

The Lord 1621

Chapter 1621 Universal Totem

One of the young men took out two crystal-like golden eyes and said, “This is our Eagle people’s ancestral item, the Eagle Eyes.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and took the eyes and examined them. The four other people also took out their own treasures. Of them, two were just ordinary treasures that were useless to Zhao Fu, while two were ancestral items.

One was a silver skull that seemed to belong to a Goblin. It gave off faint silver light and a powerful aura.

The other item was a corpse that was quite small and had withered skin. It was a Gnome ancestor’s corpse and gave off a powerful might, and the ancestral power that it contained definitely would not be weak at all.

After examining the two ancestral items, Zhao Fu smiled and put them into his spatial ring.

Sensing Zhao Fu’s terrifying aura, one of the young men said respectfully, “Sir, may we take away our relatives now?”

Seeing how cold and serious their fathers and big brothers looked, the women felt that they would definitely be severely punished when they went back, and they could not help but feel afraid. They had made a lot of trouble this time.

Now, they did not want to go back and only wanted to stay by Zhao Fu’s side to serve him.

At that moment, Zhao Fu said, “They’re my women now, so they will stay by my side. Don’t worry, I won’t reveal this matter, and I’ll give you these things.”

After all, he had taken their little sisters or daughters and had made them hand over three ancestral items, so Zhao Fu felt quite bad and gave them some valuable treasures.

The men did not expect this, and after looking at the treasures, they all smiled widely. Since Zhao Fu was not willing to let the women leave, they could only take the treasures and return.

Following this, the five beautiful middle-aged women came here and Zhao Fu brought them and the five Eagle women to the others.

The seductive-looking Eagle woman was called Ying Meini, the bewitching-looking Eagle woman was called Ying Can, the reserved-looking Eagle woman was called Ying Wenwen, the bold-looking Eagle woman was called Ying Wu, and the elegant-looking Eagle woman was called Ying Xiu.

The Feather people's Chief was called Yu Sisi, the shrewd-looking woman was called Yu Huhuo, the graceful-looking woman was called Yu Youyou, the gentle-looking woman was called Yu Rou, and the gloomy-looking woman was called Yu Yinyin.

They stood in two lines in front of Zhao Fu, one line of mature beauties and one line of young beauties. Technically speaking, they were mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law, but they did not like each other much. As such, Zhao Fu ravaged them together and had a good taste of them so they would get along in the future.

A few hours later, the women strengthlessly lay together with reddened faces, pressed next to each other. They no longer seemed estranged and had accepted each other.

Zhao Fu had long since gotten up and he came to an empty area as he took out the five ancestral items. It was the first time he had obtained so many ancestral items, and he felt quite happy. He planned to refine all five ancestral items before going back.

He started off with the Eagle Eyes and sent his power into it. The two eyeballs gave off intense golden light, making them look like two orbs of golden light that were as big as lychees.

Zhao Fu opened his mouth and consumed the two orbs of golden light. They gradually melted and fused into Zhao Fu's body, and they flowed into Zhao Fu's eyes.

This caused Zhao Fu's sight to become a bit sharper, and at the same time he felt a pain on his back as a golden Eagle person totem appeared on his back.

Next was the Feather People Spirit Crystal. Zhao Fu sent some power into it and it gave off an intense white light. It turned into an orb of white light that was as big as a ball and a powerful aura spread out.

Zhao Fu controlled this orb of light to fuse into his chest, and a massive wave of energy spread throughout Zhao Fu's body.

As the massive wave of white energy fused into Zhao Fu's body, Zhao Fu's body gave off white light and a white Feather person totem appeared on his back.

Following this, Zhao Fu sent large amounts of his power into the Dwarf ancestor's remnant spirit, causing the orb of light to give off an immense light. A Dwarf's image appeared in front of Zhao Fu, which continuously absorbed Heaven and Earth Power from the surroundings and became corporeal.

Bang!

The instant that the Dwarf image condensed, it ferociously punched towards Zhao Fu with terrifying power, wanting to blast Zhao Fu's head apart.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he stretched out his hand and lightly grabbed the incoming fist. His palm gave off intense black light and a suction power as he sucked the Dwarf figure into his own body.

Zhao Fu started to refine that Dwarf's body, and the powerful Dwarf ancestor power spread throughout Zhao Fu's body, causing his constitution to become more powerful as a gray Dwarf totem appeared on his back.

Following this, Zhao Fu sent power into the Goblin skull, which flew into the sky. It gave off an intense silver light and Heaven and Earth Power continuously gathered.

The silver skull absorbed large amounts of Heaven and Earth Power and became a 100 meter tall silver Goblin that gave off a terrifying aura.

Zhao Fu immediately sent out chains to bind up this Goblin ancestor. He dragged it in front of him, stretched out a hand, and began to absorb it and refine it.

"Arghhhh..." the Goblin continuously howled within Zhao Fu's body as its body broke apart and fused into Zhao Fu's body. Boundless silver light spread out from Zhao Fu's body as a silver Goblin totem appeared on his back.

Last was the Gnome ancestor's corpse. Zhao Fu gave off large amounts of black mist that covered the corpse, dissolving it into a pool of black liquid.

Zhao Fu opened his mouth and sucked the black liquid into his mouth, which quickly spread throughout his body. After absorbing the liquid, he felt a pain on his back as a black Gnome totem appeared on his back.

After refining the five ancestral items, Zhao Fu grinned.

Zhao Fu now had 23 totems: the Jackal person totem, Minotaur totem, Wolfman Totem, Lizardman Totem, Kobold Totem, Pigman Totem, Orc Totem, Leopard person totem, Goat person total, Fox person totem, Naga Totem, Centaur totem, Tiger person totem, Ratfolk totem, Elephant person totem, Rhinoceros person Totem, Deer person totem, Bear person totem, Eagle person totem, Feather person totem, Gnome totem, Dwarf totem, and Goblin totem.

If anyone heard about this, they would be greatly shocked. After all, a single person having two totems was already incredibly difficult, let alone 23. This was an absolute miracle.

Zhao Fu returned to the group and traveled for another two days before finally arriving at Outlander Ten College.

Chapter 1622 Statues

This journey had taken quite a long time, and in the course of it Zhao Fu had passed through various Kingdoms and regions and encountered all kinds of races. He had faced all kinds of situations and people, and now that he had finally reached Outlander Ten College, he felt a sense of accomplishment.

Zhao Fu settled the group in a safe place as they could not continue on with him. It was best that their identities were not leaked because this was Outlander Ten College, where countless Outlander geniuses were gathered.

Some people had incredibly terrifying backgrounds, and Zhao Fu participating in the examination would undoubtedly result in him offending some people. As such, in order to protect their safety, Zhao Fu decided to enter by himself.

Of course, before entering, Zhao Fu started to collect information on the examination so that he could prepare.

Outlander Ten College was one of the Heaven Awaken World's Seven Great Colleges and played a critical role in the Heaven Awaken World. Even ordinary geniuses might not be able to make it in, but once they entered, their identities would go through massive changes.

