

The Lord 1641

Chapter 1641 Unicorn Goddess

Zhao Fu did not know how many people there were now paying attention to a 'low-profile' figure like him.

After doing it with the Pigman Goddess and her two guards, he used the Six Desires Demonic Qi to heal their wounds and cause their power to recover. They were now only slightly weakened.

The Ogre Chief could not help but inwardly sigh – this person was even more of a stud horse than the best stud horse; he seemed to be determined to do any woman he came across. Couldn't he be more loyal? His daughters were now following him and yet he was so licentious. The Ogre Chief could not help but wonder if he had ever truly loved someone.

Noticing that there was no noise coming out of the barrier, the Ogre Chief realized something and felt quite angry. Since he could block off noise, why had he not done so before when ravaging his three daughters? No wonder his daughters looked somewhat embarrassed when facing him; this person was worse than a beast.

The Ogre Chief could only inwardly curse at Zhao Fu and could not say these things out loud unless he did not want to live anymore.

The Ogre Chief now knew how terrifying and mysterious Zhao Fu was.

Even though Zhao Fu was quite dissolute, he was backed by immense power, and his daughters at least would not be bullied by others.

However, his daughters had become incredibly reliant on him and incredibly lewd, and they just wanted to stay by his side and serve him.

The barrier soon disappeared, revealing Zhao Fu and the women; by now, they had put on their clothes.

The Pigman Goddess and the two guards' faces were bright red and they gave off enticing auras. The Pigman Goddess was smiling sweetly as she lay in Zhao Fu's embrace, and she looked completely different than before.

Zhao Fu hugged the Pigman Goddess as he smiled and asked, “How much do you know about the other God Temple?”

The Pigman Goddess charmingly smiled as she replied, “That God Temple belongs to a Centaur Goddess and she has the bloodline of the holy beast Unicorn, so she’s incredibly arrogant and looks down on everyone else, especially other races. I’m not very familiar with her.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu thought before saying, “Let’s go over together! After taking care of things here I have other matters to take care of.”

Following this, Zhao Fu and his group went to the other God Temple.

There were Centaur statues outside, and after coming to the God Temple, the Centaur statues exploded out with powerful auras and attacked.

They were quickly dealt with by Zhao Fu’s group – Zhao Fu had not only brought the Pigman Goddess and her guards but also the 900 remaining Pigmen soldiers. The statue soldiers were instantly destroyed and turned into broken rocks.

After destroying the statue soldiers, Zhao Fu and his group entered the God Temple. What was surprising was that it was completely silent within and did not have anyone protecting it.

Zhao Fu directly led his group to the main hall, where he saw a woman sitting on a throne.

This woman had very long silver hair that nearly reached the ground. She was peerlessly beautiful and there was a snow-white horn at the center of her forehead. She was tall and slim, almost two meters tall, and she had a snow-white horse’s tail. She wore a long, white dress and gave off a holy and proud aura.

There were six guards beside her, who all had long, white hair and pretty looks. They were dressed in silver-white armor and held silver swords, and they also gave off holy auras.

After Zhao Fu’s group walked in, the Centaur Goddess – or rather, Unicorn Goddess- opened her silver-white eyes and said coldly, “Why have you come to Our temple? Also, We do not like men or impure women, so state your business and then leave.”

The Pigman Goddess looked somewhat angry; impure women were naturally referring to her, as she had just done it with Zhao Fu.

However, the Pigman Goddess thought of something and gave a flirtatious smile as she leaned against Zhao Fu and said, “Husband, help me properly discipline her later.”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and nodded. He looked at the Unicorn Goddess and said, “Will you obediently submit to me, or do I have to make you submit?”

A look of anger appeared on the Unicorn Goddess’ beautiful face; this was immense disrespect to her.

She grabbed at the air and countless silver-white traces of light gathered, forming exquisite, white spears. A massive aura exploded out from her body, forming a massive gale.

Zhao Fu did not show any fear and said, “Capture them alive!”

The 900 Pigmen soldiers gave off powerful auras as they charged up, followed by the Ogre Chief, the Pigman Goddess, and her two guards.

The Ogre Chief and two guards, as well as 100 Pigmen soldiers, were responsible for attacking the six Centaur guards, while the remaining 800 Pigmen soldiers attacked the Unicorn Goddess.

“Husband, I’ll go and teach that goddess a lesson and capture her so that you can train her,” the Pigman Goddess said as she smiled.

In response, Zhao Fu laughed and nodded.

The battle quickly exploded out by the Unicorn Goddess’ side was at a complete disadvantage. Facing the Ogre Chief, two guards, and 100 or so Pigmen soldiers, the six Centaur guards soon showed signs of defeat.

On the other side, the Unicorn Goddess was tied down by the Pigman Goddess, and the 800 Pigmen soldiers also shot traces of cold lights towards the Unicorn Goddess.

Soon, the six Centaur guards had been captured, and their bodies were somewhat bloody.

The Unicorn Goddess blocked the united strike from 800 Pigmen soldiers, but she was sent flying by the Pigman Goddess. She crashed onto the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood. She continued fighting for a bit longer before she too was captured.

She was forced to kneel in front of Zhao Fu by two Pigmen soldiers, and Zhao Fu caressed her beautiful face, making her look quite disgusted.

The people on the viewing platform were split into two groups. Most of the men wanted Zhao Fu to quickly do this goddess. Even though they could not do her themselves, imagining such a pure and arrogant goddess acting lewdly, they could not help but feel excited.

Most of the women felt incredibly infuriated; such a beautiful and pure goddess was going to be violated by a beast. They wanted to rush in, save this goddess, and kill that perverted bandit.

However, even higher-beings could not blast open the secret realm, much less them. They could only furiously watch and hope that a miracle would happen.

In the end, there were no miracles. The black energy barrier once again appeared and the Unicorn Goddess and her six Centaur guards were brought in. Even though they could not see or hear anything, everyone understood what was happening.

The men looked quite excited as they imagined the pure goddess acting lewdly, while the women furiously wanted to skin Zhao Fu alive.

Now, Zhao Fu once again became even more famous.

Chapter 1642 Earth Soul

When the barrier was dispelled, the Unicorn Goddess' face was red and she panted as she leaned in Zhao Fu's embrace. Even though she still looked holy, her body gave off an intense desire.

Seeing this, the men on the viewing platforms felt immense respect that Zhao Fu could tame such a pure and arrogant Goddess so quickly. If it was them, they would not be able to do so. Moreover, they had never enjoyed such a beautiful and pure Goddess before.

The women all looked furious; yet another Goddess had been stained by this perverted bandit, and there was one less pure Goddess in this world. How come that perverted bandit still hadn't died?

Zhao Fu naturally did not know about any of this. He hugged the Unicorn Goddess and the Pigman Goddess, followed by eight red-faced guards. This was especially so for the Unicorn Goddess' six guards – they wore silver-white armor but had incredibly red faces, making them look quite enticing.

The group came to a secret room, at the center of which was a stage. Above the stage floated an orb giving off yellow light.

This orb was the core of this area. The reason that this area could float in the sky was because the orb was an Earth Soul that could give a large amount of lifeforce and defensive power, and it was extremely powerful.

It was the final item needed for the War God's Fury. If they could bring it back and place it in the War God's Fury, the War God's Fury would be able to be used in battle and unleash its terrifying destructive power.

