

The Lord 1701

Chapter 1701: Reincarnation Power

Everything gradually settled and the dust cleared. A one million meter wide crater had appeared in the ground, and the ground around it had been completely flattened. There were broken rocks and shattered trees everywhere, creating a wretched scene.

It was completely silent, as if everything had died. Wind blew, sounding as if it was howling and lamenting over this destruction.

The people in the outer regions were also affected by the shockwave, and they were covered in dust, cutting sorry figures.

Countless people looked at the terrifying scene in front of them with expressions of shock. Their bodies were icy and they trembled; this did not look like something that a human could do.

In the sky, the starlight that the Emperor Star gave off was no longer as intense. None of the spectators could see either of the fighters. Who had won?

The spectators and the people on the viewing platform felt quite nervous and stared at the crater, waiting for something to happen.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as rocks flew everywhere and a terrifying figure appeared. There was a ghostly flame around him that gave off an incredibly cold and eerie power; it was Zhao Fu.

There were traces of blood leaking out of Zhao Fu's lips. There were a few cuts on his body, but they were not very big and some gray blood leaked out of them.

Boom!

The dimmed Emperor Star in the sky once again exploded out with a powerful aura and gave off bright starlight, as the Sun Elf's figure appeared at the center of the Emperor Star.

There was also blood leaking out of the Sun Elf's lips, and there were some gashes on his body. However, he gave off an intense golden light and a terrifying might.

The battle still was not over!

Boom!

Zhao Fu vigorously grabbed out and the Emperor Killing Sword appeared in his hand. He fused large amounts of ghostly flames into it, causing a ghostly flame to appear around it. A powerful ghostly energy exploded out, and Zhao Fu shot towards the Sun Elf.

Boom!

The Sun Elf's expression was cold as he vigorously grabbed out and a golden sword appeared in his hand. The Emperor Star gave off boundless starlight, which entered the Sun Elf's body, causing his body to give off an intense green light. Filled with this massive Emperor Star power, the Sun Elf also shot towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

Zhao Fu's sword gave off a terrifying gray sword light as it contained an incredibly cold and eerie power and immense ghostly qi, as it slashed towards the Sun Elf. The Sun Elf also slashed out, and a green sword light containing power that seemed to be able to destroy everything slashed towards Zhao Fu.

The two sword lights contained terrifying power as they collided, resulting in a massive shockwave that spread out like a wild gale.

Both people flew back hundreds of meters, but in the next instant, both people drew out powerful rays of light and once again clashed.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive sounds rang out as Zhao Fu continuously slashed at the Sun Elf with terrifying sword lights. The Sun Elf ferociously sent out green sword lights, and the attacks from the two of them continuously collided, blasting out a wild wind that caused the heavens to dim and clouds to swirl.

Everyone watched the battle in shock; this was a battle between two of the top geniuses, and neither side was holding back, giving this battle their all.

After summoning the supreme Emperor Star, the Sun Elf had obtained boundless Emperor Star power, and that kind of power surpassed anyone's imagination.

His opponent was not simple either. He had a Divine Bloodline and had fused the Six Paths Demon Images into his own body. He had Reincarnation Power and that terrifying ghostly energy that seemed to be able to easily destroy everything.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu loudly roared and sent a terrifying wave of Reincarnation Power into the Emperor Killing Sword. Six traces of ghostly qi surrounded the Emperor Killing Sword, and an extremely terrifying ghostly power spread out. Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, and a sword light containing an all-destroying power slashed towards the Sun Elf.

“Ahh!” The Sun Elf raised his sword and yelled. The Emperor Star behind him gave off a resplendent starlight, and a massive amount of Emperor Star power flowed into the sword, causing it to give off a boundless green sword light that covered the surroundings. The Sun Elf vigorously slashed out, sending out a shocking green sword light.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the two sword lights collided, resulting in a massive explosion, and a terrifying shockwave blasted out, accompanied by powerful winds.

Bang!

Zhao Fu's body was sent flying down and he crashed into the ground like a meteor. A shockwave spread out, and the surrounding hundreds of meters of ground cracked, while the Sun Elf was forced back dozens of meters.

Boom!

Zhao Fu got up from the ground and vigorously pressed against the ground, sending a massive amount of power into the ground. A massive amount of ghostly qi exploded out, forming 1,000 savage ghosts that were hundreds of meters tall, were covered with muscles, and had savage gazes.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” The 1,000 ghosts gave off massive roars and exploded out with immense ghostly power as they turned into powerful rays of light, shaking the space they passed through, as they rushed towards the Sun Elf.

Facing the 1,000 ghosts containing terrifying power, the Sun Elf raised a hand and massive amounts of power gathered in his palm.

Boom!

The Emperor Star behind him exploded out with a powerful aura and gave off boundless green starlight. This starlight formed 100 meter long green swords of light which floated behind the Sun Elf, giving off powerful sword auras.

Following this, the Sun Elf lowered his hand.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The thousands of green sword lights gave off terrifying sword energy as they shot out incredibly quickly, drawing out green rays of light and giving off shocking sounds.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Explosions sounded out as the green swords of light pierced through the ghosts' chests with terrifying power, causing the ghosts to explode and scatter as ghostly qi.

“Roar!!” Suddenly, a dragon's roar sounded out. Zhao Fu had appeared behind the Sun Elf, and he raised the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off an intense sword light, and a massive ghost dragon formed from ghostly qi appeared behind him.

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, and the ghost dragon gave off terrifying power and rushed towards the Sun Elf.

Bang!

The Sun Elf was greatly startled and blocked with his sword. He unleashed a green defensive barrier, but as the ghost dragon slammed into it, the barrier shattered and the Sun Elf flew backwards, coughing up a large mouthful of blood.

Zhao Fu continued to give off a powerful aura as he rushed towards the Sun Elf. He sent Reincarnation Power into the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off a cold and eerie sword light, and he powerfully slashed out. A pillar of aura formed from six waves of ghostly qi flew towards the Sun Elf, giving off monstrous power.

Chapter 1702: Rune

The Sun Elf looked slightly angry as he raised his sword, and the supreme Emperor Star behind him gave off an intense green starlight that flowed into his body. The sword also gave off an intense green sword light, and the Sun Elf vigorously slashed out, sending out an enormous green arc of light containing shocking power.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as the two attacks collided, once again resulting in a great explosion, sending out an enormous storm of sword light and ghostly qi.

At that moment, Zhao Fu rushed in front of the Sun Elf, and his sword blazed with powerful ghostly flames and gave off terrifying power as it slashed towards the Sun Elf.

Clang!

The Sun Elf blocked with his sword, causing a metallic collision sound to ring out, and sparks flew everywhere.

Zhao Fu loudly roared and an even greater ghostly flame flowed out of his body as a powerful aura exploded out. Zhao Fu gripped his sword and pressed down towards the Sun Elf.

The Sun Elf's expression was cold as his sword was gradually forced down, and it looked like he was not able to resist Zhao Fu's power.

However, at that moment, the Sun Elf loudly roared and the Emperor Star behind him once again gave off intense starlight, and boundless Emperor Star power flowed into his body. A terrifying power surged out of his body, and he pushed back with great force, sending Zhao Fu flying back

Boom!

The Sun Elf raised his sword, and the Emperor Star behind him gave off massive power, giving off resplendent green light, and the Sun Elf slashed out.

Boom!

