

The Lord 1711

Chapter 1711: 34

The Fox Race Man laughed as he said, “I agree, there’s no reason for us to worry too much. Also, we shouldn’t be too disappointed; that person who caused 23 statues to react still hasn’t revealed himself. As long as the secret realm hasn’t closed, there’s a possibility of the prophecy being fulfilled.”

Hearing this, everyone else thought about it and felt slightly better. They had almost forgotten about that terrifying person, and they hoped that that person would be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword.

Now, everyone’s gazes fell on Zhao Fu’s body. However, they weren’t waiting to see if Zhao Fu would be able to pull out the sword but were waiting to see how Zhao Fu would humiliate and kill himself.

Zhao Fu’s expression did not change, and he looked quite calm as he walked towards the King of Kings Sword.

Seeing Zhao Fu get closer and closer to the King of Kings Sword, everyone felt quite nervous and waited for the King of Kings Sword to explode out with terrifying power and blast him back or even kill him.

Zhao Fu walked forwards and finally entered the range of the King of Kings Sword.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as an enormous aura burst forth. A three meter tall golden aura flame blazed around the King of Kings Sword, sending out a powerful gale.

Everyone grinned, and some people even cried out, telling him not to go on. Now that the King of Kings Sword had reacted so intensely, if he continued on, he would not just humiliate himself, and might really die.

The geniuses nearby felt quite wary and prepared to defend in case the King of Kings Sword's terrifying power reached them as well.

This was the King of Kings Sword, the holiest and terrifying item in the Outlander Race. They did not dare to take it lightly, as they might lose their lives.

Zhao Fu did not mind the King of Kings Sword's reaction and continued onwards. Everyone's hearts tightened and retreated, as if they could already see the King of Kings Sword exploding out with terrifying sword energy.

However, everyone was left confused. As Zhao Fu walked onwards, he was left unharmed and everyone looked incredibly confused. They did not understand what was going on; why had the King of Kings Sword given off such a terrifying aura but did not attack Zhao Fu?

Zhao Fu ignored everyone's gazes and continued onwards. He came to the King of Kings Sword and stretched out a hand and gripped the hilt.

Everyone in the surroundings and on the viewing platforms were sent into an uproar. Countless people stared at this scene; Zhao Fu had not only not been attacked but he could also touch the King of Kings Sword. What was going on?

Right as Zhao Fu touched the sword, he felt a sense of familiarity. This was the power that had been guiding him to challenge the top ten geniuses.

Now that he was holding the sword, Zhao Fu could feel the terrifying power within the sword. His expression became serious and he gripped the sword with both hands and closed his eyes as he lightly breathed out.

Seeing this, everyone felt quite shocked and wondered that surely he wasn't trying to pull out the sword. How could someone from the Death Race pull out the Outlander Race's holy sword? The King of Kings Sword allowing him to touch it was already a miracle.

Now, everyone felt incredibly confused and could not understand why the King of Kings Sword had not forced Zhao Fu, someone from the Death Race, back. It was as if it was allowing him to try to pull it out – but he was not an Outlander!

Zhao Fu lightly breathed out and opened his eyes. His eyes flashed and a transcendental aura spread out as he gripped the sword and vigorously pulled up.

Shing!

A massive sword hum sounded out, and an enormous sword qi storm spread out, sweeping throughout the surroundings.

Countless people felt dumbfounded and could not believe what they were seeing. The King of Kings Sword had actually been pulled out an extra finger length compared to the Holy Son before – this meant that this person had more talent and was more powerful than the Holy Son.

At that moment, Zhao Fu felt the terrifying resistance from the sword, and he tightly gripped the hilt. If he was not careful, the sword would fall back into the ground.

Boom!

Zhao Fu did not hold back and exploded out with all of his Divine Bloodline's power. A massive black aura flame blazed around Zhao Fu, bringing with it a supreme aura.

Standing by the side, the young man with blood-red hair looked at Zhao Fu in shock; he found that Zhao Fu's Divine Bloodline's aura was stronger than his by a bit. Just who was this person?

Shing!

A sword hum once again sounded out and an even greater storm of sword qi erupted out into the surroundings.

The sword was pulled out by another finger length, and there were only two more finger lengths until it would be pulled out. Everyone stared at Zhao Fu in disbelief; could this person from the Death Race really pull out the King of Kings Sword?

At that moment, Zhao Fu felt the King of Kings Sword powerfully try to sink downwards. If he did not use all of his strength, the King of Kings Sword would fall; right now, wanting to pull it out even a bit more became incredibly difficult.

“Arghh!” Zhao Fu gripped the hilt with both hands and roared as he exploded out with terrifying power. The totem power within his body exploded out, and his back shined with countless lights as the auras of the 34 Outlander races flowed out.

Swish, swish, swish...

Zhao Fu’s back gave off 34 rays of different-colored light, and they shot towards the sky, turning into 34 images. There was a Dragon person, a Lion person, a Cat person, a Kobold, an Elf...

The 34 images represented the 34 races, and they stood in the sky, forming a circle with Zhao Fu in the middle.

This scene caused everyone to feel even more shocked. How could that person have the power of so many totems? And how could he give off the auras of the 34 races? And what was with those 34 images?

No one understood what was going on and felt incredibly confused.

At that moment, Zhao Fu roared as he gripped the sword even tighter and mustered his strength to pull it up.

The 34 images in the sky also exploded out with powerful auras, and their bodies gave off a light.

Shing!

A piercing sword sum sounded throughout the heavens and earth, and boundless golden sword light shot out as a terrifying golden storm of sword qi blasted out with monstrous power. Countless people panicked and quickly retreated.

What was even more unbelievable was that that person from the Death Race had actually pulled out the King of Kings Sword. The first King of Kings’ prophecy had been fulfilled today – that King of Kings Sword, which seemed impossible to pull out, had been pulled out by someone.

That person in front of them was the prophesied person, the future King of Kings and the most prestigious person in the Outlander Race. He would be the leader of the Outlander Race and lead countless Outlanders to glory.

Chapter 1712: Second King of Kings

However, how could a person from the Death Race possibly pull out the King of Kings Sword? No one could understand this and felt quite uncomfortable about someone from the Death Race becoming the leader of the Outlander Race.

However, everyone was once again shocked as that person's Death Race aura disappeared and a pure Outlander Race aura exploded out like a flood.

Only then did countless people realize that they were wrong. That person was not from the Death Race, and he had an incredibly pure Outlander Race bloodline.

Countless people stared with wide-eyes; they had never thought that things would turn out like this. They had been mocking him before, the future King of Kings, and now they could not make a single sound.

As Zhao Fu pulled out the King of Kings Sword with both hands, he felt a massive power flow into his body. The slight barrier blocking him from awakening the Emperor Star was destroyed at that moment.

Zhao Fu held the sword with one hand and raised it up towards the sky and roared, and he sent terrifying power into the sword.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out, shaking the entire world. It was not just the people in the secret realm who heard it; more than half of the Outlander Domain heard this shocking explosion as well. They stopped what they were doing and all looked towards Outlander Ten College.

An enormous golden sword light containing terrifying power shot into the sky, seeming to stab a hole in the sky.

