

The Lord 1691

Chapter 1691: Four Weapons

The people on the viewing platforms started to feel nervous; was that mysterious person about to lose? He was the person with the most potential to challenge the top three, and if he won, the legend of the top three would be broken. If he failed, the top three would continue on as legendary existences.

Boom!

The hammer contained terrifying power as it swung towards Zhao Fu, creating a massive sound and bringing with it wild gales.

The hammer was about to hit Zhao Fu, but Zhao Fu did not panic and a sword-shaped black and blood-red pupil looked at the Dwarf with icy intent.

The Dwarf felt greatly startled and his hairs stood on end.

Shing! Shing! Shing...

Countless traces of black and blood-red sword qi giving off power that seemed to be able to slash apart everything flowed out, shooting towards the Dwarf.

Bang!

A loud sound rang out as the Dwarf was blasted back and heavily crashed to the ground, opening up a large crater and causing him to cough up a mouthful of blood.

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as a massive ghostly flame erupted around Zhao Fu's body, causing an eerie wind to blast out. At the same time, a terrifying power rippled out from Zhao Fu's body.

The silver magic formation on the ground gave off an intense silver light and continued to bind Zhao Fu, and a silver light covered Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu vigorously struggled, finally breaking free of the restrictive power. The silver light subsided, and Zhao Fu stomped onto the ground, sending a massive wave of ghostly power into the ground. The ground collapsed, and the silver magic formation disappeared.

Zhao Fu had used the Six Paths Demon Images' power, and the ghostly flame that he gave off caused clouds to swirl as an eerie aura flooded out and inundated everything.

“Arghh!” The Dwarf gave a massive roar as terrifying power exploded out from his body. He grew another head and two more arms, and the silver aura flame around him became even bigger and dyed the sky silver.

At the same time, the Dwarf took out a sword, a saber, and an axe, holding a weapon in each of his hands. His body gave off a silver light, making him look like a war god.

Boom!

The Dwarf gave off a terrifying aura as he held the four weapons. All of them gave off monstrous power and he rushed forwards towards Zhao Fu, creating a massive explosion.

Boom!

Zhao Fu took out the Sadistic Killing Sword, holding it in one hand and holding the Emperor Killing Sword with the other. He sent large amounts of power into the two swords, causing them to give off a shocking sword light. Zhao Fu also gave off a powerful aura and rushed at the Dwarf.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive explosions blasted out as the Dwarf swung the four weapons, bringing with them terrifying energies, while Zhao Fu continuously slashed out with his two swords, sending out terrifying sword lights towards the Dwarf.

Terrifying power spread out, causing the ground to continuously collapse. Massive gales rushed out, causing countless trees to tremble and boulders to roll. The sky darkened and terrifying auras flooded out.

Sensing these terrifying auras, countless people looked excited and rushed towards that direction.

Just as they expected, it was that mysterious person fighting against the third-ranked genius. That person was a legendary existence, someone ordinary people could not think of even touching, and it was rare for him to go all-out when fighting.

These immense ripples meant that the battle was definitely incredibly intense, making countless people feel incredibly excited.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The two people continuously swung their weapons, sending out terrifying power that collided and sent out monstrous ripples.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Dwarf sent massive amounts of power into his four weapons, causing them to give off an intense silver light. The Dwarf vigorously blasted out with the four weapons, sending immense destructive power towards Zhao Fu.

Shing! Shing!

Zhao Fu also sent large amounts of power into the two swords, causing one to give off an incredibly cold and powerful sword intent and the other to give off a berserk sword intent. He slashed out with them, sending two shocking sword lights flying out.

Boom!

The two waves of attacks clashed together, resulting in a terrifying explosion that sent a dome of destructive energy blasting out. The ground, trees, and boulders within were all destroyed.

The two people flew back and coughed up a large mouthful of blood, and injuries appeared on their bodies, dyeing their clothes blood-red.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

The Dwarf got up and his four eyes gave off blinding flames as four beams of fiery light shot towards Zhao Fu. The surrounding temperature quickly rose, making it feel as if they were within a furnace.

Zhao Fu's heart tightened, and he blocked with his two swords. His cross-shaped pupil continuously spun and a massive wave of ghostly qi spread out, forming an enormous orb of ghostly qi that covered his body.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

Four massive explosions sounded out as the orb of ghostly qi was blasted apart, dissipating into traces of ghostly qi, and Zhao Fu was sent flying back.

The Dwarf gave a cold smile and gave off a terrifying aura as he rushed at Zhao Fu.

Clang! Clang! Clang...

Sounds of chains rang out as chains containing terrifying power rushed out of the ground and shot towards the Dwarf.

The Dwarf swung his four weapons with great force, destroying the incoming chains and causing them to fly off in pieces.

Shing! Shing!

A sword hum suddenly rang out as Zhao Fu slashed out with his swords, sending out a crossed sword light with great power towards the Dwarf.

The Dwarf was greatly startled and blocked with his weapons.

Bang!

The two sword lights slammed into the Dwarf's weapons with terrifying power, and the Dwarf felt a massive impact that caused him to fly backwards. He crashed to the ground and felt a sweetness in his throat as he coughed up a mouthful of blood.

Shing!