The starlight that the Emperor Star gave off formed a massive green beam of light that gave off destructive power and a terrifying aura as it blasted towards Zhao Fu, accompanied by a large explosion.

Bang!

Zhao Fu quickly unleashed massive amounts of ghostly qi to form the Six Paths Defensive Barrier around him. As the massive green beam of light slammed into the barrier, Zhao Fu's body flew out and slammed into the ground, opening up a large crater.

"Arghh!" the Sun Elf once again roared, and the Emperor Star danced with brilliant light, forming countless green orbs of light that gave off immense destructive power as they blasted towards Zhao Fu, looking like a meteor ring.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive sounds rang out as the green orbs of light landed on the ground and exploded, sending out destructive shockwaves. The ground collapsed and rocks flew as dust billowed.

After everything settled, there was a 10,000 meter wide crater, which contained countless smaller craters.

Everyone looked at the Sun Elf in shock; he was simply too powerful. With the Emperor Star and the Emperor Star power that it provided, he was simply invincible.

Even though the mysterious person was powerful, facing the Sun Elf who was supported by the Emperor Star power, it was very likely that he was going to lose. No matter how strong someone was, they could not defeat a peerless genius with an Emperor Star.

However, that person was indeed incredibly powerful, to be able to force the Sun Elf to explode out with such terrifying power. Ordinary people definitely could not achieve this.

At the center of the crater, Zhao Fu was covered with blood as he got to his feet. He looked furious as he roared, his voice echoing around him and shaking the heavens, "Celestial Mode... Activate!"

Boom!

A shocking explosion blasted out, and something seemed to be shattered as a world-destroying power flowed out from Zhao Fu's body, and the ground around him was obliterated.

A heaven-toppling ghostly flame blazed around Zhao Fu's body, and a massive eerie gale spread out with destructive force. Countless trees were uprooted and countless boulders were sent flying.

The temperature of the world quickly plummeted, becoming bone-chillingly cold. Everyone in this world could not help but tremble in fear and look at Zhao Fu; this place seemed to be covered by a massive haze.

Zhao Fu stood in the air, and beneath him was a 10,000 meter wide hole that was over 1,000 meters deep.

The left side of his face had become scarlet-colored and looked incredibly savage. The white pupil on his forehead became rainbow-colored, and the pupils within Zhao Fu's eyes all seemed to have slightly split apart, giving off an unimaginable power.

Nine gray runes circled around Zhao Fu; each was bigger than the next, and they were about 30 centimeters away from each other.

The aura that Zhao Fu gave off was like that of a Ghost Celestial; even the heavens and earth could not withstand this power, and they continuously twisted and collapsed.

The spectators and people on the viewing platforms looked somewhat terrified as they looked at Zhao Fu standing in the air. They could not believe that Zhao Fu had such terrifying power; was he still a person? He was like a true Ghost Celestial.

The Sun Elf's expression became quite unsightly and he felt quite shocked; he did not think that Zhao Fu would still have such terrifying power.

“Arghh!” The Sun Elf loudly roared and raised a hand, and the Emperor Star behind him gave off boundless green starlight, forming beams of green light that gave off immense power as they blasted towards Zhao Fu, seeming to blow apart the sky.

Facing the sky filled with green beams of light, Zhao Fu's expression was icy and completely emotionless. He slowly raised a hand towards the incoming beams of light, and it was as if space and time froze as the countless beams of green light froze in the air.

Zhao Fu vigorously grabbed, and the beams of green light turned into motes of light and dissipated, creating a rain of green light. It was a beautiful scene.

“Arghh!” The Sun Elf once again roared and released all of the Emperor Star's power. The Emperor Star once again exploded out with boundless green light, making it look like a green sun that shined over the world.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the boundless green light formed a massive green pillar of light that gave off a world-destroying power as it flew towards Zhao Fu with unstoppable momentum, causing the space that it passed through to crack.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he raised a hand towards the green pillar of light. A massive wave of ghostly power gathered in his palm, causing it to give off traces of incredibly terrifying ghostly qi.

The nine runes around him came in front of Zhao Fu's palm, all of them giving off intense gray light, and they formed a circular shield.

Bang!

The terrifying green pillar of light blasted against the shield with destructive power, causing a massive explosion to sound out. Boundless green light shot in all directions and created a wild gale. The pillar of light lasted for one minute as it slammed towards Zhao Fu, and the nine runes continuously spun, dispelling the incoming power.

In the end, the pillar of green light gradually became smaller and smaller until it disappeared, leaving behind a destructive aura.

Zhao Fu looked at the Sun Elf; facing such a terrifying and evil creature's gaze, the Sun Elf felt quite shocked.

Chapter 1703: Six Paths Door

The circular shield disappeared and the nine talismans returned to Zhao Fu's side. Zhao Fu raised his hand and grabbed at the Sun Elf, and a massive wave of ghostly energy flowed out.

Clang, clang, clang...

Massive sounds of chains sounded throughout the sky and enormous gray chains shot out from the ground, bringing with them terrifying and eerie power as they shot towards the sky. There were at least a few million of them, and they seemed to be able to bind up the heavens and earth.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as countless chains tightly wrapped around the enormous Emperor Star in the sky. The Emperor Star exploded out with terrifying power and continuously struggled – it was an Emperor Star, so how could it allow itself to be bound by someone? As such, it seemed incredibly furious.

Similarly, the Sun Elf was also bound up.

Everyone looked at Zhao Fu in shock; they had never thought that he would be able to suppress even that incredibly terrifying Emperor Star; he really was like a Ghost Celestial.

The nine geniuses looked at Zhao Fu in shock. They had felt that Zhao Fu was hiding his power, but now that they saw it, their minds were completely shaken. This was too terrifying.

Facing the power that Zhao Fu had displayed, the nine geniuses could only acknowledge their inferiority. Even the second-ranked Medusa accepted this reality and did not feel unconvinced at all anymore.

Looking at the Emperor Star and Sun Elf bound up by chains, everyone wondered if the battle was over.

“Arghh!” A loud yell tore through the sky. The Sun Elf’s body gave off golden rays of light that contained traces of blood-red, and an extremely terrifying power exploded out.

Boom!

A shocking explosion rang out as the massive Emperor Star burst out with incredibly terrifying power, burning with a massive green aura flame that gave off unimaginably immense power.

The countless chains binding it were all shattered, and the Emperor Star gave off large amounts of green aura flame as it gave off a world-suppressing aura.

The countless chains around the Sun Elf were also destroyed, and the Sun Elf’s body gave off a powerful light. His expression was cold as he looked at Zhao Fu, turned into a ray of light, and flew into the Emperor Star.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the Emperor Star exploded out with an incredibly terrifying power and gave off fathomless green light that covered this entire area. Space continuously cracked and a massive aura flame rushed out.

The green aura flame split into two waves, one that traveled up and one that traveled down. The one that traveled up became an Elf's upper body and the one that traveled down became an Elf's lower body.

As the enormous aura flame Elf appeared, it gave off a monstrous aura, and the green Emperor Star was at the chest of the aura flame Elf.

A ferocious cyclone burst forth, and the ground was lifted up and countless trees were broken in half. Countless boulders were shattered, and the sky became green as clouds swirled.

An incredibly terrifying aura swept out like a flood, sweeping through the world and dragging countless people into terror.

Boom!

Right as the green aura flame Elf was formed, it looked at Zhao Fu, gripped its fist, and punched towards Zhao Fu with incredibly fierce power, bringing with it an extremely intense gale.

