

The Lord 1561

Chapter 1561: Totem Pole

Niu Doudou was relatively daring and direct. She stepped forwards and hugged Zhao Fu's arm as she said to the valiant-looking Minotaur, "Wu In, this is my man now, so our engagement is cancelled. Also, my body is his."

The Minotaur City Lord looked at his wife's guilty but resolute gaze and he sighed. He was no longer as angry, and he seemed to age a few years as he said, "You can all leave! I hope he treats you well."

Niu Liuyun's eyes danced with tears as she looked at her husband. She looked quite disturbed and wanted to go over and comfort him. They had been together for many years, and they had deep feelings for each other.

However, an arm brought her into a warm embrace, and smelling that man's scent, Niu Liuyun's face became slightly red. She thought of the scenes of her and Zhao Fu doing it, and her wavering heart became resolute again.

The valiant-looking Minotaur looked furious as he said, "Dou'Er, what's so good about him? Look at how skinny and short he is; how can he compare to me?"

To the two meter tall Minotaurs, Zhao Fu's stature was indeed quite short. Moreover, he was quite slender and did not have enormous muscles like the Minotaurs, making him look quite skinny.

Niu Doudou lightly harrumphed and said, "He's not a Minotaur so don't use Minotaur standards to judge him. He's hundreds of times stronger than you, and you're not a match for him at all."

The valiant-looking Minotaur was unconvinced and said, "Alright, I request a competition with him then. Whoever wins will take you."

Niu Doudou replied good-naturedly, "You're really not a match for him; don't make things difficult for yourself."

However, this made the valiant-looking Minotaur even angrier and he exploded out with a powerful aura as he roared at Zhao Fu, “I want to challenge you!”

Zhao Fu looked quite disdainful and stepped out as a powerful aura exploded out like a flood. Countless people felt as if they had fallen into icy water, and their bodies uncontrollably trembled.

“What terrifying power!”

Everyone’s faces became pale as they retreated and looked at Zhao Fu with shock. With his power, he could completely suppress them.

The valiant-looking young man lost all of his confidence. Now, he knew that what Niu Doudou had said was true – he did not stand a chance.

Niu Doudou pulled Zhao Fu’s arm and said softly, “Please don’t harm him!”

Zhao Fu nodded; in actuality, he did not intend to attack. He knew that Niu Doudou still had feelings for that man.

The Minotaur City Lord looked at Zhao Fu and the women and asked, “When will you be leaving? Niu Dongni is still locked up and you can take her as well. Also, if you’re not in a rush, you can stay for a bit longer and I’ll hold a banquet to send you off.”

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised; the Minotaur City Lord’s attitude was too courteous. After all, he had taken his wife and two daughters.

The valiant-looking Minotaur suddenly called out, “Even though you’re powerful, if you don’t treat Dou’Er well, I definitely won’t let you off.”

Zhao Fu could not help but lightly laugh, and he did not reject the Minotaur City Lord’s offer to hold a banquet.

At the banquet, everyone forgot about the matters from before and celebrated happily. Niu Dongni was also let out, and she happily hugged Zhao Fu.

The Minotaur City Lord and the valiant-looking Minotaur came up to Zhao Fu to toast him and asked him to look after the women. They could only sigh and admit their inferiority to Zhao Fu; they could not give the women what they wanted.

Seeing that their attitude was quite good, Zhao Fu gave them some good things, such as recovery items, powerful Arts, and rare equipment. This made the two Minotaurs feel incredibly grateful to Zhao Fu and felt like he was a brother.

From all of this, Zhao Fu gained a better understanding of the Minotaurs' nature. If they were human, they most likely would have fought him with their lives on the line.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu chatted with the City Lord and found out that the Minotaur City had an Ancestral Altar that could give Ancestral Power. That was the reason why the Minotaurs here were quite strong.

Zhao Fu felt quite interested and asked the City Lord to take him there.

Following this, they came to a very large stage. There was a 100 meter tall wooden pole at the center, on which countless Minotaurs were carved. They all looked incredibly lifelike, and they were fighting, roaring, or talking. The wooden pole gave off a simple but powerful aura.

Zhao Fu asked the Minotaur City Lord if outsiders could receive the Minotaur's Ancestral Power, and the Minotaur City Lord's reply made Zhao Fu feel pleasantly surprised.

"It's possible! Brother, I'll help you collect blood from all of the Minotaurs to activate the Totem Pole's power and give you the strongest Ancestral Power."

Zhao Fu thanked the Minotaur City Lord and gave him even more good things, and the Minotaur City Lord became even happier to help him.

A while later, the Minotaur City Lord had collected countless Minotaurs' blood and brought a Minotaur shaman to give Zhao Fu the Ancestral power.

Massive barrels of blood were placed around the stage and an elderly Minotaur wearing all sorts of decorations and holding a wooden staff came to the center and started to chant. The wooden barrels gave off faint lights and a formless energy spread out.

The blood within the barrels seemed to be attracted by the energy, turned into pillars of blood, and flowed into the massive wooden pole.

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as the enormous wooden pole burst forth with a terrifying aura and gave off a bronze light that covered the surroundings. The Minotaurs on the pole seemed to come to life and left the wooden pole, turning into images in the air.

Countless traces of Heaven and Earth Power quickly gathered and entered those Minotaurs' bodies. As they absorbed the Heaven and Earth Power, the Minotaur images gave off powerful auras.

The Minotaur shaman cried out, "This person in front of me is an esteemed guest of our Minotaur Race. Great Ancestor, please grant him your power."

As he spoke, the Minotaur images in the air flooded into Zhao Fu, causing him to explode out with a powerful aura and for intense bronze light to shine out of him.

Zhao Fu absorbed the Minotaur Ancestral Power and quickly refined it, fusing it with his own power.

At that moment, Zhao Fu felt some pain on his back as a Minotaur totem gradually appeared on his back. The abnormal signs disappeared and Zhao Fu's aura now contained a trace of the Minotaurs' aura.

After successfully obtaining the Ancestral Power, Zhao Fu grinned.

Following this, Zhao Fu thanked the Minotaur City Lord and stayed overnight with the merchant group and left the next day.

When leaving, the Minotaur City Lord and the valiant-looking Minotaur were quite reluctant to part with Zhao Fu. They had established a deep friendship and they once again reminded him to take care of their women.

Chapter 1562: Wolfmen

The merchant group continued on their way and the scene within the carriage was incredibly erotic. Zhao Fu tasted the different women, and he particularly liked Niu Liuyun and her two daughters.

The previous night, after obtaining the Minotaurs' Ancestral Power and seeing how courteous the City Lord had been, Zhao Fu could not bring himself to touch the mother and daughters. Now that they had left the Minotaur Forest, the three women became incredibly assertive and looked incredibly lewd.

After enjoying their bodies, Zhao Fu hugged the women and leisurely looked at the scenery out the window. Their travels felt quite free and at ease.

After traveling for a day, the merchant group came to a lush green plains. There seemed to be green grass everywhere and no trees could be seen, though there were many large rocks. The blue was azure and there were a few white clouds floating, creating a beautiful scene.

“Awoo!” “Awoo!” “Awoo!”

A few wolves' cries sounded out from the distance, and Zhao Fu felt quite startled. Hu Shan leaned against him in his embrace and explained, “Husband, this is the territory of the Wolfmen. Their noses are incredibly sensitive, and we need to be careful as we proceed.”

