

The Lord 1611

Chapter 1611 Bloodline Curse

Zhao Fu sat cross-legged on the ground and activated the Rat Spirit Jade's power. The Rat Spirit Jade gave off an intense green light that gradually fused into Zhao Fu's body. Zhao Fu absorbed this power, causing his skin to become green.

The green orb of light gradually dimmed, and the eyeball started to somewhat struggle within Zhao Fu's body. However, a black flame covered it and gradually melted it.

Zhao Fu once again felt a pain on his back as a green Ratfolk totem appeared on his back.

After concluding matters here, Zhao Fu brought his group and continued onwards.

Zhao Fu's destination was now Outlander Ten College. It was nearly time for the examination and they would have to focus on traveling. However, they were not too far away from Outlander Ten College and making it in time would be no problem.

As the group advanced, they came to a Kingdom called the Elephant Kingdom.

The people here were tall and well-built, and they had elephant heads and human bodies. They had tough skin and tusks, and all of them gave off oppressive auras that did not seem weak at all.

Zhao Fu continued to sit next to the window and take in the scenery outside. This City was quite interesting, as it was built within a forest and was fused into the forest.

Looking at the City, Zhao Fu quite liked this kind of City. He decided that after returning to Great Qin, he would build a few Cities like this.

At that moment, he saw a group of Elephant people gathering, and he felt quite interested and got off the carriage. He followed the crowd and saw them standing around an altar, on which lay a little Elephant person.

The little Elephant person was only six or seven years old and his face was pale. He looked like he was in pain, as if he was very sick.

Zhao Fu asked the Elephant people around him what was going on, and the Elephant people were quite friendly and told him about the situation.

It turned out that countless Elephant people had come to pray for this little Elephant Prince, hoping to lessen his pain. They would summon an Elephant person God who would heal the Elephant Prince and suppress the bloodline curse.

This bloodline curse was a curse unleashed by a powerful evil god. The current King of the Elephant Kingdom had great enmity with that powerful evil god, which was why it had cursed the King's most beloved Prince.

This kind of bloodline curse was incredibly painful, and it essentially could not be dispelled. Moreover, it would not kill the cursed person, and instead, if the cursed person had any children, it would be passed on to them as well due to their bloodline. The Elephant Kingdom was a Royal Kingdom, and as a Royal Kingdom in the Heaven Domain, it was many times more powerful than inner Domain Royal Kingdoms. Zhao Fu naturally did not dare to act rashly.

The prayer energy from the Elephant people was similar to faith energy and could weaken the curse's effects, and as the many Elephant people prayed, the little Prince's pain lessened.

An Elephant person Priest wearing all kinds of wooden ornaments came to the little Prince's side and raised his wooden staff as he chanted, and countless traces of green aura flowed out of the trees in the City and gathered.

The green traces of aura condensed in the air and formed an orb of green light, which gave off a powerful aura and shot into the sky.

Boom!

The sky trembled as a massive might spread out in the sky. Countless rays of green light shot out, dyeing the sky green.

A massive figure gradually descended from the sky; this figure was also an Elephant person and was ten or so meters tall. He had an enormous elephant head and a human body, and he had slightly-green skin. His tusks were jade-green and he held a wooden staff and gave off a powerful godly spirit aura.

This Elephant God was a clone; these summoned godly spirits were all ordinarily clones from the Godly Spirit World.

“Our believers, what have you summoned Us for?” the Elephant God gave off a majestic might as it spoke in a massive and dignified voice.

An Elephant person wearing a crown went up and bowed as he said, “Elephant God, our Prince has been cursed by a powerful evil god. Please dispel this curse; we will offer even more faith to you.”

Hearing this, the Elephant God looked at the little Prince on the altar. It raised a hand and Heaven and Earth Power quickly gathered as a terrifying wave of power spread out.

Boom!

The Elephant God pressed down and its palm gave off an intense green light. A green pillar of light descended, landing on the little Prince’s body.

Large amounts of green divine energy entered the little Prince’s body and dispelled the bloodline curse within his body, and traces of blood-red aura rose up out of his body.

Seeing that the curse was being dispelled, the Elephant people no longer felt as nervous and smiled. They felt that the Elephant God should be able to dispel the bloodline curse.

Suddenly, the blood-red aura coming out from the little Prince’s body became frenzied, and a wave of evil power appeared. Sensing this change, everyone felt quite startled and a sense of unease started to spread.

Sensing this wave of evil power, the Elephant God’s expression also fell and it exploded out with even greater godly spirit power as the light coming from its hand became even brighter.

Boom!

The Elephant God once again forcefully pressed down, causing a massive explosion to sound out as an even greater beam of green light landed on the little Prince’s body.

“Ahhh!” the little Prince cried out in pain as an even greater wave of blood-red aura flooded out. Moreover, this blood-red aura condensed into a scaled figure in front of the little Prince, exploding out with a powerful and evil might.

Seeing that blood-red figure, the Elephant God’s gaze was serious as it withdrew its power, and the blood-red figure turned back into blood-red aura and flowed back into the little Prince’s body.

The Elephant God looked at the Elephant King as he said, “Do you have great enmity with this evil god? He was willing to sacrifice an arm to cast this bloodline curse, and it has already fused with your Prince’s bloodline. I am unable to dispel this kind of curse, and if we forcefully dispel it, your Prince might immediately die.”

The Elephant King’s expression became quite unsightly as he hurriedly asked, “Glorious Elephant God, is there any other method to dispel this curse?”

The Elephant God sighed as he said, “Since this is a bloodline curse, you need to find a person with an extremely high-grade bloodline to dispel this curse. A godly spirit’s bloodline is of an incredibly high grade, so an ordinary King or Emperor’s bloodline will be useless. You need to ask an Emperor to help dispel your Prince’s curse.”

Hearing this, even though the Elephant King now had a solution, his expression was still quite unsightly.

Chapter 1612 Elephant People

As a Royal Kingdom, it could not be compared to an Imperial Kingdom. Those Emperors were all high and mighty, so how could the Elephant King ask one to help his son dispel his bloodline curse?

Moreover, it was only a possibility and success was not guaranteed. The higher grade their bloodline was, the greater their chance of success would be.

Only a top-tier Imperial Bloodline would have a high chance of success. However, it would be almost impossible to ask someone like that for help, as they would be someone who stood at the apex of this world, and the faction that stood behind them would be incredibly monstrous as well.

Facing such terrifying people, the Elephant King would have to kneel in greeting; how could he ask such people to help his son dispel his bloodline curse?

The Elephant God did not say anything else and gradually disappeared.

A woman next to the Elephant King started to cry after thinking about how much pain her son and his sons and daughters would have to go through in the future.

The other Elephant people all looked quite sad. As subjects of the Elephant Kingdom, they naturally did not want their beloved little Prince to have such a fate, and they too felt devastated.

However, even the Elephant King could not dispel the curse, so what could they do to dispel the curse? Even asking the Elephant God was useless.

An elderly Elephant person sorrowfully clasped his hands together and knelt as he prayed, "Glorious godly spirit, glorious ancestors, please save our little Prince. He is the future of the Elephant Kingdom."

