

The Lord 1681

Chapter 1681 Spear

The Lion person gave off thunderous momentum as he rushed forwards; everything in his way and around him were sent flying away, and he was completely unstoppable.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he completely ignited his Divine Bloodline, and a black and blood-red aura flame that was dozens of meters tall erupted around him. Terrifying shockwaves rippled out, turning into gusts of wild wind. Trees trembled and dust billowed as Zhao Fu also shot out.

The two terrifying auras collided like two mountains, causing large gales to blow.

The Lion person held his spear and sent terrifying power into it. The spear gave off intense white light and he vigorously stabbed forwards towards Zhao Fu with immense piercing power.

Zhao Fu also sent large amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword, and an incredibly pure sword intent spread out. Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out a sword light that seemed to be able to slice through all things.

Bang!

A loud sound rang out as the sword light and spear light collided, and an incredibly terrifying destructive force blasted out. The ground collapsed, opening up a massive crater and annihilating all of the surrounding trees.

Both of them flew back over 100 meters before stabilizing themselves, and they quickly turned into rays of light as they once again shot at each other.

The Lion person stabbed out, his spear bringing with it a cold light, while Zhao Fu swung his sword and blocked it. The Lion person retracted his spear before once again ferociously piercing out, and Zhao Fu dodged to the side in response.

The Lion person gripped his spear with both hands and vigorously slapped it at Zhao Fu with great force, causing the air to explode.

Bang!

Just as Zhao Fu moved his sword to block, the spear heavily slammed into the sword, and Zhao Fu felt a massive impact as he was sent stumbling a few steps.

The Lion person looked savage and his spear shot out large amounts of light as he once again stabbed at Zhao Fu, and a terrifying white beam of light containing terrifying power caused the air to explode as it shot towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's eyes shot out cold light as he sent massive amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword. The Emperor Killing Sword gave off a loud sword hum, and Zhao Fu powerfully slashed out.

Boom!

The powerful beam of light was slashed apart by the sharp sword light, scattering into countless motes of light.

The cross-shaped pupil in Zhao Fu's right eye quickly spun and a massive wave of ghostly qi flowed out, causing the temperature to plummet. The ghostly qi turned into a ghost that was hundreds of meters tall, and it roared as it rushed at the Lion person.

The Lion person roared as he showed no fear and charged at the ghost, his spear giving off a brilliant white light.

Boom!

The Lion person gave off a powerful aura as he turned into a ray of light and pierced through the ghost's chest, causing it to dissipate into ghostly qi.

After stabbing through the ghost, the Lion person continued to give off a powerful aura as he rushed at Zhao Fu.

Shing!

Zhao Fu had already sent large amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off an intense sword light. Zhao Fu also shot at the Lion person, dragging out a black sword light behind him.

Bang!

The two people collided with terrifying power, resulting in a massive explosion and for countless sword qi and spear light to shoot everywhere.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The battle did not stop, and the two of them turned into rays of light and continuously clashed, causing wild gales to erupt out and for clouds to swirl.

Sensing this aura, countless people once again looked incredibly excited, as two geniuses were clashing again. They could guess that it was the mysterious person challenging the sixth-ranked genius.

Countless people had seen the mysterious person fighting before, and they felt great anticipation. Now, the tenth-ranked, ninth-ranked, eighth-ranked, and seventh-ranked geniuses had all fallen at his hands, and they all wanted to see how far he could go and if he could take down all of the geniuses, shaking the world.

By the time everyone arrived, it was just as they expected – it was that mysterious person fighting intensely with the Lion person. They had turned into rays of light and continuously clashed, causing large gales to blow out.

They were not disappointed, and countless peoples fixed their eyes to the battlefield, feeling incredibly excited.

As the two people continuously clashed in the air, both of them had received some injuries and had some blood on them.

“Roar!!” The Lion person looked furious and gave an enraged roar as terrifying power flowed into his spear. His spear gave off countless rays of white light and gave off terrifying ripples that caused the space around it to twist.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu gave a long yell and sent all of his power flooding into the Emperor Killing Sword. An extremely terrifying sword intent spread out, causing the heavens and earth to chill, and everyone in the surroundings felt an icy feeling in their hearts.

Bang!

The two people once again collided with terrifying power, causing an immense shockwave to blast out. The clouds in the sky were annihilated and wild gales blew out, causing countless trees to tremble.

Both people were blasted back and heavily crashed into the ground, opening up craters as they coughed up mouthfuls of blood.

Boom!

The Lion person’s expression was savage as he exploded out with an extremely terrifying power. His body gave off an intense white light, covering the surrounding 10,000 meters, and the ground beneath him seemed to sink as it endured a terrifying might.

The Lion person raised his spear, which gave off faint white light as it rose into the sky. The Lion person grabbed at the air, and Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered and flowed into the spear. The spear gave off a large amount of white light, filling the sky with light.

The Lion person looked at Zhao Fu with eyes filled with killing intent, and he sharply lowered his hand.

Boom!

A 1,000 meter long spear of white light gave off terrifying power as it shot down from the sky incredibly quickly, dragging behind it traces of light as it pierced towards Zhao Fu.

Facing the spear of white light, Zhao Fu exploded out with all of his Divine Bloodline’s power, sending it into the Emperor Killing Sword. The Emperor Killing Sword gave off a pure sword intent that seemed like it could easily tear through space.

Bang!

Zhao Fu slashed out, and a terrifying and formless sword intent flew out, destroying the white spear of light and causing it to dissipate into countless motes of white light.

Following this, Zhao Fu shot at the Lion person, while the Lion person's gaze was cold and he raised both hands. Heaven and Earth Power once again quickly gathered, before he brought his hands together and heavily lowered them.

Boom! Boom!

Two white spears of light that were 1,000 meters long shot out from the sky like two lasers, shooting towards Zhao Fu with enough power to stab through the heavens and earth.

As the spears approached, Zhao Fu sent even greater power into the Emperor Killing Sword, and the space around it was unable to withstand this power and started to crack.

Chapter 1682: Heavenly Punishment

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded throughout the sky, and Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending a formless sword intent out. It split apart the space that it passed through, causing a massive rift to appear. The two spears of light were split in half and dissipated into motes of light.

After slashing apart the two spears of light, Zhao Fu continued rushing towards the Lion person.

The Lion person's expression was icy as he raised a hand and massive amounts of Heaven and Earth Power gathered, and a suction force burst forth. Following this, the Lion person's hand once again descended.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Five 1,000 meters long white spears of light gave off terrifying power as they shot down from the sky incredibly quickly. They dragged out five traces of light and gave off world-piercing power as they blasted towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

The five spears of light were incredibly fast and did not give Zhao Fu any chance to react. They slammed into him with thunderous momentum and a terrifying shockwave rippled out, destroying everything and causing the ground to tremble.

The spectators could not help but gulp; seeing the Lion person's terrifying power, their bodies instinctively trembled. Was that mysterious person still alive after being hit? Ordinary people would be dust after receiving such an attack.

Shing!

A sword hum suddenly sounded out throughout the heavens and earth as a black sword light blasted out, destroying the five spears of light and causing them to dissipate into motes of light.

The black sword light continued on into the sky and Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered, forming an enormous black vortex that gave off a terrifying might.

A black and blood-red magic formation appeared in the sky, giving off boundless black and blood-red light. A supreme sword intent flooded out from the magic formation, inundating everything. Under the sword intent, everything was annihilated and was unable to resist at all.