Zhao Fu hugged her as he smiled and asked, “If this route is dangerous, why did you choose to take it?”

Hu Shan sighed as she said, “It's because there are massive gains to be made here. Normal goods can be sold at ten or so times the normal price. Normally, if people are attacked, they will hand over money to escape trouble. Even though this will cut their gains by a lot, at least they will not be in danger.

“Of course, if we meet any races that do not follow the laws, things will become quite dangerous. They like killing and pillaging and have no morals to speak of.”

Zhao Fu smiled as he said, “Then don’t take this route after this time. With me here, you won’t have to worry about anything.”

Hu Shan gave a happy smile and sweetly hugged Zhao Fu.

Niu Liuyun kissed Zhao Fu and said shyly, “Sir, meeting you was such a blessing; I just regret not meeting you earlier. That way, I could have experienced this kind of pleasure earlier.”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he said, “I think meeting you at this point in time was perfect; I also like your two daughters, especially your oldest daughter, who is quite sensible.”

Niu Liuyun’s face became quite red and she lightly hit Zhao Fu as she said shyly, “Sir, you’re so bad.”

Niu Doudou, who was serving Zhao Fu below, also glared at him.

“Awoo!”

Another wolf’s cry sounded out, and it was quite close to the merchant group. They soon heard sounds of fighting, and this caused the merchant group to warily stop.

The captain of the merchant group’s guards shouted, “Everyone be careful!”

The merchant group’s guards stood by the goods and got into formation to prepare to defend against any danger.

By now, they could see Wolfmen, who had wolves’ heads and humanoid bodies. They had either gray or bronze-colored fur, and they were chasing after ten or so Wolfmen.

These ten or so Wolfmen looked different than ordinary Wolfmen and seemed to be half-Wolfmen. They had human faces but wolves’ ears and a wolf’s tail.

This group was currently running towards the merchant group.

They were sure that they could not throw off their pursuers; only by running to the merchant group would they have a trace of hope in surviving.

Zhao Fu naturally saw this and he felt slightly displeased because they were bringing trouble to the merchant group. Now that the merchant group was going to be discovered by those Wolfmen, they would most likely be attacked.

A while later, the escaping half-Wolfmen reached the merchant group.

Zhao Fu stood at the front of the merchant group and looked at the ten or so half-Wolfmen. There were 12 guards, two women, and a five or six year old boy.

Of the two women, one had a seductive figure and alluring looks, and her wolf ears and tail were white. The other had a slim figure but very large breasts, and she was incredibly beautiful. She had a gentle and prestigious aura.

The alluring woman said pitifully, "Sir, please save us. In the future, we'll do all we can to repay you. I know that we've brought trouble to you, but if you don't save us, we'll definitely die here. Please, sir!"

Zhao Fu looked at these two half-Wolfmen women with a look of interest. The two women's faces became slightly red, and the alluring woman flirtatiously looked at Zhao Fu in response.

"Don't see your own deaths! They're people who Azure Wolf City want to kill," a Wolfman missing an eye coldly called out after the pursuing Wolfmen arrived.

Facing the 500 or so Wolfmen, the captain of the guards did not show any fear because of the existence of a terrifying person like Zhao Fu. He smiled as he explained to Zhao Fu, "Sir, Azure Wolf City is one of the three Wolfmen Cities here, and it is the strongest one."

The alluring woman was afraid that Zhao Fu would refuse to protect them out of fear of Azure Wolf City and quickly said, "Sir, we are the wives of White Wolf City's City Lord. Now that White Wolf City has been destroyed, we could only run away. If sir is willing to save us, not only will we serve sir, but we will also give all of our treasures to sir."

Zhao Fu naturally would not fear any local factions. In Zhao Fu's eyes, they were all far too weak. Even if the alluring woman did not say this, Zhao Fu would still agree to help them because he wanted to taste these two beautiful half-Wolfmen women.

"Come in!" Zhao Fu had the guard formation open a gap. The two beautiful women looked delighted and quickly brought the others into the formation.

The Wolfman was furious and called out, "You're seeking your own deaths! Don't forget that this is the Wolfmen territory just because you have 1,000 people. Anyone who offends Azure Wolf City will all die. Send a few people back to report; the rest of you, kill!"

The Azure Wolf City's Wolfmen ferociously charged at the merchant group; they were more seasoned than ordinary soldiers.

Shing!

Suddenly, a sword hum sounded out as Zhao Fu casually slashed out with a sword. A sharp sword arc slashed out, chopping off the heads of all of the incoming Wolfmen and causing blood to spurt everywhere.

The scene fell into a deathly silence as the Wolfmen who had been sent to report back stared in confusion. They did not dare to believe what they had just seen; a few hundred Wolfmen had been killed in an instant.

The merchant group was not shocked at all and instead gave confident smiles. This was their Madam's man, an incredibly terrifying existence.

This place was only the outer boundaries of the Outlander Domain and they did not know Zhao Fu's true identity, much less that Zhao Fu had shaken the entire Heaven Domain. Almost everyone knew about him by now.

Chapter 1563: Wolf City Jade

Zhao Fu did not attack the people who were sent back to report. Zhao Fu looked at the captain next to him, and he understood and brought his men to give chase and kill the remaining Wolfmen.

The two beautiful women and their guards watched this scene in shock. They felt that Zhao Fu was simply too terrifying; he had killed 500 soldiers instantly with a single strike. Even someone in the Saint Realm would not be able to do something like this.

Immediately, they felt quite delighted. If Zhao Fu was so powerful, they would not have to worry about any danger and they would be able to stay alive.

Zhao Fu's gaze fell on the two beautiful women as he lightly smiled and said, "Come with me!"

The two beautiful women shyly nodded. The gentle-looking woman gave the little boy to their guards to look after; the guards naturally knew what Zhao Fu was going to do, which was have his way with the two women.

However, the little boy did not understand and seeing his mother leave, he called out, "Mother, where are you going?"

The gentle-looking woman's face went red; she naturally could not say that she was going to do it with someone other than his father. As such, she could only say, "Ling'Er, wait here; mother will be back soon. This sir just wants to play a game with mother."

Hearing that they were going to play a game, the little boy excitedly called out, "Mother, I want to play as well!"

The gentle-looking woman shyly replied, "You can only play after you've grown up. You're still too young, so listen to mother and stay here, okay?"

The little boy looked quite disappointed but he still nodded.

Following this, he saw his mother and second madam enter an exquisite-looking carriage. His mother and second madam soon started to cry out happily and excitedly.

The little boy felt that the game they were playing was very fun, or else his mother and the second madam would not be so happy. He longed to grow up to play this game as well.

Zhao Fu looked down at the two lewd women beneath him and smiled as he had a good taste of them. He also played with their wolf ears and tail, making them even more excited.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged the two women and learned of their names. The alluring woman was called Lang Mi while the gentle-looking woman was called Lang Xiaorou.

Lang Mi lay in Zhao Fu's embrace and panted as she said, "Sir, you're so powerful, many times more so than our deceased husband. Now, we feel like we've taken advantage of you."

Lang Xiaorou's face was completely red and she nodded. She had only served Zhao Fu out of gratitude, and she had never thought that she would feel such pleasure. She also had never thought that she had such a lewd side; she could not face the little boy or his father.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he said, "Then make sure you serve me well in the future. Also, what treasures do you have?"

