

The Lord 671

Chapter 671: Path of Emperors

Above, there was a woman dressed in a golden palace dress sitting on a golden dragon chair. Even though she was nearly 40 years old, she looked as if she was only in her twenties. Her looks were incredibly beautiful, and she was tall and slim. The aura she gave off was incredibly domineering, majestic, forceful, and heroic.

After personally seeing the Eternal Female Emperor, he was slightly shaken by her aura. Very few women could have such an aura.

The sun had just risen, and it was roughly 7 AM. However, Wu Zetian was already reading through memorials to the Emperor. It could be seen just how ambitious and diligent she was.

Shangguan Wan'Er came up and paid her respects as she said, "Empress, this subordinate would like to recommend a person to you. He has something very important to tell you."

Wu Zetian's sharp gaze looked at Zhao Fu and Shangguan Wan'Er. Shangguan Wan'Er was the person she trusted the most, so she understood that it would definitely be about something important. She looked around, and all of the female attendants understood and left.

Following this, Shangguan Wan'Er also left the room and closed the door, leaving only Zhao Fu and Wu Zetian.

"What have you come to see me for?" Wu Zetian asked.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and said, "It's about Empress Wu seizing the throne. I wonder if Empress Wu is interested in this."

Hearing this, Wu Zetian's gaze became cold – this was something that she had been hiding all this time, and for Zhao Fu to say this so casually, a wave of killing intent appeared in her eyes.

“What else do you know?” Wu Zetian asked. If there was nothing else of worth, she would have him immediately dragged out and killed, and those around him would be killed as well. Once her plans were revealed, they would be done for.

Li Zhi had not died yet, so most people were still loyal to him. If she rebelled, she would most likely fail, and the only thing awaiting her would be death.

Zhao Fu smiled as he walked up and came before Wu Zetian. He raised Wu Zetian’s chin, but his hand was swatted away. Wu Zetian coldly glared at Zhao Fu and said, “Do you want to die, slave? Do you don’t think I’ll have your hands cut off?”

“Haha!” Zhao Fu laughed before suddenly pouncing on Wu Zetian. Wu Zetian did not seem very flustered, but she had never thought that Zhao Fu would be so daring.

Just as she was about to call in her guards, her mouth was blocked by Zhao Fu’s, and the Six Desires Demonic Qi rushed into her mouth. The Six Desires Demonic Qi was a very effective aphrodisiac, and after breathing it in, Wu Zetian’s eyes became filled with desire, and her tongue wrapped around Zhao Fu’s.

Zhao Fu started to take off Wu Zetian’s clothes, and after much entangling, Wu Zetian powerlessly lay on Zhao Fu’s body, “You know who I am, and yet you dare to have this sort of relationship with me? What gall!”

Hearing her words, Zhao Fu couldn’t help but smile. He found that Wu Zetian’s sex drive was ten or so times that of an ordinary woman, and an ordinary person would not be able to deal with her at all.

Seeing that Zhao Fu did not seem to care, Wu Zetian angrily whacked Zhao Fu and asked, “How did you know I was going to seize the throne? If your performance is good, I’ll take you as a pet!”

“Hahaha!” Zhao Fu couldn’t help but laugh and told her his true aim, “I came to be Emperor, as well as for you to call me Master.”

Wu Zetian’s expression became cold, and she gave off killing intent as she looked at Zhao Fu and said, “I’ve been planning for too long, and I haven’t been Emperor. And yet, you want to be Emperor. Do you know what a big joke that is?”

Facing Wu Zetian's killing intent, Zhao Fu did not mind at all and rubbed her large breasts before sending more Six Desires Demonic Qi into her body.

“You are all just things from the Trial Space to test me. It's because the Trial Space knows I hate the Li family, so they placed me in the Great Tang Dynasty. Now, I've come to take what is mine.”

Zhao Fu's smile was quite domineering – he had long since seen through everything.

It was impossible for Zhao Fu to have really traveled through time to the Great Tang Dynasty. Wu Zetian, Shangguan Wan'Er, Li Zhi, the eunuchs, and the palace maids were all fake, even though they may have been just like the actual people in history. They were all people made from energy, and after the trial ended, all of them would disappear.

Wu Zetian's face was incredibly red after being messed about with by Zhao Fu, and she gasped as she cried out, “Master!”

However, after a while, Wu Zetian's body suddenly flashed with rainbow-colored light, and her eyes became clear again. Her gaze was again as sharp as a knife, and she said coldly, “Zhao Fu, do you really think things are like that?”

Zhao Fu was given a big fright, and his body stiffened – he had never thought that Wu Zetian would call him by his actual name, and her words seemed to contain another meaning. Could it be that she was not someone created using energy?

“Great Qin's Legatee, do you now understand how important power is now? Do you understand why I was so desperate for power? Everything that you experienced, I also experienced before,” Wu Zetian said as she coldly looked at Zhao Fu.

Both people were currently naked as they embraced, but the words Wu Zetian spoke made the atmosphere quite awkward.

Zhao Fu's smile froze, and he had no idea what to say because things were completely different than what he had expected.

“How is my Legatee, Wu Qingniang?” Wu Zetian suddenly asked, making Zhao Fu feel incredibly shocked.

Zhao Fu gulped as he asked, “You’re the real Wu Zetian?”

Wu Zetian coldly harrumphed, “What do you think?”

Zhao Fu was completely dumbfounded, and he had no idea what was happening. He replied, “Wu Qingniang’s developing quite well, and she is fairly strong among all of the Legatees.”

Hearing Zhao Fu’s reply, a trace of a smile appeared on Wu Zetian’s cold face. She then looked at Zhao Fu and lightly patted him as she blushed and said, “Hurry up and move!”

Zhao Fu and Wu Zetian were currently pressed against each other, and Zhao Fu finally reacted and looked at the blushing Wu Zetian.

Looking at her embarrassed face, the twisted thing in his heart seemed to calm down, and his mental state seemed to improve. He the path of Emperors he would walk in the future became clearer.

Looking at Zhao Fu deep in thought, Wu Zetian once again patted Zhao Fu, saying coyly, “Hurry!”

Zhao Fu came back to his senses and smiled at her before going at it again.

Afterward, Wu Zetian put on her clothes again, and looking at Zhao Fu putting on his clothes, she said, “I can help you complete this trial, but you have to treat my State of Zhou well in the future!”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu earnestly nodded.

Afterward, Zhao Fu left with the red-faced Shangguan Wan’Er. Looking at her, Zhao Fu wondered if she was the actual person from history as well.

Zhao Fu was not sure about this, but he only had one goal, which was to take the position of Emperor and complete this trial. Wu Zetian also started to make preparations for Zhao Fu.

Chapter 672: Great General

The second day, Zhao Fu once again went to the palace, where Wu Zetian gave him a Seventh-Ranked Petty Official position so that he could formally appear at the center of Great Tang's power. There was no hurry, as seizing the throne would take quite some time.

After returning to the palace that she rested in, Wu Zetian had all of the palace maids leave and summoned Zhao Fu in. When Zhao Fu walked in, he found a graceful and heroic-looking woman with tanned skin next to Wu Zetian.

Zhao Fu walked in and paid his respects, saying, "I humbly greet the Empress!"

Seeing this, Wu Zetian lightly laughed and said, "There are no outsiders here, so you don't have to make appearances. This is my daughter, Princess Taiping. Her name is Li Lingyue, and she is now your woman!"

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised – this woman in front of him was the famed Princess Taiping. Zhao Fu felt that it was quite unnecessary for Wu Zetian to give her daughter to him.

Li Lingyue stood beside Wu Zetian and looked at Zhao Fu. When her mother suddenly said that she was choosing a man for her, she had felt quite surprised and had not been too happy. After all, she was going to be married to someone she had never met before.

However, as someone in the imperial family, she had no control over something like this. Li Lingyue could understand her mother's secret intentions, or else she would not marry her to him.

Wu Zetian could tell what Zhao Fu was thinking, and she looked at him as she said, "You'll know why in the future. Hurry and accept. Don't make my daughter feel awkward!"