A massive storm of sword qi blew out, and everyone in the surroundings quickly retreated, not daring to stay close.

The sun and moon dimmed as clouds swirled, and an enormous might spread out in the sky. Countless people felt their bodies sink, and their bloodlines chilled as they felt an instinctive terror that made them want to kneel.

Sensing this aura, the people in the secret realm and those on the viewing platforms all looked up in shock as waves crashed in their hearts.

Countless traces of green starlight spread out. The entire Outlander Race's Fate was gathering, and the green light covered the entire Outlander Domain as the sky became green.

A chaotic, powerful, ferocious, and noble aura flooded out from the sky, instantly inundating everything. There was nothing that could stop it, and the aura became more and more powerful as it started to affect the entire Outlander Domain.

Countless traces of Fate in the Heaven Domain quickly gathered in that direction, and the atmosphere became chaotic as if a disaster was about to descend.

At that moment, countless terrifying figures in closed-door training opened their eyes and looked somewhat shocked as they gazed at the sky.

It was not just them; people in the Human Domain, Death Domain, Demon Domain, God Domain, Spirit Domain, Devil Domain, and Water Domain all sensed this shocking aura and looked towards the Outlander Domain in shock.

Within the Human Domain's Heaven Path Sect, a white-haired elder stood on a mountain peak and looked towards the Outlander Domain in shock.

The young man beside him also sensed that terrifying aura and said with a serious expression, "Master, based on these ripples, it's most likely that someone in the Outlander Race has awakened the supreme Emperor Star. However, it's quite rare to see such great ripples; they are much more powerful than the ones given off by my Emperor Star. That person is quite terrifying and will be a powerful opponent for me."

The elder looked into the distance and said seriously, “It’s not as simple as an Outlander Emperor Star being awakened; that supreme Emperor Star contains the King of Kings’ aura. It seems that the first King of Kings’ prophecy has been fulfilled. Someone really pulled out the King of Kings Sword and inherited his will, and he became the second King of Kings. It seems that the Outlander Race will rise up again.”

Hearing the elder mention the King of Kings, the young man looked quite shocked. The King of Kings was the most terrifying person during that era and no one dared to challenge him. His name had resounded throughout the entire world, and he had left behind countless legends throughout the world.

Hearing that someone had inherited his will and become the second King of Kings, he naturally felt incredibly shocked.

Within the Demon Domain, a ferocious-looking middle-aged man looked quite serious as he said, “Who would have thought that after such a long time, the prophecy would be fulfilled today. From the terrifying ripples the legatee has sent out, it seems that he’s no ordinary person, or else he would not be able to inherit the King of Kings’ will.

“If he can unify the Outlander Race like the first King of Kings, who will be able to stand up to him? No one will be able to stop him, and the Outlander Race will once again walk into a golden age. Neither the God, Demon, or Devil Races will be able to compete with them.

“No! We must prevent this. If we allow that person to unify the Outlander Race, our Demon Race will have dark days ahead of us. During the age of the King of Kings, that was when our Demon Race was at its weakest, and it was a humiliation to our history.”

The middle-aged man directly gave off a terrifying aura and turned into a ray of light as he shot towards the Outlander Domain.

Within a dragon palace in the Devil Race, a well-built elder looked quite shocked as he said, “The Outlander Race is incredibly lucky; the second King of Kings actually appeared and awakened an Emperor Star. The amount of Fate gathered is unimaginable, and it seems that this second King of Kings will be quite extraordinary and just as terrifying as the first King of Kings.

“We cannot allow such a terrifying figure to remain or else the other seven races will be doomed. We cannot allow what happened back then to happen again.”

The Devil Race elder gave off a terrifying aura and turned into a ray of light as he shot over the horizon towards the Outlander Domain.

Within the God Domain, in a white and pristine god palace, a young man giving off intense holy light had a cold expression as he sat on a throne. There were countless divine guards dressed in white armor below, and the atmosphere was quite oppressive.

“Who would have thought that the King of Kings’ prophecy would be fulfilled and that someone would inherit his will so many years on. However, with what we’ve experienced in the past, we absolutely cannot allow the second King of Kings to remain.

“Back during the first King of Kings’ era, it was a terrible age and our God Race was greatly humiliated. Our glorious God Race cannot continue to be sullied. Send out orders and have all of our God Domain’s powerful experts gather and head to the Outlander Domain.

“We cannot allow the Outlander Race to keep that second King of Kings at any cost; we have to get rid of that person or else our God Race will be doomed in the future.”

“Yes, sir!” countless divine guards replied and quickly left. Following this, terrifying auras turned into rays of light and shot over the horizon.

Chapter 1713: Outlander Race

Within the Spirit Domain, a few humanoid bodies of light floated in the sky. One of them said, “The King of Kings’ prophecy has been fulfilled. That King of Kings’ legatee has appeared with such terrifying airs, and he will definitely become an extremely terrifying existence in the future; should we go and take a look?”

Another said, “There’s no need! Since the second King of Kings has appeared, there’s nothing we’ll be able to do. We should just go along with heavens’ will and allow him to do as he will.”

However, another one disagreed, “Back then, during the era of the first King of Kings, the seven other races were heavily suppressed. Even though our Spirit Race was not affected as much because there are not as many of us, but even if we don’t get involved, we should at least take a look!”

Hearing this, the others nodded, turned into rays of light, and disappeared.

Within the Death Domain, an elder with white hair and a withered body, who gave off a dense ghostly qi, looked into the distance with a deep gaze. He said seriously, “As expected from the King of Kings’ legatee; he borrowed the descent of the supreme Emperor Star and shook the entire Heaven Domain. It seems that he will be even more terrifying than the King of Kings back then.

“Perhaps others think that he will become a terrifying figure like the first King of Kings, but I have a feeling that he will grow to become far more terrifying.

“If the entire Outlander Race follows his orders, the Outlander Race might rise up. I want to see what kind of person that terrifying person is.”

The elder narrowed his eyes and turned into a gray ray of light and disappeared over the horizon.

In the Water Domain, within the boundless sea, a group of Water Race experts were gathered together. A beautiful woman said, “This second King of Kings is a bit too terrifying! He gave off such massive ripples and shook the entire Heaven Domain; I wonder how many terrifying monsters he woke up.”

A Fish person said with a grim expression, “That’s the second King of Kings; how could he not be terrifying? I feel that we should go and take a look; I’m sure people from the other Domains have already gone.”

A person with a squid-like head nodded and said, “We should indeed have a look at such a terrifying person. There are most likely many people who want to kill this second King of Kings, and we can act depending on the circumstances.”

A man covered with scales looked serious as he agreed, “Under the leadership of the King of Kings, the Outlander Race was far too terrifying back then; even the strongest races, the God, Demon, and Devil Races, could not contend with them. Back then, our Water Race was also greatly suppressed and humiliated. I feel that it’s best not to allow this person to remain, or else we might face such an age again.”

The other Water Race experts nodded, turned into rays of light, and disappeared.

Most people did not know who this second King of Kings was and only felt that he was terrifying because he had pulled out the King of Kings Sword. They did not know about his background or anything else about him.

However, there were two factions that did, and they fell into shock. The first was naturally the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion that had been monitoring Zhao Fu this whole time.