The Lion person was given a big fright and his expression became quite unsightly. He felt a terrifying power and roared as he raised his hands, and a terrifying white aura flame rushed to the sky as Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered.

The spear absorbed countless traces of Heaven and Earth Power and gave off intense white light that covered the sky. Many 1,000 meters long spears of light appeared, at least 100 of them, and they gave off incredibly sharp auras and an aura of death.

Half of the sky was white, filled with piercing spear light, and the other half of the sky was black and filled with sharp sword intent. The two of them continuously clashed, resulting in terrifying ripples.

Within the large crater in the ground, Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword and his gaze was icy. The black and blood-red magic formation in the sky gradually spun as an aura of destruction flowed out, and Zhao Fu's raised sword descended.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Shocking explosions tore through the sky as the black and blood-red magic formation blasted down fathomless blood-red sword light, seeming to tear the heavens and earth into pieces. Space shattered like a mirror, and as the sword light descended on the ground, the terrifying power destroyed the ground.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The Lion person controlled the 100 massive spears of light to point towards Zhao Fu, and they gave off terrifying piercing power as they shot out, seeming to tear through the heavens and the earth.

Bang!

A shocking explosion sounded out, making it seem as if the world was going to split apart as the two attacks collided, resulting in a terrifying shockwave. Everything in the surrounding 1,000 kilometers was obliterated and the shockwave blasted out with terrifying momentum.

The ground collapsed as countless massive rocks and trees turned to dust. Dust covered the sky, and the ground continued to violently shake as traces of destructive aura rose up from the ground.

After everything settled, a 100,000 meter wide crater appeared in the ground, from which traces of destructive aura rose up. Everyone felt immense despair – everything in the surroundings had lost all traces of life and had been exterminated.

Everyone looked shocked as they looked at the crater, wanting to know the outcome of that clash.

Boom!

A terrifying aura flooded out as boundless white light shot into the sky. A massive might seemed to cause the ground to sink as a 10,000 meter long white lion appeared in the sky; the aura he gave off was the same as the Lion person's.

However, this lion was covered with many wounds, from which blood flowed out, making it look quite wretched.

Lying within the rubble, Zhao Fu lightly coughed up a few mouthfuls of blood and stood up from the ground. He also had a few bloody gashes and did not look well either.

“Roar!!” The 10,000 meter long white lion gave a furious roar and opened its mouth, causing countless rays of light to gather, and an extremely dangerous aura spread out.

Boom!

An enormous white beam of light shot out from the lion’s mouth, giving off world-destroying power. It was extremely fast and caused space to explode and crack.

Zhao Fu quickly dodged to the side, and the enormous white beam of light struck where he had been standing, resulting in an enormous explosion. Rocks flew everywhere and dust billowed as a 10,000 meter wide crater appeared.

Boom!

An enormous ghostly flame burst forth around Zhao Fu’s body, and the temperature around him plummeted as a cold, eerie wind blew out.

The cross-shaped pupil and six gray dots in Zhao Fu’s right eye quickly spun as a supreme ghostly power spread out, and Zhao Fu grabbed at the air towards the white lion.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sound of chains sounded throughout the sky as two meter wide chains shot out for the ground and gave off ferocious power as they shot towards the white lion. There were at least hundreds of thousands of them.

The white lion was given a big shock and it swung its paws, sending out massive waves of energy that destroyed many incoming chains. However, there were simply too many chains, and in the end the 10,000 meter long white lion was bound up by countless chains.

However, the white lion was incredibly powerful and it continuously struggled, breaking apart the chains around it.

Zhao Fu's expression was cold as he once again raised the sword in his hand. A black and blood-red sword light rushed to the sky, and Heaven and Earth Power once again madly gathered as a black magic formation appeared in the sky and gave off destructive sword intent.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Terrifying rays of sword light giving off destructive power slashed into the white lion's body, causing blood to spray everywhere and making it seem like there was a rain of blood. The lion continuously roared in pain before it finally disappeared.

The Lion person had chosen to leave the secret realm; if he did not do so, he most likely would have died under Zhao Fu's Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation.

"He won!" countless people excitedly cried out – they were the people who supported Zhao Fu. Many people had said that Zhao Fu would fall to the sixth-ranked genius and would not be able to continue, but Zhao Fu had proved them wrong with his strength.

Many people were incredibly shocked and never thought that Zhao Fu would be hiding such immense power.

Chapter 1683: Ten-Tailed Fox

After recovering for a day, Zhao Fu went to find his next opponent. This time, he was surprised to find two geniuses.

These two geniuses were the fourth-ranked Ice Dragon person Dussi and the fifth-ranked genius Ten-Tailed Fox Race Hu Baimei.

According to Zhao Fu's plan, the person he should have faced was the fifth-ranked Hu Baimei, and she had been guided by a mysterious power to wait for him here.

She looked quite serious – that mysterious person had climbed so high from being last place, and five of the top ten geniuses had fallen at his hands. Even though she had never seen him before, she felt an immense pressure.

Right now, she did not have much confidence as that person had the strength to defeat people of the Divine Realm. Relying on her cultivation would not be enough.

However, she was surprised that the fourth-ranked Ice Dragon person was nearby, and seeing that Hu Baimei had come here, he understood what was going on and also waited nearby.

The Ice Dragon person felt quite curious about that mysterious person and wanted to see what kind of person he was. He had challenged genius after genius, and this could be counted to be a miracle. Zhao Fu also threatened his standing.

When Zhao Fu arrived, Hu Baimei and Dussi's gazes fell on his body, while he looked back at them.

Hu Baimei gave a flirtatious laugh and asked, "Who are you, sir? I really want to get to know sir, and I can tell that sir has a slight Fox Race aura. Sir's relationship with our Fox Race must not be ordinary!"

Hearing Hu Baimei's flirtatious voice, Zhao Fu's heart could not help but tremble, as Hu Baimei had an extremely terrifying charming power. Any ordinary person who heard her voice would lose their reason and would be controlled by her like puppets.

Facing Hu Baimei's words, Zhao Fu did not show any courtesy and gave a trace of a domineering smile as he said, "I'll tell you who I am if you come and serve me."

Hu Baimei frowned; she was the Crown Princess of the Fox Race's strongest Empire. No one in the Outlander Domain dared to talk to her like that, and her gaze was cold as she said with a light smile, "You want me to serve you? You're really quite daring. I don't know who you are, and even if you're extraordinary, I wouldn't serve you. With my status, I don't fear any faction in the Heaven Awaken World, unless you're the second King of Kings.

"However, for you, that's impossible. Even though I don't know what race you're from, you're definitely not an Outlander, so it's impossible for you to become the legendary second King of Kings. Only the King of Kings can enjoy my body, and you don't qualify; you can't compare to even one of his fingers."

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and asked curiously, "What's a King of Kings?"

Seeing how curious Zhao Fu looked, Dussi said coldly, "You're currently about to fight based on the King of Kings' will; hurry up and start! If you don't fight, I'll be initiating. I want to see just how powerful you are."

Hu Baimei flirtatiously laughed, "I can't allow that; he's my prey. I'm going to train him well later."

Zhao Fu did not know what the King of Kings was, but his current goal was to defeat the people in front of him and obtain points so that he could obtain more Outlander Fate and gain materials that would help him awaken the Outlander Emperor Star. As such, he did not mind and said, "Since you've both come, come at me together!"

