans, had successfully transformed into a true fragrance account.

He had deliberately posted those before, such as 'Why the Fox-faced Witch is God', 'Vivian? The fox-faced witch will teach you what a real main storyline NPC is.' Laugh to death! World Famous Paintings: Where's Your Vivian?》

Now, the netizens had taken out these corpses and made them into videos. Due to the contrast of the program's effects, they easily exploded into popularity. They had even been made into memes that spread across the entire Internet, and the Bible would be passed down forever.

The little wolf cub continued to use the account "Most Handsome Little Wolf" on the forum, stubbornly acting pitiful. At the same time, behind the screen, he collected the explosive traffic on the entire Internet, and his mouth was almost laughing.

Don't you know what account operation is?

"Alright, alright, let's go in first."

When Liz smiled and welcomed the indignant Vivian into the room, the little girl was still obsessed with the poster. However, the wolf cub in her arms suddenly raised its head slightly the moment Vivian stepped into the room.

After squinting his eyes and looking around, the wolf cub returned to its original state and lay down.

The two girls, who were still chatting, did not notice this small action.

“So, there are only two waves left, right?” After assembling the desk into a simple conference table, Liz was discussing the follow-up actions with Vivian.

The maid Elina walked in to make tea for the two of them and prepared some desserts for the little wolf cub. Just as Elina was about to leave, the little wolf cub suddenly grabbed the maid’s skirt and whispered a few words to her. The maid nodded and left.

After a while, Elina returned with a magic crystal ball in her hand, and a woman behind her.

“Eh? Xue Li!” Vivian turned around and recognized the white-haired woman who walked into the room. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

“Hello, Lady Vivian.” Xue Li lowered her head slightly and greeted the little girl respectfully.

The little girl waved her hands.” No need, Shirley. Just call me Vivian!” Otherwise, it sounds weird.”

“Okay, Vivian...Well...”

Looking at Xue Li’s twisted appearance, the wolf cub sighed helplessly.

As a monster, Shirley had a strong sense of class. Liao Zixuan had tried to change Shirley’s name countless times, but in the end, she would still be called Lord Black. As for Vivian, who was on the same level as him, he was afraid that Shirley would not be able to change her name.

However...

As for the other person present, Xue Li...

“Good morning, Miss Liz.”

Compared to her previous respectful attitude towards Vivian, when the woman’s gaze shifted to a certain noble girl opposite Vivian, she immediately seemed to be a lot more perfunctory.

Chapter 814 - 814: We’re Back!_2

Chapter 814: We're Back!_2

Before they could even finish greeting each other, Cher shifted her gaze away from the girl, as if she didn't want to stay for even a second longer.

Then how could Liz tolerate it?

She was obviously a little unhappy with the difference in treatment. She glared at Shirley fiercely and crossed her arms over her chest as she said in a superior tone,

"Next time, remember to call her Lord Liz!"

"Alright, Liz." Cher didn't even bother to glance at the young girl who was pretending to be innocent as she replied expressionlessly, even omitting the word 'Miss'.

"You!"

Vivian covered her mouth and chuckled when she saw the two of them bickering. The little girl shook her head and sighed,

"Hehe, your relationship is really good!"

However, the only response to Vivian was Liz's cold snort at the white-haired woman and Shirley's disdain for the noble girl.

Together with the maid Elina, who was silently holding the magic crystal ball and guarding at the side.

Vivian suddenly felt a sense of satisfaction and happiness at the sight before her.

"That's so good."

"I really didn't expect that the few of us would be able to gather together again in the Thousand Islands like we did in the Flame Domain! I really hope this moment lasts forever!"

Happiness for the little girl was actually that simple. The people in the room now were all people who had experienced life and death together when she was still very weak and difficult. They were the best friends that Vivian thought she could spend the rest of her life with.

Now that she was able to gather together and fight shoulder to shoulder again, the little girl felt that she was full of strength! He was so confident that he was not afraid even if a few more rounds of Fallen Abyss descended!

Ah! That... That was just a metaphor. Please, don't do it again!

It was like a sudden impulse to find something wrong.

Vivian quickly corrected him in her heart.

Back to the main topic.

Irina drew the curtains of the room and turned off the lights. She then pointed the magic crystal ball at a blank wall.

This was the precious surveillance video that the players had obtained in exchange for their desperate efforts to venture deep into the Fallen Abyss.

The five Commander-tier monsters of the Fallen Abyss army were recorded on this book. The theory of five waves was also obtained from this book.

At this moment, the first three waves of monster leaders had all been killed.

What they needed to do now was to figure out what the next wave of leaders would do.

Speaking of the fourth wave of bosses...

Even the wolf cubs had a headache.

That was because...