Hearing this, everyone else knelt and clasped their hands as they also prayed.

A young Elephant person cried out, "Glorious godly spirit, glorious ancestors, please save our little Prince. I will use my life to serve you and fight for you."

A crudely-dressed Elephant woman shouted, "Glorious godly spirit, glorious ancestors, please save our little Prince. I'm willing to offer my virgin body to you and remain pure for life."

Countless Elephant people knelt and prayed, but there was no response. They could not do anything about this bloodline curse.

In the end, the Elephant Queen loudly wept, as she was heartbroken for her suffering son, but also because she was moved by the Elephant people.

The Elephant King also felt quite uncomfortable and his eyes danced with tears. Looking at the little Prince's face wracked with pain, he decided to see if he could find an Emperor to help. Worst came to worst, he would allow the evil god to do whatever he wanted to him in order to dispel this bloodline curse.

The atmosphere became incredibly mournful, and everyone felt incredibly uncomfortable.

“Perhaps I can help!” a voice sounded out. It was not very loud, but it was like a massive boulder falling into water, sending out enormous waves. Everyone’s gazes gathered onto Zhao Fu’s body in that instant.

Facing the countless gazes, Zhao Fu stood there calmly with an unchanging expression.

All of the Elephant people sensed Zhao Fu’s Harmony Realm Cultivation and looked quite doubtful, not sure if this person could really save their little Prince. Of course, they held onto a trace of hope.

Moreover, cultivation was not everything; dispelling the curse did not rely on cultivation but on bloodline.

Furthermore, only a powerful Imperial Bloodline could dispel the curse; could it be that this person was an Emperor?

Thinking about that, the Elephant people’s gazes became reverent; they did not dare to offend a grand figure like this. Moreover, he had come to save their little Prince. No matter how things turned out, he was worthy of their respect.

The Elephant King turned and looked at Zhao Fu and examined him for a few seconds before stretching out his hand and saying, “Please dispel my son’s curse, sir.”

The Elephant people in the surroundings all made way for Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu walked up to the altar and came to the little Prince’s side. He squatted down and gathered his Divine power in his palm as his Divine Mark appeared and gave off a faint black light.

Following this, Zhao Fu placed his hand on the little Prince’s forehead, and the massive amount of Divine power flowed into the Prince’s body.

Boom!

A muffled explosion sounded out as countless traces of blood-red aura once again flooded out of the little Prince's body. What was shocking was that the blood-red aura seemed to be afraid of something and was escaping from the little Prince's body.

What was going on? That Elephant God from before had power that surpassed the Emperor Heaven Realm, and yet it had been unable to make the blood-red aura react like this. This cloaked person only had Harmony Realm Cultivation; just what terrifying power did he possess?

"Ahhhh..." the little Prince cried out in pain and struggled on the ground, but Zhao Fu held onto his head and continued to send large amounts of his Divine power into the little Prince's body.

Seeing how pained the little Prince was, the Elephant Queen wanted to go up and ask Zhao Fu to stop for a moment, but she was held back by the Elephant King. This was a critical moment and he could not allow Zhao Fu to be disrupted.

The blood-red aura once again formed into that blood-red figure, and Zhao Fu sent even more Divine power into the little Prince's body.

Boom!

The little Prince's body exploded out with a massive aura and his body gave off an intense black light as the blood-red figure gradually disappeared and no more blood-red aura flowed out from within the little Prince's body.

Zhao Fu stood up and the Elephant King immediately went to check on the little Prince's body. Everyone looked at the King expectantly, waiting for him to announce the result.

After examining the little Prince's body, the Elephant King looked delighted as he turned to Zhao Fu and said gratefully, "Thank you for dispelling my son's curse, sir!"

Hearing this, everyone in the surroundings started to cheer. The little Prince's curse had been dispelled, and everyone happily smiled as they praised Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he replied, "It's not a big deal, you don't have to be too courteous."

The Elephant King smiled as he said, “We owe a great debt to sir, and sir deserves Our respect. We will immediately prepare a banquet for sir. Please give Us face so We can properly thank sir.”

Chapter 1613 Rhinoceros

Zhao Fu naturally could not refuse because he was not so good-natured as to help someone for nothing. He evidently had his own goals.

The Elephant King not only felt incredibly grateful to Zhao Fu, but he could also tell that his identity was incredibly terrifying and was at least an Emperor. He naturally could not take him lightly, so he treated Zhao Fu incredibly courteously.

At the banquet, various Elephant people toasted Zhao Fu and expressed their gratitude to him, and Zhao Fu courteously responded.

Of course, many people also gifted many things to Zhao Fu. There was one item that was especially good, which was a Mammoth Den.

The Mammoths had thick fur and massive tusks, and they were enormous. They had great defensive abilities and had Stage 4 strength. Zhao Fu was quite pleased with this Den.

However, Zhao Fu still had not obtained what he wanted the most. He did not hold back and asked the Elephant King, “Do you have any ancestral items or things related to godly spirits?”

The Elephant King smiled and took out a heart-shaped green crystal. It was as big as a fist and he gave it to Zhao Fu as he said, “This was made from an ancestor’s heart, and it contains incredibly powerful and pure Elephant Ancestral Power.”

Zhao Fu took the green crystal, and sensing the power it contained, he gave a trace of a smile and said, “Many thanks!”

The Elephant King lightly laughed as he said, “It’s just an ancestral item and is not very important to me. We still need to repay sir’s grace for saving my son.”

Zhao Fu raised his cup and smiled as he said, “There’s no need to be so courteous; let’s continue to drink.”

The Elephant King also raised his cup and drained it in one gulp as he asked, “Where is sir from? It must be a powerful Empire.”

The Elephant King felt incredibly curious about Zhao Fu’s identity, as his bloodline’s power was simply too powerful. However, because Zhao Fu had hidden his aura, he could not tell what kind of bloodline it was.

It was an Imperial Bloodline at the very least, or even a top-tier Imperial bloodline. What he did not know was that Zhao Fu’s bloodline was already an Orthodox Divine Bloodline.

The Elephant King thought that Zhao Fu was not simple, so he wanted to find out more about Zhao Fu’s background and then befriend him. A person like this might be a big help to his Kingdom.

However, Zhao Fu calmly smiled as he replied, “Just an unimportant, small place. Let’s keep drinking!”

Seeing that Zhao Fu was not willing to answer, the Elephant King did not continue pursuing the matter. He didn’t know that what Zhao Fu had said was the truth, as he came from the outer boundary of the Heaven Awaken World.

After the banquet concluded, Zhao Fu and his group moved on.

Sitting within the carriage, Zhao Fu took out the green crystal heart and started to fuse with it.

Zhao Fu sent some power into the heart, causing it to give off a green light. It then started to melt until it became an orb of green liquid, before vaporising and turning into a one meter wide green heart.

This green heart was made of vapor and Zhao Fu opened his mouth and inhaled, taking in all of the green vapor and starting to refine the heart.