The people on the viewing platforms were sent into an uproar. When they saw Zhao Fu encounter the two geniuses, they excitedly waited for Zhao Fu to start fighting with Hu Baimei, but they had never expected Zhao Fu to challenge both at the same time.

"Heavens! It's the fourth-ranked and fifth-ranked geniuses; they're the strongest apart from the monstrous top three. If they attack together, wouldn't that be way too much?"

"How arrogant! He doesn't take anyone seriously at all; who would dare to say such a thing to two of the top geniuses?"

"That's right, those words gave me such a big scare. Does he really have the strength to challenge two of the top geniuses? He's simply too overconfident and he'll be beaten up badly later."

"I don't believe that he can do it. Challenging a single genius is one thing, but challenging the fourth-ranked and fifth-ranked geniuses is simply seeking death."

Neither Hu Baimei nor Dussi thought that Zhao Fu would say such a thing. Both of them looked quite confused before they started to feel angry; Zhao Fu was not taking them seriously at all.

Zhao Fu did not have such intentions; rather, he was thinking that since they had both come together, he could deal with them both. That way, he could go and challenge the top three, and as long as he could defeat them, he would be number one. When that time came, he would be able to awaken the Outlander Emperor Star.

“Since you’re seeking death, don’t blame me.” Dussi coldly harrumphed and exploded out with a powerful icy aura, causing the temperature of the surroundings to drop.

Hu Baimei flirtatiously laughed and a formless aura exploded out as her body gave off an illusory light, making the surroundings seem dreamlike.

Facing the two of them, Zhao Fu did not dare to be careless at all. He directly took out the Emperor Killing Sword and exploded out with a black aura flame.

Dussi held an icy-blue saber and did not hold back at all. He sent large amounts of power into the saber and vigorously slashed out, sending an enormous icy saber qi towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu sent large amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off faint sword light. He vigorously slashed out, and a black and blood-red sword light containing sharp power flew towards Dussi.

Bang!

The two attacks clashed, resulting in a massive explosion, causing a storm of icy qi and sword qi to ripple out.

Suddenly, a figure appeared behind Zhao Fu – it was Hu Baimei holding a sword, and she stabbed it towards Zhao Fu, bringing with it a cold light.

Zhao Fu slashed backhanded, sending out a sharp sword light that cut Hu Baimei’s body in half. However, Hu Baimei’s body faded like an illusion.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as Hu Baimei appeared on Zhao Fu’s side, and her sword gave off a sharp sword light and pierced at Zhao Fu incredibly quickly.

Zhao Fu was startled and immediately released a black energy barrier.

Bang!

The sword slammed into the energy barrier with great force, resulting in a loud sound. Zhao Fu was sent back a few steps and his barrier was covered with cracks.

Boom!

An explosion suddenly sounded out as Dussi leapt into the air and gripped his saber with both hands. He vigorously slashed down an enormous icy sabre light that seemed to be able to split the ground in two, bringing with it a shocking aura.

“Sword Master!” At that dangerous moment, Zhao Fu coldly cried out and an incredibly sharp sword intent slashed out with terrifying power.

Chapter 1684: Ice Dragon Person

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as the terrifying sword intent and saber light clashed together, causing a powerful shockwave to rush out. The ground cracked and trees were knocked over as the three people all stumbled back five or six steps before stopping. Their expressions all became quite serious.

Dussi and Hu Baimei were quite shocked that Zhao Fu had such terrifying power; he really could challenge both of them together. Zhao Fu also felt immense pressure – defeating them both together was incredibly difficult.

Boom!

Dussi exploded out with an icy-blue aura flame and an icy wind blew out from the sky. Dussi gripped his saber with both hands and sent out a massive icy saber light towards Zhao Fu with ferocious power.

Boom!

Hu Baimei also exploded out with terrifying power and a white aura flame blazed around her. She raised her sword and pointed it towards Zhao Fu before stabbing forwards. An incredibly sharp sword light stabbed towards Zhao Fu incredibly quickly with unstoppable momentum.

“Arghh!” Facing the two attacks giving off terrifying auras, Zhao Fu loudly roared and ignited his Divine Bloodline. A massive black aura flame spread out and large amounts of power flowed into the Emperor Killing Sword as he vigorously slashed out.

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as an enormous black crescent containing terrifying sword energy slashed out towards the two people.

Bang!

A loud sound rang out as the three attacks collided and resulted in another enormous explosion. Light shot out in all directions as a shockwave spread out, and the ground caved in as broken rocks scattered everywhere.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive sounds continued to sound out as the three people continued to ferociously fight. Dussi continuously sent out icy saber lights, and Hu Baimei continuously slashed out sword lights, while Zhao Fu also sent out sword lights towards the two of them.

Massive gales spread out and countless trees swayed as dust billowed and rocks rolled. It was like a terrifying disaster that could strike fear into anyone’s hearts.

“Roar!” A massive dragon’s roar sounded out as Dussi raised his saber and countless traces of icy qi flooded out, forming an ice dragon that looked somewhat like a lizard with wings. It gave off a chilling aura and seemed to freeze the aura around it.

“Roar!” Another roar sounded out as Hu Baimei raised her sword, causing a white aura flame to explode out and form a ten-tailed fox. Its ten tails continuously danced, causing wild gales to blow out.

The two of them slashed down with their weapons, and the ice dragon and ten-tailed fox rushed at Zhao Fu with power that seemed to be able to destroy everything.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” Zhao Fu fully ignited his Divine Bloodline and the black aura flame around him became many times bigger as nine dragon’s roars sounded out, and nine ferocious black dragons giving off ferocious might appeared.

Boom!

Zhao Fu raised his sword and heavily slashed downwards, and the nine black dragons around him gave massive roars and gave off incredibly terrifying power as they rushed towards the ice dragon and ten-tailed fox.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as a destructive power blasted out. The ground continuously collapsed as countless trees and boulders were reduced to small pieces, and a 10,000 meter wide crater appeared.

The ground continuously shook and shockwaves containing terrifying power rushed out, inundating everything.

Sensing these terrifying ripples, the people nearby looked excited as they hurried over, because it was most likely that mysterious person challenging another genius.

Now, everyone felt a lot of anticipation. The mysterious person had defeated the sixth-ranked Lion person, so he should now be challenging the fifth-ranked Hu Baimei. No one knew if he would be able to succeed this time.

Everyone was filled with expectation as they came to the edge of the battlefield, and they were shocked to see that Zhao Fu was actually challenging two geniuses.

Wasn't this a bit too much? Did he really have such terrifying power? No one dared to challenge two geniuses at once, and if he could achieve this, he would create a new legend.

As the shockwaves blasted out, the three people were all sent flying back and coughed up mouthfuls of blood.

Boom!

Dussi got up from the ground and gave off a powerful aura as he rushed at Zhao Fu. He quickly reached Zhao Fu and his saber slashed at Zhao Fu with an icy light.

Zhao Fu dodged to the side and avoided this attack, while he slashed back at Dussi, sending out a sharp arc of light towards him.

Dussi leapt backwards and avoided this attack, and he formed a fist and gathered large amounts of dragon energy. He punched out with great force, causing the air to explode as a mountain-shattering energy blasted out.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed as he used the Billion Sovereign Dragon Imperial Bloodline's power, and he gathered a large amount of dragon energy in his fist. Small, violet dragon scales appeared on his fist as he also punched out with great power.