They did not know if it was Vivian's butterfly wings, but something had quietly changed in a place they could not see, but at least for now...

Liao Zixuan was very certain. In the story of the Fallen Abyss Descending on the Thousand Islands in his previous life, there was no such thing as a Big Eight CatCatching Fish!

The recording image projected on the wall was fast-forwarded. After passing through the first three leaders, everyone focused on the image. The players began to pass through the territory of the fourth leader.

However, it was a pity that no matter which player sent the video, it was different from the previous three territories. The fourth sea area was calm, and no player's reconnaissance ship was attacked.

From the video, one could see the surprised and surprised expressions of the players at that time.

However...

When the players 'scout ships finally reached the edge of the fourth sea area, they were about to charge into the final BOSS, the source of the disaster that had descended from the Fallen Abyss, the Fallen Abyss Serpent that controlled the storm in the midst of lightning and thunder...

Weng!

The magic image suddenly shook. Then, accompanied by the players 'screams, the image began to sink rapidly to the bottom of the sea.

At the bottom of their reconnaissance ship, a thick tentacle with suction cups was sucked in. Then, the tentacle quickly retracted, dragging the players and the reconnaissance ship into the deep sea.

It was also because of this that the players could see that the fourth sea area was not calm at all. Instead, all the Fallen Abyss army was hidden in the deepest trench.

In the deepest ravine at the bottom of the sea, in the largest pitch-black crack, a giant white octopus with countless tentacles vaguely revealed its true body from the crack.

The magic image stopped there, but the players did not die from injuries. It was a little funny to say that they died from suffocation. Because they had exceeded the diving time, their health bars dropped rapidly, and they finally turned into white light and disappeared.

"So... What do you think?"

Before the battle, they had to go and analyze the enemy's intelligence, especially if they didn't even know about it. This was why the wolf cubs called Shirley over.

However, the first to speak was Liz.

"I think there are three suspicious points in the video. First, why did the octopus let the foreigners cross its territorial waters safely? Secondly, why did it attack when the foreigners left its territory? The third is..."

"From the image, it has the ability to wrap its tentacles around the foreign ships on the sea and shatter them. But why did it only absorb them and then start...Pull it back?"

The wolf cub nodded after Lissy finished speaking.

Indeed, from all aspects, this octopus's behavior was very strange. It seemed to be completely different from the previous three Bosses. The strongest evidence of this was actually the Boss's interface that the players brought back.

[Clara]

[Level: Level 52]

[Race: Fallen Abyss "Residue"]

Chapter 815 - 815: We're Back!_3

Chapter 815: We're Back!_3

"I suspect...It was a Fallen Abyss creature with preliminary intelligence."Xue Li finally spoke.

The moment he spoke, the atmosphere in the room became tense.

Fallen Abyss...Wisdom?

Liz found it hard to accept that these two words could be combined together. This evil power that came from nowhere was already terrifying enough, but how could it also have intelligence...

No, how could the Fallen Abyss, which only knew how to kill and thirst for blood, and did not even consider survival as its goal but to destroy living beings like a virus, have intelligence?

However, Liz couldn't bring herself to retort.

Because wasn't there a living example right in front of him?

"I suspect that it's very likely that it's toying with those foreigners. Just like many top-tier predators, they won't be in a hurry to kill their prey that can't resist. They enjoy the joy of hunting, and then when the prey is about to escape, they will give the final blow and enjoy the despair of the prey. This makes sense."

"I agree with Miss Shirley's opinion. After my comparison and analysis with the database, the possibility of this creature possessing intelligence is as high as 70%."

The maid, Elina, raised her hand in agreement.

This time... This was a little tricky.

Everyone in the room was silent. Everyone knew that an enemy who only followed his instincts and an enemy who possessed intelligence were worlds apart.

For example, if the Devil King Crabs had intelligence, they would have been able to sense that something was wrong when the Thousand Islands Army retreated in large numbers. They would have retreated in a conservative manner instead of staying in their original positions as live targets.

However, at this moment...

"That..." Vivian raised her small hands.

When everyone looked over, the little girl was a little hesitant, but in the end, she decided to speak her mind.

"Do you think there's a possibility that this octopus isn't playing with a stranger like what Shirley said? Instead, it's... Save the people in a foreign land!

Save him?

Cher and Liz frowned, suspecting that they had heard wrongly.

However, Vivian still insisted.

"It's precisely because that octopus isn't aggressive that the outlanders can be so safe in its sea area. When the outlanders are about to sail out to the fifth sea area, where the Fallen Abyss Great Snake is, the octopus knows that it's very dangerous there. That's why it chose to extend its tentacles at this time, hoping to pull the outlanders back. It's a little like... It was dangerous over there, so he didn't want to run around?"

The little girl spoke more and more fluently. If her eyes lit up, it would sound a little...

