

The Lord 1281

Chapter 1281: Charm Devil King

Two days later, Zhao Fu finally finished the fusion. He looked even younger and his ears became slightly pointed, and he gave off a slightly devilish aura. His aura was much more powerful than before.

He also now had a trace of a rainbow-colored aura within his body, and this was most likely the Celestial source energy from the Celestial Peach. It had fused with Zhao Fu, and the Fairy Emperor Bloodline had also perfectly fused with Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu was still disappointed to find that his bloodline still had not leveled up, and it was still a trace away. It seemed that obtaining a Divine Bloodline was even more difficult than scaling the heavens.

Following this, Zhao Fu planned to head to a Marquisate Kingdom in the Charm Devil World. It was the King from that Marquisate Kingdom who wanted Zhao Fu to give him 1,000 Concubines, and this included Tina Pendragon. Zhao Fu did not know how they knew of Tina Pendragon, but it was likely as a result of her fighting outside.

As long as Great Qin agreed to this request, their Kingdom would consider persuading some other Kingdoms to stand on Great Qin's side, but they could not guarantee the success.

After hearing this, Zhao Fu coldly laughed; of course he would not agree. Let alone Tina Pendragon, Zhao Fu would not give them even a single ordinary Concubine. However, Zhao Fu wanted to take this opportunity to go to the Charm Devil World and take a look.

When Zhao Fu followed the Charm Devil soldiers into the Marquisate Kingdom's Royal City, even though he had made mental preparations, he was still quite shocked by how revealing the men and women's clothes were.

The men on the streets all looked at the women with openly lascivious looks, while the women had lewd smiles on their faces as they twisted their bodies as they walked. They did not mind the men's gazes at all and instead enjoyed them.

Even on the streets, Zhao Fu saw many pairs of Charm Devil men and women entangled together, disregarding other people's gazes. It seemed that this practice was quite normal, and Zhao Fu did not pay them much mind.

Zhao Fu also saw many naked Elves, both men and women. There were exquisite ropes tied around their necks, and some people were leading them around like pets. Their lower bodies all looked like they had been greatly ravaged.

These were most likely the people they had captured from conquering two Continents in the Elf World. The Charm Devils naturally would not treat those Elves like Great Qin treated them.

"Mother, you're so beautiful!" Zhao Fu looked through a room with its windows wide open and saw a young man and a middle-aged woman going at it together. They looked quite similar and given the way the young man addressed the woman, it was easy to guess their relationship.

By now, Zhao Fu did not know what to say. Zhao Fu saw even more depraved scenes, but they were too vulgar to describe.

They soon came to a luxurious hall within the Royal Palace. Because Zhao Fu had come here as an ambassador, he suppressed his cultivation so that it was only around Stage 5. With Zhao Fu's strength, no one could discover this.

The guards were all female soldiers with pretty looks and seductive figures, and Zhao Fu was not too surprised because he had heard about things like this.

The main purpose of these female soldiers was so the King could do them at any time; their main role was to service the King. This was quite common within the Charm Devil World, and most Kings had a group of beautiful female soldiers.

Following this, Zhao Fu was summoned and he was escorted into the hall, and he saw a group of women with enticing figures dancing.

There were two people seated above: one was a young man giving off an evil and devilish aura. He wore a dragon robe and his strength was around the Saint Realm. The other was an extremely beautiful woman wearing a phoenix robe, and she lazily lay within the young man's embrace.

The young man was naturally the Marquisate Kingdom's King, and the woman was naturally the Queen. Seeing Zhao Fu walk in, a trace of abnormality flashed within the woman's eyes, but she quickly hid this and she smiled as she hugged the young man.

Zhao Fu walked and cupped his hands as he said, "Greetings, Your Majesty!"

The young man smiled in satisfaction and stretched out his hand, indicating for Zhao Fu to take a seat. Great Qin was one of the two most powerful factions in this area, so he had to give Great Qin some face.

Just as Zhao Fu sat down, the young man could not wait and asked, "Has Great Qin come to a decision? Great Qin's Majesty has so many Concubines so 1,000 should not be a big deal. If you feel that it's too many, we can negotiate about the number, but This King must have that golden-haired one."

The 'golden-haired one' he referred to was naturally Tina Pendragon. In actuality, Tina Pendragon was quite famous in the surrounding Worlds. Not only was she powerful, but she also had exceptional commanding abilities, and with her peerless beauty and innate Queen's aura, countless men wanted to conquer her.

The Charm Devil young man was already fantasizing having Tina Pendragon moan under him, and he madly wanted her. That was why he was willing to contact Great Qin.

A trace of anger appeared in Zhao Fu's heart, and he was tempted to kill this young man. However, Zhao Fu understood that he was here to discuss potential cooperation, and if he killed this young man, he would not have a chance to work with the Charm Devils in the future.

Now that the situation was so complicated, he naturally had to be careful and could not be too unbridled.

"That might not be possible. If Your Majesty has any other requests and can guarantee that the others will side with Great Qin, Great Qin will do its best to satisfy you," Zhao Fu replied calmly.

The Charm Devil angrily harrumphed, "But This King is only interested in women and not anything else! Also, that golden-haired woman has been used by your Emperor many times by now, right? Why is he so reluctant to give her to This King?"

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt even angrier, and a trace of coldness appeared in his eyes.

The Charm Devil young man did not place Zhao Fu in his eyes at all, as he thought that Zhao Fu only had Stage 5 Cultivation and that he could kill Zhao Fu at any moment. Just as he was about to continue speaking, a guard went up to report something, resulting in the young man storming out furiously and leaving Zhao Fu there.

Zhao Fu prepared to leave, as it seemed that cooperation was not possible. However, he had been able to see just how lewd and wanton the Charm Devil World was.

The female soldiers and dancers obeyed, and seeing this, Zhao Fu also prepared to leave.

However, right after those people left, the Queen could not hold herself back anymore and leapt at Zhao Fu, looking like she lewdly wanted to do Zhao Fu. “Your aura makes This Queen so excited to the point I feel like I’m going to go crazy!”

The instant Zhao Fu walked in, she felt an aura that made her entire heart and soul want to submit. That was naturally Zhao Fu’s Emperor’s aura, and she also smelled a fragrance, which was the Flower Fairy’s Blessing, increasing his charm towards women.

There was also the aura from the Dragon Phoenix and the Six Desires Demonic Qi, which caused the Queen’s heart rate to speed up and for her body to heat up. She had been enduring this whole time; Zhao Fu’s aura completely brought out this Charm Devil woman’s licentious nature.

Zhao Fu did not refuse the Queen’s desperate servicing because the things he had seen previously had caused him to have a reaction. Moreover, that young man had said he wanted to have his women.

Chapter 1282: Dagger

As such, Zhao Fu taking his woman was perfectly justified. The Charm Devil young man did not take Zhao Fu’s women seriously at all as if he could play with them as he wished. Now, Zhao Fu would play with his woman.

Zhao Fu quickly started to ravage her, and the Queen was incredibly lewd like a beast in heat and disregarded everything.

Soon, the Charm Devil young man returned and hearing the sounds from within the hall, fury swelled up in his heart. He kicked open the door with a savage expression and saw his Queen moaning under Zhao Fu.

The Charm Devil young man directly released his aura and blasted the two people away, preparing to kill them. Even though he wanted to play with Great Qin's women, he did not want to have his women be taken by someone else.

Of course, this was unless it was a woman he was bored with; otherwise, no man would do such a thing. The Queen under Zhao Fu was his most beloved woman, and he showered her with a lot of affection.

He had never thought that she would engage in illicit relations with that man not long after he left. He understood the nature of Charm Devils, but they definitely would not be crazy enough to do something like this. It must have been the man who did something.

However, since she had been taken by another man, he did not want her anymore, so he prepared to kill them both.

However, the Charm Devil young man had miscalculated – Zhao Fu's strength was far above Stage 5. Seeing the young man attack, Zhao Fu exploded out with his full power. He had wanted to kill the young man earlier, and he did not hold back.