Hearing this, Zhao Fu lightly laughed. Even though he did not know what Wu Zetian's goal was, Zhao Fu still walked up. Looking at the heroic and beautiful Li Lingyue, he hugged her and brought her towards a bed by the side.

Li Lingyue had never thought that things would happen so quickly, and seeing Zhao Fu's handsome and slightly devilish-looking face, Li Lingyue's face went red as she said in a small voice, "Please be gentle!"

Zhao Fu nodded and placed her on the bed before lying down on her body and kissing her lips. In front of Wu Zetian, Li Lingyue held herself back, but after seeing her mother entangle with that man, she no longer restricted herself and sank in the pleasure.

Because it was Li Lingyue's first time and they had gone on for so long, she fell into a deep sleep afterward as she lay on Zhao Fu's left side. On Zhao Fu's right side, Wu Zetian powerlessly lay on his chest and told him about her plan, and she told him what he needed to be aware of.

Half a month later, Li Zhi's illness became critical, and Wu Zetian began her plan. In order to seize the throne, she had to first gain the important powers, and the central one was the military. With military power, one would have speaking rights, and without military power, becoming Emperor would just be a dream.

By now, Zhao Fu had been promoted into a First-Ranked Great General, and he controlled 70% of Great Tang's military. His position had advanced incredibly quickly to the point that it was shocking.

Next, they had to force to death those who were still loyal to Li Zhi. Those who had made great contributions with Li Shimin had mostly died of old age, but there were still a few like Zhangsun Wuji and Chu Suiliang, who held a lot of power.

As such, they had to die. Even though they were loyal, they were loyal only to Great Tang and not to Zhao Fu and Wu Zetian. Letting them go would be like letting a tiger back to its mountain, giving them the opportunity to come back and kill them. When it came to such things, they could not be weak or merciful.

Some of the important Ministers were accused of treason and conspiracy, and they were executed. Some people related to them were sent to penal servitude at the borders. At the same time, they also promoted some people to maintain popular support.

Everyone in Great Tang could feel some dark undercurrents, and some intelligent people started to choose sides.

Zhao Fu was, without a doubt, the most important person by Wu Zetian's side, and countless Ministers came to give him gifts. Of course, Zhao Fu did not reject any of them and accepted them all. After all, they needed support to seize the throne.

As Li Zhi's illness worsened, the entire Great Tang was sent into unrest. Zhao Fu also gathered his military power so as to prevent any chance of a rebellion.

Another week later, a shocking piece of news passed through Great Tang: Li Zhi had died, and the entirety of Great Tang sank into mourning.

Right now, no one dared to suggest for the Crown Prince to ascend to the throne. Such people were already either dead or sent to penal servitude at the borders. Everyone decided to see what sort of decision Wu Zetian would make, while she currently had not made any decisions.

This was because Li Zhi had just died, and if they did anything, they could lose popular support. As such, they had to wait for an opportunity for Zhao Fu to ascend to the throne.

Zhao Fu understood this, so he was not in a hurry. He sat in a room and looked through the military reports sent to him. If he suspected any rebellions, he would immediately quash them.

Moreover, the eunuchs and guards, who had beaten Zhao Fu before, were all casually killed at his command. In actuality, Zhao Fu wanted to thank them, as they made Zhao Fu understand the importance of power.

"Sir, the Empress wanted us to bring these people to you," a palace maid said from outside, and Zhao Fu allowed them to enter.

After the door opened, a few women walked in.

The first woman was roughly 30 years old, and she looked quite beautiful. Her figure was quite mature and alluring, and her skin was as white as snow. She was an incredibly beautiful middle-aged woman.

The second was 16 or 17 years old and had decent looks, as well as an elegant figure. She wore a white dress and gave off airs like a celestial.

The third was around 15 or 16 years old, and she looked quite pretty as well. Her figure was slim, and she wore a purple dress, giving off a noble aura.

The fourth was around 14 or 15 years old and extremely beautiful. Her figure was quite slim, and her skin was as smooth as jade. She seemed to be the crafty and unruly type, and her looks were not inferior to Wu Zetian's at all. However, her aura was lacking.

The fifth was also around 15 years old, and she looked quite sweet. Her figure was also slim, and she had snow-white skin, making her look quite touching.

The sixth was a girl around 14 or 15 years old, and her looks were also extremely beautiful. She had an elegant figure, as well as a pair of large breasts. Her eyes seemed quite watery, and she seemed to be a weak beauty who could bring down nations.

Zhao Fu could not help but smile – Wu Zetian had said that she had prepared a small present for him, and he had never thought that it would be them.

The first was the famous Empress Wei, named Wei Xiang'Er, who was Li Xian's Empress. The second was her daughter, Princess Yongtai, named Li Xianhui. The third was Princess Changning, named Li Rushi. The fourth was Princess Anle, named Li Guo'Er. The fifth was Princess Yongshou, named Li Tian'Er.

The final one was the renowned Yang Yuhuan, the future Consort Yang.

Zhao Fu had told Wu Zetian about the things that had happened later in history. After Wu Zetian had died, Li Xian had ascended to the throne. Li Xian was Wu Zetian's third son, and he was the fourth Emperor of the Tang Dynasty. He had suddenly died of illness, and the Empress – Wei Xiang'Er – had wanted to take control like Wu Zetian.

It was said that Wei Xiang'Er and Wu Sansi had a secret relationship, and they had helped Princess Anle, Li Guo'Er, to poison Li Xian. However, those were only rumors.

Not long after Wei Xiang'Er took control, she was defeated by Li Longji and Princess Taiping and then killed. Li Longji and Princess Taiping engaged in a struggle for power, after which Li Longji emerged victorious, becoming the fifth Emperor of the Tang Dynasty, bringing the Tang Dynasty to its peak as Tang Xuanzong.

Chapter 673: Ascending to the Throne

Tang Xuanzong greatly loved Consort Yang, but because of her favor to Li Linfu and Yang Guozhong, who were treacherous court officials, her love led to the An-Shi Rebellion, which lasted eight years, causing the powerful Tang Dynasty to go into decline.

In the year 907, Zhu Wen forced Emperor Li Zhu to abdicate, and he seized the throne, establishing Later Liang. The Tang Dynasty perished, lasting for 290 years.

After the Tang Dynasty was destroyed, another period of great division arrived, which was the Five Dynasties and Ten Kingdoms period, and it continued for 60 or so years before the Song Dynasty finally unified them.

After hearing about this history, Wu Zetian felt quite complicated. After hearing about this, she had wanted to kill Wei Xiang'Er and her daughters, as well as Yang Yuhuan, who had brought the downfall of this empire.

However, when she thought about Zhao Fu and Later Zhou, Wu Zetian decided to give them to Zhao Fu as gifts. Even though they were her daughter-in-law and granddaughters, since they would do such things, Wu Zetian decided not to keep them by her side.

This was especially since she knew that Wei Xiang'Er was most likely going to commit adultery with someone else, not only cuckolding her son but poisoning him as well.

Zhao Fu looked at Yang Yuhuan and Li Guo'Er. Both of them were exceptionally beautiful. Yang Yuhuan was the future Consort Yang, and even though she had not fully matured yet, she was already a devastating beauty. On the other hand, Li Guo'Er was definitely the most beautiful woman in the Tang Dynasty.

Li Guo'Er's fame was not inferior to Wu Zetian's and Yang Yuhuan's. Wu Zetian would become emperor while Yang Yuhuan would cause the demise of the Tang Dynasty, but Li Guo'Er's looks were not inferior to theirs. However, she had a trace of unruliness to her.

"General Zhao, please ask Empress Wu to show leniency to us. We don't know what we did to anger her, but we heard that she wanted to kill us. General Zhao, please save us," Wei Xiang'Er begged pitifully.

Zhao Fu sat on his chair and gave a trace of a smile. After Wu Zetian had them sent here, Zhao Fu guessed her intentions and motioned for Wei Xiang'Er to walk over.

