

I Help A NPC Become The Legendary Witch

Chapter 841 - 841: The Three of Us

Chapter 841: The Three of Us

Speaking of which...

From the very beginning, there had been a peeping gaze that had made the wolf cub pay attention for a long time.

He dodged, and the next second, the frightened cry of a small animal came from behind the divine cherry tree.

When Xinyan and Meow looked over, they saw a fluffy little fox that had been taken out from behind a tree by the wolf cubs.

It could be seen that the little fox was still trying to struggle. Its four short legs kept flapping in the air.

Unfortunately, the back of its neck was already firmly grabbed by the ferocious big bad wolf. No matter how much it resisted, it was all in vain.

Plop...

After returning, he released the little fox and placed it on the ground. The little fox, who had regained its freedom, was about to escape when two curious little lolis stood in front of it.

Among them, the one in red was still alright. The way he looked at it was pure novelty.

However, the other green-haired one's vertical snake eyes alone were enough to make the little fox tremble. Not to mention, it kept feeling that the other party was licking his lips and moving his throat a few times.

"Sob... Sob..." With nowhere to run, the little fox could only curl up on the spot, cover its eyes with its tail, and let out a cry.

Fortunately...

Justice would be late but not absent.

"You guys!"

Vivian picked up the two little lols from behind and took them away from the little fox. The remaining black wolf also moved to the side helplessly under the little girl's gaze.

After doing all this, the little girl half-squatted beside the curled up little fox. Vivian caressed and comforted her, and said apologetically, "Kid, it's alright now. They were just a little rough just now, but they didn't mean any harm."

After a comfortable caress and a gentle voice, the little fox finally raised its head slowly and looked at the human who saved it. The first thing it noticed was the fox mask on Vivian's waist.

"Ouch!" As if it had found its family, the little fox dove into Vivian's arms and tried to get in, as if it wanted to vent all the fear it had just received.

Although Vivian was shocked by the little fox's actions at first, she soon accompanied the little fox and let it stick to her as much as it wanted.

After a while, the little fox finally recovered and began to communicate with the little girl in 'Ying language' under Vivian's guidance.

"Eh? So you are...Eightfold clan..."

"But the original Ying... So it was like this...I understand..."

When she said that she was a fox demon from the "Eightfold Clan," Little Fox's face was full of pride. However, when Vivian asked about the other originally forbidden demon, Little Fox's expression darkened.

Ever since it was born, it seemed to be alone.

Suddenly, the little fox seemed to have thought of a good idea. It excitedly ran around Vivian, and a light shone from the little fox's body. A magatama shaped brand appeared in front of Vivian.

"This is..."

Before Vivian could understand, the system notification had already sounded in the wolf cub's mind.

[Ding! Forbidden monster Nine-Tailed Fox has sent you a [Connection Contract Contract]. Do: Accept?]

Liao Zixuan was speechless.

F * ck!

Now that Feng AoTian was cheating, he didn't even want to act, right? Where was Water God? Your Thousand Island only has two forbidden monsters in total, and now they're about to be kidnapped. Think of a way to save them!

The little wolf cub was still cursing in his heart, but in the next moment, something even more ridiculous happened.

[Ding, you have chosen to reject.]

Faced with the little fox's expectant and hopeful eyes, Vivian shook her head after understanding. She did not accept the magatama that symbolized the contract, but returned it to the little fox.

After the light faded and the Natal Jade Hook returned to her body, the little fox lowered her ears and her head, looking extremely disappointed and aggrieved.

Because Vivian had rejected it.

But very quickly.

"Huh?" The little fox called out in confusion.

This was because it saw that the human girl that it was especially close to did something strange after rejecting it. She took off the fox mask on her waist and hung it on its body.

The masks would transform into different forms according to the different holders. When it was on the little fox, it would turn into a small bell hanging around her neck.

"Yes... It's back to its original owner!" Vivian clapped her hands in satisfaction as she looked at the little fox, whose attention had been attracted by the little bell.

When the little fox came closer, Vivian rubbed its head.

"You're just being swayed by your emotions. I feel that no matter when, when you're about to make a big decision, you can't be impulsive. This is the same for me. So, little one, try not to rely on others. Use your own eyes to see the world."

"If you feel lonely, try your best to make new friends. Do you know that your ancestors once became partners with humans and built this island single-handedly? Humans built a shrine for them to commemorate them, worshipping and worshipping them for generations. Now, the heavy responsibility of protecting the island and everyone has been passed on to you...Come on, little one, we still have a long way to go."

When the little fox was just born, it was confused and timid. However, after Vivian's words, when it understood its mission and responsibility, it had a goal to move forward, courage and strength.

The fox wind chime tied to its neck seemed to be happy for the little fox's transformation. As the breeze blew, the crisp bell sounded like it was whispering. The old poems had turned pages, and new songs were being written.

Yes, yes!

The little fox nodded heavily. She was also ashamed of herself for being so careless just now and thinking of relying on others.

Since it was going to take the first step to make friends, humans were still a little ahead of it, so it would start by making friends with monsters.

And right now, weren't there just three of them?

Seeing the little fox walk towards the little wolf cubs and Xinyan and Snake who had reverted back to their monster forms, Vivian chose to leave quietly and leave the field to the monsters.

The little girl believed that whether it was Blackie, Xinyan, or the new Meow, they were all very good friends. They would definitely be able to teach the little fox many things and help it grow rapidly.

Little girl, do you know why they can transform but you can't?"

Little wolf cub: " Look at this. Take out the natal magatama that you gave to that human sister just now and let me play with it. Uncle will..." Cough cough, big brother will teach you how to transform, alright?"

"You..." Can you lay eggs?"

Little Fox, "..."

"You..." Are you afraid of the heat?"

Little Fox:

Chapter 842 - 842: Confinement (1)

Chapter 842: Confinement (1)

The little fox on Sakuragi Island was trying its best to learn " survival " knowledge from its three new friends.

Meanwhile, on the other side.

Another group of players who were viewed as outlanders also found an organization.

Gulp.

The president of Ka, Hei Yu, quietly swallowed his saliva. He looked at the corpses of the monsters around him and then looked ahead. The one that caused the bloody scene was an even bigger monster.

It looked like a huge human-shaped " doll ", except that the hands of the " doll " had turned into dripping blood claws, and the serrated sharp knife formed the doll's zipper mouth.

The doll didn't look glamorous. There were many old patches and stitches on the doll's body.

Hei Yu felt that rather than calling it a 'doll', it would be more accurate to say that it was more like an enlarged' horror doll'. Just by looking at it, he felt that it would appear in his nightmare tonight.

But who would have thought that...

It was this worn-out doll in front of them that was filled with a strange wind. It easily tore apart the monsters in the valley with its claws and smiled at them with its serrated mouth. A second ago, it was still a white-haired loli who called herself the " Executive Officer."

As if sensing the shivering of the players, the doll nodded in satisfaction. Its body began to dry up rapidly, like a deflating inflatable doll.

After waiting for two to three seconds, the original huge version of the horror doll returned to the white-haired little girl at the beginning.

[Winter's " Middle Three Chiefs " Executive Officer-" Doll "[

“Now, do I still need to prove my identity to you?”The doll looked at the foreigners who had the power of the Demonic Abyss.

Ever since the third wave of Devil King Crabs, Vivian’s sudden use of Annihilation Star had caused them heavy losses. The doctor’s Prosthetic Body in the Thousand Islands had died, so they had to stop collecting data from the Fallen Abyss in advance.

The doll was very obedient and did not try to provoke Vivian again. It turned out to be very correct. According to her original calculation, the fall of the Thousand Islands would last at least three months to half a year, but Vivian’s answer was...

Half a month later.

The speed was so fast that the doll was dumbfounded.

From the looks of it, even if the doctor didn’t die, with this time, it was far from enough to collect the data they wanted.

There was no doubt that their plan in the Thousand Islands had only received a small return even though they had sacrificed two executives.

These are all more determined, she wants to integrate the legacy left by the [Apostle], how many points to recover the loss of the organization, must not be so determined to leave the Thousand Islands.

