

The Lord 1101

Chapter 1101: King's Stars

Bang! Bang! Bang...

As the Nation Armaments madly collided with terrifying power, explosions continuously sounded out, and the sky continued to be torn. The shockwaves turned into berserk gales, and everything in the surroundings had been annihilated.

At that moment, Zhao Fu was still bound by the countless dragon-shaped chains, and he loudly roared as he exploded out with waves of immense power. Soon, the chains and dragon images were slowly being repelled by him.

The faces of the thousand Legatees fell; they were only at a slight advantage because they were restricting Zhao Fu while the Dynasty Legatees attacked with their Nation Armaments. If Zhao Fu broke free from the bonds, the ones who died first would definitely be those without Nation Armaments.

“I, the Legatee of the Dali Kingdom, order all of the Dali Kingdom’s Fate to gather into the Dragon Formation!”

“I, the Legatee of the State of Wei, order all of the State of Wei’s Fate to gather into the Dragon Formation!”

In this moment of life and death, countless Legatees disregarded everything and raised their bloodied hands as they shouted out. Not only did they send their own power into the Dragon Formation, but they also sent their nations’ fate in as well.

Boom!!

As the countless traces of Fate fused into the Dragon Formation, the Dragon Formation instantly became more than ten times bigger, and its power reached new heights as an even greater might spread out.

The chains obtained even more power and bound Zhao Fu even more tightly, and Zhao Fu felt as if he was going to be squeezed into pieces.

The various Dynasty Legatees continued to use their Nation Armaments to madly attack. Because Zhao Fu's body was bound and his power was being suppressed, Great Qin's Nation Armaments seemed to be at a disadvantage.

This made the Legatees feel delighted, and they felt that they had a chance at killing Great Qin's Legatee. If they could kill Great Qin's Legatee, this battle would conclude and they would all have hope.

The Legatees attacked Zhao Fu even more ferociously, and their soldiers' morale greatly rose. They desperately resisted Great Qin's attacks, while Great Qin's aura became slightly weaker.

"Hahh!!" Zhao Fu roared, shaking the heavens and earth and causing a wild gale to stir.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Three massive stars appeared, one giving off boundless blood-red light, one giving off boundless gold light, and one giving off boundless gray light. They dyed the world three different colors, and their unfathomable might could barely be contained by the human world. The world continuously trembled and fell apart before being restored.

The four Guardian Beasts were protecting the human world's source energy with all their power. If the two sides continued destroying it, it would not be able to recover until a long time had passed.

Boom!

The three massive stars gave off intense starlight and a might that seemed to be enough to destroy the world. A terrifying pillar of starlight descended onto Zhao Fu's body, making his aura continuously rise.

A shocking aura of death covered everyone as they felt their bodies go stiff. Boundless terror surfaced in their hearts, and they felt as if they were going to die in the next moment.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

At that moment, they seemed to sense something, and their minds felt as if they were going to explode.

Terrifying auras rose up from every Legatee's body and shot into the sky. Different-colored stars giving off horrifying might descended to the human world.

Some stars gave off red lights, some stars gave off blue lights, some gave off violet lights, and some gave off yellow lights. Even though they were all of different colors, what united them was that they were all King's Stars.

Under the might of Zhao Fu's three Emperor's Stars, they had been forced to summon their King's Stars.

The thousand King's Stars hung in the sky, giving off different starlights and different auras. There was not a single cloud left in the sky, and the scene was simply awe-inspiring.

What happened next was even more shocking. The thousand King's Stars gave off terrifying might as they quickly moved, surrounding the three Emperor's Stars.

They each exploded out with intense starlight, and waves of powerful King's Aura formed an extraordinary King's Aura that covered the heavens and the earth. At that moment, countless people wanted to kneel down and submit to that King's Aura.

This King's Aura did not shrink back at all and pressed down towards the three Emperor's Stars, seeming incredibly ferocious as it challenged the three Emperor's Stars.

The four Guardian Beasts looked quite shocked as they watched the thousand King's Stars simultaneously descend. It was the first time they had seen such a thing before.

What shocked them even more was that these thousand King's Stars gave off a powerful King's Aura that challenged the Emperor's Stars. This was something that was almost impossible, and they could not help but feel nervous.

They did not feel much confidence in Zhao Fu, because a thousand King's Stars simultaneously descending was simply too powerful, causing even the heavens and earth to want to submit.

“Who will win the final battle of the human world?” If Great Qin won, the human world would be unified, and a new age would arrive. If the Western Continent won, the situation in the human world would be the same, and everyone would ally together to attack Great Qin.

The human world would welcome in a short period of peace, because if Great Qin lost, it would not be able to launch such a massive battle in a short period of time. If that happened, it would be a long time before the human world would be unified.

Zhao Fu’s body was strung up in the air by the dragon-shaped chains, and the various Dynasty Legatees used their Nation Armaments to madly attack. Without Zhao Fu’s direct control, Great Qin’s Nation Armaments were continuously beaten back.

The King’s Stars gave off waves of even more intense starlight, bringing with them a King’s Aura that could cause even the heavens and earth to submit as they moved towards the three Emperor’s Stars, starting an official challenge; they wanted to destroy the three Emperor’s Stars.

Zhao Fu’s face was a mask of pain from the damage from the Legatees, the backlash from unsealing the Six Paths Demon Images, and summoning the three Emperor’s Stars.

The immense pain caused Zhao Fu’s consciousness to almost disappear, and his body grew weaker and weaker.

The countless Legatees were ecstatic and became even more excited. Now, it seemed that they really would be able to kill Great Qin’s Legatee. If they could kill him, everything would end.

The Western Continent’s army’s morale soared while Great Qin’s morale fell. Great Qin’s Nation Armaments were no longer controlled by Zhao Fu and could no longer block the attacks of the Dynasty Legatees.

The Dynasty Legatees raised their Nation Armaments and gave off terrifying might as they attacked towards Zhao Fu, wanting to reduce him to dust.

Seeing this, Bai Qi felt horrified and immediately wanted to go and save Zhao Fu.

Suddenly, the powerless-looking Zhao Fu suddenly raised his head, looking at the Dynasty Legatees and causing them to feel a bone-chilling coldness. Their bodies froze, because Zhao Fu's pupils had all split.

Boom!!

An explosion that sounded like the heavens and earth exploding rang out as the four Guardian Beasts protecting the human world felt as if they had been hit by a massive force, and they all coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

Chapter 1102: Unifying the World

The Chaos Imperial Star gave off a blinding blood-red light that tore through the entire sky, seeming to dye the entire human world blood-red. The aura of killing and disaster spread like floodwaters, making everyone feel as if they had fallen into an abyss, and terror swept through their hearts.

The Celestial Emperor Star was like a golden sun that gave off fathomless golden light and covered the world. Under this light, all creatures instinctively wanted to submit, and it was as if the ruler of the world had appeared.

The Nether Emperor Star gave off a bright starlight, causing countless traces of Yin Qi to rise up from the ground. The world was filled with a cold and eerie feeling as all sorts of souls and ghosts appeared, gathering towards the Nether Emperor Star.

The three Stars each gave off the power to shake the heavens and the earth, and their light seemed to be able to pierce through the world. The thousand King's Stars continuously trembled because they now felt a wave of fear.

Just now, they had exploded with that King's Aura to challenge the three Emperor's Stars because they felt that they had the ability to destroy those three Emperor's Stars.

However, the three Emperor's Stars had released their might, causing their starlight to cover the entire human world. Their Emperor's Aura was unstoppable, and under this might, the thousand King's Stars became dim.

Boom!

A massive explosion once again sounded out as the three Emperor's Stars started to counterattack against these King's Stars, which had just challenged them.

The three Emperor's Stars gave off a wave of world-destroying Emperor's Aura, which turned into a shockwave that swept out incredibly quickly. In just an instant, the thousand King's Stars had been knocked back by an immense force.