The Ten Thousand Gravity Origin Stone gave the War God's Fury the ability to fly, the God Race Stone gave it immense god race power, the Celestial Peach Tree gave it powerful lifeforce and the ability to gather energy, and now this Earth Soul gave it defensive power and soul power.

Now, the War God's Fury could be formed into a living creature. Now that it had lifeforce, a body, and a soul, it could be called a living creature.

The War God's Fury was as big as a region and the destructive power it could unleash would definitely be shocking. Even if it slammed against the ground, all creatures in a region would die.

Just as Zhao Fu was about to let go of the two women to take that Earth Soul, the Unicorn Goddess clung onto Zhao Fu and said flirtatiously, "Husband, don't let go of me."

On the other side, the Pigman Goddess could not help but laugh as she thought about how wild and lustful the pure Unicorn Goddess had been within the barrier. Now, she was deeply attached to Zhao Fu.

She had remembered the Unicorn Goddess calling her an impure woman, and now she was the same. She was even lewder than her, which made her feel better.

Zhao Fu smiled and hugged her as he went onto the stage and collected the yellow orb of light, and the ground started to tremble.

The Earth Soul was the core of this place, and without the Earth Soul, this area would soon collapse. Zhao Fu did not hesitate and brought everyone to leave this place.

After returning to the ground, Zhao Fu thought about it and decided to bring the Ogre Chief and the two Goddesses with him. They were quite powerful and would be of much use to him.

There were also the 800 Pigmen soldiers; they were willing to die for him and could help him deal with any situation. Zhao Fu did not have to worry about losing them either, as it wouldn't matter even if they all died.

The guards did not want to be separated from their godly spirit masters and said shyly, "Sir, we can also help serve you; please bring us as well."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed but refused, as it was quite dangerous and he was not completely confident that he could protect them.

Zhao Fu and the three others continued on towards the inner regions of the secret realm.

"Roar! Roar! Roar..." soon, three snake-like creatures made of blue light roared and attacked the group.

Zhao Fu did not move, and the two Goddesses and the Ogre Chief gave off powerful auras and rushed at the snakes.

The Unicorn Goddess stabbed out with her spear, causing a massive spear light to pierce through one of the snakes. The Pigman Goddess slashed out, slashing another snake in half, while the Ogre Chief swung his club and smashed open the head of the last snake.

After the three creatures were killed, they turned into countless motes of light and entered the three people's bodies, and Zhao Fu did not get a single point.

This was because secret realm creatures could also gain points. Even though Zhao Fu was their master, the points belonged to whoever made the kill.

The people on the viewing platforms felt quite confused and felt that Zhao Fu had missed the point. Shouldn't he be finding creatures to kill so that he could earn points and become a disciple of Outlander Ten College?

However, it seemed that he did not have any interest in points, and the creatures from before had sought their own deaths. He would not have taken the initiative to kill them.

Right now, he probably had the fewest points because everyone was working hard to earn points except for him. He seemed to be focused on looking for treasure, so it was only natural that he had the fewest points.

Everyone's purpose in coming to the secret realm was to become a disciple of Outlander Ten College, and normally people would only explore after gaining enough points. If this person did not gain any points, he would definitely fail.

Outlander Ten College was a place that countless geniuses wanted to enter, but this person did not seem to care. Was it that he was too arrogant and did not take Outlander Ten College seriously?

Some people looked at his points in curiosity and found that he only had 500 points; those with 0 points did not show up in the rankings.

Much time had passed, and the first-ranked Sun Elf now had 500,000 points – this was over 1,000 times more than this person.

Zhao Fu continued onwards in the secret realm. The Ogre Chief was quite familiar with this area, and he knew of the location of a Lion person Tribe.

The secret realm was incredibly big, even bigger than an ordinary world. Apart from just creatures made for earning points, there were various races living here.

That Lion person Tribe was quite big, and it was the biggest Tribe in this area. It had 100,000 or so people and each Lion person Warrior was quite powerful and had around Stage 7 or 8 Cultivation.

Zhao Fu had the Ogre Chief bring them there, and after a few hours, they finally reached that Tribe.

They were surprised to see that the Lion person Tribe's people were currently surrounding a small group.

There were no rules against making groups in the secret realm. Anyone who wanted to obtain some security could band together, but this was in name only and was not binding. They also had to be on their guards against each other.

After all, it was everyone's dream to enter Outlander Ten College and some people would resort to underhanded methods as long as they could make it in.

Chapter 1643 - 1643 Lion Person

1643 Lion Person

The group had mediocre strength and had six people: four men and two women. Facing a large number of Lion people, they started to become injured and became more and more disadvantaged.

However, their lives were not in danger as they could choose to leave the secret realm at any moment, even if they were in battle. All they would lose would be one-third of their points.

Seeing that they were unable to withstand the Lion people's attacks, a young man in the group raised a red egg the size of a plate, which had a picture of a lion on it, and called out, "You'd better all get back or I'll smash this Red Lion Egg."

The Lion people attacking the group had red fur, and they furiously looked at the group as they stopped attacking.

That egg was the Ancestral Egg that the Lion person Tribe worshipped. It was not a real egg but something condensed after the powerful Lion person ancestor died. It contained immense power and was an extremely high-grade material. It had been in a temple but had been stolen by this group of people.

The crowd of Lion people made way and a powerfully-built Lion person walked out. He was the Chief and he said coldly, "Put down the egg and we'll allow you to leave, or else you'll all die here."

The group did not care about the Lion Chief's threats as he could not instantly kill them with his power. As such, they would be able to leave the secret realm.

Right now, they did not want to lose any points or give up this powerful Red Lion Egg. The young man holding the ancestral egg naturally could not agree and said, "Hurry up and move out of the way, or I'll smash this egg."

Seeing that the group was so unafraid and refused to give up the egg, the Lion Chief felt quite furious but he could not do anything about this; he could not change the rules of the secret realm.

He understood that the group did not want to give up on their points, which was why they did not directly leave. However, he could not just let them leave, as they would run and they would not be able to take back the ancestral egg.

The Lion Chief furiously shouted, "If you destroy that Red Lion Egg, don't even think about getting away."

Seeing how unyielding the Lion Chief was, the group felt quite troubled. On one hand, they did not want to waste points or use up one of their chances in the secret realm, nor did they want to give up the Red Lion Egg. This Red Lion Egg contained extremely powerful ancestral energy and there was a trace of a spirit flame inside. It was incredibly precious and valuable.

Neither side was willing to take a step back, forcing them into a stalemate.

Zhao Fu had the others hide in ambush before he walked out and said, "I have an idea, how about you give the Red Lion Egg to me. That way, the group can leave and I'll give some compensation to the Lion person Tribe. How does that sound?"

Everyone looked at Zhao Fu and found that he was a mere Harmony Realm Cultivator, and they uncourteously called out, "Scram!"

The group had obtained the Red Lion Egg with great difficulty, so how could they just give it over to someone else so easily just so they could escape? If that was the case they might as well just give it back to the Lion person Tribe.

The Lion person Tribe naturally would not agree either because that was their ancestral item and they absolutely could not lose it. Let alone trading it for something, they would not give it over even if it cost them their lives.

Zhao Fu long since expected this, but he felt quite displeased about being told to scram. His expression became cold as he said, “You’re seeking death; don’t blame me for this!”