In front of Zhao Fu's massive power, the Charm Devil young man was completely defenseless and his attack was shattered. The young man's body was sealed by an enormous power. Just as he wanted to use his Nation Armament, a massive energy slammed into his soul.

The young man's consciousness was destroyed and his eyes became empty, and his body stood there like a corpse. He did not even have a chance to use his Nation Armament.

It was primarily because he had been careless and thought that Zhao Fu really only had Stage 5 cultivation. He did not know that this person was Great Qin's Emperor, and given how terrifying Zhao Fu's true power was, he could easily take down the young man.

The shockwaves here caused countless soldiers to rush over. Zhao Fu immediately controlled the Charm Devil young man to order them to stand down; this was why Zhao Fu did not directly kill him.

Hearing this order, the soldiers felt quite confused, but because no one dared to disobey the King's orders, so they all retreated.

Zhao Fu continued to do it with the Queen, who glared at him and said, "I knew your identity was not simple!"

Following this, the Queen fell to the ground, completely drained. Zhao Fu was not done yet and called over the group of female soldiers, the Charm Devil young man's concubines, and his sisters and mother, and he started to go about it with them.

By now, the Charm Devil young man's consciousness was gone, so he was more or less dead. Right now, he stood there, looking like a corpse.

Zhao Fu, unlike his usual self, went on a rampage. It was primarily because of how lustful the Charm Devil women were, making him sink into indulgence.

"Did you take control of my son? His father is still in closed-door seclusion; you should get rid of him as soon as possible," a beautiful and graceful woman in Zhao Fu's arms said.

Zhao Fu looked at the woman in surprise because the woman was that young man's mother, the Empress Dowager. Not only was she not angry about Zhao Fu taking control of her son, but she was also telling him to get rid of her own man. Zhao Fu had never thought such a thing would happen.

"Do you have great enmity with him?" Zhao Fu asked the woman in his arms.

The woman lightly laughed, "There's no enmity, but now that you've taken our bodies, if he found out, he'll kill us all. As such, it's best to act first; I don't want to die.

"Also, for the Charm Devil race, as long as you can make women feel pleasure that goes to their souls, you will be able to conquer us, and we will truly serve you. Look at these female soldiers and concubines; that includes me, too."

Zhao Fu had never expected her to say such things; the Charm Devil race's women were incredibly licentious and savage, completely widening Zhao Fu's eyes. However, Zhao Fu quite liked this.

"If someone is able to make you feel more pleasure, you'll betray me, right? You'll treat me just as ruthlessly," Zhao Fu said calmly.

The beautiful woman did not try to lie to Zhao Fu and said, "But of course; we Charm Devil women will never develop feelings for anyone or be eternally loyal to them. We only have a purely physical connection."

Hearing these words, Zhao Fu frowned and felt quite displeased. No man wanted to hear such things.

Seeing this, the beautiful woman understood and kissed Zhao Fu as she said, "Don't worry, the pleasure you gave us is not something anyone else can do. I'm afraid that we'll belong to you for life."

"That's right! This Concubine can't ever leave you. I just want to be your servant forever. Also, hubby, just who are you? I'm sure you're not simple!" a concubine said as she happily hugged Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not bother hiding his identity and he told them. After hearing about this, all of them were quite shocked; they now understood why it was said that beauties were as common as clouds in Great Qin's harem – everything had a reason.

"Then what is your goal in coming here? Is it to take control of our Kingdom?" After realizing how terrifying Zhao Fu's identity was, the beautiful woman's expression became quite serious, as this could affect the entire Charm Devil World.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed, "I didn't have such plans; I just wanted to come over to have a look. Who would have thought such a thing would happen?"

"Then let's hurry and take control of the Gurao Kingdom so nothing unexpected happens! The Gurao Kingdom will be of much use to you." the beautiful woman said, feeling slightly surprised.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled – the beautiful woman had started to think of his best interests. Even though the Charm Devil race's women were quite lustful, they had good hearts if one could conquer them.

Following this, the beautiful woman led Zhao Fu to a palace, which was where the Emperor Emeritus was cultivating.

The beautiful woman told Zhao Fu that the Emperor Emeritus had Heaven Realm Cultivation and told him to be careful. In order to avoid making a ruckus, she had provided a dagger with lethal poison, which could easily kill those of the Heaven Realm.

After being disturbed from his cultivation, the Emperor Emeritus came out, furious. Seeing the beautiful woman, he felt less angry, but just as he was about to ask what was going on, Zhao Fu attacked with his full power, even using the Six Paths Demon Images' power.

The Emperor Emeritus had never expected his Empress Dowager to bring someone to attack him. He was caught off-guard, and given how strong Zhao Fu was, he was able to successfully stab the dagger into the Emperor Emeritus' chest. The lethal poison quickly spread, and the Emperor Emeritus' life force was quickly devoured.

Chapter 1283: Seizing Power

The Emperor Emeritus looked furious, and instantly understood what was going on. He looked at Zhao Fu hatefully and mustered the last of his strength to punch at Zhao Fu, but he was easily blocked by Zhao Fu.

In the end, the Emperor Emeritus died with an unreconciled and hateful look on his face. Blood flowed out of his lips and his body twitched a few times before he died.

The beautiful woman happily looked at the corpse on the ground. Now that the Emperor Emeritus was dead, they did not have to worry about their lives in the future. The flames of lust she had been suppressing once again started to flare up, and she squatted down as she started to service Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu evilly laughed as he looked at this graceful and beautiful woman desperately servicing him in front of the corpse of her previous man. Soon, the two of them started to do it.

The next step was to take political control. Zhao Fu originally did not have this as part of his plan, as it could bring some problems. If the Charm Devil World knew that Great Qin had a piece here, they would naturally want to side with the Devil Horn Empire. However, it would be too much of a pity to reject a free Kingdom.

Because Zhao Fu now controlled the Charm Devil young man and the Emperor Emeritus was dead, the beautiful woman was about to quickly take control of the Gurao Kingdom's politics. Of course, this involved killing many Ministers, as well as their families' men. As for the women, they were given to Zhao Fu as pets.

A few of the other branches of the royal family tried to stage military coups, resulting in the Gurao Kingdom being covered by the haze of war, and an austere aura filled the atmosphere.

The licentious Charm Devils all became serious because they understood that the fate of their Kingdom was going to be greatly changed.

Most of the commoners supported the beautiful woman because she was at least part of the official ruling side. Moreover, there was the Charm Devil young man as a puppet, gathering even more commoners. More importantly, most of the military power was in his hands, and the commoners naturally did not want to make any trouble.

The other branches of the royal family rebelled on the spur of the moment, and they did not make sufficient preparations. Given the fact that they did not have many soldiers and did not have a Nation Armament, they all fell in the end.

After seizing power, the beautiful woman became incredibly ruthless and cruel, carrying out a bloody suppression, causing countless people to feel terrified and afraid.

Those who rebelled, no matter if they were men or women, old or young, were stripped and a three meter long spear was stabbed through their bodies, piercing their organs and causing those people to painfully scream.

The instant they were pierced, they madly struggled, but they were pressed against the ground and died in immense pain.

Many people knelt and kowtowed in terror, pleading for the soldiers to spare them. they swore to be loyal to the throne, but the soldiers still used the spears to pierce through their bodies, causing the pained cries to continuously sound out.

Some terrified children who had no idea what was going on were also dealt with in this way. As the spears tore through their bodies, their cries were even more ear-piercing and looking at those children struggling in pain, even the soldiers felt quite sympathetic.

However, they still continued to do this to the children, or else they would also be treated in this fashion.

Countless spears were stabbed through corpses, and the other ends of the spears were stabbed into the ground. All of the corpses had expressions of immense pain, and blood flowed down along the spears, dying the ground black and blood-red. An immense deathly aura covered the sky, and the eerie wind seemed to contain the sounds of crying.

There were 600,000 or so corpses and they covered as far as the eye could see. The scene was incredibly shocking, making people feel despair. When standing before this scene, one could not help but tremble.

