

The Lord 1441

Chapter 1441: Mosquito King

The massive Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's blood-red eyes locked onto Zhao Fu and gave off a wildly delighted expression. It had come for Zhao Fu because it was incredibly sensitive to blood and Zhao Fu's temptation was simply too great.

"Ss!" The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King gave a hiss and countless Blood-Sucking Mosquitos around it ferociously charged towards Great Qin's side.

Zhao Fu immediately gave the order to fire arrows; they could not allow these Blood-Sucking Mosquitos to get close.

Swish, swish, swish...

The arrows flew out with immense power and tore through the air, seeming to shake the sky. They gave off an incredibly sharp aura and could cause people's hairs to stand on end.

Chi, chi, chi...

Blood-Sucking Mosquitos were hit by the arrows and fell from the sky, but many of the mosquitos were quite agile, dodging the arrows and continuing charging towards Great Qin's side.

The 10 meter and 100 meter wide mosquitos unleashed their abilities. Their needle-like proboscises danced with blood-red light as they sucked.

A shocking scene unfolded: many soldiers howled as their bodies quickly withered as their blood seemed to be sucked away by a formless power, and the defensive barriers seemed to be weakened by the suction power as well.

The massive Blood-Sucking Mosquito King aimed its proboscis at Zhao Fu and ferociously sucked, while Zhao Fu unleashed his Saint Realm Domain.

Bang!

A loud sound rang out as Zhao Fu felt an immense suction power drag at his body. The blood within his body seemed to be about to leave his body, and Zhao Fu's body was pulled forwards a step.

Zhao Fu did not lose much blood, only five or six drops.

After tasting Zhao Fu's blood, the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King madly led the countless Blood-Sucking Mosquitos to charge. The aura they gave off was like that of a massive ocean that seemed to be able to inundate everything.

Seeing the countless Blood-Sucking Mosquitos rush up, Zhao Fu did not hesitate and gave the order to start using the things they had researched to deal with the Blood-Sucking Mosquitos.

The soldiers tossed up wooden barrels into the sky, which exploded out and countless balls of black flames rained down. The rain of black flames descending under the blue sky and white clouds had a dark beauty to it.

The countless charging Blood-Sucking Mosquitos were hit by the rain of black flames and fell to the ground. Some mosquitos' wings had been burned, while others' bodies burned and gave off a charred smell.

These things were made of flaming oil and Darkness Crystals, and the flames were Darkness flames, which were incredibly damaging to these Outer World creatures. Under the rain of flames, countless Blood-Sucking Mosquitos fell from the sky.

The 10 meter long mosquitos could not avoid the flames either. Even though the flames could not burn them to death, they could destroy their wings.

Swish, swish, swish...

Countless arrows tore through the air and descended with terrifying power, causing many Blood-Sucking Mosquitos to fall.

Ten or so 100 meter long Dragon Slaying ballistae aimed at the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King and shot out bolts. The bolts turned into rays of light, and the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King exploded out with a blood-red aura flame that brought with it a terrifying gale that blew the bolts flying.

Bang!

The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's 10,000 meter long body slammed against the defensive barrier, resulting in a massive explosion, and the defensive barrier slightly trembled.

The other massive Blood-Sucking Mosquitos gave off terrifying power as they also slammed into the defensive barrier. The ordinary black flames and arrows did not have much of an effect on the massive mosquitos.

Zhao Fu did not have to be afraid anymore, as more than half of the ordinary Blood-Sucking Mosquitos had been killed, and only a small portion remained; these large Blood-Sucking Mosquitos could be killed using Great Qin's beasts, while the soldiers could just continue attacking the ordinary Blood-Sucking Mosquitos.

Bang!

The enormous Blood-Sucking Mosquito King once again slammed at the defensive barrier, resulting in a massive sound. The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's proboscis gave off an intense light and impatiently sucked at Zhao Fu.

This time, Zhao Fu took out his Emperor Killing Sword and sent massive amounts of his Divine Bloodline's power into it as he slashed out, and a terrifying crescent blasted out with an incredibly sharp aura.

Bang!

The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King was sent flying by the strike, a long and thin cut appearing on its head, from which blood poured out. The immense pain caused the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King to once again furiously charge at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not need to fear it because the other Blood-Sucking Mosquitos had almost all been destroyed, and only this Blood-Sucking Mosquito King was left.

Shing! Shing! Shing...

Zhao Fu continuously slashed out countless sword arcs, which brought with them sword winds as they ferociously shot towards the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King.

Even though the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King ignited a blood-red aura flame to protect itself, it could not withstand the sharpness of the Emperor Killing Sword's attacks, and small cuts appeared on its body, from which blood continuously flowed out.

Boom!

The furious Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's proboscis gave off an intense light as a dangerous light spread out. The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King vigorously stabbed forwards, and a terrifying blood-red light shot out, seeming to cause the air to explode as a wild gale swept out.

Zhao Fu was given a shock and leapt to the side, dodging this attack.

However, the blood-red beam of light landed on the defensive barrier behind Zhao Fu, resulting in a massive explosion. The defensive barrier violently trembled and the blood-red beam of light pierced through the defensive barrier with a bang, creating a one meter wide hole.

Zhao Fu was quite shocked; this defensive barrier could defend against billions of Blood-Sucking Mosquitos, yet it had been pierced by this beam of light.

Arasina came to help Zhao Fu. She stretched out a hand and countless traces of Darkness God power gathered in the air as waves of might spread out. An enormous arm stretched out from the sky and swatted at the mosquito.

Boom!

The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King was sent flying into the ground, and its massive body caused the ground to violently tremble. Rocks flew everywhere and dust billowed as a massive crater appeared in the ground.

Zhao Fu grasped this opportunity, and the six gray dots in his right eye quickly spun as one meter thick chains giving off cold auras shot out from the ground and bound up the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King.

The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King continuously gave off ear-piercing hisses as it struggled. It was incredibly powerful and the ground continuously collapsed under its power.

Zhao Fu sent his power into the sword and continuously slashed out massive sword lights onto the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's body. A few large wounds appeared on the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's body, causing blood to spurt out like a fountain. The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's aura weakened and its struggling also decreased.

Zhao Fu once again raised the Emperor Killing Sword and a shocking sword qi spread out as Zhao Fu prepared to kill the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King.

The Blood-Sucking Mosquito King looked at Zhao Fu and hesitated before lowering its head and showing its willingness to submit. He was quite surprised, because he had not planned on subduing these mosquitos. After all, with the nature of Insect Outer World creatures, it was almost impossible.

Chapter 1442: Blood-Colored Den

However, this Blood-Sucking Mosquito King had taken the initiative to submit, which was very rare. Zhao Fu thought about it and accepted the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's acceptance.

In the next moment, the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King acted pitiful and begged Zhao Fu for blood. Perhaps this was the reason it submitted, for Zhao Fu's blood. Otherwise, it would never submit to a Heaven Awaken World person like Zhao Fu.

Since it liked his blood, Zhao Fu cut his arm and let out some blood to give to the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King. Of course, he did not give this blood for free – the blood turned into a blood restriction and fused into the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King's body.

Zhao Fu would not easily trust these Outer World creatures, so he had to leave restrictions in their bodies. Only by gaining control of them would it be safe.

After the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King submitted, a small portion of the Blood-Sucking Mosquitos did not submit and scattered in all directions, as if they had listed the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King as a traitor.

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised; the Outer World creatures simply hated the Heaven Awaken World far too much! Their previous King had submitted, yet it had been treated with disdain and contempt by its previous subordinates; this was very rare in the Heaven Awaken World.

“Blood! I want more blood! Master I want more of your blood!” A voice suddenly sounded out in Zhao Fu’s mind, and Zhao Fu looked at the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King and felt quite surprised because this voice came from the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King.

Even though he did not understand what was going on, Zhao Fu came before the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King and cut his palm, causing more blood to flow out.

After the blood dripped off Zhao Fu’s hand, they were sucked away by a formless energy and entered the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King’s body.