The leader of the group laughed as he said, “With your measly cultivation? If we weren’t surrounded by so many Lion people, I’d come over and beat you up myself. I wonder how such an overconfident person like you has managed to stay alive until now.”

A Ratfolk person next to him laughed as he said, “Just ignore this idiot; let’s think of how we can escape.”

The Lion Chief also looked at Zhao Fu and felt quite angry. Not only did he want to take away their ancestral item, but he was also so arrogant too, “It’s you who is seeking death. Since you want our ancestral egg, you’re an enemy too. Men, go and deal with him.”

A few Harmony Realm Lion people savagely rushed over, as if they could already see Zhao Fu begging for mercy at their feet.

Facing the Lion people savagely charging over, Zhao Fu did not move from the spot as he took out the Sadistic Killing Sword and casually swung it.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as a massive blood-red crescent flew out and slashed the Harmony Realm Lion people into a few pieces. Blood and flesh fell all over the ground; they did not stand a chance.

This scene caused everyone to look incredibly confused; no one had expected such a thing to happen: How could Zhao Fu, a Harmony Realm Cultivator, instantly kill people of the same cultivation as him.

What shocked them even more was that the Pigmen soldiers, two Goddesses, and Ogre Chief rushed out, surrounding the Lion people and the small group.

The Lion people only had 200 or so people, and Zhao Fu's 800 Pigmen soldiers completely surrounded them.

Seeing that they were surrounded, both groups felt quite shocked, and sensing the Pigmen soldiers' auras, as well as the three World Realm experts' auras, they started to feel panicked.

Zhao Fu coldly laughed, "I said it was you who were seeking death, and yet none of you believed me. Now, all of you can die together. Kill all of them!"

The Pigmen soldiers obeyed and gave off powerful auras as they rushed at the two groups. The Lion Chief roared, his voice reaching incredibly far away. The Lion person Tribe was not too far away, and he was most likely calling for reinforcements.

His cultivation was at the peak of the World Realm, and the two Goddesses held their weapons as they rushed at him. A battle quickly unfolded between them.

Seeing this, the small group understood that if they did not run away soon, it would be too late. They chose to directly leave the secret realm – even though it cost them one-third of their points, it was better than losing their lives.

After choosing to leave, the secret realm's power covered them, causing their bodies to gradually become transparent as they were about to disappear.

Zhao Fu looked at the young man holding the ancestral egg, and the blue pupil in his left eye gave off an illusory light that pulled the young man into an illusion.

The others disappeared and left the secret realm, but that young man remained there, a stiff expression on his face.

Zhao Fu stretched out his hand and grabbed, and a few chains flew out and carefully wrapped around the ancestral egg before bringing it to Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu took the Red Lion Egg and sensing the ancestral energy within it, a trace of a smile appeared on his face.

If he could refine this Red Lion Egg, he would be able to obtain a Lion person totem.

Chapter 1644 Red Lion Egg

The illusion disappeared and the young man came back to his senses as he looked at this scene in shock. He had not left the secret realm and had remained where he was, and he did not understand what had happened.

Just then, he remembered returning outside the secret realm with the others and they had dealt with the ancestral egg before returning.

However, why was he back here? The young man soon realized that he had been affected by some kind of powerful illusion; it had seemed completely real, and he could not tell at all.

The people on the viewing platforms also felt quite curious. Even though they could not see Zhao Fu's appearance, they had seen the eyes under the hood of the cloak give off an illusory glow, easily bringing someone at the peak of the Great Earth Realm into an illusion.

What kind of illusion technique was this? Or was it his bloodline power? It was simply shocking, as it could easily drag someone into an illusion without even looking them in the eyes; all it required was a glance.

The people in the surroundings continuously fought, and the Lion people were quickly killed. Facing the attacks from the two Goddesses, the Lion Chief was at a disadvantage and was already covered with many wounds.

Seeing this, the young man did not dare to stay here and once again tried to leave the secret realm. However, a terrifying gaze landed on his body, causing his hairs to stand on end. The young man felt that if he tried to do anything, he would immediately die.

Even if he tried to leave the secret realm, it would be useless, as he would once again fall under an illusion; he could not escape.

Moreover, even if he stayed here, there was that cold gaze that seemed to be filled with killing intent. Thinking about that, the young man immediately knelt and said, "Sir, please don't kill me; I can tell you about the location of a historical remnant."

After putting the egg away, Zhao Fu prepared to kill the young man, but hearing about the historical remnant, he stopped.

“Charge!!” a roar sounded out as roughly 10,000 or so Lion people soldiers gave off powerful auras as they rushed over; their reinforcements had arrived.

Bang!

A massive sound rang as the Pigman Goddess slashed the Lion Chief to the ground, opening up a large crater and causing him to cough up a large mouthful of blood.

Zhao Fu looked at the incoming 10,000 or so soldiers and gave a cruel smile. He originally did not like to kill people, and he would only do so if he had to. However, as he killed more and more people, he had started to enjoy the feeling of killing.

When faced with so many enemies he could easily kill, his heart rate would speed up and his blood seemed to flow faster.

Shing!

Zhao Fu turned into a black sword light and shot into the incoming army. Sharp sword lights flashed out, causing the Lion people’s bodies to be cut in half and sending blood flying everywhere.

The 10,000 or so Lion people held their weapons and furiously surrounded Zhao Fu.

Facing them, Zhao Fu did not show any fear and instead gave a cruel smile as he rushed out.

The Lion people immediately attacked, sending out sharp lights containing immense power to fly towards Zhao Fu.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Zhao Fu suddenly ran to the side, and countless attacks landed on the ground, creating dents and causing dust to rise up.

The remainder of attacks were blocked by Zhao Fu's defensive barrier, and he once again charged into the army of Lion people soldiers. In response, the Lion people furiously gripped their weapons and charged at him, while Zhao Fu once again slashed out.

A ferocious blood-red sword light containing terrifying power slashed out, bisecting hundreds of Lion people.

Swish!

Blood sprayed throughout the air, and before all of it descended, Zhao Fu turned into a ray of light and shot through the blood, spinning as the Sadistic Killing Sword sent out a circular blood-red sword light. The Lion people's heads in the surroundings were all slashed apart, sending blood spraying upwards.

The blood from before finally landed as even more blood filled the air, creating a rain of blood.

A Lion person expert roared as he furiously rushed over to Zhao Fu. He held a large saber and gave off a powerful aura as he hacked at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu stabbed out with his sword as fast as lightning, straight through that Lion person expert's mouth. The sword stabbed through his neck, and Zhao Fu did not withdraw the sword and instead sliced to the side, causing the Lion person's head to fall off. He then slashed out again, chopping the Lion person's body in half.

"Arghhh..." cries continuously sounded out as blood splattered everywhere. The ground was covered with corpses and none of them were complete. The Lion people were unable to defend against Zhao Fu's slaughter at all.

The young man was quite shocked as he watched Zhao Fu continuously massacre the Lion people. Zhao Fu was the weakest here, and he had never thought that Zhao Fu would be the most savage, killing people for pleasure like a demon.

The people on the viewing platforms also looked quite dismayed. They had never expected this person to be so licentious and also bloodthirsty. He was not a good person at all.

“Arghh!” The Unicorn Goddess stabbed her spear through the Lion Chief’s heart, and he gave a final cry before his body powerlessly collapsed to the ground.