Such a bloody suppression immediately caused the Gurao Kingdom to be restored to peace. No one dared to make any trouble, as everyone's hearts were filled with terror, and they all submitted to the beautiful woman's rule.

A few days later, the speared corpses started to rot, resulting in horrible smells. A dark haze covered the sky and refused to dissipate. Countless corpse-eating birds descended and started to devour the corpses.

This place had already been made a forbidden zone, and no one dared to come here. Just the disgusting stench from the corpses was enough to stop most people from getting close.

The beautiful woman gave off a heroic and aggressive aura as she smiled and sat on the throne, looking at the kneeling Ministers below.

Zhao Fu understood something and stood next to her as he smiled and said, "My arrival was something that you wanted, right?"

The beautiful woman seductively smiled as she replied, saying, "I've always had this idea, but I never had the ability to turn it into reality. Luckily hubby, you came; later, I'll properly serve you."

Hearing the Empress Dowager say such a thing in front of them, if it was before, they would have advised the Emperor Emeritus to kill this woman.

However, they now only felt fear and trembled as they knelt, not daring to even look up. They had seen how ruthless the beautiful woman was, so they did not dare to say anything.

At the same time, they felt quite curious about that man's identity; who was he for the Empress Dowager to be so willing to serve him?

Zhao Fu smiled as he stretched out his hand and stroked the beautiful woman's face. She was called Mei Xianggu, while the Charm Devil young man's Queen was called Xiang Li. Mei Xianggu was like a pet and seemed to enjoy Zhao Fu's stroking. Zhao Fu had set down restrictions so no other man would touch her, so he did not have to worry about anything.

At the same time, he tried to hide all information about him to prevent other people in the Charm Devil World from discovering his identity, or else there would be trouble.

Zhao Fu felt that his trip to the Charm Devil World was quite absurd; things had completely exceeded what he had expected. He had also obtained a Marquisate Kingdom for free, which was a decent gain.

With how powerful Great Qin was now, Marquisate Kingdoms were not a very big deal. Zhao Fu wanted to quickly rise to a Royal Kingdom, so how could he put Marquisate Kingdoms in his eyes?

Zhao Fu did not just want to take revenge against the Ancient Sword Sect; given the higher-being's warning, who knew what would happen in the future? It would be best to quickly rise to a Royal Kingdom. Only then would he have the ability to protect himself.

After returning to Great Qin, Zhao Fu was informed of a very secretive matter, causing him to smile in delight. Their spies had found out why the Devil Horn Empire was so powerful.

The Devil Horn Empire had a Heaven and Earth Devil Vein that could gather the purest and most powerful Devil Qi. The condensation of that Devil Qi formed a Devil Spirit Fountain, and the fountain water was of massive help to the Devil Race.

The Devil Horn Empire used the Devil Spirit Fountain to replace the Ten Thousand Devil Pool to produce powerful devil beasts. They also mixed the fountain water with other spirit liquids to give to their soldiers, causing their soldiers' bloodlines to become much stronger. That was why they were so powerful.

Great Qin now knew of the location of the Devil Spirit Fountain; if they could destroy it, the Devil Horn Empire's strength would greatly fall.

Zhao Fu brought Mosax, Molaf, and Yu Ling with him. With their abilities, they would be able to get past all defenses.

Chapter 1284: Azure Dragon

Mosax's ability was to turn all power into nothingness, and this naturally included barriers and magic formations; Molaf's ability was to travel through nothingness, making it difficult for people to discover him, and he also had immunity to barriers and magic formations.

The one who was the most effective against barriers and magic formations was Yu Ling, and they would primarily be relying on him. His Thousand World Constitution could break through all sorts of barriers. He could even break through the Heaven Domain Boundary; it was evident just how terrifying his powers were.

The Devil Spirit Fountain was the most important thing to the Devil Horn Empire, so it would undoubtedly be heavily protected. However, with Mosax, Molaf, and Yu Ling, Zhao Fu was quite confident that they would succeed.

After making some careful preparations, Zhao Fu came to where Yu Ling was. Yu Ling was currently eating desserts with his mother, and Zhao Fu explained the situation to him.

Yu Qingshui's face became red and she had a slightly flirtatious look in her eyes as she smiled and said to Yu Ling, "Ling'Er, make sure you perform well and don't let down His Majesty."

Yu Ling nodded and looked at Zhao Fu with his big, pure eyes as he said, "Your Majesty, if I make great contributions, can you give me a reward? Mother calls out your name every night, and I want you to help her."

Hearing this, Yu Qingshui's face became bright red and she could not look up. She had never thought that the things she did every night would be heard by Yu Ling.

However, because Yu Ling was quite young, he did not understand what was going on, and he just wanted his mother not to suffer.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and patted his head. "If you perform well, We will guarantee that your mother will feel better."

"Thank you, Your Majesty!" Yu Ling was so happy that he almost started jumping up and down. He did not know just what he was asking.

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded before looking at Yu Qingshui, who wanted to jump into a hole. Sensing Zhao Fu's gaze, her heart rate sped up, and her breathing became erratic.

"Ling'Er, go and play for a while." Yu Qing's face was completely red and she felt quite nervous.

After Yu Ling left, Yu Qingshui's eyes became filled with lust. Now that things were so clear, she did not want to continue waiting and started to serve Zhao Fu.

After an intense round, Yu Ling came back and saw that his mother seemed different. She seemed even prettier and moving, and he was quite happy as he left with Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu and the three others soon came to the border of the Devil Horn Empire. Because of Zhao Fu's previous attack, they had become much more wary and had set up many detection magic formations to prevent people from sneaking in.

If it was before, it would have been quite troublesome for Zhao Fu to sneak in. However, Zhao Fu had Molaf drag everyone into nothingness and stealthily pass through the border without the soldiers and magic formations discovering them.

After entering the inside of the Devil Horn Empire, Zhao Fu and his party flew towards the direction that the Devil Spirit Fountain was in. The Devil Spirit Fountain was quite far away from the Devil Horn Palace, and it was at the very center of the Devil Horn World.

Zhao Fu's group arrived after two days, mainly because they had to carefully avoid the countless devil beasts, soldiers, and magic formations. Otherwise, it only would have taken one day to arrive.

There was a massive barrier here, and it was a very advanced one. No matter if it was in terms of firmness or the energy it contained, it was incredibly powerful.

If Zhao Fu used the same methods as before, he definitely would not be able to break through this barrier. Moreover, there were three magic formations within the barrier.

The three magic formations silently spun and gave off powerful auras. One magic formation gave off black light and gave off a dangerous aura, and it had countless devilish runes on it. Images of devil beasts would occasionally appear on it.

One magic formation was white and gave off a dream-like aura – it was most likely an advanced illusion formation. The final one gave off a heavy and steel-like aura, and it was most likely an advanced metallic defensive magic formation.

There were also many soldiers giving off powerful auras patrolling about, preventing anyone from getting close.

Apart from that, there was also an azure dragon that was thousands of meters long within the barrier. The dragon's might that the azure dragon gave off was extremely powerful, making it so that no living creatures in the surrounding 1,000 kilometers dared to come close. It was definitely the most powerful devil beast in the Devil Horn Empire.

With so many defenses, barely no one would be able to force one's way through. Zhao Fu found that he had somewhat underestimated the Devil Horn Empire; they had actually set down so many layers of defenses.

Zhao Fu felt that the most difficult thing would be the azure dragon; the magic formations and barrier would be easy to get through. However, if they were discovered by the azure dragon, a single roar would be enough to alert everyone of them.

Also, for some reason, after reaching here, the Ten Thousand Dragon Mark and the Sun and Moon Devil Marks on his chest all gave off intense reactions. They gave off faint lights and started to get hot, causing Zhao Fu to feel some pain.

It was most likely because of the large amount of pure Devil Qi around. The Sun and Moon Devil Marks were types of Devils, albeit mutated types. Dragons were naturally a type of devil beast, and they were one of the most powerful types.