The stars that were close actually shattered, and those at the middle became cracked. Those at the outer edges were also somewhat affected.

How could these small King's Stars resist the Emperor's Aura? The remaining King's Stars hid in the sky in fear, disappearing quickly.

The countless Legatees suffered a massive backlash from this. They felt as if they had been struck by an unimaginable force and coughed up a large mouthful of blood. Some of them fell from the sky, and it was uncertain if they were still alive.

A trace of fear appeared on the four Guardian Beasts' faces; they had never thought that Zhao Fu's power would be so great to be able to even injure them. They did not know that Zhao Fu had once suppressed the Spirit Light world's four Guardian Beasts.

Without the Legatees' support, the bindings around Zhao Fu naturally dispersed. Zhao Fu looked down at the battlefield below and slowly raised the Emperor Killing Sword.

Boom!

Zhao Fu's sword descended as a shocking blood-red light slashed out, seeming to be able to tear apart the world. The defensive wall was slashed apart by the strike, and a sword gash that was 10,000 meters wide and spanned a few regions appeared. That terrifying power caused the Western Continent's army to sink into boundless terror.

The three Emperor's Stars gradually faded into the sky, and Zhao Fu powerlessly fell from the sky. Xianru suddenly appeared and caught Zhao Fu.

Bai Qi looked away, his gaze becoming cold as he drew the Seven Murders Sword and pointed it towards the sky. The 14 others with General Armaments also raised their General Armaments and pointed them towards the sky.

“Seven Murders Star!”

“Army Destroyer Star!”

“Voracious Wolf Star!”

“Lunar Star!”

Loud shouts sounded out as rays of aura containing terrifying power shot into the sky, causing the sky to tremble, after which stars giving off terrifying auras descended.

There were 15 stars in total giving off different starlight, different than the King’s Stars and Emperor’s Stars. These stars all gave off General’s Aura as they were General Stars.

The 15 General Stars gave off terrifying might as they covered the entire battlefield, causing the atmosphere to become much heavier. The starlight dyed the world into different colors, and under those General Stars, everyone felt a sense of terror.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Bai Qi and the others activated the sixth special effect of the General Armaments, and auras continuously rose up from the soldiers. The soldiers’ eyes became blood-red, and massive power emanated out from their bodies as battle intent filled their minds, causing them to go out of control.

“Kill!” Great Qin’s soldiers gave off different auras, making them look like a multi-colored sea. They gave off a world-destroying aura as they charged towards the defensive wall.

Under this terrifying aura, the Western Continent’s army instinctively felt terror. It was unknown how many of the Legatees were still alive, causing their morale to fall. They were unable to oppose Great Qin’s ferocious aura at all.

The 100 meter tall Corpse Soul Commanders climbed up the defensive walls and destroyed the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae before chaotically swinging their weapons about, smashing soldiers into meat paste. The scene was incredibly gory and shocking.

With nothing to threaten them anymore, the Wyverns became fearless again. They blasted out flames and icy air, burning or freezing soldiers to death. After unleashing their blasts, the Wyverns leapt forwards and smashed people flying. The Wyverns started slaughtering, taking revenge for earlier.

The 20,000 Stage 4 Generals that Great Qin had hidden suddenly revealed themselves, ferociously attacking the Western Continent's City Lords, forcing the 40,000 City Lords into retreating.

Finally, Great Qin's army on the ground charged forwards like an ocean towards the defensive walls, scaling them in just a short while and breaking through the Western Continent's defenses. This meant that the Western Continent's army had failed and that Great Qin had won the final battle.

Seeing that they had already lost, countless soldiers and City Lords started to retreat and escape. Some soldiers and City Lords completely gave up, kneeling on the ground to surrender to Great Qin.

This half-month long war finally concluded, and Great Qin's soldiers and City Lords charged into the Western Continent. Now, all there was left was to conquer the Western Continent's regions. Soon, the human world would belong to Great Qin.

Boom! Boom!

Two massive explosions sounded out as two rays of light shot into the sky with immense power. Two massive doors containing incredible power appeared; one was engraved with a picture of the Divine Sun Fire bird, giving off a fiery light, and the other was engraved with a picture of the Emperor Sovereign White Whale, giving off white light.

Su Yan turned to look at the Western Continent and sighed as he shook his head, feeling quite bitter, before he walked into one of the doors. Some others also followed behind him, after which they disappeared.

Zhao Fu woke up a few days later. His injuries were not very severe this time, and by now, Great Qin had conquered most of the Western Continent and Eastern Archipelagos. Now, they only had to clear out the regions. It could be said that Great Qin had completed its goal of unifying the human world.

Following this, Zhao Fu heard about the two large doors, causing him to frown.

Those two doors were doors to other worlds, and they could be used to summon creatures. The Western Continent's forces had used similar doors to summon many Outlanders, but these two doors were different – they had been created using the Divine Sun Fire Bird egg and Emperor Sovereign White Whale egg as their cores.

This allowed the two doors to connect to other worlds, and because the two eggs were eggs of the human world's Guardian Beasts and contained the human world's source energy, they could ignore the Heaven Domain Boundary.

Chapter 1103: Door to Another World

The cost of using such a method was naturally losing the two eggs of the Guardian Beasts. The Guardian Beasts' eggs were incredibly valuable, and the loss of the eggs could cause anyone to feel pain.

What Zhao Fu cared about was not these two eggs but the method those people had used to escape the human world. Among them were many enemies of Great Qin, such as Akhenaten, Si Ji, and Su Yan.

He had never thought that those people had long since prepared a path of escape for themselves. However, he should have expected this – after all, if Great Qin won, the entire human world would belong to Great Qin. They had no other choice but to escape the human world.

After hearing that those people had escaped, Zhao Fu's good mood about finally unifying the human world was slightly ruined. He thought about it and asked, "Where did those people escape to? Is it the Grassi world?"

Beside him, Li Si replied, "Back when Commander Bai Qi sensed the abnormal ripples, he immediately sent people to investigate. However, they sensed the danger and immediately closed the two doors and disappeared. We are not sure where they were transported to."

“This Minister has also sent countless spies to the Grassi world to collect information, and we are quite sure that they are not in the Grassi world. This Minister then ordered some scholars to investigate the remnants from the magic formation, and they found that the doors use random teleportation.

“These random teleportation doors can cross many worlds, and it is impossible to track them. They must be incredibly afraid of Great Qin finding them.”

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief. If these people had gone to the Grassi people and revealed the things that had happened in the human world, Great Qin would be in a disadvantageous position and could even be in danger. Many of its plans could fail.

Even though they had escaped, luckily they had not been able to cause much trouble. Now, as the ruler of the human world, Zhao Fu did not place them in his eyes at all.

At that moment, Li Si once again spoke, saying, “Your Majesty, those who escaped were merely a very small minority. Most people were stopped by Great Qin, including the Buddhist Sect, School of Confucianism, School of Mohism, most of the Dynasty factions, and Great Tang’s Li family.”

Hearing that many people had been stopped, a trace of a smile appeared on Zhao Fu’s face. These people had dared to oppose Great Qin and cause Great Qin to suffer heavy losses. Almost 70% of the army was injured or dead, and they had lost 600 million soldiers and around 100 Wyverns.

Such a massive loss was a big blow to Great Qin, and this had been caused by these people. If they had all been able to escape, it would be simply too unjust.

Since they had been stopped, Zhao Fu wanted to properly punish them, so a smile appeared on his face. However, after hearing about Great Tang’s Li family, his smile died down, and a cold glimmer appeared in his eyes as he asked, “Where are they?”

Li Si sensed the changes in Zhao Fu and replied earnestly, “The Li family is one of Great Qin’s main targets, so when Great Tang’s army withdrew, Great Qin’s forces chased them down. When we reached their Legacy City, we found that they had already relocated their City and escaped, abandoning their countless soldiers and residents.