"Why would the octopus drag the stranger into the deep sea and drown him to death?" Liz asked helplessly. Didn't it want to protect us?"

"B-maybe... Ah, right! Perhaps the octopus didn't expect us humans to be so fragile? We can't breathe underwater?" At first, Vivian was a little hesitant, but then she suddenly had a flash of inspiration.

"Uh..."

This time, Liz fell into a state of wanting to refute, but at first glance...

It seemed that it was indeed possible to explain forcefully.

But it was obvious.

Liz felt that even if a hundred people were to see this video, not one of them would have the same understanding as the little girl. She could only say... He really supported Vivian.

After watching it a few more times, they did not gain anything. They could only decide to leave it at that for now. They wanted to see if they could take advantage of the current gap to send more foreigners over to gather more information.

However...

Just as everyone was about to part ways...

"Hmm? Xiao Hei?"

As usual, Vivian was about to carry the wolf cub away, but the wolf cub refused with his paw. He then pointed at the study, indicating that he would stay in the room for a while. Then he waved his paw, indicating that Vivian and the others should go first.

Just as the little girl was still confused and Liz, the owner of the room, was stunned and unable to react, Shirley was the first to speak.

"Lady Vivian, let's go first. Miss Liz is probably thirsty again."

"Eh? Hunger... Hungry?"

"Yeah, as a vampire with unfulfilled desires, it's common for her to be thirsty. Moreover, she's a picky eater, so..."

Although Xue Li's face was expressionless and her tone was very calm, one could hear a strong sense of sarcasm no matter how one listened.

After Xue Li's explanation, the little girl seemed to have come to a sudden realization. She recalled that Black had indeed mentioned this matter to her.

Vivian had wanted to stay and blinked her big eyes full of curiosity, wanting to broaden her horizons. Unfortunately, she was taken away by the maid and Shirley.

"No, wait, what is it? ?"

"No, I didn't. Don't listen to that bastard Xue Li's nonsense, Wei..."

By the time Liz recovered from her blushing state and wanted to stop the little girl to defend herself, the door was already closed.

"White!"

Liz wished she could find a hole to hide in. She did not know how to see Vivian in the future. When the noble girl turned her head with shame and anger, she wanted to question the wolf cubs.

However, what she received was the wolf cub's gaze, as if it was examining a criminal.

He tapped the table with his paw.

It looked as if he was saying.

Are you going to confess yourself, or...Do we have to go through the process that we did on the ship?

Chapter 816 - 816: What Does Your Mother Know?_1

Chapter 816: What Does Your Mother Know?_1

Wha... What was this...

Liz's eyes wandered as she tried to struggle, pretending not to understand the little wolf cub's words.

However, when the wolf cub saw this, he circled around the desk and dodged. Before Liz could react, a locked drawer on the desk was violently opened. A red crystal that was originally lying quietly inside disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Oh no, it reappeared in the wolf cub's mouth.

"This, this is the gemstone I just bought. Stop fooling around, give it back..."

Liz was a little nervous and anxious as she shouted. She was still stubborn, but in the next moment, the girl's voice stopped abruptly, and her eyes instantly widened.

That was because...

Gulp.

From Liz's perspective, the little wolf cub swallowed the blood crystal that Louise had given him.

After a brief moment of blank-out, my mind went blank.

The girl quickly rushed to the wolf cub's side and began to shake it crazily. As she shook it, she anxiously shouted,

"You... You! Spit it out! You can't just eat that! This is an ancestor level blood crystal. If there are any negative effects, how should I..."

Seeing that Liz was on the verge of tears, the little wolf cub softened his heart and stopped teasing the girl. Of course, he wasn't so stupid as to directly swallow something that even the system panel showed a string of question marks.

However, after Liz relented in a moment of desperation, the original question was: "'s item panel had also changed because he had obtained the key information.

[Ancestor's Blood Crystal]

[Rarity: Epic]

[Type: Consumable]

[Item Effect: Summon 'Third Progenitor-Louise Dracula' to your side]

(It is recommended to check the target's status before using it. Unless it is absolutely necessary, remember not to use it when the target is lying in a coffin. Otherwise, it will cause a very bad consequence of the coffin gas...)

Seeing the little wolf cub magically move the blood crystal that she thought was swallowed into her stomach into his claws, Liz finally realized that she had been deceived.

Now that things had come to this, it was impossible to fool her anymore. Liz could only obediently tell the little wolf cubs that Louise had come to her house a few hours ago and wanted to bring her back to her "home."

However, the girl still deliberately simplified the details and played down the conflict between her and Louise in the entire conversation. Liz did this because she was afraid that the wolf cubs would be angry and go straight to her mother.

In the young girl's eyes, Bai was someone who could really do such a thing.