Zhao Fu first stealthily set down noise-isolating barriers, perception-impairing barriers, and visual illusion barriers. The noise-isolating barriers were to prevent the azure dragon inside from alerting anyone, the perception-impairing barriers were to weaken the perceptions of the patrolling soldiers, and the visual illusion barriers were to make it seem like everything was normal while certain defenses had already been broken through.

Zhao Fu expected the defenses here to be quite powerful, so he had made sufficient preparations.

Only then did Zhao Fu start. He first had Mosax unleash his ability – Mosax walked up and placed his hand against the barrier, and a powerful Nothingness Power spread out, causing the barrier to start to grow dim.

Zhao Fu then had Yu Ling go up. He lightly touched the barrier, and a hole opened up in the barrier. Molaf then brought the party into the nothingness and snuck in.

Because everyone was hiding in nothingness, the three magic formations did not react. Zhao Fu then had Mosax go up and unleash his Nothingness Domain to cover the three magic formations, weakening their power.

However, the first magic formation still sensed danger and instantly activated itself. It gave off a black light and countless devilish runes appeared. Devil beasts started to appear and madly attacked Zhao Fu and his group.

Zhao Fu immediately had Molaf drag everyone back into the nothingness, causing those devil beasts to lose their targets. The magic formation slowly deactivated, and Zhao Fu had Yu Ling set down spatial barriers around that magic formation, dealing with it in that way. The second magic formation, the illusion magic formation, had extremely powerful illusion abilities. Not only was Yu Ling easily dragged into the illusion, but Molaf and Mosax were also the same, so Zhao Fu could only rely on himself.

Chapter 1285: Devil Spirit Vein

Zhao Fu had his Sovereign Bloodline and Divine Sense from the Five Celestial Senses, so he had great immunity against illusions. He took out a Restriction Pearl and placed it at the center of the illusion magic formation, temporarily stopping the magic formation.

After the magic formation was stopped, Yu Ling and the others came back to their senses. The final magic formation, the metallic defensive magic formation, gave off an intense bronze light that covered the surroundings.

Just like before, Zhao Fu had Mosax reduced its power before having Yu Ling go up and use his spatial power to break through the magic formation.

However, this magic formation's defenses were far tougher than the barrier before. As such, this took much time, and Zhao Fu and the others could only cautiously wait.

“Roar!!” A dragon's roar suddenly sounded out as an enormous aura spread out. Zhao Fu was greatly startled – that azure dragon lying on the ground had discovered them, and if it wasn't for the noise-isolating barrier, that massive roar would have shaken their surroundings.

However, Zhao Fu's expression was quite unsightly; now that the azure dragon had discovered them, a fight was bound to break out. The dragon was the most powerful devil beast in the Devil Horn Empire and Zhao Fu would not be able to instantly take it down. Moreover, if he released too powerful of an aura, others would detect him.

What could he do? There would be a large battle and the sounds and shockwaves would be massive. They would definitely be discovered, and they would not have such a chance next time.

As Zhao Fu was considering what to do, the azure dragon's savage eyes locked onto him and prepared to fly into the sky and start to attack Zhao Fu.

However, at that moment, Zhao Fu's chest was wracked with immense pain as the Ten Thousand Dragon Mark gave off an intense silver light and started to quickly spin. A powerful dragon aura rushed forth, and the dragon pearl within Zhao Fu's body shot out a golden light towards the azure dragon.

The azure dragon sensed an unimaginably terrifying dragon's might descend on its body, causing it to fall to the ground in fear as it trembled, not daring to resist at all.

Zhao Fu could not help but feel delighted. The Clear Sky Saint Dragon was one of the most noble dragons, and it could be counted as an Emperor among dragons. The Clear Sky Saint Dragon Pearl had suppressed the azure dragon, helping Zhao Fu overcome this crisis.

Zhao Fu immediately had Yu Ling and Mosax hurry as they worked on the magic formation. Zhao Fu did not plan on killing the azure dragon, because if it died, Yao Ming would definitely know that something was happening. Looking at the azure dragon lying on the ground, Zhao Fu summoned countless chains and tightly bound it up.

Crack!

A clear sound rang out as the third magic formation was destroyed. Zhao Fu excitedly brought the three others in. They would soon be able to destroy the Devil Spirit Fountain and deal a heavy blow to the Devil Horn Empire. After all, the Devil Horn Empire heavily relied on the Devil Spirit Fountain.

They came before the opening of a basin, and Zhao Fu frowned because there was a barrier here. This barrier was blood-red colored and was a type of bloodline barrier.

Without Yao Ming's essence blood, one would not be able to enter. This barrier was even stronger than the barrier outside, and once someone came close, the barrier would be immediately activated. It would respond with an intense attack, and Yao Ming would immediately sense this.

Zhao Fu had never thought that the Devil Horn Empire would have such a trick up its sleeve. Anyone approaching the barrier would activate it, and even diving into nothingness would not be enough to get around it.

Zhao Fu felt quite troubled and did not know how to deal with it. However, in the next moment, Zhao Fu smiled. He would not be able to obtain Yao Ming's essence blood, but there was someone else's blood that might be able to act as a substitute. That person was naturally Yao Ming's little brother. His bloodline was very close to Yao Ming's, and perhaps using his blood would be possible.

Back when he had let off Yao Ming's little brother, he had left a trace of his aura within his body. He could now use that trace of aura to find him.

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu had the others wait in the nothingness as he quickly left.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu arrived at an open and empty area. Yao Ming's little brother was using a whip to hit a servant. That person's flesh was completely torn and his flesh was quite mangled. That person could not even cry out and could only weakly moan.

Zhao Fu did not pay much mind to this, and he grabbed Yao Ming's little brother and left.

Yao Ming's little brother was instantly subdued by Zhao Fu and after being grabbed by Zhao Fu, he looked terrified; his impression of Zhao Fu was quite deep.

Yao Ming had lost so many devil beasts because of him last time, and afterwards, he had been strictly reprimanded by Yao Ming. He had never thought that Zhao Fu would once again sneak into the Devil Horn Empire and capture him.

His body was restricted and he could only look at Zhao Fu with fear; Zhao Fu did not have any interest in hearing what he had to say.

Zhao Fu quickly returned to the Devil Spirit Fountain, and Molaf and the others came out. Seeing where they were, Yao Ming's little brother's face became incredibly pale. He understood what Zhao Fu was going to do.

Zhao Fu did not waste any words because time was tight and they could be discovered at any moment. He slashed open Yao Ming's little brother's palm and forced out some of his essence blood before tossing him to the side.

The blood formed an orb of blood, and Zhao Fu sent his Emperor's Power into it, causing the essence blood to give off a powerful Emperor's aura. This blood was now incredibly similar to Yao Ming's blood.

Zhao Fu held the orb of blood and carefully made his way forwards. Because this was Yao Ming's little brother's blood, Zhao Fu was not completely sure that it would work.

In the end, Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief – the blood-red barrier did not react, and Zhao Fu successfully entered the basin.

Within the basin, the Devil Qi was incredibly dense, and it covered the surroundings like a purple fog. Many Devil Crystals had condensed, and sensing this intense Devil Qi, the Sun and Moon Devil Marks on Zhao Fu's chest gave off even bigger reactions, causing Zhao Fu's chest to feel even more pain.

Zhao Fu endured the pain and walked forwards to a fountain made with exquisite bricks. The fountain was incredibly big, and it was 1,000 meters wide. It was difficult to see how deep it was, and it was filled with purple fountain water.

After arriving here, the Ten Thousand Dragon Mark and the Sun and Moon Devil Marks gave off incredibly intense lights which pierced through Zhao Fu's clothes. Zhao Fu's body suddenly jumped into the fountain.

Zhao Fu had wanted to take back all of this Devil Spirit Fountain Water to develop his own devil beasts; with so much fountain water, he would be able to develop many.

However, Zhao Fu could not stop his body from leaping into the water, and the purple water rushed into his body. In the blink of an eye, all of the fountain water was absorbed by Zhao Fu's body, and his chest no longer hurt. It seemed that the various marks had been satisfied.

However, Zhao Fu did not feel very comfortable; he felt as if his body was filled with some kind of energy and was about to explode. His heart pounded, and his mind was filled with loud banging. Zhao Fu felt that his body was going to go out of control soon, and he had to hurriedly get out of here.