Firstly, their strength would be recognized and their families would place even greater importance on them. They would be respected by countless people, and entering Outlander Ten College itself was a massive blessing.

Because Outlander Ten College was so important, countless people had prepared many years for this day, which was why everyone seemed incredibly excited.

Outlander Ten College's walls were massive, study walls made of wood, and the gates had exquisite carvings of flowers and grass. There was a massive wooden tablet engraved with the words 'Outlander Ten College', and the words gave off immense power.

Apart from this, in front of the gates there were two rows of statues that were all ten meters tall. All of the statues seemed to be made of stone, and they looked incredibly lifelike. There were Orcs, Minotaurs, Feather people, Tiger people, Elves, Dwarves, Giants...

There were 34 statues in total, representing the 34 major Outlander races.

At that moment, a tall and powerful-looking Orc giving off a savage aura brought over a few guards. Everyone respectfully made way, and the Orc disregarded everyone around him as he walked to the gates.

Sensing the Orc's aura, the Orc statue exploded out with a massive aura and gave off a violet-gold light.

Everyone cried out; as the Outlander Ten College's statues, they definitely were not simple. Apart from having great power, they could sense their own race's geniuses, and only terrifying geniuses could make the statues react.

This Orc had been able to make the Orc statue give off a violet-gold light; he definitely didn't have a simple identity.

None of these onlookers had the ability to make the statues react at all. Seeing how powerful the Orc was, the onlookers felt quite inferior.

Soon, someone identified the Orc – he was the Imperial Prince of an Orc Empire, and hearing this, everyone felt a bit better. After all, he had such a powerful bloodline. If even an ordinary person obtained an Imperial Bloodline, they would also be able to become powerful.

A tall and well-built Barbarian wearing only a piece of beastskin and with markings on his face held a massive stone axe and roughly pushed aside the people in front of him.

Sensing his ferocious aura, no one dared to resist and retreated to the side. The Barbarian walked in front of the gates and the Barbarian statue exploded out with a massive aura and gave off a violet-gold light.

Countless people once again cried out; another terrifying genius had appeared. Someone soon identified him as the Young Lord of a massive Barbarian Tribe.

A Lion person with the head of a lion, bronze fur, and the body of a human gave off a powerful aura and proudly raised his head as he brought a few guards to the gates.

The Lion person statue exploded out with a powerful aura and danced with violet-gold light; this person was evidently a genius from the Lion person race.

Soon, someone identified him as the Imperial Prince of a Lion person Empire; it was yet another unreachable genius.

At that moment, a massive figure walked towards Outlander Ten College's gates. Seeing this figure, everyone made way as this person gave off immense pressure.

He was three meters tall and somewhat chubby. He was a Giant and gave off a powerful aura.

As he reached the gates, the Giant statue exploded out with a powerful aura and gave off a violet-gold light.

Everyone once again cried out. This was the fourth genius to appear, and he was the Prince of a Giant Royal Kingdom.

All of these genius-level figures gave off a sense of pride and would not lower their heads to anyone. Seeing these four people go through the gates, show how powerful and talented they were, and receive the respect of so many people, the other geniuses were not willing to fall behind and walked towards the gates.

A person with a chicken head, red feathers, a woman's body, and a pair of red wings gave off her own terrifying aura as she walked toward the gates.

The Chicken person statue exploded out with a terrifying aura, and she gave off a violet-gold light.

A person with a monkey's head, white fur and a man's body gave off a powerful aura as he came to the gates.

The Monkey person statue gave off an immense aura and also gave off a violet-gold light.

A powerful-looking man with a pair of rabbit ears released his own aura as he walked in front of the gates.

The Rabbit person exploded out with a massive aura and also gave off a violet-gold light.

A two meter tall Goblin who was somewhat fat did not want to be inferior to the others and also walked out.

The Goblin statue gave off a powerful aura and also gave off a violet-gold light.

Various geniuses went up and their respective statues gave off terrifying auras and brilliant violet-gold light. The might that they gave off was not something ordinary people could bear, forcing many of the onlookers back.

In the end, a few thousand people stood in front of Outlander Ten College's gates while the others had been forced hundreds of meters away. They were unable to bear the pressure coming from the statues, separating the people into two groups.

Chapter 1623 Yu Luo

Five or six teachers of Outlander Ten College stood at the top of a tall building and looked down. A man from the Fox Race lightly smiled as he said, “This recruitment is much more lively than previous years’, and there are ten times more people who were able to cause the statues to react. All of them are young and brimming with life, and they are all proud individuals.”

A chubby Bear person elder chuckled as he replied, “Not just these people, there are 60 times more ordinary geniuses; this is a blessing for the Outlander Domain. If this continues, the Outlander Domain’s power will rise above those of other Domains.”

A voluptuous beauty with elegant looks smiled as she said, “I don’t think that’s necessarily the case. The Outlander Domain’s Fate has not changed much and it’s impossible for so many geniuses to have popped up out of nowhere. Each of these geniuses possesses immense Fate and all come from different powerful factions. The reason so many geniuses have appeared is most likely to do with the prophecy left behind by the Outlander Race’s King of Kings.”

Hearing the woman’s words, a middle-aged man in scholarly robes could not help but sigh as he said, “The Outlander Race’s most glorious era was under the leadership of the King of Kings. During that time, all Outlander races acknowledged him as King, and all Kings and Emperors submitted to him. He was able to unify the entire Outlander Race and even the God, Demon, and Devil Races had to give way in front of us.

“However, after he died, the entire Outlander Race became like a pile of loose sand and became one of the weakest out of the eight major races. I hope that his prophecy will be fulfilled and that someone will take his place and become the new King of Kings to lead our Outlander Race to a new age of glory.”

A serious-looking Gnome elder wearing glasses said, “After the King of Kings died, Outlander Ten College has been following his orders to protect the King of Kings Mountain. However, despite so many years passing by and many people climbing the King of Kings Mountain, none have been able to pull out the King of Kings Sword at the top.

“The King of Kings was like a star that shined over the whole world, and after that star fell, it is very difficult for another person like him to appear. As such, no one in the past tens of thousands of years have been able to pull out the King of Kings Sword. I think that it will be quite difficult because if it could be pulled out, it would have been done so long ago.”

The middle-aged man in scholarly robes said, “The King of King’s prophecy was not just about someone pulling out the sword, but that someone will pull out the sword and inherit his position to lead the Outlander Race. I feel that there is still hope.”

The chubby Bear person elder smiled as he agreed, “I also think that it is possible. After all, the prophecies left behind by a terrifying existence like the King of Kings definitely won’t be false. This is why so many races have sent their geniuses here.

“The number of people applying this time is a record for us, and perhaps one of them will be the prophesized person.”

The Fox Race middle-aged man looked at the people below and said somewhat condescendingly, “Unfortunately, I don’t think any of them is the prophesized person. All of their talent and potential are too low, and none of them can pull out the King of Kings Sword. Even those thousands of people who caused the statues to react might not even have the right to go up to the sword. I feel that perhaps one of the unparalleled geniuses who has not yet arrived might be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword.”