“Great Qin quickly chased after them and were finally able to corner Great Tang’s Li family. Following this, they desperately resisted, but they were still taken captive by Great Qin’s soldiers.

“However, Great Tang’s Legatee, Li Baiqing, escaped, taking with him the Nation Armament and the Great Tang City. From the reports we have, it seems that he also stepped through one of the doors.”

Hearing that Li Baiqing had escaped with the Nation Armament and Great Tang City, Zhao Fu felt quite displeased.

Li Si immediately continued, “Your Majesty, out of everyone in the Li family, only he was able to escape; everyone else has been captured by Great Qin, including his woman, his father, and the Li family’s old patriarch. None of them were able to escape, and they are being held in prison.”

Zhao Fu nodded, feeling a bit more pleased. Even though he did not want to admit it, his little brother his escaping with the Nation Armament and the Great Tang City would definitely bring trouble for Great Qin in the future. It was better to get rid of as many of these troubles as possible.

Li Si then cupped his hands said, “Your Majesty, Great Qin has also taken down the Great British Kingdom. Out of all of the Legatees, Tina Pendragon most likely received the greatest backlash and still has not awakened, and her life is in danger.

“We have already arranged for her to have the best treatment. Would Your Majesty like to have her healed or allow her to die?”

“Tina Pendragon?” Zhao Fu thought about everything that had happened, and he felt respect for this woman. If it wasn’t for the fact that they stood on different sides, they might have been able to become friends.

During this final battle, not only did she lead the Western Continent, but she was also the most powerful and had the most Fate. Back when Zhao Fu’s three Emperor’s Stars had unleashed their might, countless cracks had appeared on Tina Pendragon’s King’s Star.

Compared to her, Babilon was not as lucky; his King’s Star had collapsed, and he had died from the backlash, leading to the Book of God falling into Great Qin’s hands.

“Try to save her!” Zhao Fu said to Li Si. Whether it was because of their relationship, internal affairs matters, or her innate value, she was worth saving.

Li Si responded in the affirmative before asking, “How should we deal with the other Dynasty Legatees and the leaders of those factions? We captured 16 Dynasty Legatees and 150 or so Nation Legatees. There are also countless leaders of Sects and Schools.”

Zhao Fu did not reply and instead asked, “Have they surrendered or are they still resisting? Who views Great Qin with hatred and has committed the most crimes against Great Qin?”

Li Si was not well-equipped to answer these questions, as they did not have much information yet, so he could only give a rough answer. Some of these people were still quite resistant, while some of them had expressed their willingness to submit.

Zhao Fu showed no mercy and said, “Based on what I just asked you, make a list of people later. Those on the list may be executed without Our permission!”

Those on the list would be those who had resisted the most and harmed Great Qin the most. There was no need to keep such people, so they all had to die and there was no need for Zhao Fu to check the list.

“Yes! This Minister understands,” Li Si replied before reporting to Zhao Fu about other matters. Most of these were minor matters, and some things had almost been forgotten by Zhao Fu.

This included the Heavenstone City’s City Lord’s son, Shi Wen. Back when Zhao Fu had killed his father, Shi Jian, he had escaped. He had not been able to escape Great Qin this time, and he had developed a faction to take revenge against Great Qin, which was quite laughable.

His faction had naturally been destroyed by Great Qin, and he had also been killed.

Chapter 1104: Bottom Line

After Zhao Fu recovered from his injuries, he went to the prison. Zhao Fu had waited a long time for this, and it was time to end all of this. Zhao Fu’s expression was cold, and he did not bring anyone with him. He also ordered the guards to leave, leaving him by himself.

Zhao Fu did not hide his appearance and went to a relatively big part of the prison. An elderly man immediately recognized him, and he venomously glared at Zhao Fu as if he wanted to cut Zhao Fu into a thousand pieces.

He was Li Shan, the old patriarch of the Li family. His face was quite pale, and he looked quite wan and sallow as if he had aged ten or so years.

The others noticed Zhao Fu's arrival, and some did not know who Zhao Fu was and took him to be an official.

Soon, the Li family's old patriarch coldly said, "You're the bastard of the Li family. You're here for revenge, right? Kill or maim as you please; my Qing'Er will take revenge for me sooner or later and present your head to me as a sacrifice."

Only then did everyone realize that this young man was Great Qin's Legatee, the person who had shaken the entire world. Their expressions immediately became filled with terror and hatred as they looked at Zhao Fu.

Li Zhe furiously leapt over, loudly cursing, "You bastard, you destroyed the Li family. It's because of you that the Li family fell to such a state. I'm going to kill you, you little brute, for doing such a thing to the Li family."

The door of the cell was open, and Li Zhe grabbed Zhao Fu's clothes and loudly cursed at him as he punched Zhao Fu's face.

Zhao Fu did not retaliate and did not block either, allowing Li Zhe, his father, to hit him. He was incredibly calm, and there was even a trace of a smile on his face.

Li Zhe disregarded everything and continued to vent as he sent a few more blows towards Zhao Fu's face. He had wanted to continue when Zhao Fu slapped him on the face, causing him to fly back and crash onto the ground. Half of his face was red and swollen, and a trace of blood leaked out of his mouth.

Immediately, Li Zhe seemed to explode as he crawled up from the ground, looking at Zhao Fu as if he wanted to kill him. "You little bastard, you dared to hit me? I swear I'm going to slaughter you and feed you to dogs. I goddamn regret not killing you and that slut."

Bang!

Zhao Fu expressionlessly waved his hand, causing a massive force to blast Li Zhe back. He once again crashed to the ground and coughed up another mouthful of blood.

Li Zhe furiously tried to get back up and rush at Zhao Fu, but he was held back by the others. If he rushed up again, he would simply be asking to suffer more.

However, he still profanely cursed at Zhao Fu, "I'm going to kill you, you bastard. I'm going to make you die a horrible death and turn you into meat paste."

"Arghh!!" Zhao Fu waved his hand, causing Li Zhe to cry out as a cold light shot out and lopped off one of Li Zhe's ears, causing blood to fly everywhere.

Only then did Li Zhe stop cursing. Zhao Fu did not hold back at all; he had allowed Li Zhe to hit him a few times to wipe away his last traces of hesitation and connections to the Li family.

Everyone around them looked at Zhao Fu hatefully, while Zhao Fu lightly laughed and asked, "How should I deal with you? Kill you all one cut at a time, or take apart your souls? I can do anything to satisfy you all."

The Li family's old patriarch shouted angrily, "Kill us if you want, just do it quickly. You're my grandson, and there's your father, your grandma, your stepmother, and your sister-in-law. If you're really going to be that cruel, aren't you afraid of being rebuked by the rest of the world?"

The elderly woman helping Li Zhe stop the bleeding now also spoke. She was the Li family's old patriarch's wife, Li Zhe's mother. She looked like she was 40 or so years old and had a mature figure. Back then, she was definitely a top-tier beauty. She was called Liu Yuexian, and she looked pained as she pleaded, "Our Li family treated you and your mother poorly, and the old patriarch and I will bear everything. You can kill us to vent out your anger, but please let everyone else off. After all, Zhe'Er is your father. Please, I'm begging you."

Seeing his mother plead with Zhao Fu, Li Zhe said angrily, "Don't beg that bastard; he can kill us if he wants. I'm not afraid of him, and even if I become a ghost, I won't let him off."

“Arghhhhh...” Li Zhe once again cried out in pain as traces of Emperor’s aura came out from Zhao Fu’s body and entered Li Zhe’s body. They were like countless bugs that bit at his body, making him feel immense pain.

His wife, Zhang Shuyun, knelt in front of Zhao Fu, saying, “Please don’t torture Zhe anymore; I’ll do anything you want.”