As the traces of green vapor fused into Zhao Fu’s body, Zhao Fu’s skin became slightly green. After fusing with all of the green vapor, a green Elephant person totem appeared on his back, and his skin returned to normal.

“Big brother, are you done?” A short while later, little Shu Ming poked her head into the carriage and looked at Zhao Fu as she smiled happily.

Seeing Shu Ming, Zhao Fu smiled as he replied, “What is it?”

Shu Ming came into the carriage and held out a yellow flower to Zhao Fu as she smiled and said, “Look, big brother, this flower is so pretty. I picked it just for you.”

Zhao Fu grinned and took the flower and patted Shu Ming’s little head before bringing her out.

By now, they had left the Elephant Kingdom and came to a boundary region. This place was a grassy plains, and all that could be seen was lush grass and yellow flowers, and there was a trace of flower fragrance in the air.

Because Zhao Fu had been refining the Elephant ancestor heart, the women had gone outside and were lying on the grass. Some were picking the yellow flowers to make garlands to wear, while some sat by the side and talked and laughed.

The scenery here was quite beautiful, and adding on the beautiful women, the scene seemed even more stunning.

Just as Zhao Fu was about to walk forwards, arrows containing immense force suddenly shot out. There were thousands of them, and they gave off a shocking aura.

Facing the incoming arrows, Zhao Fu’s expression did not change and a black dragon-inscription barrier spread out with terrifying power, covering the surrounding 1,000 meters and blocking the incoming arrows.

The people hidden among the grass felt quite shocked and had never thought that they would encounter such a dangerous person. Seeing that their group was so small, they thought that these people would be easy to deal with, and they shot out a wave of arrows to see if they could finish the other side. However, that person had blocked all of the arrows.

The people hidden among the grass did not hesitate and immediately retreated, not daring to stay.

Ai Fei coldly harrumphed and held his spear as he led 30 or so Centaur soldiers and charged into the grass like lightning.

“Arghhh...” cries sounded out, as did the sounds of weapons clashing. Countless sharp lights flew out, and grass was sent flying into the air.

Soon, the sounds died down and a stench of blood came from the grass as the 30 or so Centaur soldiers dragged a few people out.

These people had the heads of rhinoceroses and human bodies. They had gray skin and powerful-looking bodies, but they were not very tall. They looked terrified and were covered with blood. They were Rhinoceros people had around Stage 5 Cultivation.

Even though there were only 30 or so Centaur soldiers, each of them had Saint Realm Cultivation, and dealing with a few thousand Stage 5 Rhinoceros people would be no problem for them at all.

Ai Fei brought the Rhinoceros people before Zhao Fu and said, “Sir, these Rhinoceros people have surrendered and the others have been killed. Is there anything you would like to ask them? If not, I’ll kill them now.”

Zhao Fu was currently sitting on the grass, hugging the Naga Goddess and Wolf Goddess. Seeing that Ai Fei, the Centaur Prince, had performed quite well, he lightly laughed and said, “You can go! I’ll question them myself.”

Ai Fei retreated to the side and the Rhinoceros people were brought before Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked at these Rhinoceros people and lightly smiled as he asked, “Where are you all from?”

Chapter 1614 Rhinoceros Lake

A Rhinoceros person hurriedly replied in fear, “We come from the nearby Rhinoceros City and have been ordered by the City Lord to loot anyone passing here.”

Zhao Fu nodded and continued to ask, “Is there anything special about your City? Or do you have any ancestral items or godly spirits? As long as you’re willing to tell me, I can spare you all.”

The Rhinoceros people quickly thought. They had seen Zhao Fu's group's power and were scared out of their wits. Hearing that they could live, they would be willing to do anything.

At that moment, another Rhinoceros person said, "Our City has a Rhinoceros Lake nearby. We often bathe there and it has slight benefits to our bodies. It is a treasured land of our City.

"Rumors say that an incredibly Rhinoceros person fell there, creating the Rhinoceros Lake. Maybe it will be of use to sir."

Zhao Fu smiled and said, "Take me to that lake; I want to have a look. I'll release you all after."

Hearing this, the Rhinoceros people nodded in delight.

Zhao Fu had the others stay here while he took a few Rhinoceros people and flew into the air. An hour later, they arrived in front of a lake.

This lake was a few thousand meters wide and looked like a massive crater. It contained a formless energy.

There were currently many Rhinoceros people swimming or bathing within the lake, and many Rhinoceros children played in the water. The sun shined high in the sky and the lake reflected the light, creating a harmonious and blissful scene.

Just as Zhao Fu planned to go up and examine the lake's power, a Rhinoceros woman holding a child's hand looked at the Rhinoceros people behind Zhao Fu and said, "Why are you back so early? Where's my husband?"

The Rhinoceros people looked at each other and did not know what to say. They could not directly say that he had been killed by the person in front of her, and they were also worried about Zhao Fu being displeased.

Zhao Fu ignored this Rhinoceros woman and came to the lake. He stretched his hand into it and sensed the lake's power.

This power contained an intense Rhinoceros person aura but it felt somewhat weak. It would not be enough to awaken a Rhinoceros person totem, and Zhao Fu frowned and felt quite disappointed.

The Rhinoceros people hurried over to Zhao Fu and did not reply to the woman.

Seeing that the Rhinoceros people ignored her, the woman felt quite angry and came over to the lake as she said loudly, “Didn’t you hear me talking? Also, who is this cloaked person? Don’t you know you can’t bring outsiders here? I’m going to tell the City Lord later and see how he deals with you.”

Hearing the woman yell out, the Rhinoceros people felt quite startled and were worried that Zhao Fu would become angry.

After the woman finished speaking to the Rhinoceros people, she turned to Zhao Fu and said loudly, “Who are you? Don’t you know this is our Rhinoceros people’s territory?”

Zhao Fu turned to look at this crude and unruly woman and waved his hand, sending out a sword light.

Chi!

The sword light was extremely fast and directly sliced the woman in half. Blood splashed everywhere as the woman’s corpse fell to the ground and her organs spilled out.

The Rhinoceros people were incredibly shocked and their hair stood on end as they looked at Zhao Fu in terror. What they were worried about had happened.

“I’ll kill you!” Seeing that his mother had been killed, the seven or eight year old child felt furious and looked at Zhao Fu hatefully as he raised his little fists and disregarded everything as he charged at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he once again waved his hand. Another sword light shot out and chopped off the little boy’s head, and his headless fell to the ground while his head rolled into the lake, staining the water.

Seeing Zhao Fu ruthlessly kill the woman and child, the other Rhinoceros people by the lake furiously charged over.

Zhao Fu condescendingly looked at the incoming Rhinoceros people. He waved his hand and a massive sword light slashed out, chopping the incoming Rhinoceros people into pieces, causing blood to flow into the lake.read comics on our webnovel.live

As the lake was dyed red, Zhao Fu felt the lake's power increase by a tiny bit, making him feel quite delighted. Zhao Fu looked at the other Rhinoceros people around the lake and grabbed with his hand.

Clang, clang, clang...

Chains containing immense power shot out from within the water and ferociously shot towards the Rhinoceros people.