Just as usual, there had been an elder monitoring Zhao Fu's five Emperor Stars in the boundless void. Suddenly, countless rays of green light had spread out, bringing with them terrifying power as abnormal signs appeared throughout the void.

Under this aura, the elder felt like less than an ant, and his body became icy cold, as if he had fallen into a deep abyss.

At that moment, people outside had sensed the terrifying ripples from the Outlander Domain and looked incredibly shocked. At that moment, they did not know who the second King of Kings was.

A white-clothed young man said in shock, "The prophecy left behind by the King of Kings has actually been fulfilled after so many years; his prophesying ability was indeed incredible. That King of Kings was truly terrifying."

A woman in pure white clothes said, "Forget about the prophecy, that second King of Kings is the center of attention. Now that an Emperor Star has descended, he has received boundless Heaven's Secrets power, and countless experts have gone over, who knows what the outcome will be like?"

A young man with a steady composure said seriously, "The major races most likely will not allow such a terrifying person to exist. Now, it's time to see if the Outlander Race can protect the second King of Kings."

A young woman said happily and excitedly, "I want to go over and take a look at what kind of terrifying person the second King of Kings is. To become the next King of Kings and awaken an Emperor Star, he's definitely incredibly extraordinary."

"Hurry... report to the Fate Sovereign!" an extremely terrified and panicked cry sounded out, making everyone feel quite startled. They did not know what was going on but understood that there was something of utmost importance.

The Fate Sovereign had been standing on a building, looking into the distance.

She was guessing at what kind of person this King of Kings was and what kind of impact he would have on the Heaven Awaken World. She was also thinking about whether the various races' experts would be able to kill the second King of Kings.

At that moment, some people hurried to where she was and reported that something big had happened. The Fate Sovereign looked quite surprised and wondered what it was.

After coming to the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion and having her consciousness enter the boundless Heaven's Secrets, she saw the green light and understood everything. She felt incredibly startled and almost lost her balance and fell to the ground.

No matter how she guessed, she would never have expected that the terrifying second King of Kings was actually him. If this information was spread, countless people would die of shock.

The Fate Sovereign looked incredibly serious and did not say anything, and she personally went to see the old monsters of the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion.

Apart from the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion, the other faction that knew about Zhao Fu was the Heaven Spirit Financial Group. Zhao Fu's orb of blood was something that they had paid close attention to.

At that moment, the orb of blood gave off a boundless green light and a terrifying aura spread out from it, causing everyone to fall into terror.

Immediately, countless major figures from the Heaven Spirit Financial Group gathered here and looked at the orb of blood in shock. Zhao Fu's performance had once again greatly exceeded their expectations; they had never thought that the King of Kings who had caused such great waves was him.

Back at the Outlander Domain, many terrifying figures had already come to see if the prophecy would be fulfilled.

After the Sun Elf and young man with blood-red hair had failed, they had let out sighs of relief and felt that no one would be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword. However, they had never expected Zhao Fu to walk out and, more importantly, draw out the King of Kings Sword.

Chapter 1714: Experts

Boom! Boom! Boom...

At that moment, countless hidden experts no longer felt the need to hide anymore, and they exploded out with terrifying auras. They revealed themselves in the air, and their auras swept out in the surroundings.

An extremely dangerous aura flooded out, causing the whole world to seem to feel incredibly cold and oppressive.

The expressions of the countless people on the viewing platforms who had been looking at Zhao Fu in shock fell, and they felt quite terrified.

Soon, someone stepped out and said loudly, "Outlander Ten College's examination has concluded; we request those unrelated to quickly leave."

Countless people understood that something terrifying was going to happen and felt quite afraid, and they quickly left.

Even if they stayed, it would be completely useless. In front of those powerful people, they were like ants that could be easily killed in large numbers. As such, most of them chose to leave.

However, some of the terrifying figures chose to remain. They understood these people's goals, and with their immense power, they were not afraid.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

There were also some Outlander experts hidden in the surroundings in order to defend against these outsider experts. They gave off powerful auras and revealed themselves; they would not allow anything to happen to the second King of Kings, as he was the hope of the entire Outlander Race.

The two sides faced off against each other, giving off massive auras. Their auras collided, resulting in massive storms that swept out.

The air seemed to solidify under the pressure, making it difficult for ordinary people to breathe, and their bodies instinctively trembled.

On the attacking side, a middle-aged man dressed in black and giving off a wave of killing intent said loudly, “You’d best be tactful and hand over the second King of Kings and give us the King of Kings Sword to seal.”

On the defending side, an elder dressed in green robes with ruddy cheeks coldly replied, “Keep dreaming; do you really think we’d do that? Also, you dare to cause such a ruckus in the Outlander Domain; aren’t you afraid of staying here forever?”

The middle-aged man in black loudly laughed, “Don’t worry about us, you should be worried about yourselves instead. Do you really think you can protect him? The seven Domains’ experts are all heading here; do you think your Outlander Domain can defend against seven other Domains?”

“When that time comes, will you be able to unite like you did under the first King of Kings reign? I’m sure many people also want that second King of Kings dead! You have no hope in this battle, so don’t resist futilely or else it will be too late when you regret it.”

The green-robed elder’s expression was somewhat unsightly because the middle-aged man in black was right. The Outlander Domain was not the most powerful Domain, and it could not defend against seven other Domains.

Moreover, times had changed. Back then, everyone had revered him as the King of Kings and willingly followed all of his orders. However, would all of the Outlander races be willing to do so today? Absolutely not.

The green-robed elder said coldly, “No matter what, we’ll be protecting the second King of Kings. You can try taking him over my dead body.”

The middle-aged man in black coldly harrumphed, “You’re seeking death!”

Boom!

A massive blood-red aura flame exploded out around the middle-aged man in black as he held a large blood-red saber, gave off a powerful aura, and shot towards the green-robed elder.

Boom!

The green-robed elder did not show any fear. He exploded out with a green aura flame and held a long spear, and he gave off terrifying power as he shot out.

Bang!

A massive explosion sounded out as the two people clashed with terrifying power, sending out a monstrous shockwave, destroying everything around them.

It was not just them, the others also gave off powerful auras and held their weapons as they rushed at the other side.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive explosions sounded out, and the battle was incredibly intense, causing terrifying destructive power to blast out and turn into wild gales.

Sensing the terrifying ripples behind them, the countless people who had left the viewing platforms felt quite shocked and felt their bodies go cold. The battle unfolding behind them was simply too terrifying; all of this was for the second King of Kings.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Some other Domains' experts joined the battle, causing it to become even more intense. The situation was quite disadvantageous for the defending side, as the attackers far outnumbered them.

The major figures on the viewing platforms hesitated and wondered if they should act. Just as the middle-aged man in black had said, with their prestigious identities, they did not want to be ruled by a King of Kings. As such, they did not want a King of Kings to appear.

Of course, if it was someone from their faction who had become the King of Kings, they would be incredibly happy. However, it was a stranger none of them knew about; as such, they did not want to act.

Nevertheless, the other Domains' people had come to attack their Domain, and if they did not do anything, it would be too humiliating. After all, if the Outlander Race lost, they would be suppressed and humiliated by the other seven Domains.

