

The Lord 461

Chapter 461 – Thousand-Year Mission

The Ying family leaders did as Zhao Fu instructed and gave out Great Qin Writs with big smiles on their faces. Seeing the countless people gathered here, they felt that Great Qin's Legatee would be able to restore Great Qin soon.

This was the Thousand-Year Mission that had been handed down from generation to generation, and now, it was finally going to be fulfilled in their generation. How could they not feel ecstatic and overjoyed?

Before, they had been quite displeased that Great Qin's Legacy had been obtained by an outsider, and they had even refused to acknowledge that person and thought that it was a humiliation for the Ying family for such a thing to happen. However, now, they were delighted that he had obtained Great Qin's Legacy.

Now, who in the world could rival him? All of the other Dynasty Legatees were much weaker, and this person was destined to be as amazing as the First Emperor of Qin. With him as Great Qin's Legatee, this was the honor of the Ying family.

"What should we do? My son is in their hands, and if we do anything, they might just kill him, considering Great Qin's temper," a bearded middle-aged man said worriedly to the others.

Before, the governmental faction's people had been discussing how to deal with Great Qin, but they had suddenly heard about how Great Qin could take people from the real world into the Heaven Awaken World.

They had no idea how Great Qin had obtained this method. If the real world was devoured by the Heaven Awaken World and their bodies naturally entered the Heaven Awaken World, it wouldn't be such a big deal. However, now that Great Qin controlled such a method, it was simply too shocking.

A square-faced middle-aged man said, "Don't worry, Old Zhou. Your son will be fine. We'll continue discussing, and I'm sure that we'll give you a satisfactory answer."

Hearing this, the bearded middle-aged man let out a sigh of relief.

Within the Ancient Clans, an elder from the Xingtian Clan said angrily, "Great Qin's Legatee has gone too far; not only has he slaughtered our people, but he has also captured one of the Xingtian Clan's main family members as a hostage. Now that he has such a method, who would dare to become his enemy?"

Another elder said, "I told you long ago that Great Qin wasn't an enemy to be trifled with. Putting aside that time with the Chaos Imperial Star, we've done many things to antagonize him, so how could he not take revenge? Now, our only option is to carry out peace talks.

“Even though the Undead Disaster will greatly wound China, it will allow him to create an unending dynasty. Even though the Undead Disaster is sweeping through China’s territory at the moment, it will move on to other countries as well.”

The other elders nodded and agreed to carry out peace talks.

Within Flower Moon, a woman said, “Fourteenth Sister has been imprisoned by Great Qin. Now, it not only has the unstoppable Undead Disaster, but it also possesses such a terrifying method. No one dares to act against the Great Qin now. If we want to fight against Great Qin with our numbers, it’ll be equivalent to committing suicide.

“Also, even if we do act against Great Qin, Great Qin’s Legatee will immediately kill Fourteenth Sister. It’s better to ask for peace – the outcome is already clear, and there are no longer any factions that can stop Great Qin.”

The other women were also afraid of Great Qin because they knew that after opposing Great Qin, if they fell into its hands, the only outcome would be death.

In fact, their fate might be even worse than death – it seemed that Great Qin’s Legatee was interested in beautiful women, so if they fell into his hands, they would become toys for his pleasure.

As such, the women all agreed to go through peace talks as well.

Seeing this, the mature woman in the main seat could only sigh and say, “Alright, let’s carry out our plan to negotiate with Great Qin.”

“Big sis, can you leave this to me?” Su Yuyan suddenly asked the mature woman.

The mature woman thought about it and felt that Su Yuyan had a high chance of success, so she gave the power to carry out peace talks to her.

None of the factions were confident that they could stop Great Qin, and they started to seek peace. As many people went to carry out peace talks, the northern side’s Qin Resistance Alliance came close to total collapse.

Within the Great Qin City, Zhao Fu wore his black cloak as he sat high up in a chair with six people standing below. There were four men and two women, and they were important figures from various factions.

Back then, Zhao Fu had them brought back to be captives to show off Great Qin’s power to bring people from the real world into the Heaven Awaken World. Combined with the threat of complete destruction, this caused countless people to feel terrified towards Great Qin.

From the beginning, Zhao Fu had never cared about the ordinary people liking Great Qin or not. All he needed was for them to be scared and respectful towards it.

As for how he brought their bodies to the real world, it was of course through the Reality Fruits. Over the two days, the Reality Tree had grown ten Reality Fruits. He had used six to bring these people’s real bodies into the Heaven Awaken World, and he always kept one on him in case of emergencies.

The six people below nervously stood there, waiting for him to say something.

This was because they knew their bodies had permanently entered the Heaven Awaken World, and they could never leave. Once they died, they would die a true death, so their lives were in the hands of the person sitting above them.

Moreover, they knew who that person was – he was Great Qin’s Legatee, a violent and bloodthirsty person. There were countless stories of how terrifying he was, and under his pressure, they all felt quite scared.

Zhao Fu could feel how scared they felt, and he laughed as he said, “Don’t worry. I won’t kill you yet, depending on how your factions perform. Stay within the Great Qin City, and I won’t mistreat any of you.”

Hearing this, the six people let out a sigh of relief – it seemed that their lives weren’t in danger for now.

The young man who belonged to the governmental faction said, “In actuality, the Zhou family doesn’t intend on becoming enemies with Great Qin; we were simply forced by the circumstances. Please let me return, Your Majesty; the Zhou family will never oppose Great Qin again.”

After speaking, the woman from Flower Moon also said, “Flower Moon didn’t intend to offend Great Qin either; we just wanted to go about our business. Your Majesty, please let me go. Flower Moon will never stand against Great Qin in the future, and it will even help Great Qin as much as possible.”

The others all said similar things. They weren’t stupid – staying here could result in them dying at any moment, and they knew that after that disastrous loss, all of the factions gave up on being enemies with Great Qin. Their own factions also no longer had the heart to oppose Great Qin.

However, someone coldly harrumphed and uncaringly said to the five other people, “Weaklings!”

This person was from the Xingtian Clan – Xingtian was an ancient god of war, and he had the power to topple the heavens and the earth. He was extremely warlike, and the Xingtian Clan in the real world was extremely warlike as well.

When they heard him, the five other people felt quite displeased, but they all ignored him. With Great Qin’s terrifying Legatee sitting above them, they didn’t dare to make any trouble.

Chapter 462 - Imperial Concubine

Zhao Fu disregarded their words – since he had brought them to the Great Qin City, it was almost impossible that he would let them return alive, so he wouldn’t promise such a thing.

However, after looking at the person from the Xingtian Clan, Zhao Fu felt that he was quite courageous – he seemed neither servile nor overbearing, and even though his aura was weaker than Zhao Fu’s, he gave off a willingness to fight.

“I’ll consider it. You can leave now.” Even though Zhao Fu had already made up his mind, he didn’t directly refuse in order to give them a trace of hope and make them behave.

When they heard Zhao Fu as they were about to leave, the person from the Xingtian Clan suddenly yelled, "Great Qin's Legatee! If we had 30 million players in that battle and the Xingtian Clan had been leading the army, we definitely wouldn't have lost so bitterly, and at the very least, we would have taken down a significant portion of the Undead army!"

Zhao Fu frowned – the person from the Xingtian Clan was becoming more and more unruly, and it seemed like he was going to rebel.

"So what? There are no 'ifs' in war, only victors and losers. The victor was Great Qin, while the losers were all of you!" Zhao Fu calmly said as he looked at the young man.

"Hmph!" The Xingtian Clan's person coldly harrumphed as he yelled, "That's because Great Qin..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Zhao Fu pointed out with his finger. A terrifying energy shot out from his finger and sent the young man flying. He coughed up a mouthful of blood and collapsed to the ground.

Within all of Great Qin, there wasn't a single person who dared to speak to Zhao Fu like this. That young man had thought that Zhao Fu was some kind-hearted weakling; if it wasn't for the fact that he had a bit of value, Zhao Fu would've casually killed him just then.

