

The Lord 1261

Chapter 1261: God of War

In actuality, Zhao Fu did not want to fight at all. Apart from the battle with Bai Shengjun, which was for the Darkness Origin Crystal, Zhao Fu had not wanted to fight in any battles.

Wu Five flew into the sky and dodged Zhao Fu's attack. He also released his full strength as a massive azure aura flame burst forth around his body. He raised his fist and turned into a ray of light, giving off a mountain-like aura as he punched at Zhao Fu.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as Zhao Fu dodged to the side and Wu Five's punch hit the ground. An azure wave of internal energy exploded out, causing the ground in the surrounding 10,000 meters to cave in.

Shing!

A clear sword hum sounded out as Zhao Fu stood in the sky and slashed with the Emperor Killing Sword. Hazy sword souls holding blood-red swords appeared in the sky and gave off an enormous aura as they descended.

Zhao Fu pointed at Wu Five and the countless sword souls locked onto Wu Five with their blood-red eyes and gave off dense killing intent as they turned into black blurs and shot towards Wu Five.

Facing the countless incoming sword souls, Wu Five's fists erupted with azure flames and a terrifying aura spread out. Wu Five continuously punched out quickly, sending out massive azure fist images that contained terrifying destructive power.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The azure fist images and sword souls all contained great power and continuously clashed in the sky. Neither side could gain an advantage over the other, and they exploded in the sky, turning into gusts of powerful wind.

Seeing that he was unable to injure Wu Five, Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword, which burned with a ferocious black and blood-red aura flame. He stepped out in the air and gave off shocking power as he flew towards Wu Five.

In just an instant, Zhao Fu had arrived in front of Wu Five. He raised the Emperor Killing Sword and slashed down with boundless killing intent, seeming to tear apart space.

At that moment, Wu Five's right fist gave off an intense azure light and a ferocious power exploded out, twisting space itself. The instant Zhao Fu's sword arrived, Wu Five vigorously punched out, seeming to shatter space.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sound out as the two incredible waves of power clashed together. The intense shockwave spread out like lightning, causing the ground in the surrounding tens of thousands of meters to collapse, and fragments of boulders shot everywhere.

In that moment, Zhao Fu continuously slashed out with his sword, sending out black and blood-red sword lights, while Wu Five continuously punched out azure fist images so fast that all that could be seen were blurs.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The sword lights and fist images continuously clashed, and sword light and internal energy shot everywhere. Wild gales continuously blew out like a massive storm, and dust and sand were blown into the sky as boulders rolled and trees violently swayed.

Boom!

Zhao Fu raised his sword and slashed towards Wu Five, while Wu Five punched out. The two incredibly strong powers once again clashed together, causing another shockwave to blast out, causing both people to fly backwards.

Both of them flew back hundreds of meters before they were able to stop their bodies, and a trace of blood leaked out of their lips. Zhao Fu coldly looked at Wu Five while Wu Five looked back at Zhao Fu, the smile from before gone. He now clearly knew that Zhao Fu using that power was enough to fight with him on equal terms.

Boom!

Zhao Fu pointed the Emperor Killing Sword at the sky and a blood-red sword light shot towards the sky, dying the sky blood-red. A black and blood-red magic formation giving off massive power appeared in the sky, causing Heaven and Earth Power to continuously gather, and countless traces of black and blood-red light scattered from the magic formation.

A heaven-toppling sword intent instantly poured down, covering everything like a flood. Under that sword intent, it seemed like everything was going to be destroyed.

Facing Wu Five, Zhao Fu used his strongest attack from the start. As he unleashed this attack, the second level fell into silence and all creatures felt immense terror.

“Eight Desolation Imperial Armor!” Seeing Zhao Fu use such a terrifying attack, Wu Five did not hold back anymore and used his most powerful attack. He roared as an azure rune appeared on his chest, giving off fathomless azure light that brightened the world.

In that moment, boundless Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered from all directions and gathered onto Wu Five’s body, forming an azure battle armor. An azure armor madly swept out like a berserk gale.

Wu Five was now dressed in an azure battle armor, and his hands were covered with a set of azure gloves. His body gave off an azure light, causing clouds to swirl. The shocking Heaven and Earth Power that he gave off caused the world to seem to tremble in fear, and he looked like a god of war as he stood there.

Zhao Fu controlled the Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation, and the black and blood-red magic formation in the sky gradually started to spin as an aura of extermination spread out.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Shocking explosions blasted through the sky as the black and blood-red magic formation shot down boundless blood-red sword light with shocking power. They seemed to divide the world into pieces, and space itself shattered like a mirror.

Boundless blood-red sword light shot towards Wu Five, who gave off a ferocious azure light as he shot at Zhao Fu. He was extremely agile and dodged the rays of sword light shooting at him.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed, raised his sword, and spun it in a circle. The Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation in the sky exploded out with even more intense light, and countless destructive rays of sword light locked onto Wu Five.

Boom!

Countless rays of blood-red sword light brought with them enough power to tear apart the heavens and earth as they instantly landed. The terrifying power caused space to collapse, and the heavens and earth continuously shook.

Wu Five roared as countless arcs of azure lightning appeared around him and expanded out. His fists gave off an intense azure light, making them look like small suns. Wu Five punched out with his full strength, causing the heavens and earth to dim and the air to explode. An enormous azure ray of light giving off unstoppable momentum ferociously smashed towards the rays of sword light.

Bang!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the boundless blood-red sword light and the azure light clashed together, giving off a destructive explosion. The shockwaves spread to 1,000 kilometers away before stopping.

Everything on the ground: Rocks, grasses, trees, and all sorts of living creatures were instantly devoured by the destructive light and turned into nothing. The heavens and earth continuously trembled as if they were on the verge of collapse.

Boom!

At that moment, a ray of azure light containing immense destructive power flew out from the destructive light, hitting Zhao Fu incredibly quickly. In just an instant, everything was covered with an azure energy.

After everything settled, a 10,000 meter wide, hundreds of meters deep crater appeared, within which Zhao Fu lay covered with blood, his aura extremely weak.

Wu Five, dressed in his azure battle armor, stood in the air and looked at the heavily-wounded Zhao Fu and let out a breath as he said, “This battle is over; you’ve lost. However, I admit that you’re truly powerful.”

Zhao Fu was covered in blood as he feebly looked at Wu Five. He acknowledged that Wu Five was powerful and terrifying, but he would not admit his loss so easily.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu roared as a heaven-toppling ghostly flame erupted around his body. A world-shaking shockwave spread out, seeming to slice apart the space around Zhao Fu. A destructive shockwave blasted out, and the heavens and earth continuously trembled.

Chapter 1262: 24 Wings

Traces of ghostly aura rose up from the ground and spread out like a fog. The entire world’s temperature seemed to plummet as the cold aura spread through the air, seeming to pierce through one’s soul.

The massive amount of Yin Qi dispelled the darkness and spread throughout the entire second level, inundating everything. Countless wandering spirits appeared in the air and seemed to sense something and gave off terrifying howls, causing the world to seem like a miserable hell.

Wu Five sensed this power and his expression changed; he had never thought that Zhao Fu still had such terrifying power.

Boom!

An explosion that sounded like the world exploding rang out as everything around Zhao Fu was reduced to nothingness. The Six Paths Demon Images gave off terrified roars as a massive power pulled at them.

Crash!

Boundless gray lightning poured down, ravaging the surrounding 10,000 meters and destroying everything, making it so that no one dared to get close.

Zhao Fu's clothes were reduced to dust, revealing his naked, beautiful body. Zhao Fu's body had become quite pale, without a trace of blood, and his long hair gradually became gray-white and filled with a deathly aura.

Suddenly, muscles bulged on Zhao Fu's body as violet scales appeared on the surface of his body. His fingernails grew longer and gave off a cold light, and a pair of black demon horns grew on his head. His forehead split and a pale white eye appeared, and his mouth became filled with fangs. A pair of gray and black wings sprouted from his back.

Seeing this scene and sensing the six ancient Yin Qi, Wu Five was given a big fright and cried out, "Are you crazy?! Not only did you seal the Six Paths Demon Images in your body, but you're also trying to fuse with them?"