Seeing his own wife beg Zhao Fu as well, Li Zhe felt even more furious and endured the pain as he continued to curse at Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu found that Li Zhe really cared about this woman, so he stepped forwards to caress her beautiful face.

Zhang Shuyun was terrified and did not dare to dodge, allowing Zhao Fu to caress her face.

Seeing this, Li Zhe was almost angered to death, and he felt as if his eyes were going to explode. He loudly roared, saying, “I’m going to kill you! I’m going to dismember you into a thousand pieces! I’m going to feed you to dogs!”

Zhao Fu laughed happily; this was a true laugh from the bottom of his heart. The anger he had suppressed for 20 or so years had finally been vented today.

Zhao Fu disregarded Li Zhe and continued to caress Zhang Shuyun’s face as he gave a gentle smile and said, “You should know what to do now. As long as you properly serve me, not only will no one in the Li family die, including Li Zhe, but I’ll also even spare your son in the future.”

Zhang Shuyun lowered her head and started to weep. She turned to look at Li Zhe in immense pain before nodding.

Seeing his beloved wife going to serve someone else with the unimaginable pain that he was suffering, Li Zhe gave a heart-wrenching howl.

The Li family’s old patriarch was almost angered to death. He glared at Zhao Fu and pointed at him with a trembling hand as he cursed, “Bastard! You’d go so far to do such a thing, you...”

Before he could finish, Zhao Fu waved his hand and sent him flying before grasping with his hand and pulling Liu Yuexian into his embrace. Liu Yuexian struggled in terror, and Zhao Fu took out a medicinal pill that could increase longevity and fed it to her.

Liu Yuexian became younger at a rate that could be seen by the naked eye, and she now looked 30 or so years old. She no longer struggled; after all, after living for such a long time, she knew what to do.

Moreover, she felt happy after becoming so much younger; any woman would want to keep her beauty from when she was younger. She knew what Zhao Fu wanted, so she took the initiative to hug Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not expect this, but this angered Li Shan so much that he coughed up a mouthful of blood, unable to say anything.

Zhao Fu loudly laughed before saying, "I'll treat them well!"

Following this, Zhao Fu hugged the two women, and he brought along Yang Yanyu as he left the prison, leaving behind Li Zhe and Li Shan's furious shouts.

After leaving, Zhao Fu ordered people to take care of Li Zhe and Li Shan; he didn't want them to die. He then had people take Liu Yuexian and the two other women away.

He would not do anything to them, nor would he make them his concubines, though they had a large amount of Phoenix Qi. He had his own bottom line that he would not cross.

Chapter 1105: New Age

After returning to the Great Qin Palace, Zhao Fu seemed to have become a different person. There was a big smile on his face because the human world had finally been unified. There would no longer be any wars within the human world, and he could now focus on dealing with other worlds.

All the pent-up worry within Zhao Fu disappeared, and he no longer felt as pressured. He had never felt so burden-free before, so he was naturally quite happy.

If there were no other worlds, how good would that be? Zhao Fu would be the ruler of the human world and everything would be concluded, and he would be able to live a carefree life in the human world.

That would have been the best conclusion, without anything to worry about.

However, things were far from over. The human world was just a single world out of millions in the Heaven Awaken World. Zhao Fu felt just as small and insignificant as he had been when he thought that he had to face countless Kingdoms.

Even though Great Qin was now dauntless within the human world, after the Heaven Domain Boundary disappeared, Great Qin would have to live with its tail between its legs. Otherwise, a higher-being could suddenly just destroy Great Qin, and there would be nothing they could do about it.

During the next period of time, Zhao Fu summoned his Ministers and Generals. Now, Great Qin needed a new development plan, just like when he had just been a small Village Chief.

Only with proper plans could they advance in an orderly way. That was how Great Qin had reached this point, step by step. Since the beginning, Great Qin had always taken into account the grand scheme of things, and only then had it unified the human world.

Zhao Fu was not sure where he could get Great Qin to before he died. His only goal was to have it stand between the heavens and earth and never fall.

Right now, they needed to completely clear out the human world; only then would Great Qin be able to level up into a Dukedom Kingdom. Afterwards, Great Qin's goal would be to expand out to the sides.

After all, it would definitely be easier to bully those who were still in the 'novice village' than those who had left it already. They needed to take down the Dark Demon world and Fish Scale world as quickly as possible.

There was also the Spirit Light world – Zhao Fu had obtained their Primogenitor Statue, and he had ordered his people to gather the blood of everyone in the human world to help refine the Primogenitor Statue as quickly as possible.

The meeting lasted for a few days, and Zhao Fu and his various Ministers and Generals discussed Great Qin's future path in great detail. Great Qin's gaze could not just stop at the human world; they had to look beyond to the surrounding worlds too.

First, there was the matter of intelligence reports. Without enough intelligence reports, it would be as if they were blind; they would not be able to see anything or know anything, and they would randomly walk about, not knowing if they had taken the wrong path.

Intelligence reports were one of the most important things to any faction, and Great Qin could not just limit itself to the human world or the nearby few worlds but at least the surrounding 100 worlds. It should at least know the surrounding 100 worlds as well as the back of its palm.

Only having a sufficient understanding of them would Great Qin's development in the future be more convenient; only then would it have more plans and become even stronger.

Eternal Night, Flower Moon, and the White Lotus Sect were Great Qin's three intelligence organizations, and he decided to provide them even more support. Zhao Fu decided to have them spread to the countless surrounding worlds; it would be best to learn more about the Ancient Stem Domain as well.

Eternal Led was led by Zhao Sha and the ten other Assassins, Flower Moon was led by Xiao Yueyin, and the White Lotus Sect was led by Yue Qiuye. She had been the Holy Daughter of the White Lotus Sect and looked incredibly bewitching.

The three organizations each had their own advantages. They now knelt in front of Zhao Fu and accepted their orders and a large amount of rewards and resources. This was to help them develop and collect more information for Great Qin.

The Eternal Night's 11 leaders lowered their heads and simultaneously voiced their acceptance of their orders. Looking at the 11 people, Zhao Fu felt a bit uncomfortable because there had originally been 12 of them, and he did not know where Tuoba Qing was or if she was safe.

With her identity as someone from the Origin Human race, the commotion she had caused was too great, catching the attention of even higher-beings. It was not something that Great Qin could bear.

Back when Tuoba Qing had given Zhao Fu the Origin Mark, he had not hidden it well, resulting in a higher-being's clone descending and almost killing him. That higher-being had most likely been angered greatly and had been looking for Great Qin this entire time.

Zhao Fu was still quite worried that the higher-being would find his way to Great Qin. Once he found Great Qin, Great Qin would be doomed.

Moreover, with how big the Heaven Awaken World was, Zhao Fu was not sure if he would ever see Tuoba Qing again.

This was all because Great Qin was too weak. Not only was he afraid that the higher-being would find them, but he also did not have the power to keep Tuoba Qing with him. This gave Zhao Fu immense motivation to become stronger.

Xiao Yueyin lightly smiled and nodded. Her figure was becoming more and more mature, and because she was adept at business affairs and had become close with Ba Qing, she had been greatly valued by Zhao Fu.

There was also Ye Qiuye, who also coquettishly accepted her orders. She had been trying to develop a relationship with Zhao Fu this entire time and seemed to always be seducing him. Anyone could tell that she wanted to press Zhao Fu against the ground and have her way with him.

However, Zhao Fu had many things to do and did not have time for this, so he had never touched her, making her feel quite displeased.

This was especially so when she saw Xiao Yueyin's figure and airs become even more mature. This was something that resulted from Zhao Fu continuously doing it with her, and without that level of relationship with Zhao Fu, there was nothing Ye Qiuye could do to rise above Xiao Yueyin.