Therefore, with Doll’s tireless efforts over the past few days, she finally locked onto the remnants of the outlanders who were the previous executive officer’s apostles. This was a precious legacy that could be recycled.

When she immediately came looking for him...

That was why this scene had happened.

At that time, the doll discovered that these foreigners were fighting with a group of demons. This was a chance for her to show off, so she used her ability to easily help the foreigners resolve the crisis.

From the doll’s point of view, this was not only a good appearance to establish prestige, but also a favor to the foreigners, so that they could be more loyal.

It seemed that this was indeed the case.

“Uh... Of course, Lord Doll! From the first time we met you, I could feel the similar power flowing between us. As expected, the organization didn’t abandon us.”Hei Yu immediately followed the words of the doll.

However, when he saw that the white-haired girl opposite him seemed to be a little dissatisfied, Hei Yu paused for a moment. Then, he hurriedly said respectfully,

” Also, thank you, Lord Doll, for your help just now. Lord Doll is indeed powerful. We are willing to follow you. We hope that Lord Doll can take us in so that loyal people like us can continue to serve the organization!”

Only then did the doll nod in satisfaction.

Seeing how tactful and obedient the foreigner was, the doll could not help but feel a little proud. Previously, the headquarters had been saying how difficult it was to control the foreigner and how uncertain it was, but in her opinion...

That’s all.

What was so difficult about it?

However, what she did not know was that Hei Yu was already cursing in his heart.

It was not easy for the Ka guild to find such a good place to level up and kill monsters. Before they could even start, all the monsters were killed by the ” dolls “. Wasn’t this letting them starve?

However, it was still the same word, endure!

It was a small matter to lose the farming location, but they had actually waited for a new ” Executive ” to appear, and it was even the other party who took the initiative to come and find them.

Hei Yu’s hands, which were hidden in his sleeves, were trembling with excitement.

Therefore, no matter what the doll said, they naturally had to do their best to increase the other party’s favorability. There was only one goal...

“Alright, the Demonic Abyss that is still on your bodies has already proved your loyalty to the Ice Empress. Therefore...I, in the name of the Executive Doll, accept your allegiance.”

“Admit that you have joined...[Confinement]”

After the white-haired girl’s words, the original Ka players had been using [? ? ?] The mysterious Winter Faction had finally revealed the true name of the organization to the players.

“Confinement holder.”

He noticed that many foreigners were curious about the name of the organization and repeated it. At this moment, the voice of the doll sounded just right.

"The fearful has betrayed the oath. The night watcher has left his post. No one can stop the coming winter."

"The hard ice will become a cage of desire and sin, and the frost will become a lock of love and hate. Only by being locked up can one be saved."

He seemed to be unfathomable.

Although the "doll" as the executive officer was extremely solemn and serious, as if he was reciting the dogma, the players of Ka were only complaining about the old Riddler and were more concerned about the reward segment.

Although they are the second five-year-old, they are the second five-year-old No, they were spies, but that didn't stop them from taking the benefits of the "Confiners". It should be said that the more benefits they took, the more the organization would be weakened.

And then...

Reality proved that not every NPC was called the Fox-faced Witch, and not every NPC would be as selfless and good to them as a certain little girl.

From the perspective of the "doll", it was already the greatest gift for him to take in these players and let them officially join the "Confinement."

Rewards?

He was thinking too much.

However, as if it did not want to dampen the enthusiasm of the foreigner, the doll still symbolically encouraged him.

"Don't worry, as long as you perform well, the Empress will not mistreat you."

"Then may I ask, Lord Doll, what is our next mission..." If he could not get the reward, he would at least ask for information. Hei Yu immediately asked.

The doll was very satisfied with Hei Yu's positive performance. She looked into the distance and said softly,

“The Thousand Islands are no longer of any value to us. I’ve already arranged for a ship to cross the distance. Next, we’ll immediately set off to the next planned location of the support organization...”

“Gui Li.”

Chapter 843: Little Black VS Louise (1)

The journey to the Thousand Islands had come to an end.

The little wolf cub’s next step was to return to the Flame Domain and check on the Fire God’s condition after obtaining the Water God’s Chains. He could also ask the Fire God about his ” breakthrough ” and if he could get some ” defensive items ” from the system that would help him break through.

But of course, before leaving the Thousand Island, he still had something to do. Now that the Fallen Abyss had descended, he could finally deal with it.

Bang! Bang! Bang

The quiet night was broken by a loud rumble. A bunch of flames shot into the sky and exploded in the clear night sky. Under the exquisite design, they formed dazzling fireworks that bloomed everywhere on Sakuragi Island.

The Nagano family’s fireworks were indeed worthy of their reputation. Not only were they beautiful, but they were also custom-made. After the largest beam of fire exploded in the air, it turned into a firework in the shape of a fox-faced witch in the night sky, causing the people below to cheer.

The fireworks display was a traditional custom of the people of the Thousand Islands. As the saying went, there was nothing better than gathering with friends on the hillside at night and looking at the bright fireworks in the starry night after the bitter end.

Tonight was destined to be a sleepless night for the players and natives of the Thousand Islands and Sakuragi Island.

From another perspective.

Tonight was indeed...

It wouldn't be peaceful.

The night of the fireworks display was specially chosen because the celebration and the explosion of fireworks were the best means of concealment. The wolf cubs did not want to cause any commotion that might cause panic among the ordinary people.

They arrived at an uninhabited mountain near the coast.

Under the night sky, the wolf cub flipped its paw. A translucent ruby crystal emitted a faint blood-red glow in the darkness, mysterious and beautiful.

After taking a deep breath, he exerted a little strength with his claws. With a crisp crack, the blood-red crystal cracked open and turned into red light spots, disappearing into the air.

One second...Five seconds...At the end of the 10th second, the sound of high heels clattering could be heard on the barren mountain. At the same time, there was a lazy female voice with a rather surprised tone.

"Aiya...It's rare for me to secretly look forward to it. I thought that Liz wanted to invite her mother to watch such beautiful fireworks together. After all, such a good atmosphere should be the best time to get closer to her mother. But now it seems..."

"Am I overthinking things?"

The lady with the lazy voice walked out of the darkness. The voluptuous and graceful lady stood under the moonlight.

Her rose-red eyes were fixed on a rock not far away. A creature was also staring at her...

Black Wolf.

"Since this piece of my ancestral crystal has appeared in your hands, it seems that Liz's choice should have an answer."

Louise muttered to herself, then shook her head regretfully.

"Although I don't have much hope, I still have to ask one more question. So that child chose... Staying, is there a need to check out?"

Liao Zixuan did not answer directly, but asked back,""You want to bring her back to Qing Feng to impart the knowledge of the Blood Clan?"

“You can understand it that way.”

“Are you doing the same to your other children?” Spread the net, and then who would miraculously awaken your bloodline and bring it home?”

“Oh...” Louise tapped her chin with her finger, as if she was considering whether to answer this question.

However, she quickly nodded.

“Normally, I wouldn’t tell outsiders about this kind of private matter, but to you, strictly speaking, you can’t be considered an outsider.”

” Liz is a special case that even I didn’t expect. As for my other children, although I might already be a very irresponsible bastard mother in your impression, they were all watched and protected by me from the moment they were born.”

“If Liz really wants to go to Green Maple with you to learn knowledge, what identity will she use? Liszt Sisle, or...Liz Dracula?

Louise smiled and didn’t answer the question. Or rather, she felt that there was no need to answer.

He gave up his original surname and joined a real family.

This was the most basic requirement.

Sigh...

This time, it was Black Wolf’s turn to sigh.

Liao Zixuan shook his head in his heart.

As expected.

It was not easy to resolve this peacefully.

Why did he still come to look for Louise today? In fact, he still had a trace of luck and fantasy in his heart. He wanted to see if he could obtain some of the Blood Breed’s secret techniques for Liz through negotiations with Louise.

After all, he could rely on the players to raise Liz’s level. However, while level was important, it was definitely not enough to just have a level whiteboard.