In order to awaken the Outlander Emperor Star, Zhao Fu was interested in everything because anything could provide him with a great opportunity.

Lang Xiaorou took out a piece of white, wolf-shaped jade and said, "Sir, this is a Wolf City Jade and is the command medallion for a historical remnant. The two other Cities also have command medallions like this, and if you gather all three command medallions, you can open a lost Wolfman God Palace once every year.

"This command medallion was why those people from Azure Wolf City were chasing after us. Now that sir has saved us, we will give this Wolf City Jade to you."

Zhao Fu took the jade and looked at it, and he felt that he now had something to do.

Zhao Fu gave Hu Shan and Niu Liuyun a few Darkness Command Medallions, and he asked where the two other Cities were before turning into a ray of light and shooting off.

Lang Xiaorou and Lang Mi guessed that Zhao Fu had gone to steal the two other command medallions and said worriedly, "Sir will be facing countless people from two Cities; will he be in danger?"

The other women laughed as they said, “You don’t know how powerful our husband is; with his power, destroying two Cities will be no problem at all.”

This made Lang Xiaorou and Lang Mi feel quite delighted; they would finally be able to get their revenge.

Boom!

Within Azure Wolf City, a massive explosion sounded out as a terrifying aura spread out, sweeping through the entire City. Countless people looked terrified, not understanding what had happened.

A ferocious-looking big Wolfman led an army over with an unsightly expression and called out, “Who are you, sir? Why have you descended so domineeringly above our City?”

Zhao Fu coldly laughed as he said, “Dead people don’t need to know!”

The ferocious-looking big Wolfman felt quite startled and loudly gave the order to attack. Arrows quickly shot towards Zhao Fu and sword lights and saber lights also flew towards him.

Zhao Fu turned into a ray of light and looked quite disdainful as he slashed out with his sword. An enormous blood-red sword light shot out with terrifying power, hacking apart the incoming arrows, sword lights, and saber lights, and it blasted into the army. Countless people were chopped into pieces and cries sounded out.

The ferocious-looking big Wolfman’s face paled and understood that even the whole City added together would not be a match for Zhao Fu. He immediately gave the order for the soldiers to charge up while he quickly ran away.

Countless soldiers roared and rushed at Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu slashed out another sword light that easily cut their bodies apart without any resistance, dyeing the ground red.

Just like that, 70,000 or 80,000 soldiers were killed by Zhao Fu, creating a bloody and gory scene.

Zhao Fu caught up with the escaping ferocious-looking Wolfman and said condescendingly, “Did you really think you could escape?”

The ferocious-looking Wolfman furiously roared and exploded out with all of his power as he rushed at Zhao Fu. It was a pity that Zhao Fu casually thrust out and pierced through his chest, killing him instantly.

The remaining people looked terrified and either madly tried to escape or knelt down and kowtowed, showing that they were willing to submit. The City was in utter chaos and all sorts of crying and howling continuously sounded out.

The most powerful Wolfmen City had fallen just like that in front of absolute power, without any ability to resist.

Zhao Fu searched the ferocious-looking Wolfman's body and found a Wolf City Jade. He disregarded the other Wolfmen and came to the City Hall to have a good taste of the City Lord's wife before he left, but he found that the City Lord was not interested in women.

As such, Zhao Fu felt slightly disappointed and left for the last Wolfmen City.

News of Azure Wolf City being destroyed quickly spread to here, and countless Wolfmen gathered together and held weapons, looking serious as they prepared to defend against that terrifying expert.

By now, the Wolfmen all felt incredibly unsettled; they did not know if they could resist that expert. It was said that the Azure Wolf City's 70,000 or 80,000 soldiers had been instantly slaughtered by that expert, so they could only hope that that expert would not come.

Chapter 1564: Altar

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as a terrifying aura caused everyone in the City to feel as if they had fallen into icy water. Their bodies uncontrollably trembled and felt despair.

Countless people looked up at the figure in the sky in terror, who seemed like a death god.

Zhao Fu stood in the air and found that the City Lord was a beautiful woman with a bewitching figure. She had a pair of black wolf ears and tail, and her hair was also black. She had a proud aura and was not weak.

However, everyone seemed like an ant in front of him, and Zhao Fu domineeringly called out, “Will you submit to me or will you all be slaughtered by me?”

Facing Zhao Fu’s overbearing words, the people did not feel angry and instead felt terrified. This person could easily slaughter them, and countless people looked to their City Lord.

Sensing everyone’s gazes, the proud-looking woman’s expression became quite unsightly and after thinking about it, she lowered her head and kneeled down as she said, “We are willing to submit!”

Seeing their City Lord kneel, the other Wolfmen also knelt.

Zhao Fu gave a pleased smile and flew to the ground. He landed in front of the beautiful, proud-looking woman and lifted up her beautiful face.

The proud-looking woman felt quite angry but was also terrified of Zhao Fu, so she did not resist and could only glare at him.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled as he hugged her and walked into a room, and he started to do it with her.

The Wolfmen in the surroundings were terrified and could only suppress their anger as they watched their City Lord be ravaged by this man.

However, in the next moment their City Lord’s lewd voice sounded out, and their anger disappeared. They could all tell that their City Lord was greatly enjoying being ravaged by that man and was almost going mad. None of them had thought that their beautiful City Lord would act like this.

Hearing her lewd voice, everyone thought of her proud-looking face and their bodies could not help but react, and all of them felt embarrassed staying here.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu touched Lang Qili, the City Lord, and he lightly laughed as he said, “You actually dared to bite me.”

Lang Qili glared at Zhao Fu and said, “Who told you to violate me and not go easy on me at all. Can’t I bite you? Also, it was too pleasurable and I couldn’t help myself.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and let her go.

Lang Qili’s face was red as she lay on Zhao Fu’s chest and she asked, “Where did you come from, you bad guy? Why did you suddenly start a massacre in this area? I don’t think we’ve offended any bad people.”

Zhao Fu explained the situation and Lang Qili understood. She took out a Wolf City Jade, and this one was black.

Now that he had collected the three jades, Zhao Fu got up and planned to head to the Wolfman God Palace.

Lang Qili felt quite displeased as she said, “You’re leaving right after collecting the three jades? Can’t you spend some more time with me?”

Zhao Fu smiled and hugged her as he said, “Then you come with me!”

Lang Qili felt quite pleased and nodded, and she smiled as she leaned against Zhao Fu in his embrace. They then came to a shabby stage that was surrounded by ruined buildings.

Zhao Fu stood on the stage and tossed the three pieces of jade into the air. The three pieces of jade gave off intense lights and fused together, forming a ten meter wide ring of light, through which they could see the scenery of another place.

Now that the Wolfman God Palace was opened, Zhao Fu hugged Lang Qili and flew into it.

The two of them came to a dark corridor, and there were traces of fighting here. There were corpses and blood; the Wolfmen of the three Cities had come to the Wolfman God Palace before and had obtained great benefits. However, with their strength, they had not been able to fully explore it.

Zhao Fu and Lang Qili did not bother going through the explored places as that would be a waste of time; they directly came to a large hall.

This place was 10,000 meters wide and there were three meter tall Wolfmen. They were different from ordinary Wolfmen and seemed to have gone crazy. Their expressions were incredibly savage, and their eyes were blood-red. Their hands were like claws and they all gave off terrifying auras.