Seeing the smile on Zhao Fu's lips, Wei Xiang'Er realized something. She suddenly gave a flirtatious smile, walked over, and sat on Zhao Fu's body. She wrapped her arms around Zhao Fu's neck and kissed him, stretching her tongue into his mouth.

After some passionate kissing, Wei Xiang'Er's face was red as she breathed raggedly and said, "General Zhao, you're so bad!"

Zhao Fu hugged Wei Xiang'Er and lightly laughed. He did not know if it was because she was from the Li family or because of his current mental state, but he did not refuse her and instead wanted to violate her. His hands moved to her large chest and started to move about.

Wei Xiang'Er was quite flirtatious and started to take off her clothes herself while motioning for her daughters to come over. Yang Yuhuan's face went red, and she chose to walk over as well.

After much tussling about, the younger girls had all fallen asleep, but Wei Xiang'Er powerlessly laid on Zhao Fu and said, "General Zhao, my daughters and I are all now yours; please take care of us!"

Wei Xiang'Er had seen what was happening to the Ministers loyal to the Tang Dynasty – Wu Zetian's actions had been incredibly vicious and merciless, so they could only entrust their lives to Zhao Fu.

At the same time, Wei Xiang'Er could not understand why her body had already fallen for this man. They had just met, so she could not actually have any feelings towards him, but her body and heart seemed to be controlled by something that made her always think about him, making her lose control.

Zhao Fu looked at Wei Xiang'Er in his arms, nodded, and agreed. He would mention this to Wu Zetian some other day. Zhao Fu then looked at the other girls and bitterly smiled. He suddenly found that he had become less resistant to beauties.

After a while, the situation had calmed down, and Wu Zetian made preparations for Zhao Fu to become Emperor.

Soon, an imperial edict announced that Great General Zhao Fu had ascended to the throne, and the new Dynasty would be called Great Qin. This shook the entire world, and no one thought that Zhao Fu, who had only appeared for two months, would become Emperor.

Zhao Fu did not mind this at all. He was currently wearing a dragon robe and wore the imperial crown as he stood on a tall platform and looked at the countless people kneeling below. He gave off the supreme aura of an Emperor, seeming like the sun, making countless people submit.

“System announcement! You have become the Emperor and completed this trial. You will be returned to the Heaven Awaken World!”

Zhao Fu wondered why, after completing this trial, there were no rewards – had this trial been for nothing?

Zhao Fu did not understand what was happening, and he felt quite confused as his body became hazy and disappeared.

After looking around at the familiar scene, Zhao Fu knew that he had returned to the Great Qin City. He let out a sigh – the trial had finally concluded. Just as Zhao Fu was about to leave and ask about what had happened after he entered the Trial Space, a rainbow-colored light appeared around him. Zhao Fu was quite startled and surprised to see all of the women he had had relations with him appear around him.

Wu Zetian gave a domineering smile and looked around her, while the other women all felt quite curious and wondered what had happened.

“You were all able to come to the Heaven Awaken World?” Zhao Fu asked as he looked at this scene in shock.

Wu Zetian looked quite pleased as she replied, “Of course! Otherwise, why would I give my daughter to you?”

Zhao Fu understood what had happened – Wu Zetian knew things that he didn’t. However, if this was the real Wu Zetian, she would have traveled forwards in time by 2,000 or so years. Ordinarily, the historical figures were within the legacies of their City Heart.

This was the first time a historical Emperor had appeared in the Heaven Awaken World. Zhao Fu felt quite shocked, and he had no idea how Wu Zetian had done this.

Zhao Fu remembered that after passing the trial, the system announcement only said that he would be returned to the Heaven Awaken World, nothing about them. He had no idea what was going on.

Wu Zetian walked over to Zhao Fu, and she smirked as she lifted up Zhao Fu's chin and said with a trace of flirtatiousness, "You didn't want me to come to the Heaven Awaken World? You don't want to be with me anymore?"

"Haha!" Zhao Fu couldn't help but laugh. He didn't understand what was happening, but since things had turned out like this, he did not mind too much.

He pushed Wu Zetian's hand away and said, "Let's go! I'll take you to see Great Qin!"

Zhao Fu brought the group of women around the Great Qin City, and they all looked at the Outlanders and fantasy-like things in awe.

Following this, Great Qin's people heard that Zhao Fu had completed the trial and returned, and they all hurried over.

Zhao Fu heard from them that it was already the sixth day of the Trial Festival, with one more day to go. What shocked Zhao Fu was that he was not within the eight Legatees.

Chapter 674: Human World

What was going on? Zhao Fu had never expected that he would not be among the eight Legatees. He almost couldn't believe this, and he went to the Exchange Stone Stele.

The names of the eight Legatees had all been displayed, and the eight eggs had all been taken away. Zhao Fu's heart sank, and he felt as if he had plunged into ice water. His entire body felt incredibly cold, and he stared at the names on the Exchange Stone Stele silently.

The eight Legatees would have the source energy of the world and would determine the fate of the human world in the future. If there were invasions from other worlds, their power would have a key effect, and they would become the saviors of the human world.

He had not obtained such an important position – could it be that he really was inferior to others? Or was there some sort of reason for this? Zhao Fu started to think about his two trials.

The first was the Corpse Soul Region – could it be that he had not killed enough Corpse Soldiers? Or did he have to clear out all of the villages? Or was there something hidden that he had not discovered?

In the second Great Tang Region, had he died too many times? Or had he missed something? Or was it because he had had relations with women? Or was it because he had not had enough relations with women? Or was it because of Wu Zetian? Did she know something?

When he thought of this, Zhao Fu turned to look at Wu Zetian, who was also scanning through the Exchange Stone Stele with interest, not noticing Zhao Fu's gaze.

After looking at her, Zhao Fu felt that it was not because of her. But just where had he gone wrong?

However, since he was not one of the eight Legatees, there was nothing he could do about it. He could only sigh and try to put this matter behind him.

Zhao Fu once again looked at the eight names – they would become the brightest stars in the human world and would protect the fate of the world.

The first was Arthur Pendragon's descendant, Tina Pendragon. After entering the Heaven Awaken World, this woman's performance had been exceptional. She had performed incredibly well in all of the events and could be said to be a legend. She was the most resplendent and famous woman in the west.

Many people could guess that she would be among the eight Legatees, and they were only surprised that she would be the top-ranked out of all of them. She had already taken away the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon egg.

The second was ancient Egypt's Akhenaten. He was also quite famous, and his name was also usually seen during events. Many people had also expected him to be one of the eight Legatees.

The fact that Akhenaten had placed second shocked many people. It was said that he not only controlled a Nation Armament but also Egypt's Clan Armament, and he had taken the Divine Sun Fire Bird.

The third was China's Si Ji. As the Legatee of China's first Dynasty, Si Ji was quite famous, especially within China. He had a close relationship with the Ancient Clans, and it was not too surprising that he was one of the eight Legatees.

It was just that many foreigners were quite surprised that he had placed third. They had thought that Si Ji did not have that strength, and the Chinese side felt quite disappointed, as they felt that China should have placed first. Si Ji had already claimed the Sovereign Emperor White Whale egg.

The fourth was Geoffrey, an American. Countless people were shocked that he would make it into the eight Legatees. After all, Americans had not performed very well in the Heaven Awaken World and had not done anything big, so everyone had underestimated them.

This time, they had completely shocked everyone. As a modern nation, America did not have any legacies, but Geoffrey had appeared as a member of the Vatican. He took the Nine Celestial Enchanting Deer egg.

The fifth was Babilon, the legatee of ancient Babylon. He had a Clan Armament but no Nation Armament. His identity was quite mysterious, as he had suddenly appeared. Otherwise, everyone would not even have known that he existed.

Ancient Babylon was one of the four Great Civilizations, but it had perished long before the other three. No one knew how much of it was left, and he had taken the Primal Chaos egg.

The sixth could be said to be an enemy of China, Russia's Legatee, Oleg. He was the one who had led a large number of Russian players to invade China last time.