As a member of the Blood Clan, it was possible for Liz to learn other techniques, but this was undoubtedly a waste of time. Sooner or later, she would still have to embark on the cultivation system of the Blood Clan.

In this regard, Liao Zixuan really couldn't help. He still couldn't come into contact with such secret techniques and special race skill books. After thinking about it, Louise was the only way.

It was because of this that tonight's meeting was held.

However, Louise's last condition had crossed Liao Zixuan's bottom line. He knew that for Liz, her surname symbolized her childhood memories. If he forcefully changed it, it would be equivalent to completely severing the relationship between Liz and his past self.

That was impossible.

Lize was Lize. Liao Xuan firmly believed that perhaps others would use Dracula, the top surname of the Blood Clan, as the glory of their lives, but for that stubborn noble girl, it would only be humiliation and pain.

At this point, the remaining options were clear.

Since there was no other way to rely on "moving his mouth"...

Then, he could only rely on 'physical' to increase his bargaining chips.

The outline of the black wolf on the rock began to expand rapidly in the hazy night. The shadow of the black wolf reflected by the moonlight grew to the size of a mountain in the blink of an eye.

When he came back to his senses, the huge rock that was a few meters wide had now become a small stone under the black wolf's claws.

She looked down at the noble lady from above.

Its huge wolf eyes shone with a dark green light that seemed to go straight to the netherworld. In the deepest part of its eyes, one could see a raging battle intent.

Ever since he entered the growth stage, Liao Zixuan hadn't fought with his full strength for a long time. After all, there were very few forbidden demons that could be called "opponents."

Previously, when he was on the Astorokis, he had fought with the Yamata. Now, he was already half a step into the mature stage. Liao Zixuan was also eager to find a target to practice with so that he could feel the changes in his strength.

Therefore, today was not just to get justice for Liz.

The Vampire Progenitor Louise was a woman known as a "demigod." Liao Zixuan felt that if he let her go, he would be able to find such a good person who would allow him to fight with his full strength without any worries...It would not be easy.

Chapter 844 - 844: Little Black VS Louise (2)

Chapter 844: Little Black VS Louise (2)

He could feel the forbidden aura coming at him, as well as the undisguised challenging gaze on him.

Louise was stunned at first. She admitted that she had thought of many possibilities tonight, but she had never thought that her daughter's lover would actually...

He wanted to fight with her?

"The youngsters nowadays..." Louise couldn't help but laugh as she shook her head.

However, she did not feel provoked.

On the contrary.

In the woman's heart, she felt a nerve that had been sleeping and forgotten. At this moment, it was as if it had been gently stirred, causing her entire body to feel as if a weak electric current had passed through her.

After all, ever since she became the third ancestor, it had been countless centuries. Not a single person had dared to contradict her, let alone challenge her directly.

Other than the last time he met Liz, this black wolf was the first.

And unlike Liz.

Liz's strength was too weak, so to Louise, it was more like a daughter throwing a tantrum. It was far from even a fight.

However, this black wolf at this moment...

Louise couldn't help but lick her lips.

The burning heat waves swept over the barren mountains, but I still couldn't see the slightest trace of fire and shadow.

The noblewoman narrowed her eyes and looked up at the night background that began to distort after the black wolf's true body appeared.

It was not a strange phenomenon in space, but the dark flames on the black wolf's body overlapped with the night sky. The swaying dark flames merged into the night sky as if they had become one with the darkness.

Logically speaking, with her current Progenitor level body, the temperature that could make her feel a burning sensation should have melted the barren mountain a long time ago.

However, when Louise saw the black flames surging on the black wolf's body, she came to a realization.

No wonder.

This was because some flames could burn the body, but there were also some that could burn the soul.

It was obvious that Black Wolf was the latter. The "burning" he felt was not from his physical body, but from his soul.

What was a forbidden aura? This was a forbidden aura.

Louise could feel her body instinctively sending her a dangerous signal. Although it was very weak, it was enough to stimulate her and make her excited.

After all, for a person with a parched mouth, even a few raindrops in the sky would be like dew.

"Little fellow, don't blame me for not warning you. Once I make a move, I won't show any mercy."

Louise's answer was:

"No need."

After pausing for a few seconds, Hei Lang added, "Auntie."

Liao Zixuan admitted that he wanted to call her "auntie", but he felt that it was a little inappropriate, so he reluctantly changed it to a more polite "auntie".

However, it was obvious.

Louise didn't appreciate it.

"Ha..."

"Hehehe..." A low and terrifying laugh echoed throughout the barren mountain.

Although the noblewoman was smiling, the smile on Louise's lips had clearly disappeared. On the contrary, a few faint black lines appeared on her fair forehead.

"You know what? I'm angry, but...It's very scary."

Shua!

As soon as he finished speaking, Louise's figure disappeared from Liao Zixuan's vision.

So fast...

Liao Zixuan's consciousness hadn't caught up yet, but fortunately, his instinct as a forbidden demon had already made his body move first.

Hei Lang subconsciously tilted his head, and in the next moment, a slender leg wrapped in black stockings swept towards his previous position at high speed with a violent wind.

The bright red high heels on her toes almost brushed past the side of his head and brushed past Hei Lang's face.

Although Louise's human form was less than a quarter of the Black Wolf's head, and she looked like a mini toy to the Black Wolf, in reality...

Bang!

It was the sound of air being compressed.

When a "mini toy" could casually kick the air and create a sonic boom that was more than ten square meters in size, and the aftershock did not even stop, one would lose their ability to judge the size of the toy.

Liao Xuan, who had dodged the kick, did not hesitate at all. He took advantage of Louise's stiff movement to open his bloody mouth and bite at the lady.

The sharp fangs glinted coldly under the moonlight, like a giant meat grinder, mercilessly wanting to devour Louise.

Kacha!

Liao Zixuan was not happy because he did not feel anything. Countless bats flew out from the gaps between his teeth and finally condensed into a beautiful woman on the black wolf's head.

"Auntie, if I step on this one, it will hurt a lot..."

This time, it became the frozen state of the black wolf after biting. He could only let Louise, who was smiling, raise her rose-red high heels and "tap" his head.

Boom!

The huge force from above caused the black wolf to lose its balance and fall to the ground, splashing a large amount of sand and dust in the night.

However, after the dust settled, Black Wolf shook off the soil on his body and stood up again as if nothing had happened. No one would dare to say that the Forbidden Demon was the number one in terms of resistance to beatings.

The black wolf did not give up and even took the initiative to attack, flying towards the figure of the lady in the air.

Just like that, on the barren mountain, continuous sonic booms and the sound of huge bodies being hammered onto the ground echoed for a long time.

Fortunately, there were similar fireworks everywhere on Sakuragi Island. Otherwise, the huge commotion here would definitely cause a lot of chaos.

At first, it was mainly because Black Wolf was at a disadvantage. Most of Liao Zixuan's attacks could be easily dodged by Louise, but Liao Zixuan could rely on his instincts to dodge 50% of the noblewoman's punches and kicks, and the remaining 50% had to be beaten up.

However, as time passed, the number of times Black Wolf was kicked down from the air began to decrease. On the other hand, on Louise's side, the frequency at which the noblewoman used her bat form to dodge increased significantly.

The fundamental reason was that Liao Zixuan was getting more and more familiar with his body after being beaten and counterattacked again and again. He became more coordinated and comfortable.

Both sides had a tacit understanding and didn't use any Authority or skills. It was pure physical combat. For Liao Zixuan, this was simply the most precious experience, allowing him to digest and absorb the "instinct" of the forbidden monster bit by bit and turn it into his own.

This was why he wanted to fight Louise.

Finally.

He secretly calculated the cooldown of Louise's "Bat" skill. After tricking her out in a detailed attack, Liao Zixuan's control over his body became higher and higher, allowing him to accurately land his attack on the spot where Louise would definitely appear.

Huff!

The howling wolf claw came down from above, just in time for Louise's bat to re-condense into a human form. It slapped fiercely at the position where she stood up.