Boom!

A terrifying aura exploded out from the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King’s body, and a massive blood-red aura flame erupted around it, sending out ripples. The terrifying aura made it so that no one dared to get close, and everyone else continuously retreated.

The 10,000 meter long Blood-Sucking Mosquito King continuously hissed in pain as its body started to melt. First was the blood and flesh and then the outside, until nothing was left.

Not only Zhao Fu felt quite surprised; no one else knew what was going on either.

Suddenly, within the blood-red flames, a woman appeared. She had a perfect face, blood-red hair, and pointed ears. She had a seductive figure and wore armor condensed from blood, which only covered her most important parts, and she gave off a devilish and evil aura.

The woman was incredibly fast and arrived before Zhao Fu in an instant. She knelt down and used her tongue to greedily lap at the blood remaining on Zhao Fu’s arm and hand. As for the wounds themselves, they had already healed.

After licking off the blood from Zhao Fu’s arm, the woman revealed an expression of pleasure before leaping into Zhao Fu’s embrace and said, “Master, can you give me some more blood?”

Zhao Fu immediately refused, “Absolutely not!”

Now, Zhao Fu understood that this woman was the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King who had gone through some kind of transformation. Her power had also greatly increased and was many times more powerful than before.

The woman unhappily called out, “Master, don’t be so stingy. Just give me a bit more blood and I’ll service you, okay?”

Zhao Fu rolled his eyes. Even though this woman was extremely beautiful and was not inferior to Arasina, he still directly replied, “No need! Also, what just happened?”

The woman pouted unhappily but still hugged Zhao Fu as she said, “It was a Blood Refining! We Outer World Insects could transform into human form, and our power, bloodlines, and constitutions will all receive significant boosts.

“However, not all Insects can go through Blood Refining. Not only does it require great power, but it also needs precious treasures. The reason I attacked you was for your blood; to me, your blood is a priceless treasure.”

Zhao Fu nodded, “Then take me back to your Den!”

The woman hugged Zhao Fu and said expectantly, “Master, if I take you, can you give me a bit more of your blood?”

Hearing those words, Zhao Fu felt that she was quite annoying and glared at her as she said, “If you ask for blood again, I’ll seal you right here.”

Hearing this, the woman fell silent.

Following this, Zhao Fu and a few others followed the woman to an incredibly massive den. It was 1,000 kilometers wide and 10,000 meters deep. There were still some Blood-Sucking Mosquitos, but they were quickly killed.

There were also many blood-red eggs, around 20 million or so.

What shocked Zhao Fu and the others was that the Den at the center was 30 meters tall and gave off a faint blood-red light as well as a powerful might.

There were also a few other Dens, which were more regular-sized, and there were 20 or so of them. This was most likely the base of the Blood-Sucking Mosquitos, which was why there were so many Dens.

However, that 30 meter tall Den was simply too terrifying. Ordinary Insect Dens were only about three meters tall, and a Level 1 Den had around one million Insects. This Den could accommodate at least one billion Blood-Sucking Mosquitos, which would mean it was a Level 1,000 Den.

Wyverns at most could fuse with Level 33 Insect Dens, and when fusing, they would receive some injuries. If Zhao Fu tried to fuse this Level 1,000 Den into a Wyvern, the Wyvern would definitely explode and not even ashes would remain.

Of course, if this Insect Den was fused into a Wyvern's body, it would be an incredible waste. Before, Zhao Fu could not conquer any Dens, but now that he had the Blood-Sucking Mosquito King, Xue Ji, she could use this Den.

If that were the case, wouldn't Zhao Fu be able to nurture his own Insects in the Outer World? Thinking about that, Zhao Fu grinned, and he hurriedly asked Xue Ji.

Xue Ji shook her head and explained, "Master, even if I control the Den, you won't be able to have the Insects. The Insects naturally hate and despise Heaven Awaken World people; this is something set by the Sovereign of our world.

"As such, ordinary Insects will never submit to Heaven Awaken World people, and only some stronger creatures can ignore this. Even if I submitted to you, the other Insects will still attack you.

"However, there is a method to get around this. If you can obtain an item that can change the attributes of the Den, perhaps you will be able to nurture Insects that you can control."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu still felt a bit disappointed, and he now understood why the Outer World creatures hated the Heaven Awaken World so much.

Looking at the Insect eggs, Zhao Fu had wanted to nurture his own Insects, but it seemed that this was not possible. As such, he could not just keep these Insect eggs, and he decided to put them to use.

Zhao Fu ordered people to put away these Insect eggs and take the Dens. Zhao Fu did not plan to fuse these Dens into any creatures' bodies, as they might be useful in the future.

Chapter 1443: Long Time No See

Zhao Fu planned to bring the Insect eggs back to Great Qin and use them to attack the Desolate Crow World. This time, he had to kill Si Ji and end the enmity between them.

However, just as Zhao Fu prepared to leave, Arasina unhappily stopped Zhao Fu and Sun Hanxiang and the other female Generals looked at him with hazy eyes and reddened faces. Syndra also flirtatious came up and smiled as she said, "Your Majesty, you seem to have forgotten about something."

Zhao Fu realized and hugged Syndra and the other women as they walked into a room, and intense sounds rang out.

Of course, Zhao Fu also had a good taste of Xue Ji's body. She loudly moaned underneath Zhao Fu's body and had never thought that she would feel so good. Moreover, she had obtained more of Zhao Fu's Divine power.

Afterwards, the women's faces were all red as they breathed raggedly, and Xue Ji said happily, "Master, can I stay by your side and be your female attendant? I don't need your blood; I just want to serve you every day."

Syndra also said flirtatiously, "Your Majesty, I also want to stay by your side and be your female attendant. Is that alright?"

Zhao Fu smiled and rejected both of them as he said to Xue Ji, "Stay in the Outer World for now because you're an Outer World creature. You'll be quite useful here, and I'll come visit often."

Xue Ji felt quite disappointed but still nodded and said, “Then, master, you have to properly satisfy me.”

Syndra seductively smiled as she said, “Your Majesty, I also want more.”

Following this, Zhao Fu went about it with the women again. He looked at the women who had all passed out and smiled as he got up.

Right now, only Arasina had some strength left. Looking at Zhao Fu preparing to leave, she asked, “Can’t you stay a few more days?”

Zhao Fu shook his head and said, “I’ll leave the Outer World to you; I’ll make it up to you in the future.”

A trace of a smile appeared on Arasina’s face and she lightly nodded.

Zhao Fu returned to Great Qin and the first thing he did was gather the army and split them into two teams, and he started to attack the Desolate Crow World.

By now, Yao Ming was also considering things about the Desolate Crow World.

Yao Ming was quite displeased as Si Ji had acted by himself without his permission. Before, Yao Ming saw Si Ji as a pawn, yet this pawn had broken out of his control.

Back then, if it wasn’t for his help, Si Ji would have been long since destroyed by the Desolate Crow Kingdom. Now, he wanted to resist him. Yao Ming wanted to destroy Si Ji and take this opportunity to conquer the Desolate Crow World.

Si Ji understood Yao Ming’s thoughts, so after conquering the Desolate Crow Kingdom, he wrote Yao Ming a letter, expressing his willingness to become the Devil Horn Empire’s vassal to resist Great Qin together.

Fortunately, Great Qin had not been destroyed, or else Si Ji would not have any excuses to use to persuade Yao Ming. It was only because Great Qin had not been destroyed that Si Ji had to rely on Yao Ming’s power to resist Great Qin as well, as his strength was not a match for Great Qin yet.

As such, he could only express his desire to become a vassal of the Devil Horn Empire and protect his safety first.

In response, Yao Ming considered this matter before agreeing. Conquering the Desolate Crow World would require a big sacrifice, and with the Desolate Crow World joining him, he would have less pressure when facing the Great Qin in future.

Moreover, since the Desolate Crow World had become his vassal, he had the authority to control it. Yao Ming would gradually send his people in and take control, easily obtaining the Desolate Crow World without expending any forces.