Zhao Fu did not feel afraid at all. He had Lang Qili wait here while he went up confidently by himself.

“Awoo! Awoo! Awoo...” Upon discovering Zhao Fu, the countless Wolfmen gave furious roars and ferociously charged at him. Zhao Fu held his sword as he charged at the Wolfmen, and as he slashed out, a sharp sword light killed a few Wolfmen.

Zhao Fu seemed as if he was taking a stroll among the Wolfmen, and none of them were able to harm him at all, whereas his sword continuously sent out sword lights that killed the incoming Wolfmen.

Zhao Fu dealt with them quickly, and soon the ground was covered with Wolfmen’s corpses. Lang Qili looked at Zhao Fu with a worshipping gaze; she knew how dangerous this place was, and yet Zhao Fu had dealt with it so easily.

They pushed open a door and continued onwards and found a nine meter tall tree. The tree’s trunk and branches were black, and the leaves were violet-colored. It had red, fist-sized fruits and seeing this, Lang Qili said in delight, “These are holy fruits to Wolfmen, and they are called Wolfman God Fruits. They are incredibly useful to Wolfmen and can raise our bloodline, power, and aptitude.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and took a Wolfman God Fruit and tossed it to Lang Qili before digging up the entire tree and putting it into his spatial ring and continuing onwards.

As they walked, Lang Qili happily ate the Wolfman God Fruit while leaning against Zhao Fu. She felt that her body and soul truly liked Zhao Fu now.

Following this, the two of them encountered another group of crazed Wolfmen. They were many times more of them than before, but in the face of Zhao Fu’s immense power, they all turned into corpses, and blood covered the corridor.

After killing this wave of Wolfmen, Zhao Fu was quite delighted to find an altar. For Outlanders, they not only used altars to make sacrifices to godly spirits and their ancestors, but the altars often had special abilities.

Zhao Fu looked at the altar's information and found that it could give the Berserker Wolfman Bloodline. This was most likely the bloodline that those crazed Wolfmen had, and one had to be a Wolfman and it could only convert a few per day.

Zhao Fu thought about it and cut open the altar and found a blood-red crystal in the center. This crystal was the Berserker Wolfman Bloodline Crystal.

Chapter 1565: Wolfman God Palace

Seeing this crystal, Zhao Fu smiled and put it away. After exploring the Wolfman God Palace he would fuse with the Berserker Wolfman Bloodline Crystal.

The power that this Berserker Wolfman Bloodline Crystal gave off was massive, and anyone who fused with it would be dozens of times more powerful than the Berserker Wolfmen from before. That was why Zhao Fu wanted to obtain this – only by fusing with things like this would he be able to awaken an Outlander Emperor Star.

Following this, Zhao Fu led Lang Qili forwards. Finally, the two of them came to the main palace hall. This place had a 20 meter tall demon wolf with three heads guarding it. The demon wolf gave off a powerful aura and was even more powerful than a Saint Realm Cultivator.

However, that was all, and it could not pose any danger to Zhao Fu. After all, just Zhao Fu's cultivation alone was at the Heaven Realm.

“Awoo!” The three-headed demon wolf gave off a terrifying aura as it ferociously charged at Zhao Fu and Lang Qili, bringing with it an air of suppression.

Lang Qili felt quite afraid facing this terrifying demon wolf, but she felt safe within Zhao Fu's embrace. She lightly hugged Zhao Fu and gave a beautiful smile.

Facing the incoming demon wolf, Zhao Fu did not even move and looked quite relaxed as he stretched out a hand and pointed it towards the demon wolf as the golden pupil in his left eye quickly spun.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sounds of chains rang out as chains containing enormous power shot towards the demon wolf and bound it up. The demon wolf furiously struggled but was unable to break free at all, and its three heads glared at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not kill this demon wolf as he felt that it would be quite good to tame it and have it pull the carriage for them. As he had gathered more and more women, the carriage had become quite cramped, and he considered switching to a bigger carriage.

Zhao Fu pushed open the final door and saw that within a large hall, there was only a three meter tall statue at the center.

This statue was of an extremely beautiful woman with a seductive figure. She had a pair of wolf ears and a wolf tail and looked quite wild. The statue was made of stone and had a powerful godly spirit aura.

“Those who disturb Our slumber... deserve death!” Just as Zhao Fu was about to approach, a cry sounded out as the statue gave off an intense silver light. A woman who looked the same as the statue with silver hair appeared, and she fiercely glared at Zhao Fu as she turned into a black blur and rushed at Zhao Fu.

The woman arrived before Zhao Fu in the blink of an eye and her hands turned into sharp claws and gave off enormous power as they clawed at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked quite derisive, and before the claws could reach him, he punched out at the woman’s chest and a muffled explosion sounded out. The woman was sent flying back ten or so meters and crashed to the ground, a trace of blood leaking out of her lips.

“You only have such measly strength and yet dare to be so arrogant in front of this Emperor? So what if you’re a godly spirit?” Zhao Fu looked at the woman as he gave off a domineering aura, speaking quite arrogantly.

The woman furiously roared and her body exploded out with silver light as she instantly appeared in front of Zhao Fu, many times faster than before.

Boom!

Just as she appeared in front of Zhao Fu, before she could even attack, Zhao Fu's Divine Domain spread out with enormous power, blasting the woman back.

The woman crashed to the ground and her face paled as she cried out, "You're a Holy Son!"

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he said, "You only just realized?" He then grabbed at the air and chains shot out and bound up the woman.

Lang Qili was quite shocked; it was the first time that she had seen someone treat a godly spirit like this and act so disdainfully. This was a godly spirit countless people worshipped!

Just then when the woman had exploded out with godly spirit power, Lang Qili felt her almost lose control and instinctively kneel. However, such a powerful godly spirit seemed so weak in front of Zhao Fu.

Moreover, why was this godly spirit calling Zhao Fu a Holy Son with a pale face? What kind of terrifying identity did Zhao Fu have that even a godly spirit felt fear?

Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile as he came in front of the bound-up godly spirit and took off her clothes as he started to do it with her.

Lang Qili felt even more shocked. It was the first time she had seen someone dare to do something like this. Moreover, he was doing it with a godly spirit right in front of her; just who was Zhao Fu?

Now, Lang Qili was incredibly curious about what kind of existence Zhao Fu was. He definitely had a terrifying identity and was not someone people like her could interact with.

Soon, the godly spirit no longer resisted and started to cooperate with Zhao Fu, looking incredibly pleased, and she became lewder and lewder.

The godly spirit's reaction was exactly the same as hers from before, and adding on the intense scene, Lang Qili's face became red and her gaze became hazy as she could not help but join in.

Afterwards, the two women lay on Zhao Fu's chest as they panted with reddened faces. Looking at the godly spirit in his embrace seeming like a tamed wolf, Zhao Fu felt that he quite liked wild women as he liked the feeling of conquering them.

"Holy Son, now that my body is yours, you have to take me away and help me recover my power!" the godly spirit looked at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes and said slightly shyly.

Zhao Fu smiled as he replied, "Of course! My Kingdom lacks godly spirits and I'll make you the strongest godly spirits among the Wolfmen."

The godly spirit gave a happy smile and said, "I believe you, Holy Son!"

