

The Lord 1301

Chapter 1301: Emperor Path College

After sending off the ambassadors, Zhao Fu heaved a sigh of relief. The Devil Horn Empire was currently digesting the Lantong World while Great Qin was digesting the Dark Demon World. The allied worlds did not want to start anything, so their region went into a period of peace.

Now, there were a few important things to take care of. The first was the purple peach pit from the Celestial Peach that Zhao Fu had consumed.

This purple peach pit had come from a 9,000 year old Celestial Peach and would have shocking effects. Zhao Fu did not know if he would be able to grow it during his lifetime, but at the very least it would be one of Great Qin's powerful trump cards in the future.

However, Zhao Fu did not know if he would be able to grow it. After all, Celestial Peaches were incredibly valuable and he did not know if he could raise a Celestial Peach Tree.

Zhao Fu planned to construct a Fountain of Life just for the Celestial Peach Tree to provide it with a large amount of life force to help it grow.

The water in this Fountain of Life would be ordinary Fountain of Life Water, as opposed to the special Fountain of Life Water. The special kind required a continuous supply of corpses, while the ordinary kind condensed a large amount of life aura to create Fountain of Life Water.

Zhao Fu planned to directly plant the Celestial Peach pit within the Fountain of Life as opposed to on the side because only then would it be able to receive the most life force.

Because Celestial Peach Trees were an incredibly high-grade existence, Zhao Fu was worried that it would not grow. Moreover, he only had one, and it would be unlikely for him to obtain another one, so he had to be careful.

Because Great Qin had a large number of Elves, they had the ability to construct an ordinary Fountain of Life. Under Zhao Fu's command, a beautiful Fountain of Life was quickly constructed.

A ten or so meter wide fountain made out of white bricks was constructed. There were many flowers and leaves carved onto it, and it gave off a faint green light, gathering a large amount of life energy. There was a magic formation on the bottom, and under Zhao Fu's orders, there were not any bricks there.

Zhao Fu went to the center of the magic formation and dug a shallow hole where he placed the purple peach pit, and he then covered it up.

After activating the magic formation, countless traces of life energy entered the peach pit but it did not react at all. Zhao Fu expected this, and he understood that the peach pit was extremely high-grade and that it would take a while to see if there was any success.

Zhao Fu left some people here to look after the peach pit to avoid anything unexpected from happening.

Zhao Fu then went to the weapons research workshop. They had successfully finished researching a terrifying weapon, which was the upgraded version of the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae. Early on, Zhao Fu had ordered his subordinates to modify the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae.

One type simplified the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae and reduced its power but allowed it to be mass-produced. This was quite easy to do, but making the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae more powerful was quite difficult. As such, the simplified version had been quickly researched, but the more advanced version had only just been completed.

The reason Zhao Fu came here was to test the advanced Dragon-Slaying Ballistae's power. Zhao Fu stood in the center of an open area, and 500 to 600 soldiers dragged out an enormous and terrifying-looking ballista out with great difficulty.

This Dragon-Slaying Ballista was 100 meters long and looked incredibly ferocious. It was a pale white color and there were countless runes on it. It gave off a might by itself, and even without doing anything, it could make people feel an immense pressure.

The materials used to craft it were all at least Saint grade materials. The ballista was made out of a massive beast's bones, and the six bowstrings were all transparent – they had all been made from high-quality dragon tendons. The front of the ballista also had seven massive crystals, which represented the Five Elements and Yin and Yang.

Zhao Fu looked at the enormous ballista and felt quite shocked. The power that this ballista gave off would definitely be monstrous.

Bai Shan gave a pleased smile as he said, “What do you think, Your Majesty? Are you satisfied with our research?”

Zhao Fu looked at him and nodded as he said, “Test its power. We want to see how terrifying it is.”

“Watch carefully, Your Majesty!” Bai Shan laughed as he gave the order, and six Corpse Soul Soldiers that were 100 meters tall walked over, loading a 130 meter long Talisman Bolt onto the ballista.

The Talisman Bolt was completely black and was also made of Saint grade materials. There were countless runes on it and had ten or so Gold Talisman Stones socketed into it. There was also a violet-colored Talisman Stone, which gave off an incredible destructive power.

The six Corpse Soul Soldiers roared as they drew the ballista. Even with how powerful they were, with six of them at that, it was very difficult for them to draw it.

The seven massive crystals on the ballista were activated and countless runes lit up with a rainbow-colored light. An enormous wave of energy entered the Talisman Bolt, and a massive aura spread out.

Boom!

The Talisman bolt turned into a ray of rainbow-colored light as it flew out, accompanied by a deafening explosion. Space itself seemed to explode, and a shockwave blasted out, causing the ground to crack.

The ray of light contained immense power as it tore through space and caused cracks to appear in the space that it passed through. It flashed through the air and slammed into a large mountain that was dozens of kilometres away.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as rocks were blasted out. A large hole that was hundreds of meters wide had actually appeared in the large mountain that was thousands of meters tall.

This power was enough to instantly kill a Devil Beast King, like the azure dragon that Zhao Fu had encountered in the Devil Horn Empire. Even if it did not die, it would be heavily injured. Even for Zhao Fu, he would not dare to directly block it and would be forced to dodge.

Beside Zhao Fu, Bai Shan laughed as he asked, “How is it, Your Majesty? Are you satisfied with it?”

Zhao Fu nodded his head in delight and had Bai Shan produce as many of these ballistae as possible. If they could have dozens of these ballistae, even a World Realm expert would be easily killable, and they would be able to instantly wipe out all of the Devil Horn Empire’s most powerful devil beasts.

However, Bai Shan felt quite troubled because it was simply too difficult to make this kind of ballistae. They also needed many Saint grade materials, making it difficult for Great Qin to mass produce them.

Zhao Fu understood this, so he had Bai Shan produce as many as possible; they would be incredibly useful in the future.

Following this, Zhao Fu had wanted to continue dealing with other important matters, such as agriculture. However, he suddenly received a few messages from the Heaven Spirit Stele.

The messages were from the higher-being, who said that the Emperor Path College was starting its recruitment for new students next year. It was currently holding a tour of the College, which was the only opportunity for an outsider to enter the Emperor Path College and have a look. The higher-being encouraged him to go and learn more about the Emperor Path College and find out some information about his competitors.

Zhao Fu thought about it and felt quite interested in the Emperor Path College. Perhaps he would become a student there next time, so it would be good to take a look and make preparations for the examination next year.

That place was the Heaven Domain, the center of the Heaven Awaken World. Zhao Fu had only been there once before, and he wanted to obtain more information about the Heaven Domain and learn more about the things there, so he made some preparations and sent his projection there.

Chapter 1302: Dragon Gate

Zhao Fu's surroundings blurred and he arrived at a desolate area. He looked around and did not see any danger.

Following this, Zhao Fu directly headed to the Emperor Path College. There were already a multitude of people there, and all of them gave off powerful auras. There was not a single weakling among them, and all of them had extraordinary identities.

After all, the Emperor Path College was one of the Seven Great Colleges of the Heaven Awaken World. Not only was it incredibly powerful, but its history and foundation were also enough to make people feel terror. It was a holy land for Emperors to many people.

Countless Emperors who had shocked the world had been nurtured here; the Heaven Murder Empire's Emperor had once been a student here, so the golden dragon also highly recommended for Zhao Fu to come here.

Even for real Emperors, if they could not pass the examination, they would not be able to enter through connections. From this, the Emperor Path College's strength could be seen; they could even refuse to give face to Emperors, and even some Emperors would not be able to make it in.

There were normally countless terrifying restrictions protecting this place, and even a higher-being would not dare to charge in. The Emperor Path College was mysterious, yet it had opened its doors for a tour to allow outsiders to see what it was like.

Countless people had excitedly come, and even though the Emperor Path College did not explicitly set restrictions for who could come, not just anyone could come in.

If the Emperor Path College was greedy for money, even if they sold tickets for 100 million gold coins each, there would be countless people fighting for the tickets. However, the Emperor Path College did not care for money at all; one needed to have a certain amount of strength to qualify to go in to visit.