However, even though Liz hated Louise, she had to admit that her mother was absolutely powerful. Liz was afraid that the wolf cubs would suffer.

"So, what do you think?"

"Of course, I'll reject it directly!" Lissy hurriedly bit her to death.

However, the wolf cub did not believe him at all and continued to ask, "Then why did you accept this blood crystal?"

"That's... It's just..."

The girl began to stammer and finally turned silent. Liz lowered her head and clenched her skirt tightly.

During the meeting just now, the girl deliberately maintained her normal behavior, but in fact, Liz knew it herself. When Vivian came back, she quietly sensed and found that the little girl had indeed reached the fifth rank as Louise had said. When Liz reached the fifth rank, she had indescribable complicated emotions.

And this kind of mood, after Xue Li entered the house, the four people from the Flame Domain gathered together again, and it became even more unbearable.

Other than Elina, the maid who had been following her, she had become the weakest among them. Moreover, the difference was not just a little bit. They had only been separated for a few months.

Liz didn't dare to imagine that if this continued, in a few months or a few years, this gap might really be like what her mother had said. It wouldn't be called a "gap" anymore, but a "chasm."

So... So...

Pa!

Suddenly, the sound of a table being slammed shocked Liz. When she looked over, she saw that it was a picture of a wolf cub using its claws to move towards her on the table... An employment contract?

Lissy looked at it quickly in confusion. It was probably written that she was appointed as the administrative officer of Sakuragi Island.

The girl did not understand what was going on. She did not have a title yet, but based on her relationship with Vivian, everyone knew that she had real power.

Moreover... Weren't they just talking about her mother?

However, under the urging gaze of the wolf cubs, Liz held back her curiosity and signed the employment contract.

As the girl finished writing the last stroke of her name...

[Ding! You have successfully invited "Lissy Sisl" to join your territory," Sakuragi Island", and appointed her as a "Level 1 Administrative Officer". Your territory," Sakuragi Island", has been slightly upgraded.]

The system notification sounded in her mind. To Lize, it didn't matter whether she had this title or not, but to the wolf cubs, there was a lot of room for them to operate.

Liz was a normal NPC model. Like all NPCs, she could not gain experience from the players on her own.

The little wolf cubs were indeed unable to make Liz take care of the player system like a certain hanging girl, but this did not mean that Liz could not enjoy the experience bonus of the players.

The answer was the territory system.

Players who had just started the open beta for a few months would not be able to come into contact with it, but later on, when the players' reputation and strength, as well as various additional conditions, were met, they would be able to establish their own territory.

Chapter 817 - 817: What Does Your Mother Know?_2

Chapter 817: What Does Your Mother Know?_2

One of the biggest differences between a territory and a guild was that players could recruit NPCs to settle in. Moreover, they could truly reverse the situation. In the past, players relied on NPCs to support themselves, but now, players could nurture their own territory NPCs.

This was a common setting in online games, and God Fall was no exception.

It was just that the territory system that should have appeared at least in Version 3.0 had already met the requirements. Moreover, it had become a big one, the master of an island.

In his previous life, those who could become Lords were all the bosses of Super Guilds. Even so, the size of the players' territories, according to Liao Zixuan's impression, the largest seemed to be...Perhaps it was just a mountain on Sakuragi Island?

Therefore, the limit of what normal players could do was to use the resources of a mountain to feed a territory NPC.

This could be considered a restriction placed on players by the system. Otherwise, if the players really did something, let alone a Legendary NPC, an Epic NPC would be too destructive.

However, this restriction was just a decoration for Vivian.

Players could only take out the resources of a mountain, but for the wolf cub, he could take out the resources of an island to feed the NPCs in his territory.

The method was very simple. He just needed to set the various taxes and take a percentage of the experience points.

It was such a simple operation.

However, without the player system, even if the NPCs had more territory than the players, they would forever be stuck at the level of "money."

Of course, although the territory tax could be adjusted up or down, the system would give a fixed range. Increasing the EXP commission meant that there would be less gold coins in the finances, and the territory's development speed might slow down.

This was also a choice that gave the players in the past life a headache. Increasing the gold tax meant that they would pay more attention to developing the territory. Increasing the EXP tax meant that they would pay more attention to nurturing NPCs.

"Do you feel anything different?"

Under the little wolf cub's inquiry, Liz was confused at first. Could it be that he wanted her to give an acceptance speech?

"In terms of strength!" The wolf cub rolled its eyes.

With confusion, when the young girl closed her eyes and carefully experienced it again...

Eh?

Liz suddenly called out.

She quickly opened her eyes in disbelief.

Then, the girl didn't even bother to speak. She continued to close her eyes and feel again, afraid that what she had just seen was an illusion.

However...