Both sides quickly came to a mutual understanding and their cold relationship became amicable again, and the Devil Horn Empire provided the Desolate Crow World with some support.

By now, they knew that Zhao Fu was about to attack the Desolate Crow World and felt quite surprised. They had never expected Zhao Fu to be in such a hurry to attack the Desolate Crow World. With the Devil Horn Empire's support, the Desolate Crow World would not be very easy to attack.

However, since Great Qin was attacking, Si Ji and Yao Ming had to defend with their full strength. Si Ji continuously ordered people to reinforce their defenses while Yao Ming gathered his forces and prepared to reinforce the Desolate Crow World. If Great Qin conquered the Desolate Crow World, it would have six worlds.

The Great Qin army quickly gathered at the boundary of the Desolate Crow World like a massive dark mass. They gave off a massive aura that shook the surroundings, and no creatures dared to remain nearby.

Si Ji had already activated the defensive barrier and did not plan to attack, instead opting to fully defend. The Devil Horn army had not yet arrived and with the Desolate Crow World's power, directly facing Great Qin would undoubtedly result in death.

By now, he had gathered everyone in the Desolate Crow World who could fight, and they barely numbered eight billion people. Right now, there were over ten billion of Great Qin's soldiers attacking.

Si Ji felt immense pressure and hoped that the Devil Horn Empire's people would quickly arrive.

Zhao Fu appeared in the sky, looked at Si Ji on the defensive walls, and gave a condescending smile as he said, "Long time no see."

Si Ji's expression was cold. This was the first time he had seen Zhao Fu since leaving the Human World, and he coldly replied, "Indeed, long time no see. Great Qin is still so domineering and overbearing; how disgusting."

Zhao Fu's smile became cold, "Under Great Qin's rule, the Human World is walking into an age of prosperity. The Chinese Race will become the most famous race and shake the world.

"All of this was achieved by Great Qin. If it was not Great Qin unifying the Human World but you trash, we would be bullied and may have been destroyed already."

Si Ji felt quite angry, but he could not help but admit that Great Qin had indeed achieved incredible feats. It had already conquered four worlds and become the largest faction in this area, and it had not even lost out against an inner region Royal Kingdom.

Si Ji was powerless to rebut those words. However, he wanted to stall for time so the Devil Horn Empire's people would arrive, so he said, "Do you want to know what happened to your little brother? Let me tell you, the opportunities he has encountered are far greater than what you'd imagine. He will definitely return and there'll be a good play to be watched between the two of you."

Zhao Fu's gaze became cold as he said, "You're mistaken, I have no little brother nor any other relatives. You've succeeded in angering me; this time, I definitely won't allow you to escape."

Following this, Zhao Fu gave the order to attack.

Zhao Fu did not give an order to advance, and instead ordered Great Qin's soldiers to attack the defensive barrier. Only by destroying the defensive barrier would they be able to attack easily, or else they would suffer heavy losses.

Zhao Fu had also brought the Insect Den Wyverns. Because they had fused with Insect Dens, they had some Outer World power, which was quite destructive against Heaven Awaken World creatures and items.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Powerful rays of light blasted out, giving off shocking sounds as they mightily blasted against the defensive barrier, causing it to violently shake.

Chapter 1444: Great Xia

Of course, they could not just rely on the Insect Den Wyverns because they were facing a force of eight billion. Even though the Insect Den Wyverns were powerful, there were still not enough of them.

Zhao Fu gave the order to summon Spirit Light God Emissaries and had the Archers attack as well.

Countless attacks blasted against the defensive barrier, causing it to become weaker and weaker, and it began to tremble more and more. Si Ji hurriedly ordered people to maintain the barrier at all costs.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Eight heaven-toppling auras exploded out like floodwaters, bringing with them wild gales. Under these terrifying auras, everyone's bodies felt a chill and they were struck with immense fear.

Eight massive beasts that were over 10,000 meters long appeared. They were the eight Aquatic Beast Kings, and after fighting under Great Qin for so long, their auras and power had become much more powerful than before.

Zhao Fu ordered them to concentrate their attacks on one area, which was where Si Ji was.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The Three Soul Great Snake raised its massive body and its three heads cruelly looked at the soldiers on the defensive walls as it opened its mouths, and countless rays of black light gathered. Three black beams of destructive light shot out with shocking power onto the defensive barrier.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The Earthwater Dragon Tortoise roared as countless two meter wide balls of water formed around it. There were thousands of them, and they gave off terrifying power as they blasted towards the defensive power.

Swish, swish, swish...

The Reef Lizard exploded out with a powerful might as its back rose up and three meter long reefs grew before shooting out towards the defensive barrier.

The eight Aquatic Beast Kings were naturally incredibly powerful and as they concentrated their attacks on one area, combined with the Archers' and Insect Den Wyverns' attacks, the defensive barrier became incredibly weak.

Boom!

A massive sound rang out as the Netherocean Demon Whale sucked in large amounts of air and shot out an enormous ball of air, which slammed into the defensive barrier with terrifying power. A massive explosion rang out and the defensive barrier was now covered with cracks.

Shing!

Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and slashed out a massive sword light. After hitting the cracked defensive barrier, the barrier finally shattered.

“Kill!” Now that the defensive barrier had been destroyed, Great Qin immediately advanced. Great Qin's countless soldiers flooded forwards towards the defensive walls, giving off auras as if they could destroy everything in their way.

Countless beasts also gave terrifying roars as they gave off incredibly violent and savage auras and rushed at the defensive walls.

On Si Ji's side, only a small portion of devil beasts which the Devil Horn Empire had left here roared as they charged towards Great Qin's side. They knew this aura – it was their greatest enemy. However, their numbers were far fewer than Great Qin's side.

Now, Si Ji was feeling quite panicked; the defensive barrier had already been broken, but why wasn't Yao Ming here yet?

Right now, Si Ji could only hide within his army because he was not a match for Zhao Fu at all; he most likely would not be able to take a single blow. He could only rely on his army's power to preserve his life.

The battle was extremely unfavorable to Si Ji's side. The devil beasts were torn to shreds by Great Qin's beasts and their blood and broken corpses covered the ground.

Great Qin's soldiers quickly scaled the defensive walls and started to fight with the Desolate Crow soldiers. The battle was incredibly intense, and people continuously fell as the stench of blood quickly spread, creating a hellish scene.

A Great Qin soldier held a black saber and split a Desolate Crow soldier in half, causing blood to spray everywhere; another Great Qin soldier stabbed his sword through a Desolate Crow soldier's head. Another Great Qin soldier swung his hammer, sending a few Desolate Crow soldiers flying.

Whether it was cultivation, equipment, or numbers, Great Qin held a great advantage. However, Si Ji's side resisted intensely and desperately killed Great Qin's soldiers, causing some casualties and injuries on Great Qin's side.

However, after Great Qin's beasts destroyed the devil beasts, they rushed at the defensive walls. The Wyverns unleashed flames and icy blasts, the Spiders climbed up the walls and killed soldiers with their sharp legs, and the massive Corpse Soul Soldiers swung their massive weapons and bashed at the defensive walls.

The situation immediately heavily swung into Great Qin's favor. If Great Qin did not have its beasts, Si Ji's side would have been able to put up some resistance, but after the beasts joined in the siege, there was no hope.

On another battlefield, Great Qin's other army blocked off the Devil Horn Empire's army that had come to reinforce the Desolate Crow World.

Moreover, they had also used the 20 million or so Insect eggs to set up a cursed area. If any Devil Horn soldiers or devil beasts entered that area, they would howl as their blood was sucked dry, leaving behind withered corpses.

Currently, there were many withered corpses from the Devil Horn Empire's advance just then. Right now, the Devil Horn army could only wait here.

Yao Ming's expression was quite serious as he looked at Gui Ji standing in front of him. He understood that she was Great Qin's Emperor Heaven Realm expert, and with the army she had brought, she could indeed stop the Devil Horn army. Moreover, with this cursed area, it would quite a while for the Devil Horn Empire to dispel it.