A massive sword hum sounded out as Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword and pointed it to the sky. A massive wave of power flowed into the sword, causing it to give off an intense sword light, and a ray of sword light flew into the sky.

Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered, forming an enormous vortex, and a black magic formation giving off destructive power appeared.

Zhao Fu's sword descended, and the magic formation gave off boundless sword light and started to spin with terrifying power.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Terrifying black sword lights containing world-destroying power blasted down from the sky, slamming into the Dwarf's body, resulting in loud explosions. Destructive auras spread out, and the ground continuously crumbled.

After everything settled, the people in the surroundings nervously looked at the enormous crater in the ground. Had the Dwarf lost after taking such a terrifying blow? That power was simply too monstrous.

Chapter 1692: Eternal Protection Formation

Everyone wanted to see Zhao Fu win, as he was the underdog and was challenging those who were high and mighty. This made everyone feel incredibly excited, as they were also underdogs, so they stood on Zhao Fu's side.

However, everyone was disappointed – after everything settled, the Dwarf looked uninjured as he stood at the center of the massive crater.

There was a four-colored barrier around him, which looked quite special. There were four palm-sized creatures made of energy floating around the Dwarf.

The first was a yellow dragon that gave off a yellow light and an earth aura. One was a white bird that gave off a white light and a sky aura. One was a black insect that gave off a black light and a space aura. One was a fish that gave off a blue light and a time aura.

The four-colored barrier was formed from the lights that these four creatures gave off, and it seemed to contain an aura similar to heaven and earth.

The Dwarf looked at Zhao Fu and said confidently, “You’re very powerful and actually forced me to use my ultimate trump card. You should be proud, but since I’ve used this, you’ll definitely lose without a doubt.”

Zhao Fu did not reply and his gaze was serious as he slashed out a few sword lights towards the Dwarf.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Loud sounds rang out as the sword lights slammed into the four-colored barrier with terrifying power, but the barrier did not crack or even tremble.

This made Zhao Fu feel quite shocked; he had never thought that this barrier would be so tough. Even though he had not used his full power in those attacks, they still contained great power, yet they had not been able to even scratch the barrier.

The Dwarf said arrogantly, “Hahaha, no matter what you try, you won’t be able to break through my barrier. This is Eternal Protection, from the Eternal Protection Formation of the Heaven Awaken World’s Six Great Heaven-Defying Magic Formations. Do you really think you can destroy it?

“I was preparing to use this to challenge the Sun Elf, but I had never thought I’d have to use it so soon. That’s why I say you’re definitely going to lose.”

Boom!

The Dwarf rushed at Zhao Fu with his four-colored barrier like a ferocious beast, resulting in a massive explosion.

Zhao Fu's expression was cold as he sent enormous amounts of power into his two swords and powerfully slashed out. Two terrifying sword lights containing power that could slash through everything slammed against the four-colored barrier, but they still did not leave even a mark.

The Dwarf directly ignored Zhao Fu's attack and swung his four weapons with terrifying power towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu now fell into a completely passive state. He could not attack the Dwarf at all and could only passively defend.

The people spectating from the distance and those on the viewing platforms had never thought that things would turn out like this. The mysterious person was now at a great disadvantage and was most likely going to lose.

Eternal Protection was a defensive power split off from the Eternal Protection Formation. As for why it was called the Eternal Protection Formation, it was because no one could break open that formation. Even terrifying Celestials could not do so; that was why it was one of the Heaven Awaken World's Six Great Heaven-Defying Magic Formations.

Even though this Eternal Protection was not as powerful as the true Eternal Protection Formation, it still had unimaginable defensive power and was very difficult to destroy.

The Six Great Heaven-Defying Magic Formations had disappeared from the world for a long time, and everyone wondered how the Dwarf had obtained Eternal Protection. With this power, he indeed could challenge the first-ranked Sun Elf.

Bang!

The four weapons gave off an intense light and contained terrifying power as they slammed Zhao Fu to the ground, slamming open a large crater and causing Zhao Fu to cough up a large mouthful of blood.

The Dwarf stood in the air and said arrogantly, “I already said it, you have no chance of defeating me. If you don’t want to die, hurry up and admit your loss. I won’t trouble you but don’t blame me for showing no mercy otherwise.”

The people on the viewing platforms inwardly sighed. Surrendering was the best option – with the Eternal Protection, the Dwarf was essentially invincible. That person would definitely fall at the Dwarf’s hands.

It was a pity that after defeating seven geniuses, that person was finally going to fall here. As the top three geniuses of the Outlander Race, they were not people ordinary people could defeat.

Zhao Fu looked quite serious as he glared at the Dwarf and said, “I don’t believe that I can’t break that barrier of yours.”

The Dwarf looked condescending as he laughed loudly, “You’re free to try.”

After speaking, the Dwarf gave off a massive aura as he continued to rush at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu lay on the ground and slowly closed his eyes. His expression became calm as he said, “Celestial Mode... Activate!”

Boom!

A massive sound rang out as a gigantic rainbow-colored aura flame burst forth with terrifying power. It covered the surrounding 10,000 meters, and everything caught within it was annihilated, causing an enormous crater to appear.

The sky was dyed a rainbow color as waves of terrifying aura flooded out, seeming to cause the entire world to tremble.