He was right – Zhao Fu was currently fusing with the Six Paths Demon Images. The muscles were from the Animal Path Demon Image; the violet scales were from the Asura Path Demon Image; the black horns were from the Hell Path Demon Image; the pale eye on his forehead was from the Human Path Demon Image; the fangs were from the Hungry Ghost Demon Image; and the wings on his back were from the Heaven Path Demon Image.

Zhao Fu was madly fusing the Six Paths Demon Images with himself; the Six Paths power fused into a single one, which was the Reincarnation Path.

Zhao Fu once again opened his gray eyes, which gave off a gray, ghostly light. He stood in the air and everything around him seemed to freeze. He did not seem to contain even a trace of power, but he felt that he could casually rip the heavens and earth apart and cause countless gods and demons to die.

Sensing this power, Wu Five could not help but feel quite anxious. At the same time, he was quite shocked and could not help but gulp.

In the distance, Syndra looked both terrified and excited; she had followed such a terrifying and powerful person. It seemed that this had been the right decision.

The countless geniuses who had entered the second level looked extremely shocked and waves crashed within their hearts. Before, they had thought that this Emperor had used his full strength against those two geniuses from before.

However, they had never thought that he still had such powerful methods. Just how powerful was that Emperor? And was he still hiding anything else?

Before, Shi Shuge, Yin Ruoshi, You Quan, and the others felt deep helplessness because Zhao Fu was someone who already stood on the altar of gods, and they could only look up at him.

Zhao Fu's gaze was cold as he looked at Wu Five in front of him, and he pointed out.

Boom!

A ray of Six Paths aura bringing with it incredibly destructive force shot out, causing the heavens and earth to tremble, and a sense of death quickly arrived.

"Bear Roar!" The ray of aura brought with it terrifying power as it shot over. Wu Five roared out and stretched out a hand and slammed it out. A massive bear's roar sounded out as an enormous azure bear claw giving off immense force slammed towards the ray of aura.

Bang!

The ray of aura and the bear claw collided, resulting in an enormous explosion. A powerful shockwave spread out, and the terrifying aura spread out in all directions, causing others to feel as if they had fallen into icy water, and their bodies continuously trembled.

"Ghost Summon." Zhao Fu lightly spoke as he once again pointed out, and a dense wave of ghostly qi flowed out from his finger.

"Roarr!" A massive roar sounded out as a 1,000 meter tall ghost giving off a powerful aura appeared next to Wu Five. It raised its hand and gave off terrifying power as it ferociously slammed down towards Wu Five.

Wu Five's gaze became serious and he straightened his hand as it gave off boundless azure light, forming an azure knifehand and giving off a powerful and sharp aura.

The massive ghost hand slammed over, while Wu Five flew to the side and dodged before rushing up and stabbing with his knifehand towards the ghost and slashing upwards.

“Roarr!” A pained roar sounded out as the 1,000 meter tall ghost was split from its stomach to its head. Azure light shot out and the ghost died, causing it to turn into ghostly qi and scatter. The ghostly qi covered Wu Five’s body.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Suddenly, explosions sounded out as Wu Five suddenly appeared behind Zhao Fu and his fists gave off a large amount of azure light. He continuously punched out incredibly quickly, leaving behind many afterimages.

The massive azure fist images gave off terrifying power as they shot towards Zhao Fu. There were thousands of them, and they were enough to destroy a large mountain.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he spun and stretched out his hand with his fingers splayed. A massive Reincarnation Power spread out as a 1,000 meter wide gray magic formation appeared in front of Zhao Fu’s hand.

The 1,000 meter wide gray magic formation was formed by six disks, and there were countless lines. It looked incredibly complex and profound and gave off a gray light. It contained a massive amount of Yin Qi that seemed to be able to block anything.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The massive azure fist images slammed against the magic formation with terrifying power, but they were unable to deal any damage to the magic formation.

“Arghh!” Wu Five roared and exploded out with even greater power. His body seemed to shoot out like a laser and gave off an immense azure light as he shot towards Zhao Fu. He gripped his right fist, causing azure flames to gather as if they could blast apart the sky.

Zhao Fu's demeanor was cold as he withdrew his hand and the magic formation disappeared. He also clenched his fist and countless traces of Yin Qi flowed out. A massive amount of Reincarnation Power gathered into his fist, giving off extremely terrifying ripples.

Wu Five arrived before Zhao Fu and punched out, seeming to be able to destroy the sky. Zhao Fu stepped forwards and punched out with his fist covered with Yin Qi, also containing incredible power.

Bang!

A massive shockwave rippled out and Zhao Fu stumbled back ten or so steps while Wu Five's body crashed into the ground like a meteor. Hundreds of meters of the ground collapsed, and a massive shockwave rippled out.

Just as Zhao Fu prepared to continue attacking, Wu Five hurriedly stretched out his hand and said, "I admit my defeat."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu stopped because he did not have any grievances with Wu Five, and he also feared his status.

At the same time, Zhao Fu undid his fused status and coughed up a large amount of blood. The burden of fusing with the Six Paths Demon Images was quite intense.

Boom!

Suddenly, boundless black aura swirled as black light descended from the sky. Countless black feathers floated down like snow and a figure with 24 wings gradually appeared.

Chapter 1263: Fallen Angel

She was tall, slim, and had white skin. She wore a dark dress and was quite beautiful. She had very long hair and black pupils, and she gave off an evil aura. She gave off an ocean-like godly spirit aura.

A 24-winged Fallen Angel was a high-ranked godly spirit even within the Godly Spirit World, yet one had appeared here. She had come from the first level and was not from the second level.

Zhao Fu's expression was somewhat unsightly because he had used up a lot of his power during the battle from before. Moreover, due to fusing with the Six Paths Demon Images, not only did he not have much power left, but he was quite heavily injured.

Ordinary people would not even be able to fuse with the Six Paths Demon Images at all as their bodies would be instantly destroyed by the Reincarnation Power. Zhao Fu only dared to do such a thing because his body had the Six Paths of Reincarnation Bloodline, or else he would have definitely died.

The aura that this Fallen Angel gave off was many times more powerful than Wu Five, so Zhao Fu felt that it would be best to quickly leave.

However, the Fallen Angel looked at Zhao Fu with an evil gaze because she had come for Zhao Fu. The Emperor Killing Sword's power, the Early Stage Emperor Bloodline, and the terrifying Six Paths of Reincarnation power were all things that she wanted.

Sensing this evil gaze, Zhao Fu understood that the situation was quite bad. He gathered his last bit of strength and flew away; he did not even have time to put on new clothes.

The Fallen Angel coldly laughed, stretched out a hand, and grabbed at the air. The darkness aura in the surroundings gathered into a massive hand of darkness, and it gave off an immense power as it grabbed towards Zhao Fu.

With Zhao Fu's current strength, he was unable to resist this terrifying power at all. He could only watch as the hand of darkness was about to grab onto him.

Bang!

An azure ray of light smashed into the hand of darkness, resulting in a massive explosion. The hand of darkness was shattered by the azure light, scattering into countless traces of darkness aura.

Wu Five, giving off an azure aura flame, appeared and looked at the Fallen Angel as he said to Zhao Fu, “Hurry up and leave! I’ll help you stop her, but you don’t need to thank me. This only happened because I wanted to fight with you; I don’t want someone with so much potential to die here.”

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and had never thought that Wu Five would help him. However, he did not hesitate to turn into a ray of light as he shot away.

The Fallen Angel condescendingly smiled as she said, “Two little fellows who don’t know their limits. Do you think you can stop This God? You want to escape from This God? Keep dreaming!”

Boom!

The 24 black wings on the Fallen Angel’s back spread out, and a black energy barrier spread out with incredible speed, covering the surrounding 1,000 kilometers. This was her God Domain.

Zhao Fu’s expression was quite unsightly as he stopped. If he could not break out from this Domain, he would not be able to escape. As such, he immediately swallowed a large number of medicinal pills to recover from his injuries.

“Boy, it’s not too late for you to scram. This God has no interest in you,” the Fallen Angel looked at Wu Five with her black eyes as she said slightly condescendingly.

Wu Five looked at the Fallen Angel seriously and did not reply. He went into a defensive stance, because the Fallen Angel made him feel immense pressure. Moreover, after that previous battle, he had used much of his strength already.

The Fallen Angel coldly harrumphed and stretched out a hand towards Wu Five. A massive wave of black aura flowed out and gathered into a 15 centimeter wide halo of black light in front of her hand, giving off an extremely powerful energy, and she lightly pushed out.