The chains brought with them great power as they pierced through the countless Rhinoceros people bathing, playing, or washing in the lake, and cries sounded out as their corpses were dragged into the water.

After killing so many people, the power in the lake had greatly increased, but it was still not enough.

Zhao Fu looked at the terrified Rhinoceros people behind him and said, "Don't worry, I won't kill you. Go back and take your families and leave; don't blame me if you take too long."

The Rhinoceros people understood what Zhao Fu was going to do and thanked him in fear before hurrying off to the Rhinoceros City.

A while later, Zhao Fu entered the Rhinoceros City and started a massive massacre. He let out 50,000 Darkness Soldiers and slaughtered the 100,000 or so Rhinoceros people in the City, not sparing a single person.

After killing so many people, Zhao Fu collected their corpses and threw them into the lake.

Now that there were so many corpses within the lake, the pristine water had become blood-red and gave off a gory stench.

Zhao Fu entered the lake, went to the center, and exploded out with a massive attractive force as he absorbed the blood-red water's power.

The massive amount of power continuously flowed into Zhao Fu's body, and he quickly absorbed it. The energy also somewhat improved his constitution as well.

In the end, all of the power was absorbed by Zhao Fu, and he felt a pain on his back as a blood-red Rhinoceros person totem appeared on his back.

Zhao Fu grinned as he came out of the lake. This lake had become a lake of death and did not have any life within it. Corpses floated within the water, looking quite terrifying; those corpses' blood and flesh power had all been absorbed by Zhao Fu.

Chapter 1615 Deer People

After returning to the group, they continued onwards.

After crossing this boundary, they came to a world called the Deer World. The people here had deer horns but they were not very big, around ten centimeters long.

Apart from deer horns, they also had deer tails and were the same as humans in other regards.

Of course, some Deer people had deer-like heads and large horns, but the bodies of humans.

The Deer people were quite friendly, and nothing unpleasant happened.

Zhao Fu's group was currently passing through a forest, and they were now quite close to Outlander Ten College. In just a few days they would be able to arrive at Outlander Ten College, which was in time for the examination.

"Roar!" Suddenly, a bestial roar sounded throughout the forest, and it seemed quite close. Zhao Fu thought about it and flew out to see what was going on.

He saw a massive black bear ferociously chasing after a group of people. The group seemed to be made up of soldiers, and they wore armor and held swords and bows. They looked like they had come out to hunt, but they did not think that they would encounter this black bear.

Bang!

The black bear raised its massive paw and slammed towards the ground, causing a formless shockwave to blast out. The ground caved in and the group of soldiers were hit by the shockwave and flew out before crashing onto the ground.

The black bear rushed up to the ground and savagely smiled as it looked at a woman with a seductive figure, and it grabbed at her with a massive paw.

The black bear's gaze was slightly licentious and it seemed to want this Deer woman. The black bear most likely was not an ordinary bear but something transformed from a person.

As the paw grabbed toward her, the Deer woman said with a fearful expression, "Xiong San, this is the Deer World and not the Bear World. If you dare to do anything to me, the Deer World definitely won't let you off."

The Bear person loudly laughed as he said, "You're just a Princess of a small Kingdom, while I'm the Prince of the Bear Region's largest Kingdom. Even if I do anything to you, do you think the Deer World would start a war with the Bear World over you?"

The Deer woman's expression became quite unsightly because the Deer World indeed would not start a war over her. The consequences would be too severe.

The soldiers climbed up from the ground and rushed at the black bear as they yelled, "Hurry and run, Princess!"

Hearing this, the Deer woman came to her senses and hurriedly got up as she ran away.

The guards gripped their weapons as they charged forwards and gave off sharp lights as they slashed towards the black bear. However, the black bear slammed the soldiers into meat pancakes in just a few strikes and continued to chase after the Deer woman before grabbing towards her.

The Deer woman looked terrified and felt a trace of despair; she was unable to escape from that large paw.

Shing

Suddenly, a sword hum sounded out as a sharp sword light tore through the air and slashed into the paw, causing blood to splash everywhere. The black bear roared in pain as a deep gash, through which bone could be seen, appeared.

The black bear furiously looked at Zhao Fu and said furiously, “Who are you? You actually dared to attack me.”

The Deer woman looked at Zhao Fu in delight and felt that she was saved. She hurriedly said, “Sir, I’m the Princess of the Deer Kingdom. If you save me, I will definitely reward you handsomely.”

Zhao Fu stood in the air as he lightly laughed and said, “Stay here, Princess. Leave this black bear to me.”

Hearing this, the Deer woman felt at ease and smiled as she nodded.

The black bear’s expression became quite grim. It did not hesitate to turn and run because it was certain that it was not a match for Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu coldly laughed and sent a massive sword light towards the black bear, sending it flying. It crashed through countless trees, causing massive sounds to ring out.

The black bear furiously roared, “I’m the Prince of the Bear Kingdom; if you dare to kill me, the Bear Kingdom won’t let you off.”

Those words sounded quite familiar, as the Deer woman had just said them to the black bear. Now, it was the black bear saying it to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu said disdainfully, “Do you think that would scare me?”

The black bear felt incredibly furious and glared at Zhao Fu before turning and running. Apart from running, it had no chance of survival.

Boom!

However, it was unable to run away. Zhao Fu once again slashed out and sent the black bear flying, and he left a long gash on its back, from which blood continuously flowed out. The black bear howled, but Zhao Fu did not show any mercy and once again slashed against the black bear, causing blood to fly everywhere as another wound appeared on its body.

Now, the black bear was afraid, and it was no longer as arrogant. It kneeled on the ground and pleaded, “Sir, please spare me; I’ll agree to anything. Also, I’m the Bear Kingdom’s only Prince, so you can ask my father for anything and he’ll definitely agree.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu thought about this and felt that this would not be too bad, so he nodded. He then made a small cut on his finger and controlled a few drops of blood to become a blood-red rune. He pointed out, and the blood-red runes sank into the black bear’s forehead.

The black bear did not dare to resist and allowed Zhao Fu to set restrictions within its body. After the restrictions were set, it breathed out and became smaller.

In the end, it became a big man with bear ears, a bear tail and black hair. He looked quite ferocious and was quite well-built. The injuries were still there and were still bleeding, and he was not wearing any clothes. Seeing this, Zhao Fu frowned and looked quite displeased.

The Bear person understood and immediately put on clothes, took out some medicinal pills, and ate them as he started to treat his injuries.

Zhao Fu did not pay him any mind and descended from the air. He looked at the Deer woman and found that she was quite beautiful.

Facing Zhao Fu’s gaze, the Deer woman’s face became slightly red as she said gratefully, “Thank you for saving my life, sir. I’ll properly thank sir after returning to the Deer Kingdom.”

Zhao Fu walked up and directly hugged her as he lightly laughed and said, “No need, just use your body to repay me now!”

The woman immediately started to struggle; she had never thought that Zhao Fu would have such thoughts about her as well. However, smelling Zhao Fu’s scent, her body became weak and started to want to do it with Zhao Fu.