There were two domineering and austere dragon pillars at the gate, and the golden dragons seemed as if they were alive. They gave off an enormous dragon's might that was like a corporeal barrier that covered the 1,000 meters in front of the gate.

Those who were powerful could directly ignore the golden dragons' might and enter the Emperor Path College without any obstructions, while those who were weak would be forced onto the ground.

Most of the people here had been blocked outside and there were some who were observing from outside. They wanted to see some peerless geniuses; now that the Emperor Path College was open for visiting, many major figures would come, and they were not people ordinary people would be able to normally see.

Zhao Fu came to the outside of the crowd and could not squeeze through. However, he was not in a rush to enter, and he started to look over at some major figures like the ordinary people.

Zhao Fu was quite curious how big the gap between himself and the Heaven Domain's peerless geniuses was. This was a good opportunity to take a look so that he would be prepared. If he was too lacking, he would have to work harder after going back.

Suddenly, the crowd became quite lively, and Zhao Fu looked over. The crowd automatically made way as five people with extraordinary bearings and calm smiles walked over.

"Heavens! The River Basin Five Heroes have come! Are they also planning on entering Emperor Path College?"

"I'm so excited! Just as I got here I was able to see the River Basin Five Heroes. To be able to see them, everything was worth it. I didn't come for nothing."

"If even the five of them are joining Emperor Path College, this cohort of students will definitely be worth paying attention to!"

"That's right! Recently, they've been quite eye-catching; the five of them destroyed a Dukedom Kingdom."

Zhao Fu was quite curious about these five people's identities, and he looked at the young man yelling out excitedly beside him and asked, "Who are they? Are they famous in the Heaven Domain?"

The young man smirked as he replied, "Those five aren't just famous, they're extremely famous. That white-clothed guy is called Nong Ye, and he is the Imperial Prince of the Tian Imperial Kingdom. That guy with the folding fan is Dun Houzhi, the son of the Heaven Domain's Dun family. That muscular guy is the Divine Martial Sect's Young Sect Master.

"That goddess-like beauty is Bai Ruolin from the Heavenly Mountain Hundred Kingdoms, and that last guy is the Demon-Seeking Dynasty's young master.

"Do you feel shocked? They have the backing of the Heaven Domain's largest factions, and the five of them have extraordinary power. They are all World Realm experts and are definitely within the top 50 of their generation."

Zhao Fu felt quite awkward and did not look shocked at all as he did not know of any of those factions. He asked, "Only the top 50?"

The young man chuckled, "What do you mean 'only the top 50?' To be able to enter the top 50 within the Human Domain means that you have to stand above trillions of people. All of them are peerless geniuses; just one of their fingers would be enough to crush you to death."

The Heaven Domain was incredibly big and was split into eight sub-Domains for the eight major races. Emperor Path College was in the Human Domain, and it was the top College in the Human Domain. No other College could compare to it in the Human Domain.

A friendly-looking middle-aged man next to Zhao Fu laughed as he said, "Young man, you're not from the Heaven Domain, right? Otherwise, you definitely would know them. They're the most talented five from the river basin area, so they're called the River Basin Five Heroes.

"They've done many shocking things in recent times, and if you ask around, you'll know how terrifying they are. Also, I should let you know that no matter what your status is in your Domain, in the Heaven Domain you need to go about with your head lowered. Ordinary people shouldn't lightly offend people from the Heaven Domain because this might mean your death. Don't say those things in the future."

The middle-aged man had thought that Zhao Fu was from an inner Domain and did not know the situation, so he gave him a reminder. He did not know that Zhao Fu was from the outer Domain.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and thanked the middle-aged man.

The five people faced the enormous dragon's might and their expressions slightly changed because they could feel some pressure. However, they were still able to easily pass through, causing the crowd to exclaim.

Boom!

A gale-like aura blew out and everyone hurriedly retreated as a well-built young man with beard stubble appeared.

"It's the Beast Empire's Imperial Prince!" a cry sounded out as everyone's gazes fell on that person. Another famous genius had descended.

The young man next to Zhao Fu knew that a country bumpkin like Zhao Fu wouldn't know him, so he excitedly explained, "This is the Beast Empire's Third Imperial Prince, and he should be in the top 40. Even such a powerful Imperial Prince would only be ranked in the top 40; now you know how terrifying the people on the Human Domain Rankings are, right?"

"I see." Zhao Fu calmly nodded because Zhao Fu was not very interested in the people in the top 50 or top 40.

The young man felt quite dissatisfied and said, "This is an Imperial Prince! An Imperial Prince who stands above countless people! He's a terrifying figure you'd never be able to see in the inner Domains, and that's all you have to say? You sound as if you're more powerful than him."

Zhao Fu laughed and shook his head. He naturally would not reveal his identity.

The young man self-mockingly laughed; how could this cloaked figure be more powerful than that Imperial Prince? If that was the case, he would not be standing here talking to him. Even if that cloaked figure said he was more powerful than the Imperial Prince, he would not believe it and take it as boasting.

Chapter 1303: Arrival of Geniuses

No matter what, the young man would not believe that Zhao Fu had that kind of power. After all, looking at Zhao Fu, the young man felt that he was inferior to even himself. The words he had said were completely pointless, so he laughed at himself.

The Imperial Prince easily withstood the dragons' might and entered the Emperor Path College, and everyone looked away.

"Hehehe..." A flirtatious laugh sounded out as an intoxicating fragrance spread out, causing everyone's hearts to tremble. They looked over and saw a beautiful woman with an alluring figure wearing a pink palace dress.

The woman was incredibly attractive and everyone's gazes were drawn over to her. Many people's heart rates sped up, and their breathing became ragged as their bodies instinctively reacted.

"Hmph!" However, a cold harrumph caused the entire scene to become an icy field. A cold gust of wind blew over, biting at people's skin and clearing their minds. They looked away and did not dare to continue staring at that woman, and the entire scene became deathly quiet.

A young man dressed in a snow-white robe appeared next to the woman and coldly looked around, and he put his arm around the woman as they walked towards Emperor Path College.

The people in their surroundings quickly made a path in fear. The woman gave flirtatious smiles as she walked and leaned against the young man as they affectionately walked together.

However, when passing by Zhao Fu, the woman seemed to sense something. Her body stiffened and she suddenly looked at Zhao Fu as her body started to heat up, and a lustful gaze appeared in her eyes.

Sensing the changes in the woman, the white-robed young man frowned and looked at Zhao Fu, preparing to casually kill Zhao Fu.

The woman hurriedly stopped the young man and said coquettishly, “Hubby, what are you doing? I just thought that he reminded me of someone I know; I’m not interested in him at all. Plus, all of me is yours, and my heart is filled with you. Don’t you trust me?”

Hearing this, the young man’s expression softened and he stopped.

The bewitching woman gave a charming smile towards Zhao Fu while squeezing her legs together, trying to stop certain liquids from leaking out, and she walked with the young man into Emperor Path College.

The young man next to Zhao Fu gulped, thinking that the woman had smiled at him. His heart felt incredibly fuzzy, and he introduced to Zhao Fu, “That woman is called Xiang Qianqian, and she is the young miss of the Ten Thousand Desire Palace. Her Charm Art is at a godly level, and no man can resist her. She’s ranked twelfth on the Human Domain Beauty Rankings, but it’s a pity that she’s already someone else’s wife.

“Her husband was that young man next to her. He’s called Cang Kongyue and is the Ninth Imperial Prince of the Blue Day Empire. He’s terrifyingly powerful and can enter the top 30 of this edition of rankings, while Xiang Qianqian can most likely enter the top 40.”

The Human Domain’s rankings were split into different editions, and a new edition was going to be recorded.

Zhao Fu understood and nodded, but his expression was quite grim because he could sense something from that smile. Zhao Fu did not want to make any trouble.

He could only do his best to suppress the Six Desires Demonic Qi within his body. Just then, the Six Desires Demonic Qi seemed to have a mind of its own as it floated towards the woman, wanting to conquer the woman.