The remaining Lion people were either slaughtered by Zhao Fu or cleaned up by the Pigmen soldiers. In the end, the ground was covered by their corpses, and the dense smell of blood was enough to make people vomit.

The young man stood there in terror after seeing how Zhao Fu killed without even blinking. He did not dare to offend Zhao Fu at all now.

Zhao Fu flicked the Sadistic Killing Sword and sent the blood and bits of flesh flying off before putting it away. He came to the young man and said, “Speak, tell me where the historical remnant is. If I’m satisfied, I’ll spare your life.”

The young man said nervously, “It’s an Elf historical remnant and my big brother discovered it while running away one time. He didn’t explore it because it was too dangerous. That historical remnant is nearby and I had wanted to lead the group there before we came across this Tribe.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu nodded and said, “Bring me there!”

The young man nodded and brought the group to a lake and said, “Sir, the Elf historical remnant is at the bottom of the lake.”

Zhao Fu looked at the Ogre Chief, and the Ogre Chief understood and dove into the water. He came back after a while and said, “There is indeed a historic remnant underwater.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile and waved a hand, sending restrictions into the young man’s body as he said, “I’ll release you after I’ve explored this historical remnant.”

After saying this, Zhao Fu brought the group into the lake.

He found that there was an Elf City underwater, as well as a barrier that kept the water away. Zhao Fu brought the group in and found that it was completely silent and had no signs of life. There was a dense aura of death and there were mostly many Undead creatures here.

Chapter 1645 Elf King Ring

Zhao Fu thought to himself and brought his group to walk towards the City Hall at the center. Soon, large amounts of deathly aura rushed out as Skeleton Elves dressed in armor and holding weapons rushed at the group.

Even though these Skeleton Elves were not very strong, they had large numbers. There were tens of thousands of them and they gave off a flood-like deathly aura as they rushed at Zhao Fu's group.

Zhao Fu immediately gave out orders and the 800 Pigmen soldiers gave off powerful auras as they rushed out. Even though there were only 800 of them, they were all Great Earth Realm Cultivators and their overall aura was not weaker than the tens of thousands of Skeletons.

At the same time, Zhao Fu led the others into battle as well.

Zhao Fu slashed out with his sword, sending out massive sword energy that easily blasted waves of Skeletons back. After flying out, the Skeletons collapsed into piles of bones and dropped gray-green crystals.

Zhao Fu noticed these gray-green crystals but did not pay them much mind for now because there were still large numbers of Skeleton Elves.

An hour later, Zhao Fu and his group finally finished dealing with the tens of thousands of Skeletons.

Zhao Fu picked up a gray-green crystal. It was not very big, only as big as a pinky nail. It was incredibly cold and made him feel as if he was holding a piece of ice. These gray-green crystals were called Elf Death Crystals.

The Elves were a race blessed with lifeforce and had longer lifespans than ordinary people, and they believed in the powerful Goddess of Life.

Life and death were different sides of the same coin, and places that had incredibly dense aura of life would also create extremely pure traces of aura of death; places with incredibly dense aura of death would also create extremely pure traces of aura of life.

Zhao Fu naturally did not care about these attributes, but what he took notice of was that these crystals contained extremely pure Elf energy. With enough of them, given the purity of this energy, he would be able to awaken an Elf totem, so Zhao Fu immediately ordered people to collect these crystals.

However, things didn't go as he wanted. A Skeleton Elf giving off a King's aura led 100,000 Skeletons and charged at Zhao Fu's group, giving off loud sounds.

Zhao Fu had the others stop collecting crystals and they once again started fighting. The others were responsible for killing the ordinary Skeletons while Zhao Fu went to deal with the Skeleton Elf King.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The Pigmen soldiers charged at the Skeletons, swinging their weapons and gave off powerful auras as they sent the Skeletons flying.

The Skeleton Elves flooded towards those Pigmen soldiers without any fear, madly attacking them, causing the Pigmen soldiers to start to receive injuries and casualties.

Zhao Fu leapt up and sent powerful energy into the Sadistic Killing Sword, causing it to give off large amounts of blood-red light as he ferociously slashed down towards the Skeleton Elf King.

The Skeleton Elf King held an exquisite-looking gray sword and sent a large amount of King's Power into it. Large amounts of deathly aura flowed out of the sword and the Skeleton Elf King slashed out.

Shing!

An intense blood-red sword light and an intense gray sword light crashed together, causing a shockwave to blast out and cause the ground to crack. Rocks flew everywhere as a massive gale spread out.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu roared as he exploded out with immense Divine Power and vigorously slashed towards the Skeleton Elf King. The Skeleton Elf King felt a wave of fear, as this Divine Power completely suppressed its power.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as the Skeleton Elf King was sent flying and crashed dozens of meters away.

Zhao Fu gave off a powerful aura as he rushed up and ferociously slashed down at the Skeleton Elf King on the ground.

The Skeleton Elf King was startled and immediately rolled to the side.

Bang!

The massive power struck the ground, opening up a massive crater. Even though the Skeleton Elf King dodged the brunt of Zhao Fu’s attack, it was still caught in the shockwave and was once again sent flying.

“Roar!!” the Skeleton Elf King gave a furious roar and stood up as it gave off a large amount of deathly aura. It appeared in front of Zhao Fu in the next second and its sword gave off a terrifying power as it slashed out.

Zhao Fu looked somewhat savage as he exploded out with a black aura flame and also gave off immense power as he slashed out.

Bang!

An enormous sound rang out as the two swords clashed, resulting in a massive explosion. Both people were sent flying back, and a ten or so meter wide crater was left on the ground.

A trace of blood leaked out of Zhao Fu’s lips as he coldly looked at the Skeleton Elf King. The Skeleton Elf King’s arm that held the sword was now covered with cracks.

Boom!

Zhao Fu slashed at the Skeleton Elf King, while the Skeleton Elf King roared and brought with it large amounts of deathly aura as it charged at Zhao Fu.

Bang!

Yet another large sound rang out as the two terrifying powers collided. This time, the Skeleton Elf King's cracked arm shattered and its sword flew out.

However, the Skeleton Elf King did not give up and its other arm stabbed out like a sharp knife towards Zhao Fu's throat.

Shing!

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, causing an enormous sword hum to sound out as intense sword qi cut off the incoming arm.

Now that the Skeleton Elf King had lost both its arms, it had essentially lost its ability to attack.

However, Zhao Fu would not let it off because of this. He sent large amounts of Divine Power into the Sadistic Killing Sword before slashing into the Skeleton Elf King's chest, sending it flying.

The Skeleton Elf King flew ten or so meters and crashed into the ground, opening up a large crater, and the bones on its chest were now cracked.

Zhao Fu rushed up and sent out a few more attacks, finally killing this Skeleton Elf King.

After killing it, Zhao Fu obtained two items. The first was a gray-green crystal the size of a marble. The second was a green ring.

This ring was called the Elf King ring and anyone who wore it would obtain large amounts of King's Power, and it would be able to contract with a powerful creature as the ring spirit.

The Elf King ring's stats were quite powerful but it was not very useful for Zhao Fu, as his power greatly surpassed this equipment. Moreover, now that he had Divine Power, he naturally did not need King's Power.

The gray-green marble was called a King Death Crystal and seemed like it would be useful. Zhao Fu picked it up and sent power into it, causing the ordinary gray-green crystals in the surroundings to float up and fly towards the King Death Crystal.