The atmosphere within the hall became incredibly oppressive, and the five other people felt incredibly startled before subserviently lowering their heads, not daring to do anything as they thought to themselves, "Great Qin's Legatee is indeed incredibly ruthless and cruel!"

"Take them away!" Zhao Fu wasn't interested in these people anymore, and a few soldiers came to escort them away.

"Your Majesty, have those two women stay." Beside Zhao Fu, Xianru's eyes flashed with a violet light as she smiled.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt a bit surprised, but after thinking about it, he realized what she meant and waved his hand, signaling for the soldiers to take the four men away but to leave the two women. Seeing this, the two women started to feel a bit unsettled.

"They have Phoenix Qi?" Zhao Fu asked Xianru.

Xianru smiled and nodded as she replied, "They have quite a bit of Phoenix Qi; Your Majesty should start filling the Emperor Phoenix Statue with Phoenix Qi."

Zhao Fu looked at the two women: They were both in their early twenties and quite pretty. Their facial features were quite exquisite, and they had pearly white skin and slim figures. They were both decent beauties.

That wasn't the only reason they possessed a decent amount of Phoenix Qi – one of them was from Flower Moon, which was one of China's two most ancient factions. Flower Moon had appeared a bit after the Ancient Clans, but it still had a history that was thousands of years long. Not only was the faction quite big, but the Fate that it had gathered was also not weak either, or else it wouldn't have been able to survive for so long.

The other woman was the family leader of a large family, and because she had obtained the family's Legacy, the Fate she possessed wasn't weak either.

Only with a large amount of Fate would one develop Phoenix Qi – after his talks with Xianru, Zhao Fu knew more about Phoenix Qi now.

“What are your names?” Zhao Fu asked the two women.

The two women felt a bad premonition, but they were unable to disobey – they knew the consequences if they did that.

The woman on the left belonged to Flower Moon, and she was a sweet-looking beauty. She curtsied and said, “Your Majesty, my name is Miao Qianmeng.”

The woman on the right belonged to the large family, and she was a mature woman who also curtsied and said, “Your Majesty, my name is Bai Yiqin.”

Zhao Fu nodded and looked at Xianru, who had picked up a brush and quickly wrote on two pieces of paper before nodding to Zhao Fu.

“Let's go!” Zhao Fu walked down, and the two women obediently followed behind him. The sinking feeling within them grew, and Xianru followed behind them with the two pieces of paper.

Following this, Zhao Fu took them to a tall platform, which was the Heaven Prayer Platform. This was the first time that Miao Qianmeng and Bai Yiqin had seen a Legatee's Heaven Prayer Platform, and they both looked at it with amazement.

Zhao Fu went to the Emperor Phoenix Statue and took the two pieces of paper from Xianru before taking out the Imperial Ruler's Seal. Now, with the Imperial Ruler's Seal, which had a massive amount of Fate, he could make them imperial concubines. However, he had to go through the proper ceremony first.

“Stand there!” Zhao Fu looked down at the words on the paper before speaking to the two women.

When they heard this, Miao Qianmeng and Bai Yiqin immediately stood still on the spot and looked at Zhao Fu curiously.

Zhao Fu stretched out his hand, and a formless energy spread out, lifting the two pieces of paper into the air. They were spread out in the air, and Zhao Fu pressed the Imperial Ruler's Seal on each of the pieces of paper.

The two ordinary-looking pieces of paper immediately shined with majestic golden light and looked quite extraordinary.

“We, Great Qin's Legatee, the future ruler of the Great Qin Empire, confer on the both of you the title of Imperial Concubine of Great Qin.” After speaking, Zhao Fu waved his hand, and the two pieces of paper turned into golden lights that went into the two women's bodies.

Miao Qianmeng and Bai Yiqin couldn't react in time to what was happening – it seemed that they had been conferred the title of Imperial Concubine, and such a fast and simple process made them unable to react in time.

Zhao Fu looked at the two women, and after he gave them the titles, a phoenix's cry sounded out as golden qi rose out from their bodies, startling them.

This golden qi seemed to be attracted by something, and it floated towards the Emperor Phoenix Statue and entered it. After absorbing the golden qi, the crystalline Emperor Phoenix seemed to come to life.

The Emperor Phoenix flapped its wings and moved its body as it raised its head, looking like it was unaccustomed to moving. However, it quickly accustomed to its body, and soon, it gracefully flew into the sky.

Even though its body was made out of crystal, it gave off a golden light, making it look like a real phoenix, and the aura it gave off was also immense.

Zhao Fu was quite shocked – this Emperor Phoenix Statue had only obtained the Phoenix Qi of two women, yet it already had such power. If it gained more Phoenix Qi, it would become even more powerful, and if it had a massive amount of Phoenix Qi, it truly wouldn't be inferior to a Clan Armament.

Zhao Fu smiled and ordered some people to take Miao Qianmeng and Bai Yiqin away and to have them taken care of.

At that moment, Zhao Fu received a message from the real world, and he returned to the real world to take care of the negotiations. What he didn't know was that a massive crisis was slowly covering Great Qin.

Chapter 463 - Xingtian Clan

After returning to the real world, Zhao Fu saw that countless factions' representatives had gathered at the Ying family. A luxurious hall was filled with people, making the scene seem quite lively. The attendees were high-class, and they wore all sorts of gorgeous clothing and spoke about important matters.

As a young man walked in with a group of bodyguards, the hall quietened down, and countless people's gazes were gathered on the youth.

Zhao Fu agreed to negotiations because he wanted to reduce the number of obstacles in front of Great Qin. If he wanted to destroy all of them, it would take far too much effort and sacrifices, and they might fight to the death while resisting.

Great Qin primarily relied on the Undead Disaster, and although the Undead Disaster seemed invincible, if they were able to gather 20 million players who were fully united, it was still possible to destroy the Undead army.

The reason they lost that battle was because they had been overconfident and not united. Many of the ordinary people had never fought in an actual battle before, which was why they had been unable to work together as an army.

Zhao Fu wanted the Undead Disaster to grow to a point where no one could stop it. Right now, he felt that the scale was still quite small, and even though the northern side of the Midland Continent had roughly 2,000 regions, the Undead army had only passed through eight regions so far.

At such a speed, how long would it take for the Undead Disaster to sweep through the entire northern side? Or the entirety of China? And how long would it take to sweep through the entire world?

At such a slow speed, before it ravaged China, the Heaven Awaken World might have already devoured the real world. It was impossible for the system to allow it to continue developing like this.

As such, Zhao Fu wanted to speed up his advance by reducing the obstacles. After expanding the Undead army's scale and making it completely unstoppable, it wouldn't be too late to deal with them – rather, it would be much easier.

Zhao Fu said a few words on the stage, indicating that Great Qin was willing to negotiate peace. This allowed all of the representatives to let out breaths of relief. The representatives then rambled on about how wonderful peace was, how they shouldn't be fighting their own people, and how Chinese people should unite together.

Zhao Fu was bored and casually listened to those words, and some people even praised Zhao Fu for bringing peace to China, making him almost laugh.

Of course, Great Qin's ultimate goal was peace – however, right now, with all sorts of factions opposing him and everyone wanting to be a ruler, how could there be peace?

Zhao Fu said a few words in reply, and because he didn't completely trust these people, he gave out some conditions. If they wanted to oppose Great Qin, they would have to pay a price for it.

Before, Zhao Fu had wanted all of the factions to provide a hostage. However, after thinking about it, he realized that in front of massive profits, a member of the main family wasn't worth much, so it was better to just ask for benefits directly.

As for compensation, all of the factions could take such a thing – right now, their top priority was to bring back peace.

The compensation would be provided in the Heaven Awaken World, not in the real world. After all, if it was given in the real world, they would have to give it to the Ying family, and it was possible that the Ying family would have to suffer the hatred of the various factions.