After being forced back by China, he had become one of the eight Legatees, making everyone feel quite surprised.

Now that Oleg had become one of the eight Legatees, he had become even more arrogant and started to provoke China, saying all sorts of prideful things. He had taken the Fenrir egg.

The seventh was Masanori Hano, the Japanese girl who had performed well during the Divine Fish Festival. It was said that she had obtained the Shuten-Douji bloodline and looked incredibly bewitching. She was loved by countless Japanese people, and many people were shocked to find that she was one of the eight Legatees.

For a small country like Japan to produce a Legatee, countless people felt admiration and envy. The Japanese people knew how terrifying her power was. Now, she had taken the Yamata no Orochi, which was quite a coincidence, as the Yamata no Orochi was from a Japanese legend.

The eighth was Ramis from the Inca Empire. The Inca Empire was the first Southern American country, and Ramis was extremely famous there but not anywhere else. The Inca Empire was relatively weak compared to other countries.

After hearing about Ramis being one of the eight Legatees, everyone felt that South America did not have anyone strong, but they had to have a Legatee from there as it was a major continent. That was why he had been chosen. He had already taken the Garuda egg.

In actuality, if Shama hadn't lost to Zhao Fu and had his Nation Armament and Clan Armament taken away, he definitely would have been one of the eight Legatees.

This was because India was one of the four Great Civilizations, and the Maurya Dynasty was one of the most powerful Dynasties. Shama had a Nation Armament and Clan Armament, and it was almost impossible for someone like him not to be one of the eight Legatees.

It was a pity that Shama had been defeated by Great Qin, making countless Indian people feel grieved. If they had known this would happen, they would not have invaded China and would have peacefully waited for this day. With a Legatee protecting them, their nation would have been much safer.

After looking through the information in the Exchange Stone Stele, Zhao Fu felt quite complicated. He had thought that he would be number 1 and be able to take the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon. He knew the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon's power, so he wanted an egg with that bloodline.

However, reality was cruel, and he had been too confident. Not only had he not been able to take first place, but he had not been able to enter the top eight, making him feel quite sad.

As such, he felt some admiration towards Tina Pendragon, who had obtained the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon egg.

Zhao Fu looked down and looked at his Earth Realm Mark. He didn't know how to feel – it had helped him during the trials, but it could not help him become a Legatee.

There was still one final day, and he had no idea what would happen. Countless people were shocked that Great Qin's Legatee had not made it into the eight Legatees and started to discuss this.

Chapter 675: Forbidden Technique

Great Qin's Legatee was someone who the entire world had expected to be one of the eight Legatees, and they had all expected him to be the top-ranked out of all of them. However, he had not even made it into the eight Legatees, making countless people feel quite shocked.

With Great Qin's strength, even without doing a trial, Great Qin's Legatee should definitely be a Legatee, but he had missed out. Even though no one could believe it, this was reality.

Countless people wondered what had happened to Great Qin. Could it be that something big had happened? Or was it something else? How could things be like this?

The Chinese factions felt quite disappointed. If China could have two people in the eight Legatees, their position as the number one country would be unshakeable. The Ancient Clans, governmental faction, Hundred Schools of Thought, and various other sects and factions had all thought that Great Qin's Legatee would be the top-ranked out of the eight Legatees.

However, they had been disappointed, and many people who hated Great Qin started to mock Great Qin's Legatee.

“Great Qin's Legatee is usually bloodthirsty, ruthless, and lascivious. Choosing such a virtueless person as a Legatee is a great pity for the world!”

“That's right, that's right; the one I hate most is Great Qin. What are you always showing off for? You're not even one of those eight Legatees. What a joke!”

“Luckily, I could tell early on that Great Qin wasn’t all that great and didn’t join them. The Great Xia Dynasty is the mightiest, and it obtained the number three position!”

“Fudge! Number three is nothing; China should have been number one. The number one and number two spots were all taken by others; Great Qin really is trash. It’s just a piece of garbage that can’t bring any glory to our nation!”

Of course, the ones happiest about Great Qin’s Legatee not being one of the eight Legatees were the foreign nations. If China became too powerful, what chance would they have? The thing that they liked seeing the most was China underperforming.

The smaller nations around China mocked it as much as possible. Because of what had happened to India, they did not dare to directly mock Great Qin, as they were afraid of revenge, so they mocked China indirectly.

“You claim to be the Celestial Empire, what a joke. Someone else is number one, and with Tina Pendragon leading us, we’ll definitely surpass you. Moreover, Egypt might even surpass you all. You’ll be forever number three; let’s see if you can continue calling yourselves the Celestial Empire!”

“What a joke! China’s only a bit strong because of Great Qin; if Great Qin wasn’t strong, you would all be useless. The oldest Dynasty in China only came third; China’s so weak.”

“That’s right! China’s filled with trash who only know to bully smaller nations. Go bully some bigger nations; how about you go and attack the west? I bet you’re not willing. China’s completely useless and scared.”

Because of the enmity between them, the surrounding smaller nations mocked China intensely, while everyone else was a bit more restrained, though they were still feeling schadenfreude. However, they still made the appearance of expressing pity that no one from China had been able to take the top position.

Some of them even said some comforting words and seemed quite friendly. Some of the ordinary Chinese people thought that they really meant those words, and they started to praise those nations, saying that they were China’s friends.

Right now, the ones who were the happiest were the west. Tina Pendragon had obtained the top position, so she would lead the rest of the west to the peak of the world. Tina Pendragon's fame also reached the peak, and everyone in the west went crazy about her, calling her a goddess.

Tina Pendragon felt quite surprised about getting the top position, as she believed that Great Qin's Legatee should have obtained this position.

Even though she had never met Great Qin's Legatee before, she understood how terrifying Great Qin's Legatee was. Back when they had tried to seal the Chaos Imperial Star, they had all greatly suffered, and that pair of icy, blood-red eyes caused the entire world to sink into despair. Even now, Tina Pendragon could remember that incident clearly.

As such, she felt quite shocked that Great Qin's Legatee was not even one of the eight Legatees.

Egypt's Akhenaten also felt quite surprised. As one of the people who stood at the peak of the world, he did not believe that Great Qin's Legatee did not have the strength to become one of the eight Legatees.

Back at Great Qin, Zhao Fu felt quite disappointed. However, this was only the sixth day, and perhaps something would happen on the last day.

This festival was mainly for players, but because indigenous residents of the Heaven Awaken World were inside the Legacy Lands, they could also participate, but they could only receive the most basic prizes. Some Outlanders could not even enter the Trial Space.

Everyone had already completed their trials by the sixth day, and there was one more day of this festival until the human world would have its final festival.

Zhao Fu tried not to think about not becoming one of the eight Legatees. He had five million Trial Points, so he decided to exchange for a few useful items.

Following this, Zhao Fu decided to tell his subordinates about the Corpse Soul Equipment and the Corpse Soul Blood Lake. He had 500,000 sets of Corpse Soul Equipment, and he wanted to know how the effects of the Corpse Soul Blood Lake were.

Zhao Fu looked at Wu Zetian beside him and said, "I'll have people prepare a room for you. It might be a bit simple, and it won't be able to compare to the Great Tang Palace."

Hearing this, Wu Zetian lightly laughed and said, “That’s fine, but I want to walk around and take a look at this interesting world!”

Zhao Fu nodded and had people take her around Great Qin. As for the other women, Zhao Fu made some arrangements for them too.

Following this, Zhao Fu went to an empty region and prepared to set up the Corpse Soul Blood Lake. The Corpse Soul Blood Lake was actually a type of forbidden technique, which could convert living people into monsters. Those monsters belonged to the Death Race and were strengthened in various ways. They had resistances to many things, including Holy Light skills.

It was just that their intelligence was greatly lowered, so they would only be killing machines.

Zhao Fu started to set things up. He first ordered people to dig a 100 meter wide, 20-meter deep pit. They then needed Ghost Stones, which were stones that contained Yin Qi. They were not very rare, so Zhao Fu ordered people to buy some. They used Ghost Stones to create a circular lake.