Lying on Zhao Fu's other side, Lang Qili asked curiously, "Husband, just who are you?"

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he replied, "You'll know in future!"

The three of them cuddled for a while before putting on their clothes. Zhao Fu put the statue away – this was the godly spirit's main body. After coming out, the ferocious demon wolf saw its owner come out and looked incredibly wronged as it felt that it had been bullied by Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu freed the demon wolf and the demon wolf ran over and affectionately rubbed against the godly spirit. It seemed that he did not have to subdue it; the godly spirit could have it obey him.

After leaving the Wolfman God Palace, Zhao Fu brought the merchant group to Black Wolf City, which was Lang Qili's City. He had people build a large carriage and use the best materials. He took out all kinds of beautiful treasures to use as decorations, making this carriage incredibly luxurious and elegant.

The women were not very surprised that Lang Qili had submitted to Zhao Fu as well, but they were quite shocked that even a godly spirit had submitted to Zhao Fu. After all, people of their level could not even interact with godly spirits. After taking care of this, Zhao Fu went to a room and started to fuse with the Berserker Wolfman Bloodline Crystal.

Chapter 1566: Lizardmen

Boom!

Just as Zhao Fu prepared to refine the Berserker Wolfman Bloodline Crystal, the crystal burst out with a blood-red flame and exploded out with a powerful aura. It turned into an enormous Wolfman that roared towards Zhao Fu.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu's expression did not change. The golden pupil in his left eye continuously spun as chains shot out, bound up the blood-red flame Wolfman, and dragged it towards him.

The blood-red flame Wolfman vigorously struggled and roared but was unable to break free, and it was gradually dragged over to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu stretched out a hand towards the blood-red flame Wolfman, and a mark appeared on his palm that gave off a shocking attractive force.

The blood-red flame Wolfman was covered by this attractive force and started to panic, causing it to struggle even more madly. However, it was still gradually sucked into Zhao Fu's palm, and in the end the blood-red flame Wolfman disappeared and was completely fused into Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu closed his eyes and started to refine this power. The blood-red flame gradually fused into Zhao Fu's whole body, causing his body to heat up.

However, after a short while, the heat disappeared and Zhao Fu once again felt a pain on his back. A blood-red Wolfman totem appeared on his back, and Zhao Fu's body now gave off a trace of the Wolfmen's aura. Apart from that there was no other change.

Sensing that he had refined the Berserker Wolfman Bloodline Crystal, Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile and left the room.

By now, the new carriage had been completed. It was 15 meters long, ten meters wide, and had ornate carvings on it. There were all sorts of treasures decorating it, and it gave off a dazzling light. The ground on the inside was covered with carpet and there were also tables and chairs. It was like a large room.

Moreover, the carriage was made of the most valuable materials, making the carriage incredibly sturdy with powerful defense. It could also automatically release a defensive barrier.

A carriage of this size was not a problem to the three-headed demon wolf at all. After all, its body was 20 or so meters long and it had strength above the Saint Realm. Pulling a carriage that was ten times bigger would be no problem.

Zhao Fu quite liked this carriage; it was incredibly luxurious and domineering.

They rested for a while before continuing onwards. Lang Qili left everything in Black Wolf City to others and went with Zhao Fu.

As for Lang Xiaorou, she somewhat wanted to leave her child here and have him become the City Lord, but she was also worried that a lot might happen. Moreover, staying by Zhao Fu's side was much better than being a City Lord, so she gave up on that.

The merchant group headed onwards, and the massive carriage traveled in the center of the group. Zhao Fu and the women inside felt that it was incredibly spacious and comfortable.

Hu Shan flirtatiously leaned against Zhao Fu and said, "Husband, should we try out how durable this carriage is?"

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he smacked her bottom and said, "You naughty woman!"

Hu Shan hugged Zhao Fu's waist and said coquettishly, "I'm just lewd like this; it's all your fault, husband. Who told you to be so powerful and make me like this? Look, everyone else can't wait either."

Zhao Fu looked over and saw that all of the women's faces were quite red, their eyes misty, and they were giving off alluring auras.

Soon, intense sounds rang out within the carriage, as well as the women's lewd cries.

The merchant group soon arrived at a wetlands. There were water plants growing on the ground, and some places were covered with water.

They had to be careful in such an environment because this place was covered with water and grass and below there were many holes. If they took a wrong step, they could fall in and it would be very difficult to climb out.

Because they had come here many times, the merchant group had their own route and walked on the more solid ground.

Suddenly, countless footsteps could be heard as people approached. The captain of the guards understood that another group had come to attack the merchant group, but now, all of the people in the merchant group felt immense confidence. With a terrifying expert like Zhao Fu, they did not fear even severe floods and fierce beasts.

The ones attacking this time were a group of Lizardmen. They had lizard-like heads and humanoid bodies, but their skin was covered with scales. Their hands and feet were claw-like, and they had lizard tails and looked incredibly fierce.

There were also some Lizardmen who looked quite similar to humans, and they just had a lizard tail.

There were many Lizardmen attacking, around 10,000 of them. If they did not have so many people, just the size of the three-headed demon wolf would have deterred them from attacking.

After surrounding the merchant group, a savage-looking male Lizardman said arrogantly, "If you want to live, all of you kneel and your elder might let off a few of you."

In actuality, with how ferocious the Lizardmen were, they would not spare anyone. They not only wanted to take the goods but the people as well.

Normally, ordinary people would immediately kneel and beg for mercy upon seeing so many Lizardmen.

However, the captain of the guards coldly laughed, "You're seeking your own deaths; do you know what merchant group we are? A group of trash like you should scam and keep your lives. If our sir gets angry, he'll slaughter all of you."

The savage-looking Lizardman felt quite surprised before becoming angry. No one had ever acted so arrogantly towards him. Had he gone crazy from being too scared?

However, the Lizardman did not bother continuing to waste time like this and said loudly, “Kill! If any of them resist, show no mercy and slaughter them. Keep some people alive so that we can make sacrifices to our great ancestor. Our ancestor will only be happy with blood from living creatures, and he will give us more power.”

“Kill!” the Lizardmen excitedly roared as they charged towards the merchant group and prepared to attack.

However, they were quite confused as to why the merchant group’s people only got into formation but did not show any fear at all.

Suddenly, black rays of light shot out of the carriage with powerful auras and landed on the ground. They were soldiers dressed in black armor with cold expressions.

Sensing these soldiers’ auras, the Lizardmen’s faces became pale with fear, and their bodies felt weak. These were all Stage 6 soldiers, and they did not hesitate to turn and run. Only stupid people would attack.

For those thousands of Stage 6 soldiers, even 100,000 people would be too easy to kill. The Lizardmen only had 10,000 or so soldiers, and if the Stage 6 soldiers charged over, they would definitely die.

Chapter 1567: Tribe

Even if they wanted to run, they did not have the opportunity anymore. The Darkness Soldiers held their weapons and sent out sharp lights, killing the Lizardmen; the battle was completely one-sided.

The Lizardmen ran in terror, but they were mercilessly cut down by the cold lights, causing blood to fly everywhere and for cries to continuously sound out.

In just a short while, all of the Lizardmen had died and turned into corpses with terrified expressions on their faces.

The ferocious-looking Lizardman from before had been bound with a rope and was brought to the exquisite carriage. He looked terrified and had never thought that a merchant group like this would have such terrifying power.