Zhao Fu didn't want the Ying family to be destroyed – on one hand, they had behaved quite well and provided him with a lot of help in the real world. The Ying family wasn't too important to Great Qin's Legatee, but it was still good not to attract too much hatred.

This meeting concluded very quickly, and most of the visitors soon left. Now, only the people from six factions remained: Zhao Fu's six hostages came from these six factions.

A stalwart-looking young man walked over – he looked like a governmental official and gave off the aura of a military man – and asked, "Is Great Qin willing to release my little brother?"

Following this, the others also asked Great Qin to release its hostages.

Zhao Fu lightly chuckled before immediately refusing, saying, “They’re doing quite well and are having a good time in the Great Qin City; there’s no need for you to worry.”

However, a boorish elderly man with a white beard unhappily yelled, “No! You must release the person from the Xingtian Clan!”

Zhao Fu frowned – since they hadn’t accepted his good graces, his tone became cold, and he said, “It’s impossible for them to be released; this is the price your factions must pay for opposing Great Qin. If you can maintain good relations with Great Qin, we can consider releasing them!”

When he heard this, the white-bearded elder felt quite furious, and he clenched his fists, about to attack Zhao Fu. However, when he thought about the entirety of the Xingtian Clan, he resisted the urge and furiously stormed off.

Seeing this, the others also had no choice but to leave. However, one beautiful woman stayed behind – it was Su Yuyan.

Su Yuyan looked at Zhao Fu with a complicated gaze – at that banquet when she had first met him, she had taken notice of him because he was someone who Wu Qingniang had brought in. The Wu family was perceptive when it came to judging people, and the members of the Wu family were often surrounded by admirers. All of them had exceptional talent and potential.

As such, Su Yuyan had investigated Zhao Fu, but because she had found out that he was only a minor figure, she hadn’t paid him any attention.

However, she had never expected that this unremarkable minor figure would suddenly become the proxy leader of the Ying family and the representative for Great Qin’s Legatee, gaining the respect of all factions.

Furthermore, it was said that he had King’s Fate, but because two people with King’s Fate wouldn’t be able to get along normally, it seemed strange that Great Qin’s Legatee would treat Zhao Fu so well and give him so much power.

No matter how much Su Yuyan thought, she couldn’t understand this. However, with how Zhao Fu had played things, it was quite difficult for ordinary people to understand just what was going on.

As Great Qin continuously grew, Zhao Fu became more and more important, and after coming over, Su Yuyan smiled as she said, “Hello, Mr. Zhao.”

Zhao Fu recognized Su Yuyan – after all, she was a famous superstar, and he had known of her while he was still a university student. He had seen her at the banquet before, but they hadn’t interacted at that time.

“What is it?” Zhao Fu asked as he amicably smiled and nodded.

This wasn’t Zhao Fu giving special treatment; rather, anyone who treated him with courtesy would also be shown courtesy.

“I’m from Flower Moon; would it be possible to let my Fourteenth Sister go?” Su Yuyan didn’t try to hide her true motive.

Zhao Fu had long since guessed that Su Yuyan had an extraordinary background, but he had never expected her to be from Flower Moon. It was mainly because Flower Moon's people had always been in hiding for thousands of years, so unless one of them revealed it, it would be impossible to know.

Chapter 464 - Shocking Changes

Even though he now knew that Su Yuyan was part of Flower Moon, Zhao Fu wouldn't let Miao Qianmeng go because she had been conferred the title of Imperial Concubine, provided the Emperor Phoenix Statue with Phoenix Qi, and was more useful than the others. As such, Zhao Fu could only refuse and say, "Apologies, Miss Su. I'm unable to agree."

This surprised Su Yuyan, but she still smiled and said, "Flower Moon can support Great Qin to become the ruler of the world. With Flower Moon's support, things will be much easier for Great Qin."

This tempted Zhao Fu – if Great Qin had Flower Moon's massive support, Great Qin would have an incredible amount of resources and information, which would indeed make things much easier for Great Qin and would greatly speed up its development.

However, Zhao Fu still refused in the end. One of the reasons was because Miao Qianmeng's Phoenix Qi was quite important, and he also didn't want any factions to enter Great Qin yet. Only after Great Qin became truly powerful would he consider working together with Flower Moon.

Su Yuyan was quite surprised – after all, it seemed like there was no reason for Zhao Fu to refuse. Evidently, partnering with Flower Moon would bring Great Qin great benefits, so why would he refuse? After all, it was just releasing a hostage who didn't matter much in the face of massive benefits.

"Then can you tell me why you're refusing?" Su Yuyan asked as she looked at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed – how could he tell her? As such, he decided to end their conversation. "We won't be letting her go under any circumstances, so there's no use in asking. If there's nothing else, I'll be going now."

When she heard this, Su Yuyan felt quite shocked – from Zhao Fu's tone, it seemed like her Fourteenth Sister had become something important to Great Qin.

Could it be that Great Qin's Legatee had started to become interested in beauties and wanted Fourteenth Sister, which was why he wouldn't release her? If that were the case, her Fourteenth Sister would be defiled every day.

After thinking about it, Su Yuyan made a decision, and she said to Zhao Fu, "Mr. Zhao, I would like to use another person to trade for her!"

Zhao Fu felt a bit surprised and asked, "Who is it?"

Su Yuyan replied earnestly, "It's... Li Wu!"

When he heard this name, Zhao Fu almost laughed. Back then, Zhao Fu knew that Li Wu had been taken away by someone, but he didn't know who it had been. Now, he realized that it had most likely been Su Yuyan who had sent people to save him. However, Zhao Fu had never cared about Li Wu.

"Miss Su, do you really think that such an insignificant person can compare to an important member of Flower Moon? Great Qin doesn't care about Li Wu at all. I still have matters to attend to, so farewell."

After saying this, Zhao Fu took his people and directly left.

When she saw Zhao Fu walk away with his countless bodyguards, Su Yuyan felt quite helpless and could only sigh and leave.

Li Wu was currently in a villa. After Su Yuyan had found out that the Ying family wanted to kill Li Wu, she decided to save him and nurture him into a useful chess piece because she felt that he had some potential.

Li Wu felt quite embarrassed when he was saved by Su Yuyan. His splendid title of Great Qin's Legatee had been cruelly torn off, and now, he was nothing, merely an ordinary person.

In fact, he hadn't even known how to face Su Yuyan, but she hadn't said anything about that matter. After all, she had always known that he was a fake and instead encouraged him and allowed him to regain some confidence.

This made Li Wu feel quite grateful towards Su Yuyan. Now, he just wanted to develop his faction and marry Su Yuyan. However, what he didn't know was that Su Yuyan had almost sold him off.

Back in the Heaven Awaken World, Zhao Fu arrived at the eighth region. He stood in the air and looked down at the boundless ocean of bones, and he gave the order for the ocean of bones to split into four waves. The ten Disaster Cavalrymen were also split into four groups in order to guide the four waves of Skeletons.

The ten Disaster Cavalrymen rode on their Skeleton horses and drew their black swords, creating a formless ripple. The massive ocean of bones started to split apart, gradually moving towards different directions.

Now, Zhao Fu didn't have to worry about players allying together to attack the ocean of bones. Because of the Great Qin Writ, countless factions had just gone through peace talks, so it would be impossible to gather such massive numbers again.

Now that the ocean of bones had split into four waves that went into four separate regions, even though the Disaster Cavalry were split up and couldn't cast Undead Disaster, the Skeleton Mages could summon Skeletons and continue to develop the ocean of bones.

Once they reached a certain size, they would once again split, and the ten Disaster Cavalry would each be able to lead their own wave of Skeletons to attack other regions. That way, the speed of the Undead Disaster would become much faster.

The first wave of Skeletons had already reached the first region, and soon after, the second wave reached the second region. However, just as the third wave reached the third region, something unexpected happened.

A system announcement sounded out, and everyone in the northern side received it, surprising all of them.

“System announcement! A major event has happened in your region. The Undead Disaster has covered the entire northern side with a deathly intent, and all people who die will turn into Undead within three days. Killing Undead will give rewards, and all of the regions in the northern side will be temporarily opened. Everyone can freely travel between regions during this time!”