Zhao Fu then ordered the Talisman Masters to carve runes on the Ghost Stones. Talisman Masters were quite important and used in all sorts of situations.

After engraving the runes, Zhao Fu took out a large gray crystal that gave off an eerie aura – this was the core material of the Corpse Soul Blood Lake, and only with this crystal could the Corpse Soul Blood Lake be created.

After placing the gray crystal at the bottom, the surrounding runes instantly came to life, and Zhao Fu started to throw in corpses. The information said that the best types of corpses were human and animal corpses; only then would the Corpse Soul Bloodline produced be more powerful.

Chapter 676: Final Trial

The corpses quickly melted into bloodied water without leaving behind any hairs or bones. Zhao Fu had about 1,000 corpses thrown into the lake, which gave off a pungent bloody smell.

Zhao Fu then threw in some Stage 1 and Stage 2 spirit grass. Now that Great Qin mainly used Stage 3 medicinal pills, Stage 1 and Stage 2 spirit kinds of grass weren't very useful. Afterward, Zhao Fu also threw in 1,000 energy crystals.

All of this was done per the instructions he had received from the Corpse Soul Blood Lake. The Corpse Soul Blood Lake was a forbidden technique, and creating new life was like something out of a science-fiction movie. The spirit grasses and energy stones would cause the created lives to become even more powerful.

The spirit grass and energy stones quickly fused into the bloody water, and the pungent smell became stronger. The bloody water roiled as if it was boiling.

Zhao Fu looked at the soldiers beside him and motioned at them, and they dragged ten people to the edge of the lake before pushing them in.

“Arghhhh...”

Pained howls sounded out, and those people seemed to have been dropped into a boiling pot. Their facial features were distorted in pain, after which their bodies slowly sank to the bottom of the lake. Their cries gradually died down but did not fully disappear.

Even at the bottom of the blood lake, they were still howling in pain, but because of the bloody water, their cries were quite faint.

Zhao Fu's expression did not change, and he stood beside the blood lake and quietly waited for the results.

Time gradually passed, and soon, it was night time. There were now torches around the blood lake to illuminate the surroundings, and at that time, there was finally a reaction from the blood lake.

Ten monsters that were four meters tall and had muscular bodies; gray skin; and ugly, savage faces rose up from the depths of the blood lake. Their eyes were closed, and they floated on top of the blood lake, not moving.

Zhao Fu waved his hand and shot out a black light, enlivening the blood lake's powers. The monsters above the blood lake suddenly opened their blood-red eyes and gave off bestial roars.

Zhao Fu ordered them to climb up before coming to their side.

The ten monsters gave off powerful auras and breathed raggedly like beasts. Even if they hated Great Qin previously, they were now completely subservient to Zhao Fu. However, Zhao Fu was a bit disappointed, as their strength was only about Stage 3.

Zhao Fu looked at the Corpse Soul Blood Lake's description carefully and ordered people to bring over a captive with Stage 1 Cultivation, and he had him thrown into the lake. Because there was only one person, the process was much faster.

A few hours later, a six-meter tall monster appeared. This monster had Stage 4 strength, and seeing it, Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile.

The Corpse Soul Blood Lake could convert 35 Stage 3 monsters and one Stage 4 monster per day. Calling them 'monsters' was not a good name, so Zhao Fu decided to name the Stage 3 monsters Corpse Soul Guards and the Stage 4 monsters Corpse Soul Commanders.

The Corpse Soul Blood Lake could not create even more powerful monsters, but creating 35 Stage 3 Corpse Soul Guards and 1 Stage 4 Corpse Soul Commander per day was already quite good. Currently, Great Qin did not have many people breaking through to Stage 3 every day.

Moreover, with their strength, ordinary Stage 3 soldiers were unable to deal with the Corpse Soul Guards. With their powerful and massive bodies, if they wore Great Qin's Talisman Armor and used heavy weapons, they would be simply monstrous.

Zhao Fu smiled and left in satisfaction, and he handed the management of the Corpse Soul Blood Lake to his subordinates.

Following this, Zhao Fu went to the Trees of Life and Ginseng Trees. He took out a small bottle and dripped out some violet liquid onto them.

This was Growth Liquid, which Zhao Fu had bought using his Trial Points, and it was extremely expensive. Most of Zhao Fu's Trial Points had been spent on Growth Liquid. It could cause spirit plants to instantly grow ten years, but it was only usable once.

After using the Growth Liquid, the many small trees instantly grew to be ten or so meters tall, and their crowns were incredibly lush.

However, none of the Trees of Life or Ginseng Trees were useable yet. They had only grown by ten years, and they would need to grow by at least 30 years in order to be used.

Finally, Zhao Fu re-established the City Creation Stones that he had obtained from the Corpse Soul Trial Space. After taking them out of the Trial Space, they became unused City Creation Stones that could be immediately used.

After doing these things, it was nearly daybreak, and a bit of light started to show over the horizon. Zhao Fu had wanted to take a short rest, but at that moment, a system announcement sounded out.

“System announcement! The seventh day of the Trial Festival has arrived. The final trial will begin, and all ability users and espers with villages may participate.”

Zhao Fu did not understand what this final trial would be. After thinking about it, Zhao Fu called over Xianru and Gao Li. Both of them were ability users, and because they had their own cities, they should be able to participate in this final trial.

“Lord husband! I also want to go in to have a look,” Nü Lü said as she hugged Zhao Fu’s arm and looked at him expectantly.

Looking at Nü Lü, Zhao Fu smiled. As Nü Wa’s descendant, she had obtained many gains during the Trial Festival, and she was even more beautiful than before. Her aura was even more alluring, and Zhao Fu did not worry that she would not have the strength for this trial.

He had just re-established a Basic City and had not found a City Lord for it yet, so he decided to give it to Nü Lü and had her become a City Lord.

Zhao Fu was still not sure what the final trial would be, and he did not know if they would enter a Trial Space again or be together when they went in.

Looking at the three women in front of him, Zhao Fu asked, “Are you all ready?”

The three women nodded, and Zhao Fu found that there was an option to enter the Trial Space together, which he selected. A white light flashed, and their surroundings blurred before they came to a large space with many people and a lot of noise.

Seeing that the three women were still beside him, Zhao Fu let out a slight breath of relief. Because there were many people, Zhao Fu immediately put on his cloak. This space did not restrict spatial rings or other powers, only City Lord Seals, Nation Armaments, and Clan Armaments.

At the same time, the three women also put on a cloak. They were simply too beautiful, especially Nü Lü. As the number one person on the Ancient Beauty Rankings, many people would recognize her.

In order to avoid any troubles, all of them put on cloaks to hide their appearances.

They had no idea how big this space was, but there was already an ocean of people. There were people from all over the world, and they were most likely all people with villages.

At the center of the region, there was a flight of stairs that reached the sky. The stairs were incredibly big and passed through the clouds, and they gave off a majestic, boundless aura.

Chapter 677: Rainbow Orb

The final trial was to walk up these stairs. The higher one went, the better the rewards would be. No one had any idea what the rewards would be, but they could all guess that they would be quite valuable.

Each stair was 15 centimeters high and 100 meters wide, and there were already many people climbing up. However, their expressions were all distorted as if there was some sort of power preventing them from advancing.

Zhao Fu looked over and said, "Let's also go up!"

Xianru nodded, and Nü Lü smiled as she happily hugged Zhao Fu's arm. Looking at them, Gao Li felt the desire to do the same, but she was quite shy, so she could only follow behind Zhao Fu.

After stepping onto the first stone stair, Zhao Fu felt a very weak power weighing down on his body. To Zhao Fu, it was an incredibly weak power, but to normal people, they would feel an immense force.

Zhao Fu and the three women walked up 1,000 meters almost effortlessly.

There were now fewer people. The pressure weighing down on was now massive, and no ordinary people would endure it anymore.