Standing at the center of the aura flame, Zhao Fu’s eyes gave off a rainbow-colored light and a ring of rainbow runes appeared around him.

At that moment, Zhao Fu looked like a Celestial, unbound by the world’s laws. The time around him seemed to stop, the space around him twisted, and his body gave off traces of a world-destroying aura.

Sensing Zhao Fu's terrifying power, the Dwarf felt quite shocked because it was as if he felt a real Celestial's power. However, this person only had Harmony Realm Cultivation, so how could he have a Celestial's power.

The people on the viewing platforms and in the distance gulped as they stared in shock; they had never thought that Zhao Fu would be hiding such terrifying power.

Zhao Fu's expression was icy; his eyes and face did not contain even a trace of emotion, and he slowly stretched out a hand and vigorously grabbed out. The rainbow aura flame around him continuously condensed and formed a Celestial Sword made of aura flames.

Zhao Fu looked at the Dwarf, causing the Dwarf's heart to tighten. Before he could even react, Zhao Fu had already appeared in front of him and his sword gave off no sound or aura as it slashed against the four-colored barrier.

Boom!

A shocking sound rang out as the Dwarf felt as if an entire world had slammed into him. His body blasted into the ground like a meteor, causing a terrifying shockwave to spread out, causing the ground in the surrounding tens of thousands of meters to collapse.

Within the crater, the Dwarf lay on the ground, and his four-colored barrier gradually cracked and dissipated, and he coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

Chapter 1693: Medusa

The people on the viewing platforms and in the surroundings all looked shocked; Eternal Protection had been destroyed with just a single sword strike. That person's strength was simply unimaginable. Could a mortal really wield such power?

No one thought that this person would still be hiding such monstrous strength.

Now, how would the Dwarf face this terrifying Celestial-like person? His trump card, Eternal Protection, had been destroyed with a single sword strike.

Back at the battlefield, the Dwarf's face became quite pale. He had never thought that this person would be so terrifying and be able to destroy Eternal Protection, which seemed to be able to block everything. Facing this monstrous person, he no longer had anything to use to resist.

Zhao Fu held his rainbow sword of aura flames and pointed it at the Dwarf as he said, "Will you fight or surrender?"

The Dwarf hesitated for a moment. Given the current situation, it would be impossible for him to defeat Zhao Fu. Rather than retreating with heavy injuries, it was better to admit his loss. As such, he sighed and said, "I surrender and will give one-third of my points to you."

Just as he spoke, Zhao Fu received a system announcement that he had obtained one-third of the Dwarf's points, and he felt a massive wave of Fate flow into him.

Zhao Fu did not stay; since he had defeated the Dwarf, he turned into a ray of light, disappeared over the horizon, and returned to recover from his injuries.

"That person really won; he defeated one of the legendary top three. He's so powerful and awesome!"

Countless people could not help but excitedly cry out. That person had become a legend, and in the future the whole Outlander Race would know about his existence.

The people who had thought that it would be impossible for Zhao Fu to defeat the Dwarf all looked incredibly shocked; they had never thought that this Harmony Realm Cultivator would actually win, completely blowing their minds.

Zhao Fu's fame skyrocketed and now received even more attention than the first-ranked Sun Elf. It could be said that almost all eyes were on him.

After Zhao Fu returned to the others, the women were all excitedly waiting for him. Their man had broken the legend and become an existence countless people could only look up at.

Zhao Fu recovered from his wounds first before doing it with the women. He then went to challenge the second-ranked Medusa.

Medusa looked at Zhao Fu seriously. This man in front of her seemed incredibly unfathomable and terrifying. She did not dare to be careless and truly saw Zhao Fu as a worthy opponent on the level of the Sun Elf.

Zhao Fu looked at Medusa's alluring figure and incredible beauty. This woman was a peerless beauty and was definitely within the top three in terms of beauty.

However, Zhao Fu's attention was not on that. He drew his Emperor Killing Sword and said, "No need to waste any words; let's begin!"

Medusa lightly harrumphed and grabbed out with her hand, causing a blood-red bone trident to appear in her hands.

Boom!

A massive green aura burst forth around Medusa's body, turning into wild gales that spread out, giving off an eerie and evil aura.

Boom!

Seeing this, Zhao Fu did not hesitate and exploded out with his own power. A black aura flame erupted, sending out large winds.

Shing!

Zhao Fu attacked first, sending out a massive black sword light containing ferocious power towards Medusa.

Medusa casually swung her bone trident, sending out a blood-red arc of light with terrifying power towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

The two attacks collided, resulting in a massive explosion. Cold light shot everywhere and a massive wind spread out.

Zhao Fu leapt into the air and the Emperor Killing Sword gave off a brilliant sword light and terrifying power as Zhao Fu hacked down at Medusa, drawing out an enormous arc of light.

Medusa did not move and her bone trident gave off a terrifying blood-red light as she vigorously swung out, sending out a blood-red crescent towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

An enormous explosion rang out as the two attacks collided, forming a terrifying shockwave. The ground collapsed and Zhao Fu was forced back ten or so meters while Medusa did not move.

Zhao Fu's expression became grim. Medusa was much stronger than the Dwarf, so he did not hold back and a black and blood-red aura flame burst forth around him as he once again used his Divine Bloodline's power.