The middle-aged man next to Zhao Fu looked quite serious because he could tell it was Zhao Fu that the woman had been smiling at before. For a major figure to act like this, perhaps the cloaked figure next to him was not simple either.

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as a massive Emperor's aura spread out. Two people appeared before Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu sensed a familiar aura. He looked over and quickly hid his aura as much as he could and hid in the crowd.

It seemed that enemies were always destined to meet – Zhao Fu recognized one of the two people as they had fought before. It was Zang Mingyue.

The young man next to Zhao Fu once again started to introduce them, “These are two Imperial Princes from the Zang Empire. Zang Wuyue, the one in front, is already a student of Emperor Path College and is very famous in the Heaven Domain. The one behind him should be his little brother. He most likely brought his little brother to take a look in preparation to enter Emperor Path College next year.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu's heart sank – if Zang Mingyue also entered the Emperor Path College next year, things could become quite difficult. However, Zhao Fu had no other choice and he did not have the ability to head to any other Colleges.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Powerful auras descended as more peerless geniuses arrived, causing countless people to exclaim in excitement. The young man next to Zhao Fu excitedly introduced them, and Zhao Fu gauged their strength. The middle-aged man next to Zhao Fu also occasionally chatted with him as well.

Shing!

A sword light containing massive sword qi shot over from the horizon as a beautiful woman in green giving off an almost-corporeal sword intent appeared.

“So beautiful! So strong!” everyone stared at the woman as they cried out.

The woman was tall and slim, and she had jade-like skin. Her looks could be said to be perfect, and her sword-like eyebrows gave off valiant airs, making everyone's hearts race. Her sword intent seemed to be able to destroy the heavens and the earth, and no one dared to get close.

The young man next to Zhao Fu introduced her, looking quite infatuated, “She's the second miss of the Sword Sect, Jian Liuyue. She's most likely able to enter the top 20 in the rankings, and her beauty is ranked ninth.”

Zhao Fu did not pay much attention to the young man's words because he could sense a supreme sword intent from that woman. Zhao Fu's Killing Sword Intent started to violently react, forcing him to do his best to suppress it in order to avoid any attention.

Only after the woman walked into the Emperor Path College did Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief. Jian Liuyue had given Zhao Fu a lot of pressure.

Moreover, even though the geniuses who had appeared so far were quite powerful and were quite famous, the truly powerful experts had not yet come. Not a single one from the top ten had arrived yet.

Those people were undoubtedly the most brilliant geniuses in the Human Domain and stood at the very top. They were people countless geniuses could only look up at from below.

It was possible that they would not come this time and would only reveal themselves during Emperor Path College's official examination. The Emperor Path College's examination would have everyone's attention, and if someone became famous, the entire Human Domain would know about them.

Boom!

Another explosion sounded out as a five-colored ray of light landed on the ground, and a powerful aura spread out. Everyone in the surroundings quickly retreated as an elegant young man in white appeared before everyone.

The young man next to Zhao Fu felt quite surprised as he said, "Who would have thought he would come as well? He's a genius who has recently risen up, and he is the disciple of a higher-being."

Even without the young man's introduction, Zhao Fu knew that person because that was Bai Shengjun. Zhao Fu never would have thought that he would come to Emperor Path College – didn't he already have a higher-being as a master?

Bai Shengjun disregarded everyone's gazes and did not detect Zhao Fu in the crowd. He easily bore the dragons' might and walked into Emperor Path College.

Chapter 1304: Dragon Soul

Zhao Fu waited for a while and no more geniuses appeared. Some others also tried to see if they could enter the Emperor Path College.

After seeing the powerful geniuses easily walk in, they thought that it would not be too hard. However, only after walking into the range of the dragons' might did they realise how terrifying it was.

After countless people took a single step in, they felt as if the sky was collapsing in on them, and their minds became blank. Their bodies crumpled to the ground, unable to move at all.

"So scary!" Seeing a large group of people collapse, those who had not entered the range of the dragons' might cried out in shock, feeling quite afraid and not daring to advance.

Some people thought about it and released all of their power as they walked in. They felt a massive might weigh down on their bodies, but they gritted their teeth and walked forwards step by step, and large beads of sweat gathered on their bodies.

However, most collapsed while some were able to successfully make it in.

This gave many people confidence, and they also stepped into the dragons' might. However, the majority of people failed, and only a small portion passed.

Zhao Fu also decided to go into the Emperor Path College, but the young man next to him laughed and said, "Don't tell me you want to go into Emperor Path College? It's best that you don't bring unnecessary suffering on yourself. I'm sure that you don't even know much about Emperor Path College. I'll tell you what you want to know, so don't go and make a fool of yourself."

The young man did not have any ill-intent, and Zhao Fu looked at Emperor Path College's gate as he lightly laughed and replied, "Don't worry!"

Zhao Fu headed straight for the Emperor Path College and the young man tried to persuade him, but another person cut him off, saying, "Just let him go, maybe he'll be able to get in. Don't you feel that that person isn't simple?"

This caused the young man to feel quite surprised – Zhao Fu wasn't simple? Looking at Zhao Fu's back, the young man did not believe this, and he felt that it would be impossible for Zhao Fu to enter Emperor Path College.

Before Zhao Fu was far away, he was pushed about by the crowd. It was quite dense up ahead, and there was a human wall that seemed like not even the wind could pass through. Seeing how weak Zhao Fu seemed, the young man could not help but loudly laugh.

Boom!

Suddenly, an unimaginably powerful might pressed down on everyone's bodies, causing everyone's souls to tremble. They felt as if they had fallen into a deep abyss, and boundless darkness swarmed at them. Some people's legs became weak and knelt on the ground.

The young man froze, and the middle-aged man also looked quite shocked as the others looked at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu had released his own power and did not bother covering it up. Everyone within 1,000 meters of him had fallen to the ground, and only Zhao Fu was left standing.

The young man looked incredibly confused. He had never thought that the person who he had just been talking to would have such terrifying power. Even though the middle-aged man had somewhat expected this, he could not help but feel shocked.

This might not only caused the expressions of the crowd to fall, but even the guards standing outside Emperor Path College became quite serious. They felt an incredibly grave sense of danger that gave them a feeling of asphyxiation.

Zhao Fu continued onwards, and now no one dared to get in his way, obediently opening up a path.

Zhao Fu came before the dragons' might and looked at the golden dragons before stepping in.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” Terrified dragon roars sounded out as the dragons sensed Zhao Fu's aura and were scared into retreating within the pillars as if they were small snakes. They did not dare to unleash any might towards Zhao Fu, and they acted as if he was their owner.

The guards had never seen such a thing before. Despite meeting incredibly powerful and terrifying people, the golden dragons had never acted in such a way before.

It was the first time the people at the Emperor Path College had seen such a thing. In actuality, the golden dragons' power had not been completely released, and if they went all out, even a higher-being would find it difficult to withstand their might.

However, the dragons were indeed afraid, but not just because of Zhao Fu's power. After all, Zhao Fu definitely was not the most powerful person who had come by before; rather, it was some sort of aura that Zhao Fu had that caused the dragons to instinctively feel fear.

Just who was this person? He had such terrifying power and such shocking abilities.

Zhao Fu sighed; he had not wanted to draw too much attention to himself. He ignored everyone's gazes and walked to the Emperor Path College's gate.

At that moment, one of the guards could not help but ask, "Sir, who are you and where are you from?"

Zhao Fu calmly replied, "I'm just an ordinary person."

Of course, the guard would not believe such a thing; how could someone who made the golden dragons feel fear be an ordinary person? As such, he quickly reported this to the higher-ups.

At first, the higher-ups did not pay much attention to this, as they just thought that it was someone powerful or somewhat special. However, after that person caused even the dragons to feel afraid, they could not help but feel shocked.

After all, the Emperor Path College's dragons were not ordinary dragons. They were fused with the Gatekeeping Magic Formation, and if they released their full power, they could kill even a higher-being.

It could be said that even a higher-being could not scare the dragons. Only something that suppressed their bloodlines and dragon souls could make them react like that.

Such a thing was incredibly rare and was almost impossible to obtain. Even the most noble dragons could not cause these dragons to feel afraid; just how had that cloaked figure done this?