Boom!

Just as the Fox Race middle-aged man spoke, a terrifying aura blasted down, seeming to cause the air to freeze. Countless people’s hairs stood on end as they felt a wave of terror.

A Feather person with six pairs of white wings appeared in the sky. He was an incredibly handsome young man and gave off an intense white light. He wore a white robe and looked like an angel, and countless women could not help but feel moved.

Boom!

The Feather person statue gave off an incredibly terrifying aura as a three-colored light spread out.

Seeing this, everyone cried out – just the aura he gave off and that three-colored light meant that this Feather person young man’s talent surpassed everyone from before. He was a true genius and countless people looked at him in awe.

The Feather person young man lightly smiled and landed in front of the gates. The thousands of people who had arrived earlier looked somewhat grim and retreated ten or so meters. Now, there were three divisions.

“Yu Luo, you’ve hogged all the spotlight.” A Centaur young man with pure-black eyes and long, black hair gave a smile as he walked out and came to the gates.

Boom!

Sensing the young man’s aura, the Centaur statue gave off an incredibly terrifying aura, and a three-colored light spread out.

Even though the Centaur young man did not give off a massive aura like the Feather person young man, it was evident that he was another unparalleled genius. Countless people exclaimed and looked at him in worship.

Suddenly, a black figure flashed past in the air like lightning and appeared in front of the gate. It was a young man with cat ears and tail, and he gave off a powerful aura.

Boom!

The Cat person statue sensed the young man’s aura and gave off a terrifying aura as three-colored light spread out.

It was yet another peerless genius, and everyone’s gazes fell on this young man. The young man looked a bit bashful and felt quite embarrassed seeing all those looks.

At that moment, the crowd parted as an Elf slowly walked out with a group of female attendants.

The Elf had long, silver hair and silver eyes. She had a tall and slim figure as well as extremely beautiful looks, and she was the Silver Moon Empire’s Princess. She was a famed beauty in the Outlander Domain and her appearance caused countless people to look over and praise her.

Boom!

As the Elf woman walked to the gates, the Elf statue sensed her aura and gave off an immense aura as a three-colored light spread out.

Following this, more and more peerless geniuses revealed themselves.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The statues gave off terrifying auras and massive might as three-colored lights shined in all directions.

The thousands of geniuses had grim looks as they were forced dozens of meters away, and they were shocked at how powerful these people were.

Now, about 100 or so people stood in front of the gates. All of them were incredibly monstrous figures who ordinary people would never see in their lifetimes, but they had all gathered here. It could be seen how seriously the large factions all took this recruitment.

Chapter 1624 Medusa

Seeing so many geniuses, the teachers on the building once again smiled.

The elegant-looking beauty was quite surprised as she smiled and said, "If it wasn't for the recruitment this time, I wouldn't have known there were so many geniuses. There are many unfamiliar faces; the large families have probably been hiding them."

The chubby Bear person elder happily laughed, "With so many geniuses participating, we need to increase our intake this year. If we miss out on some good students, that would be a true pity."

The Fox Race middle-aged man smiled as he said, "Now, I'm feeling quite keen for the examination to begin. With so many geniuses clashing, the outcome will definitely be very intense."

Hearing this, the others nodded.

The number of people participating, as well as the number of geniuses, was many times that of the past. Not only had the number of applicants increased, but the quality had also risen. All of the geniuses were incredibly terrifying and none of them were weak. It seemed that this examination would be the most intense one in Outlander Ten College's history.

Everyone in the Outlander Domain was paying attention to this matter. Countless terrifying existences had come to Outlander Ten College and were waiting for the examination to begin.

Bang!

Suddenly, a massive sound rang out as an enormous figure descended from the sky and heavily landed on the ground. A terrifying wave of power spread out, causing the ground to crack.

A three meter tall Ogre with three heads and a mouth full of fangs appeared, and the people around him backed off in fear.

Ogres were incredibly ferocious existences among the Outlander races and liked to eat people. They even ate their own kind and often savagely killed other races.

This three-headed Ogre savagely laughed as it looked around it, causing people to feel chills on their backs, and the Ogre walked to the gates.

Boom!

The Ogre statue exploded out with a terrifying aura, and a five-colored light shone out.

Everyone looked incredibly shocked and cried out, "It's five-colored light! It's even higher quality than everyone else."

The expressions of the 100 or so people standing at the front looked quite unsightly, and they were forced back ten or so steps.

This Ogre was actually quite famous and many people knew him. He was the Imperial Prince of the strongest Ogre Empire, and his bloodline was at the peak of the Imperial Bloodline. His cultivation was at the World Realm.

Boom!

Another massive aura flooded out as a powerfully-built Orc with skin as black as steel walked out.

“This is the Orc Empire’s Imperial Prince!” This Orc was also quite famous and many people recognized him. He came from the strongest Orc Empire and also had a peak Imperial Bloodline.

Boom!

The Orc statue sensed his aura and blasted out with a terrifying aura as a five-colored light spread out.

Seeing this, everyone was not very surprised because these were all incredibly famous geniuses and were much more terrifying than the geniuses from before.

“Hehehe...” a flirtatious laugh sounded out as a seductive-looking woman with a sexy figure and peerlessly beautiful looks appeared. She had a pair of platinum-colored fox ears and gave off an extremely bewitching aura, and what was shocking was that she had ten tails.

Countless people stared at her as if they were bewitched, and their hearts pounded as their bodies heated up. They had already fallen under the charm of that woman, and it took them a while to recover.

This Fox Race woman was also an incredibly famous genius, and she had peerless looks too. She was also the number-one ranked beauty on Outlander Domain’s Beauty Rankings.

Just as expected, she caused the Fox Race statue to give off a five-colored light.

“Roar!” a dragon’s roar sounded out as countless rays of black light covered the sky. A massive might descended as a cold-looking man with dragon horns; a dragon tail; and short, icy-blue hair appeared in the sky.

Boom!

He descended and the Dragon person statue sensed his aura and gave off a monstrous aura as five-colored light shined out.

This Dragon person naturally came from the strongest Dragon person Empire, and his bloodline was also at the peak of the Imperial Bloodline. He was also an incredibly terrifying person.

Boom! Boom!

Two massive explosions sounded out as two powerful-looking figures giving off terrifying auras appeared in the sky.

One had an elephant head, a human body, and two jade-like tusks. This Elephant person looked quite gentle and easy-going.

The other had a lion head, snow-white fur, and a human body. The Lion person gave off a dignified aura and made people feel nervous.

Boom! Boom!

Sensing their auras, the Lion person statue and Elephant person statue exploded out with terrifying auras and five-colored light spread out.

They were from the most powerful Elephant person Empire and the most powerful Lion person Empire, and their bloodlines were also peak Imperial Bloodlines. Their natural might and their terrifying talent caused people to feel terror.