Chapter 1616 Deer Kingdom

Zhao Fu hugged the Deer woman and walked towards a secluded area and prepared to do it with her. The Deer woman pretended to struggle for a bit before sinking in the pleasure and cooperating with Zhao Fu.

The Bear Prince heard the intense sounds as well as the Deer woman's lewd cries and felt a lot of envy towards Zhao Fu.

This was the woman who he had set his sights on, and he had spent a lot of effort in order to have a taste of her. However, she had become someone else's and Zhao Fu had reaped the rewards in the end.

The Bear Prince had wanted to run, but sensing the restrictions within his body, he could only give up on that. He felt that even if he ran, the restrictions would definitely kill him.

Now, he could only sorrowfully listen to the woman he wanted panting under Zhao Fu.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged the Deer woman and lay on the grass as they looked at the deep blue sky and enjoyed the light breeze blowing.

The Deer woman was called Lu Yu, and her face was quite red as she lay within Zhao Fu's embrace. She said shyly, "Husband, will you ask for my hand in marriage when we go see my parents?"

Zhao Fu lightly smiled as he asked, "Does your family have any ancestral items or things related to godly spirits?"

Lu Yu thought to herself before replying, "We have a pair of ancestral horns that can summon our ancestor's spirit. If you want that, I'll help you get it, but you have to marry me."

Zhao Fu directly refused, "I won't marry you here; it will be too troublesome. I'll take you back to become one of my Concubines."

Lu Yu felt quite displeased but Zhao Fu comforted her, after which she agreed, and the two of them put on their clothes and walked out.

Looking at Lu Yu, who had a red face and was giving off an enticing aura, the Bear Prince could not help but feel quite moved.

Zhao Fu looked at the Bear Prince and said, “Wait here; I’m going to leave for a while, and I’ll come back later.”

Hearing this, the Bear Prince obediently nodded.

Zhao Fu brought Lu Yu to the others and explained the situation before heading to her family’s mansion.

Lu Yu was the daughter of the King’s brother and was not an official Princess. This Deer Kingdom was just a small Kingdom and Zhao Fu did not care about it too much. He would only treat the Prince with some respect for Lu Yu’s sake.

However, after coming to the mansion, when the Prince heard that Lu Yu had brought a man back and said that he was her husband, he was infuriated and surrounded Zhao Fu with a group of soldiers.

On one hand, he was angry that Lu Yu had casually found someone to become her husband – this made him lose a lot of face. Also, he wanted to marry Lu Yu to a powerful Minister to solidify his standing, but this plan had been destroyed by Zhao Fu.

“You’d best leave right now; my daughter is a Princess, so don’t think that you’re good enough for her. She’s completely out of your league,” the Prince was a long-faced middle-aged man and he spoke haughtily to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu frowned and felt quite angry; he had wanted to act courteously, and he did not expect something like this would happen.

Seeing this, Lu Yu hurriedly tried to mediate, “Father, my body already belongs to husband and I’ve decided to marry him, so please don’t stop us. Also, husband, please don’t be angry. He’s my father, so please try to understand, alright?”

Hearing this, the Prince felt even angrier; he had never thought that his daughter would have already given her body to this person, and he cursed out, saying, “You lecherous bastard, you dare to sully my daughter? You have to die today! Men, cut him into pieces!”

The soldiers around them obeyed and prepared to attack.

Lu Yu immediately blocked in front of Zhao Fu and said coldly, "If you dare to harm my husband, I definitely won't spare you all."

The soldiers were forced to stop, and they looked at the Prince.

The Prince said angrily, "Are you going to obey me or obey her? Hurry up and kill this lecherous bastard; if the Princess tries to stop you, subdue her first."

Hearing this, the soldiers once again prepared to attack. At that moment, a beautiful woman with a mature figure; long, green hair; and a pair of deer horns hurriedly walked out and shouted, "Stop! Don't be like this, can't we talk things out?"

After being repeatedly stopped, the Prince called out furiously, "Wife, don't get involved; this lecherous bastard sullied our daughter so I have to kill him today or I won't be able to quench my anger. Didn't you hear me? Kill him and don't listen to anyone else."

Hearing this, the soldiers roared and gave off powerful auras as they rushed at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked quite furious as he exploded out with an immense aura that weighed on everyone's bodies like a massive boulder. The soldiers froze in their tracks and looked at him in terror.

Zhao Fu coldly waved his hand and a massive power sent the soldiers flying out. They coughed up large mouthfuls of blood before falling to the ground; it was unclear if they were still alive.

The Prince stared at Zhao Fu in shock and had never thought that Zhao Fu would have such terrifying power. It was simply too unbelievable.

Zhao Fu coldly looked at him and stretched out a finger, and a massive power shot out towards the Prince.

Seeing this, the Prince erupted out with his own power, causing the air around him to become heavy, and a yellow energy barrier appeared around him.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as the energy barrier was destroyed and the Prince was sent flying. He crashed onto the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

As the Prince of a small Kingdom, he had Great Earth Realm power but Zhao Fu had already used his Nation Armament's power. In front of Zhao Fu, the Prince was like an ant that could be crushed at any moment.

Zhao Fu walked up and put a foot on the Prince's body as he said coldly, "I wanted to treat you courteously, but since you're seeking death, don't blame me."

The Prince looked terrified; he could tell that Zhao Fu now wanted to kill him. He hurriedly said, "You can't kill me; I'll agree to let my daughter marry you. I'm your father-in-law, you can't kill me."

Zhao Fu coldly laughed as he said, "Don't you feel that saying this is too late? You disgust me."

As Zhao Fu spoke, he pressed down on the Prince's chest with his foot, about to crush his chest.

The Prince was in great pain and pleaded fearfully, "Don't kill me, I'll agree to anything you want, as long as you spare me."

Lu Yu's eyes became teary; she knew things would end up like this. She went up to pull on Zhao Fu's hand as she begged, "Husband, enough, please don't harm my father."

Chapter 1617 Bear Kingdom

The beautiful woman came up and said, "Sir, since my daughter is yours, we are your father-in-law and mother-in-law. If you kill him, Lu Yu won't be able to accept it. Now that he knows he is in the wrong, please spare him; mother-in-law is begging you."

Zhao Fu turned to look at the beautiful woman and lifted up her chin as he gave a slight smile and said, "Leave with me; I'll consider whether or not I want to spare him."

Seeing this, the Prince felt furious. Zhao Fu had taken his daughter and now he had taken interest in his wife; how could he not be angry? However, he did not dare to say anything, because he was afraid of dying. If he died, he would lose everything.

Hearing Zhao Fu's words, Lu Yu angrily pinched Zhao Fu and had never thought that he would take an interest in her mother. Thinking of serving Zhao Fu with her mother in the future, Lu Yu's face became red and felt quite embarrassed.

Looking at her fearful husband and embarrassed daughter, the beautiful woman could only helplessly nod, "Alright, so please let off my husband!"

Zhao Fu smiled and took his foot off the Prince and looked at him as he said, "I also need your family's ancestral horns. If you hand them over, I'll immediately let you off."

Hearing this, the Prince hurriedly took out a pair of yellow deer horns.