Facing this fist, Zhao Fu did not feel any fear and also gripped a fist, gathering massive amounts of ghostly power and causing it to give off traces of fearsome ghostly qi, and he punched out with destructive force.

Boom!

The two fists of completely different sizes clashed together with terrifying power, resulting in a deafening explosion and sending powerful gales sweeping out.

The aura flame Elf was sent back a few steps, while Zhao Fu did not move at all; the impact from the collision had been completely negated by his nine gray runes.

“Roar!!” The aura flame Elf furiously roared and gripped its fists and continuously punched out, sending out terrifying fist energies with destructive power.

Facing the countless incoming fist energies, Zhao Fu's expression was cold as he once again stretched out a hand, and a massive wave of ghostly power gathered in his palm. The nine gray runes once again came in front of his palm and gave off intense gray light as they formed a massive circular shield.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The enormous fist energies slammed into the circular shield, sending out ferocious gales, and the circular shield did not budge at all. The nine runes slowly spun, negating the power of the fist energies.

The aura flame Elf did not accept this and continuously punched out with even greater power, sending even greater destructive power crashing against the circular shield.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Loud sounds rang out as gales swept out and the circular shield slightly trembled. The nine runes quickly spun, negating the terrifying power that assaulted the shield.

“Roar!!” The aura flame Elf gave a massive roar that shook the sky, and a heaven-toppling aura flowed out of its body as it raised both hands and grabbed out, causing a massive green aura flame sword to appear in its hands, and it hacked down with immense power.

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as the heavens and earth seemed to be cleaved in half. A sword energy that seemed to be able to destroy everything slashed down, obliterating the space around it.

Bang!

The terrifying sword energy slashed the circular shield in half, and Zhao Fu flew back and heavily crashed to the ground, opening up a large crater. There was a sword gash on the ground that was tens of thousands of meters wide and over 1,000 meters deep, and it gave off traces of destructive energy.

Zhao Fu coughed up a large mouthful of blood and got up from the ground, while the aura flame Elf held its aura flame sword and strode forwards towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's gaze was icy as he raised a hand, and an ocean of ghostly energy flowed out of his palm, forming six gray orbs of light that were as big as eggs. They floated around his palm, and he pointed at the aura flame Elf and vigorously pressed out, sending out a massive wave of energy.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Six massive explosions sounded out as six ancient and eerie stone doors giving off powerful auras appeared around the aura flame Elf. They were tens of thousands of meters tall and had countless ghosts carved on them. They gave off immense might and caused the world to fall silent.

The stone doors slowly opened and six massive ghostly hands gave off incredibly terrifying power and a bone-chilling aura as they grabbed the aura flame Elf's hands, feet, torso, and head and vigorously pulled.

"Arghh!" The aura flame Elf howled in pain as it was ripped apart, dissipating into aura flames. The Emperor Star receded into the sky, as if it was afraid, and the bloodied Sun Elf powerlessly fell from the sky.

Chapter 1704: Over

"He won!" Countless people stared at this scene. The Sun Elf was on the ground and had fainted, and he was unable to fight anymore. He had fallen to second on the points rankings, and Zhao Fu was now first place.

Suddenly, whether they were the spectators in the secret realm or the people on the viewing platforms, they were all sent into an uproar and started to clamor. Their voices could be heard from incredibly far away, and anyone could sense how excited they were.

"That person really won; how terrifying. I'm so excited to have witnessed such a battle! That person's simply invincible and so powerful!"

"I've never respected a person so much in my life. He defeated all ten geniuses, and today his name will definitely spread throughout the entire Outlander Domain and have the whole world know his name."

“Ahhh he’s so powerful, I want to worship him and I like him so much. He was able to defeat even the Sun Elf with his Emperor Star and relied on his own strength. He defeated the Sun Elf without using any tricks at all.”

“Even though I didn’t like this person at first, now, I have to say that I’ve been conquered by his charm. He’s such a powerful person.”

“It’s the first time I’ve seen someone without an Emperor Star defeat someone with an Emperor Star. That person is truly terrifying.”

Countless people talked excitedly, looking incredibly enthusiastic. Even the major figures looked shocked; none of them had thought that such a thing would happen.

The nine geniuses also looked at this scene in shock. The most powerful member of the younger generation had been defeated, and through overwhelming strength too. Now that the Sun Elf had lost, they all accepted their losses wholeheartedly.

The Elephant person felt somewhat nervous and said, “Who would have thought that person would really win. His strength is so terrifying; just what kind of monster were we fighting with?”

Yu Luohua also said in shock, “That’s right; I never thought that that fellow would actually win facing the Sun Elf who released the full power of his Emperor Star. I thought that he would die without even a speck of him remaining.”

The Three-Headed Ogre agreed, saying, “If the Sun Elf doesn’t use his Emperor Star, we would be able to put up a good fight against him. However, once he uses his Emperor Star, we’ll lose without a doubt. After all, that’s our Outlander Race’s supreme Emperor Star, and there are only a few in the entire Outlander Domain.”

The Lion person said seriously, “He’s a peerless expert and he has won my complete respect. He’s the first person to make me feel such respect.”

Hu Baimei lightly harrumphed, “Since that fellow is so terrifying, there’s nothing I’m unconvinced about anymore. My guess is that even if we allied together, we wouldn’t be able to defeat him. Later, I’ll give him a chance.”

The Orc said somewhat excitedly, “It’s the first time I’ve seen such a terrifying battle. Both of them were simply too terrifying. Facing such a monstrous person, even though the Sun Elf lost, he is still admirable and worthy of respect.”

The Dwarf sighed, “His power is enough to make me feel helpless. I thought that I would be able to take first place with Eternal Protection, but now that I’ve seen his power, I realize how laughable that was.”

Medusa did not say anything as she looked at Zhao Fu. Back when Zhao Fu had defeated her, she was slightly unconvinced because she had not used her most powerful attack, which was a terrifying petrification ability. However, with the power that Zhao Fu had displayed, she realized that even if she had used that ability, she definitely would have lost.

Nevertheless, seeing Zhao Fu defeat the Sun Elf and his Emperor Star, she could not help but feel a trace of respect for him. Defeating the Sun Elf had been her goal this whole time, but Zhao Fu had achieved it first.

The Dragon person said with a serious expression, “Now, I’m incredibly curious about his identity. Not only can he control the Six Paths Demon Images, he has a Divine Bloodline. How come we’ve never heard of such a terrifying figure before?”

Hearing his words, everyone else felt quite startled; they were also quite curious about this. Just who was Zhao Fu? How did he have such terrifying power and abilities?”

The Elephant person thought before saying, “He’s most likely someone from one of those legendary Holy Empires! Only people from those Holy Empires can have Divine Bloodlines, which is why he’s so mysterious. Even though he’s so powerful, I’ve never heard of him before.”

The Three-Headed Ogre nodded in agreement. “Only someone from a Holy Empire would have such terrifying power; it’d be impossible for ordinary people.”

Yu Luohua felt quite confused as she said, “Since he’s someone from a Holy Empire, he should have an Emperor Star as well. If he used it in that fight, perhaps it would not have been as difficult. However, he did not use an Emperor Star – could it be that was still not his full strength?”

The Orc felt dumbfounded and gulped, “Stop saying scary things; if that wasn’t his full strength, wouldn’t his full strength be much too terrifying?”