Chapter 1286: Kin Cannibalism

After all of the fountain water was absorbed by Zhao Fu, a devil dragon's head was revealed at the bottom of the fountain. The devil dragon's head was five or six meters wide and looked quite domineering. It looked just like a real dragon's head and seemed to contain life and an intense might.

Zhao Fu knew that this was the Devil Spirit Vein. He raised his Sadistic Killing Sword and sent a large amount of power into it. The sword gave off an intense blood-red light and aura.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out an enormous blood-red sword light. The blood-red sword light gave off a destructive power as it slashed against the dragon's head shattered.

The weather started to change as clouds swirled and thunder sounded out. A terrifying aura covered the entire world as if everything was going to be destroyed. The destruction of the Devil Horn Empire's important Devil Spirit Vein immediately caused terrifying abnormal signs.

Sensing this aura, Yao Ming's heart sank and his expression fell as he hurriedly flew towards the Devil Spirit Fountain.

Of course, Zhao Fu understood that people would arrive soon, so he and the other quickly flew away. Otherwise, when the Devil Horn Empire's army arrived, they would not be able to survive.

At the same time, that bloated feeling made him feel as if his body was going to be torn apart. He had to hurry back to Great Qin and deal with this, or he felt that his body was going to explode.

The abnormal signs from the Devil Spirit Vein almost caused the entire Devil Horn Empire to fall into chaos. Zhao Fu and his group took advantage of this chaos to easily leave the Devil Horn Empire.

Soon, Yao Ming stood beside the Devil Spirit Fountain with a cold expression as he looked at the shattered dragon's head. The coldness emanating from his body seemed to be able to pierce one's bones – Yao Ming was furious to the extreme, and he wanted to destroy everything.

Yao Ming's little brother looked afraid and said apologetically, "Big bro, it was that person again. He snuck into the Devil Horn Empire and used my blood to enter here. I'm sorry, I've caused trouble for you again."

The biggest reason why Zhao Fu was able to break through the Devil Horn Empire's defenses was because of Yao Ming's little brother. This was because the most important defense was the bloodline barrier. If it wasn't for Yao Ming's little brother's blood, Zhao Fu would not have been able to pass through.

Yao Ming had never thought that it would be possible to use his little brother's essence blood to enter. That powerful defense had been rendered completely useless.

Seeing that Yao Ming was ignoring him, the little brother said with eyes filled with tears, "Big bro, is there any way I can help you? Please don't be mad at me, okay?"

Yao Ming considered to himself whether or not he wanted to do that thing. The Devil Spirit Vein was incredibly important to the Devil Horn Empire, and they could not afford to lose it, as they would perish at Great Qin's hands without it.

Hearing his little brother's words, Yao Ming made a decision. He gave a gentle smile as he looked at his little brother and asked softly, "Do you really want to help me?"

Seeing that Yao Ming was not angry, and was even smiling, he happily nodded.

Bang!

Yao Ming's little brother looked at Yao Ming in confusion, who had just pushed him over, and asked, "Big bro?"

Yao Ming seemed completely different, and he seemed quite savage as he said, "I originally didn't want to use this method, but little brother, you've caused the Devil Horn Empire great losses twice. You are my greatest weakness. I wanted to kill you last time, but because you're my little brother, I couldn't do it.

"However, the Devil Spirit Vein has been destroyed. If this goes on, the Devil Horn Empire will perish sooner or later. As such, you can only die for the Devil Horn Empire."

Yao Ming opened his mouth, revealing his pristine white teeth. He lowered himself and bit his little brother's neck. As his sharp teeth pierced into the flesh, blood spurted out. Yao Ming's little brother looked pained as he pleaded, "Big bro, don't kill me! It hurts!"

However, it was as if Yao Ming did not hear him. He flicked his head, biting off a large piece of flesh. Large amounts of blood flowed out, spurting all over Yao Ming.

Yao Ming chewed on the flesh, causing blood to squirt out of his mouth. The flesh was incredibly tender, juicy, and tasty.

Large amounts of blood flowed out from Yao Ming's little brother's neck, and his aura quickly weakened. However, he continued to struggle, and his face was twisted with pain as he begged tearily, "Big bro, don't kill me!"

Yao Ming's heart softened; this was his little brother. However, thinking about the destroyed Devil Spirit Vein, he steeled himself and pressed his hand against his little brother's forehead, sealing his soul in his head. He then took another bite of flesh.

"Arghhh!!" Yao Ming's little brother continuously cried out in pain as he cried and begged Yao Ming. However, Yao Ming had already made his decision, and he took bite after bite, looking extremely savage.

In the end, Yao Ming completely devoured his little brother, leaving behind only the head. He looked to the side and found there was still a finger, and he picked it up and put it in his mouth, chewing on even the bones.

"Ahhhh!!" Yao Ming raised his face to the sky and roared as a large amount of blood-red aura spread out. Two short horns appeared on his head, and his power greatly rose. His bloodline was much more powerful than before as well.

Yao Ming had just used the Devil Race's secret technique, 'Kin Cannibalism.' This technique could cause one's bloodline to become even purer and allow one to obtain even greater power. Otherwise, he would not have eaten his little brother like that.

Holding his little brother's head, Yao Ming felt an ache within his heart, and he hated Zhao Fu even more. He went to the shattered dragon's head and placed his little brother's head there.

Boom!

Yao Ming pressed his hand against the air, and his little brother's head gave off an intense blood-red light. The shattered pieces of the dragon's head flew towards his brother's head and fused together, and a blood-red pillar of light shot into the sky with a terrifying aura.

“Roarr!” Many traces of blood-red aura rose up into the sky in the Devil Horn World, forming an enormous blood-red dragon. This blood-red dragon had a human head on its forehead, which was Yao Ming’s little brother’s head. A massive restrictive power covered the surroundings.

Sensing this restrictive power, Yao Ming could not help but loudly laugh in delight because this Devil Spirit Vein’s aura was five or six times stronger than the previous one. It was no longer a simple Devil Spirit Vein but a Kin Devil Spirit Vein, which had a terrifying restrictive power.

In the future, the fountain water condensed would be blood-red, and drinking the fountain water would give one this restrictive power. The Devil Horn Empire’s power would rise.

Elsewhere, Zhao Fu charged into the Four Soul Devil World and collapsed at the core magic formation. Massive amounts of Devil Qi spread out, and all of the Devils felt a sense of fear, not knowing what was going on.

An immense power causing abnormal signs covered the surrounding few worlds, causing everyone’s expressions to fall.

Chapter 1287: Clear Sky Dragon Power

It was not just them; the wild beasts that were more sensitive to danger all lay on the ground, whimpering in fear. No birds dared to fly in the sky, and they trembled as they gathered together.

At the center of the Four Soul Devil World, Zhao Fu’s body gave off an intense purple light as purple demon inscriptions came out of his body. In that instant, all of the Devil Qi around him madly gathered towards him.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” Dragon’s roars shook the sky, and it seemed as if ten thousand dragons were roaring in unison. Zhao Fu’s chest shined with an intense silver light, piercing through the surrounding 1,000 meters. The Ten Thousand Dragon Mark continuously spun as silver dragons came out of Zhao Fu’s body.

There were 10,000 silver dragons, and they circled around Zhao Fu like an enormous silver vortex, and an enormous absorption power burst forth.

The Heaven and Earth Essence Qi of a few worlds quickly gathered, and it was to the point that they seemed corporeal. Clouds quickly gathered, and a formless aura of danger spread out in people's hearts.

Everyone looked towards the sky and saw clouds swirling in the sky, not knowing what was happening. However, it was definitely something big.

“Roar!” As the massive amount of Heaven and Earth Essence Qi entered Zhao Fu's body, an awe-inspiring dragon's roar traveled throughout the entire world, causing all living creatures' legs to weaken.

The golden dragon pearl on Zhao Fu's chest turned into a 15 centimeter long golden dragon. It had three eyes, four horns, and golden, crystalline scales. This was the Clear Sky Saint Dragon, one of the Emperors of dragons.