“How could this be...My power is in... A little increase?” The girl’s exclamation echoed in the room. After a second confirmation, Liz knew that this was not an illusion.

This feeling was very strange. It was as if there were countless lines connected to her body, sending extremely pure blank energy over. It would automatically transform into the corresponding origin energy according to her own condition.

What shocked Liz even more was that this increase in strength was not small. In just a few breaths, it was almost equivalent to the increase in her strength after a day of bitter cultivation.

At this rate, in less than a month...No, she could go from Tier 4 to Tier 5 in half a month!

“This... What is this?” Liz was dumbfounded.

If one had to say how she entered this state, it seemed to be...The employment contract that the little wolf cub had just asked her to sign?

But that wasn’t right! Liz was very sure that the letter was no different from an ordinary one. She had signed many others, but why this time...

Obviously, the answer to all the questions still lay in the little wolf cub in front of her.

Facing Liz’s big eyes that were filled with greetings...

Naturally, the wolf cub could not directly use the term “experience points” to explain it. He was slightly flexible and used a term that was acceptable to the aborigines.

Faith power.

“The letter... Faith power?”

“Aiya, in short, the more people there are in the territory, the more prosperous the territory is, the stronger the faith power will be, and the more it can be fed back to you.”

“Of course, not everyone can accept faith power. You need to be qualified, Vivian...Well, you have this ability through some kind of fortuitous encounter, which is why you can improve so quickly. The contract just now, although it was said to be an employment, it was actually a process to allow you to obtain the qualification to receive faith power like Vivian.”

Afraid that Liz would not believe him, the little wolf cub casually gave an example.

“If you still don’t believe me...Nine Gods should know! Think about it, why are they so passionate about peace and stability? Why are they no longer killing each other like in the old era, and why do they have invincible strength?”

" You, you mean!?" Liz covered her mouth.

She could feel that a door that should not be known at her level was slowly opening a crack in the secrets of the gods.

Since he had already made it up to this point, the little wolf cub let himself go. He pretended to be deep and mysterious as he nodded in affirmation.

"That's right!"

"The source of their power is the power of faith. As long as their country is not destroyed, they are invincible!"

Liz sat on the chair, panting heavily. It took her a long time to digest the secret of God.

She couldn't help but believe the little wolf cub's words.

After all, the strength that was increasing in her body every minute and second was the best proof.

Chapter 818 - 818: What Does Your Mother Know?_3

Chapter 818: What Does Your Mother Know?_3

And this was only a half-deserted island that had yet to develop.

If this range was expanded to an entire country...

What kind of astronomical figure would the increase in strength be every moment! ?
What kind of terrifying existence was the person who absorbed these astronomical numbers?

Perhaps there was only one word to describe it.

God.

Realizing this, Liz suddenly became nervous. She quickly lowered her voice and asked,

"Then I, we're like this now..."

God was absorbing the power of faith, and she was here at the moment. Wasn't that equivalent to...Was he fighting for a job with God?

Furthermore, it made Liz feel even more afraid and a little...What made them tremble with excitement was that didn't this mean that they also had...The right to become a god?

Looking at the girl's extremely flustered look, the wolf cub waved his hand calmly.

After all, Liao Zixuan knew that he was just spouting nonsense to let the girl understand the concept of "experience points".

However, since she had already made it up, she had to put on a full show. Otherwise, the little wolf cubs would be sure that Liz would not be able to sleep in the future, afraid that God would come knocking on her door.

"Don't worry, this qualification is also divided into levels. The Nine Gods are not on the same level as us. It's like a water pump...Oh, sorry. It was just like a person who used a waterwheel to irrigate his field. Would he mind someone holding a small broken bowl to get some water?"

"So it's like this..." Phew!" After such an image, the metaphor clearly described how inferior their qualifications were compared to the Nine Gods, but Lissy actually heaved a sigh of relief and felt much more at ease.

After all, this way, she could finally be at ease...Oh no, there was one more!

"Wait, Xiao Hei. I'm going to absorb these now. Uh... Faith power, isn't that the same as Vivian..."

The little wolf cub waved its claws in response.

First of all, Liao Zixuan's dream was to bring Vivian around the world. At least, before she had visited all nine countries, she would not stay in any country for long. Secondly, judging from the little girl's personality, how could she manage her territory? Forget it! It was obvious that Liz was more talented in this area, and she preferred to be good at it.

Even if he didn't make a single statement today, the little wolf cub would have done the same in the future. He had directly taken out the ready-made employment contract, which was the best proof. He had long prepared this path for Liz.

Otherwise, what if Liz worked so hard to govern the territory, recruit players, manage players, and constantly issue various activities and missions to make the territory prosperous, while he and Vivian went around crazily, enjoying the scenery and enjoying the fruits of their labor?