Currently, an Ogre, an Orc, a Fox person, a Dragon person, an Elephant person, and a Lion person had unleashed five-colored lights. The six of them were incredibly famous and not only did all of the Outlander Domain know their names, but even other Domains also knew about them.

No one was too surprised that the six of them had unleashed five-colored lights, as they knew how terrifying these people were. The six of them were brilliant stars on the Outlander Rankings.

However, they were standing there looking at the sky, as if they were waiting for something.

Boom!

A powerful aura spread out, sending out a wild gale. Everyone was sent back as a Dwarf young man appeared in the sky. He wore glowing armor and held a hammer.

Even though this Dwarf young man looked quite short, he was the Outlander Domain's third-ranked expert of the younger generation and naturally came from the most powerful Dwarf Empire. He had a peak level Imperial Bloodline and had extraordinary forging skills, and he could craft Divine Armaments.

The Dwarf young man landed in front of the gate and the Dwarf statue gave off a five-colored light, but it was much more intense than that of the other people's.

After coming to the gate, the Dwarf young man also began to wait.

Boom!

A powerful aura spread out as the sky was covered with green light and a figure appeared in the sky.

This person had a graceful-looking figure and peerlessly beautiful looks. She had long, green hair and had the upper body of a human and lower body of a snake. What was terrifying was that the woman's green hair all seemed to have a life of their own.

Chapter 1625: Sun Elf

This woman was called Medusa. Not only was she incredibly beautiful, but her eyes also had a terrifying petrifying ability.

She naturally came from the most terrifying Naga Empire and also had a peak Imperial Bloodline. She was the second-ranked figure in the Outlander Domain, and she was someone who stood at the peak of the Heaven Awaken World.

Medusa's gaze was cold as she disregarded everyone around her and came to the gates.

Boom!

The Naga statue sensed her aura and gave off a monstrous power that caused shockwaves to sweep out, and the statue gave off an intense rainbow-colored light.

Boom!

The rainbow-colored light formed a rainbow pillar of light that blasted into the sky with terrifying power. The sky trembled and rainbow light spread across it.

Everyone present felt quite shocked as they looked at the rainbow-colored light and terrifying abnormal signs.

The seven people from before also looked at Medusa in shock. However, Medusa's expression was cold and ignored their gazes. In her eyes, she only had a single opponent, and only that person could make her interested.

Suddenly, boundless golden light spread out in the sky, dyeing the sky gold. A massive and prestigious might spread out, causing everyone's bodies to sink, as they saw an Elf giving off an intense golden light appear in the sky, looking like a sun.

This Elf had long, golden hair and golden eyes. He was incredibly handsome and wore golden clothes. He was the strongest of the Outlander younger generation and was a Sun Elf.

He was many times more famous than the others, and the other Domains all knew of him and took him quite seriously. After all, he had the Outlander Race's supreme Emperor Star.

Just this alone was enough for countless people to take him seriously and acknowledge how powerful and terrifying he was.

The Elf gave a trace of a smile and landed in front of the gates.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the Elf statue gave off a ten-colored light and unrivaled power. The light blasted into the sky, causing a massive Emperor's might to spread out.

Countless people looked shocked; this was the power of an Emperor Star, and it was simply too powerful. No less than expected from the strongest person in the younger generation; who could compare to him?

At that moment, the gates opened and a Feather person walked out and announced that the examination would soon begin, and he invited the participants in.

The Elf smiled and walked in first; no one else dared to come within 1,000 meters of him, and only after he entered did everyone else enter.

Elsewhere, Zhao Fu had finally finished gathering information on Outlander Ten College and was on his way, but someone bumped into him.

Zhao Fu looked at that person in dissatisfaction; it was a handsome-looking Kobold.

The Kobold young man apologetically smiled and said, "Sorry, Outlander Ten College's examination just began, which was why I was in a bit of a hurry."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu did not mind too much and nodded before continuing on his way.

Seeing that Zhao Fu was going in the same direction, the Kobold young man asked curiously, "Brother, are you also going to participate in the examination?"

Zhao Fu did not turn around and nodded again.

The Kobold smiled and went up and put his arm around Zhao Fu's shoulder as he said, "Let's go together, brother. I'm the Prince of a Kobold Kingdom, so perhaps I can help you!"

Zhao Fu frowned and replied calmly, "Not interested!"

However, the Kobold did not mind and smiled as he said, "Why are you so cold? Let's hurry, the examination has already begun; the later we get there, the longer we'll have to wait. Let's run!"

Before waiting for Zhao Fu to agree, the Kobold young man started to run and dragged Zhao Fu with him. Zhao Fu wanted to struggle free but decided there was no need; after all, it was indeed better to get there as soon as possible.

By the time Zhao Fu and the Kobold young man arrived, there was a flood of people surging towards Outlander Ten College.

The Kobold young man dragged Zhao Fu into the crowd, and it was quite uncomfortable being pushed and shoved about.

Zhao Fu said in frustration, "Aren't you the Prince of a Royal Kingdom? Why aren't you acting like one? There are too many people right now so it's better to wait."

The Kobold young man looked a bit awkward as he said, "I'm actually an illegitimate child and have been homeless since I was young. Only after my father found me did I become a Prince. Also, don't worry, I'll help you squeeze through this crowd; I'm quite good at this.

"You're lucky you ran into me, or else you'd have to wait for a long time. You don't have to thank me though, I could tell that we're kindred spirits and should be able to get along."

Zhao Fu felt quite speechless, but hearing that this Kobold young man was an illegitimate child, he looked a bit startled and felt more kindly towards him.

Seeing the countless people entering Outlander Ten College, the teachers standing on the building smiled and prepared to watch the examination.

At that moment, Zhao Fu was dragged by the Kobold young man in front of the gates.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom...

Massive shocking explosions sounded out, tearing through the sky as 23 out of the 34 statues sensed Zhao Fu's aura and exploded out with heaven-toppling auras that flooded out. Countless people felt as if they had been dragged into a deep abyss by a massive hand, and their souls fell into terror.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang...

The 23 statues gave off brilliant ten-colored light which turned into pillars of light that shot into the sky. Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered and ten-colored light covered the sky, giving off a transcendental aura and supreme might.

The Sun Elf at the very front, the countless people behind him, the teachers on the building, and people who were about to leave all stood frozen as they looked at the sky.

What was going on? Why had 23 pillars of light suddenly appeared? Also, just what kind of power was that?

Countless people felt massive waves crash in their hearts as they looked incredibly confused. No one expected such a thing to happen, and this had never happened before.

Zhao Fu looked at the statues and suddenly realized something, so he immediately hid his aura and the terrifying abnormal signs gradually disappeared.

Immediately, the crowd was sent into an uproar, and they all discussed what had just happened or looked around to see what had caused those terrifying abnormal signs.

Chapter 1626 - 1626 First Exam

The Gnome elder standing on the tall building also looked at the sky in shock and said to the others, “Did that just happen? Is there something wrong with my eyes? Putting aside that ten-colored light, 23 statues simultaneously lit up. What’s going on? Even possessors of our Outlander supreme Emperor Star can only cause one statue to give off a ten-colored light; how could 23 statues simultaneously give off ten-colored light?”