Medusa said seriously, “If he has a Fate Star, he would indeed be at his strongest when using it. However, if the other side’s Emperor Star is much more powerful than yours, you’ll be completely suppressed. Regardless, as a Holy Son, with such terrifying power, his Emperor Star would not be much weaker than the Sun Elf’s Emperor Star. Perhaps he really has not shown his true strength.”

Now that even the second-ranked Medusa said such a thing, everyone else felt incredibly shocked and looked at Zhao Fu. They did not know that Zhao Fu was the person who had shaken the entire Heaven Domain with five Emperor Stars.

The Dragon Princess and the others who were standing at the outer boundaries looked incredibly excited and jubilant. They had never expected Zhao Fu to be so terrifying; he had defeated even the Outlander Race’s most powerful young genius. He was now the strongest member of the younger generation and was a supreme existence others could only look up to.

The Dragon Princess laughed as she said, “Husband is really too powerful. Adding on his Divine Bloodline, I feel that I’m not actually good enough for him. I’m so happy that I’ve become the woman of such a powerful person.”

The Elf Princess also lightly laughed as she said, “I knew that husband was no ordinary person. I’ve always had a feeling that he’ll become the most powerful person in the world. The entire Heaven Awaken World will be shocked by him and will only be able to look up at him.

The people from their Empires were also delirious with joy. They had never thought that Zhao Fu would be so powerful and even defeat the first-ranked Sun Elf. Seeing how intimate he was with their Princesses, they were ecstatic.

With a person like Zhao Fu becoming their son-in-law, they would naturally be mad with joy. They might be able to form a connection with a legendary and terrifying Holy Empire.

Chapter 1705: Number One

Forming a connection with a Holy Empire would bring them unimaginable benefits, and they were now desperate to marry their Princesses to Zhao Fu. They had long since tossed out any thoughts of killing Zhao Fu.

Yu Luohua and Hu Baimei's Empires also wanted to marry their princesses out. At first, they only felt favorably towards Zhao Fu and felt that he had great potential. However, everything surpassed their expectations. Zhao Fu not only had a Divine Bloodline but had also defeated the Sun Elf. In the future, Zhao Fu would definitely surpass the Sun Elf, and this caused them to view him with even greater importance.

Putting aside his strength, just his Divine Bloodline alone made it worth them marrying their Princesses over. After all, a Divine Bloodline was something that reigned even above the most terrifying Imperial Bloodlines. Even the most powerful Empires in the Outlander Domain only had bloodlines at the peak of the Imperial Bloodline; this showed just how rare and valuable Divine Bloodlines were.

Even Medusa's Empire greatly appreciated Zhao Fu and was considering marrying Medusa to him.

The teachers of Outlander Ten College also looked at Zhao Fu with shock. They had never expected Zhao Fu to have the power to be able to defeat the Sun Elf.

The elegant-looking beauty lightly laughed as she said, "He's really quite terrifying. That power he exploded out with at the end was really like a Ghost Celestial. Moreover, it seems that even the Sun Elf was unable to force out his full strength.

"I feel that there was even greater power that he did not use. It's a pity that the Sun Elf lost then, or else we might have been able to see just how terrifying his power is."

The chubby Bear person elder happily laughed as he said, "I knew that this boy would blow us away; my instincts have always been right. It's a pity that he's not part of our Outlander Race and is most likely from the Death Race. I'm truly envious that they have such an exceptional genius."

The serious-looking middle-aged man sighed and said, "Indeed, a race having such a terrifying existence will have great effects on the entire race. It can even raise a race's overall strength and prestige.

"I admit that I underestimated him before and felt prejudiced against him. He has used his strength to prove himself, and it was me who was blind. Since we have seen how extraordinary he is, we should reevaluate him."

The Gnome elder's expression was quite unsightly as he nodded and said, "I was also blind and said that he could not compare to the Sun Elf. However, he showed us with results that he could indeed do so; I completely underestimated him.

"However, he's indeed quite terrifying to wield such monstrous power. Even the Sun Elf with his Emperor Star fell at his hands; it was not that the Sun Elf was too weak but that he was too powerful.

"Also, our Outlander Race's ten geniuses all fell at the hands of a boy from the Death Race; this is not good for our race. Our entire Outlander Race has lost face, and it'll be quite humiliating if others speak of this."

The Fox Race man said, "That's indeed so, but our geniuses were inferior to him. Moreover, it was not because our geniuses were too weak; this would have happened to any other race. It was that person who was too powerful.

"Also, that person has undoubtedly become the top-ranked participant in this examination. In the future, he'll be a student of Outlander Ten College so we can't show any bias against him. Having such a terrifying student is a blessing to Outlander Ten College."

The Bear person elder sighed and said, "Now that he has defeated the Sun Elf, it's much more likely that he will be able to draw out the King of Kings Sword. It's a pity that he's from the Death Race though. I wonder if the Sun Elf will still have a chance to draw out the King of Kings Sword despite losing."

The serious-looking middle-aged man also said worriedly, "I'm also worried about this. If the Sun Elf did not lose, it could have been possible, but now that he has lost, he will have lost a lot of Fate. It will be much more difficult for him to be acknowledged."

The Gnome elder nodded, "Now, no one knows who will pull out the King of Kings Sword. I'm not very confident that that prophecy will be fulfilled."

The Fox Race man said with a serious expression, "I hope that the prophecy will be fulfilled and that someone will inherit the will of the King of Kings and lead our Outlander Race to a new age of glory, becoming the most majestic race in the world."

The elegant-looking beauty laughed, "Don't be so pessimistic; that person who caused 23 statues to give off ten-colored light still has not appeared. Moreover, there are many terrifying figures still hidden. Perhaps one of them will be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword and become the next King of Kings!”

Hearing this, everyone tried to think more positively and looked back at the scene within the secret realm.

Zhao Fu looked at the Sun Elf on the ground and after receiving the system announcement in his mind, he turned into a ray of light and shot over the horizon.

The Dragon Princess and the others followed him, returning back to where they were earlier.

After returning there, Zhao Fu sat down cross-legged and started to recover from his injuries. Zhao Fu had received the greatest injuries this time; it was not as simple as it looked on the surface.

Before, when Zhao Fu had undone the Ghost Celestial status, he had powerlessly crashed to the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood. He had gotten up with great difficulty and slowly healed from his injuries. Because of his Divine Bloodline, his recovery speed was incredibly quick, and his injuries gradually stabilized.

The Dragon Princess and the others behaved themselves and waited by the side, not daring to disturb Zhao Fu at all.

Five days later, Zhao Fu opened his eyes and breathed out a breath of impure qi. By now, Zhao Fu had completely healed from his wounds. He was surprised and delighted to find that his cultivation had broken through to the Great Earth Realm.

Now that he had broken through to the Great Earth Realm, he could use his cultivation to control some Heaven and Earth Power, and his strength was greater than before.

Also, during the time that Zhao Fu had spent healing, massive amounts of Outlander Fate had silently entered his body, causing the 34 totems to completely fuse with his body.

Currently, Zhao Fu’s back was giving off boundless rainbow light. The auras of the 34 races exploded out, seeming incredibly chaotic and disorderly. The various auras flowed and collided, causing Zhao Fu to fall into pain, and it was as if his body was going to be ripped apart.

Following this, a massive wave of Outlander Fate flowed into his body, and Zhao Fu gradually gained control over these totems. He completely fused with them, and he could not easily control them and use their power.

At the same time, his bloodline gained the various totems' power, and they could even be passed onto the next generation.