Zhao Fu was aghast. He didn’t pay much attention to the beginning of the system announcement, but the key part was the end – the northern side’s regions had temporarily been connected, which meant that the northern side’s players could freely travel to any region. With this, Great Qin’s biggest advantage was gone.

Before, Great Qin could’ve stood against all of China because the passages between regions hadn’t been opened. As such, the opposing factions were unable to gather together, so Great Qin could destroy them one by one.

They had been unable to resist, which was why they feared Great Qin. That was the only reason why they had backed down, or else why would they have submitted?

However, now that Great Qin’s advantage was gone, they could gather all of their forces together. Once the northern side’s factions were able to band together to attack Great Qin, Great Qin would lose without a doubt.

With Great Qin’s current strength, how could it resist them? There were roughly 300 million players in the northern side and countless villages owned by players.

With the Undead Disaster’s current scale, it was impossible to stop them – this system announcement completely screwed over Great Qin, and it made Great Qin, which had the absolute advantage, become the weaker side. Now, Great Qin was in danger of being destroyed.

Moreover, killing the Undead would give rewards, which would greatly attract people to attack Great Qin – this was simply too outrageous.

Even now, Zhao Fu had no idea why such a thing had happened.

After thinking about it, Zhao Fu concluded that perhaps it was because his Undead Disaster was too bloodthirsty and destructive, so the system had decided to suppress his side.

However, that resulted in great danger for Great Qin, and because Great Qin was in a disadvantageous position, the northern side’s factions would definitely immediately move. This matter was too serious, so Zhao Fu immediately returned to the Great Qin City.

Chapter 465 - Heavens Exterminating Great Qin

“Hahaha...” After hearing this system announcement, Su Yan couldn’t help but uproariously laugh, “The heavens are helping us!”

After all of the factions that had just negotiated with Great Qin received this system announcement, they all stopped what they were doing and conducted meetings.

The other Legatees all felt incredibly excited and happy – wasn't this the heavens exterminating Great Qin? If all of the northern side's factions allied together, how could Great Qin stop them? It would definitely lose.

No matter which Dynasty faction it was, facing so many factions, it would be impossible to win!

Great Qin had acted incredibly arrogantly and disregarded everything. It had killed countless people and committed countless crimes, and it was finally going to receive retribution.

The countless ordinary people who had been pressured by Great Qin all felt indescribably happy – the anger within their hearts was finally going to be released. After they heard the system announcement, all of the fear that they had felt disappeared.

Because of the changes in the northern side, Great Qin stopped distributing the Great Qin Writs and Holy Daughter Writs.

Now, the entire world's attention was focused on the northern side, waiting to see how the situation would develop.

Su Yan once again raised the banners of the Qin Resistance Alliance, using 'the heavens are exterminating Great Qin' to rally people to the alliance.

"This time, Great Qin will lose without a doubt; even the system is preparing a chance for us to destroy Great Qin. Are we going to let go of such a good opportunity? Do you want to forever endure Great Qin's tyrannical ways? Do you want to be trampled on? Do you want to forever live in terror?

"Don't hesitate and fight for our glorious future. Everyone who opposes Great Qin's ruthless ways, take up your weapons and fight. This time, Great Qin will definitely be destroyed; even if it has the Undead Disaster, it can't stop all of us."

Now that all of the northern side's regions had been connected, the countless players could gather together. As their strength gradually grew, an ocean of players that was extremely terrifying started to form.

All of the factions that had just negotiated for peace with Great Qin didn't hesitate to immediately join the Qin Resistance Alliance. Before, the players of five regions could somewhat reduce the Undead Disaster's numbers, so how could Great Qin win against the players of 2,000 regions?

Compared to a humiliating peace, these factions would much rather destroy Great Qin. Once Great Qin was destroyed, there wouldn't be any factions that would be able to threaten them in the northern side.

The heavens are exterminating Great Qin! The heavens are exterminating Great Qin! The heavens are exterminating Great Qin!

Countless players chanted this within the system main cities, and everyone was incredibly excited. The Great Qin Writs and Holy Daughter Writs had made countless people feel incredibly miserable, and they had only submitted because they feared the Undead Disaster.

However, things were different now – they could gather the entirety of the northern side’s factions. With such a massive force, let alone Great Qin, they would be able to crush five Dynasty factions. In just an instant, their aura was able to greatly suppress Great Qin.

On Great Qin’s side, they had become incredibly silent.

This time, Zhao Fu had completely miscalculated. The two Writs had aroused the fury of countless people, and there were many people who wanted to destroy Great Qin.

In actuality, it was the ordinary players who had forced Great Qin to issue the Great Qin Writ and Holy Daughter Writ – if they hadn’t involved themselves, Zhao Fu wouldn’t have issued those Writs.

Zhao Fu wanted to use the Undead Disaster and Reality Fruits to cause widespread terror and to force them to submit, but this had naturally also garnered their hatred. As such, Great Qin was not only facing countless factions but also countless players as well.

There was nothing wrong about the Great Qin Writ and Holy Daughter Writ, but because of this sudden turn of events, they drew a great amount of hatred to Great Qin, which Zhao Fu hadn’t expected at all.

Within Great Qin’s meeting hall, the atmosphere was incredibly tense, and everyone looked incredibly serious.

Wei Liao walked out and cupped his hands as he said earnestly, “Your Majesty, I believe that we should relocate the Great Qin City and its residents. Great Qin is unable to defend against such a massive force.”

Wang Jian also stepped forward and said, “This subordinate agrees with what Wei Liao said. As long as Great Qin’s foundation isn’t destroyed, there is a chance for it to be rebuilt.”

Bai Qi deeply frowned, looking quite serious. In front of this massive force, all tricks and schemes were useless. Even though he didn’t want to admit it, Great Qin had lost this time.

Zhao Fu felt quite frustrated as he sat above, and he sighed as he said, “Is there really nothing we can do to stop the northern side’s factions?”

The meeting hall fell silent, and no one could provide any ideas as to how to repel hundreds of millions of players.

Suddenly, Li Si walked out and cupped his hands as he said, “Your Majesty, how about negotiating with them? Right now, there’s no other way.”

“Your Majesty, if it’s negotiating, this subordinate is willing to go. I’m quite experienced in such matters.” Shang Yang walked out and lowered his head as he cupped his hands.

“Alright, you can all leave for now,” Zhao Fu said as he rubbed his temples.

Facing such a great crisis, all of the leaders had grim expression on their faces. They all obeyed and left the great hall, leaving Zhao Fu sitting alone as he sank into his thoughts.

.....

“Should we participate? Great Qin has been acting so overbearingly, so I feel that we should join them in destroying Great Qin. After all, Great Qin is definitely going to lose,” a square-faced man said to the other government officials seated around the table.

The others all nodded, signaling that they agreed – this was a great opportunity to destroy Great Qin.

“What about Old Zhou’s son? If we act, his son will definitely die!” a skinny middle-aged man suddenly said.

The square-faced man coldly harrumphed, “In the face of such an important matter, who cares about a single person’s life? Old Zhou’s son will be dying for his country.”

Hearing his words, no one else said anything.

Within the Ancient Clans, a white-haired elder said, “Who would have thought that the situation would change so quickly? This system announcement was simply too unexpected, and Great Qin will not be able to escape this time. What should we do?”

“We don’t need to do anything. Great Qin has acted incredibly arrogantly, so it deserves whatever happens to it. Even if it was us, we would be unable to stop so many factions,” the boorish white-bearded elder – the Xingtian Clan’s Chief – retorted.

The others thought about it, and because they decided that it wasn’t something they could affect, they could only sigh. Great Qin had been the Dynasty with the most potential, but now, it would meet such an end.

Flower Moon’s women were also discussing this matter. A fairly quiet woman said, “Let’s remain neutral – there’s no point even if we join, as Great Qin has already lost. If we don’t participate, Fourteenth Sister will at least be able to live.”