Medusa's gaze was cold as she sent large amounts of power into her bone trident and stabbed forwards towards Zhao Fu.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Three blood-red beams of light containing terrifying piercing power shot towards Zhao Fu incredibly quickly, tearing through the air.

Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and lightly cried out, "Sword Master!"

An incredibly sharp sword qi exploded out of the Emperor Killing Sword, creating a powerful storm of sword qi. Zhao Fu gripped the Emperor Killing Sword and vigorously slashed, sending out a sharp sword arc of light.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The three blood-red beams of light were slashed apart by Zhao Fu's strike, causing blood-red light to shoot everywhere and a large wind to blow out.

Suddenly, Medusa appeared in front of Zhao Fu and swung her bone trident with great force, slamming it towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was greatly startled and blocked with his sword.

Bang!

Zhao Fu felt a massive impact and was sent flying dozens of meters before stopping; his expression became even more serious.

"Roar! Roar! Roar..." Nine massive dragon's roars sounded out as a terrifying aura spread out and the ground beneath him started to crack.

Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword and nine massive black dragons giving off terrifying power appeared behind him, giving off immense dragon's might and causing the surrounding space to sink.

Medusa's expression was icy as she also raised her bone trident and an even greater green aura flame flowed out, bringing with it berserk winds.

The green aura flame continuously twisted until it became a green snake. It gave off a terrifying aura and looked at Zhao Fu with a cold gaze that could make anyone's hairs stand on end.

Boom!

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out with the Emperor Killing Sword and the nine black dragons gave off monstrous power as they rushed towards Medusa.

Medusa stabbed out with her bone trident, and the green snake also gave off a terrifying and eerie aura as it shot out like lightning, causing an explosion to sound out.

Bang!

The dragons and snake collided, resulting in a massive explosion. Countless traces of light spread out and the ground continuously collapsed, and countless rocks shot out as a crater that was hundreds of meters wide appeared in the ground.

Chapter 1694: Green Light

Zhao Fu was blasted out by the shockwave and crashed to the ground, a trace of blood leaking out of his lips; he had received some light injuries.

Medusa remained standing where she was; a green energy barrier had appeared, blocking the shockwave so that she was not injured at all. Her expression was cold as she vigorously swung her bone trident, sending out a green crescent containing terrifying power towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu hurriedly dodged to the side, avoiding this attack.

The green crescent slammed into the ground, resulting in a massive explosion that caused rocks to fly everywhere and a massive gash appeared in the ground.

Boom!

Zhao Fu's cross-shaped pupil in his right eye quickly spun as a massive wave of ghostly qi flowed out, turning into countless ghosts that flooded towards Medusa.

Facing the countless incoming ghosts, Medusa was expressionless and raised her bone trident, sending a terrifying wave of power into it, causing powerful green light to shoot out from the tips.

Swish, swish, swish...

Countless rays of green light containing sharp power shot out; they were incredibly dense and gave off shocking sounds.

The green light easily pierced through the ghosts' bodies, causing them to howl. Their bodies turned into ghostly qi and dissipated, and as the rays of green light slammed into the ground, they left holes that were metres deep.

“Sss!” A loud hiss sounded out as Medusa once again swung her bone trident, causing a massive green snake to suddenly appear. It gave off eerie power as it shot towards Zhao Fu like a bolt of lightning.

Zhao Fu was unable to react in time and was sent flying back, crashing into a large tree. Many cracks appeared on the tree, causing its leaves to fall like rain, and Zhao Fu coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

“If you don’t use the power that you used to defeat the Dwarf, it will be impossible for you to defeat me!” Medusa’s voice was cold as she said with great confidence.

Zhao Fu felt a trace of coldness and understood that Medusa was incredibly powerful. If he did not use the Celestial Mode’s power, he would not be able to defeat her. As such, he said, “As you wish! Celestial Mode... Activate!”

Boom!

A massive rainbow-colored aura flame erupted out, rushing ten or so meters high into the air. Zhao Fu’s eyes gave off a rainbow-colored light and a ring of rainbow-colored runes appeared around him, causing him to give off a Celestial-like might.

Sensing this power, Medusa felt quite shocked and understood that this was the power that defeated the Treasure Dwarf.

Boom!

Medusa did not hide anything and also exploded out with a terrifying aura. A massive green aura flame erupted around her body, causing a wild gale to spread out, accompanied by an eerie and evil power.

Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and sent massive amounts of power into it, causing it to give off a rainbow-colored aura flame before rushing towards Medusa.

Medusa sent large amounts of power into her bone trident, causing it to give off intense green light. Medusa gave off a terrifying aura and shot towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu slashed towards Medusa with terrifying power, bringing with it a rainbow sword light that seemed to be able to destroy all things.

Medusa vigorously swung her bone trident towards Zhao Fu with terrifying power, bringing with it an intense green light.

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded out as the two terrifying powers collided, causing a terrifying shockwave to spread out. It gave off shocking power and blasted out, causing the ground, trees, and boulders to shatter.

A wild gale also swept out, causing countless trees to sway and dust to billow as if a disaster was unfolding.

The two people were forced back dozens of meters by the shockwave, and blood leaked out of their lips as they looked at each other seriously.