These ordinary grey-green crystals continuously fused into the King Death Crystal, forming a gray crystal as big as a ball in the end.

Chapter 1646 Chicken Person God Temple

Zhao Fu sensed the terrifying power within the King Death Crystal and gave a trace of a smile. He found a place without anyone around and a black energy barrier spread out as Zhao Fu started to refine the Red Lion Egg and King Death Crystal.

Zhao Fu first took the Red Lion Egg and an energy covered the Red Lion Egg, causing it to give off an intense red light. The egg then started to crack as it turned into powder and dissipated, revealing a fist-sized tongue of flame within.

Zhao Fu controlled the tongue of flame to float into his body, and a powerful energy spread throughout Zhao Fu's body, causing him to give off a red light.

As he absorbed this massive wave of power, Zhao Fu's constitution and soul were strengthened, and a red Lion person totem appeared on his back.

Next was the King Death Crystal. Zhao Fu controlled the King Death Crystal to float in the air, and he sent in Divine Power, causing the King Death Crystal to continuously give off a green aura.

Zhao Fu breathed in and the green aura continuously flowed into his mouth. He sensed a powerful wave of lifeforce flow in, and Zhao Fu continuously refined it and fused it into his body.

Zhao Fu's body gave off an intense green light, which gave off ripples of life and felt quite mystical. After absorbing the green aura, Zhao Fu once again felt a pain on his back as a green Elf totem appeared.

Zhao Fu had obtained another two totems, and with the Ogre totem from before, he had gained three in the secret realm. He was only eight away from having all 34 major races' totems.

Zhao Fu smiled and removed the black energy barrier.

The other Skeleton Elves had been killed, and the two Goddesses and Ogre Chief were uninjured. However, the 800 Pigmen soldiers had mostly died.

Zhao Fu felt that it was a pity, but Zhao Fu was planning to go to places further away and bringing them would not be convenient.

Following this, Zhao Fu came to the City Hall and decided to relocate this City.

The City started to tremble and its surroundings crumbled as the barrier separating the water outside also disappeared, and large amounts of water flowed in.

Zhao Fu and the others returned to the shore, and the young man waiting by the shore let out a breath of relief. Now that Zhao Fu had obtained what he wanted, he let the young man go.

Zhao Fu led the others into the sky and started to look for other historical remnants.

After a while, the Unicorn Goddess suddenly said, "Husband, I can feel ripples of divine energy here; there should be a godly spirit historical remnant somewhere."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite delighted and said, "Are any of you able to pinpoint where it is?"

The Unicorn Goddess closed her eyes and spread out her senses before pointing in a direction and saying, "I can't sense where it is exactly, but I can hazily tell that there are three God Temples within that forest."

Zhao Fu could not help but laugh; they had found three God Temples in one go, and this was not ordinary at all. Finding one was good fortune, but finding three was simply too fortunate.

Zhao Fu felt that there were many God Temples and godly spirit historical remnants in this secret realm; perhaps he could gather 24 Goddesses and open the Godly Spirit World Door.

Zhao Fu immediately brought the others and flew into that forest, and they quickly found the first God Temple.

This God Temple was made of green stones and was ten or so meters tall. There were two Chicken person statues at the front, which gave off dignified auras. There were no trees in the God Temple's surroundings, making the space quite sparse.

As Zhao Fu and the others walked towards the God Temple, groups of Chicken people flew out and the leader shouted with a cold expression, "Who are you to dare to intrude into a God Temple; don't you know that you're blaspheming against our glorious godly spirit?"

These Chicken people had chicken heads, humanoid bodies, and pairs of green wings on their backs. They wore leather armor and held spears, and they gave off powerful auras.

Hearing that Chicken person's words, the Pigman Goddess laughed as she said, "Can't you tell? We're also godly spirits. Hurry up and tell your godly spirit to come out; we have business with them."

The leader of the Chicken people felt quite shocked as he looked at the Pigman Goddess. Sensing her aura, he could tell that she was indeed a glorious godly spirit. Even though they did not worship Pigman Gods, as people who worshipped a godly spirit, they instinctively felt respect towards godly spirits. Facing this Pigman Goddess, the Chicken people felt somewhat nervous, as godly spirits were all high and mighty and did not allow anyone to offend them, so they started to become careful.

The leader considered going into the God Temple to report to the Chicken person godly spirit that there was another godly spirit visiting.

However, at that moment, the Unicorn Goddess said, "Is your godly spirit a man or a woman, and how are their looks?"

Only then did the Chicken people notice the Unicorn Goddess, and they felt even more shocked, as they realized that she was also a godly spirit.

Two godly spirits had come this time, and the Chicken people felt incredibly shocked and serious. If a conflict erupted, their side would be at a disadvantage, so the Chicken people became even more respectful and cautious.

However, these two godly spirits were all within that young man's embrace and they seemed quite intimate, as if they were his wives. Thinking about that, the Chicken people could not help but feel even more shocked. Just who was this young man for two godly spirits to act like his wives? They had never seen such a thing before, and they realised that this young man must be incredibly terrifying.

Hearing the Unicorn Goddess' words, the leader respectfully replied, "Our glorious godly spirit is a beautiful woman."

Hearing this, the Unicorn Goddess lightly laughed and said, "That is all, go and report to your godly spirit!"

After saying this, the Unicorn Goddess' face became red as she leaned against Zhao Fu and whispered, "Congratulations, husband, there'll be another godly spirit serving you soon. Don't forget about us though, I also want you."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and hugged her as he nodded.

The Pigman Goddess flirtatiously smiled as she said, "Husband, I also want you to give me love. I wasn't satisfied last time; you focused on the Unicorn Goddess and her guards, so you can't do the same thing this time."

By now, the leader of the Chicken people had reported this to the Chicken Goddess. She had a graceful figure, pretty looks, and green hair. She also had a pair of green wings and gave off a gentle aura.

She had been sitting on her throne, and after hearing this, her expression became serious as she did not understand why two godly spirits had come to find her. However, this was definitely no ordinary matter so she thought about it and had the leader bring them in.

Chapter 1647: Treasure

Following this, Zhao Fu and the others entered the God Temple and saw the Chicken Goddess.

The Chicken Goddess' beautiful eyes fell on Zhao Fu's body. She could immediately tell that Zhao Fu was not simple and was the leader of the others. She asked, "What matters have you to come to find me for?"

Zhao Fu thought before smiling and replying, "I wanted to ask the glorious godly spirit if you have the ability to obtain Chicken person power."

Even though the Chicken Goddess was quite beautiful, he had important matters to take of first. He did not ask the Chicken Goddess to directly give him a totem because ordinarily only Chicken people would be able to obtain a Chicken person totem; it would be incredibly difficult to give one to outsiders.

Zhao Fu was quite special and could obtain many totems, and it was mostly through ancestral power and racial power.

Hearing this, the Chicken Goddess felt quite satisfied about Zhao Fu's attitude. She thought about it before saying, "I have something that can give you large amounts of Chicken person power, but what will you give in exchange? If you can give an equivalent treasure, I will give that thing to you."

"Treasure?" Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he replied, "I have a powerful treasure that has unimaginable power, and it can give you immense pleasure. It's one of a kind too. Glorious godly spirit, do you want it? I can trade you that for whatever you have."