Also, the King of Kings was still the hope of the Outlander Race rising up. Without him, the Outlander Race would lose hope for the future.

After thinking for a while, some of the major figures gave off terrifying auras and joined in the battle, choosing to resist the attackers.

Some of them quite liked and appreciated Zhao Fu and wanted to marry their Princesses to him. They had never thought that he would become the second King of Kings; this completely exceeded their expectations.

As such, they decided to stand on Zhao Fu's side and marry their Princesses to Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu was now the leader of the Outlander Race, at least in name, and countless races would submit to him.

This would bring them immense benefits, which was why they decided to participate in the battle and protect the second King of Kings.

However, some people did not fight or leave, waiting to see how the situation would develop.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Massive explosions sounded out as Outlander Ten College's experts gave off terrifying auras and appeared. This was their territory, and they had protected the King of Kings' legacy for countless years. As such, they would definitely stand on Zhao Fu's side.

The teachers who had been talking before were among them. They were teachers of Outlander Ten College and would naturally follow the other teachers and stand on Zhao Fu's side.

Chapter 1715: Fate

Among the teachers were the Gnome elder and the serious-looking middle-aged man. They looked resolute and were determined to protect the Outlander Race's second King of Kings, and they would not allow any harm to come to him.

They did not like Zhao Fu's character, but Zhao Fu's performance had exceeded their expectations again and again, all the way to becoming the King of Kings. He had completely convinced them, and they now willingly went to defend him.

As for everything else about Zhao Fu, they did not care anymore. Now that Zhao Fu was the second King of Kings, those things did not matter at all.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The battle became even more intense, and terrifying power spread out, turning into intense storms. Sharp lights shot out and space twisted and cracked, creating a terrifying scene.

With Outlander Ten College's teachers and some of the major figures from the viewing platforms joining in, the defenders were now suppressing the attacking side. This made the middle-aged man in black's expression become quite unsightly. If this went on, they would have to retreat.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The middle-aged man in black was not worried for too long because experts from other Domains gave off massive auras and descended, joining in the terrifying battle. Now, the two sides were evenly matched.

Boom!

Suddenly, a massive sound rang out, as if the heavens and earth were collapsing. An incredibly terrifying shockwave containing destructive power spread out, causing long cracks to appear in space.

The people on both sides felt quite startled and were forced to stop, and they looked at the sky.

Boundless intense green starlight shot out from the cracks, and a massive green star containing an unfathomable aura gradually descended. The world seemed to sink as a massive pressure descended.

The powerful, chaotic, ferocious, and noble aura was dense to the extreme and flooded out like a tsunami, easily inundating everything.

The boundless green starlight spread quickly, quickly covering the entire world.

Countless people looked towards the horizon, where the resplendent green star was. Looking at this resplendent star, they almost felt hot tears leak out of their eyes, and they felt an incredibly familiar feeling in their bloodlines.

Whether they were farmers working in the fields, peddlers selling things on the streets, ordinary people walking about, or nobles, they all understood that the glorious King of Kings' prophecy had been fulfilled and that the second King of Kings had appeared.

Tears poured out of countless people's eyes in excitement, and they directly knelt as they welcomed the second King of Kings. To them, the King of Kings was a legendary existence, someone countless Outlanders worshipped. Everyone knew about him.

At that moment, the Emperor Star gave off a green pillar of light that landed on Zhao Fu's body. Zhao Fu felt boundless Emperor Star power entering his body, causing his body to heat up and go through a transformation.

Within the secret realm, countless people looked at Zhao Fu within the pillar of starlight. They had never thought that Zhao Fu would be able to pull out the King of Kings Sword, become the second King of Kings, and also awaken the Outlander Race's supreme Emperor Star.

The Elephant person looked incredibly shocked and could not help but gulp. Thinking about his battle with Zhao Fu before, he felt a trace of fear; he had been fighting with the legendary King of Kings.

Yu Luohua also looked dumbfounded. Despite being so proud, facing Zhao Fu, she felt that she had to lower her head, and she felt incredibly helpless in front of him. It was as if Zhao Fu was standing at the summit of a large mountain and she was only at the foot of the mountain.

The Orc started to feel nervous as he stared wide-eyed. Zhao Fu had become the King of Kings; he was simply too terrifying. Fortunately there was no enmity between them, or else his Empire might have abandoned him.

The Three-Headed Ogre also stared at Zhao Fu in shock and inwardly sighed. No wonder he had such terrifying power; he was the future King of Kings, and now the Three-Headed Ogre did not feel dissatisfied about losing at all.

The Lion person also watched on in shock, and great waves crashed in his heart that could not be settled, causing his body to feel icy cold.

Hu Baimei stared at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes and thought to what she had said before, that her body was for the King of Kings. She had never thought that Zhao Fu would actually become the second King of Kings.

The Dragon person's expression was dispirited as he looked at Zhao Fu; in the future, he would always be looking up at Zhao Fu.

The Dwarf also felt quite shocked; Zhao Fu's strength was simply too terrifying, and now he had become the King of Kings. In the future, he had to try to be on friendly terms with him, as this would affect his future.

Before, Medusa had wanted to challenge Zhao Fu in the future, but now it seemed that she would no longer have this opportunity. The gap between them was far too vast, and she could only look up at him.

The Sun Elf's expression was somewhat unsightly; he had never could have imagined that Zhao Fu would become the King of Kings, the leader of the entire Outlander Race. This should have belonged to him, but it was now Zhao Fu's.

The young man with blood-red hair stared at Zhao Fu in shock. He could not pull out the sword, but Zhao Fu had done it. This meant that Zhao Fu had even greater potential than him, and it was the first time the young man had felt such a big blow.

Zhao Fu ignored all of the gazes and focused on absorbing that massive power, causing his body to go through transformations and for his bloodline to become even purer.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Terrifying auras descended, causing wild gales to blow out. More experts from other Domains arrived, as did more Outlander experts. They all personally saw the Outlander supreme Emperor Star descending.

The experts stood in the air, their bodies giving off terrifying power as they looked at the green star in the sky. None of them dared to do anything to Zhao Fu at the moment, because under the immense amount of Fate, they would receive an unimaginable backlash if they tried anything. Even a Half-Step Celestial could die.

They started to wait – the moment that the abnormal signs disappeared and the massive amounts of Fate dissipated, it would be their chance to strike.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Some people exploded out with immense power and started to attack the secret realm. Terrifying attacks slammed into the secret realm's defensive barrier, resulting in massive sounds. They wanted to break open the secret realm's tough barrier and enter in order to prevent that second King of Kings from running away.

The defending side hurriedly acted to stop them, and a battle once again exploded out. Terrifying auras spread out, causing the sky to darken and clouds to swirl and creating a terrifying scene.

Chapter 1716: King of Kings

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The battle between the two sides was incredibly intense and experts of both sides continuously joined in. This was perhaps the most intense battle with the most experts participating in the recent thousands of years.

However, things were not that simple, as even more experts gave off terrifying auras and headed over.

In the end, most of the Heaven Domain's experts came, giving off extremely terrifying auras. The space in the surroundings continuously twisted, unable to endure the descent of so many experts, the atmosphere became incredibly oppressive, making it incredibly difficult to breathe.