“Sss! Sss! Sss!” Medusa vigorously swung her bone trident, and three massive green snakes containing terrifying power shot towards Zhao Fu like bolts of lightning.

Zhao Fu slashed out with his sword, sending out a sharp sword light that cut off the head of the first snake, while the second snake opened its large mouth and bit towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu swung his sword, and another sword light flashed out, cutting that snake’s large mouth in half.

The final snake gave off ferocious power as it slammed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu gripped his fist, and a rainbow-colored aura flame covered his fist, and he powerfully punched out with terrifying might, seeming to be able to blow a mountain apart.

Bang!

Zhao Fu’s fist slammed into the incoming snake, causing it to explode, dissipating into countless motes of green light.

Suddenly, Medusa appeared in front of Zhao Fu, and her bone trident stabbed towards him with terrifying power, bringing with it a mighty wind.

Zhao Fu felt quite startled and blocked with his sword, exploding out with a rainbow-colored aura flame that formed a rainbow energy barrier.

Bang!

The bone trident brought with it shocking power as it struck the rainbow energy barrier, resulting in a muffled explosion. The rainbow energy barrier shattered and Zhao Fu flew backwards, crashing to the ground and coughing up a large mouthful of blood.

Medusa gave a trace of a cold smile and leaned forwards as she turned into a ray of green light and swept towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked furious as he squatted on the ground and gathered massive amounts of power into his palm, causing it to shine with a rainbow light. He slammed his palm onto the ground, causing a massive sound to ring out as the golden pupil in his left eye quickly spun.

Clang, clang, clang...

Rainbow chains shot out from the ground with great power, shooting towards Medusa incredibly quickly. There were at least 100,000 of them, creating a shocking scene.

Medusa felt quite startled. Facing the countless rainbow chains, she sent a massive wave of power into her bone trident, causing it to give off a brilliant green light. Medusa swung her bone trident with great power, and a terrifying green crescent slashed out with great destructive power.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The green crescent brought with it terrifying power as it cut apart countless rainbow chains, causing them to fall from the sky in pieces.

However, many rainbow chains shot at her from the side, binding her body.

Boom!

A terrifying power exploded out from Medusa's body, causing her green aura flame to double in size, and the chains binding her were all shattered by that terrifying power.

However, Zhao Fu appeared in front of her at that moment, and his sword gave off a massive rainbow light as it slashed towards her.

Medusa was greatly startled and immediately blocked with her bone trident, and a green energy barrier appeared around her.

Bang!

An explosion sounded out as the terrifying sword light blasted Medusa flying back, causing her to heavily crash onto the ground and open up a crater, and she coughed up a mouthful of blood.

Chapter 1695: Number 2 Genius

Boom!

Medusa looked furious as she got up from the ground and exploded out with an incredibly powerful aura. Countless traces of green aura flooded out, bringing with them an extremely eerie and evil power.

The world was filled with an eerie aura, making people feel as if they had fallen into an icy cavern. Their hair stood on end and they felt immense terror.

The green, mist-like aura continuously formed snakes that were about one meter long that glided towards Zhao Fu. There were hundreds of thousands of them and they seemed to fill the heavens and earth as they rushed at him, creating a frightening scene.

Zhao Fu looked quite serious and raised the Emperor Killing Sword. A rainbow sword light shot towards the sky and massive amounts of Heaven and Earth Power condensed, forming an enormous vortex, and a rainbow-colored sword formation appeared with terrifying power.

Zhao Fu slashed down, and the rainbow magic formation started to spin, giving off a faint light as a destructive aura spread out.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Rays of rainbow sword light containing world-destroying power slashed towards Medusa, and the ground continuously trembled as cracks appeared in space.

Bang!

A shocking explosion sounded out as countless rays of terrifying sword light collided with the flood of snakes. A terrifying shockwave blasted out, destroying the ground, trees, boulders, grass, and flowers.

A massive gale spread out, causing countless trees to sway and boulders to roll, creating a startling scene.

A crater that was tens of thousands of metres wide appeared in the ground, and the people on the viewing platform looked at the horrific scene in excitement.

After sensing those terrifying ripples, the people nearby all looked extremely excited and gathered in this direction. They all understood that those terrifying ripples were from the mysterious person challenging the number two genius.

After arriving and seeing that terrifying scene, they all looked incredibly shocked.

Within the crater, Zhao Fu and Medusa both had a few wounds, from which blood flowed. Their auras were somewhat weak and it seemed that their injuries were quite heavy.

Boom!

Medusa once again exploded out with a green aura flame, and a terrifying power spread out as she swung her bone trident.

“Sss! Sss! Sss...” Hundreds of green snakes that were 1,000 meters long gave off massive hisses and rushed at Zhao Fu with ferocious power, seeming as if they could destroy everything.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu gave a loud roar and an even greater rainbow aura flame exploded out from his body, covering the surrounding 10,000 meters and destroying the ground that it covered.

Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword and countless traces of rainbow aura flame gathered and flowed into it, causing it to blaze with an intense aura flame.

Boom!

Zhao Fu slashed out, causing an explosion to send out as the ground, space, rocks, and everything else were obliterated.

Bang!