The Chicken Goddess felt somewhat shocked and curious; just what was this treasure that was incredibly powerful and could give her extreme pleasure? She said, "Hurry up and take it out so I can see just what kind of treasure it is."

Zhao Fu could not help but laugh and say, "My treasure is extremely powerful and I don't want it seen by others; I hope you don't mind me releasing a barrier for privacy."

The Chicken Goddess thought to herself. This was her God Temple and there were large numbers of Chicken people outside, so there was not much to worry about. As such, she nodded and agreed.

Zhao Fu smiled and waved his hand, and a black barrier spread out, covering the entire God Temple.

The people on the viewing platforms could not help but curse, “You bastard!”

After viewing Zhao Fu for so long, they naturally knew what kind of person he was. He was a perverted bandit and they all knew what that ‘treasure’ was.

Most of the men admired Zhao Fu for having such a ‘treasure.’ Even a Dragon person most powerful in that regard would willingly admit his loss.

The women all stared at Zhao Fu; they naturally knew what he was talking about as well. They also angrily cursed out and wondered why there was no one doing the will of heaven and getting rid of this scourge to women.

Seeing that black barrier, they felt furious and powerless; yet another Goddess was going to be violated by this bastard.

The other men felt quite angry, as Zhao Fu did not allow them to watch, and there were no longer any sounds. They didn’t mind that bastard doing as he pleased, but they wanted to at least watch.

Within the barrier, Zhao Fu acted serious as he smiled and said, “Glorious godly spirit, please take a good look; I’m about to take the treasure out.”

The Chicken Goddess nodded earnestly and looked at Zhao Fu, but she could not help but feel that something was off.

At that moment, Zhao Fu raised his head and looked the Chicken Goddess in the eyes. His right eye had become blood-red and a rose-like flower had appeared. The blue pupil in his left eye also gave off an illusory glow.

As the Chicken Goddess looked into Zhao Fu’s eyes, her heart trembled and her mind became hazy as she blanked out.

She felt that the light around her dimmed as a wave of darkness rushed towards her, and a blue eye appeared in front of her, giving off an illusory light.

This made it so that she could not focus, and her consciousness started to fade as she seemed to fall into an illusion.

The Chicken Goddess was about to be dragged into an illusion by Zhao Fu's Evil Spirit Abyss Flower pupil, as well as his illusion pupil when her Divinity sensed immense danger and exploded out with extreme godly spirit power, causing her to escape from the illusion.

When she came back to her senses, she was pressed against her throne by the two other Goddesses. She wanted to resist, and a green light exploded out from within her body. However, the two other Goddesses also gave off great power, forcefully restricting the Chicken Goddess as Zhao Fu lightly laughed and walked towards the throne.

The Ogre Chief sighed; he knew what was about to happen. He tactfully went outside the doors to stand guard so no one would disturb them.

Zhao Fu came to the throne and lifted the Chicken Goddess' chin as he gave an evil smile and said, "I'll let you see how powerful my treasure is."

The Chicken Goddess realized what was happening and she cursed out, "You bastard, you perverted scum. If you dare to do anything to me, I'll definitely kill you."

Zhao Fu squeezed her chin as said lightheartedly, "Hahaha, you won't say that soon."

As he spoke, he lowered his head and kissed the Chicken Goddess before starting to do it with her.

The Chicken Goddess soon sank into the pleasure and lewdly called out under Zhao Fu's body.

The many Chicken people waited outside. Because of the barrier, they did not hear anything and did not know what was going on inside. They had no idea that the Goddess they worshipped was being ravaged by Zhao Fu.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu sat on the throne and hugged three unclothed and panting Goddesses. They were real Goddesses, not just goddess-like beauties, and ordinary people would not be able to enjoy such women.

Zhao Fu stretched out his hand and lifted up the Chicken Goddess' chin and smiled as he said, "What do you think? Did you feel how powerful it was? Did it allow you to feel extreme pleasure? I didn't lie to you, right?"

The Chicken Goddess' face became red as she rolled her eyes at Zhao Fu and said coquettishly, "All you know is how to bully me; you didn't treat me dearly at all."

The Pigman Goddess lightly harrumphed, "I would want him to do that to me; that fellow was completely focused on you just then. Also, you were the third to receive husband's love so you're the third of us."

The Unicorn Goddess lazily kissed Zhao Fu and said softly, "Husband, let's hurry and take care of things here. There are still two more God Temples; we can do it again later."

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded as he asked the Chicken Goddess, "What is the treasure you were talking about?"

Chapter 1648 Barbarian Totem

The Chicken Goddess took out a red chicken heart from her spatial ring and said, "This is the heart of a Chicken person Emperor and contains immense power. If you eat it, you'll be able to obtain great Chicken person power."

Zhao Fu took the chicken heart and ate it in one bite. This chicken heart was about as big as a fist and had a gory smell and taste. However, Zhao Fu could accept it, as he had even eaten people before.

After eating the chicken heart, Zhao Fu felt his heart vigorously beat as a powerful energy exploded throughout his body. He temporarily suppressed this power and said to the three Goddesses, "You all leave for now; I'm going to refine this power."

The three Goddesses smiled and nodded, and they put on their clothes before going outside.

The Chicken people did not know what had happened, and they saw their Goddess walk out with a red face and give off an alluring aura. She seemed much different than before.

Within the hall, Zhao Fu closed his eyes and quickly absorbed the massive amount of energy. His heart beat rapidly as his blood flowed quickly and his body heated up.

The chicken heart had turned into searing hot energy that spread throughout Zhao Fu's body, and Zhao Fu quickly refined it. He soon felt an immense heat on his back as a fiery-red Chicken person totem appeared on his back.

After obtaining this totem, Zhao Fu smiled and put on his clothes before going outside, and he headed to the next God Temple.

The next God Temple was a Barbarian God Temple and was guarded by a group of Barbarians. However, this Barbarian God was a man, so Zhao Fu was not very interested.

When they reached the God Temple, the Barbarians acted incredibly rudely. Zhao Fu had wanted to be courteous; if he could obtain something to awaken a totem, there would be no need to fight. Moreover, he did not want to take in the Barbarian God because he was not a woman.

After all, Goddesses could serve Zhao Fu, and he could absorb their divine energy. The Divinity in Zhao Fu's mind was now as big as a nail, and if he continued to absorb divine energy, it would become a true Divinity, allowing Zhao Fu to awaken the God Race's Emperor Star.

However, despite Zhao Fu's group acting courteously, the Barbarians did not respond in kind. The leader shouted, "Piss off! Our godly spirit is the most majestic existence; how could he meet you mortals?"

Before Zhao Fu's group had even done anything, some of the Barbarians already held their weapons and savagely looked at them.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu did not hesitate and said, "Kill them!"

The three Goddesses, Ogre Chief, and Chicken people held their weapons as they gave off powerful auras and started to fight with the Barbarians.

Boom!

A massive aura spread out as a figure rushed out of the God Temple after sensing the disturbance outside.

It was the Barbarian godly spirit. He was quite ugly and was dressed in a beaustskin. He held a large axe and seeing the Chicken Goddess standing with Zhao Fu's people, he called out, "You Chicken Goddess, you should be grateful for me not bullying you, and yet you came here to make trouble. I'm going to properly play with your body today and show you how powerful men are."