However, Zhao Fu was disappointed that even though he had completely fused with the totems and obtained massive amounts of Outlander Fate, he did not awaken an Outlander Emperor Star. He felt that there was a slight film obstructing him, making it so that he could not break through.

Chapter 1706: Heavenly Kingdom Protection

Seeing that Zhao Fu had recovered from his injuries, the women came over to Zhao Fu's side and smiled. The Elf Princess asked with concern, "Husband, you were injured so heavily; are you completely recovered now?"

Zhao Fu smiled, nodded, and said, "I'm fine now! There are no problems, so don't worry."

The Dragon Princess lightly harrumphed as she looked at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes and asked, "Husband, tell us the truth – are you the Holy Son of a Holy Empire? You had such incredible strength and yet you did not tell us. Do you know how anxious we were watching you from the distance?"

Zhao Fu laughed and said, "It wasn't convenient for me to tell you some things, as they were too important. If this information were to spread, we would all be in massive danger. After you follow me back, you'll naturally know everything about me."

The women nodded and did not doubt Zhao Fu's words. Zhao Fu was incredibly mysterious and many of the things he had said were incredibly important and shocking. For example, his Divine Bloodline and Six Paths Demon Images could shock countless people.

They knew that it was possible that Zhao Fu was hiding even more terrifying things, so they greatly trusted him.

After chatting with the women for a bit, a few system announcements sounded out.

“System announcement! Outlander Ten College’s examination has concluded. All points creatures have disappeared; participants who have passed can go to the central region to collect rewards.”

“System announcement! Now that the central region has been opened, you can choose to be directly transported to the central region. Would you like to be transported?”

Hearing these system announcements, Zhao Fu grinned; this was his goal in coming to Outlander Ten College – to take first place and obtain that divine material. As such, Zhao Fu felt quite excited.

However, even though he felt incredibly excited, he did not choose to be directly transported over as he still had some things to take care of, such as the Ogre Chief, the guards, and the women in the various Cities.

Zhao Fu was a man of his word, so he decided to bring everyone he had picked up on the way. After collecting his reward, he would take them and leave the secret realm.

After taking care of this, he came to the central region and was surprised to find that there was nothing there except a massive mountain.

This mountain was incredibly big and seemed to stretch to the sky. There were countless races engraved on the mountain: Orcs, Elves, Dwarves, Giants, Ogres, Gnomes...

There were many of them, and Zhao Fu had seen some before while there were others he had never seen before. All of them looked incredibly life-like and gave off powerful auras.

The mountain gave off a massive and majestic aura, and it struck awe into anyone who saw it. In front of it, anyone would feel incredibly tiny, and the mountain gave off an ancient aura.

Beneath the mountain was a massive stage where there were countless people gathered. It was quite raucous and the scene was very lively.

At the front of the group were the top ten geniuses. The Sun Elf had recovered from his wounds, but he seemed a bit dispirited and no longer seemed as confident, and he instead seemed more level-headed.

Even though he did not want to admit it, he still had to accept the reality of falling at Zhao Fu's hands. However, the Sun Elf did not lose all hope; he believed that he would be able to defeat Zhao Fu in the future.

As Zhao Fu arrived, the lively atmosphere calmed down and countless people looked at Zhao Fu with gazes of worship and made way. Even the high and mighty ten geniuses who had incredibly prestigious identities looked over.

Facing everyone's gazes, Zhao Fu's expression was cool as he came to the very front.

The Sun Elf looked at Zhao Fu and said with a serious expression, "You're the first person to defeat me. You're very powerful, but I definitely won't lose to you next time. Where will I be able to find you? After I increase my strength, I will go to challenge you."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed. How could he tell him? Moreover, he was not so bored to participate in meaningless battles, so he said, "There's no need to find me; I won't continue to fight with you because there's no need."

The Sun Elf looked quite furious. "No need? Are you looking down on me, thinking that I'm not a match for you?"

Zhao Fu gave a carefree smile and said, "That wasn't my intention. However, with your current power, there's no chance of you defeating me."

The Sun Elf felt quite angry, but after thinking about it, he indeed was not a match for Zhao Fu right now. He could only coldly harrumph and did not say anything else. After becoming stronger, he would challenge Zhao Fu and see if he still dared to say this.

Hearing Zhao Fu's words, the people in the surroundings felt quite nervous and fearful; only this person would dare to talk to the Sun Elf like this.

Zhao Fu did not pay any more mind to the Sun Elf, and he came to the stone stage at the very front. The reward for first place was there, and there were restrictions around it – only the person ranked first could approach.

On the stone stage were four items. The first was the Origin God Iron. It was a rectangular piece of iron that was about as big as a watermelon. It was jet-black and gave off a powerful metallic aura, and it seemed incredibly heavy.

The second was a white crystal ball. It was as big as a fist and gave off a powerful barrier aura; Zhao Fu looked at it and found that it was called Heavenly Kingdom Protection.

Heavenly Kingdom Protection was incredibly powerful and could release an energy barrier that could surround ten worlds. It could last for one year and even a few billion Stage 3 soldiers would not be able to destroy it.

Zhao Fu felt quite pleased with this item, and he smiled as he looked at the next item. It was a rainbow-colored medicinal pill that gave off an intoxicating fragrance.

The medicinal pill was called the Seven Spirit Medicinal Pill. It could give one's bloodline massive amounts of power and purify one's bloodline, but it was not much use to Divine Bloodlines.

Even though this medicinal pill was incredibly valuable and rare, it was not of much use to Zhao Fu.

The fourth item was a medallion made of stone. There was a magic formation engraved on it, and the medallion gave off an ancient and powerful aura.

After looking at it, Zhao Fu found that this was a teleportation medallion. It contained an extremely powerful teleportation panel and even higher-beings would not be able to stop it.

After looking at the four items, Zhao Fu was incredibly pleased with all of them except the medicinal pill; they were all incredibly valuable and useful items.

After putting the four things away, Zhao Fu planned to directly leave, as he had achieved his goal. It was a pity that he had not been able to awaken the Outlander Emperor Star.

Suddenly, a massive, ancient aura terrifying exploded out. It flooded out, instantly inundating the secret realm, causing countless people to feel as if they had fallen into a deep abyss as their bodies continuously trembled.

Chapter 1707: King of Kings Sword

Boom!

The massive mountain gave off an enormous golden ray of light that contained boundless aura and shot into the sky, giving off a massive sound.

Waves of golden light spread out in the sky, spreading across the entire secret realm in an instant. The entire sky was filled with golden light and gave off a noble, powerful, ancient, and supreme aura. There was also a formless might that weighed down on everyone's bodies.

“System announcement! The restrictions around the King of Kings Mountain have disappeared; anyone can climb the King of Kings Mountain.”

After this system announcement sounded out, countless people looked incredibly excited and gave off powerful auras as they madly rushed towards the mountain.

Zhao Fu looked quite confused and did not understand what was going on.

The people on the viewing platforms also felt quite startled; this was different to previous times. Before, only the top ten people had the right to ascend the mountain, but now everyone could.

Seeing countless people charge up the mountain, Zhao Fu also gave off a powerful aura, rushed up the mountain, and quickly reached the summit.

There was an area with flat ground there. It was incredibly big and there was nothing except a golden sword stabbed into the rock at the center.

The golden sword was a two-handed sword, the hilt had golden scales on it, and the pommel was a sphere. At the place where the blade and hilt intersected, there was a savage beast's head, and the blade was covered with pictures of different races.