This made Ye Qiuye want something to happen between her and Zhao Fu even more. The closer she was with Zhao Fu, her status would become higher and she would be more valued.

Zhao Fu ignored Ye Qiuye's advances and continued to give out orders according to the plans they had just made.

Finally, it was time to give out rewards. After the few days of discussions, Zhao Fu's body had recovered, and it was now time to put a perfect full stop on this unification battle.

Li Si had already prepared a detailed list that listed out abundant rewards based on people's contributions, and he started to read them out.

Bai Qi!

Wang Jian!

Wei Liao!

The various Ministers and Generals came up to receive their rewards. Everyone present had big smiles on their faces as an atmosphere of celebration spread out. Now that this battle was over, everyone who had contributed was rewarded.

Moreover, this was the final battle of the human world, which had great significance, so Zhao Fu gave out even more rewards than usual.

This was followed by a grand banquet. This was not just limited to the palace; Zhao Fu held banquets all over the Kingdom, causing the entire human world to be filled with celebrations. There were colored lights and banquets everywhere as if it was New Years.

The human world had finally been unified, and to every person, it was an incredibly significant event.

From now on, there would no longer be different nations and races in the human world; all people would be called Qin people, and there would no longer be any wars. An age of peace had arrived, and this day would be recorded as the human world's New Age.

Chapter 1106: 16 Nation Armaments

The celebrations lasted for a full three days, and only then did Great Qin walk out from the atmosphere of celebration and did everything return to normal. The Departments continued carrying on their tasks while Great Qin's army continued to clear out regions, and the ordinary residents went about their own business.

Zhao Fu had roughly estimated the gains from this final battle – they had obtained a shocking 60,000 Cities and at least 28 billion residents.

Such a big piece of meat would make Great Qin incredibly full, as if it had doubled in size. If they could fully digest all of this, Great Qin's power would increase to a terrifying level.

By that time, Great Qin would be a Level 1 Dukedom Kingdom, and it would be at a similar level to the Devil Horn Empire. Once news about Great Qin was spread, it would cause a massive disturbance; for it to become a Level 1 Dukedom Kingdom so quickly, it would be much more dangerous than the Devil Horn Empire.

Of course, if this news was leaked, they would be incredibly shocked and would immediately start to defend against Great Qin, perhaps even allying together to destroy it.

Zhao Fu wanted this news not to spread; it was best to get rich silently. After Great Qin had enough power, it would sweep across everyone else.

Now that Zhao Fu's body had recovered, it was time to refine Nation Armaments. As for why he had to wait until his body had recovered, that was self-explanatory.

This time, he would be refining 16 Nation Armaments and a Clan Armament.

After thinking about it, Zhao Fu felt that it was quite a pity that Akhenaten had escaped. After all, he had the human world's final Clan Armament.

If he could refine all four of the human world's Clan Armaments, the benefits to Great Qin would be unimaginable. Great Qin's countless people's bloodlines would fuse even more with the human world, and their bloodline power would become even stronger.

However, now that they were missing one, the effects were naturally much weaker. Only with the four Clan Armaments could they form one whole.

Zhao Fu did not even know which world Akhenaten had gone to. If he wanted to obtain that final Clan Armament, who knew how long it would take. It was possible that he might never be able to obtain it.

Zhao Fu had already brought all of the women from the 16 Dynasty factions. They were from countries all over the world and were of different ethnicities.

One of them was a faction that Zhao Fu did not like, which was Kievan Rus. It was one of Russia's Dynasties, and its Legatee was Oleg.

Oleg was one of the eight Legatees, and he had invaded China before. He had opposed Zhao Fu many times, making Zhao Fu quite displeased. Kievan Rus belonged to him.

Now, he had already died; it seemed that the backlash he received was quite strong, but he showed no intentions of surrendering. After all, he knew that after everything he had done, Great Qin would not let him off easily. As such, Great Qin's various Generals could only kill him.

Because this was a battle for unification and an internal battle, the human world's consciousness did not give anyone the world's source energy. Even if the World Protector or any of the Legatees died, the world's consciousness would not give them any protection because the world's consciousness wanted the world to be unified as well.

Oleg had three mothers because his father had taken three wives, and he had three little brothers and one older sister. He himself had ten or so women.

All of them were undoubtedly quite beautiful and had good figures. The ones who attracted Zhao Fu the most were Oleg's three mothers and older sister; they were Russia's rare beauties.

Oleg's three mothers looked around 30 or so years old. One had brown hair and delicate features and looked like a graceful and charming woman, one had a seductive figure and a pair of proud breasts, and the other had a fiery figure and seemed to be quite wild.

Oleg's sister had red hair and was extremely beautiful. She was quite tall and gave off the aura of a fire spirit. She seemed passionate, beautiful, and unrestrained.

Now, they had all been gathered at the Refining Pavilion. The 16 Dynasties' women and residents were quite easy to deal with, but the Clan Armament was quite troublesome.

Firstly, there was the problem of residents. Babilon only had a few Cities, and they had been gifted to him by others. They only had a few hundred thousand people, and he did not have any relatives, only a five year old little sister who had been captured by Great Qin.

His little sister looked quite cute and was introverted. However, even if it was for refining the Clan Armament, Zhao Fu would not lay his hands on her.

Zhao Fu had his own bottom line, and he was not some animal. He gave the order for the little girl to be especially taken care of. If she was well-behaved, he would allow her to grow up happily; if not, she would be killed. Zhao Fu did not want to keep someone who held hatred towards Great Qin.

Babilon did not have any other relatives, so Zhao Fu could only look for people with bloodlines close to his, and he finally found a few.

One of them was the leader of a faction. The people spawned from his City could be used to refine the Clan Armament, so this resolved the problem of residents.

At the same time, they had found ten or so women. They were only somewhat pretty and were not extremely beautiful. However, it was incredibly difficult to find women with Babilon's bloodline, so he could not be picky.

After entering the Refining Pavilion and seeing so many beautifully-dressed women, a trace of a smile appeared on Zhao Fu's face.

A loud moan sounded out as Oleg's older sister collapsed onto Zhao Fu's body, while his three mothers' faces were incredibly red as they panted, white liquid all around them.

At that moment, the wild-looking woman, one of Oleg's mothers, gasped as she said, "How are you so 'powerful?' I like it, let me rest and we'll go again. I won't lose this time, how does that sound?"

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he stroked Oleg's sister's snow-white back while replying, "It's impossible for you to win. Who was it begging for mercy just then? We still need to refine the Nation Armaments."

The wild-looking woman coldly harrumphed and did not accept this. She leaned over and pressed her red lips against Zhao Fu's.

After a wave of intense sounds, the woman collapsed onto the ground and Zhao Fu put on his clothes, preparing to refine the Nation Armament.

Oleg's older sister had regained some strength, and she looked at Zhao Fu with a cold expression as she said, "You won't harm anyone from Kievan Rus, right? We can use our bodies to pay back what Oleg has done to Great Qin, so don't harm anyone else."

Zhao Fu turned to look at her and frowned. He was not very pleased with this sort of tone.

Seeing Zhao Fu's expression, Oleg's two other mothers felt quite afraid. They clearly knew the status of this person, so they immediately said, "Your Majesty, we apologize. She's still not used to her new status and definitely won't be like this in the future."

After saying this, they lightly pushed Oleg's older sister, indicating for her to back down and not anger Zhao Fu. Otherwise, they would all suffer.

However, Oleg's older sister continued to glare at Zhao Fu icily, looking quite stubborn.

Chapter 1107: Dark God

Beside them was a woman who used to be Oleg's woman. She had a fiery figure and a beautiful face, but she was a bit lacking compared to Oleg's mothers and older sister.