Now, the situation was incredibly disadvantageous for the defending side. They were surrounded by experts from the other Domains, and even though this was the territory of the Outlander Race, the experts from the seven other Domains had all come, and they were far outnumbered.

From how many people saw it, the Outlander Race most likely would not be able to protect the second King of Kings. It was such a pity that after waiting for the second King of Kings for so many years, he was going to die at the hands of the seven other Domains.

On the attacking side, an elder giving off massive amounts of demonic qi looked at the Outlander Race's experts with his jet-black eyes and said, "Hand over the second King of Kings or else you'll all die here, and the second King of Kings will still die at our hands."

The Outlander experts' expressions were quite unsightly. They felt immense pressure when facing the experts of the seven Domains, and they really could die here.

However, did they really have to give over the second King of Kings? He was the hope the entire Outlander Race had been waiting for for countless years. Moreover, if they just handed him over, it would be a humiliation that they would never be able to wash away.

The seven Domains' experts gave confident smiles. Now that the experts of the seven Domains were joining together to suppress the Outlander experts and force them to hand over the King of Kings, if they did not comply, they would force their way in and kill the second King of Kings. They would then seal the King of Kings Sword so that another King of Kings would never appear.

In actuality, if it wasn't for the fact that this was the territory of Outlander Ten College, one of the Seven Great Colleges that contained many terrifying things, they might have directly acted.

Now, the atmosphere became oppressive to the extreme, and a world-destroying battle seemed like it could erupt at any moment. The Outlander experts' expressions were all quite grim, and the seven Domains' experts stared them down.

Boom!

Suddenly, a massive explosion sounded out as a blood-red starlight spread across the sky and an aura of chaos and killing flooded out, causing the world to sink into icy terror. A massive blood-red star containing a terrifying might slowly descended.

The countless experts present looked incredibly confused, not understanding what was going on.

Boom!

Another explosion sounded out as boundless golden starlight spread out, dyeing the sky golden. An incredibly noble aura that seemed to be able to cause the heavens and earth to submit flowed out, and an enormous golden star containing terrifying power descended.

The countless experts' confusion transitioned into shock upon seeing this scene, and massive waves crashed in their hearts. However, the matter was not over.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Three more explosions sounded out, one after the other. A gray star giving off a boundless cold and eerie aura, a violet dragon star giving off massive amounts of devil qi, and a black star giving off boundless demonic qi, gradually descended with enormous might.

The Chaos Imperial Star, Celestial Emperor Star, Nether Emperor Star, Violet Sky Dragon Star, and Demon Lord Star all gave off intense light, covering the world and giving off an incredibly suppressive aura.

The sky was now dyed six different colors and six terrifying auras inundated the world, sending countless creatures into terror.

The second King of Kings was actually the person who had five Emperor Stars, the one who had caused such a big ruckus. He now had six Emperor Stars – how was this possible?

It was not just the seven Domains' experts looking at the sky in shock; even the Outlander experts were the same. They had never expected the Outlander Race's hope, the second King of Kings who they had been waiting for for countless years, to actually be the person with five Emperor Stars.

Within the secret realm, the various geniuses also stared in disbelief, including the Sun Elf and the young man with blood-red hair.

The geniuses had never expected Zhao Fu to have such a terrifying identity. They had discussed this before, why Zhao Fu hadn't used his Emperor Star in the fight. It turned out that he had five of them, and if he had used all of them, he would have easily crushed the Sun Elf.

However, Zhao Fu's identity would be exposed as a result and everyone would know that he was that terrifying figure with five Emperor Stars.

Now, it made sense why Zhao Fu had such a powerful Human Race aura, a terrifying Demon Race aura, and the powerful Six Paths of Reincarnation Power. Those five Emperor Stars explained everything.

The Sun Elf had never felt so defeated before. The battle with Zhao Fu had left him with the impression that as long as he became much stronger in the future, he would be able to defeat Zhao Fu.

However, it seemed that he had been completely wrong. Zhao Fu had not used his true power; if he had summoned the five Emperor Stars, he would have been completely crushed.

Now, Zhao Fu not only had five Emperor Stars but also the Outlander supreme Emperor Star and the King of Kings Sword.

The Sun Elf now felt immense despair. In front of Zhao Fu, his efforts and talent were all trash, and no one could compare to Zhao Fu. It was the first time that the Sun Elf had felt that he was completely inferior to someone.

The young man with blood-red hair also looked shocked. He had never thought that the Heaven Awaken World would have such a terrifying person – he now had six Emperor Stars, and five of them were the supreme Emperor Stars of five races. No wonder Zhao Fu had succeeded where he had failed – he now completely accepted his loss.

This matter was incredibly important and that person was definitely hiding some kind of shocking secret. The young man decided to tell his master about this person after going back. Even within a Holy Empire, such a person would cause massive waves.

The young man thought about his big brother, who looked down on the rest of the Heaven Awaken World. Now that such a terrifying person had appeared, even his big brother would be shocked; perhaps this person would become his big brother's most powerful rival.

Thinking about that, the young man grinned. It was time to go back and give his cold and proud big brother, who placed nothing and no one in his eyes, a big surprise.

As a younger brother, the young man had always lived in his big brother's shadow.

Chapter 1717: Outlander Race

Countless experts looked up in shock and stared at the sky. All of the fighting stopped and the surroundings fell into silence.

"Cough, cough!" The Demon Emperor Sect's Sect Master Di Jiang lightly coughed upon seeing the Demon Lord Star. "I think perhaps we don't have to kill this second King of Kings; perhaps we can talk things out."

Di Jiang's daughter, Di Moji, was in Zhao Fu's harem, so he would naturally stand on Zhao Fu's side. At the same time, he felt that this son-in-law of his was simply too terrifying. Putting aside the ruckus he had caused in the Demon Domain, he had now caused an even greater disturbance in the Outlander Domain, causing countless experts to gather.

Now, he had six Emperor Stars and had become the second King of Kings, the leader of the entire Outlander Race. As the father-in-law, he felt somewhat inferior to his son-in-law.

"I also feel that there's no need to rush about this; we should talk things out." A beautiful woman stepped out and gave a trace of a smile.

She was Yuan Ziyuan's mother, and she also stood on Zhao Fu's side because of Yuan Ziyuan.

At the same time, she was shocked at how her daughter had found such a person to be her husband. He was simply too terrifying, and even though he was still somewhat weak, thinking about his potential, she felt quite small in comparison.

Some of the Demon Race factions that were aligned with those two major factions or with factions related to Zhao Fu also stood on Zhao Fu's side. They all knew who Zhao Fu was and said, "There's no need to be so impulsive; it's best to talk things out."

This made everyone feel quite speechless. Just then, it had been the Demon Race that had been clamoring the loudest to kill Zhao Fu, and they had been fighting the most intensely. Now, they were talking about not rushing or being impulsive.

The cold-looking woman from the dragon palace in the Devil Domain gave off a powerful aura, walked out, and said, "I also feel that we shouldn't rush to kill that person!"

Everyone felt even more confused and looked at that woman; how come someone from the Devil Domain was saying the same thing?