The other women nodded, and the mature woman also made the decision not to participate.

Su Yuyan hadn’t expected the situation to change so quickly and for the invincible Great Qin to fall to such depths.

The other Dynasty factions and Nation factions all supported the Qin Resistance Alliance, providing a massive amount of resources and money to boost its strength.

Chapter 466 - Deathly Intent

With their experiences from last time, the northern side’s factions didn’t dare to be even a bit careless. Even though they had an absolute advantage, they still made various preparations because they understood that they were facing Great Qin.

With how terrifying Great Qin was, it was difficult to say what terrifying cards it had up its sleeves, so they had to make sufficient preparations to utterly destroy it this time.

If they could truly destroy Great Qin, everything they had done would have been worth it. With the person with the greatest threat gone, their futures in the Heaven Awaken World would become more secure.

Moreover, there were massive benefits to be had by taking down Great Qin – just the four system main cities that it controlled alone were enough to make countless Dynasty factions feel incredibly envious. It was likely that it had other good things as well.

If Great Qin was able to create such a massive Undead Disaster and had things that could bring people from the real world into the Heaven Awaken World, it definitely had countless treasures of immeasurable value.

This was enough to make everyone go mad, and even if they obtained a single one of those treasures, they would benefit greatly. It was evident just how big of a temptation Great Qin was for them.

In order to obtain more items that could deal with the Undead, these factions begged the Buddhist Sect, the School of Taoism, and the forces of the Vatican within China's territory. There were many Chinese people who believed in God, so the Vatican's forces within China weren't weak at all.

As the northern side's factions made various preparations, Zhao Fu finally made a decision. His eyes became filled with killing intent as he muttered, "You've done this because you were afraid that I'd kill too many people... but if Great Qin dies, I'll drag the entire Heaven Awaken World to die with Great Qin!"

"Li Si! Shang Yang! Come in!" After making this decision, Zhao Fu called out to Li Si and Shang Yang, who were waiting outside.

Li Si and Shang Yang walked in, expecting Zhao Fu to decide to negotiate; otherwise, Great Qin wouldn't be able to resist its attackers.

The two of them said simultaneously, "What matters do you have, Your Majesty?"

Zhao Fu replied, "See how much food Great Qin has, and prepare enough for Great Qin for five years. Take care of the other resources as well. If there's not enough, you can buy more. Also, buy all Undead-resisting talismans on the market – this matter concerns the survival of Great Qin, so there's no need to be stingy with money.

"Also, have everyone in Great Qin stop working and quickly build an underground city underneath the Great Qin City, big enough to accommodate all of Great Qin."

After hearing these orders, it took Li Si and Shang Yang a while to process them. His Majesty wasn't telling them to go and negotiate but to prepare these strange things. However, since Zhao Fu had ordered them, they would obey.

"Yes, Your Majesty!" the two of them replied before quickly leaving.

Zhao Fu summoned the Black and White Impermanences and took them to the eighth region before setting his plan into motion.

The original plan was for the four waves of Skeletons to invade the surrounding four regions because there were very few players in those regions. Most of the players had died in the massive battle, and because the rest had been massacred by Great Qin, there still weren't many people within those regions.

The Skeleton waves should've been able to rampage through those four regions incredibly quickly, and because of the system announcement stating that corpses would turn into Undead after three days, this would've been of some help to the Undead Disaster. As the Skeletons were reinforced by deathly intent, their strength would have also increased.

Also, it was said that the corpses that turned into Undead after three days also included creatures that were near death, and this too would increase the strength of the Undead army.

However, the creatures that turned into Undead wouldn't have the disaster attribute, and they would be weaker than those that the Disaster Cavalry summoned. Moreover, the Disaster Cavalry wouldn't be able to guide them, but they would still roughly follow along with the rest of the Undead.

Even though the Undead army was split into four waves, the aura given off by the four waves wasn't any weaker, and they were just as terrifying as they entered the four regions.

Rumble...

The four waves of Skeletons flooded forwards, giving off terrifying sounds. They destroyed everything in their path, condensing an immense amount of deathly aura that followed them. As they moved forward, the ground lost its vitality, and grass and plants withered and died.

Under this terrifying aura, countless birds and beasts escaped madly, creating a beast tide. Feeling this living aura, the countless Skeletons became incredibly excited, and they eerily laughed as they rushed towards these living creatures. A massacre had once again started.

Following this, the boundless ocean of bones started to kill, but its scale didn't increase as almost all of the Skeleton Mages stayed in the eighth region.

In order to keep them behind, the Disaster Cavalry added all of the Skeleton Mages to the Skeletons they could control.

The Disaster Cavalry could originally command 300 Skeletons, and after becoming Lord class, they were able to control 3,000 Skeletons. With ten of them, they were able to control 30,000 Skeletons.

As such, Zhao Fu was able to directly control 30,000 Skeleton Mages, unlike the other Skeletons that could only be guided.

The four Skeleton waves madly killed everything in their way while Zhao Fu had the Skeleton Mages wait with him in the eighth region. He sat on the ground and cut his wrist, causing his blood to continuously drip onto the ground. The Black and White Impermanences performed hand signs, causing their hands to shine with black and white lights as they performed curses.

The northern side's factions had already successfully obtained the support of the School of Taoism, the Buddhist Sect, and the Vatican. The School of Taoism could provide a large number of talismans, the Buddhist Sect could buff items with Buddha's Light, and the Vatican could provide holy water and special equipment, which were useful against the Undead.

The School of Taoism, the Buddhist Sect, and the Vatican were all righteous factions, so they disapproved greatly of Great Qin after it created the Undead Disaster and caused so many creatures to die.

During the last battle, they had wanted to help the northern side's factions to stop Great Qin's Undead Disaster, but because of the Void Zones, they were unable to fulfill their desire.

However, things were different now – all of the passages between the regions in the northern side had been opened, and because they could freely visit different system main cities in different regions, they naturally became the greatest supporting force.

With their full support, the northern side's factions became much more powerful, giving them much more confidence.

It was not just the School of Taoism, the Buddhist Sect, and the Vatican supporting them; there were many other factions giving them their support as well.

For example, the School of Military sent many disciples to lead the troops, to organize the forces, and to take command of this battle. There was also the School of Confucianism – even though it wasn't very proficient in dealing with the Undead, it still sent over many items that could weaken the Undead.

Finally, there were also sects that specialized in dealing with the Undead, such as the Maoshan Sect. The Maoshan Sect not only provided items, but it also shared its experience and techniques, which were of great help to the northern side's factions.

Chapter 467 - Great Battle

At the same time, in order to prevent the players from fleeing once they saw the ocean of bones like last time, they started to give talks to develop their unity and battle sense.

This included praising the players who had joined for their righteousness and saying that they stood on the side of justice and were doing the will of the heavens. They listed all of the evils that Great Qin had committed, painting Great Qin out to be an incredibly evil faction that couldn't be forgiven for its crimes.

This was quite effective, because the Undead Disaster, Great Qin Writ, and Holy Daughter Writ had already caused many people to hate Great Qin, and now, that hatred fuelled the players' battle intent.

Moreover, this had also boosted the players' confidence, making them think that they could definitely win. As such, they also told them about all of the factions supporting them, making it seem as if the entire world was helping them.

These methods were all fairly effective, and the unity and confidence of the player army were far greater than the one from last time. This was of great importance because of their massive numbers – if the players weren't unified and didn't want to fight, they would definitely lose.

The northern side's factions rapidly prepared, and suddenly, some people started to propose that since they had so many people gathered together and had a massive advantage, they should take this advantage to attack Vietnam and Thailand; there would be no one who could stop them.

Those people said that perhaps they would be able to destroy the other nations, and even if they couldn't, they would be able to heavily injure those nations, making it impossible for them to resist China.

However, no one paid any attention to those people – right now, they only wanted to destroy Great Qin. No one was thinking about other countries right now, and they all believed that as long as they could destroy Great Qin, nothing else was important.