“Moreover, from the simultaneous reactions of those 23 statues, that was definitely caused by a single person. How could a single person cause 23 statues to react? This has never happened before.”

The Fox Race middle-aged man looked quite serious as he said, “There’s only one possibility for one person making 23 statues react, which is that person has 23 races’ bloodlines. However, how can someone possess 23 races’ bloodlines? Moreover, the statues all shined with ten-colored light; only the Outlander supreme Emperor Star can cause such light.”

The beautiful woman looked down at the crowd of people and said, “Hurry and have a look to see which one of them caused the statues to react. If we can find that person, we can directly take him to the Headmaster. For such a heaven-defying figure to appear, even the Headmaster will be delighted and will definitely take that person to be his legacy disciple, and Outlander Ten College might become the top of the Seven Great Colleges because of that person.”

The chubby Bear person elder looked down and shook his head as he said, “There are too many people, making it impossible to tell. That person has also hidden his aura.

“However, we don’t have to be too worried. Even if he tries to hide himself, he will probably be exposed during the examination. I’m quite excited to see what kind of person this terrifying existence is.”

The Fox Race middle-aged man said with a trace of confusion, “But why would such a terrifying person appear at a time like this? I feel that the King of Kings’ prophecy might be fulfilled; perhaps that person is the prophesized person. He will become the second King of Kings and lead the Outlander Race to a new age of glory.”

Hearing this, everyone could not help but look quite excited and nod. Even the Gnome elder who did not believe that the prophecy would be fulfilled nodded.

The chubby Bear person elder laughed as he said, “No matter how things turn out, he will be a student of Outlander Ten College. When that time comes, Outlander Ten College needs to protect him at all costs, and he will definitely become someone who will be above us.”

The beautiful woman smiled as she nodded and said, “I suddenly remembered that matter about someone having five Emperor Stars; it’s said that that person is a peerless genius.

“That kind of person will shake the world sooner or later, and everyone will know of his existence. He will become someone countless people can only look up to, an unrivaled genius.

“I was worrying about how the Outlander Race would face such a person, but if this person is the prophesized person, he will become the Outlander Race’s most brilliant genius and the new King of Kings; he should be able to contend with that person.”

The Sun Elf and the other geniuses all looked at the sky with serious expressions.

Now that such a terrifying person had appeared, they all felt immense pressure and understood that his examination would be incredibly intense. They did not dare to be careless or underestimate anyone.

They wanted to take a look and see what kind of person it was, but seeing that that person did not reveal him or herself, they could only give up on that.

Of course, they understood that that terrifying person would definitely be forced to reveal themselves during the examination.

The countless others in front of Outlander Ten College's gates also wanted to know who had caused those abnormal signs. They all cried out in shock or called out.

"Heavens, do you know who caused those abnormal signs? Twenty-three statues simultaneously lit up; I was nearly scared to death."

"I also want to know which friend has such terrifying power. How about we be friends? If you're not willing, I'll even be your servant."

"That person didn't reveal him or herself and is hiding among us. One of us actually caused such terrifying signs, making me feel a bit better. That person is a bit too low-profile, but I respect that."

"That's right, those top-tier geniuses from before were all so proud and ignored us or treated us condescendingly; that did not feel good at all."

"Brother, please reveal yourself so we can all pay our respects!"

The crowd stopped and looked around or talked, creating a raucous scene.

The Kobold young man grasped this opportunity, and he pulled Zhao Fu along as he squeezed into Outlander Ten College. He looked back and smiled as he said, "What do you think? I'm pretty amazing, right?"

Zhao Fu struggled free from his grip and lightly nodded.

The Kobold young man happily smiled before he asked, “Brother, do you know what happened? It’s the first time I’ve seen or heard of 23 statues lighting up. Brother, you look like someone who knows a lot; do you know anything about this?”

Zhao Fu calmly shook his head and naturally did not tell him that it was him who had caused this.

Seeing this, the Kobold young man looked somewhat disappointed. He then started casually chatting with Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu found out that his name was Gou Yan. Zhao Fu introduced himself as Mo Ye, the name he had used in the Demon Domain.

After the two of them came into Outlander Ten College, they followed the group to a large open space where there were many stages.

The stages were two meters tall and were covered with a white jade. There were statues on each of them, and all of the stages had different statues. They were statues of various races. They were 100 meters tall and seemed to be made of jade, and they gave off powerful auras.

Those who wanted to participate in the examination had to stand on a stage to participate in the first exam. This was the most basic exam.

Each stage could have 10,000 people take the exam, and there were dozens of stages. There were millions of participants, so they were split into many groups.

There were many guards from Outlander Ten College managing the process, organizing people to go up to the stages to take the exam.

Zhao Fu and Gou Yan had entered relatively quickly, so they were in the first group. The top-tier geniuses from before and anyone who could make the statues give off at least an orange-colored light would not have to do this exam and could directly pass through.

Zhao Fu naturally wanted to keep a low-profile and did not want to expose his identity, so he could only follow these ordinary people to the first exam.

1627 Dragon Person

Hundreds of thousands of people stood on the stages and magic formations were activated, causing light to spread out from the ground. The statues at the center of the stages gave off powerful light and seemed to come to life as they exploded out with extremely terrifying might.

The scene was quite majestic, but there were essentially no onlookers as everyone's attention was focused on the geniuses. No one wanted to bother watching people who could not cause the statues to give off even violet light.

Even if some people managed to make it past this stage by luck, they would definitely fail in the later stages. Moreover, even if they became a disciple of Outlander Ten College, they would only be very ordinary disciples, so the major figures completely ignored them.

Zhao Fu and Gou Yan stood on a stage with a Dragon person statue, which exploded out with a terrifying power.

Sensing this massive dragon's might weigh down on them, countless people's bodies sank down and their expressions became grim. Some people directly crumpled to the ground, and those who fell were naturally eliminated.

Boom!

A few minutes passed and the Dragon person statue gave off even greater dragon's might that turned into an invisible force that pressed down on the people's bodies.

At that moment, even more people fell to the ground.

Gou Yan felt a trace of pressure and his gaze became serious. He mustered his strength to resist that might, and as for Zhao Fu, he seemed completely fine.

This was because this kind of might could not make Zhao Fu feel any pressure at all. Firstly, Zhao Fu's Divine Bloodline was able to greatly weaken the might. Moreover, with Zhao Fu's Billion Sovereign Dragon Imperial Bloodline, the Dragon person statue's might was naturally unable to affect him.

The Dragon person statue smiled as it looked at the people on the ground. The Dragon person statue was not an inanimate object; rather, the statue contained a Dragon person's soul, and it controlled the magic formation.

Looking at so many people unable to withstand its might, the Dragon person statue felt quite proud. As the guardian spirit of the first exam, the Dragon person liked to bully these ordinary people. It had nothing to fear as all of the terrifying figures had no need to participate in the first exam.