If they went around, it would take an even longer time. Moreover, not only could they not afford this, even if they went around, Great Qin would still bar their way.

This time, it seemed that the Desolate Crow World was bound to be conquered by Great Qin; Yao Ming was already sure of this. Even if he rushed over right now, it would be useless. He did not want to waste any time or soldiers, so he retreated to the Devil Horn Empire.

After hearing about this, Si Ji's expression became dark and he hatefully looked at Zhao Fu before turning to escape.

Now that the Desolate Crow World had lost, Si Ji could only run to preserve his life. He would have more chances to start over; next time he would definitely make Great Qin pay.

Seeing Si Ji escape, Zhao Fu immediately gave chase. Because of what had happened last time, he would not allow him to escape again.

However, just as Zhao Fu charged up, countless Desolate Crow Archers shot out arrows, stopping Zhao Fu with their sharp auras.

Zhao Fu summoned the eight Aquatic Beast Kings to destroy these Archers, and he continued to chase after Si Ji.

The Great Xia Palace was in chaos. Now, everyone knew that the Desolate Crow World was finished and that Great Qin was about to arrive, so countless people packed their things in terror and planned to escape.

Si Ji returned to the palace and gave the order to only bring the important things and leave behind everything else. These things were all important for him restoring Great Xia in the future.

Because of the availability of spatial rings, packing things did not take long, and Si Ji led a few hundred thousand people and planned to leave through teleportation channels.

Chapter 1445: Ten Beauties

However, Si Ji and his people found that the teleportation channels were unusable, causing Si Ji's expression to fall. Before he could react, a powerful aura descended – it was Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu coldly looked at Si Ji as he said, "I told you, I won't allow you to escape again."

Si Ji's face was filled with fury and hatred, but he knew that he was not a match for Zhao Fu. His number one priority was staying alive, so he ordered his 100,000 elite soldiers to block Zhao Fu while he took some people and continued trying to run away.

These 100,000 soldiers had been greatly nurtured by Si Ji and were not only powerful but also incredibly loyal. They obeyed Si Ji's orders and charged at Zhao Fu.

Swish, swish, swish...

Powerful arrows containing terrifying power shot out, and Zhao Fu unleashed his barrier and blocked all of the arrows.

Facing the 100,000 soldiers, Zhao Fu looked quite disdainful as he lightly called out, "Sword Master!"

The Emperor Killing Sword in his hand gave off a massive sword intent, and Zhao Fu vigorously slashed as a massive crescent containing destructive power shot out incredibly quickly.

The sword light flashed through the 100,000 soldiers, causing blood to spray everywhere. The soldiers' bodies were chopped into countless pieces and blood stained the ground, creating a horrific scene.

Very soon, Zhao Fu once again caught up to Si Ji.

There were now only fewer than 100 people with Si Ji. There were his Concubines, his relatives, and his bodyguards.

"Hurry and leave, Your Majesty!" the bodyguards shouted as they held their weapons and rushed at Zhao Fu seeing Zhao Fu arrive.

Zhao Fu condescendingly waved his sword, and a sharp sword light flashed out, causing the heads of the bodyguards to fall off. Blood spurted out, and they all died.

"Did you really think you could escape?" Zhao Fu blocked in front of Si Ji as he coldly smiled.

Si Ji gritted his teeth as he glared at Zhao Fu and said, "Zhao Fu, must you kill me? If you're willing to let me off, I'll promise never to act against Great Qin in the future."

"Do you really think you have the qualifications to negotiate with me? What strength do you think you have left to resist? Now, it's time to settle the score from back then in the Human World. Do you really think I'd let you off?" Zhao Fu's cold voice contained a trace of anger as he thought back to the things that Si Ji had done to Great Qin.

"Then I'll surrender to you; how about that?" Si Ji looked at Zhao Fu as he finally said the words he never wanted to say.

Zhao Fu coldly laughed as he said, "Sorry, but I don't accept your surrender."

Si Ji's heart sank and his gaze became cold as he looked at Zhao Fu hatefully. He now understood that Zhao Fu would not let him off no matter what.

Si Ji suddenly raised his sword and slashed at the women next to him. He knew what Zhao Fu's interests were, and since he was going to die anyways, he would not allow Zhao Fu to take his women after he died.

The women next to him did not expect that their beloved Si Ji would try to kill them, and the sword came closer and closer.

Bang!

Zhao Fu waved his hand and a formless energy sent Si Ji flying out. He crashed ten or so meters away and coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

The instant Si Ji had turned, Zhao Fu sensed his goal and looked at his women with interest.

There were ten women in total. This included Si Ji's mother, Li Lengyue, who stood next to Si Ji's father, who looked at Zhao Fu furiously and seemed like he was ready to attack Zhao Fu with his saber at any moment.

There was also a gentle-looking woman called Is Rou, who was Si Ji's older sister. In order to solidify his position in the tribe back then, Si Ji had his sister marry someone in the tribe who held military power and had obtained his support.

There was a flirtatious-looking woman who was Si Ji's cousin's woman, and she was called Zhang Feiyan. Si Ji's cousin was looking at Zhao Fu in fear.

There was a wild and seductive looking woman who looked like she was from the Desolate Crow Race. She was most likely the daughter of the leader of the tribe, and she was called Wu He. Si Ji had married her in order to obtain authority in the tribe.

There was also a delicate-looking woman called Shi Yuyan and a virtuous-looking woman called Wang Xihan; they had both been ranked in the top ten beauties in China.

Of the remaining four, two of them were sisters and had baby faces but had enticing figures. They were called Wang Lu and Wang Mei and were also Chinese. There was a tall and beautiful woman called Lou Li and a slim and cheerful-looking woman called Ye Qiu.

Seeing Zhao Fu looking at his women, Si Ji furiously roared, “Zhao Fu if you dare touch them, I won’t let you go even if I die.”

However, apart from being able to furiously yell, Si Ji did not even have the strength to climb up.

Under Zhao Fu’s gaze, the women all had different expressions. Some looked afraid, some looked scared, and some looked saddened; they all understood what Zhao Fu’s gaze meant.

Wang Xihan took out a dagger and slashed towards her throat, wanting to protect her body with her death. However, Zhao Fu waved his hand and stopped her.

Zhao Fu felt quite dissatisfied, “Now, you’re all mine, and you don’t have the authority to make such decisions. If you try this again, I’ll make you pay for it.”

Si Ji’s father furiously pointed his saber at Zhao Fu and cursed, “You’re the ruler of Great Qin and yet you do such contemptible things; you’re lower than a beast.”

Bang!

Zhao Fu waved his hand and sent Si Ji’s father flying as he lightly laughed and said, “Things have been like this since ancient times. Back then, didn’t the first Emperor of Qin bring the Concubines of the six States into his harem? Liu Bang then took those Concubines. Since I’ve conquered you, they are mine now. Also, just because I’m not a good person, does that mean you all are?”

“You’re right, our Desolate Crow Race acknowledges the strong. Since you’ve conquered us, we’re willing to serve you,” the daughter of the tribe’s leader, Si Ji’s Queen, said.

The two other Desolate Crow Race women also nodded and expressed their willingness to serve Zhao Fu.

Si Ji’s cousin’s wife, Zhang Feiyan, also stepped out and said, “Great Qin’s Majesty, as long as you don’t kill me, I’ll do anything you want.”

Si Ji’s cousin also hurriedly said, “I’m willing to give her to Your Majesty and am willing to serve Great Qin. Please don’t kill me, Your Majesty.”

Si Ji furiously looked at these people as he cursed, “You bastards and sluts!”

Bang!

Zhao Fu waved his hand and a formless energy sent Si Ji flying. Si Ji crashed to the ground and blood continuously leaked from his lips, unable to say anything else.

Si Ji’s mother, Li Lengyue, and his older sister Si Rou looked at this scene in pain. Si Ji’s mother bowed to Zhao Fu and said, “We are willing to serve you; please don’t take their lives.”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and said to Si Ji, “Now, they’re all willing.”