In actuality, many people from the Dragon Race had been looking for Zhao Fu, as he had obtained the Billion Sovereign Dragon Imperial Bloodline, and he was thus the legatee of the Dragon Imperial Palace's Ninth Palace Master. He not only had the Billion Sovereign Dragon Imperial Bloodline but had also awoken the Violet Sky Dragon Star, so for all intents and purposes, he belonged to the Dragon Imperial Palace.

The cold-looking woman had never thought that they would find the legatee like this. What shocked her was that Old Ninth's legatee was truly terrifying. If he could become the ruler of the Dragon Imperial Palace, he would have countless supporters, which would bring unimaginable benefits to the Dragon Imperial Palace.

Because of the agreement between the nine of them back then, as the legatee of Old Ninth, Zhao Fu was qualified to be the ruler of the Dragon Imperial Palace.

The Dragon Imperial Palace was one of the most powerful factions in the Devil Domain. Now that this woman had stepped out and spoken, the Devil Domain's other experts also agreed, saying, "We also think there's no need to rush to kill the second King of Kings; it's best to discuss this matter first."

Everyone else inwardly felt outraged. Just then, the Devil Race had been fighting just as ferociously as the Demon Race, wanting to turn that person to ashes. Their attitude had changed way too quickly.

A man with a pale face and a horn on his head from the Death Race gave a sinister laugh, “I also feel that we should not be so hurried as to kill that person. After all, he has our Death Race’s supreme Emperor Star and the Underworld’s Six Paths Demon Images’ bloodline. He has an important connection to our Death Race.”

An elder giving off ghostly qi agreed, saying, “I also feel that this person is connected to our Death Race; we shouldn’t casually kill him.”

Some other people from the Death Race also stepped out and said, “Those words are reasonable. Since he has such a great connection to our Death Race, perhaps he’s from the Death Race. It’s best to clarify the situation first.”

Everyone felt quite startled; how come the Death Race’s people had also stepped out as well? Moreover, they were also saying not to hurry to kill this second King of Kings and deal with him after the matter was clarified.

A pleasing laughter sounded out from the Human Race experts and Feng Qianhuang from the Human Phoenix Empire stepped out, “In actuality, I also feel that we shouldn’t kill that boy. After all, he has the Human Race’s Celestial Emperor Star, and we can’t just let him die like that.”

Feng Qianhuang was lightly laughing on the outside but felt somewhat shocked inside. It seemed that her daughter’s taste was not simple at all, and she had chosen such a terrifying man. Moreover, she had long since sensed that he would definitely become a peerless figure who would shake the Heaven Awaken World.

It seemed that her daughter’s sense was completely correct, and it was her who had underestimated Zhao Fu. It was a pity that he had escaped back then.

If her daughter had been able to bring this boy back to be a concubine, that would have brought unimaginable benefits to the Human Phoenix Empire that could cause anyone to go mad with delight.

The Sword Sect’s Sword Master also stood out and said with a trace of a smile, “I also feel the same. We shouldn’t be so eager to kill and should instead talk with the second King of Kings.”

The Sword Sect’s Sect Master felt quite delighted. His Sword Sect had been searching for this person with the Celestial-Slaying Sword Intent this whole time, and he was finally going to see what kind of terrifying figure he was.

Back when his daughter had been describing how extraordinary this person was, he had felt quite shocked, but now he was completely flabbergasted. He had never thought that that boy would cause such terrifying waves after this period of time.

His daughter had been thinking about that Celestial-Slaying Sword Intent this whole time, and if they were compatible, he could consider allowing them to be together. Thinking about that, the Sword Sect's Sword Master could not help but smile.

Other people from the Human Domain also stepped out and said the same thing. Back when Zhao Fu had awoken the Celestial Emperor Star, many people had been looking for this person. Now that they had finally found him, it was quite likely that he was from the Human Race.

If the Human Race could have such a terrifying genius, the benefits to the Human Domain would be unimaginable. As such, they could not bear to kill someone with such heaven-defying talent.

The Outlander experts looked quite confused and had never expected the Demon Race, Death Race, Devil Race, and Human Race experts to help them. This made them feel incredibly startled and delighted; perhaps they would be able to protect the second King of Kings.

They were also quite shocked that the second King of Kings was the person who had five Emperor Stars. With him leading the Outlander Race, it would be difficult for the Outlander Race not to rise up, and it was possible that he would lead them into an even more glorious age than the first King of Kings.

However, some people were quite worried as no one could tell just what race Zhao Fu belonged to. Even though he now had a pure Outlander bloodline, he also had other races' bloodlines, making it so that they could not completely trust Zhao Fu.

Chapter 1718: Barrier

If he did not have a pure Outlander bloodline, they would not fully acknowledge him. After all, as the Outlander Race's King of Kings, he had to have a pure Outlander bloodline. Now, they were not sure what the King of Kings' attitude towards the Outlander Race was.

The Outlander experts felt quite surprised, and the God Race, Water Race, and Spirit Race experts felt even more so. Of the Heaven Awaken World's Eight Major Races, five of them now chose to protect that person, as if they had some kind of connection to him.

Now, only these three Races did not have any connection to Zhao Fu, as he did not have their Emperor Stars.

However, from how things seemed and how things had been going, that person would one day awaken those three Races' Emperor Stars as well.

When that time came, he would have the Emperor Stars of eight races, and adding on his own Fate Star, he would have nine Emperor Stars in total. This was quite terrifying.

Only a small portion of the experts were on Zhao Fu's side, as most people had come to kill Zhao Fu and get rid of his threat. Now, they were even more interested in Zhao Fu and wanted to kill him to obtain the various secrets in his body.

A ferocious-looking big man loudly laughed, "Since you're all of the opinion that we shouldn't rush to kill him, I'll agree with you as well. However, shouldn't we first destroy that barrier so that he doesn't escape?"

Most of the experts agreed with this.

Right now, the barrier was what was providing the most protection. Without the barrier, if so many people charged in, the Outlander Race's people would not be able to stop them.

When that time came, the situation would spiral out of control. Killing or not killing, or even taking by force, would be up to anyone. As such, most of the experts of the other Races wanted to break open the barrier and make sure that person could not get away.

Di Jiang understood what those people were thinking; once the barrier was broken, they would not be able to stop them at all. He laughed as he said, "I think it's best to wait outside. After all, this is Outlander Ten College's territory, and we should at least give them that much face."

Feng Qianhuang lightly smiled and said, "I feel the same. As one of the Seven Great Colleges, Outlander Ten College is an ancient and prestigious college, and we should show it the respect that it deserves. As such, we should wait until those abnormal signs disappear and that person comes out."

Feng Qianhuang wanted to let Zhao Fu off this time; if the barrier was destroyed, facing so many experts, Zhao Fu would definitely die.

The cold-looking woman with dragon horns said icily, "I agree. We shouldn't offend Outlander Ten College too much and should wait for that person to come out."

The cold-looking woman was also planning on letting off Zhao Fu this time. After all, if so many people charged in, she would not be able to protect him. As such, it was better to let him escape; perhaps she would be able to find him again in the future.

Perhaps he would head to the Devil Domain one day because of the legacy and find her himself, saving her the effort of looking for him.

The ferocious-looking man coldly laughed, "You didn't seem all that respectful just then, so why are you putting on a show now? Everyone, let's attack together and destroy the barrier."