For the first time, it was not the black wolf's huge body that fell from the sky at high speed.

After a loud "bang" and the dust settled, Louise, who was covered in dust, crawled out of a big pit on the barren mountain.

Her beautiful evening gown was torn apart, revealing her fair and smooth back. In the middle, a pair of blood-red wings slowly spread out.

"It's not bad as an appetizer. Little fellow, this is your last chance to call a time-out. If you continue...Even my sister can't control herself."

In the night sky, it was considered that it had just finished warming up and had finally relaxed its lazy muscles. The black wolf, which was full of eagerness, naturally did not even think about it. It even opened its mouth to answer in a slightly urging tone.

"Auntie, you talk too much. If you want to fight, then so be it. Why are you still acting like an auntie?"

Louise was speechless.

"Good, very good."

Chapter 845 - 845: Little Black VS Louise (2)

Chapter 845: Little Black VS Louise (2)

Reality proved that it was scary to make a woman angry.

Especially when this woman was still an old woman.

Blood-red chains burst out from the ground and shot straight at the black wolf's vital points. Even though Liao Zixuan dodged at the first moment, he was still bound by the chains and could not move.

These blood-red chains were many times tougher than Liz's. Even with the physical strength of a forbidden demon, it was difficult to break free.

However, since Louise had used her ability first, Liao Zixuan would not hide it anymore.

Since brute force was not enough to solve the problem, he would have to use another method. The black flames that were surging all over the black wolf's body instantly flourished. The activated dark flames immediately climbed up the foreign chains that were wrapped around its body.

No matter how strong the blood chains were, when they came into contact with the dark flame, they began to melt like the first snow under the scorching sun.

Unfortunately, the Black Wolf was still in its growth stage. The amount of dark flames it could mobilize was limited. It could not cover its entire body in one go. Even if it delayed for two or three seconds, it was enough for Louise, who was originally trying to stall for time.

"Blood Brand, third...Blood poisoning."

While the black wolf was breaking free from the chains, a complicated and obscure scarlet magic array was completed under the lady's feet.

A long and exquisite ruby cane had appeared in Louise's hand. After the noble lady finished chanting, she snorted coldly at the black wolf in the distance and waved her cane at the black wolf.

The blood-red mark that was originally carved on the magic circle under Louise's feet immediately flew out and rapidly expanded in the air. Finally, it formed a net that covered the entire body of the black wolf and fused into it.

Liao Zixuan, who had finally broken free from the shackles, immediately felt that his body was abnormal. The temperature of his whole body suddenly dropped, as if he had fallen into an ice cave. This feeling was not due to the change in the temperature of the outside world, but because the flow of blood in his body began to slow down, causing the abilities of all parts of his body to begin to decrease significantly.

[Septic Mark: All attributes-30%, this value will continue to increase as you move]

Without giving Black Wolf too much time to react, the next moment, there was a sound of air being torn. The cane in the palm of the lady not far away had turned into a scarlet whip covered with thorns.

The Black Wolf was affected by the " Sepsis ", and its reaction speed decreased greatly. It also did not dare to move too much because of the skill description. It already had insufficient blood supply. If it moved too much, it would only aggravate the blood shortage.

However, this was exactly what Louise wanted. Her Thorny Blood Whip did not suffer much resistance and hit the black wolf's body. As a Progenitor Vampire's attack, the forbidden monster, which was only in its growth stage, obviously could not completely defend itself. The blood whip broke through the black wolf's skin and left a bloody mark on Liao Zixuan's body.

However, this was not the end. If one looked closely, one would realize that the thorns on the blood whip were not ordinary barbs. With every lash, they would steal nutrients from the flesh of the black wolf that was whipped open, absorb the power of the black wolf, and then transfer it back to Louise, the holder of the blood whip.

However, even though he was at a disadvantage, Liao Zixuan did not panic.

There was no other reason. As a forbidden demon, Liao Zixuan's extremely thick HP bar was the source of his confidence.

Although Louise had whipped him into a sorry state, and his body was covered in whip marks and blood, Liao Zixuan's health bar had only dropped by a very small amount. To put it bluntly, these were all harmless external injuries.

However, he couldn't keep being beaten like this.

The first thing he had to deal with was the negative effect of [Septicuria].

The biggest difference between a native and a player was that Liao Zixuan's abilities were not necessarily limited to the skill bar.

He took a deep breath.

Black Wolf silently endured Louise's blood whip and the pain coming from all over his body. Liao Zixuan focused his mind and continued to try to control his Dark Flame. This time, it did not overflow out of his body. Instead, he retracted the Dark Flame into his body and tried to let it flow and burn in his body.

The black flames on the black wolf's surface instantly became much weaker, but on the contrary, the internal organs that were originally sealed and shackled began to become more active under the stimulation of the dark flames.

Liao Zixuan couldn't eliminate the negative effect of [Septicosis] on his body, but after trying to let the Dark Flame "burn" the inside, the originally sluggish blood flow finally warmed up bit by bit.

Even though it was not at its normal state, at least it was no longer as sluggish as before.

On the corresponding interface, all attributes were reduced from 30% to 19%, and this number continued to decrease. Most importantly, there was no longer the effect of worsening the effect after moving.

Feasible!

So Dark Flame could be used like this!

In fact, this was the so-called abnormal state resistance, this was a hidden attribute, and now it was gradually mastered by Liao Zixuan.

Hei Lang looked like he was still in a sorry state, but the excitement and fighting spirit in his wolf eyes did not decrease at all. After all, instead of saying that the man and the wolf were fighting, it was more like Louise, the teacher, was throwing questions at Hei Lang one after another.

Although the process of solving the problem was slightly painful, when he really solved it, he felt that he had learned a little more and improved a little more. Liao Zixuan couldn't stop himself.

Where else could he find such a good mother?

However, it was a pity.

Just as Black Wolf was eager to give it a try and was prepared to change his attack this time and launch a counterattack.

Something unexpected happened.

It was a very, very, very serious accident.

A fiery red meteor streaked across the night sky. Was that a firework? Obviously not, because this Heavenly Fire Meteor had a clear destination. Under the red light, the place where the meteor fell was directly at the mountain where Black Wolf and Louise were fighting.

Boom!

Finally, the meteor crashed down with a violent sound. Even though the dust had not dispersed, one could still see a burning red sword stabbed into the ground. This was the meteor that had descended from the sky.

Louise, who was holding the blood whip, didn't recognize him at first.

However, Black Wolf's heart skipped a beat. When he finally saw the Heavenly Fire Greatsword, he cried out in his heart that he was finished.

That's right.

When his vision gradually became clearer, he could see the figure of a little girl behind the flickering flames of the greatsword.

Her small but powerful hand gripped the hilt of the sword tightly from behind.

Following a loud clang.

The fiery red sword was lifted up from the ground by Vivian.

The sword that was burning with raging flames was pointed forward by its owner, facing the old woman opposite him.

"I'm here," "I'm here,"

"Here..."

"Bullying my Little Black?"

Chapter 846 - 846: Terrifying Like Wei (1)

Chapter 846: Terrifying Like Wei (1)

The blood-red wings on her back flapped slightly. Louise looked at the little girl in front of her with interest. She raised the flaming sword high and protected the black wolf behind her.

Although the difference in size between the black wolf and the little girl seemed a little out of place, under the illumination of the big sword's flame, the little girl's murderous face undoubtedly told Louise that she was serious.

Tsk...

At this moment, the noblewoman finally realized the identity of this young lady.

She smacked her lips. Louise did not expect her first meeting with the legendary "Vivian" to be in such a way.

It was only then that the noblewoman finally understood why the Water God, who was definitely a block of ice under the cherry tree at the Yae Shrine, had taken the initiative to come and see her.

So he was waiting for her here.

With the Water God's ability to "divine", it was likely that he had already predicted tonight's scene at that time. That was why he had come to "warn" him to stop in time.

However...

Louise licked her lips.

This was her habitual action every time she was excited.

Stop... How was this possible?