Boom!

The halo of black light gave off boundless power as it flew out, and it continuously grew in size. By the time it reached Wu Five, it was ten or so meters wide and gave off the pressure of a meteor.

Wu Five gripped his right fist and gathered a massive amount of power. His right fist gave off blinding light, making it look like an orb of light, and the space around it distorted.

Bang!

The black orb of light contained massive power as it smashed over, and Wu Five vigorously punched out. The two great forces clashed together, resulting in an almighty explosion. The black orb of light was shattered by the punch, but Wu Five was sent crashing to the ground.

The Fallen Angel glanced down at Wu Five within the crater before looking at Zhao Fu and stretching out a hand.

Boom!

Suddenly, an explosion sounded out as a powerful wind swept out. A terrifying power spread out as a large amount of azure flames burst forth, forming a power-looking giant. It only had its upper-body, and Wu Five stood below it.

Wu Five looked at the Fallen Angel and gripped his fist, and the azure giant also gripped its fist, causing a large amount of energy to gather.

Bang!

Wu Five punched out, as did the azure giant. The air seemed to explode as a destructive power flew out with enormous wind towards the Fallen Angel.

The Fallen Angel's expression became slightly serious as she raised a hand, and the surrounding darkness aura madly gathered, forming a massive orb of darkness. It was hundreds of meters wide and gave off a powerful aura.

Boom!

The azure giant punched with destructive force, while the Fallen Angel shot out the orb of darkness. The fist and orb of darkness collided, causing an intense shockwave to ripple out. The surrounding ground collapse and massive rocks shattered as trees were uprooted.

Wu Five roared and his body rose into the air as the azure giant grew legs, forming a complete giant. It was dozens of meters tall and gave off a powerful aura.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Right after the azure giant was fully formed, it rapidly punched out, leaving behind countless afterimages. Space itself seemed to explode as terrifying internal force rushed at the Fallen Angel like a wild storm.

The Fallen Angel was expressionless as she continuously slashed out with her finger, sending out sharp arcs of light that destroyed the incoming internal force. The scattered internal force turned into savage wind that blew out.

Seeing the azure giant continuously attacking, the Fallen Angel frowned and sent a large amount of Darkness God Power into her finger, causing a black aura flame to appear around her finger.

Boom!

The Fallen Angel drew out a cross in the air, and the light in the surroundings was devoured by darkness. The black cross gave off boundless Darkness God Power and gave off an unstoppable power as it blasted towards the azure giant.

Sensing how monstrous this attack was, Wu Five's expression fell and he controlled the azure giant to cross its arms in front of its body. Azure flames also rushed forwards to defend.

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded out but the power of the black cross was too great, sending the azure giant flying back. It smashed out a large crater 100 meters away, and Wu Five coughed up a mouthful of blood as the azure giant disappeared.

The Fallen Angel coldly harrumphed. Just as she was about to attack again, a sword hum exploded out and an enormous black and blood-red crescent tore through the air, giving off world-splitting power as it slashed towards the Fallen Angel.

Chapter 1264: Joining Forces

The Fallen Angel was startled and stretched out a hand, causing a black energy barrier giving off black light to spread out, covering her body.

Bang!

The black and blood-red slashed against the energy barrier and gave off a massive sound. The sword light turned into an enormous sword wind that rampaged against the energy barrier, causing it to start to crack. A small cut also appeared on the Fallen Angel's outstretched hand, causing a trace of blood to flow out.

Not only did the Fallen Angel not look angry, but also she revealed an expression of delight. If she could obtain Zhao Fu's power, she would no longer be bound by the Cosmos Historical Remnant.

Because of Wu Five stalling the Fallen Angel, Zhao Fu had been able to recover some of his power and could use the Emperor Killing Sword's power.

The Fallen Angel laughed as she grabbed out with her hand. Countless traces of darkness aura gathered, forming a darkness sword in her hand. It was completely black and gave off an attractive force, and it seemed like it could devour everything. The lighting around it grew much dimmer.

Shing!

The Fallen Angel slashed out, sending out a massive black ray of light that slashed towards Zhao Fu like a massive tide, giving off a shocking aura.

Zhao Fu sent massive amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off intense sword light. Zhao Fu also vigorously slashed out, sending out an enormous black and blood-red sword light.

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded out as the two sword lights clashed together, causing light to shoot everywhere. A massive sword wind tempest was formed, and everything in the surroundings was torn apart by the sword qi. The ground was covered with sword gashes, creating a disorderly scene.

After the sword wind tempest scattered, Zhao Fu was forced a few steps back, while the Fallen Angel remained in place; it could be seen just how strong she was.

Boom!

Another explosion sounded out as an azure ray of light containing terrifying power shot towards the Fallen Angel. The Fallen Angel did not even look over and slashed out backhanded, shattering the azure ray of light, which turned into countless motes of light and disappeared.

Wu Five gave off an azure aura flame and appeared in the sky as he seriously looked at the Fallen Angel.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive explosions rang out in the surroundings as Zhao Fu and Wu Five joined forces to attack the Fallen Angel. Sword light and fist images shot out, and facing the combined attacks from the two people, the Fallen Angel leisurely responded to them, not seeming nervous at all.

Not only did this situation exceed Zhao Fu and Wu Five's expectations, but those in the distance were also quite surprised. They had thought that Wu Five admitting defeat and the Emperor winning would mean that everything had ended, but none of them had expected this Fallen Angel to suddenly appear.

Moreover, that Fallen Angel was incredibly powerful and even the Emperor and Wu Five joining together seemed to have difficulty defeating her. That showed just how terrifying her power was.

At the same time, they felt quite curious towards the identity of this Fallen Angel. Also, how was she able to appear here? Moreover, she was unrestrainedly attacking them, which was quite different than the Gatekeeper from before.

Even though they did not understand, they were quite sensible and retreated. That Fallen Angel was evidently extremely evil, and if they were discovered by her, they might be attacked as well. Even two peerless geniuses could not stand up to her, so all that awaited them would be death.

Syndra looked at the Fallen Angel in shock. Even though she had never seen the Fallen Angel before, from the aura that it gave off, she understood that this Fallen Angel was the Darkness God of the first level.

Her power was extremely terrifying, and she had tried to break free from the restrictions of the Cosmos Historical Remnant a few times before, wanting to return to the Godly Spirit World. However, she had failed every time and had been suppressed at the lowest level in the end.

However, she had run out, breaking through the restrictions of the first level, and appeared at the second level, wanting to steal her owner. If her owner fell into her hands, he would definitely die.

Shing! Shing! Shing...

Zhao Fu powerfully slashed out again and again, sending black and blood-red sword lights containing destructive power to fly out ferociously towards the Fallen Angel. The cold killing intent caused the entire sky to seem to freeze.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Wu Five's body gave off an enormous aura as he continuously punched out with both fists, leaving behind afterimages. Massive fist images giving off destructive power blasted towards the Fallen Angel like a storm.

Facing the pincer attack of the two people, the Fallen Angel coldly smiled and spread her 24 wings, and she formed two energy barriers.

Zhao Fu and Wu Five's attacks continuously fell on the energy barrier, giving off loud explosions. Light shot out everywhere and wild wind spread out, but the attacks could only open a few cracks on the energy barriers.

Seeing the two people's power gradually weaken, the Fallen Angel's smile became brighter, and she started to counterattack.

The Fallen Angel spread her 24 black wings and gave off intense light. An incredibly dangerous power came out from her black wings, causing people's hairs to stand on end.

Swish, swish, swish...

24 black wings exploded out with intense black light, causing the sky to tremble. Rays of black light giving off terrifying darkness power shot out from the black wings. There were over 100,000 of them, and they seemed enough to destroy the sky.

Zhao Fu and Wu Five were both greatly startled. Zhao Fu unleashed his Emperor's Domain, while Wu Five created an azure energy barrier as they both focused on defending.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Black rays of light ferociously slammed against the barriers, causing them to continuously tremble. Zhao Fu and Wu Five maintained their barriers, but there were simply too many rays of black light and both of them were blasted to the ground.

Zhao Fu coughed up a mouthful of blood and looked at the Fallen Angel with a grim expression. She was simply too powerful, and with his current power, he was not a match for her at all unless he fused with the Six Paths Demon Images.