Zhao Fu took the deer horns, sensed their power, and smiled. He put them away and did not say anything else before leaving with Lu Yu and her mother Lu Lu.

A while later, Zhao Fu brought the mother and daughter back to the others, after which he went back to find the Bear Prince.

Because of the restrictions, the Bear Prince had been waiting obediently and did not dare to take a single step away.

Zhao Fu directly said, "Tell them that I want your Bear people's ancestral item; you should have something like that. If they give me the ancestral item, I'll spare your life."

The Bear Prince nodded and wrote a letter. He had people deliver it to the Bear Kingdom, and Zhao Fu quickly received a reply.

The Bear Prince was the Bear Kingdom's only Prince and was very important to the Bear Kingdom. As such, the Bear Kingdom directly agreed to Zhao Fu's request and used the ancestral item in exchange for the Bear Prince.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu arrived at the exchange location and hid in the surroundings. If there was any danger, he would immediately leave.

A tall and slim woman with icy and beautiful looks, a pair of black bear ears, and long, black hair came to the exchange location and waited.

The Bear Prince felt a bad feeling; why did his big sister come to deliver the ancestral item?

Zhao Fu prepared to go out with the Bear Prince, but the Bear Prince was worried that Zhao Fu would be interested in his big sister, so he said, "That's not someone from our Bear Kingdom. How about I write another letter and make sure they get the location right?"

Hearing this, Zhao Fu looked at the Bear Prince and grabbed him and walked out; he naturally did not believe him.

After all, the woman was quite similar to the Bear Prince, whether it was in terms of her looks or her aura. She was most likely the Bear Prince's relative.

Seeing Zhao Fu walk out with the Bear Prince, the woman felt quite relieved. The Bear Prince was the Kingdom's only successor, and they could not afford for anything to happen to him or else there would be severe consequences, and the throne would fall to the subsidiary branches.

"This is the ancestral item you asked for; please let my little brother go," the woman held out a bear skull and said coldly.

The woman, Xiong Xi, naturally would not treat this person, who was holding her little brother, with much courtesy.

She did not know what this attitude of hers made Zhao Fu even more interested in her. Zhao Fu sensed the bear skull's power and found that it was an extremely powerful ancestral item and should be able to summon an ancestral spirit.

Zhao Fu glanced over Xiong Xi and smiled as he said, "I can let your little brother go, but now I not only want the ancestral item but you also need to stay and serve me."

Xiong Xi's expression became cold as she looked at Zhao Fu. She exploded out with a terrifying aura as she said coldly, "Keep dreaming!"

Zhao Fu did not care and released an even more terrifying power which ferociously pressed down on Xiong Xi's body, causing her expression to become grim.

Seeing her grim expression, Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he said, "You have no other choice; agree to my demands or both of you will die here."

Xiong Xi's expression was cold as she looked at the Bear Prince. Facing his big sister's gaze, the Bear Prince felt incredibly guilty and regretted his actions. If he did not go after Lu Yu, he would not have ended up like this and dragged his big sister into this.

"I agree to your demands!" Xiong Xi said calmly.

Zhao Fu smiled and brought Xiong Xi into his embrace before saying to the Bear Prince, "You can go now!"

The Bear Prince looked at Xiong Xi with a troubled expression and said, "Big sis, I don't want you to do this; he's not a good person. With his character, he definitely has countless women. Things won't be good for you if you go with him."

Zhao Fu frowned and said mockingly, "I'm not a good person; are you a good person?"

Xiong Xi understood that Zhao Fu was somewhat angry and immediately said to the Bear Prince, "Don't worry about me, I'll take care of myself. The Bear Kingdom needs you, so I hope you'll remember this lesson and become a good King in the future."

The Bear Prince wanted to keep saying something, but Xiong Xi said with a cold expression, "Hurry up and leave."

In the end, the Bear Prince could only leave and return to the Bear Kingdom. He rushed into the palace and said to a bearded middle-aged man, "Father, please go and save big sister; she's been captured by that bastard."

Seeing the Bear Prince, the middle-aged man felt furious, but hearing his words, he felt quite shocked and asked, "What happened?"

Following this, the Bear Prince told everything to the middle-aged man.

Hearing this, the middle-aged man sighed, "He released power equivalent to the Emperor Heaven Realm, so even if I brought people, it would be useless. Your big sister also understood this, which is why she had you leave. Don't worry about her; also, come over here so I can undo the restrictions in your body."

Hearing that there was no way to save his big sister, the Bear Prince looked quite distressed as he walked over.

The middle-aged man placed his head on the Bear Prince's forehead and sent a massive wave of power in, and he immediately sensed the blood restriction formed from Zhao Fu's Divine Bloodline.

Immediately, the middle-aged man felt an immense sense of terror from his bloodline, and his body became cold. He only came back to his senses after a while and slapped the Bear Prince to the ground as he said angrily, "You bastard, just what kind of person did you offend?"

Chapter 1618 Angel

After being slapped, the Bear Prince looked quite wronged and did not understand what had happened. However, seeing his father's furious and terrified expression, he understood that the person who had set the restrictions in his body was incredibly terrifying.

Elsewhere, Zhao Fu had returned to the group and after traveling for some time, Zhao Fu had the group stop, and he prepared to summon the two ancestral spirits and refine them.

Zhao Fu came to a flat area and took out the bear skull and deer horns, and he sent his power into them.

The bear skull gave off a black light and gradually rose into the sky while the deer horns gave off a yellow light and also rose up. Heaven and Earth Power quickly gathered, causing clouds to swirl.

The bear skull absorbed large amounts of Heaven and Earth Power and gave off a black mist that condensed and formed a massive black bear, giving off immense power.

The deer horns gave off intense yellow light, and as Heaven and Earth Power gathered, the yellow light condensed and formed a massive yellow deer that also gave off a powerful aura.

Seeing the deer ancestral spirit next to it, the bear ancestral spirit roared and instinctively wanted to attack. The deer ancestral spirit cried out and prepared to defend; the two races were extremely at odds with each other.

Clang, clang, clang...

Chains containing terrifying power shot out from the air, giving off massive sounds.

The chains quickly shot out and bound up the two ancestral spirits that were about to fight. The two ancestral spirits furiously roared and continuously struggled, but Zhao Fu was still able to easily drag them in front of him.

Zhao Fu stretched out his hands, which gave off a black light and exploded out with attractive power as he gradually absorbed the two ancestral spirits into his body.

“Roar! Roar!” the two ancestral spirits furiously roared incredibly loudly, shaking the surroundings. They exploded out with power and continuously struggled as they unleashed terrifying shockwaves.

In the end, they were sucked into Zhao Fu’s body, and Zhao Fu immediately sat on the ground and started to refine the two ancestral spirits.

After being sucked into Zhao Fu’s body, the two ancestral spirits continued to struggle. Zhao Fu’s Divine Bloodline turned into a black flame that covered the two of them and began to absorb their essence, and their power gradually fused throughout Zhao Fu’s body.

Zhao Fu once again felt a pain on his back as a black Bear person totem and a yellow Deer person totem appeared on his back.