If she really listened to whatever the "god" said, then there would not be that adventurer who had caused chaos in the Nine Kingdoms back then.

Therefore, Louise ignored the black wolf behind Vivian's back, which was winking at her. Instead, she tapped her feet and the blood wings on her back lifted her into the air.

Heh.

Immediately after, Louise's lips curled up as she replied to the little girl below in an arrogant tone,

"Yes, I am."

"It's me. So? Obediently take your Little Black and leave, or...Do you want to stay and be bullied by me?"

The answer to Louise was the little girl's figure rising from the ground and Vivian's cold voice.

" There's a third option."

"Shoot you down, and then... Apologize."

The Blazing Greatsword slashed towards Louise, but the noblewoman did not dodge. Instead of retreating, she advanced, brandishing the Thorn Blood Whip to wrap around the Greatsword.

When the scorching blade was only a few centimeters away from the tip of his nose, it stopped just in time. The blood whip wrapped around the sword like a vine, preventing it from moving forward.

Louise looked at the little girl with a " that's it " expression, and her provocative words did not stop.

"Your aura is not bad. However, if this is all you have, it's far from enough."

"Is that so?"

The strange voice that suddenly rang out from Vivian's mouth made Louise's heart alert. Before she could react, the little girl opposite her made an unexpected move.

Vivian tilted her body, and with a push of her toes, she completed an incredible high-speed spiral in the air.

It was this spiral that also caused the greatsword in her hand to spin. The force of the spiral immediately twisted the Thorny Blood Whip that was wrapped around the greatsword into a fried dough twist. In the next second, it could not bear the weight and was directly shattered!

"Wha..." Before the shocked girl could recover from her shock, the little girl's sword swept towards her face again.

The noblewoman instinctively dodged, but when she noticed that Vivian had somehow switched to holding the hilt of the sword with her left hand, Louise thought to herself,

The sweep was obviously just a feint, but it was hidden behind the sweep. The little girl's right hand clenched her fist tightly.

It was too late to dodge, so Louise could only cross her arms to take the hit.

Moreover, what made the noblewoman curse in her heart was that the little girl's punch was aimed straight at her face without any regard for martial ethics.

Bang!

Louise's body flew out like a cannonball in the air, but she could not breathe at all because Louise could sense that the attack from the little girl was not over yet.

All the mana around the barren mountain started to surge. Then, like a toilet bowl, a large amount of mana rushed towards the center of a vortex, and that center...

It was Vivian.

One ring...Three rings...Seven rings...16 circles. The girl was currently casting the most basic spell, Arcane Missile. Every shining blue circle represented a magic enhancement to the missile. The textbook standard for Arcane Missile was a three-circle enhancement, but in reality, it was already good enough for a beginner apprentice to be able to use two circles.

However, the number of Rings of Mathematical Olympiad that appeared in Vivian's hands was as many as...Twenty-five!

If it wasn't for the fact that the time was too short, he believed that the little girl would definitely be able to easily break through the 100 mark.

The Arcane Missile, which had been enhanced by twenty-five layers of magic rings, had long left the range of the most basic magic. Its dazzling white light even lit up the night sky. When Vivian did not hesitate to aim at the point where Louise fell and finally launched it, it was like a meteor in the daytime.

"Which f * cking

Louise decided that when she got back, she would definitely beat up the foreigner from the Flame Domain who claimed to be Vivian's true fan.

She tried to stabilize her falling body and quickly put up a blood-red defensive barrier. Even so, Louise was still smashed into a pit that was a few meters deep by the meteor missile.

Of course, the noble lady would not be beaten all the time.

The blood mark that was similar to the one used to deal with Liao Zixuan was secretly condensed by Louise during the fight and thrown directly at Vivian.

However, who would have thought that the little girl's figure would only pause for a moment before rushing towards him as if nothing had happened.

How was this possible?

Louise believed that even if it was only the third blood mark, ordinary power would not be able to resist it, unless...That was taboo power.

Wait a minute.

Could it be the sword in her hand?

It was not until then that Louise shifted her attention from Vivian to the flaming sword in her hand. After a careful examination, she realized that the flame on the sword was different from the black wolf. It was full of "raw" flavor and could easily remove all negative effects. As far as Louise knew, this ability could only be achieved by the Forbidden Phoenix in the legends of the Fire Domain.

So... Not only was there a Forbidden Black Wolf, but there was also a Phoenix! ?

"God of Fire, you f * cking shameless bastard!"

"In the past, you would hide whatever little benefits you wanted. Now, you want to give away all your wealth, right?"

Although Vivian did not hurt Louise much, she was very insulting.

When she saw the little girl bravely standing in front of her companions and drawing her sword at her, the "evil villain", Louise seemed to see the shadow of her youth in Vivian.

But now it seemed like...

Bah!

When she was young, she had never enjoyed the personal care of the Water God, nor had she been so generous to the Fire God.

The noble lady who had broken through her defense cursed in her heart.

He thought that this was the end.

Until...

Seeing that the attack did not seem to work on the lady, Vivian took out a card from her pocket.

The sharp-eyed Louise immediately noticed that it was a Ji Xing card.

It was still a...

It was a very unusual travel record tablet.

Chapter 847 - 847: Terrifying as Wei (3)

Chapter 847: Terrifying as Wei (3)

The girl was carrying an RPG on her shoulder.

Liao Zixuan had thought that it was a scene that only appeared in novels and manga, but he did not expect that one day, he would be the one to suffer.

When the two Annihilation Planets killed the Devil King Crab in seconds, it caused such a huge commotion. This was the reason why there was no widespread discussion about the Annihilation Planets.

After the two shots, they quickly put away the Annihilation Star.

However, with the size and specifications of that strategic heavy cannon, it was impossible to store it with just one Ji Xing card. Therefore, he could only disassemble it again and store it in many Ji Xing cards one by one. This way, it was convenient to transport it, and it could be assembled when it was used again.

Vivian was carrying a thick black cylinder that was several meters long on her shoulder. It was one of the cannon parts of Planet Annihilation. Then, the little girl took out a card with her other hand. It was a simple core device. After the two were assembled with a click...

A simple hand-held "Pseudo-Annihilation Star" was born.

The Annihilation Star was actually a power amplifier. Through various delicate internal structures, it could release the power of the cannon by a hundred times, or even a thousand times.

Although the simplified version in Vivian's hands was not as terrifying as the original version, it was at least dozens of times more powerful.

At that time, the Annihilation Star had turned an entire beach into a bay. If the little girl's cannon was really fired, the mountain would probably become history.

What made Liao Zixuan, who had already transformed back into a wolf cub, sweat was that from Vivian's expression, the little girl was serious.

She had already begun to gather all her magic power and pour it into the cannon. It looked like she really wanted to fight Louise to the death.

Good fellow!

Was this still the little girl who would blame herself for accidentally stepping on an ant? Now, they could flatten a mountain without even blinking their eyes.

At this point, if he did not stop the fight, something big would probably happen.

Before the blue light of Vivian's cannon was fully filled, the wolf cub rushed to the front of the little girl and used his body to block the cannon.

"Little... Xiao Hei?" Seeing the wolf cub's figure, the light from the muzzle quickly faded, and the anger in Vivian's eyes.

Not far away, Louise, who had been locked on, also quietly breathed a sigh of relief. Now that she had spread her wings, she was already in her second form. But if she really wanted to take Vivian's shot, she had to activate her "third form". Then, she would really be unable to stop.

"Xiao Hei, your injuries..." The first thing Vivian noticed was the wolf cub's appearance.

After all, in the eyes of the little girl who rushed over at that time, she almost thought that Black Wolf was about to die. At this time, Liao Zixuan quickly explained to Vivian that those were only superficial wounds that looked scary, the whole process, and Louise's true identity.

The expression on the little girl's face was first a long sigh of relief, then shock. Finally, she completely understood that Louise was actually Liz's mother. In fact, the wolf cubs had taken the initiative to fight Louise. Both parties were just cutting off each other. Or more accurately, Louise was being Little Black's free sparring partner...