A shocking sound rang out as the terrifying sword energy and hundreds of massive snakes collided, and a terrifying explosive power blasted out like a dome of energy. The ground continuously trembled and waves of terrifying aura spread out.

After everything settled, Zhao Fu and Medusa were both lying on the ground, covered with blood; their auras had become even weaker.

Both of them had taken on massive destructive power twice; ordinary people would have died after the first time.

Everyone looked at the two people in shock and thought to themselves, ‘As expected from two great geniuses; it’s simply a world-ending battle.’

Given how heavily injured both people were, was the battle over? Was it a draw?

Boom!

Just as everyone was thinking this, an enormous aura flame blazed out with great power, causing wild winds to blow, and Zhao Fu once again stood up.

Everyone felt delighted – if Zhao Fu could stand up, this battle’s victor would be Zhao Fu. He would have successfully challenged the second-ranked genius, and he would receive even more admiration from everyone.

Boom!

A terrifying green aura flame also blazed out with terrifying power. A cold and eerie wind blew out, and Medusa also got up from the ground.

One was a black aura flame that dyed the surroundings black, while the other was a green aura flame that dyed the surroundings green. The two auras continuously clashed, resulting in intense winds that caused the heavens to darken and clouds to swirl.

In that instant, Zhao Fu dragged the Emperor Killing Sword and gave off a terrifying aura as he rushed towards Medusa, slashing out powerful sword lights. In response, Medusa gripped the bone trident and rushed towards Zhao Fu with terrifying power, sending out destructive crescents.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The two people’s attacks continuously clashed, resulting in massive sounds as powerful energies spread out, causing the ground to continuously collapse.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu loudly roared and exploded out with all of his Divine Bloodline’s power, sending it into the Emperor Killing Sword. The Emperor Killing Sword gave off intense sword light, and Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending an incredibly sharp sword intent towards Medusa.

“Ahhh!” Medusa cried out, releasing all of her power and causing her bone trident to erupt with a massive aura flame. Medusa vigorously stabbed out, sending out a powerful destructive energy that seemed to shatter space.

Bang!

The two attacks clashed and resulted in a massive explosion, and both people were blown back, coughing up a large mouthful of blood.

After a while, both people once again got up and looked at each other seriously.

Swish!

Medusa threw out her bone trident, causing it to shoot out like a bolt of lightning, piercing towards Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu did not move at all, and the bone trident gave off terrifying power as it stabbed through his chest, causing a muffled explosion and opening up a bloody hole as big as a fist in Zhao Fu's chest.

This made Medusa feel quite startled, and countless other people stared in shock, not understanding what had happened. How had Zhao Fu been killed so easily? With such a wound, he would definitely die.

Such a terrifying figure had died, just like that – what a pity! Countless people could not believe this.

Zhao Fu's corpse slowly fell down, before suddenly disappearing, and a figure appeared behind Medusa.

Medusa was greatly startled but was unable to react in time.

Chi!

Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and stabbed through Medusa's abdomen, and the blue pupil in his left eye gave off a boundless blue light.

Medusa coughed up a large mouthful of blood and immediately chose to retreat out of the secret realm. If she was later by even a second, she would have died at Zhao Fu's hands.

Chapter 1696: Battle

Everyone once again looked shocked. They had never thought that Zhao Fu, who had seemingly just been killed, would suddenly appear behind Medusa and wrest back victory from defeat.

The more powerful and perceptive people explained what had happened: Zhao Fu had used an extremely powerful illusion to trick everyone's eyes.

Hearing this, everyone felt incredibly shocked; that illusion was simply too powerful – even those outside the secret realm had been affected as well.

The people from Medusa's Empire all let out a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Zhao Fu had not stabbed any of Medusa's vitals, or else her life would have been in danger. Losing such an extraordinary genius would have been a great blow to the Empire.

As such, they felt quite grateful to Zhao Fu, understanding that he had shown mercy, or else Medusa would not have been able to leave the secret realm.

Now that even the second-ranked Medusa had been defeated, countless people looked even more excited. That person was now the second-ranked genius in the Outlander Race, below only the Sun Elf. He had become a legend and received the worship and admiration of countless people.

The people on the viewing platforms were sent into an uproar. Their voices were incredibly loud and raucous, and even people very far away could hear the liveliness and sense their excitement.

Now, almost everyone knew of Zhao Fu's existence. He was like a resplendent rising star, shining in all directions.

Everyone felt immense respect, and there was no one who was unconvinced. They could not compare to Zhao Fu's terrifying power.

At the same time, they felt incredibly happy because Zhao Fu seemed to have an ordinary status and yet he had defeated nine high and mighty geniuses. He made those who were inferior to those nine geniuses feel incredibly excited and encouraged.

This was the first time such a terrifying figure had appeared in history. After this event, that person would definitely cause massive waves in the Outlander Race.

Countless people watched on with respect and terror as Zhao Fu went back to his group, covered with injuries.

After returning, the women did not dare to disturb Zhao Fu, as they knew that their man had just fought the second-ranked genius in the Outlander Race. Even with their identities, they were incredibly shocked and could not help but feel deep respect for Zhao Fu. At the same time, they were jubilant that they had such a terrifying man.