However, because he had just fused with them and caused a lot of damage to himself, if he continued to fuse with them, his body definitely would not be able to endure it. Moreover, it was possible that he would die before he could successfully fuse with them.

Shing!

Zhao Fu climbed up from the ground and pointed the Emperor Killing Sword towards the sky. A massive sword light shot into the sky, causing the Emperor Killing Sword World to tremble. Countless traces of Killing Sword Intent quickly gathered; now, he only had the strength to use the Emperor Killing Sword World's power.

The sky was instantly dyed blood-red, and a black and blood-red magic formation giving off immense power appeared in the sky. Heaven and Earth Power continuously gathered, and the magic formation gave off an even more intense black and blood-red light that shot out in all directions.

A heaven-toppling sword intent flowed down like a flood, inundating everything. Under this sword intent, the entire world seemed to fall silent.

“Arghhh!” Wu Five roared as he half-knelt, his right hand became a claw and his left hand gripped his right wrist. Countless arcs of azure lightning flashed in his surroundings and the ground cracked as Heaven and Earth Power quickly gathered and a terrifying aura spread out.

A marble-sized azure orb of light floated out of Wu Five’s right hand and absorbed all of the energy in the surroundings as it gradually grew bigger. The aura it gave off became bigger and bigger until it became as big as a fist. It now seemed to contain enough power to destroy the world.

Sensing the attacks from the two people, the Fallen Angel’s expression became serious because she understood how terrifying these attacks were. As such, she also unleashed her full strength.

Chapter 1265: Divine Punishment

“Divine Punishment!” The Fallen Angel pointed her darkness sword towards the sky and cried out, causing the world to become dark. Dark clouds quickly formed and a massive amount of source energy gathered as an enormous might blasted down, making it difficult for countless creatures to even breathe.

A ten meter wide ring of black light appeared above the Fallen Angel, giving off boundless black light that covered the surroundings. The dark and destructive aura caused everyone to fall into terror, and their bodies instinctively trembled.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Zhao Fu controlled the Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation, which started to spin. An aura of extermination spread out, and tens of thousands of sword lights giving off enough power to rip the world apart slashed towards the Fallen Angel.

Boom!

Wu Five also threw out the azure orb of light that gave off an apocalyptic aura. The orb of light was incredibly fast and shot out like a ray of light. The massive power it contained caused space to continuously collapse.

Boom!

Facing these two terrifying attacks, the Fallen Angel raised her darkness sword and slashed out. An incredibly destructive power surged forth from the black ring of light, and everything in the surroundings was destroyed. This was the world-ending divine punishment from a godly spirit.

Bang!

A shocking explosion rang out as the three immense powers clashed together. The destructive power was absolutely shocking, and a shockwave blasted out, reducing the sky in the surrounding 1,000 kilometers into pure chaos. A large crater that was tens of thousands of meters wide also appeared in the ground.

Rocks scattered everywhere and countless trees were destroyed. There was not a single trace of life, and all that could be seen was a horrifying aftermath. There were still terrifying traces of destructive aura left lingering above the ground.

Zhao Fu coughed up a large mouthful of blood and powerlessly lay on the ground. His wounds from before added onto his new injuries made it so that he did not have a sliver of power left; he did not even have the strength to move a finger.

Within a pile of rocks, Wu Five pushed aside the rocks with great difficulty and climbed up, looking at the sky with an unsightly expression.

In the sky, a trace of blood leaked out from the Fallen Angel's lips, and her clothes and hair were in a mess, making her look quite wretched. Her beautiful face became completely cold because she had never thought that those two people's power could heavily injure her.

Now, Zhao Fu did not have even a bit of power left, so she did not have to worry. The only one who could still resist was Wu Five.

The Fallen Angel's black eyes looked at Wu Five and said with dense killing intent, "You dared to injure This God; now, This God is going to suffer death. You brought this on yourself."

Shing!

A massive sword hum sounded out as the Fallen Angel once again raised her sword. The darkness aura in the surroundings quickly gathered, forming a massive darkness vortex that gave off an incredibly powerful might.

Sensing this terrifying power, Wu Five understood that he could not defend, so he could only sigh and activate an item within his body.

Boom!

An unimaginable power exploded out from Wu Five's body. The time, space, and all creatures in the surroundings all seemed to be frozen by an immense power. The heavens and earth violently trembled as if in fear.

The Fallen Angel's expression fell and a wave of terror flowed out of her heart because the power that Wu Five had just exploded out with was the power of a higher-being. Wu Five had activated a type of bloodline item that could cause the clone of a higher-being to descend.

There was no time to hesitate. The Fallen Angel quickly grabbed Zhao Fu and waved her hand, opening up a fissure in the air, which she immediately rushed into.

Seeing this, Wu Five's expression became quite grim. Seeing the Fallen Angel disappear, he cancelled his secret technique and the terrifying shockwaves scattered.

The technique that Wu Five used would be effective against even most higher-beings, but he had to pay a great price and could not use it rashly. Only people who were greatly favored by higher-beings could use such a technique; ordinary people could not use such a technique. It could be seen that Wu Five's identity was not simple at all.

Now that Zhao Fu had been captured by the Fallen Angel, he would most likely suffer a terrible fate.

Wu Five sat cross-legged on the ground and took many medicinal pills. He decided to recover his strength before heading to the first level to see if he could rescue Zhao Fu.

He didn't want Zhao Fu to die like this; Zhao Fu was the third person who had defeated him, and his accomplishments in the future would be great. If he could save Zhao Fu, Zhao Fu would owe him a favor. With Zhao Fu's potential, he was worth having as a friend.

Moreover, Zhao Fu had stopped attacking as soon as he had admitted defeat, so he had a good impression of Zhao Fu and felt that he was worth having as a friend.

Syndra looked at the sky, feeling quite worried. It had been difficult for her to find such a powerful owner, but he might die soon. Syndra felt that this was a pity, and she felt quite sad about losing that Darkness Emperor power.

That was something that Syndra had searched for her entire life, and it was something that she was obsessed with. As such, she felt quite worried and depressed.

Within a majestic, grand palace in the first level, the Fallen Angel held onto Zhao Fu as she smiled and walked into a magic formation.

The magic formation gave off faint black light, and there was a square-shaped stone stage at the center. The Fallen Angel placed the powerless Zhao Fu onto it, and Zhao Fu immediately felt all of his power being sealed. This was the effect of the stone stage.

Zhao Fu's expression was quite unsightly. Now that he had fallen into her hands, he was dead without a doubt. He did not have any strength left, and even if he did have a bit, it would be sealed by the stone stage.

Zhao Fu still could not use his Nation Armament, making it so that Zhao Fu had no way to escape. It was extremely likely that he would die here.

The Fallen Angel had already activated the magic formation. The magic formation gave off a powerful black light and a massive aura spread out. Boundless darkness power gathered and entered the magic formation.

"Boy, for This God to devour you is your glory." The Fallen Angel gave a trace of an excited smile as she walked over. If she could devour Zhao Fu's Early Stage Emperor Bloodline and the other terrifying powers, in a few years, she would be able to break free from the Cosmos Historical Remnant's restrictions and return to the Godly Spirit World.

With Zhao Fu's various powers, she would be able to sweep across the entire Godly Spirit World and even take down the top-tier godly spirits and become a Godking.

Before, she had sensed the ripples of the battle between Zhao Fu and Wu Five while she was in the first level. If they had been further away, she would not have been able to sense them, but because they were at the second level, it was only natural that she detected them.

This was especially so for Zhao Fu's aura, which caused her to feel deep joy. She knew that the chance she had been waiting for over 1,000 years had arrived.

What she wanted the most was the Early Stage Emperor Bloodline. Whether it was an Early Stage King Bloodline or Early Stage Emperor Bloodline, it was a supreme treasure to anyone. Anyone else could inherit that kind of bloodline.

As for the other powers within Zhao Fu's body, they also caused her to feel incredibly happy. To her, Zhao Fu was a human treasure trove.

Zhao Fu ignored the Fallen Angel's words and desperately tried to think of ways to escape. The Fallen Angel did not want to waste any time because Wu Five could find this place at any moment. If he called a higher-being, she would not be able to deal with them even at her peak state, let alone right now.