Bang!

The two fists collided and resulted in a massive explosion, causing a wild gale to sweep out, and both people were sent back a few steps.

Dussi looked quite confused, as he found that Zhao Fu could actually use pure dragon energy, and it seemed to be of a higher level than his.

However, he had the highest grade of dragon bloodline in the world; how could anyone's bloodline surpass him? Just who was this person? How could he have such powerful dragon energy? Dussi did not have much time to think as a sword light gave off terrifying power and tore through the air, slashing towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not use his sword, and instead his violet dragon claw-like hand slashed out with great power, sending out five arcs of violet light with terrifying power.

Bang!

An explosion sounded out as the sword light and arcs of light collided, turning into motes of light as they dissipated.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as Hu Baimei leapt into the air, gave off a powerful aura, and hacked down with shocking power, and Zhao Fu raised his sword to block.

Bang!

The two swords collided, resulting in a massive explosion as a shockwave blasted out, and the 100 meters around Zhao Fu collapsed.

Suddenly, Hu Baimei's ten tails quickly grew and became massive as they slammed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's cross-shaped pupil in his right eye quickly spun as massive amounts of ghostly qi flowed out. Under Zhao Fu's control, they became ten massive gray dragon tails and gave off shocking power as they slammed towards Hu Baimei.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as the tails collided and a massive wind blew out, causing both people to be blasted back ten or so steps.

Both sides looked at each other seriously, knowing clearly how terrifying the other side was.

“Arghhh...” Zhao Fu released all of his Six Paths of Reincarnation Power as a flood of ghostly qi rushed out, turning into terrifying ghosts that howled and ferociously charged towards the two people.

Chapter 1685: Underworld Sovereign

Boom!

An icy saber qi rushed into the sky and a cold aura spread out. Dussi gripped his saber with both hands and slashed down, sending an enormous saber light that seemed to be able to blast apart the heavens and earth to slash down.

The countless ghosts dissipated into ghostly qi, and a massive saber gash appeared in the ground, and the ground around it was completely frozen.

Shing!

Hu Baimei raised her sword and sent a massive power into it, causing it to give off boundless white light. She vigorously slashed out, sending out an enormous sword light that flooded towards the remaining ghosts.

As the ghosts and sword light clashed, the ghosts were slashed apart and dissipated into traces of ghostly qi. Suddenly, Zhao Fu appeared in front of the Dussi, and his sword gave off shocking power as he slashed towards him.

Dussi was given a fright and he blocked with his saber, but he was slashed flying dozens of meters and crashed to the ground.

Boom!

At that moment, Hu Baimei stretched out a hand and massive amounts of white aura flowed out, forming an enormous fox paw that gave off terrifying power and massive wind as it grabbed towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

Zhao Fu was sent flying by this massive paw, and he heavily crashed to the ground, opening up a large crater.

Hu Baimei held her sword as she rushed towards Zhao Fu, reaching him incredibly quickly. She sent massive amounts of power into her sword, causing it to give off intense sword light, and she vigorously slashed out, sending out a sword light containing terrifying power towards Zhao Fu.

As Zhao Fu lay on the ground, he looked at Hu Baimei and a black and blood-red sword pupil in his eye dilated, causing Hu Baimei to feel quite startled.

Shing, shing, shing...

Traces of black and blood-red sword qi rushed out incredibly quickly, shooting towards Hu Baimei's sword light. The sword light was instantly destroyed by the countless traces of sword qi and continued onwards towards Hu Baimei.

Hu Baimei immediately released a defensive barrier, and as the countless traces of black and blood-red sword qi slammed into it, the barrier shattered and Hu Baimei was sent flying backwards. She coughed up a mouthful of blood and a few small gashes appeared on her chest, from which blood flowed out.

Zhao Fu had once again used the Killing Sword Pupil's power; after resting, it had greatly recovered.

Boom!

Dussi gripped his saber with both hands as he once again slashed at Zhao Fu, sending out an enormous icy saber light.

Zhao Fu got up and sent massive power into the Emperor Killing Sword and powerfully slashed out, and a black and blood-red sword light giving off sharp power flew towards Dussi.

Bang!

The two attacks collided, resulting in a loud sound. Sword light and sabre light shot out everywhere, causing a gale to spread out.

Shing, shing, shing...

Sword hums suddenly sounded out as Hu Baimei raised her sword, looking quite furious. She sent immense power into her sword, causing countless traces of sword qi to shoot into the sky. The Heaven and Earth Power into surroundings quickly gathered, and a massive sword image giving off an incredibly sharp aura appeared in the sky. The space around it was unable to bear its power and started to crack.

Boom!

Dussi exploded out with a powerful icy flame that caused a storm of cold wind to blast out. An ice pearl floated out from within his body and floated into the air. Heaven and Earth Power continuously flowed out of it and it gave off power that was extremely icy as it expanded into a massive ice ball.

Shing!

Zhao Fu's expression became grim as he exploded out with all of his power, igniting a massive black aura flame around him. He slowly raised his sword and a black sword light rushed into the sky. Heaven and Earth Power rapidly gathered, forming a massive black magic formation that gave off terrifying sword intent.

Boom

Hu Baimei's sword descended, and the massive sword image gave off power that seemed to be able to slash apart anything as it flew towards Zhao Fu, dragging behind massive amounts of sword qi behind it.

Boom!

Dussi's saber also descended, and the massive ice ball gave off a power that seemed to be able to seal everything shot towards Zhao Fu. The sky became covered with frost as it passed through.

“Arghh!” Facing the two extremely terrifying attacks, Zhao Fu loudly roared and sent all of his power into the sword formation, causing it to start to spin. An aura of destruction spread out as an enormous blood-red sword light containing world-destroying power shot out.

Bang!!

A shocking explosion sounded out, and the ground trembled as a massive dome of destructive energy blasted out. The ground, trees, boulders, mountains, rivers, and everything else within it were completely annihilated and turned to dust.

After everything settled, a 100,000 meter wide crater appeared in the ground, from which traces of destructive aura rose up. Anyone who saw this felt their souls trembling.

The people on the viewing platform felt incredibly shocked as they looked at this scene. Even despite not being there themselves, they could feel how terrifying that destructive power was. It was not power that ordinary people could wield, and even gods and demons would be terrified.

Who won? Countless people looked at the crater and could not feel certain. Was it the mysterious person who had won, or the two geniuses?

“Roar!” A dragons' roar sounded out as an icy aura flame rushed into the sky, causing the surrounding temperature to plummet. A chilling storm of wind blew out and the ground started to freeze.

A figure appeared within the icy aura flame – he was tall and powerfully-built and was covered with icy-blue scales. He had a crystal horn on his forehead and had a pair of icy-blue dragon wings on his back. He gave off incredibly immense power – it was Dussi.

Boom!

A terrifying aura flooded out as a shocking might covered the surroundings, causing the ground to tremble.

A 10,000 meter long fox with ten tails and snow-white fur rose up from the ground. It gave off an incredibly powerful aura that blew out like a wild gale – it was Hu Baimei.

Everyone's gazes then fell on Zhao Fu, who was covered with blood. He looked quite weak as he lay on the ground, and he stretched out a hand as a gash opened on his arm and six chains shot out, sinking into the air.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Six massive waves of ghostly qi flooded out, seeming to inundate the world, and the world was filled with a coldness and eeriness.