Vivian had already turned into an octopus and began to make inarticulate sounds like clara.

Five minutes later.

"Yes... I'm sorry!"

"I'm very, very sorry!"

"I was too impulsive. I'm really sorry, Auntie Louise!"

Looking at the little girl who was apologizing to her like a chick pecking at rice, Louise sighed in her heart. Who would have thought that such a weak little girl would carry a cannon and want to kill her a few minutes ago?

Indeed, one could not judge a book by its cover.

There was also...

Louise's mouth twitched when she heard Vivian calling her "auntie". But how should she put it? When Vivian suddenly turned back into that innocent little girl, Louise felt a little embarrassed.

Forget it.

So be it. She was indeed an old woman, especially after feeling the "vitality" of the "young people" today. Louise had to admit that she was indeed old.

Moreover, compared to this...

Louise was obviously more concerned about the card that Vivian had taken out earlier.

"Can I take a look? Your travel record card?"

Although the little girl apologized, she was still wary of Louise. However, after the wolf cubs quietly tugged at Vivian's clothes with their claws, indicating that the little girl did not need to worry, Vivian quickly handed several cards containing the "Annihilation Planet" to the noblewoman.

"Yes..."

"It's indeed the type that I've never seen before, so... So the Travelling Notes Token could be used in this way? Interesting..." Louise muttered to herself as she played with the cards.

A blood-red liquid appeared in Louise's hand and flowed into the card. The lady closed her eyes as if she was sensing the internal structure of the card. Soon...

Shua!

A green Book of the Covenant was actually extracted by Louise from the card. When the noblewoman saw the words "Preface" written at the beginning of the "Covenant" and the signature at the end...

The corner of the lady's mouth twitched again.

Louise was very sure that the Book of the Covenant hidden in the card had a strong divinity. It could almost be seen as a modified variant of the Heart of God. Coupled with the place where the Travelling Chronicles Card was issued...

Louise didn't need to mention which God was behind the scenes.

Originally, she thought that it was already exaggerated enough that there were two 'traces' of gods on the little girl's body, but now it seemed...

Alright.

Louise maintained an elegant smile on the surface, but in reality, she was so angry that she was about to laugh.

Back then, when I was running around the world, you were really slacking off. Now, you have to take care of a foreign girl who has nothing to do with you from afar, right?

Where's your ? Back then, when he was chased to Green Maple by his enemies and was forced to hide here and there, licking blood on the tip of the knife all day, you didn't care about anything and didn't care about anything!!

Louise: [* The language of the Qing family *—]

"What is it? What did Aunt Louise just say?" Vivian tilted her head and did not hear clearly.

"Nothing much. I was just greeting a certain hardworking god."

Louise explained with a smile.

"Let's not talk about this for now, Vivian. Can I ask you about your next plan?"

"Oh... "We're going to return to the Flame Domain first and visit Lord Fire God. Then, we'll see if we can get some methods from Lord Fire God to help Xiao Hei break through."

"Is that so..." Louise nodded.

Suddenly, her eyes turned and the corners of her mouth curled up.

"Even if it is, take it as an apology from me. I'll provide you with a piece of information for free!"

Chapter 848 - 848: What Is A Tool Aunty!_1

Chapter 848: What Is A Tool Aunty!_1

"After that little mage from your Flame Domain sent the Water God's Chains to Alice, the Fire God had already fallen into a deep sleep. He was using the power of the necklace to cleanse the filth of the Fallen Abyss on his body. So even if you went to look for him, unfortunately, Alice probably wouldn't be able to see you."

"Eh? Is that so..." Vivian nodded in surprise. She did not doubt the accuracy of Louise's information.

After all, he was able to accurately say that Damir had sent the necklace over. Just this point alone should have been known by very few people back then.

Now Vivian was a little worried. Without the path of Vulcan, where should she help Blackie to break through?

He seemed to have read Vivian's mind.

Louise laughed again.

"The information just now was an apology. As for the following information, take it as a thank you for taking care of Liz."

"You said that the other purpose of looking for the Fire God is to find out the method to help the forbidden monster break through. Although I'm not an expert in this area, I know a little. The most critical point of the forbidden monster's breakthrough is not the breakthrough itself, but how to protect itself during the breakthrough."

"Protect him well...By myself." Vivian was listening carefully.

Louise nodded her head." Yes, I believe you." Little Black should have realized it long ago."

"So, if you really don't have a clue and are confused, I can give you a suggestion. After all...When it came to 'protection', the other eight of the Nine Gods combined might not even be able to match up to that one."

The lady smiled mysteriously at Vivian.

Although her words sounded exaggerated, from Louise's expression, she didn't seem to be exaggerating.

“So that person is...” Vivian couldn’t help but ask. This was a big question about Blackie, and it was undoubtedly the top priority in the little girl’s heart.

Even if it was a god that was far away and difficult to deal with, she would definitely go and ask for an audience.

Louise read the little girl’s concerns and waved her hand with a relaxed smile. “Don’t be so nervous. Don’t worry. The God I’m talking about is not only in the Eastern Continent, but he’s also not far away. Moreover, that old man can be said to be the most reliable one among the Nine Gods.”

“Very... Very easy to talk to!” This was definitely good news for Vivian.

Louise’s subsequent explanation further proved this point to the little girl.

“That’s right. Compared to those who wanted to chop me with that knife, roast me over a fire, and slice me up for experiments, they insisted that I choose one of the two...”

Louise counted her fingers and recalled her experiences. She sighed again with certainty,

“That old man just invited me for tea and a walk. If this isn’t easy to talk to, then what is?”

“Uh... Yes, yes, indeed.” Vivian listened to Louise’s ” glorious ” experience and nodded obediently.

“So if I were you, my next stop would be Guili, to find that...Rock God.”

“Guili...Rock God...”

Vivian repeated the two words with a hint of surprise, because if she were to count her foreign friends, the first one would definitely be Thousand Islands, and the second most... It was Gui Li!

Whether it was Uncle Zhao Jie or Captain Nan, they were both from Guili. At the very least, they wouldn’t be caught off guard when they arrived in Guili.

“From the looks of it, you should have a direction. That’s good.”

“Yes! Aunt Louise, thank you very much for this information. It’s so useful! Thank you!” The little girl thanked him profusely.

The little wolf cub, who had been lying in Vivian’s arms, also thought that it was a coincidence. Even if Louise was not here, Liao Zixuan’s next plan for them was to return to Guili after visiting relatives in the Fire Domain.

Although he had never seen it before and did not know that the Rock God could help him break through, he knew that according to the version in his previous life, the third country was Gui Li. It was a pity that even in his previous life, he had only reached half of 3.0. The further he went, the less the benefits of predicting the future would be.

However, Liao Zixuan actually did not care about this. Instead, it was better to say that the unknown was where the fun lay. It was enough to earn the first bucket of gold by relying on the experience of his previous life. Sooner or later, he would have to rely on himself to walk down the road in the future.

Seeing that Louise was about to leave after giving Vivian two pieces of information, Liao Zixuan quickly stopped her.

As the saying goes, make the best use of everything. Even the elders had to squeeze out the remaining value.

The little wolf cub waved his claws and brought the snake over. At the same time, he placed a blank travel card in front of Louise.

“Hmm?”

Under the lady’s puzzled gaze, the wolf cub explained its needs to her.

Ever since the construction of Planet Annihilation, Liao Zixuan had once again witnessed the potential of the players. At the same time, he discovered a very serious problem, which was that he did not have the ability to communicate with the players across borders.

Although Vivian had inherited the game system, she obviously could not inherit the “friend system” that was exclusive to the players. This made Liao Zixuan feel very stiff, which undoubtedly limited the scope of his leeks.

Therefore, he had always wanted to abandon the game system and create a “exclusive chat group” in this world. Then, he could rope in all kinds of powerful people to join the Group chats and harvest leeks all over the world. Liao Zixuan felt excited every time he thought about it!

Moreover, because this Group chats was in the local world, not only players but also natives could join.