Chapter 1446: Demon Star

Si Ji’s father looked at Li Lengyue furiously; he had never thought that his wife would agree to serve another person. He wanted to loudly curse but was sent flying. Just as Zhao Fu was about to kill him, Li Lengyue leapt before Zhao Fu and clung onto his leg as she pleaded, “Please don’t kill them. I’ll properly serve you.”

Following this, Li Lengyue started to serve right there and then.

Zhao Fu waved his hand and knocked out all of the men present and started to enjoy the women, causing them all to lewdly moan.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu gave a pleased smile and had the women put on their clothes.

By now, Great Qin’s soldiers had arrived and had taken control of the Desolate Crow World.

Wang Jian looked at Zhao Fu and the red-faced women next to him and gave a knowing smile as he reported, “Your Majesty, the Desolate Crow World is now in our control. This subordinate has also gathered some Desolate Crow women for you to enjoy.”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed, “No need. Tell me about the losses and gains from the battle.”

Wang Jian started to go through the results of the battle. This time, Great Qin had only lost 500 million soldiers and killed 3.5 billion enemies. They had taken in almost 400 million soldiers and the rest had escaped.

They had also gained 28 billion people, not including the soldiers, and also 50,000 to 60,000 Tribe Stones.

Great Qin now had 410 billion people, 590,000 Cities, and six worlds. They had taken another step closer to becoming a Royal Kingdom and was only four worlds away.

However, Great Qin’s population and number of Cities was already on par with an ordinary Royal Kingdom; they only lacked the foundation and soldiers.

“Your Majesty, how should these people be dealt with?” Wang Jian looked at the unconscious people and asked. Of course, he recognized Si Ji; most of the difficulties that Great Qin faced back then were caused by him and the other Chinese Legatees.

As such, Wang Jian felt that these people should not be kept alive and should be killed as a warning, to show everyone the consequences of offending Great Qin.

“Your Majesty, please spare them; we’ll serve you well in the future.” The red-faced Li Lengyue and Si Rou leapt into Zhao Fu’s embrace and looked at him pleadingly.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and agreed, and he woke up Si Ji and the others.

Si Ji and the others looked at the red-faced women and felt furious, and their hatred towards Zhao Fu reached the extreme. At this point, they would drink Zhao Fu’s blood and eat his flesh.

Without needing to think, they knew what had happened while they were unconscious. Even before he had fallen unconscious, his mother had started serving Zhao Fu, so what followed after would definitely be much worse.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and said to Si Ji, “Don’t worry, I won’t kill you all. I’ll let you watch Great Qin bring the Human World to great heights. Also, they taste quite good.”

Only by keeping them alive and having them live a life worse than death would Zhao Fu be able to quell his anger. Zhao Fu still remembered everything Si Ji had done to Great Qin.

Hearing Zhao Fu's words, Li Lengyue and Si Rou's faces became red and they nestled in Zhao Fu's chest. They had felt incredibly pleasurable while doing it with Zhao Fu and felt quite glad about choosing to serve Zhao Fu.

Si Ji and the others felt as if their eyes were going to explode, and they continuously cursed at Zhao Fu as they were being taken away.

Seeing that Zhao Fu really was not going to kill Si Ji and the others, Li Lengyue looked at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes gratefully and said, "Thank you for sparing them, Your Majesty."

Zhao Fu hugged the woman and gave a teasing smile as he said, "No need to call me Your Majesty; just call me what you called me before."

Li Lengyue's face became red as she lightly called out, "I understand, husband."

Following this, Zhao Fu led the countless soldiers back to Great Qin and concluded the Desolate Crow World operation. He also left a portion of Great Qin's soldiers to clear the Desolate Crow World and help it fuse into Great Qin sooner.

This was also to help take revenge for Xueli, Xueru, and Heni; that night, they served Zhao Fu with all their might.

After hearing about this, Yao Ming could only sigh. Only by continuously becoming more powerful could he obtain the power to resist Great Qin. Now that Great Qin had six worlds, the Devil Horn Empire definitely could not fall behind.

Yao Ming immediately gathered all of the Ministers to discuss how to conquer the next world in response. They also had to deal with the issue of that Emperor Heaven Realm expert.

Back then, Zhao Fu only had Gui Ji appear and did not use Feng Wulin. Feng Wulin would be Great Qin's trump card; no one would expect that an outskirts Kingdom like Great Qin would have two Emperor Heaven Realm experts.

After conquering the Desolate Crow World, Great Qin had obtained a few more Nation Armaments, allowing Zhao Fu to expand the Sealing Heaven Suppressing Earth Formation.

After a few days, the situation had settled. The Devil Horn Empire was planning its attack on the next world and the Wind God Empire was also in a bad spot and could not do anything for now.

Zhao Fu planned to go to the Outer World and clear out the dangerous areas around Great Qin's base. Fortunately, they had discovered the Blood-Sucking Mosquitos attack in advance. However, if they were attacked by creatures that they did not expect, things would not go as well.

For Great Qin base's safety, Great Qin had to be more active and destroy them first.

In the next few days, Zhao Fu lived quite happily, destroying Insect Dens in the day and spending time with Arasina, Gui Ji, Xue Ji, and the other women at night.

However, there was one time when Zhao Fu was doing it with Bai Xihan that he suddenly coughed up a large mouthful of blood. His body gave off large amounts of demonic qi and a dark and evil power spread out. The pupils in his eyes disappeared and two rose-like black flowers appeared.

"Husband, what's wrong?" the women asked in concern, not understanding why Zhao Fu had suddenly coughed up blood and his aura had gone into chaos.

Zhao Fu's body froze, and within the boundless void, the four Emperor Stars continuously trembled and gave off intense starlight. They gave off four heaven-toppling auras, causing the surrounding stars to fall into terror.

The four Emperor Stars seemed to be calling something, and more and more demonic qi flowed out of Zhao Fu's body. He felt an immense pain and hunger, as if he wanted to devour everything with demonic qi. He did not reply to the women and took out all items containing demonic qi from his spatial ring.

Anything that Zhao Fu could eat, he devoured, including demonic pills, demonic medicines, and demon beasts' blood and flesh. After devouring these things, Zhao Fu felt much more comfortable.

Facing the women's concerned gazes, Zhao Fu laughed and said, "It's nothing much, but I have to leave now and head to the Demon Domain."

Arasina frowned and asked, "Why is that?"

Zhao Fu smiled as he replied, "There's a Demon Star that urgently wants to descend. I need to find a large number of things that contain demonic qi, and I'll also take a look at the historical remnant in the Demon Domain."

Chapter 1447: Martial Arts Competition

Zhao Fu quickly started to prepare. He would be going to the Demon Domain in his real body and he did not know what would happen. Zhao Fu did not plan on bringing anyone; Gui Ji would be left to defend Great Qin, and Feng Wulin was to be kept as a secret trump card.

Arasina was responsible for defending Great Qin base in the Outer World. Those who were too weak would not be of any use, so Zhao Fu decided not to bring anyone.

Zhao Fu's destination was that historical remnant. Of course, Zhao Fu's primary goal was to obtain large amounts of things that contained demonic qi and awaken that impatient Demon Star. The historical remnant was just a bonus and if he could not find it, he would go somewhere else.

Before leaving, Zhao Fu made arrangements for the matters in Great Qin. All internal affairs were left to Li Si and all military matters were left to Bai Qi. When Zhao Fu was not around, the two of them often helped Zhao Fu take care of various matters, and he could greatly trust them.

The next day, Zhao Fu set out for the Demon Domain.

Because Great Qin was in the boundary region, it was countless worlds away from the Demon Domain. As such, just like his trip in the Underworld, he had to continuously travel and use teleportation channels.

Only after madly travelling for nearly ten days did Zhao Fu arrive at the inner Domains. The Heaven Awaken World was much bigger than the Underworld as it continuously grew by devouring other worlds.