A big and muscular man was covered with sweat, and he breathed raggedly as he yelled, "I can't do it anymore! This isn't something humans can endure. Ol' Zhang, how the hell are you able to keep going?"

An honest-looking middle-aged man breathed raggedly and said, "The higher you walk, the more benefits you'll receive. No matter how difficult it is, we should endure it; that way, minor figures like us will be able to have a chance. We can't compete with those genius-level people."

As he spoke, the middle-aged man pointed at a group of mysterious cloaked figures.

The four cloaked figures seemed to be fine and did not seem to be bearing any pressure, and they were walking easily. One of them was even intimately hugging the arm of one of the other people, making countless people around them incredibly shocked. Just how powerful were they? No one could compare to them.

Facing the countless people's gazes, Zhao Fu and the others did not mind them at all and continued onwards.

As they walked higher and higher, there were fewer and fewer people, and Xianru and Gao Li felt a trace of pressure. However, Nü Lü was still quite relaxed, and Zhao Fu was still completely fine.

After continuing onwards, Xianru and Gao Li both started to feel that it was quite difficult, while Nü Lü also felt some pressure. However, they were able to endure it and arrived at a large stage.

The stage was quite big, and it was ten or so kilometers wide. However, there were not many people there, less than 10,000 or so. This place was tens of thousands of meters high, and looking down, the people at the bottom seemed as tiny as ants.

The ones who could reach this stage were all the most powerful people in the world, and all of them were extremely mighty.

Because there were many people from different races and nationalities, there were different groups of people gathered together.

At the center of the stage, there was a gigantic rainbow orb floating in the air. There were many people standing below it, and they were mainly split into eight groups with the eight Legatees at the centers as if they were moons surrounding by stars.

Zhao Fu walked up but stayed at the outer boundaries, and he saw many people he was familiar with, such as Zhang Heng, Wu Qingniang, Liu Ye, and people from the Ancient Clans.

Almost all the people with great power and authority were gathered here, and most were gathered around the eight Legatees while a small minority were scattered about. Zhao Fu saw Wu Qingniang, but he could not go over or he might be exposed.

There were many men and women around her, and it seemed that her relations with other people were quite good.

Zhao Fu then looked at the eight Legatees, the future saviors of the world.

There were four people Zhao Fu took notice of the most. The first was Tina Pendragon – she had a peerlessly beautiful face, golden hair, and golden pupils. She wore a silver-white knight dress and had a golden sword at her waist. She gave off a powerful aura that made people want to respect her and submit to her.

This woman was undoubtedly his greatest opponent, and this was the first time that Zhao Fu had seen her before.

As such, his gaze lingered on her for a short while, and she seemed to detect this. She turned, looked at Zhao Fu in the distance, and gave a slight smile.

Zhao Fu nodded in response before looking at Akhenaten. Because of where he lived, his skin was quite tanned. He looked quite handsome, and he controlled both a Nation Armament and Clan Armament.

Si Ji was someone Zhao Fu was familiar with because he was also from China, so he only glanced at him and did not pay much attention to him.

The third person was America's Geoffrey. Before, America had been incredibly low-profile and had not done anything big, acting incredibly weak. However, it had suddenly exploded out and shown its strength.

Geoffrey had short, blonde hair, and he had a brilliant, sunny smile. His entire body seemed to give off light and warmth.

The fourth was Babilon, Babylon's Legatee. He wore traditional Saudi clothing, and his face was partially covered, making it difficult to see his face. However, it could be seen that his body was very tough and fit.

As the Legatee of one of the four Great Civilizations, Zhao Fu couldn't help but take notice of him, as Clan Armaments were far superior to Nation Armaments.

Zhao Fu also glanced at the other Legatees but did not take much notice of them. It was just that Masanori Hano, who was simply too bewitching and enchanting, causing Zhao Fu to stare for a bit longer.

Zhao Fu then looked at some of the others, mainly China's Dynasty Legatees. One of them was the Great Tang's Legatee, Li Baiqing.

This was the first time Zhao Fu had met him, and he was technically his half-brother. After coming out from the Trial Space, Zhao Fu no longer shunned his identity. He coldly smiled; everything from before would be resolved in the future.

"Lord husband, can I go over to the Ancient Clans? I haven't seen them in a long time and want to go and see them," Nü Lü asked in a small voice as she hugged Zhao Fu's arm.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu nodded. After bringing Nü Lü into the Heaven Awaken World for so long, she had not seen anyone from the Ancient Clans. It was only natural for her to miss them, so he agreed.

Nü Lü happily kissed Zhao Fu on the cheek before running over to some people and called out, “Big bro Niu! Lil sis Li! Fatty! Lil Xi!”

Four people had been talking to each other, and hearing this familiar voice, they all looked over. They had all been together since they were young, so they were very familiar with each other.

After hearing this voice and looking over, their bodies froze. Seeing this cloaked figure, they called out uncertainly, “Nü Lü?”

Nü Lü took off her hood, revealing her beautiful face, causing the four people to be incredibly delighted.

Chapter 678: I Don't Believe It

“Big sis Lü!” the only young woman out of the four people yelled first before happily jumping into Nü Lü's embrace.

Nü Lü also smiled and lightly hugged the young woman.

By now, everyone else had come back to their senses. Nü Lü's original body had entered the Heaven Awaken World, and she had become Great Qin's Legatee's concubine, so why had she suddenly appeared here? Everyone felt quite curious.

The eldest out of the four people, who was a muscular man Nü Lü referred to as ‘big bro Niu,’ asked in concern, “Lil Sis Lü, have you been well since you went to Great Qin? Has Great Qin's Legatee been bullying you? Also, why are you here?”

Nü Lü sweetly smiled as she said, “Mm, I've been quite well. You guys don't have to worry about me. Lord husband cares about me a lot, and I came with lord husband.”

“Lil sis Lü!” Before Nü Lü could finish speaking, she was cut off by someone. Hearing this familiar voice, Nü Lü’s body froze, and she turned to look at a handsome young man who was walking over with an expression that was extremely happy.

Xuanyuan Xiu had never expected that the woman he had been thinking about night and day to suddenly appear here. His eyes teared up, and he spread out his arms, wanting to hug her.

However, Nü Lü smiled but gently stopped him, making him stare in surprise. Nü Lü said, “Long time no see, Big bro Xuanyuan. I have a husband now, so please don’t be like this.”

Hearing her words, Xuanyuan Xiu’s heart started to ache, and he couldn’t help cry.

Seeing this, a trace of hurt appeared on Nü Lü’s face, and she said, “I’m really sorry, big bro Xuanyuan; I’ve let you down!”

Xuanyuan Xiu shook his head and said with a trace of hatred, “Lil sis Lü, it’s not your fault. It’s all Great Qin’s Legatee’s fault who stole you away; it’s all his fault.”

Seeing this, Nü Lü felt quite uncomfortable, and she said, “Big bro Xuan, it’s not lord husband’s fault; it was my choice. Also, please don’t talk about lord husband like that.”

Hearing the woman he loved calling someone else ‘lord husband,’ flames of fury erupted in Xuanyuan Xiu’s heart. He grabbed Nü Lü’s hand while saying, “Lil sis Lü, let’s leave and find a place where there’s no one. We can live there without caring about anything else; with how violent Great Qin’s Legatee is, I’m sure you’ve been bullied a lot! Leave with me!”

Seeing that Xuanyuan Xiu seemed to be going a bit mad, she felt quite bad but still struggled away from him and said sincerely, “Big bro Xuanyuan, lord husband treats me very well. Right now, both my body and heart belong to him – it’s over between us, so stop being like this!”

“I don’t believe it!”

Xuanyuan Xiu yelled madly, unable to accept that the woman he loved now loved someone else. As he yelled, he once again grabbed Nü Lü’s hand and tried to drag her away.

Seeing this, the others couldn't help but try to convince him, saying, "Xuanyuan, lil sis Lü has already made things clear, so don't make things difficult for her!"

"I don't believe that she likes another man; don't poke your noses in my business!" Xuanyuan Xiu was quite obsessed and yelled in a crazed manner.