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Massive explosions sounded out as the experts did not hesitate and exploded out with powerful auras and ferociously attacked the barrier. Some people tried to stop them, and the battle once again resumed.

The attacking side still had a great numerical advantage, and a portion of them tied down the defenders while the rest attacked the secret realm's barrier with great power.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Terrifying power blasted against the barrier, causing it to slightly tremble. As the barrier that protected the King of Kings Sword, it was incredibly powerful, and facing so many experts' terrifying power, it only lightly trembled. Ordinary barriers would have long since turned to dust.

However, the many experts continuously blasted the barrier, and it started to tremble more and more. If this went on, the barrier would still be shattered sooner or later.

At that moment, the six Emperor Stars in the sky gradually receded, the abnormal signs settled, and the world returned to normal.

Holding the King of Kings Sword, Zhao Fu returned to normal and awakened from that massive transformation. His eyes gradually opened and a ray of green light shot out as an extra green pupil appeared in his eyes.

Adding on that green pupil, his left eye now had ten pupils, and his right eye's cross-shaped pupil had an extra green layer to it.

In the distance, countless people looked at Zhao Fu in shock. The surroundings were completely silent and no one dared to make any noise. Zhao Fu ignored them, because through the Emperor Stars, he knew what was going on outside.

Right now, the most important thing was to get away from here. Zhao Fu did not plan to bring anyone else because that would only make escaping more difficult, and in the end none of them would be able to escape.

Fortunately, he had gathered everyone and left them in the care of the Dragon Princess and Elf Princess; they would take care of everything, so Zhao Fu would not have to worry about them. Right now, his biggest problem was how he would get away from here.

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu grinned and took out the teleportation medallion and tried to use it. However, he found that he could not use it, making him feel quite startled.

Soon, Zhao Fu thought of the reason – it was likely because the battle between the experts was too terrifying, causing space to become chaotic and for unimaginable power to blast out everywhere.

As such, Zhao Fu could not use this teleportation medallion, as it could not pass through the chaotic and destroyed space.

What should he do now? Zhao Fu felt quite startled, and seeing the barrier tremble more and more, many experts would soon rush in. When that time came, Zhao Fu would not be able to survive even if he had a thousand lives.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Loud explosions once again sounded out as terrifying attacks continuously landed on the barrier and powerful winds containing destructive auras spread out.

Crack!

A clear cracking sound rang out as a small crack appeared on the secret realm's barrier, and Zhao Fu's expression became incredibly unsightly. He did not know what to do next.

Sensing the powerful auras attacking the barrier, the other geniuses' expressions became quite grim. They did not know exactly what was going on, but they understood that there was a large group of terrifying experts continuously attacking the barrier.

The geniuses all felt quite shocked and started to run; only by staying away from Zhao Fu would they be able to stay alive. After all, everyone realized that it was because of the terrifying ripples that Zhao Fu had given off when awakening the Emperor Star.

Chapter 1719: Outlander Ten College

Moreover, even if that was not the reason, just those six Emperor Stars would cause countless experts to rush in and want to capture Zhao Fu in order to figure out what terrifying secrets he possessed.

The Sun Elf and young man with blood-red hair were tactful and also stayed away from Zhao Fu. In front of so many terrifying experts, they were completely helpless and might die here.

The other geniuses also looked at Zhao Fu sympathetically or with pity before quickly getting away from him. They did not have the strength to change anything, and even if they died at the hands of those experts, their factions would not be able to do anything about it.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive sounds continuously sounded out as the experts continuously used monstrous power to attack the barrier. Shocking auras spread out and more and more cracks appeared on the barrier. Soon, they would most likely break through the barrier.

Zhao Fu's heart sank, unable to think of any way to escape.

Seeing more and more cracks appear on the barrier, the experts grinned and attacked even more ferociously.

At that moment, within a house in the innermost depths of Outlander Ten College, a silver-haired elder slowly opened his deep, white eyes and looked out. His gaze seemed to be able to pierce everything, and nothing could stop it.

Immediately, the experts' bodies froze and they felt a chill in their hearts, as if there was an incredibly terrifying monster looking at them.

The silver-haired elder slowly raised a hand before pressing it to the ground, and a massive magic formation appeared as terrifying ripples spread out.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Shocking explosions sounded out as the 34 statues in front of Outlander Ten College gave off intense ten-colored light and exploded out with terrifying auras, creating a massive storm.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Rays of rainbow-coloured light shot out of the 34 statues, bringing with them terrifying power as they rushed into the sky and creating massive explosions. They formed 34 massive rainbow pillars of light, standing between the heavens and earth.

Boundless Heaven and Earth Power continuously gathered, flowing into the 34 pillars of light, and they quickly moved and surrounded the countless experts. A terrifying sealing power spread out, seeming to turn the heavens and earth into a cage.

The experts felt a terrifying sealing power seal their bodies, making it so that they could not move at all. They felt greatly startled and understood who had acted. Such a terrifying person was definitely Outlander Ten College's most powerful expert, the Headmaster.

This was a terrifying existence countless people revered. However, since the experts had acted, they were naturally prepared. They did not believe that the Headmaster could seal so many experts just by himself. Even though they were not higher-beings, they were quite close to that level.

They immediately joined forces and exploded out with terrifying power to resist that massive sealing power.

Outlander Ten College's Headmaster's expression did not change, and an unimaginable wave of power flowed from his body into the magic formation.

Boom!

An even greater sealing power landed on the countless experts' bodies, causing their bodies to sink. The experts burst forth with even more terrifying power, and aura flames appeared around them.

At that moment, an ancient voice sounded out in Zhao Fu's mind, "Hurry and use the teleportation medallion to leave. I can't suppress them for too long, and there are some truly terrifying people heading over."

Hearing this, even though Zhao Fu did not know who this elder was, he understood that he was helping him. He felt delighted and thanked the elder before using the teleportation medallion.

The teleportation medallion gave off boundless silver light and covered Zhao Fu's body, causing him to turn into a silver ray of light and shoot into the sky before disappearing.

Seeing the silver light, the countless experts felt quite startled before feeling furious. They understood that that person had escaped under the Headmaster's cover.

In the end, they could not do anything to Outlander Ten College's Headmaster as he was most likely a Half-Step Celestial, and he was even more powerful in his territory, Outlander Ten College.

If they started to fight, who knew how many of them would fall here? Since that person had already escaped, there was no reason to fight.

Following this, some of the truly terrifying figures descended, so the experts could only choose to leave. Otherwise, they would be in great danger. Those figures were people who stood at the peak, and even higher-beings had to take them seriously.

After those truly terrifying figures descended, a terrifying battle unfolded, after which everything settled down.

Not many people knew the details about the battle, because even ordinary higher-beings could not participate. That showed how terrifying it was.

As the teleportation medallion's silver light covered Zhao Fu's body, he flashed past countless worlds. By the time the light dissipated, he was in the inner Domain; he had travelled past countless worlds, and it seemed this teleportation medallion was quite powerful.

After successfully escaping, Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief. However, he did not stay here; after flying for a while and confirming that he was safe, he became at ease and took out the golden sword.