Four days later, Zhao Fu slowly opened his eyes and the totems on his back seemed to come to life, and they started to swirl and give off different-colored lights.

After defeating Medusa, Zhao Fu had once again obtained massive amounts of Outlander Fate and came another step closer to breaking through. Now, there was only one genius remaining, the person who had the Outlander Emperor Star. He was a legend and was someone thought of as unsurpassable.

Not only were countless people on the viewing platforms waiting for this final battle, countless people in the secret realm came to the central region of the secret realm to wait. They knew that the final battle would happen here.

The Sun Elf had a gold sword at his waist and was dressed in gold-colored clothes. His long, golden hair and incredibly handsome looks made him look like a noble god, one who no one would dare to blaspheme against.

The Sun Elf was guided by that mysterious power to wait here for Zhao Fu. He gave a trace of a confident smile; he knew that Zhao Fu had defeated nine geniuses, but he was confident that Zhao Fu would not be able to defeat him as he was an invincible existence.

The nine geniuses defeated by Zhao Fu also gathered here and waited for this final battle to begin.

The Elephant person said somewhat nervously, “Do you think that person will be able to defeat the Sun Elf?”

Yu Luohua said somewhat angrily, “I don’t think it’s possible. Outsiders don’t know how powerful the Sun Elf is, but we know just how terrifying he is. I want the Sun Elf to properly teach that bastard a lesson.”

The Dwarf smiled as he said, “I also think the Sun Elf will win. He’s the most outstanding out of all of us, and I don’t want to see all of the Outlander Race’s ten geniuses falling to that person’s hands; I don’t want to become one of his stepping stones to the top.”

Medusa looked serious as she said, “I have no idea who will win. Both of them are incredibly unfathomable and only by battling will they be able to see who is superior.”

The Three-Headed Ogre loudly laughed and said, “I think the Sun Elf will definitely win. He’s an unsurpassable existence in the Outlander Race; he’s not inferior at all to the top geniuses of the other Domains.”

Hu Baimei harrumphed, “Even though I want to see that bastard get taught a lesson, I also want to see if he can defeat the Sun Elf. If he wins, I might give him a chance.”

It was not just the top geniuses discussing the matter; others were also heatedly debating who would win.

Some people stood on the Sun Elf’s side, believing that he was an invincible existence because he had the Outlander Emperor Star. No matter how powerful that person was, he would still lose to the Sun Elf.

Some people were on Zhao Fu’s side, feeling that given how mysterious Zhao Fu was, there was a chance that he could defeat the Sun Elf. After all, he had defeated Medusa, so it could not be said that there was no hope at all.

Even the terrifying major figures on the viewing platforms paid a great deal of attention to this upcoming battle. This battle was the most anticipated battle in many years, and it would most likely be the most terrifying and intense battle.

As for who would win, most people supported the Sun Elf. After all, they knew that he had the Emperor Star while Zhao Fu was quite mysterious and no one knew what his true strength was like.

No, there were countless people gathered at the central region of the secret realm, waiting for the battle to begin. They were all filled with expectation and anticipation.

A person in a black cloak and giving off an ordinary aura arrived slowly.

Immediately, everyone fell silent and did not even dare to breathe loudly. Countless people’s gazes fell on Zhao Fu’s body and understood that the battle was about to begin.

The Sun Elf's golden eyes fell on Zhao Fu's body, and he said confidently and arrogantly, "You're very powerful, but you're not a match for me. Only if your cultivation was at the peak of the Divine Realm would you have a slight chance."

Zhao Fu looked at the Sun Elf and took out the Emperor Killing Sword as he said, "Is that so? We'll know after fighting."

Chapter 1697: Celestial

A massive explosion sounded out. Facing the most powerful genius, the Sun Elf, Zhao Fu felt an unprecedented pressure and did not hide anything as he exploded out with all of his power.

Zhao Fu once again stumbled back ten or so steps because of the blast before he was able to steady himself.

Suddenly, the Sun Elf appeared in front of Zhao Fu and gave a cold smile as his sword brought with it a golden ray of light and terrifying power, and he slashed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu felt quite startled and blocked with his sword.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu was slashed back dozens of meters. He crashed to the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu loudly roared and got up from the ground, and a massive black aura flame flowed out of his body, resulting in a large explosion. Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword and sent a wave of power into it.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” Massive dragon’s roars containing terrifying power sounded out as nine savage black dragons appeared behind Zhao Fu, and an immense dragon’s might spread out.

Boom!

Zhao Fu slashed down and the nine savage black dragons gave off terrifying power as they rushed towards the Sun Elf with unstoppable momentum.

“Roarr!” Facing the incoming nine black dragons, the Sun Elf gave a disdainful smile and raised his sword and sent massive power into it. A gigantic golden dragon with golden wings gave off a massive dragon’s roar and rushed out.

Boom!

The Sun Elf vigorously slashed out and the golden dragon flapped its wings, sending out wild golden gales as it gave off a terrifying might and shot towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

A massive explosion once again sounded out as the black dragons and golden dragon collided, sending out a corporeal shockwave. The ground collapsed and countless trees were uprooted, and a 100 meter wide crater was formed.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu appeared behind the Sun Elf and his sword gave off terrifying sword energy as he slashed at the Sun Elf.