The Chicken Goddess had just experienced how powerful Zhao Fu was, and hearing this, she could not help but think of how lewd she had been under Zhao Fu. Seeing the shyness on the Chicken Goddess' face, the Barbarian God gave a pleased laugh and thought that it was him who had made her blush; perhaps this Chicken Goddess was interested in him.

Boom!

The Barbarian God roared as he held his axe and gave off a powerful aura as he rushed at Zhao Fu's group.

He did not pay any mind to the others as he thought that it was the Chicken Goddess who had come to make trouble. He did not have any fear as he was the most powerful one in this forest, and he did not fear the Chicken Goddess at all.

The Chicken Goddess held her green sword and gave off a powerful aura as she showed no fear and met the Barbarian God in battle.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The two of them fought, causing massive sounds to ring out and sharp lights to fly out. Terrifying auras turned into wild gales and spread out.

The Barbarian God ferociously swung his axe, sending out ferocious axe lights. The Chicken Goddess began to fall at a disadvantage, and she could only use her sword to block.

However, at that moment, three people suddenly rushed over from the side, giving off powerful auras.

The Pigman Goddess slashed out with her saber, sending out an enormous saber light that contained an incredibly sharp aura towards the Barbarian God. The Barbarian God was quite shocked and had never expected there to be another godly spirit. He hurriedly dodged to the side, avoiding the Pigman Goddess' attack.

However, at that moment, the Unicorn Goddess held her spear, causing its head to give off large amounts of cold light, and a spear light containing terrifying power pierced towards the Barbarian God, causing the air to explode.

The Barbarian God hurriedly used his axe to block in front of him, and he released a yellow barrier around his body.

Bang!

The spear lightly heavily struck against the yellow barrier, causing it to shatter, and the Barbarian God was sent flying dozens of meters back.

The Barbarian God was sent flying but was not injured. However, at that moment, the Barbarian God's hairs stood on end because a person had appeared behind him. There was a terrifying aura flame around that person, and his sword gave off boundless sword light.

Boom!

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out a massive blood-red sword light and causing the air to explode.

The Barbarian God was completely defenseless and was hit by Zhao Fu's attack. His body flew out and heavily crashed onto the ground, causing the ground to tremble and rocks to fly everywhere, opening up a ten meter wide crater.

The Barbarian God coughed up a large mouthful of blood, and a deep gash through which bone could be seen opened up on his back. Blood continuously poured as the Barbarian God's aura weakened; he was now heavily injured.

Zhao Fu and the others definitely would not spare him. They rushed up and continued to attack the Barbarian God, and in the end, the Unicorn Goddess pierced through his heart, killing him instantly.

Following this, Zhao Fu and the others attacked the Barbarian soldiers and easily killed them. After the Barbarian God died, they no longer had any heart to fight, and some of them had started to run away.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu checked the Barbarian God's body but did not find anything good. The Ogre Chief and the others entered the God Temple but did not find anything either.

In the end, Zhao Fu's gaze fell on the Barbarian God's corpse; perhaps if he refined it, he could awaken a Barbarian totem

Chapter 1649 Monkey Person

Zhao Fu brought the Barbarian God's corpse into the God Temple and prepared to refine it.

Zhao Fu released a black mist that covered the Barbarian God's corpse and continuously ate at it, causing the Barbarian God's corpse to turn into dust, leaving behind a yellow Divinity.

The Divinity seemed to contain a trace of the Barbarian God's remnant spirit, and Zhao Fu sent out a black flame that covered the yellow Divinity and destroyed the remnant spirit before fusing the Divinity into his body.

A powerful energy spread out within Zhao Fu's body, causing him to give off a large amount of yellow light. Zhao Fu continuously absorbed this divine energy and fused it into him, and soon he felt a pain on his back as a yellow Barbarian totem appeared.

After refining the Barbarian God's corpse, Zhao Fu led his group to the final God Temple.

This God Temple was at the center of the forest and was made out of wood, and there were many vines growing out of it, giving off an aura of life. The God Temple was quite big and there were two Monkey people statues in front of it.

Both of the statues were dressed in armor and held large sabers. They had monkey heads, human bodies, and monkey-like fur and tails. They had serious expressions and gave off powerful auras.

Just as Zhao Fu was about to lead his group in, a group of Monkey people rushed out and attacked, sending out arrows containing immense power.

Facing the countless incoming arrows, Zhao Fu stretched out a hand and a massive wave of power rushed out as a black dragon inscription barrier expanded out.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The arrows slammed into the defensive barrier, causing sounds to ring out. The arrows were all deflected and fell from the air.

This place was quite close to the Barbarian God Temple – the Monkey people had sensed what had happened there and decided to attack Zhao Fu's group first.

Since things had turned out like this, Zhao Fu did not show any courtesy and gave the order to attack.

“Kill!” The Chicken people roared as they spread their wings and flew into the sky, and they gave off powerful auras as they rushed into the God Temple.

Zhao Fu and the others also gave off mighty auras as they charged in.

The two sides quickly clashed and sounds of battle continuously sounded out. Powerful shock waves blasted out, and the scene was quite chaotic.

A monkey godly spirit rushed out; this godly spirit was a woman and had short, red hair. She had a seductive figure and tanned skin, and she wore tight leather armor. She had a wildness about her and apart from a monkey tail, she looked the same as a normal human.

As she rushed out, Zhao Fu and the others surrounded her.

The Monkey Goddess' expression was somewhat unsightly; she naturally was not a match for Zhao Fu's group. She said coldly, “Come at me one by one if you dare. I won't fear you at all.”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed; they had the numbers advantage, so why would they challenge her one by one? Zhao Fu was not an idiot, and he and the others attacked her together.

The Pigman Goddess attacked first, slashing out with her saber, sending out a ferocious saber light towards the Monkey Goddess.

The Monkey Goddess held a black wooden staff and swung it with great force, causing the air to explode. The staff sent out an immense wave of energy that shattered the saber light; it seemed that the Monkey Goddess was quite strong.

After destroying the saber light, the Monkey Goddess swung her staff toward Zhao Fu. She knew that Zhao Fu was the leader and only by taking down Zhao Fu could her side win.

However, she was mistaken about Zhao Fu's strength. On the surface, he seemed like he only had Harmony Realm Cultivation and would be easy to bully. That was the main reason why the Monkey Goddess had attacked Zhao Fu; she had the confidence to easily subdue Zhao Fu.

Boom!

Seeing the Monkey Goddess attacking him, Zhao Fu gave a trace of a cold smile and sent large amounts of power into the Sadistic Killing Sword. He vigorously slashed out, sending out a massive blood-red sword light with terrifying power.

The Monkey Goddess was greatly startled and she hurriedly blocked with her staff but was still sent flying back by Zhao Fu's terrifying sword strike. She crashed ten or so meters away and a trace of blood leaked out of her lips.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as the Chicken Goddess held her large green sword with both hands and vigorously slashed out, sending a green sword light towards the Monkey Goddess and drawing out a gash on the ground.

The Monkey Goddess quickly rolled to the side, avoiding this sharp sword strike, but the Unicorn Goddess appeared at her side, and her spear gave off immense power as she sent the Monkey Goddess flying out.

The Monkey Goddess once again crashed to the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood; this attack had greatly wounded her.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sounds of chains rang out as chains containing great power shot out from the surroundings towards the Monkey Goddess.

The Monkey Goddess panicked and swung her staff, knocking dozens of chains away, but even more chains flew towards her.