After taking out the sword, Zhao Fu only received some basic information about it. He knew that it was called the King of Kings Sword but did not know anything about its abilities or information. He needed to continuously stimulate this sword's power.

Zhao Fu was not an Outlander and had never heard of the legend of the King of Kings before, so he did not know much about this sword. However, he knew that it was not ordinary, because even that person with the Emperor Star or that Outlander Holy Son could not pull it out. If he could stimulate its power, he would definitely have unimaginable, world-destroying power.

Zhao Fu looked over the King of Kings Sword carefully before putting it away. He came to a Kingdom and asked around about this sword, and he was shocked at how terrifying the King of Kings Sword was.

Zhao Fu also asked someone to send a message to the women he had left behind in the Outlander Domain. Apart from the women with him in the secret realm, there were many other women waiting for him, such as Hu Shan, Niu Liuyun, etc.

Now that he was in the inner Domain, he naturally would not go back, so he asked them to meet him here.

A few days later, they arrived, and they looked at Zhao Fu with adoration and worship. The entire Outlander Domain had been shaken by Zhao Fu's actions, and there was not a single person who did not know about him.

Chapter 1720: Zodiac

"Husband, you're so powerful. You became the Outlander Race's King of Kings, and now we can't help but worship and respect you," Niu Liuyun said with a beautiful smile.

"Right after I met husband, I knew that he would definitely become a major figure who would shake the world," Hu Shan said as she hugged Zhao Fu.

"That's right! Thinking about how our husband is the King of Kings, to be able to serve him every day, we're so blessed. We're simply too lucky!" Lu Yu said happily.

The Centaurs all looked at Zhao Fu in worship and excitement. They had never expected Zhao Fu to become the second King of Kings.

The Centaur Prince felt quite shocked; back when his ancestor and father had told him to become Zhao Fu's servant, he had been extremely unwilling. Even despite Zhao Fu having a Divine Bloodline, he was not willing.

However, Zhao Fu was now a high and mighty figure, the leader of the Outlander Race in name. He did not feel unhappy at all, and he had completely accepted his position as Zhao Fu's servant.

At the same time, he was quite amazed at his ancestor's foresight, being able to tell that Zhao Fu was such a terrifying person.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed, "Alright, I'll bring you all to my empire. However, it might be different to what you've been expecting. In actuality, I'm just the ruler of a small boundary Kingdom, not the legatee of some powerful Holy Empire."

Those words caused everyone to look quite startled; they had never thought Zhao Fu's true identity to be something like this. However, they quickly smiled because they had already chosen to follow Zhao Fu no matter what.

Following this, Zhao Fu spent a bit more than one week travelling with his group before they arrived at Great Qin and concluded this Outlander Domain expedition.

This time, he had made great gains. In terms of goddesses, he had brought back a Wolf person Goddess, Orc Goddess, Naga Goddess, Centaur Goddess, Pigman Goddess, Chicken person Goddess, and Monkey Goddess – seven Goddesses in total. Adding on the 12 that Great Qin had already, Zhao Fu now only lacked five to open the Godly Spirit Door to the Godly Spirit World.

Zhao Fu also wanted to gather goddesses corresponding to the 12 Chinese Zodiacs, which were rat, ox, tiger, rabbit, lion, snake, horse, sheep, monkey, chicken, dog, and pig. Currently, he only had the Naga Goddess, Centaur Goddess, Pigman Goddess, Chicken person Goddess, and Monkey person Goddess. He still lacked seven goddesses; perhaps he would gather them in the future.

Apart from the goddesses, there was also the Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring, Stage 8 Splendor Night Silver Dragons, medicinal pills, Heavenly Kingdom Protection, and the King of Kings Sword.

Even though Zhao Fu had not obtained a great number of things, all of them were incredibly precious, and their quality made up for the lack of quantity. This was especially so for the King of Kings Sword. If he used its power against Outlanders, it would have unrivaled effects and was the most valuable thing he had obtained this time.

Zhao Fu first came to the Flower Region. There were countless different flowers there: red ones, yellow ones, green ones, and black ones. There was an incredible variety and they formed a boundless flower sea. The air was filled with the fragrance of flowers, and adding on the blue sky, white clouds, and colourful butterflies, it looked like a beautiful wonderland.

This place would be able to bring out the greatest effects of the Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring, so Zhao Fu came here to build the Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring.

He first dug out a large hole that was 100 meters wide and dozens of meters deep. He used jade bricks to line the floor and walls, and he carved them with runes that gathered large amounts of flower energy. He also placed beautiful and exquisite statues around it.

All of the statues were of women, and they looked incredibly realistic. They were not only there for aesthetic purposes but also to protect the spring.

Zhao Fu came to the bottom of the hole, took out the spring pearl, and placed it at the center. The pearl slowly fused into the floor, and the runes in the jade bricks came to life as the flower energy in the surroundings flowed into the hole.

Spring water containing a dense flower fragrance started to rise from the floor, and Zhao Fu flew back to the surface. The spring water continuously flowed out and quickly filled the spring.

“Ye’Er, is it done?” the 12 beautiful madams asked Zhao Fu, looking quite excited. As women, they were quite interested in the effects of this spring, and they hoped that it could make them even more beautiful.

Moreover, even though Zhao Fu had told them his real name, they still liked to call him Mo Ye. After all, this name held a special meaning to them and they were used to it.

Zhao Fu smiled and replied, “It should be ready now. Please go and try its effects.”

The 12 madams smiled and nodded before taking off their clothes and entering the spring. They immediately felt a mysterious power nourishing their bodies, and they gave happy and beautiful smiles.

The Flower Fairy came to Zhao Fu’s side, and Zhao Fu smiled as he brought her into his embrace and asked, “Do you want to try the spring’s effects as well?”

The Flower Fairy looked a bit shy as she replied, “As a Flower Fairy, the spring’s effects on me will be quite weak. Also, did you bring back any Wondrous Flowers this time?”

Zhao Fu said apologetically, “I didn’t encounter any Wondrous Flowers in the Outlander Domain. Also, doesn’t the Heaven Awaken World have Seven Wondrous Flowers, one for each race? It seems that there’s no Wondrous Flower for the Outlander Race.”

The Flower Fairy smiled and nodded, “The Outlander Race’s Wondrous Flower is incredibly rare, and barely anyone has ever seen it before. That’s why everyone thinks there are seven Wondrous Flowers and not eight.

“This Wondrous Flower’s name is the Godking Gold Flower, and it is a flower made of gold that contains powerful King’s Power. Also, the ground around where it is planted will become gold. This power will spread and can turn an entire world into gold.”

Zhao Fu could not help but chuckled; to ordinary people a flower like this would be a priceless treasure and give them unlimited gold. It was like an El Dorado that countless people dreamed of.

However, Zhao Fu was not too interested in gold. He was mainly collecting the Wondrous Flowers to help the Flower Fairy recover her strength. If Great Qin had a Celestial, Zhao Fu would be over the moon.

Following this, Zhao Fu left the Flower Region and found a vast, open space to set up the Splendor Night Silver Dragon Den.

Splendor Night Silver Dragons were a breed of Stage 8 dragons, and they were far more powerful than the Wyverns. Zhao Fu guessed that even a large group of Wyverns would not be a match for a single Splendor Night Silver Dragon.