After refining these two totems, Zhao Fu smiled and returned to the group.

The group headed onwards and after Zhao Fu returned to the carriage, the women's faces were all red as they looked at Zhao Fu with hazy eyes.

Zhao Fu first pulled the mother and daughter Deer women into his embrace, as well as Xiong Xi, and he had a good taste of them. The other women quickly joined in, and the carriage was soon filled with indescribable sounds.

Shu Ming sat on the demon wolf's body and understood that Zhao Fu was doing that thing with her mother and big sisters that made people's faces go red. Thinking about how happy they all seemed under Zhao Fu, Shu Ming hoped to grow up quickly.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged Lu Yu, Lu Lu, and Xiong Xi, and the three women breathed raggedly in Zhao Fu's embrace.

Xiong Xi felt that Zhao Fu was quite extraordinary and looked at him with her beautiful eyes in curiosity as she asked, "Can you tell me just who you are now? I don't believe that you're just a minor figure. From your aura, you must be at least an Emperor of an Empire!"

Zhao Fu lightly smiled as he replied, "Incorrect!"

Xiong Xi pouted angrily as she said, "I know that you're not a minor figure. Also, is it that difficult to admit that you're an Emperor? I just want to know your identity or else I won't even know what kind of person I'm following."

The Naga Goddess stretched out her hand and caressed Xiong Xi's figure as she said, "Our husband indeed is not some Emperor; he's a Holy Son who reigns above all Emperors!"

Hearing this, Xiong Xi felt incredibly shocked as she looked at Zhao Fu in disbelief; she had never thought that Zhao Fu's identity would be so terrifying. Now, she understood why she felt as if her body and soul had been conquered by him, and why she had received great benefits from doing it with him.

Since Zhao Fu's identity was so terrifying, following him was an extremely good thing, and Xiong Xi smiled as she lightly hugged Zhao Fu.

By now, the group had reached a highland. After passing this area, they would be within Outlander Ten College's territory.

Zhao Fu leaned against the window and enjoyed the scenery. There were not many trees here and the ground was covered with green grass. They were somewhat high up, so it was a bit cold.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu saw a few figures fly in the sky, and he looked quite startled as he muttered to himself, “Angels?”

The people Zhao Fu saw had human-like bodies, but they had a pair of white wings on their backs.

Zhao Fu felt quite curious and left the carriage, and he turned into a ray of light as he followed behind those figures. They were all men and there were five of them in total.

They landed next to a pool and there were already five beautiful women playing in the pool.

These women looked a bit different to the five men. They had eagle-like wings on their backs and their feet were like claws. Everything else about them was human-like.

The five women not only had enticing figures and supple skin, but they were also quite good-looking. They gave off different auras: one seemed seductive, one seemed bewitching, one seemed reserved, one seemed bold, and one seemed elegant.

Zhao Fu guessed that the two groups came from different races; why were they secretly meeting here?

The five women were not wearing any clothes as they happily played in the water. Seeing the five men, they were not embarrassed at all and instead happily smiled as they came out.

The five men all had good looks, and each of them hugged a woman, looking like intimate lovers as they sat on the ground.

The men did not mind that their women were exposed to the other men. They all talked and laughed and seemed quite familiar with each other; it seemed that this was not the first time they had done something like this.

Both sides happily and sweetly told each other how much they missed each other, as well as what had been happening before they started to kiss and go at it with each other.

Chapter 1619 - 1619 Feather People

1619 Feather People

Seeing these five men and five women do it, he could not help but feel quite indignant. They were doing such things in broad daylight without any shame; Zhao Fu felt that he had to stop them.

Clang, clang, clang...

Zhao Fu stretched out his hand and the golden pupil in his left eye quickly spun. The five pairs of lovers were caught off-guard and were bound up by chains, and they were suspended in the air.

The ten people's expression fell, not understanding what was going on.

Zhao Fu walked out from the side and looked at the five women suspended in the air. No matter if it was their figures or their looks, they were all exquisite beauties. Now that their bodies were all exposed to Zhao Fu, he could not help but react.

A handsome-looking young man furiously said, "Who are you? Why have you bound us up? Do you know who I am? I'm the Young Lord of the Feather people, so hurry up and let us go."

Zhao Fu calmly looked at him and waved his hand, causing a wave of energy to slap against the young man's face and for his face to swell.

The young man felt humiliated and cursed, "You bastard, you shameless person, I'll definitely kill you."

Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile as he once again waved his hand, and a few more formless slaps slapped against his face.

Pa! Pa! Pa...

The young man's entire face became swollen and a few teeth were knocked out, and he was unable to speak clearly anymore.

The others looked at Zhao Fu in terror, not daring to say anything.

Looking at the young man, whose face now looked like that of a pig, Zhao Fu no longer felt interested in bullying him and prepared to kill him.

Seeing this, the seductive-looking woman hurriedly said, "Please don't kill my husband; I'll serve you."

The five women were not wearing any clothing and were completely exposed as they hung in front of Zhao Fu. From Zhao Fu's gaze just then, the women knew that Zhao Fu was somewhat interested in them.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu stopped and gave a trace of a smile. He tossed the five men to one side and covered their eyes with chains before lowering down the five women.

The five women looked at Zhao Fu in fear and understood what Zhao Fu wanted to do. They nervously stood there, not daring to do anything.

Zhao Fu came up and brought them into his embrace before starting to do it with them.

The five women soon started to lewdly moan under Zhao Fu, making the five men feel incredibly furious. Their women were being ravaged right in front of them, and some of the men remained silent out of fear while some furiously cursed.

Chains covered up their mouths, making it so they could not speak, but the chains around their eyes loosened so that they could see how lewd their women were under Zhao Fu.

Seeing that her man was watching her being ravaged by another man, the reserved-looking woman felt quite guilty, but she felt quite excited and responded to Zhao Fu.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged the five panting women and obtained the information he wanted.

It turned that these highlands were occupied by the Feather people and Eagle people. A single mountain could not have two tigers, and the two races were enemies and often were in conflict. There was a lot of enmity between them, so the two races naturally did not allow relationships with the other race and made it a heavy crime to do so.

Originally, the two groups did not know each other. One time, the men had come across them bathing here, and they had almost started fighting. However, the five Feather people men had fallen for them and passionately wooed them.

In the end, the women agreed and secretly became their wives. Because the pool was quite hidden, it became the meeting place for their rendezvous.

Moreover, the handsome-looking young man was the Young Lord of the Feather people, and his woman was the seductive-looking woman, who was the daughter of the Chief of the Eagle people.

Whether it was in terms of their looks, dispositions or identities, they could be said to be a perfect match. It was just that they came from opposing factions and could not be together.

Now that these five women had been tamed by Zhao Fu, they looked at him with gazes filled with love and seemed incredibly obedient.

“Owner, can you release our husbands now?” The bewitching-looking Eagle woman lay in Zhao Fu’s embrace as she smiled.

The reserved-looking woman said shyly, “Exactly, seeing how much effort we put into serving you, can you spare them this time? We’ll serve you well every day.”