On Zhao Fu's side, he spent most of his time sitting on the ground. He would occasionally cut his wrist, causing blood to drip onto the ground. Zhao Fu's body would become thinner at a speed noticeable by the naked eye, and his face would become pale.

Great Qin was also working as fast as possible, continuously digging downward to create an underground city.

The four Skeleton waves had already passed through the four regions, and Zhao Fu once again ordered for them to be gathered together to invade the next region before returning to the eighth region.

The northern side's factions and Great Qin were anxiously preparing, and the whole world was paying attention to them. No one dared to relax because they could feel the tense atmosphere spreading in China's northern side.

As for the battle that was about to erupt, almost everyone believed that Great Qin would lose, as it were facing simply too many enemies.

Of course, all of the foreign factions were watching with great interest, as Great Qin's Legatee was also a great threat to them. Currently, a big part of why they feared China was because of Great Qin's Legatee because he was simply too brilliant, making them feel quite weak.

Now, one of their greatest threats was about to be destroyed by his own people, allowing them to finally relax and breathe.

Another three days later, the northern side's factions grandiosely started their attack.

This time, they had gathered 170 million players, and with such a large force, it seemed enough to be able to kill a god.

Such a massive gathering of players was simply terrifying, and at a glance, they seemed to go on for as far as the eye could see. The army seemed like an ocean of people, and its scale had already surpassed the ocean of bones' scale.

Su Yan personally came to this battle to direct the battle with the other leaders. Before, he had planned to directly go to the Forest of Horrors to destroy Great Qin in one fell swoop, but the eighth region blocked their way and all of the surrounding regions were cut off as if there was some sort of barrier preventing them from teleporting in. If they wanted to go around, it would be easy for the Undead army to flank them and destroy them, so they had to enter the eighth region and battle head-on with Great Qin.

Right now, the only thing that Great Qin had to stop the player army was the Undead Disaster. If they destroyed the Undead Disaster, Great Qin wouldn't have the power to resist, and it would be incredibly easy to destroy Great Qin.

Everyone agreed with Su Yan's decision and took the massive player army into the eighth region. After returning to the eighth region and thinking about how their forces had been utterly destroyed last time, all of them wanted Great Qin to pay ten times over.

The eighth region had been occupied by the Undead army for a long time, making it so that there wasn't even a trace of life left. All of the grass and plants had withered and decayed, and the ground was now gray and gave off traces of a deathly aura.

The sky was covered by a gray layer of clouds, which didn't let even a bit of light to pass through. The surroundings were quite dark, and the entire region was filled with an eerie and chilly aura as if it was a true land of ghosts.

Because of the size of the ocean of players and the ocean of bones, they quickly met within the eighth region.

On one hand, the ocean of players gave off an incredible aura, and the players' voices yelling together sounded like berserk thunder. As they marched forward, the ground seemed to shake, and everything in front of them seemed incredibly weak.

On the other side, the boundless ocean of bones gave off a deathly aura that reached the skies, and their black spirit flames continuously flickered within their heads. Their eyeless sockets looked at their enemies ahead as they eerily laughed.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the ocean of bones attacked first. Countless Skeletons ferociously flew forwards, and ten black pillars of light shot out as a massive black magic formation appeared in the sky, causing an aura of disaster to spread out.

The ocean of bones, which was charging forwards in a berserk manner, gave off a large amount of a black aura, instantly turning it into an ocean of black bones. The black Skeletons' auras became even more powerful and evil, and they gave off an overwhelming aura as they rushed ahead.

Facing the terrifying ocean of black bones, the ocean of players didn't show any weakness. Su Yan confidently smiled and said to the people beside him, "Everyone, it's time to act!"

The people nodded and brought teams of people to the center of the ocean of players.

A middle-aged Confucian man brought a group of people who gave off scholarly airs as he yelled, "Confucian disciples, heed my orders!"

All of the Confucian disciples' expressions became austere as they took out a book and flipped it open, and rays of azure light shot into the sky.

Boom!

A deep explosion sounded out as a massive book that gave off an azure-colored light appeared in the sky, giving off a boundless aura. There seemed to be the faint sound of a sage reading the words aloud, and those who were covered by the azure light felt an aura of righteousness cover them. They no longer felt as nervous or scared.

A kind-looking old monk also brought a group of people to the center. The old monk clasped his fingers together and said in a loud and resonant voice, "Amitabha!"

Buddha's light shined from the old monk, and the other monks also followed suit and radiated buddha's light as well.

Chapter 468 - True Catastrophe

Boom!

Another explosion sounded out as Buddha's image, which gave off a boundless light, appeared in the air and gave off a benevolent and majestic aura. Buddha's light appeared around countless peoples' bodies, resisting the gray deathly aura around them. Everyone felt a warmth around their bodies, and no longer felt cold.

A pure and beautiful-looking woman also brought a group of white-robed people to the center of the ocean of players. He made the sign of the cross as the other Vatican members did the same, and their bodies gave off waves of a holy white light.

Boom!

Another massive explosion resounded as an angel that gave off an intense white light slowly descended from the sky. Under the white light, countless people felt a peace within their hearts, and they were given a holy light power that could deal a massive amount of damage against the Undead Disaster.

At the same time, the countless players also used various talismans to obtain all sorts of buffs.

After obtaining so many power-ups, the player army's aura wasn't inferior to the Undead army's, and countless people roared as they rushed up to meet the ocean of black bones.

Boom!

Another shocking explosion sounded out as the ocean of black bones and ocean of players clashed together. It was as if two worlds were colliding, giving off an incredibly terrifying sound.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sound of countless weapons clashing together rang out, and blood and bones flew all over the place. The Skeletons showed no fear at all, and they mercilessly killed the people in front of them. The players weren't afraid either, and with their various buffs, they continuously killed the Skeletons.

Corpses and skeletons littered the ground, and the battle of the two worlds didn't weaken at all.

The countless Skeletons gave off a life-exterminating aura as they ferociously attacked the countless humans in front of them. The players' wills were just as strong, and they didn't give an inch as they fought back. The players and Skeletons continuously died, and the corpses and skeletons beneath their feet continuously gathered.

The battle was incredibly intense, and the Skeletons ruthlessly killed the players as the players vigorously destroyed Skeletons, neither side backing down. Both sides held an unstoppable momentum, and the battle remained at a stalemate.

"The heavens are exterminating Great Qin!" a big man from the School of Military yelled as he swung his large saber and rushed towards the countless Skeletons. Seeing this, everyone else felt impassioned, and they also started to yell the same thing.

In that moment, the players' morale soared to new heights, and countless people felt an anger within their hearts. They would make Great Qin pay everything that it had done to them ten times over. They vowed to destroy Great Qin in order to relieve the hatred in their hearts, and now, that the heavens had given them this chance. All of China was supporting them, and they were confident that they could definitely defeat Great Qin.

Following this, the players continuously rushed up, and the ocean of black bones started to show signs of weakness. Even though many Skeletons still furiously rushed up, their numbers started to dwindle, and their momentum decreased. They were slowly being pushed back by the ocean of players.

Seeing this, Su Yan and the other leaders all smiled – the terrifying Undead Disaster was finally showing signs of weakness. This made them feel incredibly proud, and they felt even more confident in their ability to destroy Great Qin.

Under the massive black magic formation, Zhao Fu stood in the air, his black cloak fluttering. Currently, Zhao Fu's state was a bit strange.

His body had become a gray-white color as if there was no more blood in him. It was as if he was all skin and bones, and his sunken eyes were blood-red and gave off a ferocious aura.

Boom!!

Zhao Fu pointed forward with his finger, and the Disaster Cavalry raised their black swords. In that moment, hundreds of thousands of Skeleton Cavalrymen gathered together and mounted a terrifying charge towards the ocean of players.

The charge of hundreds of thousands of Skeleton Cavalrymen was incredibly terrifying, and it shocked the entire battlefield. It was a wave of raw, unstoppable power.