Six massive figures giving off terrifying power appeared. One was covered with violet scales and held a spear, one had skinny limbs and a bulging belly, one looked like a demon, one looked like a powerfully-built asura, one had a pair of wings, and one looked like a ghostly human.

The people in the surroundings were dumbfounded and could not believe their eyes. Those six figures were the Six Paths Demon Images. Just who was this person? He could even control the Underworld's sovereign existences.

Chapter 1686: Ultimate Power

Looking at the Six Paths Demon Images that Zhao Fu had summoned, Dussi and Hu Baimei looked quite shocked; they had never thought that such a thing would happen.

The three heaven-toppling auras dyed the sky into three colors. The icy chilling aura, ferocious beastly aura and eerie ghostly aura continuously clashed, resulting in large winds. The sun and moon dimmed and clouds swirled.

Boom!

Zhao Fu attacked first with the Six Paths demon Images. They instantly appeared in front of the ten-tailed fox, and the Six Paths Demon Images that were ten or so meters tall swung their fists, giving off immense destructive power as they punched towards the ten-tailed fox.

The ten-tailed fox was startled and released a massive energy barrier that covered its massive body.

Bang!

An enormous sound rang out as the Six Paths Demon Images punched against the barrier with terrifying power. A massive gale ferociously blew out and the 10,000 meter long ten-tailed fox was sent flying backwards and heavily crashed to the ground, causing the ground to violently shake.

Boom!

A terrifying aura spread out as Dussi raised his sword and slashed out with terrifying power. A 1,000 meter long icy saber qi giving off power that seemed to be able to tear through everything slashed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu slashed out with his sword, and a massive sword light blasted out with immense power, colliding with the saber qi and resulting in a loud explosion.

“Roar!” A loud roar sounded out as the ten-tailed fox got up from the ground and opened its mouth, causing countless rays of white light to gather. A dangerous aura spread out, and white arcs of lightning appeared around it.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the ten-tailed fox shot out an enormous beam of light from its mouth that shot towards Zhao Fu with destructive power. It was incredibly fast and tore through the air, causing space to tremble.

Facing the incoming beam of light, the Six Paths Demon Images blocked in front of Zhao Fu. They each stretched out a hand and massive amounts of ghostly power gathered as a gray energy barrier covered with the Six Paths Demon Images' pictures appeared.

Bang!

The terrifying beam of white light slammed into the barrier and split into two smaller beams that continued on either side of the barrier, leaving deep grooves in the ground.

“Roar!” A massive dragon’s roar sounded out as Dussi exploded out with a powerful aura and slashed out with his saber. A lizard-like ice dragon giving off a bone-chilling aura rushed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not show any fear and rushed over with the Six Paths Demon Images as he cried out, “Sword Master!”

A sharp sword qi storm erupted out as the Emperor Killing Sword gave off intense sword light and Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out. An enormous black and blood-red sword light containing incredibly sharp power tore through the sky as it flashed out.

Bang!

The incoming ice dragon was slashed apart and turned into icy qi as it dissipated.

Zhao Fu gripped a fist, and the Six Paths Demon Images in the air did the same. Zhao Fu punched out, and the Six Paths Demon Images’ fists blasted out with terrifying power, sending out six waves of terrifying fist energy that seemed to be able to crush mountains.

Dussi was greatly shocked and blocked with his saber, but he was still sent flying back by the fist energies. He crashed through a few boulders before stopping and coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

Boom!

Suddenly, an enormous beam of white light shot towards Zhao Fu incredibly quickly. Zhao Fu was unable to react in time and was sent flying by it, crashing into a mountain and almost causing it to collapse.

Bang!

A massive ghostly flame erupted out with great power, blasting the rocks in the surroundings away. Zhao Fu appeared with a trace of blood leaking out of his lips, and his gaze was incredibly cold. The gray ghostly flame around him caused the heavens and earth to feel incredibly cold and eerie.

The ten-tailed fox and Dussi looked at each other. Facing Zhao Fu's terrifying power, they did not hesitate and exploded out with their ultimate power.

"Roar!" Dussi gave a massive dragon's roar that sounded out in the surroundings and an extremely terrifying power spread out. His body gave off boundless light as an icy pillar of light shot into the sky, causing the sky to tremble.

As the icy pillar of light stood between the heavens and earth, Heaven and Earth Power madly flowed into it, and an extremely cold aura spread out. The sky, ground, and air started to freeze and traces of a chilling aura that could cause people to feel despair blew out.

"Roar!" The ten-tailed fox also gave off a massive roar and exploded out with terrifying power. A massive gale swept out, causing countless trees to sway and rocks to roll, and the ground started to crack.

The ten-tailed fox's tails started to dance with terrifying power as ten white orbs of light that gave off blinding light and destructive power gradually appeared.

Zhao Fu looked quite serious and raised his arm that had chains coming out of it, and the Six Paths Demon Images returned to the ground.

"Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar!" The Six Paths Demon Images gave off massive roars towards the sky and exploded out with monstrous auras. Their bodies gave off countless traces of gray light as they each raised a hand and pressed it towards the ground with terrifying power.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Six massive explosions sounded out as the ground collapsed and six massive waves of ghostly qi erupted out like a volcanic eruption. They gave off terrifying auras as they rushed into the sky, forming six massive pillars of gray aura.

Boom!

Dussi attacked first. The massive pillar of icy light gave off world-sealing power as it moved towards Zhao Fu incredibly quickly. The sky and ground that it passed over were all completely frozen with thick ice.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The ten-tailed fox also attacked. The ten massive orbs of light floating in the air gave off shocking power as they shot towards Zhao Fu incredibly quickly and caused the air to explode.

Boom!

Zhao Fu's raised hand gave off a massive formless power as he grabbed out. The six massive gray pillars formed into an enormous ghostly hand that gave off world-destroying power as it grabbed forwards, causing space to crack.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out, as if the world was exploding out. Countless blinding rays of light shot out, filling the world, as all mountains, trees, and rivers were obliterated into nothingness.

The ground continuously trembled violently as a terrifying aura flooded out. From the distance, it looked like a massive haze covered this place.

The people spectating from the distance and people on the viewing platforms looked incredibly shocked as their hearts tightened. They felt cold sweat run down their bodies – this power was simply too terrifying and seemed like it could destroy the world

Chapter 1687: Bloodline

After everything settled, a 200,000 meter wide crater appeared in the ground, looking incredibly shocking and terrifying.

Traces of destructive aura rose up from the crater, and all signs of life had been eradicated.

Who had won? Countless people looked at the crater – by now, a victor had most likely been decided. The three people had most likely used their full strength to unleash such devastating attacks, and it was impossible for them to hold back anything.

Some rocks rolled down and a person covered with blood walked out. That person was wearing a ragged cloak – it was Zhao Fu.

No one else could be seen, so everyone looked at the rankings and found that Dussi and Hu Baimei's rankings had fallen, while Zhao Fu's had risen. He was now ranked third – it was evident that Zhao Fu had won.

Countless people cried out in excitement and shock.

“Heavens! That person actually defeated two geniuses by himself; how OP! He's the person I'll worship from now on!”

“Just who is he? My blood was boiling from that battle. Now, seven out of the Outlander Race's ten top geniuses have fallen at his hands. Who can compare to him?”

“I like him so much! I feel that being his woman would be so blessed. I really admire any woman who can receive his love and have such a powerful man.”