Chapter 1266: Darkness God Palace

The Fallen Angel placed Zhao Fu's body spread-eagled, and because Zhao Fu was not wearing anything, she discourteously looked at his lower body and lightly laughed as she said, "You most likely have many women, right? You're quite powerful down there!"

Zhao Fu's expression was cold and he did not respond to the Fallen Angel. The Fallen Angel did not mind and took out a dagger as she smiled and stretched it towards Zhao Fu's lower body.

"This God will now castrate you, how do you feel?" The Fallen Angel gave an evil smile as she slid the dagger against Zhao Fu's skin, the sharp blade threatening to split it open.

Zhao Fu's expression became quite grim; no man could accept being castrated. He said with a trace of anger, "Kill me if you wish; there's no need to play around like this."

Seeing Zhao Fu's reaction, the Fallen Angel smiled in satisfaction and flicked with her dagger, causing blood to fly out, and a look of pain appeared on Zhao Fu's face.

However, the Fallen Angel did not stop and slashed with the dagger a few more times, sending out cold lights and causing blood to flow out. The Fallen Angel cut a gash on each of Zhao Fu's limbs, causing blood to flow onto the stone stage, but she did not touch that certain part of him.

The Fallen Angel said with a trace of happiness, "That thing is the most important thing to you men and contains a lot of your source energy; This God isn't willing to destroy your treasure. However, castrating you and keeping you as a pet wouldn't be bad either, since your looks are quite good."

The Fallen Angel spoke while stroking Zhao Fu's face, and Zhao Fu angrily turned his face away.

The Fallen Angel did not mind Zhao Fu's actions and smiled as she lowered the dagger to Zhao Fu's chest. The cold blade slowly pierced into Zhao Fu's body before lightly gliding down, opening up a gash on his chest, from which blood flowed out.

The black magic formation under the stone stage gave off an even more intense black light, and countless traces of darkness aura quickly gathered and entered Zhao Fu's body through his limbs.

A look of pain appeared on Zhao Fu's face as he felt the darkness power continuously corrode his body. Suddenly, the pain somewhat decreased as a bit of Zhao Fu's power returned. It was his Darkness King Bloodline that he had fused earlier taking effect, and this made Zhao Fu feel quite delighted.

If this went on for a few more minutes and he could regain more of his power, perhaps he would be able to escape from the Fallen Angel's hands.

Zhao Fu's limbs had stopped bleeding, so he did not have to worry about losing too much blood.

Zhao Fu watched as the Fallen Angel stretched out a hand and placed it on his chest, about to do something. Zhao Fu wanted to stall for time, so he said, "Don't you want to know my identity, as well as how I obtained my Emperor's Bloodline and those terrifying powers?"

Most people would definitely be interested, because whether it was the Emperor's Bloodline, the Six Paths Demon Images, or the Emperor Killing Sword World, they were things that others could only dream of having. Anyone would naturally be quite interested.

The Fallen Angel seemed to be able to tell what Zhao Fu was thinking she smiled as she pressed her hand against Zhao Fu's chest, and a black magic formation appeared on his chest. The trace of power that he had just regained was once again suppressed.

"This God doesn't care about your identity. No matter who you are, you're going to die here today and your powers will become mine."

Zhao Fu's face became somewhat pale. His final chance had disappeared just like that; he would not have any more chances now.

Suddenly, the Fallen Angel took off her clothes, revealing her flawless body. She then sat on Zhao Fu's body and a black magic formation appeared on her chest as well.

Following this, the Fallen Angel leaned down and pressed down against Zhao Fu's chest, and she gave off a flirtatious and mocking smile as she said, "Boy, what do you think of This God's body? Do you want it? Keep dreaming; showing you This God's body is already a blessing for you. You can now die in peace."

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as the two black magic formations pressed together and exploded out with intense black light. A look of pain appeared on Zhao Fu's face as all of his powers were devoured by the Fallen Angel. It was not just his powers but his life force as well.

Zhao Fu became older at a speed visible to the naked eye. His hair became white and wrinkles appeared on his face, and his aura became incredibly weak.

The process was also incredibly powerful, and he felt as if he was being eaten by the Fallen Angel. Zhao Fu's consciousness became hazy, and he could not help but wonder if he really was going to die here.

Suddenly, the Fallen Angel cried out in pain and felt her body start to be filled with immense pain. Zhao Fu regained some of his consciousness and found that the Fallen Angel had devoured his God-Killer power. That power specifically countered godly spirits, and the Fallen Angel devouring that power would naturally cause immense pain.

The God-Killer bloodline had fused into his Emperor's Bloodline, so if she wanted to devour Zhao Fu's Emperor's Bloodline, she naturally also had to devour the God-Killer bloodline.

The Fallen Angel's expression became icy, and because they were tightly pressed against each other, she cried out next to Zhao Fu's ear, "Boy, why do you have the God-Killer bloodline?"

Zhao Fu did not reply, and the Fallen Angel's body softened and became powerless. Her face became slightly red because she had also just devoured the Six Desires Demonic Qi.

The Fallen Angel felt furious but cried out weakly, "What power is this now?"

"Arghh!" Before Zhao Fu could reply, the Fallen Angel once again howled because she had also devoured Zhao Fu's Emperor Killer Curse. She had wanted to devour everything Zhao Fu had, but she had never thought that he would have something so terrible within him.

However, Zhao Fu was not happy too easily because the Fallen Angel's actions caused gray dragon images to appear on his body, and he was wracked with immense pain.

At that moment, for some reason, Zhao Fu gained a bit of his power back. He flipped the Fallen Angel over so that he was on top, and he started to ravage her.

Two days later, the Fallen Angel lay powerlessly on the stone stage with empty eyes and her mouth open. Her 24 wings drooped, and she looked like a corpse. Liquids covered the stone stage and also flowed to the ground.

The black magic formation had already been stopped, and Zhao Fu looked quite happy as he put on his clothes. Not only had he not been devoured by the Fallen Angel, but he had also devoured a lot of her power.

He had first devoured a large amount of Darkness God Power. Zhao Fu had previously fused with a trace of a demon god's Divinity, and now he had his own Divinity, though it was incredibly small. It was as big as a grain of sand and gave off a dense demon god's aura.

Now, Zhao Fu also had divine power and a high-grade Darkness God Power, which made Zhao Fu even more powerful.

Moreover, because he had devoured a large amount of Darkness God Power, the Darkness King Bloodline and his Sovereign Bloodline became even more fused, giving Zhao Fu a type of darkness aura. Anyone else would take him for a Darkness Emperor.

What made Zhao Fu feel the most delighted was that 10% of the Emperor Killer Curse's power had been taken away by the Fallen Angel. This meant that Zhao Fu would be able to live longer and that he did not have to worry about it for now.

Zhao Fu glanced at the corpse-like Fallen Angel on the stone stage. She was a high-grade godly spirit, yet she could not even hang on for two days. Zhao Fu was also quite surprised that she was a virgin.

Zhao Fu did not pay much mind to her and started to look around the Darkness God Palace with interest.

Chapter 1267: Darkness Hellhound

Not long after leaving the palace, Zhao Fu encountered a ten meter long dog. This dog was covered with black fur and had three blood-red eyes. It had a demonic horn on its head and gave off a powerful darkness aura.

This dog was a Darkness Hellhound, and Zhao Fu thought that it wanted to fight. However, it unexpectedly ran over and affectionately rubbed its head against Zhao Fu as if Zhao Fu was its master.

Zhao Fu told it to stand and roll over, which it did obediently, looking incredibly well-behaved. Zhao Fu could not help but laugh; this was most likely because he had devoured a lot of the Fallen Angel's power.

Following this, Zhao Fu found out that its name was called Black Demon. With this Demon Hellhound, Zhao Fu did not have to wander around aimlessly. The Darkness God Palace was huge and he did not know his way around, so walking around casually would waste a lot of time. As such, Zhao Fu had Black Demon lead him around.

With Black Demon leading the way, Zhao Fu soon arrived at the Darkness God Palace's treasury. There was a powerful restrictive barrier here, and unless one got rid of it, one would naturally not be able to enter.

However, this restrictive barrier could not stop Zhao Fu because he now had the Fallen Angel's power. He casually lifted the restrictive barrier and entered the treasury.