Facing this onslaught, the countless players couldn't help but feel some fear.

Seeing this, Su Yan continued to smile confidently as he said, "Let's use that!"

The others looked quite relaxed and smiled as they nodded before giving out the order for the 200,000 or so players to fire their arrows.

After being shot out, these arrows turned into streaks of white light, and they landed among the Skeleton Cavalrymen. Countless blinding white lights exploded, causing shocking holy light power to burst forth.

Under the white light, countless Skeleton Cavalrymen howled, and a large amount of a gray aura rose out from their bodies as their bodies crumbled, as did their Skeleton horses.

In just an instant, the seemingly-unstoppable Skeleton Cavalry charge had been completely annihilated, leaving behind a massive number of bones. It was unknown just what they had used for their arrows to have such immense power.

What Zhao Fu didn't know was that each of these arrows had a Holy Light Crystal bound to it. Those Holy Light Crystals contained an incredibly powerful holy light energy, and they could deal a massive amount of damage to Undead and evil creatures. Each crystal cost 20 gold coins, so shooting 200,000 of them had cost roughly four million gold coins.

It could be seen that in order to destroy Great Qin, the northern side's factions had paid an incredible price. Luckily, there were countless other factions supporting them, or it would've set them back significantly. After all, four million gold coins were equivalent to 400 million copper coins, or $4 billion in the real world.

After shooting out the first wave of Holy Light Crystals, the 200,000 or so Archers each took out another Holy Light Crystal arrow and shot towards the boundless ocean of bones.

Bang, bang, bang...

Explosions continuously sounded out, and blinding white light exploded out as the Skeletons continuously howled and died, turning into piles of bones.

Following this, the 200,000 or so Archers each took out yet another Holy Light Crystal arrow and shot the arrows towards the ocean of bones, and as more white lights exploded, even more Skeletons died.

The massive player army relied on the Holy Light Crystals to furiously attack the Skeletons, causing the Undead Disaster to start collapsing.

Even though the Skeletons still fearlessly rushed up, they were unable to stop the massive player army any more, and their numbers continuously dwindled.

In the end, only a few million Skeletons were left, and this signified that the Undead army had lost.

Zhao Fu could only sigh – in the end, Great Qin had still lost.

Su Yan and the various leaders laughed in delight – the situation was already set, and Great Qin had lost. Now, Great Qin no longer had any strength to fight back.

The countless players felt incredibly ecstatic. They had finally paid Great Qin back for its oppression and tyranny, so they naturally felt quite good.

One of the northern side's faction leaders loudly laughed and yelled, "Great Qin's Legatee, you've lost! Serves you right for daring to act so domineeringly and arrogantly, not putting us in your eyes at all. This is the price you pay! Today, we'll definitely destroy Great Qin, and it'll be useless even if you kneel and plead for mercy."

Su Yan smiled as he looked at Zhao Fu in the distance, and he didn't say anything. Today, he was going to destroy Great Qin and kill Great Qin's Legatee.

The others also looked at Zhao Fu in the distance with mocking looks. Great Qin's terrifying and monstrous Legatee had been reduced to such a state.

Zhao Fu's blood-red eyes coldly looked at them, and he slowly raised his hand as he said hoarsely, "All of you forced me to do this. Now, I want everyone in the Heaven Awaken World... to die!"

Chapter 469 - Annihilating Calamity

BOOM!!!!!!

A massive explosion rang out, and it was as if everyone in the Heaven Awaken World heard it and looked north.

Pendragon's Legatee, Roman Empire's Legatee, Egypt's Legatee, Great Xia's Legatee, Great Shang's Legatee, School of Taoism's Sect Master, School of Yin Yang's Sect Master, Buddhist Sect's Head Monk, the Vatican's Pope...

Countless people seemed to detect something, and it was as if an annihilating calamity was about to descend. Their expressions became one of panic as they quickly said, "Everyone, get out of the Heaven Awaken World!"

Everyone didn't understand just what had happened for their leaders to become so panicked, but they still obeyed and tried to heave. However, they received a system announcement. "System announcement! Due to abnormal changes, you are unable to leave the Heaven Awaken World..."

System announcements continuously sounded out as it was already too late.

Everyone watched as a massive blood-red star that gave off a boundlessly terrifying aura slowly descended from the sky.

The blood-red star gave off a devilish, evil, bloodthirsty aura, and the sky seemed to be dyed red. The redness continuously spread until it seemed as if the entire Heaven Awaken World had become blood-red.

Some ordinary people had no idea what was happening, and they looked up at the blood-red sky, wondering just what was going on.

Within the eighth region, countless people looked at the blood-red star in shock and felt an ominous feeling. Su Yan also felt that things were bad, and a wave of fear spread through his heart.

Following this, a truly terrifying thing happened.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sound of massive chains could suddenly be heard. Because everyone had gone silent, the sound seemed incredibly loud. Zhao Fu's raised arm, which was incredibly withered and wrinkled, shot out five chains, and those five chains shot into the ground like bolts of lightning.

The ground instantly cracked, and a soul-freezing chilling intent rushed out from the ground, causing everyone to feel as if they had fallen into an icy cavern.

The ground started to suddenly tremble as massive demonic hands that were hundreds of meters long stretched out and pressed against the ground. Massive holes appeared in the ground as terrifying bodies climbed out of the ground.

Six incredibly terrifyingly suffocating auras rippled outward, and the countless people felt as if they were just a small boat on top of a raging ocean. Their bodies continuously trembled from the terror that they felt in their souls, and even buddha's light was of no use to calm their hearts.

The six demon god images crawled up out of the ground and appeared before everyone.

These six demon god images were thousands of meters tall, and there was a chain around each of their necks. Each of their bodies gave off a demonic flame that reached the sky, giving off a mighty aura of suppression. In front of these six demon god images, everyone seemed incredibly weak and small.

The demon god images were all different – apart from the Asura Demon Image wearing battle armor and holding a spear, there were five other demon god images.

Hell Demon Image!

Its appearance looked like a demon fiend, and it had a muscular body and black skin. It was completely naked. Tongues of flame occasionally appeared on its body, and it gave off the smell of sulfur. There were two black horns on its head, and it held a trident.

Hungry Ghost Demon Image!

This demon god image looked like a skinny person without any muscles. Its four limbs were quite long and thin, and its stomach was incredibly big and round. It had gray skin and a twisted, ugly face, and its ears were also quite sharp. Its gray-white eyes were filled with ferocity, and there was a piece of cloth around its waist that covered its lower body. It also held a large bone knife.

Human Demon Image!

It looked like a human with a handsome face and a fine-looking body, and it wore white clothes and had a blood-red sword. Its eyes were also blood-red, and it gave off a dense killing intent.

Heaven Demon Image!

This demon god image looked like a demon fiend with pure-black eyes and sharp teeth, and it also had a pair of large wings and a tail. It was dressed in black armor and held a large halberd.

Animal Demon Image!

It was humanoid and had a muscular body that was tall and sturdy. It had gray-white skin and three heads – one was a chicken head, one was a duck head, and one was a pig head. It had a beast skin wrapped around its waist, and its body gave off an immense amount of power.

These were the Six Paths Demon Images, and the auras that they gave off were all abnormally powerful – after all, each one had been summoned using tens of millions of lives. That was why the Undead Disaster hadn't become bigger after going through four more regions – Zhao Fu had used all of the corpses to summon them.

After being summoned, these demon god images couldn't be controlled just like the Aura Demon Image. Just like wild beasts, they wanted to kill and destroy everything. Zhao Fu could only use his blood to strengthen his control over the demon god images and use the King's Crown's chains to help, which helped him finally control them.

That was why Zhao Fu looked like a skeleton right now – in order to control the Six Paths Demon Images, Zhao Fu had lost a lot of blood and was in an extremely weak state, and his life was in danger at any moment.

The Chaos Imperial Star was formed from the Chaos Demon Star and the Myrtle Imperial Star. Both of these stars were quite powerful – because one represented Kings and the other represented boundless disaster, their combined power was even greater.