“He's ridiculously strong. Before, I didn't feel any confidence that he could win, but it turns out that he was hiding such terrifying power. I'm totally convinced by his power.”

“I'm so excited; he actually won! I've been supporting him all this time.”

Everyone was sent into an uproar and countless people talked about Zhao Fu. They felt even more curious as to who Zhao Fu was. Seeing that he could summon the Six Paths Demon Images, it was possible that he had a high standing in the Underworld, and ordinary Imperial Princes would not be able to compare to him.

Now, no one dared to call Zhao Fu a perverted bandit or bastard; everyone talked about him with immense respect and fear. In fact, many women wanted to become his.

The two Empires that had wanted to kill him now felt even better about him. Before, they had wanted him to marry into their Empires, but now they were wondering how to give their Princesses to him.

With Zhao Fu's terrifying power and his ability to summon the Six Paths Demon Images, it was possible that the faction behind Zhao Fu was dozens of times more powerful than theirs. Now, they were the weaker side and were not worthy of Zhao Fu. They felt quite worried that he would not want their Princesses.

If they could ally with that terrifying faction, their Empire would feel much more confident. Almost everyone agreed to marrying the two Princesses out, and no one felt dissatisfied or displeased at all.

As for the Fox Race Empire, even though their Princess was defeated, they did not feel angry or view Zhao Fu with animosity. Zhao Fu had defeated their Princess with true power, and he had fought two geniuses by himself.

They felt completely convinced of Zhao Fu's strength, and given how terrifying Zhao Fu was, losing to him was not shameful at all.

Thinking about how Zhao Fu had spoken to Hu Baimei earlier, the Fox Race Empire's higher-ups guessed that Zhao Fu was quite interested in her, and they considered marrying her to him.

Firstly, Zhao Fu's status and strength were higher than Hu Baimei's, so they felt that it would be a good match.

Moreover, the Fox Race Empire's higher-ups all quite liked Zhao Fu and felt that he had immense potential. He would definitely shake the Heaven Awaken World in the future and become one of the most brilliant people in the world. As such, they wanted to marry Hu Baimei over.

They knew that Zhao Fu was quite licentious but they could accept this. However, as the most powerful Fox Race Empire, they were one of the most powerful factions in the entire Outlander Domain, so they would require Hu Baimei to be the main wife. Only that would be worthy of her.

The Dragon person Empire's people looked quite serious. They found that that mysterious person had one of the highest grades of Dragon Race bloodline, and they guessed that he was not from the Ghost Race but from the Dragon Race.

As Dragon people, they were part of the Dragon Race. Facing someone like this, they felt an instinctive respect and wanted to have a good relationship with him. With his strength, he deserved them to treat him like this.

Even though their Imperial Prince had fallen at Zhao Fu's hands, they could accept this, as Zhao Fu was stronger in terms of both strength or bloodline.

They also wanted to marry their Princess over; even if she could not become the main wife, that was alright. They wanted to obtain that sovereign Dragon Race bloodline – it was incredibly important to their Empire and would be of great help to them.

Outlander Ten College's teachers also felt quite shocked about Zhao Fu challenging two geniuses by himself.

The elegant-looking beauty laughed as she said, "I really underestimated him; he actually had such terrifying power. Also, Dong Leng, you said that he couldn't even defeat the sixth-ranked genius, and yet he defeated these two geniuses by himself; what do you have to say?"

The serious-looking middle-aged man had a cold expression as he said, "He surpassed my expectations; I underestimated him. It seems that his background is quite special, and it's hard to tell just what race he is.

"However, from the abilities he's used, he definitely has a terrifying identity. He's worth us paying attention to, but who knows if he can defeat the top three."

The Gnome elder nodded and said, "I also underestimated him. I had never thought that he would reach this point with just Harmony Realm Cultivation. He actually defeated seven of the top geniuses – this is not something an ordinary genius can do. No wonder countless people are worshipping him.

"However, I don't like his character. I don't think he can defeat the Sun Elf either; the Sun Elf is the Outlander Race's most brilliant genius, and everyone else can only live under his light and cannot surpass him. He is the limit of the Outlander Race."

The chubby Bear person elder laughed and said, "I'm on that boy's side; I think he'll once again surpass our expectations."

The elegant-looking beauty felt quite curious as she smiled and asked, “Do you think he’s the prophesied person?”

The serious-looking middle-aged man replied with a definite tone, “Absolutely impossible!”

Chapter 1688: Prophesied Person

The Gnome elder nodded in agreement, “That’s absolutely impossible. No matter how terrifying he is, or even if he defeats the Sun Elf, he’s still not from our Outlander Race. How can he become the new King of Kings?”

Even the Bear person elder who supported Zhao Fu nodded seriously, “It’s indeed impossible. He’s not from our Outlander Race, so it’s impossible for him to draw out the King of Kings Sword. Perhaps if he was an Outlander it could be possible.”

The Fox Race man nodded and said, “That’s right, being part of the Outlander Race is the greatest limitation. No matter how terrifying he is, he’s not from our race, so how can he pull out the King of Kings Sword?”

I believe that the prophesied person is the person who caused the 23 statues to give off ten-colored light. I’m just curious why that person still hasn’t been revealed. He has hidden himself quite well. However, in the key moment he’ll definitely reveal himself – I’m looking forward to that very much.”

The elegant-looking beauty lightly laughed as she said, “I’m also looking forward to the appearance of that person. However, if that person wants to pull out the King of Kings Sword, his greatest obstacle will be the Sun Elf. There will definitely be a terrifying battle.”

Hearing this, everyone else nodded.

Currently, the Sun Elf looked incredibly serious and started to pay mind to the mysterious person, as that person was gaining too much momentum.

When that person had only defeated the seventh-ranked person, he had not cared too much because he could easily do so as well. However, he had defeated everyone from tenth place to fourth place, and he was now ranked third. His power was quite terrifying.

The Sun Elf felt as if there was an incredibly ravenous monster rushing up from below, glaring at him.

Medusa also changed her thinking and now considered Zhao Fu a rival. From the points rankings, Zhao Fu was ranked third and was right behind her. However, she had not fought with him yet and did not know just how strong he was.

Even though she was arrogant and did not place anyone in her eyes, she was not stupid either. With such a ferocious monster by her side, she could not just ignore it, or else she would not even know how she died.

From Zhao Fu's performance, he was qualified to become a competitor. He would most likely find her soon and challenge her.

The Treasure Dwarf's expression was quite unsightly. Even though he had not yet crossed paths with that person, that person's points now exceeded him, bumping him down to fourth place. In a way, Zhao Fu had already defeated him.

The Treasure Dwarf did not dare to be careless and did not continue to kill creatures to earn points, as there was no longer any point.

That person had defeated the fourth-ranked and fifth-ranked people, and he would be next. There would definitely be an intense battle, and because he did not dare to be careless, he started to recover his strength so that he would be in peak condition.

Outside the door to the secret realm, the Three-Headed Ogre was preparing to enter the secret realm again, while the Lion person was recovering from his injuries.

When the Three-Headed Ogre found out the Lion person had also fallen at that person's hands, he felt quite shocked. Just how strong was that person, to have defeated yet another genius? However, he felt a bit better as someone stronger than him had been defeated, so there was no shame in him losing.

At that moment, two figures flew out, covered in blood and looking heavily wounded. The Three-Headed Ogre felt quite shocked and found that they were the fourth-ranked Dussi and fifth-ranked Hu Baimei.