This matter shocked even a higher-being within Emperor Path College. After hearing about this, he felt like meeting Zhao Fu and seeing just what sort of existence Zhao Fu was.

However, another higher-being calmed everything down, making it seem like nothing had happened. The guards received orders to not spread this matter under any circumstances; anyone who disobeyed would be heavily punished!

The guards now all understood just how terrifying this matter was, so they resigned themselves to not talk about this even if they died. However, with so many people crowding around the Emperor Path College, the news about Zhao Fu quickly spread and caused a small uproar.

Of course, Zhao Fu did not know about any of this. After entering the Emperor Path College, he felt as if he had entered another world. It was completely different to what he had expected.

He saw lush grassy fields with all sorts of flowers. The sky was very blue and a light breeze blew gently. The scenery was incredibly beautiful.

There were brick paths going through the grass leading to different places, and there were also valiant-looking statues of soldiers on the side. Each path had a stele that explained where it was going. For visitors and new students, there was only a single path.

Zhao Fu tried to go on the other paths but was stopped by a restrictive force. It seemed that there was only one path to choose.

Zhao Fu walked along the path and calmly arrived before a door of light. The door of light was dozens of meters tall and had two soldier statues guarding it. Zhao Fu walked through it and arrived at a cluster of buildings. There were many people here, and it seemed like a City.

Chapter 1305: Human Race Empire

This was most likely the gathering place for visitors, and Zhao Fu looked around and found that it was not much different than outside. However, the auras of everyone here were much more powerful than the ordinary people outside.

Zhao Fu saw that there were many people gathered in front of a tall stone stele, so he walked over and took a look. He found that there were over 1,000 names recorded there.

After listening to the people around him, Zhao Fu understood that this was the Emperor Path College's Rankings.

The person in first place was called Di Junwang, the legatee of the Human Race Empire, one of the most powerful Empires. He had a peak level Sovereign bloodline and his power was Emperor Heaven Realm.

The second-ranked person was called Tai Lingjun, and he was one of the disciples of one of the strongest Sects, the Heavenly Dao Sect. Even though he did not have a Sovereign bloodline, he had a Heavenly Dao Constitution which was not weaker than a peak level Sovereign bloodline. His strength was also past the Emperor Heaven Realm.

The third-ranked person was called Jian Yiyue, and she was the young miss of the Sword Sect, as well as the older sister of Jian Liuyue. She was born with an Extreme Sword Constitution and her cultivation was also past the Emperor Heaven Realm. She had also been ranked third on the beauty rankings previously.

Zhao Fu looked at these people's names in shock because they were all experts who were past the Emperor Heaven Realm. They would be able to sweep across everything within the inner Domains, and no one would be able to stop them in the outer Domains.

The stone stele was also split into three rankings: the Heaven Rankings, Earth Rankings, and Mortal Rankings. Zhao Fu had been looking at the Heaven Rankings, which had the Emperor Path College's oldest students; the Mortal Rankings were for the newest students; and the Earth Rankings were for the ones in between.

These people were most likely the most powerful people in the younger generation in the Human Domain. They were true geniuses and were existences that countless beings looked up to, and behind each of them stood a massive faction.

Zhao Fu understood why the Emperor Path College did not have any restrictions for accepting students, regardless of race or faction. Anyone who could pass the exam could become a student of the Emperor Path College.

The various large factions seemed very happy to send off their own people to the Emperor Path College; after all, it was said that there were secrets to becoming a Celestial here.

With Zhao Fu's strength, he naturally would not be a match for these people because the gap between them was simply too big. Zhao Fu clearly knew that he was inferior to them.

"Little friend, you're quite interesting; you're here through a projection. That's quite rare." A handsome young man in white smiled as he put his hand on Zhao Fu's shoulder.

Zhao Fu frowned and looked at the young man, who he did not know at all. This person's actions seemed a bit too chummy.

This young man's strength was not weak at all, and he was even stronger than Zhao Fu. He was already a World Realm expert, and such a powerful person would not be coming to him to chat for no reason; he definitely had his intentions, causing Zhao Fu to be on his guard.

Zhao Fu did not reply to the young man in white and removed his hand as he walked away.

The young man looked quite startled before lightly laughing, saying, "Little friend, my name is Feng Qiyun and I don't have any ill intent. I just thought that you were quite interesting and wanted to become friends with you. You're here to take a look around the Emperor Path College, right? I'm familiar with Emperor Path College and can lead you around."

"What? He's Feng Qiyun? He's ranked seventh on the Earth Rankings!" The people around the stone stele called out, and countless people's gazes fell onto Feng Qiyun's body. They had never thought that they would be able to personally see such a famous person from the Earth Rankings so quickly.

Zhao Fu's expression became serious; he had never thought that he would draw attention to himself right after entering. He wanted to keep a low profile and did not want to attract too much attention, so he refused, saying, "No need, I'll walk around by myself."

“Woah! This person’s so brave – he dares to reject someone from the Earth Rankings showing him around? Does he not want to live anymore?”

“He’s not giving him any face at all. If it were me, I’d want to slaughter that guy.”

The people in their surroundings were sent into an uproar. After hearing Feng Qiyun’s name, they all looked at him in admiration, feeling lucky to be able to see an expert like him. After hearing Zhao Fu’s words, they felt that he was too arrogant and overconfident.

“Hmph! I’m going to teach you a lesson on behalf of Senior Feng!” A green-clothed young man gave off a powerful aura as he shot out and attacked Zhao Fu. A green aura flowed out, forming an enormous green tiger, which leapt towards Zhao Fu.

Feng Qiyun wanted to stop him, but he was too late. Zhao Fu did not even bother moving as a massive black aura flooded out of him, forming a savage and domineering black dragon which rushed towards the green tiger.

The two beasts clashed with massive auras and in an instant, the green tiger instantly dissipated into green aura, while the black dragon continued on towards the young man in green with terrifying power.

The young man’s expression fell and a green energy barrier appeared around him.

Boom!

The black dragon gave off a powerful aura as it slammed into the azure barrier. A wild gale blew out and the energy barrier shattered. The young man flew backwards, but because Zhao Fu had held back, he had not been injured.

However, the young man stood up, looking quite unconvinced, and he wanted to attack again. Feng Qiyun quickly stopped the young man, looking quite serious. Looking at the black aura around Zhao Fu’s body that had automatically formed a dragon shape, only powerful people from the Dragon Race could do such a thing.

“Thank you for showing mercy!” Feng Qiyun lightly laughed as he cupped his hands. He knew that Zhao Fu had shown mercy, or else the young man definitely would have been injured.

Zhao Fu calmly nodded but he did not plan on staying, and he turned and started to walk away.

The people in the surroundings were somewhat shocked at finding out how powerful Zhao Fu was. That young man was a student of Emperor Path College, yet he had lost so easily. It seemed that this person was not simple at all.

“Hahaha... Feng Qiyun, you’re quite good at enduring. If it was me, I would have long since taught that boy a lesson; you’re really losing face for our Earth Rankings. That boy only has Stage 9 Cultivation,” a well-built red-faced big man laughed as he walked out.

Feng Qiyun slightly frowned. Now that that big man had come, things had become much more complicated. He and that big man did not have a good relationship.

Zhao Fu ignored the big man’s words and walked to the side.

The big man’s expression was cold as a World Realm might blasted towards Zhao Fu, “Boy, didn’t you hear your granddaddy’s words? Even though you didn’t offend me, I don’t like looking at you. Kneel and apologize.”

If it was before, Zhao Fu would not have been able to withstand a World Realm might. However, now that he had his Divine Bloodline, he had great resistance to it. Moreover, the big man had underestimated Zhao Fu and did not use his full power.

Zhao Fu’s body only slightly sank down and nothing much else happened. Everyone around him looked shocked; it was the first time they had a Stage 9 Cultivator look so at ease under the might of a World Realm expert.

Chapter 1306: Xiong Ye

The big man also looked quite shocked because an ordinary Stage 9 Cultivator should have collapsed to the ground under his might and looked at him in terror, not look so casual like Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu slowly turned and his terrifying eyes looked at the big man with a trace of fury, causing the big man’s hair to stand on end. He instinctively felt a trace of fear.