They first bound her staff and her arms, making her lose the ability to fight. They then bound her feet, making it so that she could not move. Finally, they wrapped around her entire body, leaving her at Zhao Fu's mercy.

After being bound up, the Monkey Goddess looked furious as she struggled and tried to break free. Zhao Fu smiled, picked her up, and walked towards the God Temple.

The other three Goddesses blushed and smiled as they followed behind him.

Seeing that their godly spirit had been subdued, the Monkey people lost their will to fight and either ran away or knelt and surrendered.

Within the God Temple, the black barrier once again spread out.

Seeing this, the people on the viewing platform once again cursed out at Zhao Fu; they were quite familiar with his tendencies by now.

By now, Zhao Fu was quite famous because everyone was cursing at him for being an evildoer, a perverted bandit, and a bastard. Everyone wondered just what kind of person he was.

As such, there were naturally more and more people paying attention to him. It was very rare to see so many people pay attention to someone at the bottom of the rankings.

Those who viewed Zhao Fu either cursed at him for being a beast or scum, or they greatly admired him. Rather than being famous for his strength, he was notorious for his shameless ways.

Now, there were many people who even wanted to kill Zhao Fu, because to them he was complete trash, and they could not allow such a person to remain in the world.

Zhao Fu did not know about any of this. Within the black energy barrier, he continuously did it with the Monkey Goddess, while she passionately responded to him. Following this, Zhao Fu once again enjoyed the three other Goddesses.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu hugged the Monkey Goddess and smiled as he asked, “Do you have any powerful ancestral items or anything containing large amounts of Monkey person power?”

Chapter 1650 Battle

The Monkey Goddess’ face was red as she panted in Zhao Fu’s embrace. Hearing Zhao Fu’s words, she glared at him – he had the audacity to ask for things from her right after ravaging her. Moreover, she was still somewhat angry about being ganged up on by Zhao Fu’s people.

However, as Zhao Fu’s hands started to roam about, the Monkey Goddess’ face became bright red and she gave in as she said, “Alright, I’ll give it to you! You’re such a bad person, bullying me like this.”

As she spoke, the Monkey Goddess took out a black jade that was three fingers wide and gave off an intense godly spirit aura.

“This is a Monkey God Jade that I obtained, and it contains large amounts of Monkey person power. I don’t know if it’s what you’re looking for.”

Zhao Fu took the Monkey God Jade and sensed its power; it was not very strong but he felt that it would be enough to awaken a Monkey person totem.

Zhao Fu asked the others to leave and started to refine this Monkey God Jade.

As he sent his power into the Monkey God Jade, it gave off an intense black light, and Zhao Fu controlled it to gradually fuse into his body.

A powerful aura exploded out from Zhao Fu’s body as his body continuously gave off traces of black godly spirit aura. Zhao Fu was like a true godly spirit, and he gave off an immense divine might.

Zhao Fu quickly absorbed the Monkey God Jade's power and fused it into him, and the Monkey God Jade continuously became smaller until it became countless motes of black light and dissipated within Zhao Fu's body.

At the same time, Zhao Fu's back gave off black light and a black Monkey person totem appeared.

After entering this secret realm, Zhao Fu had obtained an Ogre totem, a Lion person totem, an Elf totem, a Chicken person totem, a Barbarian totem, and a Monkey person totem. That was six totems, and adding on the 23 totems he already had, he only had five totems remaining until he had all 34 of the Outlander Race's totems. Thinking about that, he could not help but feel incredibly excited.

He wondered what would happen after gathering all 34 totems; would the Emperor Star directly descend? Zhao Fu did not know, but he would find out soon.

Zhao Fu led his group deeper into the secret realm. Now, the only ones with him were the Goddesses and the Ogre Chief. As for the Chicken people and Monkey people, they were not very strong and bringing them with him would be quite troublesome, so he left them behind.

It would be quite dangerous within the depths of the secret realm – not only would there be powerful experts with large amounts of points, but there would also be good treasures.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Two days later, as the group flew, they heard large explosions and they headed in the direction that the explosions were coming from.

They saw a massive group of people gathered around two people fighting at the center. For so many people to be spectating without getting involved, this meant that the people who were fighting were most likely of the top ten geniuses on the rankings.

As expected, one of the people was the seventh-ranked Three-Headed Ogre Bou, and the other was the eight-ranked Iron Mountain Orc Gudu.

Both of these races were quite ferocious and savage, and they were not existences ordinary people could afford to offend. They had most likely gotten on each other's nerves, resulting in this intense battle.

As geniuses within the top ten of the rankings, the battle between the two people was naturally incredibly terrifying. The Three-Headed Ogre held a club and continuously swung it, causing the air to explode, and space trembled as he sent out waves of power.

The Iron Mountain Orc held a large axe and continuously slashed out, sending out powerful axe lights. They were not only sharp but also incredibly forceful, seeming as if they could split the heavens apart.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Explosions sounded out as the attacks collided and resulted in enormous explosions. Terrifying shockwaves spread out as trees swayed and large rocks rolled.

The surrounding people watched the battle in shock, and some of their bodies trembled in excitement. This was a true battle between peerless geniuses of the Outlander Race, and ordinary people would not be able to witness such a scene.

Countless people on the viewing platforms were watching this battle and looked quite serious. No one acted condescendingly as this battle completely exceeded anything they could expect.

Zhao Fu also watched the battle between these two people and his expression was somewhat serious. Even though this battle was so intense, neither of them had unleashed their true strength.

Apart from the top three people, the other geniuses had to worry about the threat of others. As such, even though these two people were fighting, they did not use their full strength and left reserves.

This was only the seventh-ranked and eighth-ranked people, yet they were so terrifying, as expected from geniuses of the Outlander Race. They were already top-tier existences in the Heaven Awaken World and ordinary people could only look up at them.

Zhao Fu put away his arrogance; even though they were powerful, he would take them seriously and continue with his original plan. He would take them down one by one and take first place.

The Ogre Chief also watched the battle with a shocked expression. As part of the Ogre race, he naturally stood on the Three-Headed Ogre's side. Seeing that his race had such a powerful person, he could not say with pride, “As expected of a genius from our Ogre race; he’s simply terrifying beyond belief.”

There were a few other Ogres nearby and one smiled as he said, “But of course! This is our Ogre race’s most brilliant genius, our greatest pride.”

Another Ogre smiled as he said, “He’s ranked seventh right now and I feel that he has the ability to rise by two places and enter the top five. Everyone below the top 5 aren’t a match for him.”

Another person sighed and said, “In this secret realm, those ten people reign supreme and look down on us like ants. No one can defeat them, and they are the main characters of this story; we’re not even worthy to be side characters. I don’t want to accept this, but I feel despair when I even think about challenging them.”

Someone else smiled and comforted him, saying, “We’re not here to compete with them; we just need to continue to obtain points and become disciples of Outlander Ten College. As for challenging those ten people, there’s no point thinking about it; we won’t be able to do it even if it takes us our entire lives.”

Hearing this, the Unicorn Goddess who was in Zhao Fu’s embrace smiled and said, “Husband, I’m confident that you’re the strongest and can defeat them.”

The Monkey Goddess also spoke, “That’s right, husband, your aura is so powerful, so I’m sure you’re not simple. I want to see you defeat these peerless geniuses.”