With such terrifying power, why were they operating in such a poor area? With a force like this, they could earn much more elsewhere.

“Kneel!” the captain of the guards coldly said as he kicked the Lizardman’s legs. The Lizardman cried out in pain and knelt down without daring to resist. The 10,000 Lizardmen he had brought had all turned into corpses.

A young man’s voice sounded out from within the carriage, “I want to know anything interesting about this place, such as some large matters. If you give me satisfactory information, I can spare you. Otherwise, I’ll have you skinned and turned into a carpet.”

The Lizardman was terrified and immediately obeyed.

Within the carriage, Zhao Fu was enjoying the service from the Wolfman Goddess and Niu Doudou while he hugged the other women, and he listened to the Lizardman’s information.

In order to live, the Lizardman told Zhao Fu everything he knew, including things about his own Tribe.

He came from a nearby Lizardman Tribe, which had around 200,000 people, and it was the third-ranked faction in the region. There were four large Lizardmen Tribes in the area, and they were usually antagonistic towards each other.

What caught Zhao Fu’s attention was that it was nearly time to make sacrifices to ancestors. As such, the Lizardmen were currently capturing all kinds of creatures to make sacrifices.

Zhao Fu felt quite interested and thought of an idea as he said, “Bring me to your Tribe.”

The Lizardman felt quite troubled because if he brought such a terrifying person like Zhao Fu to his Tribe, it would be a disaster for his Tribe. However, he had already told Zhao Fu where his Tribe was, and even if he did not take Zhao Fu, he would be able to find it himself.

In the end, in order to keep his life, the Lizardman agreed and led the merchant group towards his Tribe.

A few hours later, the merchant group arrived at the Tribe. They had walls made of stones and there were tents within. There were groups of Lizardmen patrolling outside, warily looking around to see if there was any danger.

After arriving at the entrance of the Tribe, there was a pretty-looking woman with a graceful figure and large breasts waiting there. She had light gray short hair and a lizard tail, and she looked somewhat unruly.

She angrily called out, “Xi Ya, what happened? You only just came back and brought these people to our Tribe without tying them up. Also, what happened to the people you took with you? Why can’t I see any of them?”

Xi Ya was the savage-looking Lizardman Zhao Fu had captured.

The woman could not understand why Xi Ya had brought a merchant group here. They were meant to be attacking this merchant group and stealing their things, as well as using their people for the sacrifice.

Even if it was to trick the merchant group and lure them here, he should have at least first notified the Tribe so that they would be prepared.

More importantly, the 10,000 people that Xi Ya had taken with him were all the Tribe’s best warriors, so where were they? This made the woman feel quite confused.

“Who is she?” Hearing the voice from within the carriage, the Lizardmen replied, “She’s my life, the daughter of our Chief. She normally acts in a very domineering manner because of her father, please don’t mind her, sir!”

“Hmm, call her over.” Hearing this, Xi Ya felt a trace of a bad feeling. However, thinking about those countless Darkness Soldiers and the mysterious person within the carriage, he made up his mind.

Xi Ya smiled as he said loudly, “My good wife, I’ll tell you about that later. I’ve prepared something good for you within the carriage; come over and have a look.”

Hearing her husband’s words, the woman’s face became slightly red. Looking at the extravagant carriage, there would definitely be valuable things inside. She felt quite happy; it seemed that her husband treated her quite well.

She came to the carriage and lightly harrumphed, “If there’s nothing good, I’ll make sure you pay for it.”

Xi Ya smiled and hurriedly nodded, though his smile seemed somewhat forced.

The woman did not mind this and felt quite excited to see what her husband had prepared for her as she got onto the carriage.

After going in, she saw a group of undressed women and an incredibly handsome young man who was smiling at her.

Immediately, the woman felt that something was off and immediately turned to run. However, it was too late and she was grabbed by Zhao Fu.

“Help!” After being grabbed over, the woman was pressed under Zhao Fu. Sensing Zhao Fu’s terrifying power and his intentions, the woman cried out.

This voice traveled quite far and the Tribe’s people felt quite shocked and understood that their big miss had encountered danger. They quickly grabbed their weapons and charged out, wanting to save their big miss.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Explosions sounded out as black rays of light shot out with immense power and attacked the incoming Lizardmen.

There were over 10,000 figures and the terrifying auras they gave off caused the entire Tribe to feel a chill. Their expressions fell and the rest of the Tribe realized that something big was happening, and many people hurried over to see what was happening.

The Darkness Soldiers started a slaughter, causing blood to fly everywhere and cries to sound out. No one could resist and were completely slaughtered. The Tribe was sent into chaos and countless people looked terrified.

Within the carriage, the Lizardman woman's lewd voice sounded out, begging Zhao Fu for more.

This caused Xi Ya to feel quite furious and he inwardly cursed. When he had been doing her, she had never been so lewd before, yet she was like a prostitute under another man.

The battle in the Tribe ended quite quickly and countless Lizardmen looked terrified as they knelt on the ground. The ground was covered with corpses, and blood dyed the ground red.

Chapter 1568: Sacrifice

Two people were brought up. One was an ordinary-looking middle-aged Lizardman with a powerful aura, and the other was a voluptuous and beautiful woman with a lizard tail and a lewd aura.

This woman was directly brought to the carriage, and she entered the carriage looking quite fearful and immediately saw a handsome young man doing it with her daughter.

Seeing this scene and smelling the intoxicating scent within the carriage, the beautiful woman no longer felt afraid. She had already heard her daughter's moans from outside and now she could personally see that her daughter was greatly enjoying herself.

The beautiful woman's body heated up and she could not help but lick her lips. Her face became red and her eyes became hazy as she joined in.

The beautiful woman's lewd voice soon sounded out within the carriage and this made Xi Ya feel great admiration. He had been lusting after his seductive mother-in-law of his for a long time but never had the chance to touch her. He would be willing to give up ten years of his life just to be with her once.

The middle-aged Lizardman looked incredibly furious and he was forced to kneel as he listened to his wife and daughter being violated by someone else. What he could not accept was that his wife and daughter sounded like they were greatly enjoying themselves.

A while later, the beautiful woman poked her head out, and her face was red as she said breathlessly, “Don’t worry, husband, that sir has agreed not to kill you. In order to protect your safety, I need to continue to serve him; don’t be angry!”

After saying this, the beautiful woman quickly went back into the carriage and sprang into Zhao Fu’s arms as she said hungrily, “Please, I want more.”

The middle-aged Lizardman soon heard his wife lewdly crying out within the carriage. He felt quite conflicted; on one hand, he was furious, but it was only because of this that he was able to stay alive.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged the Lizardman mother and daughter. The mother was called Xi Lang and the daughter was called Xi Ge, and he asked them about the sacrifice.

He found out that the Lizardman Tribe would hold a sacrifice every year and obtain the Lizardman Ancestor’s blessing. It was the event that the Lizardmen placed the most importance on.

The more people who were sacrificed, the greater the blessings would be. At most, they could sacrifice 10,000 people, but to the Lizardman Tribe, this was a very large figure and it was impossible to gather, so they normally only used 1,000 or so people.

They also needed special priests to make the sacrifices. The more priests they had, the more people they could sacrifice and the greater the blessings would be.