Even if they were to accept the experience points, even a thick-skinned person like him would feel a little embarrassed, let alone Vivian. Therefore, no matter how he looked at it, giving it to Liz was the best choice.

After all, they were family, and they should not let outsiders have their fields!

Lastly, and most importantly, the rent was still a fixed salary. The real way was to participate in activities everywhere. The best example was the Thousand Islands. Vivian did not get any experience points from the territory, but she still rose to tier 5 with the Descent of the Fallen Abyss. This was not even counting the two bosses that were even more powerful!

In conclusion, the little wolf cub explained these things in terms that Liz could understand and accept. After that, the girl finally felt completely at ease.

Originally, she especially liked the feeling of governing the territory. After all, she was born into a noble family. Now, as long as she managed it well, the territory would prosper and she could even increase her strength!

Liz's eyes lit up. She wished she could recruit all the foreigners in the world to her territory!

Seeing that the young girl was about to float away, the little wolf cub snorted coldly.

Only then did Liz come back to her senses and realize that she was still a "criminal". She immediately restrained her happy expression and put on a pitiful, obedient girl's expression.

She even shamelessly picked up the little wolf cub and placed it between its two round and fair thighs, stroking it as if asking for forgiveness.

The wolf cub enjoyed the warmth of the Absolute Realm while still lecturing him.

So you know, next time, if there's anything, tell me first. Don't keep it to yourself. Is there anything that I can't solve?

The Progenitor Vampire...So what if it was the ancestor? Amazing! Times had changed! Play...

Foreigners were the number one productivity! What does your mother know about the hammer!

"Yes, yes!" Liz nodded obediently.

"Alright, put it down. I still have something to do."

“That...”

“Hmm?”

“It’s all that bastard Xue Li’s fault. That’s right, it’s all Xue Li’s fault. I’m indeed a little thirsty...I’m thirsty!”

Chapter 819 - 819: Going Deep Behind the Enemy (1)

Chapter 819: Going Deep Behind the Enemy (1)

The joy and excitement of successfully defending the third wave slowly faded. The people of the Thousand Islands and the players returned to their nervous state of preparation to prepare for the fourth wave.

This phenomenon was the same as the previous few waves. After all, everyone knew that it was far from the time to celebrate after surviving a disaster. There were two more severe and cruel waves of attacks waiting for them.

However...

As time passed, the first day after the third wave, the third day...On the fifth day.

The army that had been resupplied from the rear had already quickly reorganized and returned to the front line the next day.

The various defensive facilities that had been worn out in the third wave of defensive battle had also been repaired and redeployed on the third day.

Even on the fourth day, the Third Law Enforcement had been urgently recruiting and training a batch of temporary recruits from the people. They were also sent over by transport ships.

Not to mention the combat strength, at least the size of the army had been expanded, and the number of formations could boost the morale of the army.

On the fifth day, Liz proposed to take the lead on Sakuragi Island. She prepared the funds and entrusted them to the Zhao Chamber of Commerce to carry out. Captain Nan of the North Tenth Enterprise served as a guest and provided technical guidance. Finally, with a large number of excited foreigners and a strong labor force that worked day and night, Sakuragi Island finally had its own simple shipyard.

Unlike Sanxing, the shipyard on Sakuragi Island was specially prepared for foreigners, which was why the players were so motivated.

Battleships that were tailored for foreigners were newly built from Sakuragi Island. Compared to ordinary warships, they had simpler operations and more agile movement speed.

At this point, the players no longer had to freeload on Sanxing's ship. They could also buy their own warships from Sakuragi Island.

However, due to technical issues, the largest scale that could be provided to players was only the small and medium-sized ones. However, this was enough to make the various large guilds scramble for it.

Just imagine, being able to drive a warship belonging to one's own guild on the sea and sail on an intense battlefield. That would be simply awesome! It was the best way to make a name for the guild.

Sakuragi Island had been tacitly recognized by the players as the base camp of the "outlanders" in the Thousand Islands. After Liz's "ship purchase permit" was issued, it could be said that it had directly risen to the level of a "Holy Land."

Not to mention the local players from Thousand Islands, even the players from Flame Field next door wanted to "make a pilgrimage". They shouted on the forum, asking the officials not to be ungrateful and quickly open the next batch of support fleets to Thousand Islands so that they could go to Sakuragi Island to buy their own warship.

Seeing the greedy looks on the Flame Field players' faces, the Thousand Islands players, who were the first batch to own a battleship, were extremely pleased. They rubbed their fists and could not wait to test the Fallen Abyss.

But... But...

Yes, it was.

This was the problem...No, it was not a problem.

In short, it was already the fifth day, but the fourth wave of the Fallen Abyss had descended...It had yet to appear!