She stood up and charmingly smiled as she helped Zhao Fu put on his clothes, saying, "Your Majesty, there's no need to pay too much mind to her. She seems all stubborn and unyielding, but wasn't she moaning in pleasure under you just then? Also, Your Majesty, I'm called Macey and I'm willing to serve Your Majesty every day and bring Your Majesty pleasure."

Those words caused Oleg's older sister's face to become red. She lowered her head and did not say anything, and Oleg's three mother's expressions became quite unsightly.

From Zhao Fu's attitude towards them, they could tell that he quite liked them. This meant that they would have immense opportunities in the future. After all, this man was the ruler of the world, so there was nothing bad about currying favor with him.

Moreover, they quite enjoyed the feeling of being ravaged by him; they had already fallen in love with it and could not leave Zhao Fu anymore.

Whether it was for their original aim or for the needs of their bodies, they had to make Zhao Fu happy. Seeing how displeased Zhao Fu seemed, their future could be quite grim. It was possible that he would throw them to soldiers to screw them to death.

However, Zhao Fu did not mind too much. He put on his clothes and took the Nation Armament that was floating in the air and headed to the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation.

Terrifying ripples spread out as Nation Armaments were refined after another. Finally, only the Clan Armament was left, which was Babilon's Book of God.

Boom!

A massive pillar of light bringing with it terrifying power shot into the sky, causing the sky to tremble. A monstrous aura spread out, causing the weather to change and for clouds to swirl as countless traces of Fate madly gathered.

An enormous vortex appeared in the sky, giving off a massive aura that could shake the surroundings. The countless traces of Fate quickly gathered, causing the pressure to become stronger and stronger. Following this, the vortex suddenly formed a massive black orb.

This black orb was very round and seemed corporeal, and it felt abnormally tough. It looked completely harmless but gave off a heaven-toppling flame, and its might was almost corporeal and was enough to kill people.

The Book of God went through its final resistance, giving off piercing white light, and a massive figure appeared in the sky.

This figure was 1,000 meters tall and looked like a middle-aged man. He had a kind demeanor and wore snow-white robes. There was a massive orb of light behind his head, which gave off a fathomless white light like a sun. The heavens and earth trembled in excitement as if they had met their owner.

Sensing this power, those who believed in God looked madly passionate and excitedly knelt on the ground; there were countless people.

The world was filled with a kind, holy, righteous, and pure aura. Everything seemed incredibly wonderful as if it was heaven.

Everything was because of that figure. The figure was the Church's master, the one that the Church worshipped. It was the God who had created everything.

Why was Ancient Babylon's Clan Armament the Book of God? It seemed that the Book of God was more suited to the Church, as its name and attributes were more appropriate for the Church.

This concerned a big secret – the Book of God was a special Clan Armament because it not only had the properties of a Clan Armament but also had the power of a Faith Armament. Faith Armaments were the most important items to godly spirits.

They were incredibly powerful and useful, as they could gather Faith Power and could control followers; they were the most powerful killing weapons of godly spirits.

Ancient Babylon was where the Bible's original 'Eden' had been!

The Garden of Eden was paradise on earth, and according to Genesis of the Bible, God made the ancestor of all humans, Adam, in his own image, and then used one of Adam's ribs to create Eve. He settled the first man and woman in the Garden of Eden.

There was a big connection between Babylon and God, but because it was so long in the past, no one knew just what it was.

Ancient Babylon was one of the four great civilizations and had a very long history. It had many cities, which was quite rare during the ancient world, and it had many epics, myths, pharmacopoeias, and history books. It was one of the cradles of western civilization, and it had the Hanging Gardens, which were now ruins.

Now, this Book of God belonged to Great Qin. Zhao Fu disregarded the struggling of the God above and invoked the Heaven and Earth Fate.

An explosion sounded out as an even bigger wave of Fate gathered in the sky. The black orb gave off an intense black light as it absorbed even more Fate, and its might seemed to be able to cause the world to collapse.

Within the black orb, a formless power sealed the struggling Book of God, and Zhao Fu cut his palm, releasing his Emperor's blood to refine it. Zhao Fu's blood and Great Qin's Fate gradually seeped into the Book of God, and the image of God in the sky gradually collapsed.

Crack!

A few hours later, a clear cracking sound rang out as a small crack appeared on the black orb, causing black light to seep out.

At the same time, an aura of darkness, destruction, and chaos came out from within the black orb. This aura caused countless people to feel incredibly shocked, and they felt as if they had fallen into icy water. It was a coldness that seemed to be able to freeze their souls.

Crack, crack, crack...

Cracking sounds continuously sounded out, and soon the black orb was covered with cracks. Everyone started to feel anxious, not knowing what would happen to the Book of God.

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded out as the black orb exploded. Countless black shards shot out in all directions as a book giving off black light appeared.

Countless rays of black light descended from the sky, and black feathers fell like snow. The heavens and earth were filled with a cold and dark, but beautiful, atmosphere.

The image of God once again appeared, but it looked different this time – it now gave off fathomless black light and was wearing black robes. Its appearance was quite savage, looking like a Dark God.

However, Great Qin's residents felt a warmth in their bodies, and some of their illnesses and ailments disappeared. Their bloodlines became even stronger, and their strength became greater; they had obtained quite a lot of benefits from this.

The Book of God had been turned into Great Qin's Clan Armament, and it was now quite important to Great Qin.

Because everyone was now a subject of Great Qin, everyone received great benefits and rejoiced.

Zhao Fu had never thought that the Book of God had been corrupted; he had not wanted such a thing. After all, the golden dragon said that it could be used by a godly spirit nurtured by Great Qin, allowing its effects to be more powerful. However, Great Qin did not have any Darkness type godly spirits, only Water and Light.

Now, this Book of God could only be used as an ordinary Clan Armament. It was weaker than the Imperial Ruler's Seal by a bit but was stronger than the two other Clan Armaments.

Chapter 1108: Pendragon

Zhao Fu waved his hand and the image of the Dark God disappeared. The black Book of God automatically flew into Zhao Fu's hands, after which he placed the refined Clan Armament in the City Hall so it could also be nurtured by Great Qin's Fate.

Following this, Zhao Fu heard that Tina Pendragon had woken up. After waiting a few more days for her wounds to recover some more, he had people bring her to him.

After a few more days of recovery, Tina Pendragon had more or less recovered from her injuries. There was a rosy glow on her cheeks, and she no longer looked as pale and weak.

Zhao Fu sat on his throne as he looked at Tina Pendragon and asked, "How is your recovery?"

Tina Pendragon felt a bit surprised; she had never thought that Zhao Fu would be concerned about her body. She nodded and replied, "I'm mostly recovered; thank you for healing me!"

Tina Pendragon currently felt quite conflicted, because the Great British Kingdom had been destroyed and all of its territory had been conquered. Most of its residents had submitted, and her family was under the control of Great Qin.

It could be said that Great Qin was her greatest enemy, but Great Qin had now saved her life. Everyone treated her quite courteously, and she could somewhat guess at the reason.

“Now, your Great British Kingdom has already perished; what will you do now? We hope you will submit to Great Qin,” Zhao Fu said. He intended to have her submit, and it could be said that he had already shown her immense respect.

Tina Pendragon sank into her thoughts for a while and found that she had no other option. Even though before she had said that she would not submit to anyone, her family and friends were all under the control of Great Qin, and she did not want to be killed as a fallen Queen. That would be a humiliation to her family.

Moreover, Great Qin’s Legatee had already shown her much courtesy. Normally, those who dared to oppose him would have been killed already, instead of being able to stand in front of him like this.

Tina Pendragon made her decision and deeply breathed in as her golden eyes looked at Zhao Fu earnestly and said, “I’m willing to submit to you, but I have a condition!”

Zhao Fu felt quite startled and asked, “What is the condition?”

Tina Pendragon replied seriously, “I hope that you will be an enlightened liege, a good Emperor, or else I will leave.”