The big man's expression changed; he could not believe that a person with Stage 9 Cultivation could make him feel a sense of danger.

However, in the next moment, the big man felt furious; it was the first time he had felt threatened by such a low-level cultivator. This was humiliating to him, and his gaze became cold as he said with a trace of killing intent, "Didn't you hear this granddaddy tell you to kneel down?"

Boom!

Heaven and Earth Power quickly gathered as the big man exploded out with World Realm power. A might containing the might of the heavens and earth blasted towards Zhao Fu, causing the surroundings to become incredibly heavy and fill with an icy austereness.

Zhao Fu's body once again sank down, and sensing this terrifying might, his legs started to go weak and his waist slightly bent. Beads of sweat started to form on his body – after all, Zhao Fu only had Stage 9 Cultivation, and even though he had a Divine Bloodline, he could not withstand the full might of a World Realm expert.

Seeing Zhao Fu like this, the big man gave a pleased smile and said, "Goddamit, a Stage 9 cultivator dares to be so arrogant in front of a World Realm cultivator? You're simply seeking death!"

Everyone in the surroundings shook their heads; there was an astronomical difference between the World Realm and Stage 9. Everyone believed that Zhao Fu should give in and kneel and apologize in order to keep his life. Otherwise, he would meet a terrible end.

Some people thought that Zhao Fu had brought this on himself for daring to speak to Feng Qiyun like that and not giving him face. Feng Qiyun was a World Realm expert and did not bicker with Zhao Fu, but Zhao Fu had been too arrogant.

A weakling should look like a weakling, begging and pleading for mercy. He had brought this on himself.

The young man who had attacked Zhao Fu earlier smiled and felt much better. He felt that Zhao Fu needed to be taught a lesson so that he knew his place.

Feng Qiyun frowned. Even though he felt that Zhao Fu was not simple, the gap between Stage 9 Cultivation and the World Realm was too vast. As such, he said, “Xiong Ye, that’s enough. Don’t go too far.”

However, the big man completely ignored him and did not give Feng Qiyun any face. He was the Imperial Prince of an Empire and was ranked eighth on the Earth Rankings. He was only slightly weaker than Feng Qiyun and could stand up to Feng Qiyun.

Xiong Ye ignored Feng Qiyun and raised his chin, making a condescending expression. Feng Qiyun looked slightly angry and prepared to attack.

Boom!

A massive aura of killing and conquering exploded out, causing the ground to instantly crack. The air became incredibly cold, and Zhao Fu looked quite angry as he exploded out with the power of his Nation Armament.

Zhao Fu did not fear World Realm experts, as Great Qin now had three worlds. The power that his Nation Armament contained was now stronger than ordinary World Realm experts.

After releasing his Nation Armament’s power, the massive might weighing down on his body disappeared as it was resisted by his Nation Armament.

Everyone watched in shock as Zhao Fu stretched out a finger towards Xiong Ye and said coldly, “Kneel!”

Boom!

Great Qin’s Nation Armament, the Twelve Metal Colossi, gathered a massive amount of power from the three worlds, which flowed into Zhao Fu’s body. As Zhao Fu pointed out, an enormous might blasted down on Xiong Ye’s body, causing his body to sink and his expression to change.

After sensing the Nation Armament’s power, everyone understood that Zhao Fu was at least the King of a Kingdom because only the King could use the power of a Nation Armament. Looking at the power he gave off, he had the power of at least three worlds.

The situation had now reversed, and Zhao Fu was now the oppressor while Xiong Ye was the one being oppressed. Xiong Ye gritted his teeth and used all of his strength to resist that might.

Even though Xiong Ye was an imperial Prince, he did not have the Nation Armament of his Empire. In front of Great Qin's Nation Armament, he could not resist at all.

Xiong Ye felt his body sinking down, and he would soon be kneeling. As an Imperial Prince, someone who countless beings looked up to, how could he allow himself to kneel to someone else?

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as a blue and blood-red flame giving off a boundless Emperor's aura exploded out. Xiong Ye unleashed his Sovereign bloodline, managing to withstand the might.

He looked furious as he glared at Zhao Fu and yelled, "Your granddaddy's the Imperial Prince of the Ferocious Beast Empire; since you dared to act like this, I'll slaughter your entire Kingdom in the future."

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and once again pointed out. He used a trace of his Divine Bloodline's power, and a divine aura that surpassed that of an Emperor's flowed out, blasting towards Xiong Ye.

Boom!

Xiong Ye's knees heavily crashed into the ground, smashing out two craters. Xiong Ye looked shocked; under Zhao Fu's strength, even his Sovereign Bloodline seemed to feel fear, and he could not resist as he knelt on the ground.

Everyone gasped; that person could actually make an Imperial Prince kneel in front of him – this was an incredible humiliation. They would become archenemies in the future; no one could endure such humiliation, and this would trigger the anger of an Empire.

At the same time, they felt indescribably shocked towards the power that Zhao Fu had unleashed. In just an instant, their bloodlines had all felt immense fear and seemed to howl in hysteria. How could that person's bloodline be so terrifying?

Feng Qiyun also looked at Zhao Fu in shock because Zhao Fu's performance completely exceeded anything he could expect. Despite having a lot of experience, he still felt incredibly shocked.

The young man from before had an unsightly look on his face; he realized that Zhao Fu had not used his full power, yet he could defeat him easily.

The surroundings became completely silent, and Xiong Ye furiously glared at Zhao Fu, wanting to cut him into a thousand pieces.

Pa!

Zhao Fu casually waved his hand, and a formless palm slapped Xiong Ye's face, causing the right side of his face to become red and swell up. Xiong Ye furiously roared, wanting to resist Zhao Fu's might, but he could not do so at all.

"Angry? You brought this on yourself. I didn't want to make any trouble, so why did you force my hand?" Zhao Fu glared at Xiong Ye as he said coldly.

Now, everyone understood why Zhao Fu did not seem weak at all in front of a World Realm expert. With such a powerful Nation Armament, there was no need to fear a World Realm expert.

No one expected this because those who typically entered the Emperor Path College were all juniors of major factions, such as Imperial Princes or disciples of Sects. They were not the higher-ups who wielded true power, and naturally they would not have Nation Armaments.

Chapter 1307: Human Phoenix Empire

Suddenly, everyone turned and saw a group of extremely beautiful female attendants wearing silver palace dresses. They gave off extraordinary auras as they walked over from the side. At the middle of them was a cold and noble-looking woman wearing a gold palace dress and giving off an enormous might.

This woman was indescribably beautiful, and looking at her, countless people felt their heart rates speed up. Their blood seemed to heat up as they stared at the woman, and it was as if they had fallen in love with her.

Her appearance caused the scene to quieten down, and the world seemed to freeze. Her aura completely surpassed Zhao Fu's because her aura surpassed the Emperor Heaven Realm, and she was definitely someone on the Heaven Rankings.

Seeing her, Feng Qiyun and the big man did not dare to make a noise. The powerful aura that the woman gave off made them lower their heads and accept their inferiority.

Just like that, in silence, the crowd automatically made way. The group of female attendants slowly walked past, and the noble-looking woman calmly ignored the countless looks of adoration as she passed through.

Only Zhao Fu was not affected by her aura, mainly because of his Divine Bloodline. However, Zhao Fu also automatically retreated to the side. Facing an Emperor Heaven Realm expert, even if he exploded out with his Nation Armament's full power, he would not have much resistance, and she was past the Emperor Heaven Realm.

Everyone in the vicinity knew who she was; she was the fourth-ranked person on the Heaven Rankings, Feng Qianghua, the Young Empress of the Human Phoenix Empire. The next Legatee of the Human Phoenix Empire was her, so she was referred to as the Young Empress. Moreover, she was tied for first on the Beauty Rankings.

The Human Phoenix Empire was a terrifying Empire that rivaled the Human Race Empire. They were both within the top ten Empires in the Human Domain, and the other Empires all felt slight fear towards them.