This sword gave off a supreme sword aura, as well as a noble, ancient, and powerful aura. The aura in the sky was coming from this sword.

This sword was not simple at all, and Zhao Fu looked at it seriously. In front of this sword, even Zhao Fu's Divine Bloodline felt a trace of pressure; this showed just how terrifying this sword was. Its quality might even surpass the Emperor Killing Sword.

The Emperor Killing Sword was a sword that could grow, and it had not grown much yet. The bigger the Emperor Killing Sword World was, the higher quality the Emperor Killing Sword would become. That was why it could not compare to this golden sword for now.

Nevertheless, the Emperor Killing Sword had fused with Celestial-Killing sword intent, and it also had the five Emperor Stars' power. It was an incredibly terrifying sword, and yet it was still inferior to this golden sword; this golden sword was truly monstrous.

Because Zhao Fu had not yet looked at the King of Kings Sword's information, he did not know what kind of sword it was. However, seeing how excited everyone looked, including the Sun Elf, he understood that this sword was definitely incredibly important.

Countless people rushed up, wanting to try to pull out the golden sword.

Boom!

The sword gave off a powerful golden wave of light that contained terrifying power, blasting everyone back. Only then did everyone stop and crowd around the sword, not daring to approach.

Even though the rules had changed, with the prestige of the King of Kings Sword, it was not something that anyone could touch.

As one of the top ten geniuses, the Elephant person thought about it and exploded out with a powerful aura as he stepped forwards. This time, the golden sword did not release a golden wave of light.

This made countless people feel quite disappointed. Their talent and power could not compare to those terrifying geniuses, and they did not even have the qualifications to get close to the King of Kings Sword.

The Elephant person felt quite nervous and had never thought that things would turn out like this. He walked to the King of Kings Sword, feeling quite excited. If he could pull it out, he would become the new King of Kings, an extremely terrifying existence.

The Elephant person gripped the sword's hilt, and everyone else felt quite nervous too.

The Elephant person vigorously lifted, but the sword did not budge at all. It was as if it was connected to the mountain, and the Elephant person looked quite startled before gripping the sword with both hands.

“Arghh!” the Elephant person loudly roared and exploded out with a terrifying aura as an aura flame burst forth around him, giving off wild gales. The Elephant person pulled up with all his strength, but the sword did not budge.

The Elephant person did not accept this and roared as he exploded out with an even greater aura. His hands tightly gripped the sword, and he vigorously tried to pull it up but he was still unsuccessful. The Elephant person still did not give up and wanted to continue trying.

Bang!

The sword exploded out with a powerful aura and sent the Elephant person flying back. He crashed to the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood, looking quite dispirited. He had just lost the opportunity to become the next King of Kings.

Everyone else in the surroundings looked quite disappointed but let out a sigh of relief. The King of Kings Sword was not something that an ordinary person could pull out. The Elephant person failed, so they still had a chance.

The next to go up was the Three-Headed Ogre. He gave a big smile and took big steps as he walked to the golden sword. He gripped the sword with both hands, and because he knew that drawing it out would be incredibly difficult, he used his full power from the very beginning.

Boom!

A massive aura exploded out, and the Three-Headed Ogre used his full strength to pull the sword but it did not move at all.

In the end, the Three-Headed Ogre could only step back with a grim expression. He understood that he could not pull out the King of Kings Sword with his strength, so he could only go back and wait to see if anyone else could pull it out.

The ordinary people in the surroundings naturally did not go up, as they did not even have the qualifications to touch the sword. Going up would result in them being blasted back, so they could only stay put and watch. Otherwise, they would also want to go up and try; perhaps they would be able to become the next King of Kings.

The Elephant person was ranked tenth and the Three-Headed Ogre was ranked seventh. The others were not too disappointed that they had failed, as they had somewhat expected this.

Following this, the ninth-ranked Yu Luohua nervously went up and spread all of her wings. She burst forth with an intense light that covered the surroundings but could not make the King of Kings Sword budge at all.

In the end, she could only go back to where she was before, looking quite disappointed. She thought to herself that even peerless geniuses could not pull out the King of Kings Sword. No wonder no one had been able to pull it out after so many years.

The eighth-ranked Orc also went up to try but could not make the King of Kings Sword move at all. He looked quite dispirited as he went back, but he had been prepared for this outcome. Even the Three-Headed Ogre, who was stronger than him, could not pull it out, making his chances even smaller.

At that moment, the Lion person gave off a powerful aura and had a serious expression as he came to the King of Kings Sword. He gripped the hilt with both hands and roared. A massive aura flame blazed around him, and he vigorously pulled but still failed.

The Lion person also looked disappointed as he returned to his place. Now, five of the top geniuses had failed.

Chapter 1708: Sword Pulling

Hu Baimei also decided to go up and try pulling out the King of Kings Sword. However, at that moment, a chubby Pigman young man was a bit faster and reached the King of Kings Sword. Everyone was quite surprised that the King of Kings Sword did not send the young man flying back.

This meant that he was qualified to try pulling out the sword. Didn't that mean this Pigman young man had talent rivalling the top ten geniuses? Most people had never seen this young man or heard of him before.

He was most likely one of those terrifying figures hidden among the crowd. Everyone felt quite interested in him, and their gazes gathered on his body, waiting to see how he did.

The Pigman young man came to the King of Kings Sword, and he placed his hands on the hilt as he gave off a massive aura. A ten meter tall Pigman image giving off terrifying power appeared behind the Pigman young man, and he roared as he vigorously pulled.

At that moment, something shocking happened – the King of Kings Sword slightly budged, making everyone's minds tremble as they stared at the King of Kings Sword.

However, everyone was once again left disappointed because the King of Kings Sword only slightly budged, but that was it. The Pigman young man seemed to run out of strength and his body sagged.

In the end, the Pigman young man could only dispiritedly return to where he was before.

Even though the Pigman young man had failed, he gave everyone some hope, as there was finally someone who could cause the King of Kings Sword to budge a bit. This gave everyone confidence that it was possible to draw out the King of Kings Sword.

At that moment, a powerfully-built Minotaur young man went up. The King of Kings Sword did not force him back either, and everyone realized that this was yet another terrifying figure hiding among the crowd.

The Minotaur gripped the sword with one hand and yelled out as his muscles bulged and a great power burst forth, and he vigorously pulled but the King of Kings Sword did not move at all.

The Minotaur placed his other hand on the sword and gave off an immense might as he roared, causing a shockwave to sweep out, but the sword still did not move at all.

In the end, the Minotaur could only return to his position with an unsightly expression. He had thought that since the Pigman young man could make the sword budge, perhaps he had a chance at pulling it out. However, this showed that he was inferior to that Pigman young man.

Following this, another few people went up, and they were all unfamiliar faces. No one had heard of them before, but they were all incredibly powerful and were not any weaker than the top ten geniuses.

Many people were shocked at the appearance of these people; there were actually so many powerful people hiding among the crowd, and yet no one had detected them. If it wasn't for the King of Kings Sword, they would not have revealed themselves. It seemed that their goal was only the King of Kings Sword.

After they all failed, no one else went up. Hu Baimei smiled and transformed into a 10,000 meter long ten-tailed fox and gave off a terrifying aura as a wild gale swept out.

Having such a massive body gave a great advantage in terms of power. A casual strike could destroy a small mountain, and she was quite terrifying.