The Sun Elf gave a confident smile as he spun, and slashed out a shocking golden sword light.

However, at that moment, Zhao Fu roared, “Celestial Mode... Activate!”

Boom!

A massive rainbow aura flame blazed around Zhao Fu’s body, and his eyes gave off rainbow light as a circle of rainbow runes appeared around him. He held the Emperor Killing Sword, which was now covered with rainbow aura flames, and gave off an incredibly destructive sword energy.

Sensing this terrifying power, the Sun Elf felt quite startled and was unable to react in time.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as the Sun Elf was blasted back ten or so meters by that attack. He crashed to the ground and felt a sweetness in his throat as a trace of blood leaked out of his lips.

The Sun Elf’s expression was somewhat cold as he got up from the ground. An even more intense and resplendent golden light burst out of his body with terrifying power, and he rushed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu’s rainbow aura flame gave off a supreme aura as he also shot towards the Sun Elf.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang...

The sword lights from Zhao Fu and the Sun Elf continuously collided, causing wild gales to spread out, and the ground cracked and collapsed.

The Sun Elf coldly harrumphed. An even greater golden light exploded out from his body and he slashed with immense power, sending Zhao Fu flying back ten or so meters.

Right as Zhao Fu stopped his body, his golden pupil quickly spun and a terrifying aura exploded out.

Clang, clang, clang...

Rainbow chains containing ferocious power shot out from all directions towards the Sun Elf incredibly quickly. There were many of them, at least 100,000 or so.

Massive amounts of black and blood-red sword qi flowed out, bringing with them power that seemed to cut apart the heavens and earth. They flew towards the Sun Elf incredibly quickly and seemed incredibly sharp and unstoppable.

Sensing these incoming traces of sword qi, the Sun Elf felt a chill and immediately released a golden defensive barrier that covered his body.

Bang!

The Sun Elf was sent flying back, and the barrier shattered. The Sun Elf coughed up a mouthful of blood, and he had been cut on a few places on his body, causing blood to flow out and making him look somewhat wretched.

“Arghh!” The Sun Elf tilted his head back and roared, and a terrifying power exploded out from his body. His golden aura flames intensely covered the surroundings, and an image of a golden Elf slowly appeared behind him, giving off a shocking aura that flooded out.

The two attacks collided, resulting in a massive sound, and energy blasted out, causing the ground to collapse and for countless rocks to fly out.

Zhao Fu was sent flying back dozens of meters and crashed into a large boulder before destroying it. He felt a massive ache in his chest, and he coughed up a large mouthful of blood.

Zhao Fu got up, looking quite furious, and he raised the Emperor Killing Sword. A rainbow-colored sword light shot into the sky, and massive amounts of Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered, forming an enormous vortex.

A rainbow sword formation giving off shocking sword intent appeared, causing sharp energy to quickly spread out.

Sensing this terrifying power, the Sun Elf also raised his sword and pointed it towards the sky.

Chi!

The sword strike cut Zhao Fu's body into a few pieces, causing blood to splatter out and his fragmented corpse fell to the ground.

However, the Sun Elf did not dare to be careless; he did not believe that such a powerful person would be killed by him so easily. The Sun Elf suddenly sensed something and slashed backhanded, sending out a sword light.

Chi!

The figure behind the Sun Elf was slashed in half, and blood and organs spilled out as the corpse fell to the ground.

Seeing this, the Sun Elf spread out his senses and realized that he had fallen into an illusion. An intense golden light spread out from his body, causing him to break free from that strange illusion.

Zhao Fu took this opportunity to rush in front of the Sun Elf, and his sword gave off a sharp sword light as he slashed towards the Sun Elf's throat.

The Sun Elf raised his sword and blocked, parrying Zhao Fu's attack.

Suddenly, the golden image behind the Sun Elf also swung its sword, slashing out a terrifying sword light towards Zhao Fu.

This sent everyone in the surroundings into an uproar. No one expected that person to have a legendary Divine Bloodline. Moreover, from the terrifying power that it was giving off, it was not an ordinary Divine Bloodline.

At that moment, no matter if it was the other nine geniuses or the major figures on the viewing platform, they all looked incredibly shocked and realized why Zhao Fu wore a cloak and hid his identity; it was because of his Divine Bloodline.

Zhao Fu had been hiding his aura before, so no one had discovered it, but now he did not hold back and released all of his Divine Bloodline's power.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu gripped the Emperor Killing Sword with both hands and pointed down with it. Massive amounts of power continuously flowed into it, and the Emperor Killing Sword gave off traces of incredibly terrifying aura.

When Zhao Fu had exploded out with his Divine Bloodline's power, the Sun Elf's expression became incredibly serious. Seeing the countless ghost soldiers, he did not hesitate to explode out with all of his power.

The Sun Elf roared and unleashed all of his power as a terrifying aura burst out of his body. His body gave off boundless golden light, and the ground beneath him could not withstand this power and continuously cracked.

As the Sun Elf gave off a golden light, his body slowly floated up until it seemed to fuse into the Outlander Emperor Star.

The green Outlander Emperor Star was dyed golden, and boundless Heaven and Earth Power flowed into it. An extremely terrifying power spread from the Emperor Star, and space collapsed as if it was the apocalypse.