In front of this terrifying power, Zhao Fu could not help but lower his head. Not only was her power many times more powerful than Zhao Fu's, but she would also be able to crush him with a single finger.

These people seemed to just be passing by, and they did not show any intention of interfering. The group of beautiful female attendants slowly walked by Zhao Fu with calm expressions, not even looking at Zhao Fu.

At the center of the female attendants, Feng Qianghua also coldly walked by Zhao Fu and showed no interest in him at all. In response, Zhao Fu did not even dare to breathe loudly.

Emperor Path College was too terrifying, and it had all kinds of monstrous figures. He had to be more careful in the future and should not be too overconfident.

“Roar!!” A dragon’s roar sounded out from Zhao Fu’s body; it was from the Dragon Phoenix. Zhao Fu’s body gave off golden light and his expression fell as he used his full power to suppress the Dragon Phoenix.

However, Feng Qianghua suddenly stopped walking, and her peerlessly beautiful eyes fell on Zhao Fu’s body.

Sensing that gaze, Zhao Fu instantly became nervous, and he immediately decided to run.

However, Zhao Fu’s expression froze because an enormous power instantly locked down his body, making it impossible for him to move at all. Even his Nation Armament’s power had been forcefully suppressed, making it so that he could not resist.

“Why are you trying to run?” A beautiful and pleasant voice sounded out as Feng Qianghua calmly looked at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu could not help but feel nervous because she could easily kill him, so he anxiously replied, “It’s nothing, I just thought it was time to leave.”

“Is that so?” Feng Qianghua replied as she slowly walked towards Zhao Fu.

Seeing Feng Qianghua walk over, Zhao Fu was startled and tried to struggle, but he could not break free at all. In the end, he could only sigh.

Feng Qianghua arrived before Zhao Fu and she pressed against the air. Zhao Fu’s body trembled and his body uncontrollably gave off a large amount of golden light.

Boom!

A golden ray of light containing immense power shot into the sky. Countless rays of platinum-colored light covered the surroundings as an enormous might descended.

An enormous figure appeared. It had a dragon's body and head but a pair of phoenix wings. It only had a single pair of claws, which were phoenix claws, and its body was covered with platinum-colored scales and gave off an incredibly noble aura.

“So it really was a Dragon Phoenix! And one of the highest grade!” Feng Qianghua gave a beautiful smile, causing the hearts of those around her to tremble and feel intoxicated. They felt as if their hearts were going to melt.

The female attendants around her smiled and curtsied to her as they said in unison, “Congratulations, Your Majesty!”

Now, Zhao Fu understood what was going on – it was about his Dragon Phoenix. Zhao Fu seemed to have the highest grade of Dragon Phoenix, which was incredibly attractive to Kingdoms ruled by women. It was something that countless people would fight over, and the Human Phoenix Empire was a Kingdom ruled by women.

In that Empire, there was a matriarchy and women held higher positions than men. Many women even had three or four husbands.

Feng Qianghua stretched out her hand and took off Zhao Fu's cloak, revealing his handsome face, terrifying eyes, and his long black hair that had some traces of violet to it. His divine aura that surpassed that of Emperors caused people to feel a sense that he was far beyond their reach.

“This Young Empress hereby decrees that you will become this Young Empress' Imperial Consort. Where is your faction? This Young Empress will immediately send a betrothal gift. Don't worry, This Young Empress will treat you well.” Feng Qianghua gave a pleased smile as she said the words that caused countless people's jaws to drop.

However, Zhao Fu refused resolutely, “I'm sorry, but I decline.”

It was only natural that he had to decline; as the Emperor of Great Qin, how could he become a Concubine of a woman? Zhao Fu did not want to serve a woman together with many other men, no matter how beautiful the woman was or how great the benefits were.

“Do you have the power to refuse?” Feng Qianghua lightly laughed as she said with a trace of condescension and domineeringness.

Zhao Fu inwardly cursed – he indeed did not have even a bit of power to resist. He had never thought that coming over to take a look at the Emperor Path College would result in him being captured to be a Concubine. It seemed that what goes around comes around; Zhao Fu had done this sort of thing in the past too.

“Take him back to This Young Empress’ courtyard! And send a report to Imperial Mother about this good news,” Feng Qianghua ordered as she lightly laughed.

A few female attendants walked over to Zhao Fu, who could not move at all, planning to carry him away.

Boom!

A massive energy landed on Zhao Fu’s body, causing the power restricting him to instantly disappear. Zhao Fu did not know what had happened, but he grabbed this opportunity and activated his Nothingness Cloak, causing his body to disappear.

“Your Majesty!” The female attendants turned and called out with serious expressions. That energy was definitely the energy from a higher-being.

Feng Qianghua’s expression also became serious as she said coldly, “Keep looking for him! Even if he has a higher-being protecting him, This Young Empress is going to have him!”

Chapter 1308: Agriculture Goddess Divinity

After disappearing, Zhao Fu reappeared in a busy market. There were people with stalls on both sides, and after asking around, Zhao Fu found that this was a trade market for Emperor Path College’s students.

Ordinary students who gained things from outside could sell them here. As students of the Emperor Path College, the things they found naturally would not be simple, and all of them were quite valuable.

Zhao Fu had a look around and found that there were many things he was interested in, such as spirit liquids that could nurture high-grade plants, materials for constructing a Sky City, and even Agriculture God blessings that had massive benefits for the growth of crops.

It was a pity that Zhao Fu was here through a projection, so he could not take things back to Great Qin. Moreover, the things here could not be bought with gold coins.

As the students of one of the Seven Great Colleges, no one here lacked money. The things here were either exchanged through bartering or using Emperor Path College's Points.

Emperor Path College also had a point system, and points were extremely important. Almost everything required points, and without points, doing anything was difficult.

“Come over and have a look! If anyone can help me open this box, I'll give this Agriculture Goddess' Divinity to them. Now that the production stat has disappeared, the Agriculture Goddess' Divinity can give massive boosts and is a priceless treasure!”

A loud voice sounded out, drawing Zhao Fu's attention. He was quite interested in the Agriculture Goddess' Divinity; with the current situation, the Agriculture Goddess' Divinity was important to any Kingdom.

Even though Zhao Fu could not bring things back through his projection, it was an incredibly important item. Perhaps there would be a way to bring it back in the future, so Zhao Fu was still quite interested in it.

At the same time, even ordinary Divinities were top-tier items. Hearing that one could obtain a Divinity just for opening a box, many people gathered here.

Zhao Fu went over and saw a person trying to open a box. The box was as big as a fist and seemed to be made out of wood. It had six sides and there was a black diagram on each side that looked like ghostly monsters.

This box gave off an eerie, cold aura, and it seemed to be a Ghost Treasure. Zhao Fu felt a reaction from it and found that the box could only be opened by someone with a Six Paths Bloodline.

Zhao Fu was not in a hurry to act because a Six Paths Bloodline was incredibly rare. When Zhao Fu had awakened the Nether Emperor Star, under the effects of the massive amounts of Fate, he had drawn some of the Six Paths Demon Images' bloodline into himself. Otherwise, it would have been almost impossible to obtain this bloodline.

Zhao Fu was confident that no one present would be able to open the box. Zhao Fu was also somewhat curious about how that person had obtained the box.

The owner of the box was a round fatty who had slightly dark skin, and he looked like a simple and honest person.

A person went up and tried twisting the box, then sent his power into it, and then tried using his hand to smash it, but he was unsuccessful. Another person went up, thinking that opening the box had to do with the six diagrams and that using force would be pointless. However, even after trying for a long time, he could not figure it out.

A few more people tried, but no one was able to open the box, making the fatty feel quite disappointed. It seemed that no one could open it.

The people in the surroundings felt that no one could open the box because brute force and all kinds of tricks had no effect. Some people asked the fatty how he had obtained this box, and he did not hide it. He said that he had found it in an ancient tomb, and perhaps there would be a treasure inside.

"I'll try!" A voice suddenly sounded out. Everyone looked over, and saw that it was a cloaked figure.

There were not many people wearing cloaks here. Most people had high statuses and did not bother with such a thing unless it was during important times.