Back when the Chaos Imperial Star descended, it had been incredibly terrifying, and it had been quite difficult for Zhao Fu to summon it. Because of how powerful it was, if Zhao Fu wasn't careful, it was easy for him to receive a backlash.

The Six Paths Demon Images were an extremely powerful force within the Underworld – they were powerful enough to kill gods and cause all undead creatures to feel fear. Ordinary people wouldn't be able to control them, which was why it was a forbidden technique.

Zhao Fu had used countless creatures' corpses and blood to summon them, causing them to have such terrifying power.

Now that the Chaos Imperial Star's power and the Six Paths Demon Images' power had combined, even Zhao Fu had no idea how powerful they would be. The power would definitely be of a world-ending nature, dragging the entire Heaven Awaken World into a crisis. After all, it had made it so that people were unable to leave.

Feeling this power, the various Legatees, leaders, and Sect Masters felt incredibly panicked and told their people to leave the Heaven Awaken World. However, it was too late.

Now, they all looked seriously towards the north – even those far away could detect those terrifying ripples, making them feel incredibly shocked.

This terrifying disaster was most likely caused by Great Qin's Legatee as well, but this power was simply too monstrous. In fact, it was probably impossible to destroy Great Qin, and countless corpses would litter the ground. The entire northern side would be heavily wounded, and even if it wasn't completely destroyed, it would at least be incredibly ravaged.

Even though they knew that it was incredibly dangerous in the northern side, none of them had realized that they were all in danger as well.

Chapter 470 - Six Paths Demon Images

Within the eighth region, countless people looked up in terror. Under the massive blood-red star, Zhao Fu was standing in the air with six chains extending out of his arm, connecting him to the six shocking demon images whose auras seemed to cause the entire world to tremble.

Everyone sank into fear, unable to escape. Some of the more cowardly people collapsed to the ground, paralyzed, and wet their pants.

The ocean of bones had killed roughly 70 million players, and there were corpses and bones all over the ground. Nearly 100,000 million players were left, which was still a dark ocean of people.

Su Yan yelled, "We have a lot of people and many buffs. There are only six of them, so don't feel afraid! Charge! As long as we kill Great Qin's Legatee, everyone will receive great rewards!"

All of the leaders also yelled, convincing the players that right now, their only option was to kill Great Qin's Legatee.

When they heard this, the countless players felt that what they were saying was right – they had 100 million players, while the other side, including Great Qin's Legatee, had only seven people. With so many people, they would be able to suffocate Great Qin to death.

The players suppressed their fear and roared as they rushed towards the Six Paths Demon Images. The massive ocean of players gave off an incredible aura as they flooded forwards.

Zhao Fu stood in the air, and because of the Chaos Imperial Star, his eyes were like a pair of rubies that gave off a bright blood-red light. His eyes were icy cold without any emotions, and they were only filled with bloodlust.

Facing the ocean of players, the Asura Demon Image in the middle stepped out, causing the ground to shake, and it gripped the spear in its hand and swept out with it.

BOOM!!

A massive explosion sounded out as the spear seemed to tear through space, creating a super wind storm. Within 10,000 meters, everything, including people and rocks, was obliterated, and everyone outside of the 10,000-meter radius was sent flying.

This super wind storm caused the massive ocean of players to pause, and at the same time, the terrifying power wiped out a portion of the ocean of players, causing countless deaths.

The forces from the School of Confucians, the Buddhist Sect, and the Vatican did their best, wanting to help the other people. Their bodies gave off different types of aura, adding to the different abnormal signs in the sky.

The book giving off an azure light that became a bit brighter, and the sound of the sage reading out loud became louder, giving everyone a feeling of boundless righteousness.

The Buddha's light became even brighter, and the voice chanting scriptures also became louder as if it wanted to rid the world of evil and cleanse the world.

The angel in the sky spread its pure-white wings and gave off a blinding white light. Everyone felt a calmness in their hearts as the boundless white light shined on them, blocking off the evil around them.

The three factions' buffs were somewhat effective, and because everyone immediately felt less fear, they put in all of their efforts as they rushed towards the Six Paths Demon Images.

Clang!

The Human Demon Image cruelly smiled as it drew the blood-red sword at its waist and gripped the sword with both hands. It raised the sword high into the air and sent a massive amount of power into it, causing it to shine with a resplendent blood-red light.

Boom!!!

The Human Demon Slashed out, seeming to rend the heavens and the earth, and a massive blood-red sword light swept forwards like a massive river. Wherever it passed by, no one survived, and a 100,000-meter long sword gash that was hundreds of meters deep appeared on the ground.

The Human Demon Image had aimed for the people from the three factions, so no one from the School of Confucians, the Buddhist Sect, or the Vatican survived; not even their corpses remained.

Boom!!

Another loud explosion rang out as the Animal Demon Image also attacked. It punched the ground, creating countless cracks, and an energy blade flashed out, traversing 10,000 meters and causing countless people's bodies to explode into a bloody mist.

The Hell Demon Image also attacked. It evilly laughed as it gripped its trident and pointed it at the ocean of players. A black mist moved towards the ocean of players, and it covered hundreds of thousands of people in an instant. Those within the black mist all cried out, and after it passed, only dry corpses remained.

The Hungry Ghost Demon Image also eerily laughed as it continuously swung its bone knife, sending out gray-white sword lights. The players who were hit were immediately split in two, causing blood and guts to cover the ground, making the scene incredibly gory.

Finally, the Heaven Demon Image also attacked. Its face was incredibly cold as it stabbed upwards with its halberd, causing a massive explosion of air.

Swish, swish, swish...

The sound of the air being torn could be heard as countless transparent spears rained down torrentially, nailing players to the ground.

Once the Six Paths Demon Images attacked, they had killed millions of players in just a few minutes – it could be seen just how terrifying they were.

In fact, they even caused the boundless ocean of players to stop in its tracks – no one wanted to run up just to die. Now, no one was within 1,000 meters of the Six Paths Demon Images.

Su Yan and the leaders' expressions were incredibly ugly, and now, most of the players couldn't even get close enough to attack. They were unable to deal any damage to the Six Paths Demon Images, and the battle was on a completely different level.

Very quickly, they changed their tactics from rushing up to using long-range attacks. They ordered the players to take out bows to attack the Six Paths Demon Images.

Countless arrows tore through the air, giving off an incredibly sharp aura as they quickly flew towards the Six Paths Demon Images. However, the arrow rain was like toothpicks to the 1,000 meter tall Six Paths Demon Images, and before the arrows could even reach them, a formless energy blocked them from even hitting.

Su Yan felt quite exasperated, and he ordered the 200,000 Archers to take out their final Holy Light Crystal arrows and shoot them towards the Six Paths Demon Images.

The Holy Light Crystals dealt extremely great damage to Undead and evil creatures, but the cost was also great. With all of the support from the various factions, they had only been able to afford this many, and now, they hoped that this last wave of Holy Light Crystal arrows would be able to deal some damage to the Six Paths Demon Images.

The arrows turned into streaks of white light that gave off a powerful holy light aura as they shot towards the Six Paths Demon Images.

Looking at the countless streaks of white light, an expression of disdain appeared on the Asura Demon Image's face, and it stabbed forwards with its spear.

Boom!!

Another massive explosion sounded out as the air in front of it seemed to explode. A formless energy pierced forwards, annihilating the approaching white streaks of light. Moreover, this formless energy didn't weaken at all, and it smashed into the 200,000 Archers.

Bang!

The ground trembled as dust was sent billowing up, obscuring everyone's vision. After the dust settled, they saw a 10,000 meter wide, 100 meter deep crater filled with corpses. Around 80% of the 200,000 Archers had been killed.

This attack destroyed the last bit of hope that the players had, and all of them looked incredibly terrified. Even though they had so many people, in front of the Six Paths Demon Images, they were just like ants. They couldn't deal even a bit of damage.