Zhao Fu felt that he once again had something to do. Just as he prepared to get up and leave, Xi Lang hugged him and said flirtatiously, “My good man, you can leave this to your subordinates. After I rest for a bit, let’s do it more.”

Xi Ge smiled as she said, “That’s right, let’s continue after resting for a bit, husband. Don’t leave, okay?”

Zhao Fu thought about it and felt that he should still personally go, as this matter was quite important.

Following this, Zhao Fu left the carriage and came to the closest Lizardman Tribe, which was the weakest one.

Boom!

A massive aura erupted out, causing the countless tents below to sway. Some were directly blown away, and the countless Lizardmen looked up at the god-like person in the sky.

Zhao Fu said coldly and domineeringly, “Have your priest come out and choose 10,000 people. I will give you ten minutes to prepare and you don’t have the choice to refuse. If you don’t cooperate, all of you will die!”

Following this, Zhao Fu waved his hand and black rays of light shot out and turned into powerful Darkness Soldiers who gave off mighty auras as they stood in the sky.

This made the Lizardmen below even more terrified. They only had 100,000 or so people and these Stage 6 soldiers would be able to completely wipe them out.

Zhao Fu needed to go to other Tribes so he left this Tribe to the Darkness Soldiers. If the Lizardmen tried to run, they would kill all of them. Of course, they had to keep the priest and 10,000 sacrifices alive.

The Tribe of 100,000 Lizardmen all looked desperate and did not dare to disobey Zhao Fu’s orders, and they started to carry them out.

After dealing with this Tribe, Zhao Fu headed to the second Tribe. This Tribe had close to 300,000 people, and as Zhao Fu descended with a powerful aura, some people dared to shoot arrows at him.

This made Zhao Fu feel quite displeased. Since they were seeking their own deaths, Zhao Fu released over 10,000 Darkness Soldiers and gave the order to attack and just keep the priest and 10,000 people alive.

The Darkness Soldiers charged down and started a massacre. Countless cries sounded out and blood spurted everywhere. The Tribe descended into chaos and the number of deaths continuously rose.

Only now did the Lizardmen become afraid. A handsome young man brought some people and flew into the air and quickly said, “Sir, we’re willing to submit to you; please don’t continue this slaughter.”

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed as he said, “I only need a priest and 10,000 Lizardmen; hurry up and prepare this, or else even if you beg for mercy, it will be useless. Also, give me your wife to quell my anger.”

Next to the handsome young man stood a pretty woman with light blue hair and a seductive figure. She had a lizard tail and gave off a mature and steady aura.

It seemed to have been her who had convinced her husband to submit to keep everyone alive. She looked incredibly calm and there was no change in her expression.

The handsome young man felt incredibly angry, but facing Zhao Fu’s terrifying power, he felt incredibly helpless. On one hand he loved his wife, but on the other hand he had to think about his citizens. As such, he felt incredibly troubled.

However, his wife said calmly, “Just give me over. If you refuse, not only will you die, but everyone in the Tribe will also die, and he will still take me regardless. I’ll serve him well so you won’t have to worry about him continuing to harm our Tribe.”

The young man looked at his wife and seeing that she was doing so much for him, he felt incredibly guilty.

Seeing how guilty her husband looked, the woman felt a stabbing pain in her heart, but there was nothing else they could do.

She did not want to trouble her husband nor did she want him to feel guilty, so she flew over to Zhao Fu and hugged him as she said calmly, “Sir, I’m yours now; please spare them.”

Zhao Fu lightly smiled, hugged the woman, turned into a ray of light, and flew over the horizon.

Within Zhao Fu's embrace, the woman sniffed his scent and her face became red as her heart rate increased. Her temperature also rose, and this made her feel quite shocked because she suddenly very much wanted to do it with this man.

Chapter 1569: Lizard Ancestor

This made her feel quite flustered. Even though she was willing to give herself to Zhao Fu, she still deeply loved her husband. If there was any other option available to her, she would not have done this.

She had thought that her body and soul would remain loyal to her husband. Even if she was violated by Zhao Fu, she would not accept him; she would only accept her husband's love and would not like a man like this.

Moreover, even if her body was sullied, only her husband would be in her heart and she would remain loyal to her husband. She hoped that Zhao Fu would get bored of her soon so that she could return to her husband's side and continue to live a blissful life with him.

However, she found that things were not as she had expected. As Zhao Fu held her and she sniffed his scent, she felt that her body was going to betray her husband. Soon, she could not help but want to do it with Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked at the woman in his embrace and smiled. He smiled and kissed her lips, and the woman could not help but intensely respond. She was unwilling to let go even if she could not breathe, but in the end it was Zhao Fu who stopped first and smiled as he said, "I'll properly taste you later."

The woman's face became red, and she shyly nodded as she felt both expectant and uncomfortable.

Zhao Fu gave off a massive aura as he descended at the largest Lizardman Tribe. He once again waved his hand, sending out countless Darkness Soldiers.

Zhao Fu had dozens of Darkness Command Medallions, so he could summon 50,000 or so Stage 6 Darkness Soldiers; he was not worried about running out.

This Lizardman Tribe had close to 400,000 Lizardmen and around 50,000 soldiers.

Despite having such a force, looking at the Darkness Soldiers in the air, their faces were covered with despair. They directly knelt and decided to submit, not daring to resist.

The Tribe Chief quickly came out. It was a middle-aged man with a lizard's head, and his wife also came with him. Even though she had a nice figure, she had a lizard's head and her body was covered with gray scales, and Zhao Fu naturally was not interested.

“What matters does sir have here?” the Chief politely bowed as he spoke to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was quite pleased with this attitude; he was much more tactful than the people of the other Tribes. Zhao Fu said, “I want your priest and 10,000 people. Prepare this for me.”

The middle-aged Lizardman smiled and quickly agreed. He called out the priest and chose 10,000 people; there were some Lizardmen and also people from other races. Zhao Fu did not care what race they were; as long as they were alive, that was good enough.

Zhao Fu took notice of the priest. She wore a black cloak and had a mature figure, as well as long, white hair. She had a white lizard's tail and looked quite pretty, but she seemed like the serious type that most people would fear.

“Sir, can we do it now?” the woman from before was quite red and her eyes became watery as she could not help but talk.

After being in Zhao Fu's embrace and sniffing his scent, she had thrown everything out of her mind. All thoughts of loyalty to her husband had disappeared; right now, she only wanted to do it with Zhao Fu – and desperately at that. If it was not for the fact that her personality was quite steady, she would have already madly begged Zhao Fu to do it with her.

Zhao Fu thought about it; he was not in a rush so he smiled and nodded. He also hugged the priestess, walked into a room, and started to do it with them.

Now that the woman had received what she wanted, she madly did it with Zhao Fu. Now, Zhao Fu was her beloved husband, and the serious-looking priestess also shyly did it with Zhao Fu and made lewd moans.

The Tribe Chief was quite shocked to hear the sounds from within the room. The priestess had a very high standing within the Tribe and was very powerful. Normally, even he had to give her face and could not afford to offend her. That woman was incredibly serious and no one dared to take her lightly.

No one had expected her to be so lewd, and everyone felt a lot of admiration towards Zhao Fu; only the truly powerful were qualified to enjoy women like this.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged the two of them. The Tribe Chief's wife was called Xi Ye, and the priestess was called Xi Huo.