Boom!

The Clear Sky Saint Dragon swam about on Zhao Fu's chest, and a formless aura spread out. The skies of countless worlds seemed to be grabbed by a large, formless hand, and rays of golden light shot out from over the horizon. The Clear Sky Saint Dragon was madly gathering Clear Sky Power.

Rays of light shot down from the sky and gathered above Great Qin, causing part of the sky to turn golden. More and more golden light gathered, and the enormous might became stronger and stronger.

It was not just the Devils in the Four Soul Devil World that seemed to be pressed against the ground by a giant hand; wild beasts in other places did not dare to remain near Great Qin, and this was the same for wild beasts in other worlds. It was as if a massive disaster was about to arrive.

The sky was filled with golden light, and the might caused the surroundings to feel incredibly heavy. The golden light and might reached their apex, and space itself started to twist.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as a golden ray of light descended from the sky, bringing with it immense power, and it landed onto Zhao Fu's body. A corporeal shockwave blasted out, and the ground instantly cracked.

The golden light in the sky entered Zhao Fu's body through the golden ray of light, and terrifying shockwaves rippled out from Zhao Fu, making it so that no one dared to come close. The shocking power was enough to make people fall into an abyss of despair.

The powerful Clear Sky Dragon Power caused Zhao Fu's body to start to dragonify. Crystalline scales appeared on his body, and four short horns appeared on his head.

Boom!

Another explosion sounded out as a taichi symbol floated out of Zhao Fu's chest and flew into the air. It expanded out into a 10,000 meter wide taichi diagram, and the golden ray of light from the sky just so happened to pass through it.

The taichi diagram spun with immense force, and a formless energy spread out, creating powerful winds. Sand filled the sky and rocks rolled as trees swayed.

A crow and a silver rabbit appeared on opposing sides of the taichi diagram. The former gave off a searing aura like the sun while the other gave off a cold and gentle aura like the moon.

Boom! Boom!

Both of them gave off brilliant lights and turned into different-colored pillars of light and shot into the sky, causing the sky to tremble.

Two incredibly powerful mights descended from the sky, causing countless people's bodies to sink and find it difficult to breathe. It was as if their hearts were gripped by a large, formless hand.

A blazing sun and a gentle moon descended from the golden sky. They each gave off boundless power and heaven-shaking auras as they shot into Zhao Fu's body.

Bang!

Something seemed to break within Zhao Fu's body, and a large explosion sounded out. A heaven-toppling aura burst forth like an enraged ocean, raging outwards.

A super gale started to blow as countless boulders were blown into the sky and countless trees were uprooted. The ground was gradually torn apart, and the boulders, trees, and sand danced in the sky, creating the scene of a terrifying disaster.

After absorbing so many energies, Zhao Fu's body gave off intense light, and he endured unbearable pain.

“Arghhh!!!” A cry tore through the sky. A massive wave of energy instantly seemed to lock down the surrounding ten or so worlds. The wind stopped blowing and clouds stopped moving, and everyone stood stiff on the ground as if they were frozen.

Countless Kings' expressions fell; they had never felt such a boundless power before. In front of this power, they were unable to resist at all.

Yao Ming's face became pale. Under this power, he was unable to resist at all; just what had happened? Everyone felt incredibly confused.

Soon, some people remembered that something like this had happened before; it was like the power from the Celestial Emperor Star. However, this terrifying power was many times more powerful than the Celestial Emperor Star and spread to ten or so worlds.

This was because of the Heaven Domain Boundary before, causing the Celestial Emperor Star to be restricted. Now, Great Qin was revealed to everyone else, and without the Heaven Domain Boundary, the ripples were naturally even more terrifying.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out, and it was as if the heavens and earth were being torn apart. Fathomless violet light blasted down, covering the surrounding ten or so worlds and making it seem as if they were sinking. Countless people collapsed to the ground and revealed expressions of shock.

An unimaginable devilish intent permeated the sky, making it seem as if countless creatures were going to be turned into devils. Everyone felt a chill in their hearts, and their bodies and souls trembled.

An enormous violet sun-like star, that seemed to contain a dragon, brought with it a terrifying might as it slowly descended from the sky. The terrifying power caused the air to be twisted, unable to bear its descent.

The space in the ten or so worlds gradually twisted and collapsed, and countless black cracks appeared. Chaotic aura flowed through, and the worlds seemed to cry out mournfully as if they were going to be destroyed.

At that moment, the expressions of some experts in the Ancient Stem Domain fell as they looked at the violet star that had appeared on the horizon, and they sensed its boundless devilish aura.

At the same time, the person who had been observing Zhao Fu's Emperor Stars in the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion saw a star giving off enormous Devil Power appear.

Chapter 1288: Violet Sky Dragon Star

That person was dumbfounded and stared for a few seconds before hurriedly retreating out of the boundless Heaven's Secrets. He rushed off to report this matter because it was simply too shocking – that person had actually gained a fourth Emperor Star, and it was the supreme Emperor Star of the Devil Race – the Violet Sky Dragon Star!

However, right after that person came out, he found that there were countless people around him, including the Fate Sovereign.

The instant that the Violet Sky Dragon Star descended, all of them had sensed it. As such, they had quickly gathered. As the supreme Emperor Star of the Devil Race, the ripples from the Violet Sky Dragon Star were not any weaker than that of the Celestial Emperor Star or Nether Emperor Star.

"Fate Sovereign..." That person wanted to say something, but the white-clothed young man cut him off and indicated that she knew. After sensing Zhao Fu's aura on this Violet Sky Dragon Star, she had immediately hurried over.

Currently, she looked somewhat shocked; just what sort of existence was that person? Even with her abilities, she could not determine Zhao Fu's identity. Now, Zhao Fu had four Emperor Stars, and all of them had extremely great power. That was proof of his fate and potential in the future.

It was not too surprising for him to have a Chaos Imperial Star because such stars did not belong to any race, and it was an inauspicious star. However, for him to possess other Emperor Stars, no one could understand how this was possible.

Before, he had awakened the Celestial Emperor Star, proving that he was human and had a pure human Emperor Bloodline. After all, only humans with pure human Emperor Bloodlines could awaken the Celestial Emperor Star.

However, he then awakened the Nether Emperor Star, which no one could have expected. After all, one had to have the Death Race's Emperor Bloodline, as well as a large amount of the Death Race's Fate to be able to awaken it. And yet, it had appeared on him too.

Does he then have two Race's Emperor Bloodlines? This was quite likely, as it was completely possible. If two people from different races with Emperor Bloodlines were married, their children would have the Emperor Bloodlines of both races.

However, because the children would have a mix of the two races' bloodlines and Fate, even though they would have immense power, it would be almost impossible to awaken the supreme Emperor Stars of both races.

They guessed that perhaps that person had a Mandate of Heaven Fate, giving him large amounts of Fate, allowing him to possess the Emperor Stars of two races and the Chaos Imperial Star. That was already enough to make them feel extremely shocked.

However, now that he had awakened a fourth Emperor Star, the supreme Emperor Star of the Devil Race, which required a pure Devil Emperor Bloodline, they were completely flabbergasted.

Everyone was completely shocked because there was not a chance of this happening.

The white-clothed young woman sent her consciousness into the boundless Heaven's Secrets and looked at the violet star within the sea of deathly aura. The deathly aura became much more dispersed, and under the effects of the violet star, the three other stars started to give off bright starlight.

By now, the white-clothed young woman could confirm that this terrifying person would not lose against the Emperor Killer Curse. With the new star, he would be able to resist the Emperor Killer Curse.

The matter of the fourth Emperor Star was incredibly important, and even she had never heard of such a thing before. Who knew what sort of terrifying monster had been created.

The white-clothed young woman felt that she did not have the means to deal with this, and she planned to report it to those old monsters. Only existences like them could deal with this situation.

However, before she could report it, an order came from above, “Don’t interfere, just continue observing.”