There were mountains of gold coins, equipment, and Darkness Crystals here. Seeing this scene, Zhao Fu's heart rate sped up and he started a massive harvest. He did not leave behind a single gold coin and took everything away.

After doing a lot of plundering, Zhao Fu laughed and walked through the Darkness God Palace with Black Demon. Because he had just tossed a bottle of medicinal pills to Black Demon as a reward for being so well-behaved, Black Demon had become even more affectionate with him.

Zhao Fu had a look around but did not find anything else, so Zhao Fu had Black Demon take him to the central area of the Darkness God Palace. There would most likely be decent gains to be made there.

Zhao Fu and Black Demon came before a stone door with countless Fallen Angels engraved on it. However, there were two demon gatekeepers that were 100 meters tall and covered with muscles, and they had pairs of black wings.

As the demons that guarded the central area of the Darkness God Palace, these two demons were definitely incredibly powerful, and Zhao Fu most likely would have to spend quite a bit of effort to defeat them. However, before Zhao Fu could do anything, the two demons directly knelt and opened the door.

Zhao Fu grinned as he walked through, and he entered an open space that did not have much except a magic formation. There were 24 black rhombus-shaped crystals above it that were spread out in a circle.

Zhao Fu went up and had a look, and he was shocked to find that the entire Darkness God Palace was a precious treasure. Not only could it release immense power, but it could also create a large number of Fallen Angels.

Even though the Fallen Angels would not have very pure bloodlines, they were still high-grade bloodlines. With high-grade bloodlines, they would be able to quickly raise their cultivation, and this was something that everyone wanted.

If Great Qin could have a Fallen Angel army, it would gain another high-tier army, and Great Qin's foundation would surpass that of outside worlds. It would be able to compare to some Kingdoms in the Inner Domains and would no longer have to fear the Ancient Sword Sect.

However, the Darkness God Palace required 24 God Emissaries and a high-grade Fallen Angel godly spirit to use the magic formation.

Zhao Fu thought for a moment before smiling. He stretched out his hand and used the Fallen Angel's power to conquer the Darkness God Palace and make it his own. With the Fallen Angel's power, everything was much simpler.

After taking control of the Darkness God Palace, Zhao Fu's mood was excellent and walked out with Black Demon. After taking control, he received some information that the Darkness God Palace not only had a treasury but other things as well.

There was a library that had many precious books that recorded many darkness skills. There was also a garden that had all sorts of darkness spirit plants as well as the extremely precious Darkness Fountain Water. To those with Darkness Constitutions, it was like Fountain of Life Water, but Darkness Fountain Water was even rarer.

There was also a place for cultivation and a place for sacrifices and developing Fallen Angels. There were also living chambers, meeting halls, and other normal structures.

The place that Zhao Fu wanted to see the most was the place for developing Fallen Angels. However, on the way, Zhao Fu encountered some people.

The first was an elder wearing glasses and an old robe. He was in charge of the library and was extremely powerful. He stopped Zhao Fu and looked at Zhao Fu with an unfriendly look.

"Who are you? Why do you have my owner's power? And you conquered the Darkness God Palace; this is my owner's personal belonging. Do you know your crimes?"

Zhao Fu disdainfully laughed. Because he had taken control of this Darkness God Palace, he knew this old man's name, and he said, "Kerli, I'm the owner of the Darkness God Palace now, so you should be calling me owner. Your previous owner now belongs to me. Also, I don't like your attitude. Kneel."

Kerli's expression fell and his body uncontrollably knelt. He tried to resist, but he could not muster up any strength and could only furious glare at Zhao Fu.

Now that Zhao Fu's soul had fused with the Darkness God Palace, he had complete control over it, as well as the freedom and lives of those inside.

Zhao Fu did not pay any mind to the elder and had him continue to kneel there as he continued forwards.

The second person Zhao Fu met was a man wearing black armor and holding a spear, with a darkness sword at his waist. He was riding on a black horse with black wings, and he gave off an intense darkness aura.

He was quite direct and charged up, wanting to attack Zhao Fu without even saying anything. Just like before, Zhao Fu had him obediently kneel to the side.

That man was Fallen Knight Kalo, and he was responsible for guarding the cultivation chambers.

The third person Zhao Fu met was a Treant. It was most likely a Darkness Treant because all of its leaves were black and it gave off a powerful darkness aura. It was responsible for guarding the gardens, and it was called Eris.

Eris was much more tactful. Even though it did not know what had happened to its previous owner, seeing Zhao Fu, the new owner come over, it respectfully called out to Zhao Fu.

Since its attitude was quite good, Zhao Fu naturally did not do anything to it.

The last person he met was a very beautiful woman. She was wearing a maid dress and had a voluptuous figure with large breasts. She had a slightly flirtatious look on her face; it was yet another vixen.

She was called Nossi and had great power within the Darkness God Palace, and she was responsible for managing it. Seeing Zhao Fu come over, she gave an affectionate smile as she called out, “Your Lordship!”

Why did she call him this? It was because she had seen him ravaging the Fallen Angel, and it seemed that she had been greatly enjoying herself.

Nossi did not feel that there was anything wrong. Since her owner had fallen in love with this man, it was only natural to address him as such.

She did not know that her owner had been taken by force and even felt happy for her owner, thinking that she had finally found a man she loved after such a long time.

Chapter 1268: Taming a Godly Spirit

Zhao Fu calmly nodded and accepted this title. Finally, he went to the place where Fallen Angels were developed.

This was a very large stage that was nine meters tall. The stage was black and seemed to be made of steel. This place did not have a roof, and there were 24 black spears and an orb of light giving off intense black light in the sky.

The orb of light was ten or so meters wide, and there was a hazy figure inside it, which looked like the Fallen Angel from before.

The 24 black spears seemed to be made out of crystal, and they were three meters long. There were black runes on them, and they gave off powerful might, seeming like precious treasures.

Zhao Fu gave a delighted smile; this place would be the first step to Great Qin’s rise in the Heaven Awaken World. If he could greatly develop Great Qin, they would no longer have to fear the Outer Domains’ factions, and Great Qin would be able to solidify its position in the Outer Domains.

Because Great Qin had now formally entered the Heaven Awaken World, this was its new first step.

Due to its lack of foundation, Great Qin had often been forced into a passive state. If they could make up for this, Great Qin could take more initiative, and this would be the first official step to Great Qin's rise.

"Your Lordship, you must be hungry after doing it for so long with her Ladyship. Do you want me to prepare some food for you?" Nossi asked considerately.

Zhao Fu nodded; even though as his cultivation became higher and he needed food less, he still had a desire for food.

Nossi lightly smiled and bowed before leaving to prepare food.

Following this, Zhao Fu sat at a low table and started to enjoy the food that Nossi had prepared for him. They were all essentially demon beast flesh, as well as a very fragrant grape wine. Because he had control over the Darkness God Palace, he was not worried about Nossi doing anything.

Zhao Fu now acted as if this was his home and did not hold back at all. After having a large meal, Zhao Fu reclined against the chair while Nossi brought up some exquisite desserts and waited by the side for any orders Zhao Fu had.

After a while, Zhao Fu felt rested and prepared to leave the Darkness God Palace.

"Your Lordship, her Ladyship still hasn't recovered yet. You need to treat her Ladyship tenderly and not ravage her like before," Nossi said gently.

However, Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed, still feeling somewhat angry. That Fallen Angel had wanted to devour him, and him not killing her was already merciful. How could he treat her with tenderness?

Nossi did not understand why Zhao Fu was angry. She thought for a moment before squatting down and servicing Zhao Fu, saying flirtatiously, "Your Lordship, do you like this? You can ravage me whenever you want, but you need to treat her Ladyship more gently; you're her first man."

Zhao Fu looked down at the beautiful Nossi; compared to that Fallen Angel, he liked this considerate and seductive maid much more.

“This God’s going to kill you!” Suddenly, a voice filled with hatred sounded out. The Fallen Angel had put on a dress and furiously stormed over.

Hearing the hatred in her owner’s voice, Nossi felt that she had misunderstood something. It seemed that this handsome man was her owner’s enemy, so she did not hesitate to choose to stand at her owner’s side. She prepared to attack Zhao Fu, but Zhao Fu had already locked down her body.

Zhao Fu looked at the Fallen Angel condescendingly and smiled as he said, “Do you have the ability to kill me? Don’t you feel those restrictions within your body?”