In fact, there was already such a huge Group chats in Fallen God, which was the Adventurer’s Association. However, it was someone else’s. If Liao Zixuan wanted to build it, of course, he had to build one that was exclusive to him and dedicated to serving Vivian!

Liao Zixuan had been troubled by how to realize this idea, but when Mei Wu and the travel record tablet appeared, he finally saw this hope.

It would be easy to spread the information through the travel records tablet, and then through Meow's authority over space and time, he could turn the travel records tablet into something like an invitation or a ticket.

When the time came, he would give any leek that he found pleasing to the eye a "Entry" token, and the other party would be able to use this token to enter a virtual Group chats space.

Everyone could get what they needed from the tablet. The exchange of information could be done verbally. If it was a treasure, a profession, or a material needed to advance a skill, it could be easily achieved by the storage function of the travel record tablet.

As the behind-the-scenes group leader, just sitting there and listening to the elite chives from all over the world chatting would probably be a very powerful and well-informed information network!

Now, everything was ready for this "chat group" plan. All that was left was the east wind. Liao Zixuan obviously did not have the technology to create such a travel record card.

However, after observing Louise's play with the Travelling Notes Token, the little wolf cub was very sure that this old woman who had lived for hundreds of years definitely had a way!

Aunt Louise, you don't want your daughter to keep having conflicts with you, do you? After helping her this time, I'll often mention you in your daughter's ear and say good things about you in the future! How was it?

Louise was speechless.

Now, she could finally see that from the moment this little wolf cub found her, it was likely that the subsequent traps were all waiting for her.

And you're even saying it in the name of avenging Liz, right?

Bah!

You're clearly using the name of my daughter. You have to be my sparring partner, provide information, and finally, you have to leech off her culinary knowledge. This... Wasn't this clearly treating her, a dignified Progenitor Vampire, as a tool?

The more he thought about it, the more he lost. The more he thought about it, the angrier he became.

If this got out, where would she put her face?

Thus, thousands of words merged into one sentence.

Louise didn't agree to the wolf cub's request, but gave Liao Zixuan a knowing look.

You have to pay more.

Chapter 849 - 849: The Night Would Have Been Longer (1)

Chapter 849: The Night Would Have Been Longer (1)

Whoosh!

"Done." After letting out a long sigh, Louise flipped her long hair.

A brand-new rose-red card was held between the lady's fingers.

The edges of the card were decorated with thorny rose thorns. The overall color was dark red according to Louise's preference.

On the card, there was a picture of a village girl wearing a nun's dress. However, the top half of the village girl's face was covered by the hood and shrouded in shadows. The exposed bottom half of the mouth was raised in a teasing manner. When paired with the pure nun's dress, it gave people the feeling of a wolf in sheep's clothing.

[Tea Party Invitation]

[Rarity: Epic]

[Type: Special Item]

[Item Effect: If used correctly, you will be eligible to participate in the Witch's Tea Party]

(This invitation proves that you have received the approval of the witch Vivian.)

“I don’t care about the decorations and rules in the space. These privileges originally belonged to that little snake, but remember that we agreed to leave me the most prestigious seat.”

This was the final result of the discussion. Liao Zixuan agreed to let Louise be the first member of the tea party.

Although the noblewoman was pretending to be relaxed as if it was a small matter, the sweat on Louise’s forehead and her tone of voice had become much more normal. It was obvious that creating such a card was very exhausting for Louise.

Therefore, the wolf cub was not dissatisfied with this condition. He nodded his head with a relaxed expression and quickly took the invitation card from Louise’s hand.

With this template, it would be easy for him to copy as many similar invitations as he wanted. He did not have to trouble Louise anymore.

Vivian, who had been listening, was still confused. But seeing her wolf cub so happy and excited, she must have been greatly helped by Louise. The little girl also thanked her profusely.

“Alright, alright. If you really want to thank me, help me persuade Liz to return to Green Maple with me. Returning to her ancestors is the right choice for her. Every bit of willfulness she has now is a waste of every bit of her talent.”

It was obvious that Louise was still thinking about it, especially after the fight with Vivian and the wolf cubs.

Perhaps this was the anxiety that every mother would have after seeing someone else’s child.

However...

The little girl, who was very grateful to Louise just now, did not back down on this issue. She said seriously to the noblewoman,

“Aunt Louise, do you know that half a year ago, I was just an ordinary village girl. I didn’t have the money to treat my family, so I asked my father to sell me to a big city to be a maid. In order to save a few silver coins for medicinal herbs, I risked my life and went deep into the monster forest alone.”

“Half a year later, I’m probably the village girl who was still busy making a living back then. I don’t even dare to imagine it in my dreams, so even I am like this, let alone someone who is much more outstanding than me.”

"I know that my few words might not be able to convince you, but I still hope that you can believe in your daughter and believe that she can walk her own path. Also... There's a phrase that Little Black often says in my ear to motivate me. I think it makes sense. Now I want to give it to you."

* Cough * * Cough *

After clearing her throat, Vivian straightened her back and imitated Blackie's tone and demeanor. In front of Louise, she said with great confidence,"

"The river flows thirty years east, and the river flows thirty years west. Don't bully a poor girl!"

Louise was speechless.

"How is it, Auntie Louise? Do you feel much more excited now?"Vivian's cheeks were flushed as she shouted the slogan. She obviously liked this phrase.

"If you like it, it's not just this sentence. Little Black also taught me a lot. Whenever I'm not confident in myself, I'll recite it in my heart. Although I don't really understand what it means, just reading it makes me feel very inspirational! I'm much more confident!"

"For example...The young girl rose with the wind in one day, soaring up 90,000 miles! My cannon fodder has the potential of an emperor! The three year period is up. Welcome..."

"Cough, cough, cough!"

The wolf cub in Vivian's arms coughed violently, interrupting the little girl's "home talk." When Louise looked at him strangely, he immediately turned his eyes away, pretending to be looking at the scenery.

"Alright then."

The lady shook her head helplessly.

"If this is what Liz wants, if you really don't take the shortcut and insist on taking a detour...Actually, it's not impossible."

"What do you mean?" Vivian and the wolf cubs quickly perked up.

"There is indeed another way. I don't have to change my surname to obtain the same Blood Tribe inheritance that even I don't know about."

"If we calculate the time, it will be about half a year later when the Travels Secret Realm of Green Maple will open. As everyone knows, Green Maple is a country of wind. The wind brings seeds from all over the world to Green Maple, and then the seeds will take root and germinate here. The Travels Secret Realm is where the precious fruits are stored after these seeds bloom and bear fruit.”

“It can be said that in the Eastern Continent, we can’t compare to Guili in terms of population, we can’t compare to Winter in terms of technology, we can’t compare to Thousand Islands in terms of faith, and we can’t compare to... Uh, in terms of the diligence of the gods, we can’t compare to the Flame Domain. However, in terms of the variety of races, in terms of the types and quantity of legacies, our Green Maple is undoubtedly the number one.”

“Therefore, in the Traversing of the Realm, you can only get what you want. There’s nothing you can’t think of. This naturally includes the Blood Breed inheritance, as long as you have enough ability and strength.”

“Help me tell Liz that if she really wants to prove herself, the Travels Mystic Realm will be her only way and her best chance, but... Don’t blame me for not reminding you. If she joins as an outsider, she’ll be standing opposite our Dracula family and becoming our competitor. I’m not sure what will happen to my other children.”

” In short, the shortcut is to change your surname and easily obtain all the legacies. As for taking a detour, you’ll have to compete with your siblings as an outsider. In any case, from a mother’s point of view, I still hope that Liz will choose the former.”

“That’s about it. I’ve stayed in the Thousand Islands for a long time. If I don’t go back soon, I’m afraid some old guys will be anxious. Oh right, by the way, if your trip to Guili is successful, you might as well come to Green Maple as a guest. I’ve been talking about Liz just now. Actually, for you, the Travels Secret Realm is also an excellent way to increase your strength.”

“Then... Goodbye, I look forward to meeting you next time.”