The white-clothed young woman was quite shocked; she had never thought that those old monsters in closed-door cultivation would have also taken mind of this.

Within a large palace, a black-clothed young man sitting cross-legged suddenly trembled and coughed up a mouthful of blood. A look of disbelief appeared on his face – he had actually suffered a backlash from his Emperor Killer Curse.

With his powers as a higher-being and his boundless Fate, how could he receive a backlash from the Emperor Killer Curse? Just what had that person done? The higher-being was furious and turned into a ray of light as he went to the stage where he had cast the Emperor Killer Curse.

He performed hand seals and the dried corpses tied to the stone pillars gave off waves of deathly aura that rose into the sky. The higher-being cast a powerful secret technique, wanting to increase the strength of the Emperor Killer Curse.

Within the boundless Heaven’s Secrets, the massive ocean of deathly aura gave off an intense deathly intent and ferociously rushed at the four Emperor Stars, wanting to once again inundate them.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Four massive explosions sounded out, and the four Emperor Stars gave off fathomless starlight, causing the entire Heaven’s Secrets space to tremble. A heaven-toppling aura spread out, shaking the boundless void.

Under the starlight, the countless streams of deathly aura scattered, and the higher-being stumbled backwards and almost crashed to the ground. He coughed up another large mouthful of blood, and he found that Zhao Fu now had a massive amount of Fate. If he tried to activate the Emperor Killer Curse, he would receive an even greater backlash.

Within the Heaven Spirit Financial Group, the person responsible for looking over Zhao Fu's orb of blood saw that it suddenly gave off countless rays of violet light, and an immense devilish intent spread out, causing his body to tremble. Even though he felt terror, he delightedly went to report this.

A while later, many important figures came and looked at the orb of blood floating in the air, which gave off an intense violet light and a devilish intent.

That person had actually awakened another Emperor Star, and it was the Devil Race's Emperor Star; just who was this person? Could he be the reincarnation of a Celestial? Otherwise, how could he do such things?

They were so shocked that their jaws seemed like they were going to drop to the ground, and they could not help but feel overjoyed. They knew that their decision had not been wrong – even though many higher-beings had wanted to kill that person, the Heaven Spirit Financial Group had resisted the pressure to help him. This was all worth it.

Just thinking about four Emperor Stars could make anyone feel afraid. This was the first time anyone had done this, and he definitely had the potential to become a Celestial.

Countless major figures in the Heaven Spirit Financial Group started to consider whether or not they should give Zhao Fu even more benefits, such as giving him gifts to further their relationship. However, they were also worried about obstructing his growth, and the Heaven Spirit Stele would receive backlash from Heaven's Secrets.

Someone like him would undoubtedly have massive Heaven's Secrets, or else he would not have four Emperor Stars. He definitely had Mandate of Heaven Fate and was someone favored by the Heaven Awaken World.

Boom!

Suddenly, the orb of blood floating in the air suddenly ignited and turned into a black flame. An aura that seemed divine and surpassed those of Emperors suddenly descended, causing the major figures' bodies to weaken.

Everyone stared at the little black flame in shock, and one person pointed at it with a trembling hand, saying, "That's... that's... a Divine Bloodline!"

Chapter 1289: Long Shentian

Within the Heaven Awaken World's long history, Holy Empires had only appeared a few times, and they would only act during times of great upheaval in the Heaven Awaken World. Whenever they acted, even Empires would be destroyed.

This included the Beginning's Heaven and Earth Calamity, the Origin Race's secret, the Immemorial Celestial-Slaying Battle, the Killing Sword Calamity, the Ancient Empire Disaster, the Outer Worlds Invasion, etc.

All of those big matters had their shadows, and they were existences that reigned above all things in the Heaven Awaken World. It was difficult for anyone to find information on them, and they ordinarily did not reveal themselves to others. They were incredibly secretive, and there were very few people who knew about them.

The blood in front of them had surpassed the Sovereign level and reached the Divine level, and it was an Early Stage Divine Bloodline. That was why they were so shocked.

It could be said that this person's bloodline reigned above them. Their own bloodlines instinctively felt fear and terror in front of it. If it wasn't for their powerful cultivations, when they met this person they might fall to the ground; that was the advantage of one's bloodline.

Now, everyone was so shocked that their bodies were trembling. They looked at each other and decided to list this as the most confidential matter; they could not let anyone else know.

The Ten Thousand Dragon Financial Group's President looked at the resplendent violet star in the distance and could not help but loudly laugh, "Who would have thought that this day would come so quickly. That Emperor really exceeded our expectations. Now that the prophecy has been fulfilled, we can return to the Devil Domain."

The other higher-ups of the Ten Thousand Dragon Financial Group all smiled. They had been here for thousands of years, and now they could finally leave. They all let out a long sigh as if they had been relieved of heavy burdens.

Sensing the descent of the Violet Sky Dragon Star, the entire Dragon Race felt a pressure coming from their bloodlines, and they could not help but excitedly roar as if they were welcoming the arrival of their Emperor.

The others in the Devil Race also sensed this, and they also looked incredibly excited. This was the Devil Race's supreme Emperor Star, so that person was definitely a genius of the Devil Race. For the Devil Race to gain such a genius, it was a blessing to all of them.

Every race had their own supreme Emperor Star, and it was extremely difficult for each of them to descend. Those who possessed the supreme Emperor Stars would become the sovereigns of their races, so each race put great emphasis on the supreme Emperor Stars.

Back when Zhao Fu's Celestial Emperor Star descended, the Human Race's supreme Emperor Stars surpassed those of the Demon, Devil, and God Races, causing many higher-beings to feel displeased, resulting in them trying to hunt down Zhao Fu.

From this, it could be seen how important supreme Emperor Stars were. What they did not know was that Zhao Fu already had three Emperor Stars, and his bloodline was at the Divine Bloodline level. Even higher-beings would be shocked, and anyone who heard this would go mad.

However, although the Dragon Race was mad with delight, there was another race that was dissatisfied within the Devil Race, which was the Phoenix Race.

Within the massive Devil Race, the Dragon Race and Phoenix Race were the most powerful and had the greatest numbers. They were scattered extensively and were the two biggest races within the Devil Race. There was often friction between the two races.

As such, the Phoenix Race was naturally displeased at the appearance of the Violet Sky Dragon Star, as this gave great help to the Dragon Race. Perhaps the Dragon Race would start to suppress the Phoenix Race because of this and become the most powerful race in the Devil Race.

The Phoenix Race also had a corresponding Emperor Star, but it could not become the supreme Emperor Star of the Devil Race. After all, it was weaker in terms of Fate – dragons represented Kings while phoenixes represented Concubines. This made it so that their Emperor Star could not become the supreme Emperor Star.

The Phoenix Race's people naturally gave the order to search for the person who had awakened the Violet Sky Dragon Star and eliminate him in order to prevent future troubles.

At the same time, within a luxurious and domineering dragon palace, eight people giving off immense dragon's might sat on eight thrones. There were men and women, and they all looked different. The only thing they had in common was that their true forms were all dragons, and they were part of the true Dragon Race.

Their cultivations were all at the higher-being level. The eight of them gathering together caused the atmosphere to feel incredibly dignified.

An imposing-looking middle-aged man said, "Old Ninth's Legatee has appeared, and it's through the domineering descent of the Violet Sky Dragon Star; it can be seen as savagely slapping our faces. Are you all willing to comply with the agreement from back then?"

An ugly-looking young man coldly laughed, "Old Ninth has been dead for so long, so of course that agreement doesn't count anymore. Also, that person with the Violet Sky Dragon Star might be quite special and might not be a pureblood from the Dragon Race. His bloodline might be mixed with other Devil Races, so it's best to get rid of him as soon as possible."

A mild-looking and chubby old man said with a thoughtful expression, "The agreement from back then can be voided, but that person is from our Devil Race and has our supreme Emperor Star. There's no need to kill him; perhaps he can become the ruler of the Dragon Race."

"This Sovereign is not interested in these matters of yours. According to the agreement, if he returns to the Devil Domain and sits on the Ten Thousand Dragon Seat, he will naturally be the ruler of the Dragon Race. This Sovereign is busy and will be leaving first," a cold-looking woman cut them off before disappearing.