Zhao Fu came to a City and was preparing to head on when he discovered a large group of people gathered together. Zhao Fu felt quite curious and went over, and he saw that it was a martial arts competition. He felt quite disappointed and was not interested in participating.

Just as he was about to leave, he heard that the prize was a precious map for treasures – it was said that it was the Demon King’s treasure trove.

Now, Zhao Fu was somewhat interested, and he was quite drawn by the words ‘Demon King.’ Zhao Fu needed large amounts of demonic qi, or else he would not come to the Demon Domain.

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out as a well-built young man punched another person off the stage, winning this round.

Within the inner Domains, Stage 8 and Stage 9 Cultivation were quite common and so was the Saint Realm. It was not like the outer Domains where someone of the Saint Realm was considered very strong.

That young man was quite powerful and was a Saint Realm expert. Zhao Fu planned to go up and obtain the treasure map – with his strength, he would definitely be able to obtain it.

However, after going up, he found that there were many restrictions, such as that the competitors had to be men not over 30 and could not be too ugly.

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised about these conditions but for the treasure trove map, he did not care too much.

“Sir, please take off your cloak so we can see your appearance,” a beautiful middle-aged woman smiled as she spoke to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu took off his cloak, revealing his peerlessly-handsome face and his extraordinary aura. The beautiful middle-aged woman’s eyes shined and the crowd cried out after seeing his appearance.

“Alright, I hereby announce that this sir is the winner of the martial arts competition!” The beautiful middle-aged woman loudly announced in delight.

This caused everyone to feel quite confused and no one accepted such a thing and yelled out.

“Isn’t this a martial arts competition? Just because that boy has good looks doesn’t mean he can win without fighting. Is this a martial arts competition or a fashion contest?”

“That’s right! That guy looks too good, and if it’s about looks, I admit defeat. However, this is a martial arts competition and I don’t accept such an outcome. Are those who are ugly meant to just stop living?”

“Hurry up and give us an explanation; why does he win without having to fight? If it’s just because he looks good, then what was this whole martial arts competition about?”

The well-built young man was also quite displeased, because winning this martial arts competition not only gave the treasure map but many other rewards. And yet, another person had just come up and taken these things without even fighting. How could he accept such a thing?

The beautiful middle-aged woman disdainfully laughed. She had already discovered that Zhao Fu’s cultivation was at the Earth Realm, and his aura was quite terrifying. He was definitely the most suitable person she had seen.

“Sir, do you mind competing with them?” the beautiful middle-aged woman asked, and Zhao Fu nodded. He now understood that the martial arts competition was not as simple as it seemed, but he did not yet know what it was about.

Following this, Zhao Fu came to the stage and looked at the well-built young man.

The young man met Zhao Fu’s gaze and could not help but feel nervous, and he felt a bit afraid. However, the people below were cheering for him and telling him to beat up that pretty boy.

With everyone cheering him on, the well-built young man found some confidence. He raised his fists and roared as he rushed at Zhao Fu. He punched out, causing the air to explode as a formless power ferociously smashed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu stood on the spot and casually waved his hand, and a massive power rushed out, not only destroying that formless power but also sending the young man flying off the stage. He was unable to resist at all.

The beautiful middle-aged woman stepped out and smiled as she said, “Now, no one has any objections, right?”

Everyone in the surroundings looked incredibly shocked; they had never expected Zhao Fu to be so strong; he could easily crush a Saint Realm expert. They naturally did not have any objections and no one dared to come up and challenge him.

“Where’s the prize? I’m quite busy so please give it to me as quickly as possible,” Zhao Fu said coldly as he looked at the beautiful middle-aged woman.

The beautiful middle-aged woman smiled and said, “Sir, please come with me.”

Following this, Zhao Fu came with the beautiful middle-aged woman into a room, where she gave him all of the rewards. Zhao Fu was quite pleased and put them all away, and he prepared to leave.

“Sir, are you interested in obtaining an astounding fortune?” the beautiful middle-aged woman asked with a smile as she said temptingly.

Zhao Fu knew that her aim was not simple, and he was only interested in the treasure map so he directly refused, “No, I’m not.”

The beautiful middle-aged woman was quite surprised and had never thought that someone who had come for the prize would not be interested in an astounding fortune. She thought about it before saying flirtatiously, “Sir, are you really not interested? Not only is it an astounding fortune, it comes with unrivaled authority.”

Zhao Fu shook his head. There was no such thing as a free lunch, and the bigger the gains, the bigger the risk would be. As such, Zhao Fu was not interested, and he turned to leave.

Seeing that such a suitable person was going to leave, it would be far too much of a pity. Time was also quite scarce, and if she missed out on this person, she definitely would not be able to find a next person.

Thinking about that, the beautiful middle-aged woman made up her mind. She hugged Zhao Fu's arm and rubbed herself against him as she said enchantingly, "Sir, don't be in such a hurry to go, please listen to my explanation first."

Zhao Fu stopped and decided to hear her out, and seeing this, the beautiful middle-aged woman smiled and started to take off Zhao Fu's clothes, after which loud sounds came out from the room.

Following this, the beautiful middle-aged woman lay within Zhao Fu's embrace and she panted as she said, "Sir, you're quite amazing; I never thought I would feel so good doing it with you; I feel as if I'm falling in love with you. Good thing that I gave my first time to you; in the future, I'll be yours."

Chapter 1448: Treasure Map

Zhao Fu's expression was quite calm as he asked, "Just what is it? Tell me first; you must have some other goal."

The beautiful middle-aged woman pouted and said, "Sir's really quite boring. In that case, I'll just tell you. In the Mountain River Kingdom, the Crown Princess is the heir to the throne, but because she has no husband, we are trying to find her a husband.

"There are all sorts of royals and nobles to choose from, and the current King wants them to have a competition and pick out the most excellent one to become the husband. Those people all come from various factions and want to control our Crown Princess to infiltrate the Royal Kingdom. More importantly, the Crown Princess does not want to get married right now, so she ordered me to find someone to act as her husband.

"That way, the Crown Princess will be in control of everything and won't be pried into by various factions. She will not have to truly marry and will just put on an act."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed; so it was just a fake marriage. The person she chose would naturally be controlled by her like a puppet; that was the Crown Princess' goal.

"In that case, I'm afraid I won't be able to agree because I'm just passing by and am not planning on staying long-term," Zhao Fu said as he looked at the beautiful middle-aged woman.

The beautiful lightly smiled as she replied, "I know that sir is not an ordinary person, so I would like to invite sir to discuss with our Crown Princess. There will be great benefits; sir, just trust me this once, okay?"

Zhao Fu thought to himself before agreeing. The Mountain River Kingdom was a very powerful Royal Kingdom in this area, and perhaps he would be able to obtain great gains.

The beautiful middle-aged woman happily kissed Zhao Fu and said, "Thank you sir. Also, my name is Hua Niang. After you've discussed with our Crown Princess, I will properly serve sir again."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and nodded.

Following this, Hua Niang led Zhao Fu through a secret passageway and came to a large hall within the royal palace. They could not allow anyone to know about this, so they had to act secretly.

There, Zhao Fu met the Crown Princess. She wore white clothes and was reading imperial memorials. She had a graceful figure and looked quite heroic. She gave off a powerful feeling and had Earth Realm Cultivation.

"Your Majesty, I've brought someone for you. I can guarantee that he is the most suitable person," Hua Niang smiled as she paid her respects and spoke.

The Crown Princess was called Shan Luoshui, and she raised her head and calmly looked at Zhao Fu. Seeing him, her expression slightly changed; Zhao Fu was not wearing his cloak and he did not cover up his aura, and Shan Luoshui's bloodline instinctively felt a trace of fear.

"Who are you?" Shan Luoshi's expression was serious as she coldly asked Zhao Fu.

Hua Niang had never thought that her mistress would suddenly become so serious. It seemed that Zhao Fu's identity was much more monstrous than she expected.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he replied, "You don't need to know who I am. I came here to pretend to be your husband and you don't have to worry about me because I'm just passing by. Now, I want to ask what benefits there are."