The Fallen Angel did not care and tried to forcefully release her power, blow apart Zhao Fu’s body, and annihilate his spirit. Otherwise, she would not be able to quench her hatred.

A darkness aura exploded out from her body and her 24 wings gave off intense black light. A powerful might spread out, and the terrifying power caused the hall to fall into silence.

The Fallen Angel stretched out a hand, and her Darkness God power gathered, preparing to attack Zhao Fu. However, in the next second, her body heated up and she collapsed to the ground. Her face was red and her breathing became ragged as a slight look of lust appeared in her eyes.

The Fallen Angel did not know what was happening, but she furiously yelled at Zhao Fu, “You bastard, you dare to use such underhanded methods on This God. This God’s going to kill you.”

Zhao Fu went over to her side as he coldly laughed and said, “Isn’t this the pot calling the kettle black? You don’t have the right to say that of me. Before, you wanted to kill me, and me not killing you is already extremely merciful. I will now give you a chance to submit to me.”

The Fallen Angel vehemently glared at Zhao Fu and said, “You want This God to submit to you? Keep dreaming.”

Zhao Fu ignored the Fallen Angel’s words and activated the Six Desires Demonic Qi within her body, causing her body to become even hotter and for her face to become bright red. He also activated the power of the Emperor Killer Curse, and the immense pain caused her to cry out in pain.

On one hand, there was the humiliating reaction from her body, and on the other hand, there was immense pain. The two sensations were enough to drive anyone mad.

Zhao Fu sat back down and ignored the Fallen Angel's cries, and he started to leisurely eat the desserts on the table.

Nossi looked at the Fallen Angel struggling on the ground and tears flowed out of her eyes. She looked at Zhao Fu pleadingly, hoping that he would let the Fallen Angel off.

Zhao Fu ignored Nossi because he definitely would not spare the Fallen Angel if she did not submit. Zhao Fu needed her to create a large number of Fallen Angels for Great Qin; that was something that would allow Great Qin to fight with the outside world, and Zhao Fu had to obtain it no matter what.

A few hours later, the Fallen Angel's voice became hoarse and Nossi's face was covered with tears.

Finally, the Fallen Angel gritted her teeth and said hatefully, "This God... is willing... to submit... to you..."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and walked over to the Fallen Angel's side, and he stopped the Six Desires Demonic Qi and Emperor Killer Curse. The Fallen Angel regained control over her body, and she pushed Zhao Fu to the ground and started to rip his clothes off.

"What are you doing?" Zhao Fu asked teasingly.

The Fallen Angel's face was red as she glared at Zhao Fu and said angrily, "You bastard, hurry up and give it to This God."

Nossi looked at the following scene with a reddened face, and her body could not help but react. She watched with admiration and craving; soon, her wish was fulfilled and she was taken by Zhao Fu on the table.

Boom!

A few hours later, an explosion suddenly sounded out, stopping Zhao Fu. The Darkness God Palace had released a black energy barrier, as it seemed that someone was attacking.

Zhao Fu put on his clothes and took the Fallen Angel and Nossi outside, and he saw that it was Wu Five attacking.

Zhao Fu withdrew the barrier, and Wu Five flew in with a look of confusion as he looked at Zhao Fu and the two red-faced women behind him. One of them was actually the Fallen Angel.

He had been extremely worried about Zhao Fu and risked everything to attack this place, yet this fellow was enjoying himself in pleasure. He had even made that Fallen Angel submit to him; just who was this person?

Chapter 1269: Celestial Peach

Wu Five felt slightly annoyed, but he was more amazed at the outcome. After all, he and Zhao Fu together had not been a match for the Fallen Angel, yet Zhao Fu seemed to have subdued this Fallen Angel. How had he done it?

Zhao Fu's identity and abilities made Wu Five view him in higher esteem. Perhaps Zhao Fu's identity was even more terrifying than he had expected.

Zhao Fu was also extremely surprised that Wu Five would come to save him, and he smiled in gratitude as he said, "Thank you!"

Wu Five waved his hand, signaling that it was not much.

Zhao Fu thought about the special trial from going from the second level to the first level. Apparently, it was possible to obtain very precious items, so he asked Wu Five about it.

Wu Five told him that there was indeed a trial, but he had quickly charged through and casually picked an item.

Zhao Fu felt that this was somewhat of a pity. Now that he was already at the first level, he could not take that trial.

Beside him, the Fallen Angel said disdainfully, “That trial is nothing; the truly valuable thing is the final trial of the Cosmos Historical Remnant. All of the rewards are extremely rare treasures, and one can only challenge each trial once. If one passes the trial, the trial will disappear; if they fail, the next person will have an opportunity.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and said, “Brother Wu, let’s head to the final trial together.”

Zhao Fu now saw Wu Five as a true friend, so he was much more courteous and was not as cold. Zhao Fu would treat him well.

Wu Five nodded. He felt quite curious towards the Cosmos Historical Remnant because this sort of historical remnant was rare even within the Heaven Domain.

“Arasina, lead us there,” Zhao Fu said as he looked at the Fallen Angel. Arasina was her name, and even though the first level was quite big, with her leading the way, they would be able to head to the final trial directly.

Arasina looked quite unwilling. She was a high-grade godly spirit, yet she had to obey a human and lead the way for him. She was not used to such a thing.

However, seeing that Zhao Fu was about to activate the Six Desires Demonic Qi again, Arasina embarrassedly glared at Zhao Fu before leading the two of them to a tall stone stage.

The stone stage was 10,000 meters tall and 1,000 meters wide. It gave off a grand and majestic aura, and there was a square stone stele at the center. On top of it was a book made of stone, which gave off a powerful aura that made people not dare to get close.

Zhao Fu approached the stone stele without any fear. As the top-ranked person, he knew that he could accept five special trials and obtain five treasures. Anyone who wasn’t in the top 30 would be attacked if they got close.

After arriving at the stone stele, Zhao Fu placed his hand on the stone book and a screen of light appeared in front of Zhao Fu. On it were written the names of the trials, as well as their rewards.

Zhao Fu was quite shocked when he looked at the list of rewards because all of them were priceless treasures: Emperor's bloodlines, Emperor Heaven grade equipment, peerless medicinal pills, World Beast eggs, and all sorts of other items and Arts...

There were 100 or so trials in total, and Zhao Fu wanted to clear all of them and obtain all of the rewards. However, he could only choose five, so he started to pick.

Zhao Fu was surprised to find that the Darkness God Palace was also a reward, and it could only be obtained by defeating Arasina. Now that it had already been taken by Zhao Fu, it was grayed out and could not be chosen.

These trials were of different difficulty levels, and the more difficult ones gave better rewards while the easier ones gave worse rewards. The trial related to the Darkness God Palace was one of the more difficult ones.

Zhao Fu soon made his decision for the first trial, and he did so thinking about Great Qin's army. He chose the Darkness Acute Boundary, the reward for which was a Darkness Key. The trial was a relatively easy one, and the key could open up a space containing boundless Darkness God Iron, which was a Silver grade material.

If he could obtain this Darkness Key, Great Qin's soldiers would all be able to have Silver grade equipment. Right now, Great Qin's soldiers primarily used Blue grade equipment, and if the soldiers could all have Silver grade equipment, Great Qin's strength would rise to a new level.

After choosing this trial, Zhao Fu's body disappeared. Wu Five also chose a trial and disappeared, while Arasina stood by the side looking quite displeased.

After entering the trial, Zhao Fu found that the place he arrived at was filled with metallic puppets. These metallic puppets were 100 meters tall and were all made from tough steel. They were incredibly solid and felt quite powerful.

Zhao Fu's trial was to head to a certain place, not to kill these puppets. However, with so many puppets blocking his way, it would not be easy. Moreover, he could not fly here.

Zhao Fu became wary as he slashed out. A sharp sword light slashed into the nearest puppet's body, causing a metallic clang and fiery sparks, but only a shallow gash was made on the puppet.

With such terrifying defence, Zhao Fu estimated it would take a full-powered strike from him to take down a puppet. However, there were millions of puppets here, making Zhao Fu feel a sense of pressure. Even one of the relatively easy trials was so difficult already.

Zhao Fu charged forwards and the puppets started to march over and surround him. Soon, Zhao Fu was forced back.