After resting and recuperating, they were fully armed and had high morale. What they were facing was...

A calm sea.

On the fifth day, the sixth day passed.

It had been a week since the third wave of Fallen Abyss descended.

However, the Thousand Islands side was still around the defense line. They did not even see the shadow of a Fallen Abyss monster!

This was...

Not only was Sanxing Xing confused, but the players who were rubbing their fists were also stunned. Even the wolf cubs were stunned by this phenomenon that they had never seen before.

What did he mean?

It ended early?

However, the truth was that as early as the next day, Vivian had issued many reconnaissance missions to the players. The message from the players was that the Fallen Abyss army was still there, and there were still countless monsters in the nest.

However, the strange thing was...

They stayed in their lair and did not move. It seemed like they were on the same side as the Thousand Islands...A confrontation?

"Vivian, what do you think?" In the military camp at the front line, the Six Paths Robe looked at the little girl questioningly.

These few days, the high-ranking generals of the Great Fuxi had been discussing and analyzing this matter.

After analyzing the video recordings sent by the outlanders, they came to the same conclusion as Liz and Shirley. That was, this Fallen Abyss Octopus was very likely to be an intelligent creature.

The current abnormal phenomenon seemed very strange, but on the other hand, it seemed to be able to prove their conjecture.

Therefore, there was a conclusion that everyone agreed on.

The only one who could control those violent, cruel, and aggressive Fallen Abyss creatures was their leader. In other words, the Fallen Abyss Octopus had forcefully suppressed its original Fallen Abyss attack and deliberately stayed put, resulting in the current situation.

The next question was...

Why did it do that?

What was it planning?

“Luo Sha, I have a suggestion. I think...Go over personally!” Vivian took a deep breath and finally announced her decision in front of everyone.

“Personally? Wait a minute, are you saying that you want to go deep into the Fallen Abyss territory alone?”

Vivian nodded.

“No! Absolutely not! This is too risky!” As expected, the Six Paths Robe subconsciously objected.

Chapter 820 - 820: Going Deep Behind the Enemy (2)

Chapter 820: Going Deep Behind the Enemy (2)

Although most of the generals in the camp didn't dare to speak directly, it could be seen from their expressions that they were the same as the Six Paths Silk Robe.

The reason was simple. Vivian was too important.

Whether it was the reputation of the fox-faced witch among the outlanders, the pure strength of the little girl, or after the third wave, there was also that extremely destructive secret weapon.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that the current Thousand Islands couldn't afford to lose the Fox-faced Witch.

Therefore, they were strongly opposed to Vivian's risky and radical choice. If anything happened to the little girl, it would be bad news for the entire Thousand Islands.

“Vivian, have you ever thought that this might be the purpose of the Fallen Abyss leader? Just to lure the snake out?”

The Six Paths Luo Sha knew the little girl's stubborn temper, so he was a little anxious to persuade her.

“And if you're here for reconnaissance, why don't you just let the foreigners go?”

Vivian still shook her head.

In the beginning, the reason why the outlanders were able to go deep and bring back video records was that the Fallen Abyss army had not spread out at that time. Now, the outlanders could not even break through the First Sea Realm, let alone reach the Fourth Sea Realm. They were all densely packed with Fallen Abyss troops. From the information they had gathered over the past few days, it could be seen that they could not bring back any useful information.

“Don’t worry, Luo Sha. I know what I’m doing. I’ll immediately retreat if I encounter danger. At the very least, there’s still Xiao Hei by my side. Even if Fallen Abyss really wants to stop us, it won’t be that easy. Moreover...”

“Other than me and Xiao Hei, there will be another friend from the Flame Field who will travel with me. Her strength is not inferior to mine, and she is also an expert in the study of Fallen Abyss! She was...How should I put it? In short, you can understand Luo Sha as having a way to make us invisible behind Fallen Abyss’s rear lines and easily infiltrate without being detected!”

The expert that Vivian was referring to was naturally Shirley. The wolf cubs had sent her to the front line with the little girl just in case. Now it seemed that this decision was very wise.

On the other side, seeing that Vivian had made up her mind, Six Paths hesitated. In the end, he could only remind her repeatedly and mobilize the elite troops to be ready to pick up the little girl at any time.

After all, the Fallen Abyss could be dragged on indefinitely, but the Thousand Islands could not. Currently, all the population was squeezed onto four or five fallout shelter islands. They could still rely on backup resources to support them for a short period of time, but once it went on, how could the population that originally used to be supported by 30 to 40 islands be supported by just four islands?

However, if the residents were to return, it would be equivalent to the collapse of the entire defense line. If the Fallen Abyss suddenly attacked again at this time, the previous few waves of perfect defense would be in vain.