Shan Luoshui had never thought that Zhao Fu would be so direct, and after hearing Zhao Fu's goal, she breathed out and gave a trace of a smile as she said, "If I choose you to be my husband, with the intimidation from your bloodline, no one will dare to oppose this. I accept this deal. As for benefits, whatever you want, I will do my best to satisfy you."

Hearing Shan Luoshui's words, Zhao Fu thought of something and asked, "Whatever I want?"

Shan Luoshui nodded earnestly and reminded him, "Your request must be within my capabilities, or else I won't accept."

Zhao Fu smiled and asked, "What about sending soldiers to protect a Kingdom? It is also a Royal Kingdom and this matter should be within the Mountain River Kingdom's power."

Hearing this, Shan Luoshui fell silent for a moment before agreeing, and she said, "If it is within the Mountain River Kingdom's abilities, I will definitely help protect that Kingdom. However, I also have a condition, which is that you need to do whatever I ask of you later."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite delighted. In the future, Great Qin would have a Royal Kingdom protecting it and it would no longer have to fear the Wind God Empire.

As for Shan Luoshui's condition, Zhao Fu nodded and agreed.

Shan Luoshui looked at the red-faced Hua Ning and understood what had happened, and she said to Zhao Fu, "Hua Niang has served by my side for many years; I hope you can treat her well, or else I will not let you off."

Hua Niang's face reddened and she said, "Thank you, Your Majesty, for your care. Hua Niang is willing to stay by Your Majesty's side."

Zhao Fu was not surprised at Hua Niang's decision. After all, they had only just met and she could not just leave with him. Moreover, Zhao Fu was heading to the Demon Domain and could not bring her.

Shan Luoshui was slightly touched by Hua Niang's loyalty, and she softly laughed as she nodded.

Following this, Zhao Fu changed into exquisite clothes and came with Hua Luoshui to a large hall. The Ministers and Generals stood in orderly rows, and there sat a white-haired elder above, giving off a powerful aura. He was the Mountain River Kingdom's King, Shan Youtian.

"Father, he is the husband I have chosen. What are your thoughts?" Shan Luoshui gave a confident smile as she said loudly, not only for Shan Youtian but the Ministers and Generals as well.

Immediately, the Ministers and Generals were sent into an uproar. They had never thought that this man would become Shan Luoshui's husband and the Mountain River Kingdom's Consort.

Shan Youtian smiled as he examined Zhao Fu with his bright eyes, while Zhao Fu stood there neither overbearingly nor servilely.

Even despite Zhao Fu not revealing any aura, Shan Youtian could sense that Zhao Fu's bloodline was of an extremely high grade and his aura was quite dangerous. He was definitely a very terrifying person.

If this person was really willing to become his daughter's husband, it would naturally be incredibly good. However, if that person did not have good intentions, things would be quite dangerous.

"Sir, where are you from?" Shan Youtian smiled as he asked.

Zhao Fu did not reply and Shan Luoshui instead answered for him, "Don't worry, father, your daughter has already investigated this and we have been in love for many months. Father, don't worry about your daughter's marriage; we will hold our marriage in the next few days."

Shan Youtian was quite confident in his daughter, or else he would not hand the Royal Kingdom to her. Since she was sure about this, he would not interfere and smiled as he prepared to give his agreement.

Chapter 1449: Come At Me Together

Some people started to object, because they had been interested in the position of Shan Luoshui's husband for a long time. This was tied to great benefits, so they could not just give up like that.

“Your Majesty, this Minister believes that this person’s background is unclear and is not fit to be the King Consort.”

“Your Majesty, even though this person is abnormally handsome, he may not have true strength. Please reconsider, Your Majesty.”

“Your Majesty, this Minister believes that his son is far superior to this person and is more suitable to becoming the Crown Princess’ husband.”

Shan Luoshui had expected so many people to object, and was not too surprised. She smiled as she said, “How about we hold a competition then?”

The various Ministers and Generals hurriedly agreed, because that was precisely what they wanted.

Shan Luoshui looked at Zhao Fu and asked softly, “Are you confident?”

Zhao Fu nodded in response. He did not even fear the Heaven Domains’ geniuses, so he did not mind the talented people of this Royal Kingdom at all.

Following this, Zhao Fu came to an empty area outside of the palace, where there were six young men waiting. They were all quite handsome and had extraordinary bearings. Each of them were the most talented people in their families, people who countless people looked up to.

“Come at me together.” Zhao Fu stood there and said somewhat disdainfully.

Hearing those arrogant words, the six people felt quite angry and looked at each other as they exploded out with powerful auras and charged at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu took out the Sadistic Killing Sword and vigorously slashed, and a massive blood-red sword light shot out, bringing with it a ferocious wind as it rushed at the six people.

The six people were given a big shock and hurriedly unleashed their defensive barriers, but were still sent flying by that massive sword light and crashed 10 or so metres away, coughing up a large mouthful of blood.

Facing Zhao Fu, they seemed incredibly weak.

The Ministers and Generals were quite shocked. They knew that Zhao Fu had Earth Realm Cultivation, but the aura he gave off was like that of a World Realm expert's; it was incredibly shocking.

Shan Luoshui gave a confident smile, "Now, none of you have any objections right?"

Even though the Ministers and Generals were quite reluctant, they could only accept it because their people had attacked together, and yet had been instantly taken down. They did not have any face to say anything else.

Following this, the news of the Crown Princess getting married was spread, and the entire Mountain River Kingdom celebrated. There were lanterns and celebratory decorations hung everywhere.

Zhao Fu put on bridegroom clothes, which were red robes, and Shan Luoshui put on a red palace dress and had light makeup, making her look quite beautiful.

This was the first time Zhao Fu had officially married someone, and looking at the people everywhere and the lively atmosphere, Zhao Fu felt a bit nervous.

Zhao Fu and Shan Luoshui sat in a festive carriage which circled around the Royal City once so that they could receive the congratulations and blessings of the various residents. They then returned to the palace to pay their respects to Shan Luoshui's father and mother.

Shan Youtian officially made Zhao Fu his son-in-law and Shan Luoshui's husband.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out; the instant that Shan Youtian made this all official, Zhao Fu's body gave off platinum-coloured light as a platinum-coloured Dragon Phoenix rushed out of Zhao Fu's body and gave off a powerful aura as it flew into the sky, causing abnormal signs.

The people in the surroundings looked at the Dragon Phoenix in shock, and this included Shan Luoshui. She never thought that Zhao Fu would have the highest grade of Dragon Phoenix.

As the next Queen of the Mountain River Kingdom, Shan Luoshui could clearly sense that the Mountain River Kingdom's Fate had increased and was quickly becoming purer and more stable.

She found that her Fate was also quickly going through transformations. A formless Heaven and Earth Power flowed into her body, causing her constitution to start to go through changes as well, and a massive Queen's aura flowed out.

This was the terrifying effects of a top-tier Dragon Phoenix, and this was why Feng Qianghua was so determined to obtain Zhao Fu.

Shan Youtian originally felt quite wary of Zhao Fu's identity, but seeing this Dragon Phoenix, he looked delighted and never thought that his daughter would be so lucky as to obtain a top-tier Dragon Phoenix. Even most Empires did not have one.

Zhao Fu never thought that such a thing would happen. After the abnormal signs settled, everyone's attitudes towards Zhao Fu became much better. At the banquet, they all came to toast Zhao Fu and said all kinds of congratulatory words.

Finally, it was time to go to the bridal room. Zhao Fu pushed open the doors and walked in, and Shan Luoshui was already sitting on the bed waiting for him.

Just as Zhao Fu walked in, Shan Luoshui spoke, "I have matters to discuss with you; close the door first."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu nodded and close the doors.

A trace of a smile appeared on Shan Luoshui's face as she said happily, "I never thought that you would have a top-tier Dragon Phoenix; this is incredibly important to the Mountain River Kingdom and to myself. I want you to become my permanent husband; I'll agree to anything you want."