Xi Ye's face was red, and she panted within Zhao Fu's embrace. By now, she had calmed down, and thinking about how wild she had been just then, she could not help but feel guilty. Now, her body and soul belonged to Zhao Fu, and even if Zhao Fu told her to go back, she would not want to.

Xi Huo's face was also quite red, and she looked at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes and said softly, "Sir, now that my body belongs to you, can you take me away? I want to go to places far away and look at the outside world."

With her power, she could understand that Zhao Fu was incredibly terrifying, which was why she made this request.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and nodded, and Xi Huo smiled as she took the initiative to kiss Zhao Fu.

Following this, the three of them came outside and took the 10,000 people to the Tribe from before.

Now, they had gathered four priests and 40,000 people. There was already a massive altar built, and the people who were to be used as sacrifices all looked terrified. They were all bound with ropes and could not escape.

The four priests stood spaced apart at the center and because Xi Huo was the most powerful one, the three others supported her as they started the sacrifice.

Ye Huo took out a strip of lizard amber and raised it up as she started to chant. The amber gave off a faint light and floated up, and the three other priests also raised their hands towards the amber as they chanted.

Boom!

The four priests suddenly exploded out with a shocking aura as four different-colored aura flames burst forth around them. Four waves of energy entered the amber, causing it to explode out with light, and a massive lizard appeared in the sky, giving off an immense aura.

This lizard was 1,000 meters long and had iron-like black scales, as well as four sharp claws. It had a pair of black, vertical pupils and there was a short, gray horn at the center of its head.

Clang, clang, clang...

Zhao Fu directly acted and countless chains shot out, binding up the image before dragging it over to him.

This image was the Lizardmen's ancestor and Zhao Fu wanted to devour its power to obtain the Lizardmen's ancestor's bloodline and power. Otherwise, if it gave the blessing, it would disappear after; the blessing was just a slight increase in power, and Zhao Fu did not care about this blessing.

The Lizardmen were all quite shocked as they watched what Zhao Fu was doing. However, they did not dare to say anything; it would only take a single thought from Zhao Fu to kill them all.

Chapter 1570: Kobolds

"Roar! Roar! Roar..." the enormous lizard furiously roared as it continuously struggled. However, facing Zhao Fu's power, it was unable to resist and was gradually dragged over to Zhao Fu.

At that moment, Zhao Fu stretched out a hand toward the Lizard Ancestor and black light shined as a mark appeared. The mark had once been Zhao Fu's King's Mark but as his bloodline rose, it had become a Divine Mark.

Boom!

A massive suction force exploded out as the surrounding air was sucked over and created a wild gale. Feeling this suction force, the Lizard Ancestor started to panic and continuously struggled, but it was a pity that it was still sucked into Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu closed his eyes and started to refine it, and he gradually absorbed this enormous lizard's power. A black light shined around his body, and he felt a pain on his back as a Lizardman totem appeared.

Zhao Fu now had a Jackal Totem, Wolfman Totem, Minotaur Totem, and Lizardman Totem. He had also obtained the four races' greatest power, which was a great gain.

Zhao Fu rested at the Lizardman Tribe for a while before continuing on with the merchant group.

As for the remaining Lizardmen, Zhao Fu did not harm them and gave the Chiefs of the two remaining Tribes some compensation as he had taken their wives. However, they had chosen to go with him and he had not forced them.

After hearing his wife moan lewdly on that carriage, the middle-aged Lizardman knew that she would definitely leave. If it was not for the fact that he normally worked extremely hard to satisfy her, she most likely would have left him for another Lizardman already.

However, the handsome young man did not expect that his wife would choose to leave with that person, and he felt quite devastated.

Xi Ye, his wife, looked quite guilty and could only say sorry. Even though she still had deep feelings for her husband, her body and soul needed Zhao Fu.

She gave the valuable treasures that Zhao Fu had given her to the handsome young man and asked him to look after himself and find a good wife. She then disregarded the handsome young man's pleas and left with Zhao Fu.

As for the 40,000 Lizardmen on the altar, the instant that the Lizard Ancestor had appeared, they had turned into dry corpses. After all, the Lizard Ancestor had manifested itself from their lifeforce.

The merchant group continued onwards and indescribable sounds continued to sound out from within the carriage. Adding on the four new Lizardmen, the 'battles' became even more intense as the Lizardmen were innately quite lewd.

Zhao Fu's travels were incredibly carefree, leisurely, and blissful, and anyone would admire him. In this world, the more powerful a man was, the more women he needed; the more powerful a woman was, the more men she needed.

People always wanted a beautiful love, one that was unwavering, eternal, and sincere. However, that kind of beautiful love only existed in books and movies, and it was not so beautiful in real life. People often changed because of various things and would not eternally burn with passion for something or someone.

For example, how many people maintained the same passion for their first love? Their feelings would always die down over time, and then move on to their second, third, fourth lovers.

People always wanted a beautiful love, but that was not realistic. Perhaps there were some beautiful romances out there, but that was not the case for the majority of people.

The harem was the Path of the King!

A day later, the merchant group finally passed through the vast boundary and came to a Kingdom. This was a Kobold Kingdom.

Just like the other races, some Kobolds had dog heads and human bodies, while others looked just like humans but had dog ears and tails.

As a Kingdom, no matter what kind of ferocious race they were, they would have strict laws and would not allow killing and stealing. Merchant groups were safer in Kingdoms.

Zhao Fu sat next to the window and the beautiful priestess Xi Huo leaned against him and looked outside with wonder.

Great Qin also had Kobolds, but it was evident that there were many more here.

The merchant group would sell some of their goods and bring the rest back to the Fox Kingdom. In the end, Hu Shan would leave the merchant group to someone else. As for her, she would definitely leave with Zhao Fu.

After coming out of the Kobold City, they arrived at some wilderness, which was quite dangerous. It was likely that it was inhabited by bandits who did not have any laws to follow; it was much more dangerous than within the Kingdom.

Soon, the merchant group encountered two people.

One of them was a Kobold woman with black dog-like ears and tail, and she was tall and slim. She had long, black hair, a cold demeanor, and a sharp gaze, and she was wearing black clothes. The other was a young girl with golden dog ears and tail, and she looked quite cute; she was quite small.

Both of them were covered with blood, and the young girl had fainted and was being carried by the other woman, who was walking with great difficulty. That woman looked quite injured and her face was pale, making her look quite weak.

When she saw the merchant group, she immediately became wary and tried to avoid them. They were better than bandits, but the woman was still cautious.

Seeing that the two women posed no danger, the captain of the guards did not pay them too much mind and led the merchant group onwards.

Suddenly, the young girl on the woman's back coughed up a large mouthful of blood, causing the woman to feel quite panicked. She quickly put the young girl on the ground and checked her injuries. She then took out a few medicinal pills and fed them to the girl, but the girl did not seem much better.

This made the woman incredibly worried, and she thought to herself before coming over to the merchant group. This merchant group would most likely have some valuable medicines, so she called out, "Please wait, I have a request."

Hearing this, the merchant group stopped and the captain of the guards came over to the woman and asked, "What is it?"

The woman asked anxiously, “Does your merchant group have any valuable medicines? I’m willing to pay any price, but please hurry.”

Zhao Fu, who was appreciating the scenery, noticed the two women. He glanced over them and smiled as he said, “Bring them in.”