How come both of them had come out heavily wounded? Thinking about the experiences of the various geniuses, the Three-Headed Ogre realized and felt even more shocked. Had both the fourth-ranked and fifth-ranked people lost to that person as well? That person was truly terrifying.

The Lion person also looked at the two heavily wounded people in shock; he had never thought that they would lose to that person as well.

However, those were only their guesses. In the end, the Three-Headed Ogre could not help but ask, "Were you two also defeated by that person?"

Dussi nodded and sighed with an unsightly expression. They had both lost to that person, and he had challenged them together. This made him feel incredibly uncomfortable; it was the first time he had taken such a blow.

Hu Baimei harrumphed angrily, "That bastard was terrifyingly powerful; he challenged both of us together and yet he still won. I'm so angry I could die."

Hearing this, the Three-Headed Ogre and Lion person looked dumbfounded; that person had challenged two geniuses together and had still won. No wonder Dussi and Hu Baimei had come out together; they had been defeated together.

That person completely surpassed their expectations. How could he have such great power? Now, they felt a trace of fear and respect towards him.

They had been feeling that Zhao Fu was hiding power, and now it was proven that Zhao Fu had not gone all-out against them. This made them feel even worse.

At that moment, Hu Baimei accidentally touched one of her wounds, causing her to cry out in pain, and she said angrily, "That bastard didn't even treat a woman like me gently. I'll definitely teach him a lesson next time."

The Three-Headed Ogre felt quite surprised; it was the first time he had seen Hu Baimei like this. Normally, she looked incredibly flirtatious and enticing.

The Three-Headed Ogre was quite powerful and could resist Hu Baimei's charm, and he asked in curiosity, "What is it like inside? How is that person doing?"

Dussi's expression became serious as he said, "That person now ranks third and was most likely somewhat injured. After he recovers, he'll challenge the top three."

Those words caused everyone's hearts to tremble. The top three gave them immense pressure, and they felt fear and respect towards them.

The Lion person asked seriously, "Do you think he'll be able to succeed?"

Hu Baimei pouted as she said, "I think that bastard can defeat the second and third-ranked people, but facing the Sun Elf, I don't think he'll be able to win. Even though that bastard is very powerful, he's not a match for the Sun Elf. That Sun Elf is too terrifying."

The Three-Headed Ogre said, "Even if he can only defeat the second and third-ranked people, he will be incredibly terrifying, much more so than us. Even if he stops at second place, I would feel immense respect for him."

The Lion person nodded in agreement and said with a sigh, "I wonder what kind of person he is, to have such great power."

Those words caused everyone to feel quite curious as to Zhao Fu's identity. After all, they were the Outlander Race's top ten geniuses and yet they had fallen at his hands.

Chapter 1689: Dwarf

Back within the secret realm, Zhao Fu had found a place with no one around and was recovering from his injuries. This time, he had been wounded quite heavily and needed three days to recover.

After defeating the fourth-ranked and fifth-ranked geniuses together, Zhao Fu had greatly benefitted. He had firstly obtained a large number of points, as well as a massive amount of Outlander Fate, making him feel that he was yet another big step closer to awakening the Outlander Emperor Star.

He was also surprised to find that his group had found him – it was the two Princesses, four Goddesses, and Ogre Chief. Because the women had an intimate relationship with Zhao Fu, they could somewhat sense each other.

Seeing Zhao Fu, the women happily leapt into his embrace. They knew that Zhao Fu had been doing all sorts of shocking things and had caused great waves. There was no one in the secret realm who did not know about him.

Seven of the ten most powerful and prestigious geniuses had fallen at his hands, and this was something they could take pride in. They were very happy to be the women of such a legendary man.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and hugged the women as he said, “What is it? You all look so happy.”

The Dragon person Princess happily laughed as she said, “Of course it’s because we get to see husband again. Husband, you’ve been gone for so long and didn’t come back to find us, so we could only go looking for you. Also, husband, you’re so powerful – just who are you? How can you have such terrifying power? Seven of our Outlander Race’s top geniuses were defeated by you.”

The Elf princess also laughed, “Husband, your power really surpassed anything we could imagine. If you ask for our Empires for our hands in marriage, they’ll definitely happily agree; they’ll be overjoyed to have such a powerful son-in-law like you.”

Zhao Fu did not give this too much mind and said, “My goal right now is to defeat the Outlander Race’s ten geniuses. I’m going to defeat the third-ranked Treasure Dwarf now.”

The women had already guessed Zhao Fu’s plan, but hearing him say it himself, they still could not help but feel shocked.

“Husband, can you really do it? Those top three are far stronger than the others,” the women said as they looked at Zhao Fu in concern.

Zhao Fu smiled, “I know, but you don’t have to worry. I’m going to challenge the third-ranked person now, so wait for me here; I’ll be back soon.”

Hearing this, the women smiled and nodded. Their faces then became red as they said, “Be careful, husband, we’ll be watching from the distance. After you win, we’ll serve you together.”

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded before turning into a ray of light and disappearing over the horizon.

A while later, Zhao Fu descended on a flat area. There, the Treasure Dwarf was sitting cross-legged on the ground, his body giving off a faint treasure light.

At that moment, the Treasure Dwarf slowly opened his eyes and looked at Zhao Fu as he said, “You’re that person who has defeated seven geniuses? You look quite ordinary and you really do only have Harmony Realm Cultivation. However, I won’t lose to you.”

As he spoke, the Treasure Dwarf stood up and looked serious as he took out a silver hammer.

Zhao Fu did not say anything and directly took out the Emperor Killing Sword.

The people on the viewing platforms once again felt excited and nervous. Now, that mysterious person was challenging the third-ranked Treasure Dwarf. He was one of the top three, and there would definitely be an intense battle.

If that person could really defeat the Treasure Dwarf, he would be even more terrifying and would become even more famous. He would become a legend among Outlanders and be respected by countless people.

Back at the battlefield, Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and exploded out with a powerful sword qi as he rushed at the Treasure Dwarf. The Treasure Dwarf also gave off a massive aura and held his hammer as he shot towards Zhao Fu.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out an enormous black sword light containing incredibly sharp power. The Dwarf swung out with his hammer, blasting out a terrifying wave of energy towards Zhao Fu.

The two terrifying attacks collided, sending out a terrifying shockwave, and the ground cracked as both people were sent back a few steps.

Zhao Fu sent massive amounts of his Divine Bloodline's power into the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off a sharp sword light. He vigorously slashed out continuously, sending out sharp black sword lights flying towards the Dwarf.

The Dwarf also sent large amounts of power into his hammer, causing it to give off an intense silver light. He vigorously swung out continuously, sending out destructive power towards Zhao Fu.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Explosions continuously sounded out as the countless sword lights were destroyed by the hammer, causing gales to spread out.

Boom!

The Dwarf suddenly exploded out with massive power, and his hammer gave off brilliant silver light as he swung out with terrifying power, sending a monstrous energy towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was startled and blocked with his sword while also releasing a defensive barrier.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu was sent flying back, and the barrier shattered into countless pieces.

Boom!

The Dwarf once again swung out, sending out a ferocious destructive power towards Zhao Fu.

While flying backwards, Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out an enormous black sword light towards the Dwarf.

Bang!

The two attacks slammed together, resulting in an enormous explosion and causing wild winds to spread out.