His shouting drew the gazes of many people, and seeing who he was dragging, many people exclaimed, "She's Nü Lü! China's number one beauty!"

This drew even more gazes, and people saw that it was indeed Nü Lü. It was the first time that many people had seen Nü Lü, and after seeing her beauty, they were quite amazed. Moreover, they couldn't help but wonder why Great Qin's Legatee's concubine would be here.

"Let go of her!" a cold voice sounded out. Seeing that Zhao Fu had arrived, Nü Lü struggled out of Xuanyuan Xiu's grip and leaped into Zhao Fu's embrace. Her eyes were a bit wet as she said apologetically, "I'm sorry, lord husband!"

"What?" Nü Lü had leaped into that person's embrace and called him lord husband; was that Great Qin's Legatee? This caused almost all people present to look over.

Almost everyone, including the eight Legatees, as well as the various Legatees from other countries, heard this and couldn't help but look over.

Great Qin's Legatee's name was incredibly terrifying, and all of them were quite wary of him.

Everyone around Zhao Fu looked quite afraid, and they instinctively retreated. Suddenly, there was no one unrelated to Zhao Fu within the surrounding 100 meters.

The expressions of the four people from the Ancient Clans became quite serious as they looked at the cloaked figure Nü Lü was hugging. He was Great Qin's legendary Legatee, who was incredibly ruthless, bloodthirsty, and lascivious.

The raucous scene immediately became cold and fell silent.

"You're Great Qin's Legatee?" Xuanyuan Xiu asked with hatred in his eyes.

Zhao Fu looked down at Nü Lü, who was about to cry, and comforted her warmly, “It’s fine. I’m not angry.”

Nü Lü let out a breath of relief and happily nodded before smiling.

Zhao Fu looked over at Xuanyuan Xiu and nodded, affirming his identity as Great Qin’s Legatee.

Immediately, everyone around them gasped – he was Great Qin’s Legatee. At that moment, countless people came over. It was not just the eight Legatees but many other Legatees from various countries.

“I hope you’ll let off my lil sis Lü!” Xuanyuan stared at Zhao Fu as he gripped the Regulus Sword at his waist and spoke quite frankly.

Even if others feared Great Qin’s Legatee, he would not fear him at all.

Zhao Fu’s gaze became cold, and he looked at Xuanyuan Xiu as he replied, “She’s my woman; no one can take her away from me!”

“Don’t be angry, lord husband. I’ll take care of this.” Nü Lü could tell that Zhao Fu was becoming angry, so she hugged Zhao Fu and spoke with a pleading tone.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu felt a bit unwilling to continue and nodded.

Following this, Nü Lü’s gaze became cold as she looked at Xuanyuan Xiu and said, “Big bro Xuanyuan, if you continue this, I really will get angry. I’ll say it one more time: I have a husband now and I truly love him. I hope you can understand.”

Xuanyuan Xiu dumbly stared at Nü Lü. This was the first time he had seen her seem so angry before, and her words were incredibly resolute. He felt as if his heart had fallen into an icy pit, and he did not say anything else. His body gradually disappeared – he had most likely exited the Heaven Awaken World.

Many people from China felt that this was quite a pity. Xuanyuan Xiu was a descendent of the Xuanyuan Yellow Emperor, and he had immense potential. And yet, he had given up on this trial.

Nü Lü's eyes became wet, and she turned and leaped into Zhao Fu's embrace, tightly hugging him, saying, "Lord husband, I like you!"

Zhao Fu felt a trace of warmth within his heart and comfortingly stroked her back.

This matter was finally over, but countless people did not leave and continued to stare at the cloaked figure at the center. Wu Qingniang also stood at the side with a serious expression. This was the first time she had seen Great Qin's Legatee, and she understood that he was incredibly terrifying. She wondered just what had caused his appearance.

However, Wu Qingniang felt a bit confused, as Great Qin's Legatee felt somewhat familiar to her.

Chapter 679: Immense Power

The eight Legatees looked at Zhao Fu seriously. Tina Pendragon had already noticed him, but she had not expected him to be Great Qin's Legatee.

Tina Pendragon did not like Great Qin's Legatee very much, as his methods were quite cruel and abnormal, and he was incredibly lewd. He stole women from all over the place, and as a woman, Tina Pendragon felt quite disgusted.

Akhenaten's expression also became quite grim, because now that Great Qin's Legatee had appeared, this final trial would not be as simple, and he felt that it would be much more difficult.

Si Ji also stared at Zhao Fu. He was the Legatee of China's first Dynasty, and all of China should have been led by him to glory. However, all the fame and glory had been snatched by Zhao Fu, making Si Ji feel some jealousy. At the same time, he viewed Zhao Fu as his strongest opponent.

Everyone else's expressions were quite unsightly as well, and they all had their own thoughts. Because of Zhao Fu's sudden appearance, they all felt quite uncomfortable.

Some people decided to act, but at that moment, a system announcement sounded in everyone's minds.

“System announcement! The final trial is about to begin, please make preparations.”

This system announcement caused everyone to become serious and look away from Zhao Fu. They all deeply breathed in and out and collected themselves.

Boom!!

About a minute later, a gigantic explosion rang out in all directions, and the rainbow orb at the center gave off an even brighter light, causing a massive, formless energy to weigh down on everyone's bodies.

Everyone felt as if there was a boulder weighing down on their bodies, and they were unable to move at all. Their bodies were covered with sweat, and many people's legs started to tremble.

Right from the beginning, some people could not endure it. Their legs gave way and they fell to the ground, raggedly breathing. They were unable to stand up, and a formless energy moved them to the side, signaling that they had failed.

Zhao Fu looked at the people struggling and felt quite curious – he did not feel even a bit of pressure on him, so what was going on?

Boom!!

Ten minutes later, another explosion sounded out, causing the pressure to double.

Some of the State Legatees started to look quite pained, and beads of sweat rolled down their bodies, but the Dynasty Legatees still looked relatively at ease.

Zhao Fu looked at the three women beside him. They looked like they were struggling, but because he could not help them, they had to rely on themselves.

As time went on, more people could not endure it anymore, and their bodies collapsed to the ground as they panted for air. They were unable to stand anymore and were pushed by the formless energy to the side.

They were left closer to the center than the first group of people who had collapsed. It seemed that the longer one endured for, the better the rewards would be. Many people noticed this, so they became even more determined.

Boom!!

Half an hour later, an even bigger explosion rang out. The rainbow orb gave off an even more intense light, and the pressure became four times as intense, weighing down on everyone like it was corporeal.

Some people immediately collapsed to the ground and were pushed to the outside. They were closer than the second group of people who had collapsed. Some people immediately stood back up and were able to continue on with the trial.

In order to pass the trial, countless people gritted their teeth and used all of their strength to endure. Zhao Fu looked at how much everyone around him was suffering, but he did not feel even a bit of pressure. Just what was going on?

By now, Nü Lü, Xianru and Gao Li were all under immense pressure. They were also gritting their teeth as they endured. Beads of sweat rolled down their bodies, which continuously trembled.

“How are you all doing? If you can’t endure, just let it go!” Zhao Fu said caringly.

Nü Lü squeezed out a smile and said, “Lord husband, I can still endure for a while longer. Don’t worry about me!”

Xianru also smiled with difficulty and said, “Your Majesty, I can also endure for a bit longer!”

Gao Li was breathing somewhat raggedly and her legs were starting to shake, but looking at the two other women, she deeply breathed in and continued to endure, saying, “Your Majesty, I can also go on!”

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and nodded. The longer they could endure, the better the rewards they would receive.

Boom!!

A massive explosion once again sounded out, and an even more intense power weighed down on everyone's bodies like a mountain. Some State Legatees were unable to endure, and they immediately fell to the ground.

Facing this immense pressure, even some of the Dynasty Legatees started to struggle and wondered if they could continue. Even the eight Legatees felt that they might not be able to continue.