Therefore, no matter what, this disaster had to be compressed to no more than a month. Otherwise, even if the Thousand Islands were to pass, their vitality would be greatly damaged and chaos would begin.

This was something that the Six Paths knew, and so did Vivian. Perhaps this was the reason why the little girl had chosen to take such a risk.

Two hours later.

A small battleship slowly sailed out from the defensive line of the Three Executors. After crossing the critical sea, it finally arrived at the dark sea shrouded in dark clouds, the territory of Fallen Abyss.

“Shirley, I’ll leave the rest to you.”

After Vivian asked in a low voice, another white-haired woman nodded and walked out of the cabin.

Ripples could be seen on the surface of the sea not far away. It was obvious that some Fallen Abyss creatures had discovered them and were swimming over at high speed.

If it were the players or the ordinary Thousand Islands Army, they would either run or fight. But with Shirley’s presence, Vivian had a third option.

Xue Li arrived at the highest point of the ship and closed her eyes. After taking a deep breath, a familiar evil and dark aura spread out from the white-haired woman’s body.

The void behind the woman began to distort violently. Soon, a black crystallized Fallen Abyss Illusion Wing gradually condensed.

At the same time, Xue Li’s pupils suddenly trembled, turning into a pitch-black color. Within the darkness, a scarlet red color that was the most representative of the Fallen Abyss appeared. The only difference was that it was less brutal.

Weng!

Xue Li’s bare feet lightly stepped on the tip of the ship, and the Fallen Abyss Half-Wings on her back flapped, instantly sending her into the air, hovering above the battleship.

Why Vivian wants to take a boat and deliberately choose the most small one number, the reason is here. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Xue Li easily used her Fallen Abyss aura to envelop the ship below before returning to the ship.

Not only would this stop the Fallen Abyss creatures that were swimming over to attack them, but they would also scatter back as if nothing had happened. More importantly, it would also package them as dead objects.

Xue Li had the ability to forcefully control these Fallen Abyss creatures, but the reason she didn’t do so was to prevent alerting the enemy.

With his experience in the Flame Domain, the Fallen Abyss was somewhat similar to the neural network of a swarm of insects. Once his subordinates lost control, the leader would immediately notice.

Just like that, under the cover of Shirley's aura, Vivian's boat passed through the first three seas smoothly as planned.

Finally.

The fourth sea area, which was also the territory of the octopus, appeared in front of everyone. They could immediately identify it without even looking at the map. The reason was simple...

In the first three sea areas, the small boat had come from the group of Fallen Abyss monsters, almost brushing past the bodies of the monsters.

There was nothing.

What the players had sent back was exactly what it looked like half a month later.

The small boat continued to sail, but this time, it deliberately slowed down. However, when they were about to leave the fourth sea area, nothing happened.

Just as they were about to enter the fifth sea area, which was the territory of the giant snake at the source of the Fallen Abyss, the players were attacked by the octopus when they were here, but now...Unhindered.

He had no choice but to be forced to go back. It was not a wise choice to go back to the final snake before the fourth leader had figured it out.

However, this was not a solution. It was equivalent to gaining nothing.

Hence...

Vivian gritted her teeth and made another bold suggestion."Xue Li, give it a try...Take back your aura."

"But..."

Xue Li could see that there was still some hesitation, so she turned to look at the little wolf cub. After the little wolf cub nodded in agreement, Xue Li finally hardened her heart and gritted her teeth. The Fallen Abyss aura that enveloped the ship instantly began to dissipate.

However, it was obvious that Xue Li was still very vigilant. She did not exit from the Fallen Abyss state and was ready to fight at any time...

Before he could finish his sentence.

A pair of Fallen Abyss Claws wrapped in a black mist quickly condensed on Xue Li's hands.

She didn't have time to explain. Her reddish-black eyes stared at the bottom of their ship.

"It... He's here!"

As soon as the warning sounded, a tentacle shot over from the depths of the sea. It brought along a strong current and headed straight for the boat.

It was obvious that the players were different, because the tentacles were attached to the bottom of the ship, and then they were dragged into the deep sea. The entire process did not even scratch the hull.

But this time...

Bang!

With the sound of the bottom of the ship exploding, wood splinters flew everywhere. The entire small warship was pierced through from the bottom. The ship directly disintegrated under the huge force and was split into two by the tentacles.

Vivian and Shirley happened to be on both ends of the ship. In order to avoid the attack, they were forced to float in the air on both sides.

How...

Vivian clenched her fists, disappointment and gloom on her face. The octopus's aggressive move had almost proved that the 'good' guess she had been hoping for was wrong.

There was no time to blame or regret.

Vivian had to rush to support Shirley.

After the first attack was successful, the tentacle did not stop. It immediately turned around and headed straight for Cher...He whipped it ruthlessly!