Even though this person looked quite mysterious, wasn't he too weak? He only had Stage 9 Cultivation; how could Emperor Path College have someone with such low cultivation? Could he really open the box? No one believed that Zhao Fu would be able to open the box, and they believed that he was going to try to run away with the box.

The fatty held onto a trace of hope and passed the box to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu took the box and looked at it before testingly sending some Six Paths Power into it.

Boom!

An enormous cold and eerie aura instantly blasted out, causing people's hairs to stand on end. Everyone in the market looked shocked and turned their gazes towards Zhao Fu.

The box automatically floated into the air and gave off an intense black light. Terrifying ripples came from the box, accompanied by an intense might. Everyone in the surroundings could not help but quickly retreat.

The box continuously trembled in the air before opening up like a flower, and a black light shot into the sky.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the sky shook, and an enormous cold and eerie aura gathered. A ghostly wind blew as the temperature of the surroundings plummeted, and an icy feeling spread out.

Zhao Fu had a bad feeling, not sure what he had just done. He hurriedly said to the fatty, "I've opened the box, please give the Agriculture Goddess' Divinity to me."

The fatty was staring at the sky in shock and did not hear Zhao Fu's words at all. Zhao Fu somewhat wanted to just snatch the Divinity from him.

Suddenly, six massive explosions sounded out as six enormous Yin Qi vortexes appeared in the sky, giving off massive might.

Six terrifying figures giving off heaven-toppling ghostly qi also slowly appeared in the sky.

One had a muscular body and three heads, one had a pair of wings and held a spear, one had a bulging belly and an ugly face, one wore a robe and looked like a human, one looked like an asura and gave off killing intent, and one looked like a demon that was filled with evilness.

Zhao Fu was startled and found that this box was for summoning the Six Paths Demon Images. Perhaps it could be opened using some secret technique, but Zhao Fu directly used his Six Paths Bloodline to open it.

Everyone in the surroundings cried out; they had heard of the Six Paths Demon Images before, and today they had personally seen them for themselves.

The Six Paths Demon Images gave off an enormous might that covered the surroundings, causing the air to become incredibly heavy and making it difficult for people to breathe. The ghostly qi in the sky caused the entire world to become a deathly gray-white.

The instant the Six Paths Demon Images appeared, their gazes fell on Zhao Fu. The main bodies knew what Zhao Fu had done to the Six Paths Demon Images, and they were determined to crush him and kill him.

As such, when looking at Zhao Fu, they were like looking at an enemy. Their eyes were filled with killing intent, causing the heavens and earth to become even colder.

“Hurry! Give me the Agriculture Goddess’ Divinity!” facing the six terrifying gazes, Zhao Fu did not dare to stay here, and he yelled at the fatty.

Hearing Zhao Fu’s yell, the fatty came back to his senses and gave a green Divinity to Zhao Fu. He understood that he had caused some trouble.

Chapter 1309: Chasing to Kill

After getting the Divinity, Zhao Fu immediately turned and ran. The fatty also panicked and did not think much as he followed after Zhao Fu.

However, how could the Six Paths Demon Images allow Zhao Fu to escape? They raised their weapons and gave off a massive aura as they prepared to blast towards Zhao Fu.

Shing!

A saber hum sounded out, causing the sky to tremble. Countless traces of red light burst forth as an enormous saber light, containing enough power to cut apart a world, flew towards the Six Paths Demon Images.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the Six Paths Demon Images were slashed into countless traces of ghostly qi, which flooded outwards before disappearing. A red-clothed elder appeared in the sky, cursing furiously, “Which bastard is seeking death, summoning the Six Paths Demon Images in Emperor Path College?”

Everyone looked at the red-clothed elder and their hearts tightened; this was the Head Elder of the Enforcement Department, and his strength was close to higher-being level. As such, he could easily deal with the Six Paths Demon Images.

The summoned Six Paths Demon Images were only 1,000 meters tall and were not very powerful. If the true bodies of the Six Paths Demon Images had descended, even tens of thousands of copies of the red-clothed elder would not have been a match for them.

Some people unhesitatingly reported, “Head Elder, it was a person wearing a cloak. We didn’t see his appearance, but he had a pair of terrifying eyes. He opened up a wooden box and summoned the Six Paths Demon Images.”

The red-clothed elder coldly harrumphed, “Find that bastard. If he dares to resist, call the Enforcement Department. If you do well, This Elder will reward you with 1,000 Points.”

“Thank you, Head Elder!” Everyone in the surroundings were delighted; 1,000 Points could be exchanged for many good things, so they hurriedly chased in the direction that Zhao Fu had gone in.

Luckily, Zhao Fu had run quite quickly, or else he definitely would have been caught by the crowd. He was currently hiding within an alley and did not dare to go out.

Because of the terrifying ripples from here, many people had been attracted over, and they all joined in the hunt for Zhao Fu.

Now, Zhao Fu did not have any interest in taking a tour around Emperor Path College; he just wanted to leave as soon as possible. He had never thought so many things would happen despite wanting to take a look around in a low-profile manner.

Zhao Fu decided that he had to change his appearance; he could not continue wearing his cloak. Zhao Fu used his ghostly qi to turn his black and slightly violet hair gray white, and he hid his terrifying pupils as he also put on a mask.

However, there was a person next to him, which was the fatty from before. Zhao Fu was not afraid of him making any trouble because he was the main culprit for the incident. If Zhao Fu was caught, he would also be heavily punished.

Zhao Fu did not have any plans to make friends with the fatty, but the fatty seemed to be incredibly interested in Zhao Fu. He was mainly curious about how Zhao Fu had opened the box, and he introduced himself, saying, “Brother, I’m called Lin Dapeng, it’s nice to meet you.”

Zhao Fu’s response was quite cold, merely nodding. He snuck onto the street while no one was watching and planned to leave Emperor Path College.

However, Lin Dapeng followed after him, and Zhao Fu felt quite displeased as he asked, “Why are you following me?”

Lin Dapeng laughed and said, “I just want to know how you opened the box because my family has quite a few of those boxes.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite surprised, but how could Zhao Fu tell him that he had the Six Paths Bloodline? As such, he said that he did not know either and that he had just casually opened it.

Lin Dapeng evidently did not believe this, and he continued to follow Zhao Fu as he said, “Brother, don’t worry; as long as you tell me how you did it, I’ll reward you well for it.”

Seeing that Lin Dapeng was determined to follow him, Zhao Fu decided to try to find a way to get rid of him. However, a group of bustling women appeared, forcing Zhao Fu to hide himself – those women all wore silver dresses and were Feng Qianghua’s female attendants.

Even though he did not know how he had escaped last time, if he was caught by them again, there would be virtually no chance of him getting away again.

After the female attendants passed by, Zhao Fu wanted to leave, but another group of people charged over, forcing Zhao Fu to once again hide within the crowd, not daring to release a bit of his aura. He understood that these people were here for him.

A person to his side felt quite strange and asked, “What’s going on? Why are these people all running around so aggressively?”

Someone else replied, “Don’t you know? There’s news going around Emperor Path College to find a man with terrifying eyes wearing a cloak.”

The asker of the question felt even more confused, “Why are so many people looking for a man?”

Seeing that this person really did not know about it, the other person replied, “Right after that person entered the Emperor Path College, he caused a massive ruckus and made the golden dragon pillars incredibly scared. The news has even traveled to the Dragonblood Empire, who has good relations with the Dragon Race, and they want to see that person.

“Some of those people are from the Dragonblood Empire, as they are quite interested in that person, so they want to find him. Also, that person isn’t from Emperor Path College; he’s just here to visit, so Emperor Path College has no power to interfere.

“Another group is from the Ferocious Beast Empire. I heard that person made the Imperial Prince of the Ferocious Beast Kingdom, the eighth-ranked person on the Earth Rankings, kneel in front of everyone and even slapped him. Such a great humiliation angered the Ferocious Beast Empire and they naturally will not spare him.”

Hearing this, the asker of the question said in disbelief, “No way! That person was that strong? Xiong Ye is ranked eighth on the Earth Rankings, is a World Realm expert, and has a Sovereign bloodline. That person really could make him kneel?”