However, the bold-looking Eagle woman said, “Owner, I want you to kill them. If this matter is spread, our families might be heavily punished because this is a great crime.”

The Feather people felt incredibly furious and felt that this woman was simply too vicious. This was especially so for her man, who felt a chill in his heart. He had never thought that his woman would suggest killing him; they had been deeply in love before.

Another of the men’s eyes were completely red as he looked at Zhao Fu and the women hatefully.

He was the man who had seen how Zhao Fu had ravaged his woman, which was the reserved-looking woman. He did not feel any gratitude towards the reserved-looking woman and instead hated her, and he wanted her to die.

Zhao Fu did not say anything and already had his own plans. He wanted to obtain the ancestral items of both races.

“I’ll deal with them. Also, you’re all now my women, and you’ll be leaving with me later.”

Hearing this, the women all nodded.

Following this, Zhao Fu put his plan into motion. He sent news to the Feather people about this; the handsome-looking young man was the Feather people’s Young Lord and was the most valuable of them, and he could be used to trade for anything.

The Feather people’s Young Lord had actually been fraternising with an Eagle woman, and if this was spread, he would be finished. Not only would he not be able to become the Chief, but the current Chief might also be forced to step down.

Zhao Fu wanted various things, and the Feather people’s Chief would have to give them to him.

After hearing about this, the Feather people’s Chief felt incredibly shocked; she had never thought that her son would do such a thing, and if this was spread, countless Feather people would be enraged, as they had great enmity with the Eagle people.

When that time came, she would be forced to step down by the Elders and their family would be in a difficult situation. All Feather people would see them as traitors.

In light of Zhao Fu’s demand for their ancestral item, the Feather people’s Chief did not hesitate and quickly replied to Zhao Fu, agreeing to give him the ancestral item.

Chapter 1620 Eagle People

The Feather people’s ancestral item was a stone that gave off a white light. It was called the Feather People Spirit Crystal and contained massive amounts of ancestral power. It was an extremely precious treasure of the Feather people.

The Feather people's Chief had her own conditions for giving Zhao Fu this treasure, which was to kill the Eagle women and the four other Feather people. After all, this matter was incredibly serious and could not be leaked.

Zhao Fu did not give a reply through a letter and instead asked her to come and talk, and the Feather people's Chief immediately agreed.

However, when she reached the meeting point, which was a valley, she was quite confused as four beautiful, middle-aged Feather people were doing it with a handsome young man.

She knew these four women; they were all wives of the elders, and their sons were very close with her son. Their sons were the four other men Zhao Fu had captured.

An hour earlier, when the Feather people's Chief had asked him to kill the other men, he had wanted to act. The bold-looking woman supported killing them, and the elegant-looking woman also supported this in consideration of her own family.

The seductive-looking woman's man was the Feather people's Young Lord, so she did not need to plead with Zhao Fu. However, the reserved-looking woman and bewitching-looking woman kneeled and pleaded with Zhao Fu to let off their men.

Their men were incredibly touched; having these two women as wives was a blessing to them. The bewitching-looking woman's man felt guilty towards her, while the reserved-looking woman's man looked at her hatefully.

Zhao Fu came before the five Feather people young men and thought about whether or not he should kill them.

One of the Feather people said in fear, "Sir, don't kill me; I heard what you said just then. You want ancestral items, right? My mother has an ancestral item of the Dwarves; if you spare me, my mother will definitely give it to you."

Seeing this, another young man said, "My relatives will also give you an ancestral item, so please don't kill us."

As such, Zhao Fu decided to try things out and sent information to their families and had them prepare ancestral items.

The four families knew that the matter was quite serious, so they agreed to Zhao Fu's demands and quickly hurried over.

Of the four women, one had a voluptuous figure and seemed quite charming, one had a slim figure and looked quite gentle, one had a fiery figure and seemed quite shrewdish, and one had a seductive figure and had a gloomy aura. They were all quite beautiful and all had white wings.

The four of them came to the meeting location but only one of them had a Dwarf ancestor remnant spirit; the three others all had decent treasures but Zhao Fu did not need them and only wanted ancestral items.

Hearing that Zhao Fu did not want her treasure and was not willing to spare her son, the shrewdish-looking woman angrily cursed, "You bastard piece of trash, I won't let you off. Just you wait and see."

This made Zhao Fu quite angry and he captured the four women and ravaged them. Right now, it was the shrewdish-looking woman lewdly moaning under Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu turned and lightly smiled as he looked at the Feather people's Chief. He glanced over her figure and seeing her noble bearings and mature figure, he said, "Come over and serve me as well!"

The Chief's expression was icy as she said, "I won't agree to such a thing. Also, I brought the ancestral item you asked for, so hurry up and release my son. Also, I want you to promise that you won't leak information about this."

Zhao Fu said domineeringly, "The price has been raised. Don't you see these four serving me with all their strength? You can either obediently serve me willingly, or I can capture you to serve me."

As he spoke, Zhao Fu released his terrifying aura, causing the Chief's expression to fall. She hesitated for a moment before squatting down and starting to serve Zhao Fu with the other women. Afterwards, Zhao Fu had a good taste of this Feather people's Chief.

Following this, Zhao Fu brought the five of them to the pool from before and let them see their sons.

When the Chief saw her son with his incredibly swollen face, she glared at Zhao Fu vehemently. The women then went up to check if their sons were alright.

Seeing their mothers with reddened faces and giving off enticing auras, their hearts sank and could not help but imagine Zhao Fu ravaging their mothers. Some felt incredibly guilty and sad, while others felt furious.

Zhao Fu did not mind them and smiled as he held two items in his hands. One was a white stone, which was the Feather People Spirit Crystal, and the other was an orb of light that contained the hazy image of a Dwarf; this was the Dwarf ancestor's remnant spirit.

"Now that you've obtained what you want and enjoyed my body, you can release our sons!" The Chief looked at Zhao Fu coldly; she could not face her son's furious and guilty gaze.

Zhao Fu smiled as he undid the chains binding the five young men, and the five beautiful women prepared to take their sons away.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he said, "They can leave, but you five need to stay. Also, do you really feel like you can leave me?"

The five beautiful women's faces became red, because after doing it with Zhao Fu, they felt that they had fallen for him. If they left Zhao Fu like this, they would miss him forever.

The shrewdish woman harrumphed and said, "You at least need to give us some time to go back and prepare. We never planned to leave with you, so we have things to settle first."

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded; only then did he allow them to leave.

After they left, Zhao Fu and the five Eagle women waited. At the same time, Zhao Fu wrote five letters to the Eagle people, threatening them into bringing him their ancestral items.

Otherwise, he would spread news about this matter and would also come and kill their people.

Zhao Fu imbued the letters with some of his power; when the five families received these letters, they did not hesitate to comply.

Firstly, if news of this matter was spread, the consequences would be quite severe. Moreover, sensing Zhao Fu's extremely terrifying power, they felt powerless and could only prepare the ancestral items to avoid disaster.

The Eagle people's five families sent out five men. One of the men was the seductive-looking woman's big brother. After reaching the meeting point, they descended with serious expressions.