However, Zhao Fu still could not feel any pressure, and by now, he was completely dumbfounded.

Gao Li's legs were fully shaking now, and she was panting heavily. It seemed that she would not be able to go on for much longer. Seeing this, Zhao Fu thought that since he was not enduring much pressure and did not even have to use his strength to withstand the pressure, he could give her some of his strength.

Streams of black aura rushed out of Zhao Fu's hand and entered Gao Li's body, and with that power, the pressure weighing down on Gao Li decreased, and it was not as difficult for her anymore.

Seeing that this was working, Zhao Fu smiled. However, he felt that there was something off with Gao Li: even though she was enduring, her face had become bright red, and her eyes were hazy, her body giving off an intoxicating aura.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu realized that what he had given her was the Six Desires Demonic Qi, and his expression became a bit awkward. He had forgotten that he was cultivating the Six Desires Celestial Art, which caused his Cultivation power to become Six Desires Demonic Qi. This power could not be rashly used, as it had an aphrodisiac effect.

After realizing his mistake, Zhao Fu immediately sent his King's Power into Gao Li's body to suppress the Six Desires Demonic Qi. Gao Li's expression was quite embarrassed as she looked at Zhao Fu.

Following this, Xianru could not hold on any longer, and Zhao Fu sent some of his King's Power into her body as well. Finally, even though Nü Lü was still holding on, Zhao Fu could not bear to watch her in agony, so he also gave her some of his King's Power.

With Zhao Fu's help, the three women were barely able to hold on.

This scene caused everyone else to feel quite shocked. None of them had thought that Zhao Fu would have such immense strength to be able to help three other people while remaining so unflustered. He did not seem to be enduring any pressure at all – just how powerful was Great Qin's Legatee?

Zhao Fu's appearance was a big blow to many people, including the eight Legatees. Their expressions fell because they all felt immense pressure. Just bearing the pressure alone was incredibly difficult, let alone help others.

Chapter 680: World Protector

Seeing how carefree Zhao Fu seemed, it was a big blow to others. All of them inwardly at how terrifying Great Qin's Legatee was – he was simply a monster. However, none of them knew that Zhao Fu was not enduring any pressure at all.

An hour later, the thousands of people had been reduced to only a few hundred. With Zhao Fu's help, the three women had been able to endure as well.

Even without Zhao Fu, Nü Lü would have been able to endure it, but it would have been quite difficult. As for Xianru and Gao Lia, they were completely reliant on Zhao Fu, and without him, they would not have been able to last for so long.

At that moment, the pressure disappeared, and everyone let out a sigh of relief. Some people disregarded their image and plopped down to the ground, breathing raggedly.

“Thank you, lord husband!” Nü Lü sweetly smiled as she hugged Zhao Fu's arm.

Xianru and Gao Li also expressed their thanks to Zhao Fu. Without Zhao Fu, they would not have been able to endure, and this was especially so for Gao Li. Back then, she had completely despaired.

Zhao Fu didn't mind much and smiled, and he had them rest for a bit as they waited for the next stage. The three women nodded and started to rest.

An hour later, the rainbow orb's light became a bit fainter, but the light it gave off became quite bewitching and seemed to contain an illusory effect. The next stage of the trial had arrived, which tested one's heart.

The sky was a deep blue color, and a very big, silvery moon hung in the sky, giving off cool moonlight. A slight breeze blew over the grassy plains, causing the grass to tremble. Tina Pendragon was dressed in a silver-white knight's dress and gripped a golden sword with both hands as she faced off against a sea of enemies by herself.

Akhenaten lay within a sealed sarcophagus with scorpions and all sorts of other insects crawling all over his body. They continuously tore at his body, causing him to painfully howl.

During the era of prehistoric beasts, it was incredibly difficult for humans to survive. Si Ji swore to create a safe haven for humanity and engaged in battle with many ferocious beasts.

In a place with a blood-red sky and black ground, Geoffrey's body gave off a golden light, making him look like a sun that illuminated this entire world. In the next moment, countless demons rushed towards him.

In a remote desert, the sun hung high in the sky, giving off blistering sunlight. There were no humans or animals, only Babilon walking by himself.

Oleg, a noble prince, appeared in a farmer's family and was the son of the farmer. Not only did he have to endure his father beating and cursing at him, but he was also looked down on by everyone else.

Masanori Hano appeared in Japan's Heian period, back when there were all sorts of ghosts and devils. After appearing, countless monsters started to attack her.

Ramis quickly ran within a forest, not daring to stop at all, because behind him was a tribe of cannibals chasing after him.

Every person's body was frozen in place, with rainbow lights shining in their eyes. All of them were going through different trials of the heart.

The three women by Zhao Fu's side were also going through similar trials. Nü Lü appeared in a world that was filled with all sorts of disasters and experienced all sorts of catastrophes. Xianru appeared in a five elements world, where there were all sorts of talisman monsters. Gao Li's trial was in the wilderness.

As time gradually passed, people started to fail, and they collapsed to the ground and were pushed to the side by the formless energy.

These people's faces were pale as if they had just experienced a massive battle. They still had not fully come back to their senses, and their bodies trembled as if they had been dropped into icy water.

Afterward, they realized that they had failed the trial, causing their expressions to dim. When they looked at the center, they couldn't help but feel quite shocked.

Everyone at the center stood there like wooden blocks, but there was someone walking around and looking quite bored. While everyone else was completely immersed in their trials, he was completely awake, and yet, he had not been pushed to the outside.

This meant that he had already passed the trial – this was simply too fast. Seeing someone else complete the trial so easily was a big blow to one's confidence.

They had failed the trial so quickly, while that person had completed the trial so quickly. It was extremely infuriating.

However, when they realized that the person was Great Qin's Legatee, how could they compare to him? Great Qin's Legatee's strength was legendary and could cause anyone to shiver.

Zhao Fu felt quite bored, but it was not because he had quickly passed the trial – rather, he had not even been given a trial. Looking at everyone else going through a trial, Zhao Fu could not understand what was happening – was there a problem somewhere? He had not even been given an opportunity to participate in a trial; this was quite hurtful.

Zhao Fu couldn't help but worry – the positions of the eight Legatees and the eight eggs already belonged to others. He had wanted to redeem himself in this final trial, but he was not even given a trial, which was quite infuriating.

At that moment, within the trial, Tina Pendragon unleashed a shocking sword light that killed the remainder of her enemies, causing her to wake up. She looked at the dazed people around her and did not pay them much mind, but then, she saw that Zhao Fu had long since woken up and was looking quite bored as he walked around.

Tina Pendragon felt quite dumbfounded and thought inwardly, “Great Qin’s Legatee is simply too powerful. He finished this trial a lot faster than me.”

Following this, Akhenaten weakly sighed as he woke up. The pain he had endured from countless insects biting him was not something that ordinary people could endure. Seeing that Tina Pendragon had already woken up, he felt quite disappointed – he had lost to her again.

However, Tina Pendragon motioned for Akhenaten to look at Zhao Fu. Following this, Akhenaten came to the same realization, and his expression became even dimmer.

Next, Si Ji loudly laughed as he woke up from his trial. Based on how well he did in the trial, he expected to place first or second, but after opening his eyes, he found that Tina Pendragon and Akhenaten had already woken up, causing his expression to darken.

Akhenaten also motioned for him to look over, and Si Ji turned to see Zhao Fu pacing around in boredom.

After seeing this, Si Ji felt even worse. Following this, many people started to wake up, while others failed. Gao Li and Xianru were part of the ones who had failed.

In the end, there were less than 50 people remaining. They were all elites of the elites, and they were the crème of the crop.

“System announcement! Please defeat the World Protector of the final trial!”

Everyone’s expressions changed, and they all felt quite nervous. They were about to face the most terrifying thing in this world – from the information they had received, the World Protector was incredibly terrifying and cruel and had shocking power.

As everyone anxiously waited for the World Protector, Zhao Fu felt quite confused as he looked at the Earth Realm Mark on his hand, and his body uncontrollably flew towards the rainbow orb.