Zhao Fu stabilized his body and looked at the Dwarf seriously. That Dwarf was quite powerful.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The Dwarf once again attacked, continuously swinging out and sending out powerful energies that gave off destructive auras. As they slammed onto the ground, they easily smashed open large craters and blasted apart any boulders they crashed into, creating loud sounds.

Zhao Fu lightly cried out, "Sword Master!"

A sword hum sounded out as an enormous storm of sword qi spread out. Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, and a massive black crescent gave off an all-destroying sword intent as it flashed towards the Dwarf.

Boom!

A massive sound rang out as the Dwarf's hammer energies were blasted apart by the black crescent, causing them to dissipate into ferocious gusts of wind.

However, the black crescent also disappeared and did not continue onwards to the Dwarf.

The Dwarf coldly harrumphed and sent large amounts of power into his hammer, causing it to give off an intense light, and a terrifying aura spread out, causing the space around it to twist.

COMMENT

Zhao Fu's expression was serious as he released a lot of the Emperor Killing Sword's power, causing an incredibly sharp sword intent to spread out.

Boom!

The Dwarf gripped his hammer and vigorously swung, sending out a massive hammer image that gave off ferocious power as it slammed towards Zhao Fu, causing the air to explode.

Chapter 1690: Flame Eyes

Shing!

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out a sword light with shocking power. It was incredibly fast and tore through the air, bringing with it a gust of sword wind.

Bang!

The two attacks collided, bursting out with terrifying destructive power. Countless rays of light blasted out, as did a shockwave, causing the ground to collapse. The two people were sent flying back, and they crashed to the ground with traces of blood leaking out of their lips.

Boom!

The Dwarf got up, looking quite furious, and he exploded out with a powerful aura. A silver aura flame erupted around him, and he charged at Zhao Fu with a powerful aura.

Zhao Fu wiped away the blood at his mouth and got up from the ground as an enormous black aura flame burst forth around him, causing wild gales to spread out.

Bang!

The Dwarf reached Zhao Fu and raised his hammer, slamming it down towards Zhao Fu with great force.

Zhao Fu dodged to the side, avoiding this attack, and his sword gave off a sword light as it pierced towards the Dwarf's head. The Dwarf twisted to the side, avoiding Zhao Fu's attack, and he gripped his hammer and swung it at Zhao Fu horizontally. In response, Zhao Fu flipped forwards, arriving behind the Dwarf and hacked towards the Dwarf's back with a sharp sword light.

The Dwarf quickly spun and swung his hammer with terrifying power, bringing with it intense power.

Bang!

The sword and hammer collided, resulting in a massive sound, and a shockwave blasted out, sending both people back six or seven steps.

The Dwarf roared and his silver aura flame became many times bigger as an even greater power exploded out. Zhao Fu ignited his Divine Bloodline's power, causing his black aura flame to become even bigger.

The two different-colored auras continuously collided, resulting in a wild gale blowing out.

“Roar!!” The Dwarf raised his hammer, which gave off intense light. The image of a bull covered with muscles appeared in the air, giving off ferocious power.

“Roar!!” A dragons' cry sounded out as Zhao Fu raised his sword, causing it to give off boundless sword light, and a domineering black dragon appeared behind him, giving off immense dragon's might.

The Dwarf's hammer descended, and the bull madly charged towards Zhao Fu with ferocious power. Zhao Fu slashed out, and the black dragon gave off enormous power as it surged forwards.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as the two enormous beasts clashed together, sending out a terrifying power. The ground collapsed and the two people once again were sent flying backward.

Boom! Boom!

Before the ripples had subsided, two searing beams of fiery light shot towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was greatly startled and immediately released a defensive barrier.

Bang!

The two beams of fiery light slammed into the barrier, resulting in a massive explosion. The power instantly destroyed the barrier, and Zhao Fu was sent flying back even further.

The Dwarf gave off a powerful aura as he rushed over, his eyes giving off a fiery light. It seemed that those two beams of light had been shot out from the Dwarf's eyes.

The Dwarf rushed in front of Zhao Fu and raised his hammer, smashing it at Zhao Fu with terrifying power. Zhao Fu's heart tightened and quickly dodged to the side.

Bang!

The hammer heavily smashed into the ground, causing a terrifying power to blast out. The ground in the surrounding dozens of meters was shattered, and even though Zhao Fu was able to dodge the main attack, he was still blasted back by the terrifying power.

Zhao Fu crashed ten or so meters away and coughed up a mouthful of blood.

The Dwarf turned his head, his eyes flaming as two beams of fiery light containing terrifying power shot out towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's cross-shaped pupil in his right eye quickly spun as a massive wave of ghostly qi flowed out, gathering in front of him.

Bang!

As the two beams of fire struck the ghostly qi, an explosion sounded out as the ghostly qi was blasted apart and dissipated, but Zhao Fu was able to escape being injured again.

The Dwarf once again swung his hammer with great force towards Zhao Fu, while Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out a sharp sword light towards the Dwarf.

The two attacks collided, resulting in another explosion, which turned into massive gales. At that moment, the Dwarf suddenly stomped onto the ground.

The Dwarf's foot gave off a silver aura that flowed into the ground, and Zhao Fu felt his body sink as if there was a massive power weighing down on him as a silver magic formation appeared under his feet.

This power heavily weighed on his body, making it very difficult for him to move.

The Dwarf gave a trace of a cold smile and held his hammer as he gave off a terrifying aura and rushed at Zhao Fu.

The cross-shaped pupil and six gray dots in Zhao Fu's right eye quickly spun as a massive, eerie wave of ghostly qi flooded out.

"Ahhh..." The ghostly qi formed countless ghosts that howled and gave off ferocious ghostly power as they charged towards the Dwarf.

"Roar!!" Facing the countless incoming ghosts, the Dwarf opened his mouth and gave a massive roar, causing a corporeal soundwave to blast out with terrifying destructive power, causing the ground to crack.

The countless ghosts were instantly destroyed by that terrifying soundwave, dissipating into ghostly qi.

The Dwarf continued to give off a terrifying aura as he rushed towards Zhao Fu.

This was why the Treasure Dwarf was so powerful – almost all of his body could be used as powerful treasures, and ordinary people could not deal with him at all. This was why the Treasure Dwarf was one of the Outlander Race's top three geniuses.

Clang! Clang! Clang...

Zhao Fu gathered power into the golden pupil in his left eye, and chains shot out from behind Zhao Fu, all of them containing terrifying power as they densely shot towards the Dwarf.

The Dwarf's gaze was savage as he sent massive amounts of power into his hammer, causing it to give off an intense silver light, and a dangerous aura spread out.

Boom!

An enormous sound rang out as Zhao Fu vigorously swung his hammer, sending out a terrifying energy. Space itself seemed as if it was going to be shattered as cracks spread out.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The terrifying energy destroyed the countless chains, causing them to fall to the ground in pieces.

The Dwarf continued rushing towards Zhao Fu, reaching him quickly. Zhao Fu was still bound by the silver magic formation and could still barely move.

The Dwarf gave a trace of a smile as he gripped his hammer and gave off terrifying power as he smashed towards Zhao Fu. He felt that Zhao Fu was not all that great; he was powerful but still lost to him.

As one of the top three geniuses, he wanted to prove to others that it was impossible for him to be defeated by others. He wanted to intimidate everyone else who wanted to challenge him, and he wanted to retake third-ranked place.