These puppets would attack him together, and they had defensive skills as well. This forced Zhao Fu to back out and consider other methods.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu looked at these heavy, slow metallic puppets and thought of an item, which was the Infinite Gravity Origin Stone.

Boom!

Zhao Fu sent all of his power into that marble-sized stone, and a formless wave of gravity spread out. The surrounding 1,000 meters was weighed down by immense gravity, causing the ground to crack.

Zhao Fu held the Infinite Gravity Origin Stone as he once again walked towards the puppets. Under the effects of this immense gravity, the slow puppets became incredibly slow. They could only move after a while.

Zhao Fu leisurely walked over as if he was taking a stroll. He was completely unharmed as he reached his destination; he was surprised at just how easy it had been.

Of course, it was all because of this Infinite Gravity Origin Stone; otherwise, it would not have been so easy.

After passing the trial, Zhao Fu obtained a block of iron. It was 15 centimeters long and two fingers wide. There were many inscriptions on it, and it flashed with black light. This was the Darkness Key.

Holding the key, Zhao Fu's body disappeared and reappeared in the outside area.

Zhao Fu chose his second trial, which was called Death Plants, and the reward was a Celestial Peach.

This was a Celestial Peach from the legends, and it was split into a few kinds. One type ripened after 3,000 years, and anyone who ate it would cause their bodies to become younger. One type ripened after 6,000 years and allowed one to never grow old. One type ripened after 9,000 years, and after eating it, one would live as long as the heavens and earth.

The reward for this trial was the third type. Although it could not actually allow one to live as long as the heavens and earth, it could increase one's lifespan by 1,500 years. It was effective for even those at the Emperor Heaven Realm.

Chapter 1270: World Barrier

The higher one's cultivation was, the more reduced the effects of some spirit plants and medicinal pills would be, and some would even become ineffective. The fact that the Celestial Peach was effective even on those at the Emperor Heaven Realm showed just how precious a treasure it was.

Moreover, it could directly add 1,500 years of lifespan. Within spirit plants that increased lifespan, this was a top-tier effect.

The reason Zhao Fu chose this trial was because the golden dragon told him that Celestial Peaches not only gave a large amount of lifeforce, which could reduce the effects of the Emperor Killer Curse, but they also contained a trace of Celestial Source Energy.

Even though higher-beings would not care about a trace of Celestial Source Energy, it was something that even Emperor Heaven Realm experts would madly fight over. This would help him greatly in the future, so Zhao Fu listened to the golden dragon and chose this trial.

This Celestial Peach was the item that the white-haired young man had wanted. However, it was a pity that he had not been successful and died in the Cosmos Historical Remnant.

After entering the trial space, Zhao Fu saw boundless grassy plains. The sky was an azure blue color and there were a few white clouds. The scenery was quite beautiful, and at the center there seemed to be a large tree. However, because Zhao Fu was quite far away, he could not see it clearly.

The difficulty of this trial was also relatively low; reaching the tree would allow him to pass the trial.

Even though the weather was fine and sunny and Zhao Fu could not see any danger, this obviously was not the case. Right after Zhao Fu took a single step, hundreds of green vines that were as thick as arms shot out. All of them not only contained immense power but also had countless sharp spikes as well.

Facing the countless incoming vines, Zhao Fu raise the Sadistic Killing Sword and vigorously slashed out. A blood-red sword light flashed out, cutting countless vines into segments.

After being cut apart, green liquid flowed out of the vines and quickly returned underground. However, things were not over. In the next moment, thousands of vines containing even more terrifying power shot out, giving off shocking auras as they flew towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu sent Emperor's Power into the Sadistic Killing Sword and countless blood-red sword lights shot out. Zhao Fu powerfully slashed, and a blood-red crescent containing incredibly sharp power flew out and cut apart the incoming vines.

However, in the next second, the ground started to rise up as countless vines as thick as arms shot out. They looked like a green ocean and gave off a ferocious aura as they swarmed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's expression slightly fell and a powerful aura exploded out from him. A black aura flame appeared around his body as he sent even more power into the Sadistic Killing Sword.

Boom!

Zhao Fu slashed out and a massive blood-red sword light bringing with it a berserk blood-red sword wind blasted towards the green ocean with destructive power.

The blood-red sword light contained terrifying power as it slashed out, cutting apart countless vines and causing green liquid to fly everywhere. With just a single strike, Zhao Fu had blasted apart a large patch of vines.

However, even more vines burst out of the ground, forcing Zhao Fu back.

Looking at the green ocean in front of him, Zhao Fu thought about two items: the Sand Pearl and the Royal Wood Sword.

Zhao Fu took out the one meter wide Sand Pearl and sent his power into it. An intense yellow light spread out, causing the ground to start to turn into sand. The countless vines started to panic as they relied on the dirt. Once the dirt was turned into sand, they would naturally die.

Swish, swish, swish...

Vines shot out from the green ocean and contained powerful might as they shot towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu equipped the Royal Wood Sword and slashed out. A green energy barrier spread out and started to devour the vines' life force.

As the ground became sand and the green energy barrier devoured the vines' life force, the green ocean started to quickly die, turning into yellow vines. This allowed Zhao Fu to easily reach the large tree.

This tree was a peach tree and was dozens of meters tall. It was incredibly lush and had many branches. The trunk was six meters wide and the leaves were all a jade-green color. There were many peaches as big as two fists growing on it.

The entire tree gave off a powerful and ancient aura. It was most likely incredibly old, most likely more than 9,000 years old.

Zhao Fu stretched out his hand, and one of the Celestial Peaches trembled and fell into his hand. Following this, the tree disappeared, crushing Zhao Fu's thoughts of digging it up and taking it away.

Zhao Fu felt that this was a pity – the tree had 30 or so Celestial Peaches, and even a higher-being would be moved by such a thing. If he took the tree back, it was possible that higher-beings would attack.

Looking at the Celestial Peach in his hand, Zhao Fu smelled an intoxicating peach fragrance. However, Zhao Fu did not plan to eat it now and would take care of it after returning.

Zhao Fu left the trial space and chose his third trial. It was called Powerful Defense and its reward was a World Barrier.

This World Barrier could fuse with the ground and had extremely powerful defense. It could resist the attacks of even Emperor Heaven Realm experts, and it was incredibly big and could cover an entire world. It could last for a month and was definitely a good item for protecting a Kingdom.

Now that Great Qin was facing many dangers, if Zhao Fu obtained this World Barrier, Great Qin would have an extra layer of protection.

Zhao Fu entered the trial space. This trial was relatively simple. His task was to destroy barriers, but he had to destroy them with a single strike. If he could not destroy a barrier with a single strike, he would fail. This was a medium level difficulty trial.

A blue barrier appeared in front of Zhao Fu. The aura that this barrier gave off was similar to a Heaven Realm expert defending.

Zhao Fu felt that this was not too bad. The Sadistic Killing Sword in his hand gave off an intense sword light, and Zhao Fu ferociously slashed towards the barrier.

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded out as the barrier shattered and turned into countless pieces as it disappeared.

A second barrier appeared in front of Zhao Fu, and it was red this time. It was tougher than the one before, and it gave off the aura of a Harmony Realm expert.

This was somewhat difficult for Zhao Fu. An expert of this level could use some of the Heaven and Earth's Power, and the barrier naturally contained that power.

Using the Sadistic Killing Sword would not be enough, so Zhao Fu took out the Emperor Killing Sword. A black and blood-red sword light giving off an almost-corporeal killing intent slammed against the defensive barrier, and the red barrier shattered, turning into red light as it disappeared.

The third barrier was even more powerful, and it gave off the aura of a Great Earth Realm expert defending.

A Great Earth Realm expert could use Heaven and Earth Power at will, and a barrier they created would have a massive amount of Heaven and Earth Power supporting it. Even Heaven Realm experts would find it almost impossible to break, let alone Zhao Fu, who only had Stage 9 Cultivation.

In the end, Zhao Fu was able to break the third barrier. Not only did he explode with all of his power, but he also used the Six Paths Demon Images' power.

The fourth barrier was a white barrier, which gave off an aura of a World Realm expert defending. The World Realm was his limit, and using the Six Paths Demon Images' power and the Emperor Killing Sword World's power, he was barely able to destroy it.

However, a fifth barrier appeared before Zhao Fu.