“A group of trash, you can't even withstand this much might and yet you want to participate in Outlander Ten College's examination,” the Dragon person statue said mockingly as it laughed.

This made everyone feel quite dissatisfied and angry, but they did not dare to say anything as the Dragon person statue was the guardian spirit of the first exam. If they offended it, things would not turn out well for them.

Seeing that no one dared to say anything, the Dragon person statue felt even more pleased.

An even more terrifying might exploded out from the Dragon person statue's body, and a massive explosion sounded out as the might heavily weighed on everyone's bodies, causing the air to become heavier.

Sensing this might, everyone's expressions became quite unsightly and they did their best to resist. Some people were unable to fight anymore and crashed to the ground.

In actuality, those who participated in the exam had at least Saint Realm Cultivation and would be seen as powerful people in outer Domains. However, in the inner Domains, they were like ants and the Dragon person statue had at least World Realm power.

On the stage, all City Lord Seals, Nation Armaments, and support items were unusable, and one could only rely on their own strength.

Seeing many more people fall, the Dragon person statue arrogantly laughed, “Hahaha, a group of useless trash. Hurry up and scam; with your weak power, you won't be able to enter Outlander Ten College.”

At that moment, a cruel-looking young man dissatisfiedly cried out, "You're the trash; increase the might if you dare. You think your elder fears you?"

A crude-looking big man was also angered by the Dragon person statue's words and said, "Bastard! Keep unleashing your might. I'm the Young Lord of a Tribe and I was just being courteous to you but I definitely don't fear you. Don't go too far."

A beautiful and proud-looking woman said coldly, "You'd best watch your mouth; we won't accept being humiliated like this."

A young man with a pair of rabbit ears said angrily, "We're not trash, you're going too far. We're not at all weak in our own factions, so don't talk to us with such a tone."

The Dragon person statue looked at them condescendingly, "You people from small factions dare to say such words in front of Outlander Ten College? Outlander Ten College can destroy you all with a single finger; am I wrong in calling you trash?"

Boom!

A massive aura lifted up a wild gale. Right after the Dragon person statue finished talking, it exploded out with an even more powerful aura and a greater might descended.

Under this might, everyone's expressions fell; this might was twice as strong as before.

"Hahaha, are you all afraid now? Do you still dare to say such words? You brought this on yourself," the Dragon person arrogantly laughed.

The people's faces became pale as their bodies sweat and they did their best to endure. They glared at the Dragon person statue but did not say anything else because they were already under immense pressure. If this went on, it would be very difficult for them to endure.

Gou Yan looked quite pained and cold sweat ran down his face as he endured this pressure. However, when he looked over at Zhao Fu, he saw that Zhao Fu looked completely fine and stood there at ease. He could not help but say, "Mo Ye, I knew you were powerful; you can actually take this might so easily."

Zhao Fu calmly replied, “It’s not that I’m powerful but that this might is not very strong.”

Hearing this, Gou Yan felt quite dispirited and awkwardly smiled; he could tell that Zhao Fu was not simple at all from the very start.

Seeing how everyone was reacting, the Dragon person statue’s smile became even brighter, but hearing the conversation between Zhao Fu and Gou Yan, his smile froze.

After all, he was the guardian spirit so he was connected to the magic formation, and he could sense even the slightest ripple. That was why he had been able to hear Zhao Fu’s words.

This made the Dragon person statue feel quite angry, and it glared at Zhao Fu as it said loudly, “Boy, you only have Harmony Realm Cultivation and yet your words were even more arrogant than theirs. You dare to say my might is weak?”

The Dragon person statue was just a World Realm statue; if Zhao Fu could use his Nation Armament, he would be able to slaughter it easily. Even though he could not use his Nation Armament right now, he was not afraid of it.

Zhao Fu coolly replied, “That’s right, you’re weak, and you only dare to bully those weaker than you – shameless!”

Chapter 1628 - 1628 Dragon Pupil

1628 Dragon Pupil

The Dragon person statue was already angered by Zhao Fu’s words, and hearing Zhao Fu call him shameless, he became completely infuriated as he roared, “Boy, you brought this on yourself. Trash, take your final exam!”

Boom!

Massive amounts of Heaven and Earth Power flowed into the Dragon person statue’s body, and an even greater power burst forth, forming a massive might that blasted down on countless people’s bodies. The Dragon person statue was now using its World Realm Cultivation and caused the air to become incredibly heavy.

There had still been a few thousand people standing on the stage, and now many of them crumpled to the ground. Only a few hundred managed to stay standing with great difficulty.

Zhao Fu also felt a greater might weigh down on him, but with his Sovereign Bloodline and the Billion Sovereign Dragon Imperial Bloodline, most of it was negated and he was still able to take it easily.

The Dragon person statue ignored everyone else and fixed its gaze on Zhao Fu. Seeing Zhao Fu still stand there easily, it felt quite surprised and did not understand how Zhao Fu could withstand its might so easily.

He still felt quite angry and thought to himself, 'I just don't believe that this boy can easily withstand my full might.'

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as an even greater might heavily fell on everyone's bodies, causing the air to seem to solidify.

"Ahhh..." Of the hundreds of people left on the stage, half of them fell, while the rest yelled and exploded out with their full power to resist that might.

Gou Yan also released his full power, and a yellow aura flame erupted around him, fighting back against the might.

Zhao Fu's body sank down and he started to use his power to defend, and his expression became cold as he said, "You've broken the rules!"

Before, Zhao Fu had researched the rules, and the Dragon person statue using his full power was clearly against the rules.

Hearing this, the Dragon person statue loudly laughed and said, "I naturally know the rules, but the rules also state that if there is anyone with immense talent, I can increase the difficulty.

"You are that person with immense talent; weren't you taking it easy before? Are you afraid now? If you admit your wrongdoing I'll spare you this once, or else I'll definitely make you suffer."

Zhao Fu frowned and said coldly, “You’re going too far!”

The Dragon person statue loudly laughed as it said, “I’m a guardian spirit; what will you do even if I go too far? Now that I’ve determined you have immense talent, I’ll continue to raise the difficulty. Now, all of you tremble in fear!”

As it spoke, the Dragon person statue laughed as it drew in Heaven and Earth Power and prepared to unleash even greater might.

At that moment, Zhao Fu released his Billion Sovereign Dragon Imperial Bloodline’s power, which flowed into the violet dragon pupil in his left eye.

The violet dragon pupil danced with violet light and gave off the Violet Sky Dragon Star’s power as he mercilessly looked at the Dragon person statue.

The Dragon person statue sensed a boundless coldness that immediately inundated its body. No matter if it was its bloodline or soul, it felt immense terror and directly lay on the ground strengthlessly as it looked at Zhao Fu in fear.

Based on that terror from its bloodline and soul, it could tell that this person had supreme Dragon Race power, or else he would not give it such fear.

“Are you afraid now?” Zhao Fu said as he looked at the Dragon person statue coldly as he gave off a formless might. His voice was also filled with dignity like a sovereign.

“Yes, yes, this lowly one was blind before; please don’t take it to heart, sir,” the Dragon person statue lay on the ground as it hurriedly said in fear.