The other person nodded and said, “Yes, by using his Nation Armament!”

Hearing this, the asker of the question understood and laughed as he said, “That Xiong Ye is to arrogant and unreasonable; now, he’s been appropriately punished. It’s a pity that I wasn’t there; I want to see how angry he was. That’s right, what about those other people? There also seemed to be a big group of beautiful female attendants looking for him.”

Hearing this, the other person laughed and said, “Some people are also after him because he summoned the Six Paths Demon Images at the market, and apparently there’s a 1,000 Point reward for capturing him. As for why our College’s number one beauty’s female attendants are after him, it’s because our number one beauty Feng Qianghua wants to make him her Imperial Concubine – not just any Concubine, but Imperial Concubine, the same as an Empress in other Empires.”

“No way!” The asker of the question was completely dumbfounded. With Feng Qianghua’s personality, she would not deign to be with even the number one ranked Di Junwang, so how could she casually want a man she had just met?

“It’s true, I didn’t believe it at first, but many people saw this themselves. Feng Qianghua announced this publicly and said that that person’s body contains the highest grade Dragon Phoenix and is the best candidate for an Imperial Concubine,” the other person explained.

“Then what’s going on now? Why are there so many female attendants looking for him? Don’t tell me he refused and ran away?” the asker of the question continued to ask.

Chapter 1310: Xiang Qianqian

“That’s right, that guy ran away, forcing Feng Qianghua to order her female attendants to catch him. Honestly, that guy is so stupid; Feng Qianghua is the number one beauty in the Human Domain, and she is the Young Empress of the Human Phoenix Empire. In the future, she’ll rule the Empire.”

“She’s not just peerlessly beautiful but also has extraordinary bearings as well, and she wields great power. Countless people would dream of being hers, yet that guy refused; it’s simply ridiculous,” another person said bitterly.

The asker of the question said in envy and admiration, “That’s so infuriating! I wish that chance was given to me. As long as I could have her, I’d do anything and would even accept all of her other Concubines.”

Another person also nodded in agreement. It was because Feng Qianghua was simply too beautiful and was the Legatee of her Empire. What’s more, it was one of the most powerful Empires in the Human Domain.

As the number one beauty in the Emperor Path College, just her suffocating beauty was enough to make countless men and women fall for her, and a single sentence from her would be enough for people to even die for her.

However, hearing that she had chosen a man to be her Imperial Concubine, countless people felt that their worlds were collapsing, and they felt as if their hearts were being torn apart.

“Brother, they seem to all be talking about you.” Lin Dapeng looked incredibly shocked as he whispered to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu replied resolutely, “They’re not, you’ve got the wrong person.”

Lin Dapeng laughed, “Then I’ll just talk a bit louder and see if you’re that person or not!”

Zhao Fu glared at him and said, “Do you want me to silence you?”

Lin Dapeng smiled confidently, saying, “Brother, you don’t want to make a scene right? If you tell me how you opened the box, I’ll help you leave Emperor Path College. Let me remind you that the College is incredibly big, and it’s easy to get lost!”

Zhao Fu sighed and realized that he had no idea where he was, so he said helplessly, “I have a special bloodline that allowed me to open the box. The box was something for summoning the Six Paths Demon Images.”

“What kind of bloodline is that?” Lin Dapeng continued to ask in curiosity.

Zhao Fu restored the appearance of his right eye, and the six gray dots within it quickly spun as a Six Paths of Reincarnation Power spread out like a gray vortex.

Lin Dapeng’s hairs stood on end as a massive eerie aura covered him. He felt as if his soul was going to be sucked into Zhao Fu’s eyes.

“It’s this bloodline, something that’s impossible for you to have,” Zhao Fu said calmly as his right eye once again became a normal-looking eye.

Lin Dapeng looked incredibly shocked, “That’s... a Six Paths... of Reincarnation... Bloodline?”

Zhao Fu lightly harrumphed, acknowledging it.

Lin Dapeng continued to ask in shock, “Just who are you? How could you have the supreme bloodline of the Underworld?”

Zhao Fu did not reply and said, “Now, you should fulfil your promise and take me to leave the Emperor Path College.”

Lin Dapeng thought about it and nodded, saying, “Then follow me. Also, you’re here to visit, so does that mean you’re planning to participate in the examination next year and become a student?”

Zhao Fu followed Lin Dapeng and nodded.

Lin Dapeng smiled and his tone became slightly more courteous, “In that case, please take care of me in the future, brother.”

“Hurry up and take me out of the College; I don’t want to be caught by those people,” Zhao Fu said.

Only then did Lin Dapeng remember that Zhao Fu was being hunted down by a few groups of people, so he nodded and quickly led Zhao Fu forwards.

However, before they were able to get very far, they were forced to stop again. It was a bewitching and peerlessly beautiful woman; it was the Ten Thousand Desire Palace’s Xiang Qianqian.

“You, don’t you know I’ve been looking for you for so long?” Xiang Qianqian said as she looked at Zhao Fu with discontent.

Looking at this incredibly enticing woman, Lin Dapeng instinctively stared with wide eyes and gulped. He assumed that this was Zhao Fu’s woman, and he immediately retreated to the side.

Zhao Fu frowned and said to Lin Dapeng, “I don’t know this woman, just ignore her and take me out.”

Lin Dapeng felt quite surprised and looked at Xiang Qianqian.

Xiang Qianqian angrily pouted and said, “You heartless rat, even though we knew from our gazes that I want you and you want me, you’re acting like this. It was so hard for me to slip away from my husband to find you.”

Lin Dapeng currently felt quite dumbfounded. This woman had a husband? This situation seemed quite complicated.

Zhao Fu was expressionless, and he knew that she was a big headache so he said coldly, “You’re wrong; I don’t have any interest in you.”

“Is that so?” Xiang Qianqian was quite displeased with Zhao Fu’s attitude and she leapt into Zhao Fu’s embrace. Zhao Fu’s Six Desires Demonic Qi lost control, causing him to lose control and hug her, and his hands started to roam.

Xiang Qianqian tightly hugged Zhao Fu as she looked quite pleased, sensing Zhao Fu’s body’s reaction. She happily whispered, “Alright, you bastard, I won’t be angry anymore. Just hurry up and do me.”

Lin Dapeng was too embarrassed to watch on any further and planned to leave. Zhao Fu could not understand why Xiang Qianqian elicited such a reaction from him – no, the Six Desires Demonic Qi.

Zhao Fu bit his tongue, and the immense pain caused Zhao Fu’s mind to become clear, and he tried to push away Xiang Qianqian.

Boom!

An enormous aura descended, and the sky was covered by golden light. There seemed to be countless phoenixes flying in the air, and a figure appeared – it was Feng Qianghua.

Seeing this scene, Feng Qianghua’s peerlessly beautiful face became cold. She stretched out a finger, and just as Zhao Fu pushed Xiang Qianqian away, a massive force slammed into him, causing him to fall to the ground and cough up a large mouthful of blood.

Xiang Qianqian felt incredibly touched, thinking that Zhao Fu had pushed her away to save her.

“You bastard, you dare to be so licentious and betray This Young Empress to act cosy with another woman? Do you acknowledge that you deserve to die a thousand times?” a bone-chillingly cold voice sounded out as Feng Qianghua looked at Zhao Fu coldly.

Feng Qianghua was acting as if she was a man who had seen his wife having an affair with another person. Even though Zhao Fu was not married to her, she had already claimed him as her own and had announced that he would be her Imperial Concubine.

Lin Dapeng and Xiang Qianqian’s faces both became pale. They could sense that Feng Qianghua’s aura was beyond the Emperor Heaven Realm, and she could casually kill them.

Zhao Fu fell to the ground, feeling incredibly angry. He glared at Feng Qianghua as he cursed, “Are you crazy, you madwoman? I don’t belong to you. This Emperor’s harem has countless beauties; you think you’re good enough for me?”

“Trash!” A cold voice sounded out, causing the surrounding temperature to plummet, and Zhao Fu was once again sent flying.