Hu Baimei gripped the King of Kings Sword with a massive paw and pulled with terrifying power, and the King of Kings Sword actually moved a little. The Hu Baimei felt delighted and exploded out with an even greater aura and vigorously pulled, causing the sword to budge a bit more.

Countless people's hearts tightened and stared at the King of Kings Sword, but it did not move anymore. In the end, Hu Baimei had still failed and returned to her human form, looking quite displeased. She had never expected the King of Kings Sword to be so difficult to pull out.

The fourth-ranked Dragon person went up to try as well and successfully made the King of Kings Sword budge, but that was it. The Dragon person expected this and was not too disappointed, and he returned to where he was.

At that moment, a Goat person with black skin walked up. He was an unfamiliar face and was another terrifying figure hiding among the crowd. He exploded out with a black aura flame and gripped the sword with both hands and pulled, causing the King of Kings Sword to budge a little.

Boom!

A massive aura spread out, and the black aura flame became many times bigger, turning into a black goat. The Goat person continued to pull, causing the King of Kings Sword to budge twice more

The crowd was sent into an uproar – this was the first time someone had been able to cause the King of Kings Sword to budge three times, and they looked at the Goat person.

However, the Goat person had run out of strength as he let go of the sword, and he looked quite disappointed as he returned to his place.

Following this, a few more unfamiliar faces went up. Some caused the King of Kings Sword to budge a little, while others were unable to make it move at all.

The Sun Elf stood there, looking quite confident; he did not look panicked or nervous at all. He did not believe that these people could pull out the King of Kings Sword; if it could be pulled out so easily, it would not be the King of Kings Sword.

The third-ranked Dwarf went up next. His hands gripped the King of Kings Sword, but he was not in a hurry to try to pull it up. He closed his eyes, calmed his breathing, and sent massive amounts of power into his feet, causing a silver magic formation containing immense power to appear.

The Dwarf pulled upwards, and the silver magic formation continuously spun and gave off a massive power as it helped the Dwarf.

Shing!

A sword hum suddenly sounded out as something shocking happened – the Dwarf pulled a portion of the King of Kings Sword out. This was not just making it budge but pulling out a portion – the Dwarf's power was quite terrifying.

Everyone looked at the Dwarf in anticipation, but no matter how the Dwarf pulled, he could not pull out the King of Kings Sword any more. In the end, the Dwarf ran out of strength and he could only sigh as he returned to his place.

As each of the geniuses failed, their factions' hearts also shattered. They felt great confidence towards their geniuses and wanted them to be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword and become the second King of Kings.

However, their hopes had been extinguished, making the people from the various factions look quite disappointed and dispirited.

The expressions of the people on the viewing platforms also had grim expressions. So many people had gone up but all had failed; the most they had been able to achieve was pulling out a portion of it.

At that moment, Medusa slowly walked forwards. She was not in a hurry either, and held the sword with one hand and sent a massive amount of power into it, causing a green light to slowly cover the sword. Following this, Medusa vigorously pulled.

Shing!

A sword hum once again sounded out as a sword wind containing massive sword energy spread out. Medusa also pulled out a portion of the King of Kings Sword, and it was a bit more than the Dwarf.

Chapter 1709: Holy Son

Medusa continued to pull, but she could not pull the King of Kings Sword out any more. However, she did not give up and lightly cried out as she exploded out with an even greater aura. A green aura flame blazed around her body, causing her to pull out the sword a bit more.

Everyone once again nervously waited, but after maintaining this for a while, Medusa ran out of strength.

Everyone's gaze now fell on the Sun Elf's body. He had the most hope and was the person most likely to pull out the King of Kings Sword. If he could not do it, it was unlikely that anyone else could.

If that was the case, the prophecy that the King of Kings left behind would not be fulfilled today. No one knew when the King of Kings Sword would be pulled out, and it was possible that no one would be able to. This would be an incredible loss to the Outlander Race.

Countless people hoped that someone would be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword and become the second King of Kings, leading their Outlander Race to glory again.

Now, countless people were looking at the Sun Elf, hoping that he would be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword and restore the Outlander Race.

Under everyone's gazes, the Sun Elf gave off a transcendental aura and slowly walked to the King of Kings Sword. He closed his eyes and breathed out as he gripped the sword.

As he opened his eyes, his eyes danced with golden light and a powerful aura swept out from his body, causing a wild gale to spread out.

The Sun Elf vigorously pulled, and a sword hum sounded out. A large portion of the King of Kings Sword was pulled out, and a ferocious sword wind swept out. The people in the surroundings were all forced back a step, and they looked at the Sun Elf excitedly and in anticipation.

The Sun Elf was indeed quite powerful and directly pulled out a large portion of the sword. He was indeed the most likely person to draw out the King of Kings Sword.

The Sun Elf felt the King of Kings Sword sinking with unimaginable power, and he felt his hand lowering. He loudly roared, and a powerful golden aura flame blazed around him.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as the King of Kings Sword was pulled up some more, and a massive storm of sword wind burst forth.

After pulling out the sword some more, the resistance became many times greater, and the Sun Elf vigorously grabbed the hilt as his arms started to shake.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as boundless green starlight covered the sky, and a star giving off immense pressure gradually descended in the sky.

At the same time, massive amounts of power entered the Sun Elf's body.

Shing!

A massive sword hum once again sounded out and more sword wind rushed out, forcing everyone else back even more.

Another few centimetres of the King of Kings Sword had been pulled out, and countless people stared at the Sun Elf, holding their breath. They felt incredibly nervous, not knowing if the Sun Elf would be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword.

Shing!

Another sword hum sounded out, but it was not the sound of the sword being drawn out more but the sound of the sword falling back into the ground. The Sun Elf was unable to pull it out any more, and the sword went back to its resting position.

Countless people's hearts plummeted; even the Sun Elf with his Emperor Star was unable to pull it out. Who else in this world could do it? It seemed impossible. Everyone felt incredibly dispirited and boundlessly hopeless.

The Sun Elf's expression was quite unsightly. He tried to pull out the sword again, but could not do so, so he could only return to his place. He wondered if anyone could pull out the King of Kings Sword; even he, who had a supreme Emperor Star, could not do it. Could it be that no one could pull out the sword and become the second King of Kings?

Suddenly, a figure walked up. It was a young man with blood-red hair, and he gripped the King of Kings Sword and vigorously pulled out.

Shing!

A massive sword hum sounded out as an enormous sword wind ferociously swept out. Countless people looked at the young man in shock; who was this? He was able to directly pull out the sword by a whole finger length – so terrifying!

Countless people's gazes fell on the young man's body, and they all felt nervous and hopeful. They had never thought that this person would be stronger than the Sun Elf.

The young man was expressionless as he held the King of Kings Sword, and he felt an immense resistance from it.

Boom!

A massive blood-red aura flame exploded out, sending out a storm of wind that blasted everyone else back. An extraordinary and supreme aura exploded out, causing people to fall into terror.

Countless people once again fell into shock and waves crashed in their heart; this young man was actually a Holy Son, an Outlander Holy Son.

Shing!

A massive sword hum once again sounded out as an enormous storm of sword wind blasted out. The King of Kings Sword was pulled out by another finger length and there were roughly still three finger lengths to go.

Countless people felt incredibly excited and were sure that this young man with blood-red hair was the prophesied person. The second King of Kings was actually someone with a Divine Bloodline; no one expected their Outlander Race to have a Holy Son.

Shing!