Zhao Fu could not help but lightly laugh; so that was the only condition. He replied, “Do you really think that We are bad, and that We are an incapable ruler? You can travel around have personally have a look at Great Qin’s scenery and people.

“Also, you can rest assured – We will view the Great British Kingdom’s subjects as Our own subjects and will not treat them any differently.”

Hearing this reply, Tina Pendragon was able to relax. She knelt down on one knee and lowered her head as she said respectfully, “I, Tina Pendragon, am willing to submit to Great Qin’s Majesty!”

A smile appeared on Zhao Fu’s face as he walked down from the throne and came before Tina Pendragon, saying, “There’s one other matter that We want to ask you about.”

Tina Pendragon felt quite confused; what else would there be for Zhao Fu to ask her about? She looked up and asked, “What is it, Your Majesty? I will consider it seriously; as long as it does not violate my principles, I will agree.”

Zhao Fu’s smile became brighter and seemed a bit flirtatious as he lifted up Tina Pendragons’ chin and said, “We want you to become Our concubine!”

Tina Pendragon was the strongest Queen in the west and the leader of eight Legatees. She was the most powerful person apart from Zhao Fu, and she was undoubtedly the woman with the most Phoenix Qi in the human world. Moreover, her peerlessly beautiful looks were incredibly rare in the whole world.

This was especially so for her natural King’s aura, which made people intoxicated with her; any man would instantly like her.

Tina Pendragon’s face became red; she had never thought that Zhao Fu would suddenly say such a thing. Looking at the handsome face in front of her, Tina Pendragon’s breathing quickened, and she could not help but think about the scenes during the Legacy Trial of Zhao Fu violating her.

Even though it was fake and just an illusion, it had caused Tina Pendragon’s face to become bright red, and she felt so embarrassed that she could not look at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu laughed and had never thought that Tina Pendragon would react in such a way. Even though he was not sure if Tina Pendragon had any feelings towards him, it seemed that she was not resistant. Zhao Fu was not so narcissistic that he believed that all women in the world were infatuated with him.

There were only a few within the harem who had true feelings for Zhao Fu, who he also had true feelings for. Most of them had submitted because their faction had been conquered or for their own interests.

The reason why Zhao Fu asked Tina Pendragon for her thoughts was because her status qualified for Zhao Fu to treat her like this.

“What do you say? We will treat you well. In actuality, there’s no use even if you disagree; for various reasons, you must become Our concubine,” Zhao Fu smiled as he said with a trace of domineeringness.

Tina Pendragon glared at Zhao Fu, saying, “You’re always so domineering. If you don’t treat me well, I’m going to leave.”

Zhao Fu understood her intentions and smiled as he nodded and pulled her up.

Following this, Zhao Fu called Li Si and had him deliver up the Imperial Edicts that they had already prepared. There were many of them and were split into dozens of books, with many people’s names written on them. One of them had Tina Pendragon’s name on it.

These Imperial Edicts were for conferring the title of concubine on people. Now that the human world had been unified, the women of various Dynasties and some others who had a large amount of Phoenix Qi were brought to the Palace.

There were many of them and this included those who had escaped to the Western Continent from other Continents, people from the Western Continent, and people from the Eastern Archipelagos.

Zhao Fu took out the Great Qin Seal and started to stamp the Imperial Edicts.

Tina Pendragon’s face became slightly red as she asked in curiosity, “Your Majesty, why are you making so many women concubines? Can you really handle them all? Also, your harem is already massive.”

Zhao Fu smiled as he explained the matter of Phoenix Qi to her. The thing that Tina Pendragon had been wondering about this whole time was finally answered, and she inwardly let out a sigh of relief – Zhao Fu was not as lascivious as she had thought.

Li Si waited by Zhao Fu’s side, and looking at Tina Pendragon, he could tell that she had submitted to His Majesty. A woman like Tina Pendragon would be of great help to Great Qin, so he gave a trace of a smile.

Tina Pendragon noticed Li Si’s gaze, and she did not feel too embarrassed, as she had already accepted her new status. A while later, Zhao Fu gave the stamped Imperial Edicts to Li Si to confer the titles.

Zhao Fu then asked Tina Pendragon caringly, “Tina, you still haven’t fully recovered from your wounds; you should go back and rest. We will treat your family members well, and if you want to see someone, just let your attendants know.”

Tina Pendragon felt a warmth within her heart and smiled; she had never thought that such a day would come. Great Qin’s ruthless and bloodthirsty Legatee actually knew how to care about others.

Chapter 1109: Dragon Pheonix

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out not too long after Tina Pendragon left, and a golden aura shot into the sky, forming a massive golden pillar of light. Clouds started to swirl as a massive aura spread out.

This sudden explosion of aura caused the residents in the Great Qin City to feel quite startled. They walked out and looked at the golden pillar of light in front of the palace.

Zhao Fu was not too surprised because he knew that this was due to the enfeoffing of concubines. The abnormal signs would soon calm down.

However, what Zhao Fu did not expect was that in the next second, the entire human world’s Fate swarmed over.

“What’s going on?” Sensing these changes, Zhao Fu felt quite confused and walked out of the palace.

“Skreee!!” A piercing phoenix cry sounded out as the Emperor Phoenix Statue turned into a 1,000 meter wide golden phoenix and elegantly danced in the sky, scattering countless golden motes of light. Golden rain seemed to descend onto the Great Qin City, painting a beautiful scene.

The human world’s Fate gathered towards the golden pillar of light, and the golden phoenix also circled around the pillar of light as the aura coming from there became stronger and stronger.

Zhao Fustill did not understand why the human world's Fate was gathering.

Countless rays of golden light shot out from the massive pillar of light as a golden pearl that was as big as a marble started to absorb Phoenix Qi and Fate from the human world.

The massive amount of Fate and Phoenix Qi flooded into the golden pearl, causing it to become larger and larger and give off an even more intense golden light. A terrifying might gradually suppressed the heavens and earth, and it was not just those in the Midland Continent who could feel it; those on other Continents could also sense this power.

Boom!

A massive sound rang out as the golden pearl exploded out with a formless energy that instantly spread throughout the entire human world, shaking the heavens.

Countless traces of Phoenix Qi rose up from the imperial concubines within the palace and floated towards the golden pearl. All Continents of the human world gave off Fate as well, which quickly flew towards the golden pearl.

The oceans of fate and Phoenix Qi were absorbed by the golden pearl, causing the shockwaves to come off from it to become even more intense. It was not enough to make people feel terror.

Finally, the golden pearl absorbed all of the Fate and Phoenix Qi without leaving even a bit behind. It was now ten meters wide and silently floated in the sky, giving off a faint light without any terrifying auras anymore. It just looked like a massive orb floating in the sky.

Zhao Fu could clearly sense how terrifying this golden pearl was; the power that it contained was not weaker than that of a Clan Armament, and it could cause a person to feel as if their heart had fallen into an abyss.

The massive golden phoenix flew around the golden pearl, seeming incredibly joyful. It then gulped down the golden pearl in one mouthful.

Immediately, the heavens and earth dimmed as the sun and moon lost their light as clouds swirled. The golden phoenix gave off brilliant golden light as if it was a massive golden sun.

“Skreeeee!!” the massive golden phoenix spread its wings and gave off a massive cry. A shocking power exploded out, instantly covering the human world and causing it to fall into shock.

Those on other Continents could see a massive wave of golden light spreading over, following which the human world’s sky was dyed gold.

Images of phoenixes appeared in the sky, and countless other birds flew joyously in the sky as golden light lightly fell.

Everyone felt traces of golden light enter their bodies, causing their bodies to be surrounded by a warm energy. Some illnesses and injuries were quickly healed, and some people’s bloodlines became stronger.

The countless concubines in the Great Qin Palace were bathed in the golden light, and the phoenix images elegantly descended from the sky and entered their bodies.