The remaining people talked for a bit longer before all leaving to take care of their own matters.

"What is it, Senior Apprentice Brother?" a delicate and handsome-looking young man wearing a dragon robe stopped in curiosity and asked the young man looking towards the horizon.

The other young man was wearing a violet dragon robe and looked quite valiant, and he gave off an enormous might. He was called Long Shentian. He was also part of the Dragon Race and had a Violet Sky Dragon Star. He was publicly acknowledged to be a peerless genius within the Devil Race.

He looked towards the horizon with a serious expression and said, "I can sense that a powerful enemy has appeared!"

The young man beside him lightly laughed in disbelief, "Senior Apprentice Brother, with your strength, you rank first or second within the entire Devil Race. Who could be a threat to you?"

Long Shentian did not reply, but his expression became even graver as he looked at the horizon. He could sense a massive sense of danger from over there, causing his hair to stand on end. Even his Violet Sky Dragon Star felt quite unsettled.

This was the first time he had felt like this before. Because they were both Violet Sky Dragon Stars, he could clearly sense the other person, and he understood just how terrifying and dangerous that person was.

With Long Shentian's strength and status, such words from him could shock anyone. The number of people in the Heaven Awaken World who could make him feel this way could be counted on a single hand.

Back at Great Qin, the Violet Sky Dragon Star gave off intense light, causing the surrounding ten or so worlds to fall into terror. The various powers within Zhao Fu's body were currently slowly fusing together.

Chapter 1290: Seven Pupils

Zhao Fu first absorbed boundless Devil Power. Zhao Fu had instinctively come to the Four Soul Devil World because he desperately needed Devil Qi, and this was the place that had the most Devil Qi in Great Qin.

Following this, the Ten Thousand Dragon Mark's Power, which was incredibly powerful; the Clear Sky Saint Dragon's Power; and the Sun and Moon Devil Marks' Power all fused together to form a power called Dragon Devil Power.

That was the power from Dragon Power and Devil Power fusing together, and it was a top-tier power. After all, whether it was the Ten Thousand Dragon Mark's Power, the Clear Sky Power, or the Sun and Moon Power, they were all terrifying powers. Even though they could not compare with the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power, they were still quite fearsome.

After obtaining the Dragon Devil Power, Zhao Fu's constitution became even more powerful. Even exquisite weapons would not be able to break open his skin, and just his bodily strength would be enough to destroy a large boulder. He could already be called a humanoid devil beast.

After all of the powers fused together, Zhao Fu slowly opened his eyes and a violet light shot out. Another pair of pupils had appeared in his eyes.

These pupils were violet vertical pupils, looking quite like dragon pupils. They contained a might exclusive to dragons, and under the gaze of these pupils, ordinary devil beasts would not dare to resist and could only lie on the ground in terror.

Now, Zhao Fu's left eye had seven pupils and his right eye had six pupils layered together, with six gray dots around them. His eyes had become even more terrifying, and they had a trace of devilishness and might.

As for the rest of Zhao Fu's body, everything was the same except that his jet-black hair now had a few traces of violet to it. His constitution was stronger than before and gave off a trace of devil aura.

What delighted Zhao Fu the most was naturally that his bloodline had finally risen to a Divine Bloodline, which reigned above even Empires. Now, Zhao Fu was not just an Emperor but a Holy Son as well.

Under the immense power from the Violet Sky Dragon Star, everything that Zhao Fu had absorbed previously, such as the Darkness Bloodline, Fairy Emperor Bloodline, and Clear Sky Saint Dragon Bloodline all perfectly fused together, causing Zhao Fu to reach the Divine Bloodline.

By now, Zhao Fu was no longer sure what race he belonged to because he now had the purest and most terrifying bloodlines from the Human, Death, and Devil races.

The Ten Thousand Dragon Mark and Sun and Moon Devil Marks on Zhao Fu's chest had all disappeared because they had completely fused with Zhao Fu. One could say that Zhao Fu was now a Dragon and a Devil.

The Violet Sky Dragon Star gradually faded into the sky, and only then did everyone wake up from that terrifying might.

"It's finally over!" Seeing that the sky and their surroundings had gone back to normal, countless people let out sighs of relief. The descent of that Violet Sky Dragon Star was simply too terrifying.

Countless people hurriedly sought to find information on what had happened. What was that violet star? What had caused it to descend?

It was not just the surrounding worlds' people investigating; even the Domains around the Ancient Stem Domain sent people to investigate. After all, such a terrifying star caused ripples that could be sensed by over 1,000 worlds. It was evidently an incredibly shocking matter.

"Congratulations, Your Majesty!" The hundreds of millions of Devils in the Four Soul Devil World regained their freedom and hurried over. Sensing the terrifying might from Zhao Fu's body, as well as the terror from their own bloodlines, they knelt and called out in delight.

The countless Devils knelt on the ground, their heads obediently lowered like Devil Ministers, while Zhao Fu was like a Devil Emperor standing at the center, creating an awe-inspiring scene.

Following this, the other Ministers hurried over. They were extremely happy about Zhao Fu awakening a fourth Emperor Star. Zhao Fu was their ruler, and the more powerful Zhao Fu was, the better it was for them.

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded before returning to the Great Qin Palace. He looked over his body and found some pleasant surprises. First, his lifespan had increased by thousands of years. Now, even if he didn't do anything, he would be able to live for over 3,000 years.

Next, he found that the power of the Emperor Killer Curse had weakened by around 30%, leaving only around 60%. It seemed that the day that it completely disappeared would not be too far away.

At the same time, Zhao Fu received some information that caused him to frown. One of the matters was about the Devil Horn Empire's Devil Spirit Vein. They had destroyed it, but they had ended up helping the Devil Horn Empire by allowing them to obtain a Kin Devil Spirit Vein.

This completely exceeded Zhao Fu's expectations. He had taken such a great risk, yet he had helped his enemy. It could be said that his plan had failed.

However, he had only awakened the Violet Sky Dragon Star because he had devoured so much Devil Spirit Fountain Water. If it wasn't for the fountain water providing so much pure Devil Qi, Zhao Fu would not have been able to awaken the Violet Sky Dragon Star. It was his biggest gain from this event.

Zhao Fu also had to deal with the people investigating this matter. If it was just the surrounding few worlds, Zhao Fu would not have been afraid.

However, people from the surrounding Domains all sent people here. If those with enmity with the Ancient Stem Domain discovered Zhao Fu, Great Qin would face a disaster. As such, Zhao Fu had to deal with this seriously.

He first ordered Great Qin to stop all activities outside and deal with all matters in a low-profile way. They had to let the dust settle first.

Zhao Fu also wanted to peacefully develop for a while. He wanted all of Great Qin's soldiers to have Darkness God Iron equipment and for all of them to fuse with Darkness Crystals. When that time came, Great Qin would have a true Darkness Army.

However, even if Zhao Fu wanted to be low-profile, others would not allow him to. After all, the ripples of the Violet Sky Dragon Star came from Great Qin, and countless spies gathered towards Great Qin. They wanted to sneak into Great Qin to investigate what had happened, forcing Great Qin to become incredibly wary.

Apart from this, many people came to visit. These were all Royal Kingdom level factions, and some of them were quite arrogant and looked like they looked down on Great Qin.

Great Qin only had the strength of two worlds, so the Royal Kingdom level factions were indeed entitled to look down on Great Qin. With so many of them, Great Qin naturally could not gather all of them, but he could not just offend all of them either.

With Great Qin's strength, how could it afford to offend the Royal Kingdoms of a few Domains? As such, Great Qin could only endure and cautiously deal with them.

Great Qin once again entered the eyes of many Royal Kingdoms. They soon found out that it had gone from being unknown to shocking dozens of worlds, and it had even resisted the invasion of many worlds.

This made them feel quite shocked because the other worlds around Great Qin were still under protection. Great Qin was on a completely different level to them, and such a meteoric rise was quite rare to see.