The young man's expression was cold as he vigorously pulled, and another sword hum sounded out as the King of Kings Sword was pulled out some more.

Everyone waited excitedly; now, there were only two finger lengths left. Everyone could almost see the point of the sword, and the young man just needed a bit more to pull the King of Kings Sword out.

The young man gripped the sword with one hand and felt an extremely terrifying power pulling the sword down. The coldly harrumphed and exploded out with all of his power, causing a blood-red beam of light to shoot into the sky and form a pillar of light. World power continuously flowed into his body, and clouds swirled as the heavens darkened.

The young man pulled out the King of Kings Sword a bit more, and everyone looked even more delighted, as if they could see the young man pull out the King of Kings Sword already.

Shing!

A sword hum once again caused countless people's hearts to plummet as the sword once again fell into the ground. The young man stared in disbelief and exploded out with a powerful aura, but he was still unable to pull it out. In the end, he could only furiously return to where he was before.

The Sun Elf with his Emperor Star could not pull it out, and this young man with his Divine Bloodline could not do it. Now, everyone felt despair and felt that no one would be able to pull out of the King of Kings Sword and become the next King of Kings.

It seemed that the first King of Kings' prophecy was wrong; there was no prophesied person, and no one would come to lead the Outlander Race.

Everyone felt devastated; facing this terrifying King of Kings Sword, they all felt helpless and weak.

Zhao Fu thought about it and decided that it was time for him to try.

Chapter 1710: Our Outlander Race

Seeing Zhao Fu go up, everyone felt quite startled and confused. What was someone from the Death Race doing, going up? This was the King of Kings Sword, the holy item of the Outlander Race – it was not something that an outsider could touch. No matter how powerful he was, it would be useless. Could it be that he did not know what the King of Kings Sword was, so he was stupidly going up to try? It seemed that he really did not know.

Someone good-naturedly warned him, “Holy Son, that is our Outlander Race’s holy item. It is called the King of Kings Sword and people from other races will not be able to touch it, or they will be attacked.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu calmly nodded and continued walking forwards.

This caused countless people to feel even more confused. Now that someone had warned him, why was he still going up? Was it that he did not believe that person’s words? Or did he think that he was powerful enough to pull out the King of Kings Sword?

Some people wanted to see Zhao Fu make a fool of himself and be blasted back before he even got to the King of Kings Sword.

After all, he had brought this on himself. He thought that he could pull out the King of Kings Sword with his strength despite being warned; he could only blame himself if he was humiliated.

Everyone waited to see Zhao Fu be made a fool of because they did not believe that someone from the Death Race could pull out the King of Kings Sword.

The ten top geniuses and other hidden geniuses all looked at Zhao Fu. They knew how terrifying Zhao Fu’s power was – he was much stronger than the Sun Elf. If he was from the Outlander Race, it would be quite likely for him to pull out the King of Kings Sword, but he was not from the Outlander Race.

They naturally did not believe that Zhao Fu would be able to pull out the sword. They had all tried and knew how terrifying the King of Kings Sword was, and someone like Zhao Fu from the Death Race would definitely be blasted back by the King of Kings Sword.

Hu Baimei lightly harrumphed and said to Zhao Fu, “That’s our Outlander Race’s King of Kings Sword; someone from the Death Race like you doesn’t have the right to go and try to pull it out. Why are you still going up? Do you think we’re lying to you?”

Medusa also said, “This is the Outlander Race’s supreme holy item, and someone from the Death Race like you will not only not be able to pull it out but will also be in immense danger. An outsider trying to pull out the Outlander Race’s supreme holy item is incredibly dangerous.”

The Lion person also said with a serious expression, “Holy Son, what they’re saying is true. As a Holy Son of the Death Race, you’ll be violently rejected by the King of Kings Sword. When that time comes, even your life might be in danger.”

Hearing these words, Zhao Fu lightly laughed and said, “I understand, but I still want to try and see if I can pull out the sword.”

Hearing that Zhao Fu was determined to kill himself, everyone decided to wait to see him humiliate himself. Such a terrifying person being so determined to humiliate themselves was quite rare, and it made everyone feel secretly pleased.

Thinking about that, many people grinned and waited for Zhao Fu to try to pull out the King of Kings Sword.

Hearing Zhao Fu’s words, the Sun Elf said coldly, “Don’t overestimate yourself. Yes, you are powerful, but that’s the holy item of the Outlander Race. There’s no need for you to try, you’re not even qualified to touch the sword. How can you pull it out?”

“Also, as a Holy Son of the Death Race, if the King of Kings Sword reacts violently and wants to kill you, no one will be able to save you. I don’t want to see you die here before falling at my hands.”

The young man with blood-red hair looked at Zhao Fu and felt quite curious about him. He did not know where Zhao Fu was from, and he also had a Divine Bloodline. He had never heard of this person before.

However, he did not believe that Zhao Fu could possibly pull out the King of Kings Sword. Even he, a Holy Son of the Outlander Race, could not pull it out, so how could Zhao Fu, a Holy Son of the Death Race, do so?

Everyone on the viewing platforms felt incredibly depressed. They had thought that the prophecy would be fulfilled today and that the second King of Kings would appear. However, what made them despair was that an Emperor Star was not enough, nor was a Divine Bloodline. Just what kind of person could pull out the sword?

Now, everyone looked at Zhao Fu going up in disbelief, and some people even started to mock him.

“Nothing could make me believe that a Death Race person like him can pull out the King of Kings Sword. Wait for him to get wrecked by the King of Kings Sword.”

“Hahaha, a Death Race person going up to pull out the King of Kings Sword, what a joke.”

“I feel that that person is seeking death. However, a Death Race Holy Son dying is good for us and incredibly bad for the Death Race.”

“That’s right! After all, he’s from the Death Race. He’s so terrifying and might be a scourge to our Outlander Race in the future. Perhaps the King of Kings Sword is also thinking this and will kill him.”

“Let’s wait for that person to make a fool of himself. He’s way too arrogant!”

It was not just the people on the viewing platform who felt this way; even some of the factions that were now supporting Zhao Fu felt that Zhao Fu was being too rash and overconfident. He did not listen to any warnings and had put himself in great danger.

Their favorability towards Zhao Fu somewhat decreased, and they felt that although his bloodline and power were incredible, he was too immature and needed to go through more trials.

Outlander Ten College’s teachers also watched in disbelief as Zhao Fu, someone from the Death Race, went up to pull out the King of Kings Sword.

The Bear person elder frowned and said, “He’s being a bit too arrogant. That’s our Outlander Race’s King of Kings Sword. It’s no big deal for Outlander geniuses to go up and try but a Death Race Holy Son like him really might be killed.

“The King of Kings Sword is our Outlander Race’s holy item and will definitely stand on our side. If an outsider tries to go up and try, they will be blasted back. However, if a Holy Son of the Death Race goes up, the King of Kings Sword might kill this menace.”

The Gnome elder nodded and said, “So many people tried to warn him but he still wants to try; he’s not putting the King of Kings Sword in his eyes at all. Perhaps he’s been spoiled in the Holy Empire for too long and doesn't know that there are things in the world that even Holy Empires don't have."

The serious-looking middle-aged man felt quite worried as he said, "He has such a terrifying identity, and if he dies in the secret realm, his faction will definitely want an explanation. This is not good for our college."

The elegant-looking beauty lightly laughed, "I feel that he won't die so easily; there's no need to worry. He's a Holy Son and has a massive amount of Fate protecting him; he won't die just like that."