Powerful auras spread out as their bodies all gave off golden light, and they started to go through changes.

All of them seemed to become younger, and their skin became more supple. Their bloodlines seemed to change as well, as a powerful bloodline power fused into their bodies; this was the Phoenix Bloodline.

Even though it was only a weak trace of the Phoenix Bloodline and was not very powerful, it had given them great benefits.

Every person’s Grade increased; those with low Grades all rose to A grade, and some who already had high Grades continued to increase, some of them even reaching SSS grade.

Moreover, each person obtained at least 20 or so years of lifespan, and some of them who already had cultivation now had Stage 1 power.

These benefits were simply shocking, but they only applied to Great Qin’s concubines. If it applied to every resident of Great Qin, Great Qin would have become terrifyingly powerful.

Within Zhao Fu's body, the golden dragon laughed as it said, "Congratulations, your Emperor Phoenix Statue is on the same level as a Clan Armament now. All of Great Qin's residents' bloodlines have become stronger, and their foundations have been stabilized."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu also laughed. However, in the next moment, his expression changed as he sensed a massive amount of power flow into his body.

The phoenix crystal within Zhao Fu's body continuously trembled excitedly as it devoured the power that entered Zhao Fu's body.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the phoenix crystal devoured the power flowing into Zhao Fu and gave off an intense golden light. Zhao Fu uncontrollably released a terrifying aura that blasted out like a wild gale, and a golden aura flame erupted around him.

Above the Great Qin City, the golden phoenix was now 10,000 meters wide, and a golden flame burned around its body. The power it gave off was simply terrifying, and it now flapped its wings, causing golden light to fall onto Zhao Fu's body.

Boom!

In that moment, the phoenix crystal within Zhao Fu's body continuously trembled as if it had a life of its own. It gave off a terrifying aura and shot out of Zhao Fu's body and into the sky.

The phoenix crystal gave off brilliant golden light and gave off a terrifying aura as a massive amount of Great Qin's Fate once again madly gathered.

The phoenix crystal ravenously devoured Great Qin's Fate, causing its terrifying aura to continue to climb until it reached its peak.

Boom!

The phoenix crystal exploded out with a platinum aura, which condensed into a massive figure that contained a might that caused people to feel terror.

This image had the head and body of a dragon, but it had a phoenix's wings and claws. Its body was covered with platinum-colored scales and gave off an incredibly noble aura.

Zhao Fu was not sure what this was, and the golden dragon explained, "This is a Dragon Phoenix – it is primarily a dragon and secondarily a phoenix. It is something formed from Fate."

Chapter 1110: Platinum Dragon Phoenix

"Oh?" Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt a bit surprised; he had never thought that the Dragon Phoenix would also be a creature formed by Fate; it was similar to a Fate Dragon.

However, what was key was that this Dragon Phoenix was not something that Zhao Fu had formed, and it was not his own Fate Dragon. Rather, it was something that had been formed from a phoenix crystal created by the Emperor Phoenix Crystal. It was innately linked to the Emperor Phoenix Statue.

According to the golden dragon, Dragon Phoenixes were quite special and incredibly rare because it was too difficult to form them.

On the other hand, something similar to Dragon Phoenixes were Phoenix Dragons, which were quite common – Wu Qingniang had one.

The difference was that for Phoenix Dragons, the phoenix was the primary while the dragon was the secondary. Some women who could become Queens would have them; dragons represented Kings and belonged to men, while Phoenixes belonged to women. As such, women who could become Queens had Phoenix Dragons.

However, it was incredibly difficult for Dragon Phoenixes to appear because men could not possess Phoenix Qi, and this was the case even if a man was made a concubine.

There were countless Kingdoms in this world, and there would definitely be Kingdoms ruled by women. In those Kingdoms, it would be women taking men's hands in marriage, and they could divorce men.

If a Kingdom was ruled by a Queen, she would normally have male concubines. Even though they were called concubines, they would not be acknowledged by the heavens and earth to be true concubines. After all, true concubines needed to have Phoenix Qi, which men did not have.

As such, Dragon Phoenixes were incredibly rare; if it wasn't for the fact that Zhao Fu possessed the Emperor Phoenix Statue, he would not be able to form a Dragon Phoenix.

In the Heaven Awaken World, if a man had a Dragon Phoenix, countless Queens would view him as a peerless treasure and would definitely marry him.

In normal circumstances, dragons represented Kings and symbolized expanding one's territory, while phoenixes represented concubines and symbolized stabilizing the kingdom. If a woman was the Queen, the situation would be the opposite – having a male concubine with a Dragon Phoenix would be of immense benefit to the Kingdom.

Not only did Dragon Phoenixes have a stabilizing function, but it also had an expanding function; someone with a Dragon Phoenix was dozens of times more valuable than an ordinary concubine. Ruling as a Queen was already quite difficult, but with the help of a Dragon Phoenix, it would be of great help to her King's Fate.

With so many benefits, all Queens would view men with Dragon Phoenixes as priceless treasures; countless Queens could only dream of such a thing.

More importantly, the Dragon Phoenix that Zhao Fu had was the highest-grade of Dragon Phoenix, which was a Platinum Dragon Phoenix. They were incomparably rare, and ordinary Dragon Phoenixes could not compare to even one-ten thousandth of them.

Zhao Fu was the vessel for this Dragon Phoenix, and his own qualities were exceptional. Moreover, it was formed from the core of the Emperor Phoenix Statue, which had boundless Phoenix Qi, and it had also absorbed the Fate of a world; how could the Dragon Phoenix produced not be incredibly rare?

Now, if Zhao Fu shouted, "I have a Platinum Dragon Phoenix, who wants to marry me?" there would be countless Queens swarming over and fighting to the point that the heavens and earth would become dim. Adding on his handsome face and his noble and domineering aura, any Queen would want to have him.

However, Zhao Fu would not be willing to do such a thing; no man wanted to be a woman's concubine! No man wanted to just live in the palace and perhaps even serve a woman with a few other men. Zhao Fu would be more willing to die than do such a thing.

Zhao Fu walked the path of Kings and Emperors; how could he become someone else's concubine and serve someone else?

Of course, Zhao Fu had to be cautious in the future and not let out any of his Platinum Dragon Phoenix's aura. Otherwise, if other Queens found out, if Zhao Fu could not fight against them, he would be captured by them and suffer a terrible fate.

The Platinum Dragon Phoenix looked at Zhao Fu; it now had its own life.

A while later, the Platinum Dragon Phoenix gave a satisfied and happy expression, and it gave off an immense amount of power as it dove into Zhao Fu's body. As the Platinum Dragon Phoenix shot into Zhao Fu's body, it caused Zhao Fu's aura to once again rise.

Now, Zhao Fu's aura had changed slightly; there was a trace of gentleness that would make countless Queens want to care for him.

Zhao Fu did not want such a thing, but because it was brought by the Platinum Dragon Phoenix, there was nothing he could do about it. Luckily it was only a trace, or else Zhao Fu's noble and domineering aura, as well as his terrifying image in other people's hearts, would have been ruined.

With the Platinum Dragon Phoenix, Zhao Fu now had five Fate Dragons. His Fate had greatly increased to the point that it was quite rare even within the Heaven Awaken World.

After the Platinum Dragon Phoenix entered Zhao Fu's body, the golden phoenix in the sky landed on the Heaven Prayer Platform again and turned back into the Emperor Phoenix Statue. It could now be used like a Clan Armament.

Zhao Fu had just refined the Book of God, and now he had obtained another Clan Armament, making him feel quite happy. Soon, the abnormal signs gradually disappeared.

Zhao Fu planned to return to the palace to read through documents, but just as he turned around, he seemed to lose control of his body. A massive wave of demonic qi rushed out of his body, rushing out like a corporeal shockwave that caused the ground to crack.

What was going on?