Everyone let out a sigh of relief because the Dragon person statue had withdrawn its might and they were now free from the pressure.

However, they now looked at this scene in shock. That incredibly arrogant Dragon person statue was not lying on the ground in fear of that cloaked person, who did not seem very special.

Just who was that person? And what kind of power did he have to make the Dragon person statue act like this?

Zhao Fu ignored everyone's gazes and coldly asked, "Have I passed this exam?"

The Dragon person statue immediately replied in the affirmative. He did not understand why Zhao Fu was here; with his power, he did not have to participate in this exam at all. Why was he with this group, acting like an ordinary person?

Zhao Fu did not say anything else and walked away. Gou Yan grinned as he followed and put his arm around Zhao Fu's shoulder and said, "Mo Ye, just who are you? I don't believe that you're an ordinary person."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu's expression did not change as he said, "I'm just an ordinary person."

The four people who had originally spoken against the Dragon person statue came up and smiled as they said, "I wonder who sir is and where he came from, as well as if he is willing to give us the opportunity to become friends."

In their eyes, Zhao Fu was an incredibly mysterious person who far surpassed them. If they could become friends with a person like this, it might be of great help to them in the future.

However, Zhao Fu was quite cold to these people. "Apologies, I'm not interested."

The four people looked quite awkward; with their identities, they would not normally try to curry favor with someone. However, with Zhao Fu's immense talent, he had the right to treat them like this. Since they could not become friends with Zhao Fu, they turned their attention to Gou Yan. As they talked with him, they thickened their skin and followed behind Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu did not mind much and came to the second exam.

There were also stages here that were covered with jade bricks. However, they were only one meter tall and 20 or so meters wide. There were no statues at the center and instead had oval mirrors as tall as people.

Those mirrors were called Duplication Mirrors. Anyone who stood in front of a mirror would be duplicated, but the duplicate's strength and abilities would be slightly weaker as some things could not be duplicated.

There were over 10,000 of these stages and everyone needed to go up to be examined. Anyone who caused the statues at the gate to give off a violet-gold light could directly pass to the next exam.

Here, there were some spectators as there were people who had been able to cause the statues to give off an orange light. Even though they had not been able to cause the statues to give off a violet-gold light, they were still geniuses.

This exam needed a certain amount of strength, and it was not as simple as the first exam, which only required one to endure pressure.

Chapter 1629 - 1629 Second Exam

1629 Second Exam

There were already long lines here as there were only around 10,000 stages and there were many people participating, and the battles between the participants and their duplicates could not be settled very quickly.

Zhao Fu looked around and came to a relatively shorter line and waited there, while the others followed behind them.

As people went up on the stages and came before the mirrors, magic formations on the ground were enlivened, causing stages to give off a bright light. The mirrors also gave off an intense light and duplicates walked out of the mirrors.

Following this, the participants and duplicates started to fight. When duplicates were defeated they would shatter into countless pieces, whereas if the participant was defeated, they would have to leave the stage so that the duplicate would stop attacking.

Time gradually passed, and a young man punched a duplicate into pieces and passed the exam before heading to the next exam.

Now, there were only a few more people until it was Zhao Fu's turn.

When it was the next young man's turn, a tall Barbarian stepped forwards and cut in as he said rudely, "All of you scram, I'm going first."

This act of cutting in immediately caused everyone to feel quite dissatisfied.

One person called out, “Who the hell do you think you are? We’ve been lining up for so long and yet you want to just cut in?”

Another person followed up, “That’s right, go and line up. Who do you think you are?”

Yet another person joined in, “Yeah, who do you think you are? You think you can just cut in?”

Hearing this, the Barbarian was angered and directly exploded out with a powerful aura as he said to those people, “Your elder is someone who could make a statue give off an orange light, unlike you trash. Your elder is naturally superior; if you’re not satisfied, come at me. Your elder will crush your heads.”

The Barbarian gave off an incredibly ferocious aura, making those people feel scared. The people who had spoken out looked quite grim and did not dare to say anything.

A supervisor glanced over but did not show any intentions of interfering. After all, the Outlander Race supported the law of the jungle – those who were strong preyed on those who were weak.

Looking at how fearful they looked, the Barbarian loudly laughed and walked forwards.

However, a person suddenly left the line and blocked the Barbarian, cutting in front of him.

This caused the Barbarian to angrily call out, “Fudge, who the hell do you think you are? You dare to oppose your elder? Scram or else your elder won’t show any mercy.”

Everyone felt quite surprised. Zhao Fu had chosen to cut off that Barbarian; was he not afraid?

Zhao Fu was quite displeased at this Barbarian cutting in. Even he had lined up, so how could he allow someone else to just cut in? As such, he directly cut in front of the Barbarian.

Hearing the Barbarian’s words, Zhao Fu calmly replied, “Why can you cut in but not me?”

The Barbarian furiously said, “You’re seeking your own death!”

After saying this, the Barbarian ferociously punched out with great force towards Zhao Fu; the strength of this punch seemed enough to shatter a boulder.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out. Zhao Fu did not even bother to move and only looked at the Barbarian as a formless energy sent the Barbarian flying back.

The Barbarian flew back ten or so meters and a trace of blood leaked out of his lips. He stared at Zhao Fu and his expression became quite unsightly. He understood that he was not a match for Zhao Fu.

At that moment, a few young men with extraordinary bearings passed by, and a golden-haired young man said disdainfully, “A battle between two weak chickens, now unsightly. This has stained This Prince’s eyes and has disrupted the order here.”

A handsome young man in green clothes condescendingly laughed, “That’s what the world of weaklings is like: chaotic, lowly, and warlike. They think they’re strong but they’re just big ants.”

“Hahaha, the two of you must be bored; you’re even paying attention to a scuffle between two pieces of trash. We’re people who are far above them, so why should we take notice of trash like them?” a tall young man said as he laughed.

A fair-looking young man also laughed as he said, “Alright, let’s not pay any attention to these pitiful people. We’re people who have caused the statues to give off a violet-gold light and we shouldn’t demean ourselves by concerning ourselves with these people. Let’s go to the next exam!”

The golden-haired young man laughed as he nodded, “You’re right, why should we stop here? It’s just that that noise caught my attention, or else my eyes would not fall on this group of trash.”

They did not hold back when talking to each other and everyone around them heard, making them feel quite angry. However, they could not say anything because these people were not only more powerful but also had great talent and more prestigious backgrounds. They were not people to be offended.

The other three people lightly laughed and prepared to head onwards.

However, in the next moment, a figure appeared in front of them. Even though Zhao Fu wanted to keep a low profile, he could not take these people acting so arrogantly.

The tall young man disdainfully laughed as he said, “You dare to block our way? I’ll give you a chance – kneel down and kowtow, and we’ll spare you or else I’m going to attack.”

Bang!

Zhao Fu did not say anything before appearing in front of the young man and punched out with great force.

The tall young man’s expression slightly fell as he threw out his own punch.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as the two fists collided, and a powerful shockwave spread out.