Louise smiled and waved at Vivian and the wolf cubs. A scarlet magic circle lit up under her feet, and she took a step back and blended into the shadows of the night.

In the next second, only a few bats were left, and the figure of the noblewoman had long disappeared.

The rapid increase in strength made Vivian think that she was very strong, but after tonight’s fight with Louise, the little girl knew that she was still not strong enough. Vivian could clearly feel that Louise had only used less than 30% to 40% of her strength to fight with her. If there was such a terrifying enemy in the future, how could she use her strength to protect the important people?

The same was true for Liao Zixuan.

Therefore...

"Again...Start to travel, but you're still in the game. Vivian looked at the moon and stroked the wolf cub in her arms.

"I keep feeling that once I leave, I don't know when I'll be able to come back."

The little girl seemed to be sighing, but soon, Vivian perked up and lifted the wolf cub in the air.

"But as long as Xiao Hei is by my side, I won't be lonely no matter how far the journey is! He wouldn't be afraid! Hehe..."

Not far away, a small sparrow that was secretly observing was a little dissatisfied when she heard that. She wanted to go forward and argue, but unfortunately, she was pulled away by the snake beside her. She went to find a little fox to dig out bird eggs.

Under the brilliant fireworks in the night sky, Vivian and the wolf cubs were lying on the lawn on the lonely peak. After the battle, they could finally enjoy the peace and leisure, enjoying the beautiful fireworks together.

"Xiao Hei, what do you think will happen when Gui Li returns?"

"Xiao Hei, do you want to bring some gifts for Uncle Zhao Jie's daughter?"

"Xiao Hei, do you think Captain Nan is willing to let us ride on her ship..."

"Xiao Hei, Xinyan's Mathematics results have been getting worse recently. I wonder how Meow is doing. Should we let the two of them attend class together..."

"Little Black, when we tell Liz and Shirley that we're leaving, they'll probably blame us again, sob sob..."

"Xiao Hei..."

The fireworks lit up the little girl's happy smile. In fact, Vivian's happiness was very simple. To be able to lie in the wolf's ear like this, whispering and nagging together, this was the most enjoyable time for the little girl.

I really hope...Tonight's night could be a little longer.

Chapter 850 - 850: The Eternal Night Tea Party (1)

Chapter 850: The Eternal Night Tea Party (1)

[Ding! Congratulations on completing the SS-rank mission "Creating the Annihilation Star". Due to your outstanding performance, you have received an additional hidden reward.]

[Ding! Special Item "Tea Party Invitation" has been stored in your backpack.]

In the cold, snowy winter.

In a hidden underground snow cave stronghold, the White Phantom, who was controlling a robotic arm in the workshop and trying to make a new weapon, immediately stopped and took off its goggles.

Following the system prompt that suddenly sounded in his mind, he quickly opened his backpack and soon found a dark red mysterious card with rose and thorn patterns lying quietly in the corner.

"There's actually a follow-up to this mission?"

After taking out this special travel record card, White Phantom's face was filled with surprise and joy.

Back when he participated in the creation of the Annihilation Planet, even if he only came into contact with a small portion of the blueprints, it was a great improvement for his Mechanic profession. Many weapons that he previously didn't have enough levels to make could now be arranged.

Not to mention the fact that the "blank travel card" was a huge Epic upgrade for a Mechanic professional player like him, who wished he could have a hundred inventory spaces.

All of these undoubtedly gave him, a test subject who had defected from the [Confinement], more confidence and means to continue fighting against the organization.

On the other hand, the more he caused a commotion, the more difficult the situation of the rebel army [White Star] became in the winter. They were even targeted by the legendary "executive officer" of the organization.

It was precisely because of this tense situation that White Phantom was so surprised by the sudden appearance of the "hidden reward." He was very eager to find more channels and ways to improve his strength.

However, before White Phantom could take a closer look at the card, the card was taken out from his backpack and suddenly shone with a dazzling light.

[Ding, you have triggered the forced storyline. In five seconds, you will be forcefully transferred to the "Tea Party "...]

"What?"

Shua!

Without giving him much time to react, White Phantom disappeared from the workshop with the card after a dark red light flashed.

Similar scenes were happening all over the world.

When White Phantom's image finally stabilized and his vision became clear again, he realized that the scene around him was no longer the workshop he was familiar with.

[Ding! Congratulations on unlocking a new map-Eternal Night Tea Party]

[Eternal Night Tea Party]

[Details: A space filled with mystery and the unknown, created by the great Witch of Eternal Night, Vivian. Only those who are favored by her are qualified to come here.]

"This..." White Phantom looked at the system's panel prompt. Before she could process what was going on in her head, another voice sounded in her ears.

"Sir, please take a seat."

A mysterious man whose face was covered by a gray fog appeared at some point. However, from the outline of his face, he should be a tall male. He reached out his hand and gestured at the White Phantom.

After he waved his hand, the space in front of the White Phantom immediately transformed into a corridor. The confused White Phantom followed the corridor to the end...

It was like a lavishly decorated living room, or a gathering place for friends.

In the sky above, there was an endless night sky. The stars scattered on a long dark red table in the middle of the room. On the left and right of the long table, there were ten high-back chairs. There were also seats in front and back.

However, judging from the texture and style of the chairs, the two chairs at the front and back of the long table were of a much higher grade than the others. It was as if there were stars shining behind them, emitting an awe-inspiring aura.

The bonfire in the furnace was burning vigorously at the side, and all kinds of exquisite pastries were placed on the long table. However, the towering stone pillars around the table added a solemn atmosphere to the place.

After the initial shock, the White Phantom soon realized that it was not the "only" guest here.

Similar corridors appeared from all directions in the space. Players who looked similar to him, confused and surprised, gathered at the Star Assembly.

It was only after a total of five players, including him, entered that there seemed to be no more newcomers. These players quickly looked at each other, revealing expressions of understanding.

That's right.

This was because they had all participated in the "Building the Annihilation Planet" project and were collaborators from the five countries. It seemed that each of them had received an additional hidden reward at the same time.

Just as White Phantom was secretly analyzing the situation...

"Yes, it seems that everyone is here."

The Guide's voice rang out again. When the gamers followed the voice, they saw that the mysterious person shrouded in gray fog had already sat on the main seat at the end of the long table.

A few chairs beside the long table were pulled out by themselves. The mysterious man waved his hand, obviously indicating for the players to sit.

After everyone obediently followed the NPC's instructions, the mysterious man spoke again.

"Hello, distinguished guests. First of all, welcome to the Eternal Night Tea Party. I see that everyone is a little nervous. Relax. As the name suggests, this is just a tea party organized by Lady Vivian."

" All of you are valued by Lady Vivian, and Lady Vivian has always liked to make friends, so she hopes that you can become friends with each other without being bound by geographical location. That's why she created such a space so that everyone can face each other, help each other, and get what they need."

" Of course, there are times when Lady Vivian's special missions will be issued by me during the tea party. If you can complete them, you will be rewarded handsomely."

"As for the rules...The only rule of the tea party was that everyone was sincere. After all, our Lady Vivian did not want to see any members of the tea party hurt by deception."

After briefly explaining the original intention of the Eternal Night Tea Party to the players, Liao Zixuan thought about it again and finally added another point.

" Although there are only six members in the tea party now, there will definitely be more and more in the future. However, I hope that before that, everyone can keep the tea party a secret. Remember, this is a private tea party. Lady Vivian does not want too much attention to distort the original intention of the tea party."

"The above is all the things to take note of during the Eternal Night Tea Party. I hope that all the invited guests can patiently abide by it. If there is any violation...If that happens, you'll be on Lady Vivian's unwelcome list for the rest of your life. Please don't try that."

"Oh, right, I almost forgot. My name is Black, and I am Lady Vivian's agent in the Eternal Night Tea Party. I am fully responsible for all the affairs in the tea party."

"Yes... After saying so much, everyone must be tired of listening, right? Then let's get straight to the point. I now announce that the first Eternal Night Tea Party... Let's officially begin!"