Zhao Fu thought about it and said, "Only if it's husband and wife in name only, and you won't interfere in my matters or restrict my freedom."

Shan Luoshui smiled and nodded.

Zhao Fu then continued, “You must also do what I requested of you before. Also, I can only stay here for another two days; after two days I will leave.”

After thinking about it, Shan Luoshui agreed to this as well.

Zhao Fu nodded in satisfaction. With the Mountain River Kingdom’s help, the Great Qin will become much safer.

“This is for you, you sleep on the ground.” Shan Luoshui handed a blanket to Zhao Fu and said somewhat embarrassedly.

Zhao Fu felt quite frustrated as he received the blanket; it was the first time he had been treated like this.

There were no female attendants; Shan Luoshui had told them all to leave. Shan Luoshui lay on the bed and covered herself and prepared to sleep.

Zhao Fu placed the blanket on the table and sat on a chair, entering a Cultivation state.

The next day, Zhao Fu followed the customs of the Mountain River Kingdom and went to see some seniors. He was shocked to discover that the Mountain River Kingdom had seven Emperor Heaven Realm experts, and one expert who was at the peak of the Emperor Heaven Realm.

At night, Zhao Fu returned to the room. However, Shan Luoshui was not there, and instead Hua Niang sat there flirtatiously looking at him. Zhao Fu grinned and the two of them did not say anything before starting to do it intensely.

“I’m sorry, sir, I really want to leave with you, but I can’t leave the Crown Princess either,” Hua Niang said apologetically as she lay in Zhao Fu’s arms.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he said, “Then just remember that you’re my woman and don’t let anyone else touch you.”

Hua Niang affectionately hugged Zhao Fu with both arms. “Sir, my body has been yours since long ago and I won’t let anyone else touch me. If you want it, I can serve you at any time.”

Zhao Fu hugged Hua Niang and smiled as he nodded.

The next day, Zhao Fu left the palace and headed towards the Demon King's treasure trove, as it was quite close to the Mountain River Kingdom.

Chapter 1450: Demonic Items

Hua Niang had already told Zhao Fu everything about this treasure map. She had obtained it by chance and she could not confirm if there really was a treasure trove. It seemed that there were ten or so copies of this treasure chest, so she warned Zhao Fu to be careful.

Zhao Fu kept this in mind and cautiously headed to the location of the treasure trove. There was a big mountain here, below which was a small town called the Demon King Town.

It was said that there was a powerful Demon King sealed within the mountain. That Demon King was said to be extremely terrifying and loved to eat people. The big mountain was a forbidden area for the town, and those who went there would disappear, so no one dared to go there.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu decided to cautiously head to the mountain.

After stepping onto the mountain, Zhao Fu's sharp senses noticed traces of demonic qi rising up from the ground. Even though he was not sure if there really was a treasure trove here, there was definitely something containing large amounts of demonic qi here.

A few wild beasts ran at Zhao Fu from the side, and Zhao Fu casually sent out a few sword lights and killed them.

These wild beasts' eyes were red and looked quite savage. Their bodies gave off faint demonic qi, and they had most likely been demonified by the demonic qi.

Zhao Fu did not pay much mind to them because they were quite weak. He took out the map and started to look for the entrance to the treasure trove, and he soon found a hidden cave.

This cave was under a mountain stream, and if he had not been looking around carefully, he would not have been able to find it. There was a lot of demonic qi within the cave and it was completely dark inside, giving off a hair-raising sensation.

Zhao Fu now became more careful because he found signs of other people coming here before. There had been people who had arrived before him.

Zhao Fu did not want anyone else to obtain the treasures, so he did not hesitate and entered the cave.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” Demonic creatures charged out with terrifying power and ferociously rushed at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu felt that they were octopus-like creatures and had skinny bodies. Their eyes were red and gave off faint light, and they had two tentacles that had bone spikes at the end of them that could be used to attack.

Zhao Fu’s expression was calm as he held the Sadistic Killing Sword and walked forwards, sending out sharp blood-red sword light.

After being hit by the blood-red sword light, the demonic creatures gave off pained howls and split apart. Black blood sprayed everywhere; under Zhao Fu’s sword, they were unable to resist at all. Even if they attacked with their tentacles, they were unable to touch Zhao Fu at all and were all slashed apart.

Soon, all of the demonic creatures rushing out had been cleared out by Zhao Fu and Zhao Fu felt quite disappointed. These demonic creatures were so weak, meaning that the things here would not be too valuable.

After all, the more valuable the treasures were, the more powerful the monsters guarding them would be. These demonic creatures evidently were not very strong, but it could also be because he was too strong.

Zhao Fu continued onwards and found some bloody traces. These did not come from demonic creatures but from a group of people. There were many bloody marks, meaning that a few of them were injured.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu felt much more at ease. People who were injured dealing with monsters like these would be quite weak as well, and they would not be a match for him. There was no need for Zhao Fu to be overly cautious, so he increased his speed.

Following this, Zhao Fu came to a large space that was a few hundred meters wide. The walls were all made of black rock and there were many demonic creatures' corpses everywhere, giving off a dense bloody smell.

There was not anything here; anything of value had most likely been taken by the group ahead of him. Just as Zhao Fu was about to continue onwards, some noise sounded out from behind him.

A group of people walked out, seven in total. There were four men and three women. Of the four men, one looked valiant, one had a gloomy and cold aura, one was quite muscular, and one was a young boy.

Of the three women, one had a voluptuous figure and a seductive aura, one had white skin and had a gentle aura and seemed like a big sister, and one was a young girl who seemed quite domineering.

The demonic creatures had been killed by the first group and Zhao Fu had dealt with the remaining ones, so this later group had been able to easily make it here.

“Did you kill those demonic creatures? Also, what treasures did you obtain? Hand them over,” the domineering young girl pointed at Zhao Fu and said loudly.

Zhao Fu slightly frowned, seeming quite displeased.

The valiant-looking young man who seemed to be the leader hurriedly said apologetically, “My Junior Apprentice Sister is quite spoiled; please don't mind her, brother.”

The young girl unhappily pouted because she felt that there was no need to be afraid of Zhao Fu who was by himself. Moreover, he had definitely obtained something, and all they had to do was snatch it.

The big sister-like woman stopped the young girl from saying any more because she could tell that Zhao Fu was quite dangerous and could be much more powerful than them. If they started fighting, their side would most likely lose.

Zhao Fu also had an idea. It would be better to follow behind the first group and then snatch everything they had obtained. However, he was also worried that there were exits from which they could leave; if that was the case, he would have waited for nothing. After thinking about it, Zhao Fu decided not to pay any mind to these people and continue onwards.

This attitude caused the group to feel quite dissatisfied, and the gloomy-looking young man said, “This person is too full of himself; does he think we’re people who can be casually offended?”

The domineering young girl said angrily, “We should have killed him just then and taken what he had. That way, we wouldn’t have to be annoyed by him.”

“That person’s very strong and we might have lost. It’s best not to offend him,” the valiant-looking young man said with a serious expression.

“Mm, I think things are better this way,” the big sister-like woman said.

Hearing her agree, the valiant-looking young man looked at her happily, while the woman turned her face away, turning a bit red. They seemed to like each other but had never made things clear.

“What should we do now? We came for that treasure trove but if that person takes everything good, conflicts are bound to happen,” the muscular young man suddenly said, breaking the mood. Everyone else agreed – they could not just hand over the treasures to someone else, and the two sides would definitely fight, unless that person was incredibly powerful.

The seductive woman said, “We should follow him for now. With him killing the monsters ahead, we won’t face any danger. That way, we can also scope his strength. If he finds something good, we’ll wait for an opportunity to act.”

Everyone else agreed, and they followed Zhao Fu through the passageway.

Zhao Fu naturally sensed the group of people following behind him. A trace of a cold smile appeared on his face, but he did not mind too much.