Zhao Fu took two steps back, while the young man took four steps back.

Zhao Fu was only using his own cultivation power, which was at the Harmony Realm, whereas the young man’s cultivation was at the Great Earth Realm. He also had a powerful constitution; there were no weaklings among those who had caused the statues to give off a violet-gold light.

The young man’s expression became somewhat unsightly because Zhao Fu had only taken two steps back while he had taken four steps back. He was evidently weaker than Zhao Fu.

The golden-haired young man laughed as he said, “Xiong Zhang, don’t tell me you can’t beat him. If this were to spread, it’d be very shameful.”

The tall young man laughed as he said, "I just didn't react in time for his sneak attack. Now that he's dared to make a move against us, watch me break his arms and legs and have him beg for mercy."

Boom!

The tall young man now became serious as he exploded out with a powerful aura, which swept out like a wild gale, and a green aura flame erupted around his body.

Chapter 1630 Imperial Prince

The tall young man instantly appeared in front of Zhao Fu and punched out with a fist covered with a green aura flame, causing the air to explode as he punched at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's expression did not change; just then he had not used his full strength and was just testing these people's power. It seemed that they could not be underestimated and were much stronger than people with the same cultivation.

Facing the young man's attack, Zhao Fu also exploded out with a terrifying aura as a black aura flame erupted around him, causing a wild gale to sweep out. The ground could not withstand his power and started to crack.

The tall young man's expression fell; this aura was much stronger than his. He was much stronger than ordinary people at the Great Earth Realm, so how could a person with Harmony Realm surpass him?

Bang!

Before the tall young man could react, Zhao Fu also vigorously punched out, and a massive wave of energy flooded out and struck him in the chest. The young man flew dozens of meters back and coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

This happened too quickly, and everyone could not come to their senses in time and stared dumbly.

The three other young men did not expect the tall young man to lose to someone like Zhao Fu. They felt that they had lost much face, as if a prince had lost to a beggar.

After crashing to the ground, the tall young man's expression was quite unsightly; he now knew that he was not a match for Zhao Fu. The power that Zhao Fu had just released was too terrifying and he was unable to stop it at all.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he looked at the three other young men, as they had also been part of the mocking.

Seeing Zhao Fu look at them, the golden-haired young man angrily glared at Zhao Fu and said, "Hah? Are you going to attack us as well?"

Swish!

In the next second, Zhao Fu appeared in front of him and his fist blasted out with massive power. The golden-haired young man was given a big fright and immediately released a golden energy barrier.

Bang!

The terrifying punch blasted against the golden energy barrier, shattering it before continuing on to the young man's chest and sending the golden-haired young man flying back.

The expressions of the two other young men became grim as they immediately exploded out with terrifying auras and attacked Zhao Fu from two sides.

One person's hands formed a claw and grabbed towards Zhao Fu's throat with cold lights incredibly quickly. However, Zhao Fu easily caught his hand and pulled, lifting him into the air, before slamming him down into the ground.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as that person crashed into the ground and opened up a crater that was a few meters wide.

The other person leapt up and kicked at Zhao Fu's back with ferocious power. However, Zhao Fu spun and also kicked out, hitting the person in his stomach and sending him flying back.

In just a few moments, the four people lay on the ground and looked at Zhao Fu with unsightly expressions.

Zhao Fu's expression was cold as he walked towards the golden-haired young man because he had been the most arrogant one.

The golden-haired young man coldly harrumphed and drew out a golden sword and slashed out a sharp golden crescent towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu grabbed at the air and the Sadistic Killing Sword appeared in his hand. He also slashed out, sending out a blood-red sword light that destroyed the golden crescent before continuing on towards the golden-haired young man.

The golden-haired young man felt quite shocked and dodged to the side, avoiding this attack. However, at that moment, Zhao Fu slashed out again, sending another blood-red sword light tearing through the air and sending the golden-haired young man flying.

The three other people looked furious as they took out their own weapons and gave off terrifying power as they rushed at Zhao Fu from three directions.

One person held a spear, which gave off a cold light as he vigorously stabbed out, causing a wave of spear energy to pierce through the air.

One person held a large saber and roared as he ferociously slashed out a massive saber light that seemed to be able to split the ground in two.

One person held a sharp sword and also vigorously slashed out, sending out a thin arc of light that gave off a sharp aura and flew towards Zhao Fu.

Sensing these three attacks, Zhao Fu gave a cold smile and sent large amounts of power into the Sadistic Killing Sword. The Sadistic Killing Sword gave off an intense sword light and a berserk sword intent spread out, causing countless people to feel a chill in their hearts.

Boom!

Zhao Fu spun and slashed out, sending out an incredibly massive blood-red sword light that seemed to contain enough power to destroy everything. The sword light hit the three people, sending them flying dozens of meters. They coughed up mouthfuls of blood and their chests became bloody as their auras became weak.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as the golden-haired young man rushed up and his sword glowed as it stabbed towards Zhao Fu's throat.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and vigorously kicked out, sending the golden-haired young man flying back.

The golden-haired young man crashed to the ground, and he was about to get up again when Zhao Fu went up and placed a foot on his head, forcing his face against the ground.

“Go on and repeat everything you said just then if you dare. Who's the trash?” Zhao Fu coldly smiled as he spoke and looked at the golden-haired young man.

The golden-haired young man furiously looked at Zhao Fu and called out, “You dare to treat me like this? You're done for. I'm the Prince of an Imperial Kingdom; my Imperial Kingdom will definitely make sure you die a horrible death.”

Zhao Fu condescendingly laughed and pressed down on the golden-haired young man's head as he said, “Is that so? So what? Can your Imperial Kingdom fight their way into Outlander Ten College? Perhaps it will be you who will die a horrible death!”

The golden-haired young man roared, “I won't let you off; I'll return today's humiliation ten times over. I'll make sure you suffer even greater humiliation and live in pain.”

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and lifted his foot up, preparing to stomp down and crush the golden-haired young man's head.

However, at that moment, a gaze looked over – it was a supervisor. Even though Outlander Ten College did not prohibit fights, they did not allow killing.

If Zhao Fu wanted to kill this person, the supervisor would definitely stop him and Zhao Fu might be disqualified. As such, he did not stomp down and instead kicked out.

The golden-haired young man howled as he was kicked flying before collapsing onto the ground, unconscious. Zhao Fu then turned to look at the three people lying on the ground. They looked at Zhao Fu in fear, not daring to do anything.

Zhao Fu did not do anything else and walked back to his line.

Seeing how savage Zhao Fu had been, the people around him all made way. The ferocious-looking Barbarian smiled as he said, “Brother, I respect you for having the strength to beat down those people. I helped you keep your spot, so you can go up and take the exam now.”

Zhao Fu calmly nodded and went up to the stage.

Gou Yan and the others looked at Zhao Fu in shock. They felt more and more that Zhao Fu was not ordinary – he did not even fear that Imperial Kingdom’s Prince at all and had beat him half to death.
